

Frank Zappa - 200 Motels

An image of how "life on the road" was for rock bands 40 years ago, starring Frank Zappa.

Frank Zappa's "200 Motels" is a cult classic. The story, scattered with performances by Mothers of Invention and the Royal Symphony Orchestra, is a plotless tale of life on the road for touring musicians. Originally shot on video and restored here, "200 Motels" is a surrealistic nonstop visual extravaganza starring Frank Zappa and the Mothers, Ringo Starr and Who drummer Keith Moon. Reissued for 2014!
