

Singing Cowboys

This DVD features two of America's most cherished singing cowboys (Rex Allen Senior and Junior) live in concert at the Church Street Station Theatre in Orlando circa 1984. Rex Allen Senior, better-known as the Arizona Cowboy, starred in 19 movies between 1950 and 1954 and soon after had several hit singles and albums ("Tiny Bubbles" became a hit in '68). Rex Allen Junior followed in the footsteps of his father by moving to Nashville in the late '60s, then breaking into the country charts in 1973 and first entering the country Top Ten in 1977. On this DVD, Boxcar Willie also makes a guest appearance, playing a few songs and displaying his trademark lovable, good-natured hobo persona.
