GORDON GILTRAP became a household name with his crossover and breakthrough enchanting hit (UK number 21-January 1978) "Heartsong" and over the past 40 years he has played his music in pretty much every kind of venue from the grandeur of Birmingham's Symphony Hall to small halls where he relishes the challenge of where audiences are "up close and intimate". In addition he is a Ivor Novello nominee and MIA Music Awards winner. RITCHIE BLACKMORE said "I Think that Gordon is one of the best acoustic guitar players in the world. He has always been ahead of his time"

Gordon has teamed up with keyboard player/producer PAUL WARD who has a sizeable number of music commissions under his belt including a Xmas animation with David Jason and a drama mini series starring Martin Kemp, to produce his new album.

"The Last Of England" is an innovative new album that crosses several styles from prog to folk rock to pop to classical in the unique style that Gordon has developed and honed over his career.
