

Ed Bruce & Lynn Anderson Fools For Each Other

This DVD features two legends performing together on one stage at the Church Street Station in Orlando, Florida circa 1984. Like so many other artists, singer Ed Bruce got his start as a rockabilly act for Memphis' famed Sun Records before hitting the Top 10 with his monster hit "Mamas, Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up to Be Cowboys" and number 1 smash "You're the Best Break This Heart Ever Had." For Lynn Anderson, the combination of stunning looks, a powerful major label (Columbia) and the catchy Joe South song "Rose Garden" catapulted her to stardom in 1971. This is a stunning and rare combined performance of two of country's most beloved stars.
