

Desert Suns "Desert Suns"

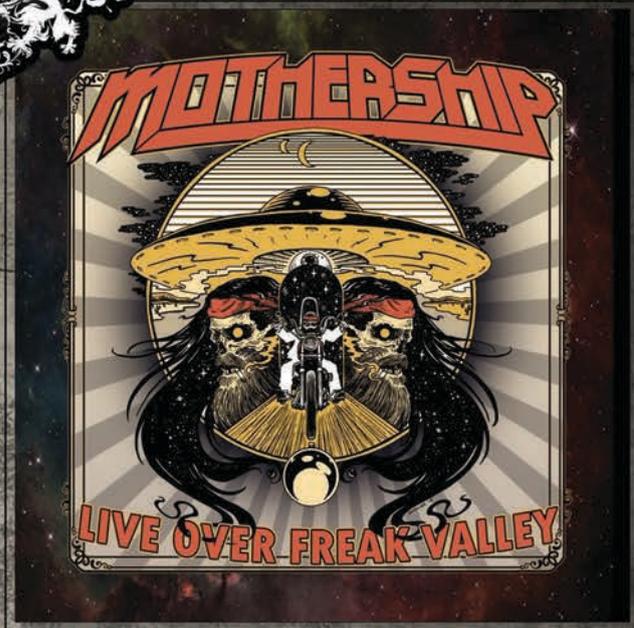

Storming immediately to the front of the stoner/doom heavy rock scene, San Diego's Desert Suns captivated the underground scene with their stellar self-titled LP. Shades of Black Sabbath collided with Led Zeppelin, deep heavy psychedelia, and classic rock to create a sound that was wholly familiar yet entirely new.

Press Quotes

"With old school flair and charisma this band from San Diego, CA., summons up a sun-drenched haze of doomy riffs, touches of prog and heavy desert groove." -- Heavy Planet

Mothership "Live Over Freak Valley"

Mixed & mastered by the legendary Wo Fat front man, Kent Stump, "Live Over Freak Valley" captures a band at the peak of their power. Live Over Freak Valley features the guitar bliss of Kelley Juett, one of the first true heavy rock guitar heroes of the 21st century, as well as the bass and vocal smoothness of big brother Kyle Juett & the thunderous back beat of Judge Smith.

Press Quotes

"I was expecting something good from Mothership but not an album as good as this. This is gonna further enhance Mothership's reputation as one of the best hard rock bands currently out there. A stunning album that may end up on a few best of album lists. That's how seriously that great it is. Whatever you do, buy this when it comes out." -- The Studgelord
