MVD APRIL - LOVE AND MONEY!

April flowers at MVD with a lovely bouquet of titles-including a live set from DARLENE LOVE and a covers album from EDDIE MONEY!

After singing on such hits as "He's a Rebel," and "Christmas (Baby Please Come Home)," Rock and Roll Hall of Famer Darlene Love embarked on a solo career, when this LIVE 1982 CD and DVD was culled. Features Darlene's signature tunes, including '(Today) I Met the Boy I'm Gonna Marry,' and Springsteen's 'Hungry Heart.' Da Doo Run Run to your favorite store and pick up some Love! Money in the bank are tunes such as 'Roadhouse Blues," and 'Ticket To Ride," and the legendary EDDIE MONEY croons these and more on the CD counterpart to the Record Store Day vinyl THE COVERS. Other releases on CD this month that were Record Store Day vinyl exclusives are titles from MUDDY WATERS, SIR DOUGLAS QUINTET, ROMEO VOID, CHARLIE PARKER, and BOSSA NOVA AT CARNEGIE HALL.

We do love HUSKER DU, especially EARLY Husker Du, which is when the 2CD set TONITE LONGHORN was recorded. Recorded at three shows from 1979-80 at their hometown Minneapolis' Longhorn Bar, you are privy to the band's fury, creating BIG music in front of small crowds. Big in every way was blues icon HOWLIN' WOLF. Trapeze Records unleashes vinyl on HOWLIN' BLUES SELECTED A & B SIDES 1951-1962, the seminal years for the Wolf Man.

Arrow Video is slinging the love in a more twisted way in the 1999 horror film LOVERS LANE. A secret tryst on Valentines' Day 13 years ago. This hook up results in a double-slaying by a hook-handed homicidal maniac! By hook or by crook will the protagonists in the Bluray and 4K of POLICE STORY 3: SUPERCOP catch the Chinese drug czar. Stars Michelle Yeoh, winner at the 2022 Golden Globe awards and an iconic martial arts maven. Also fighting for your attention is HEART OF DRAGON, a 1985 Action/Adventure romp starring Jackie Chan and Sammo Hung.

And now for something completely different, but a premise that we LOVE. CALAMITY OF SNAKES Blu-ray and DVD. An apartment high rise is built over a snake pit. The tenants won't love what happens next!

Get hooked on April love and get value for your $$! No foolin'!

Tango's modern master, Astor Piazzolla, was a composer who revolutionised the music of his native Argentina. In the 1950s, he single-handedly invented "nuevo tango", a modernised version of the passionate dance rhythms born in the brothels of Buenos Aires during the 1880s.

Basie All Stars - Live At Fabrik Hamburg 1981 Vinyl

A great live recording on Vinyl & CD on Jazzline!

Already during Basie's lifetime, some of his most loyal followers formed the "All Stars". The alto-saxophonist Marshall Royal, Basie's eternal concertmaster, took the lead in this. (Marshall probably played the same role for Basie as Johnny Hodges did for Duke Ellington. He passed away in 1995).

New Grindcore project of Mick Kenney (Mistress) and Shane Embury (Lock Up, Napalm Death).

New Grindcore project of Mick Kenney (Mistress) and Shane Embury (Lock Up, Napalm Death). This album is such a disgusting angry beauty. Stirring, violent, bliss. Buzzard - Gambler Vinyl Overlooked Heavy/Speed Metal from Belgium from 1984.

Hailing from Menen, Belgium's BUZZARD initially began as early as 1979 when vocalist Hans Berten and drummer Dirk Vanhee decided to start a band. The band's first gig took place in February 1981. Gambler, BUZZARD's first - and sadly, only- album is a poignant snapshot of heavy metal in 1984. Gambler bursts and bristles with a youthful energy that's almost naïve, but endearingly and charmingly so.

Hellcrash - Demonic Assassinatiön Vinyl

The Italian bastards are back - the 2nd album builds upon their rawness and improves it with sparks of melody.

HELLCRASH are a power-trio in the tradition of domestic legends Bulldozer, brewing a similarly sleazy (and EVIL) style of speed metal. On first glance (especially THAT COVER), it seems that HELLCRASH are sticking to their guns, sowing the same seeds as earliest Slayer, Venom, and of course Bulldozer. Peer deeper and this latest expurse of sodomy shows that there's more to HELLCRASH's cauldron.

Ikarie - Arde Vinyl

Spanish doom/post-metal quintet Ikarie is back with their sophomore album Arde, two years after the acclaimed debut Cuerpos En Sombra.

Arde is about transformative rage. In this part of the trilogy that doesn't happen, although the denunciation and lamentation is maintained, it is no longer spoken of the land in that sense but of burning everything for a new beginning, from that fire, so deep and painful, which hanges the shape of things, like magma and the creation of stars, like a collision of planets, there is no way back.

Megaton Sword - Might & Power Vinyl

2nd album by the Swiss epic metal quintet. Even more varied and heavy than before.

NEW FROM RUFFNATION

Ultramagnetic MC's - Ced Gee X Kool Keith

Ced Gee & Kool Keith, both members of the legendary Ultramagnetic MC's, regroup for a new Ultramagnetic MC's record.

The resurgence of classic Hip hop moves strong into 2022 with new release from Ultramagnetic MC's "Kool Keith x Ced Gee."

Arising from the Boogie Down Bronx in the mid-'80s as a far-flung hip hop trio with a heap of new ideas to try out, Ultramagnetics Kool Keith, Ced Gee, and DJ Moe Love occupy something of a singular place in the old-school pantheon. Combining funk-heavy tracks with jeep-rocking beats and obscure lyrical references, Ultramagnetic MCs have a list of firsts to their credit: the first rap group to employ a sampler as an instrument, the first to feature extensive use of live instrumentation, the first to feature a former psychiatric patient (Kool Keith) on the mic. Early singles like "Something Else" and "Space Groove" were block-party staples and created waves in the underground, eventually landing the group on the disco-dominated Next Plateau label, where they released their underappreciated debut. The following years found the group shuffling from label to label, releasing albums on Mercury and Wild Pitch before splitting to pursue various projects. This special event will feature Kool Keith and Ced Gee performing classic Ultramagnetic MCs songs and sharing stories and history about the making of their iconoclastic catalogue.

Buzzard - Gambler CD

Overlooked Heavy/Speed Metal from Belgium from 1984.

Hailing from Menen, Belgium's BUZZARD initially began as early as 1979 when vocalist Hans Berten and drummer Dirk Vanhee decided to start a band. The band's first gig took place in February 1981. Gambler, BUZZARD's first - and sadly, only- album is a poignant snapshot of heavy metal in 1984. Gambler bursts and bristles with a youthful energy that's almost naïve, but endearingly and charmingly so.

The road between '20 Years' and 'MOSAIIK' is one comprised of purpose, circumstance and pure chance. When Cosmic Gate added 'Forward Ever Backward Never' to the title of their '20 Years' album, it was (says CG's Bossi) "as much an undertaking to our selves, as it was to the audience. We were essentially (he chuckles) 'reaffirming the vows' under which we formed Cosmic Gate".

Hellcrash - Demonic Assassinatiön CD

The Italian bastards are back - the 2nd album builds upon their rawness and improves it with sparks of melody.

HELLCRASH are a power-trio in the tradition of domestic legends Bulldozer, brewing a similarly sleazy (and EVIL) style of speed metal. On first glance (especially THAT COVER), it seems that HELLCRASH are sticking to their guns, sowing the same seeds as earliest Slayer, Venom, and of course Bulldozer. Peer deeper and this latest expurse of sodomy shows that there's more to HELLCRASH's cauldron.

Ikarie - Arde CD

Spanish doom/post-metal quintet Ikarie is back with their sophomore album Arde, two years after the acclaimed debut Cuerpos En Sombra.

Arde is about transformative rage. In this part of the trilogy that doesn't happen, although the denunciation and lamentation is maintained, it is no longer spoken of the land in that sense but of burning everything for a new beginning, from that fire, so deep and painful, which hanges the shape of things, like magma and the creation of stars, like a collision of planets, there is no way back.

Megaton Sword - Might & Power CD

2nd album by the Swiss epic metal quintet. Even more varied and heavy than before.

Megaton Sword's new album, Might & Power might seem on the surface a reiteration of their true-as-steel HEAVY METAL, and to a large degree, that's correct - MEGATON SWORD are still drunk on high fantasy and the enduring themes of conquest and valor, triumph and tragedy - but the deceptively expansive album sees the now-quintet stretching their sturdy sound in directions more dynamic and extreme.

EARLY HÜSKER DÜ RECORDED LIVE IN 1979-1980

A 2-disc set of rare, early Hüsker Dü live recordings, featuring original flyers and artwork. Drawn from the historical Hüsker Dü recording archives compiled by Terry Katzman, this double disc live set is an essential companion piece to the band's Savage Young Du Box Set. While the SYD release principally featured studio demos, the 28 tracks presented here are the aural and enchanting equivalent of a time machine that vividly thrusts the listener straight back to Husker Du's embryonic unsheathing on stage. Side A dates to July 1979. Side B gives us a full year's evolution to July 1980, while Sides C and D land the listener in September 1980. Perhaps 120 people in total saw these three Longhorn performances. Until now, a handful at most have heard the playbacks. So, rare and fresh, it's all here: the songs, the driven performances, the small club intimacy of being in front of select friends, fans, and peers, with one fair shot at getting it right. These four sides compellingly document that you can't doubt that they did.

Tangerine Dream - Catch Me If You Can

BSX Records presents the soundtrack release of CATCH ME IF YOU CAN, featuring music composed by Tangerine Dream (SORCERER, THIEF, RISKY BUSINESS).

BSX Records presents the soundtrack release of CATCH ME IF YOU CAN, featuring music composed by Tangerine Dream (SORCERER, THIEF, RISKY BUSINESS) for the 1989 action comedy written and directed by Stephen Sommers (DEEP RISING, THE MUMMY, VAN HELSING), starring Matt Lattanzi, Loryn Locklin, Grant Heslov, Billy Morrissette, Geoffrey Lewis and M. Emmet Walsh. Shot in writer / director Stephen Sommers' home town of St. Cloud, MN and released in 1989 CATCH ME IF YOU CAN follows the students of Cathedral High and their efforts to save their school from being shut down because of a lack of funding. If good girl Melissa (Locklin) can raise $200,000, the school board will match them for the rest. Melissa enlists Dylan (Lattanzi), the resident bad boy to help her meet her goal. Instead of serving out his detention, Dylan is sentenced to use his driving skills to help Melissa raise the money. The music for CATCH ME IF YOU CAN was composed by the pioneering German electronica band Tangerine Dream. Founded in 1967 by Edgar Froese, Tangerine Dream is a ground-breaking musical act that veered away from the influence of traditional Anglo-American rock/pop and instead relied upon hypnotic rhythms, sustained drones, musique concrète, tape-music looping techniques, and the proliferation of early synthesizers. Throughout their seven-decade existence (which continues to this day) the band has released over eighty-five studio, extended play, or mini albums, fifty-two motion picture scores, and a handful of episodic television or video game scores.

"Carol Kane" references fright flick When A Stranger Calls, "Walk The Earth" recalls zombies, shopping malls, and helicopters, "Larva" is a nod to Al Jourgenson's dancey thrash side projects, and "Oskar and Eli" recalls a coming of age vampire story.

Predating every other moving picture home format, these inauspicious productions provide not only a window to a whole other world, but also immediate relief for those not fortunate enough to make their fantasies into reality.

THE GREEK MYTH "LEDA AND THE SWAN" COMES TO LIFE AS A CONTEMPORARY FOLK HORROR TALE

Young newlywed Leda is haunted by strange visions in a hypnotic retelling of the Greek myth. An eerie journey into fantasy, Samuel Tressler IV's first feature film transports the ancient myth of "Leda and the Swan" to the dark forests and deep lakes that surround a mid-19th century mansion. Stunning imagery carries characters and the audience into a realm where dreams, nightmares and memories bleed together. Told without words and filmed almost exclusively in black-and-white, Leda invokes poetry and horror in its fable of birth, death and other-worldly desires.

Junk Head

In the future, humans try to escape global destruction by moving underground in this award winning stop-motion animated film by Takehide Hori.

Mankind can no longer reproduce because of gene manipulation aimed at making life longer. The clones ruling the bottomless underworld may have become fertile. Parton is selected to go on a mission through a subterranean labyrinth crawling with monsters to secure humanity's future.

PRESS

"It is such a consistently imaginative piece and not just in terms of character design but framing, editing, and the other elements needed to make a stop-motion feature work."
— Brian Tallerico, RogerEbert.com

"There is an undeniable dark maturity, stemming from the post-Apocalyptic undercurrent, and Junk Head's search for meaning. Yet there is also warmth and charm amid the grisly monster attacks."
—Richard Whittaker, Austin Chronicle

Film Hawk

A tribute to indie film consultant Bob Hawk, who gave filmmakers like Kevin Smith a leg up.

Robert ('Bob') Hawk has been a longtime advisor and mentor to writers, directors and film festivals, having been a part of the independent film scene for over thirty years. Starting with his involvement in documentary as a researcher on Rob Epstein's Oscar-winning 'The Times of Harvey Milk', Hawk has been credited with discovering and/or nurturing the talents of filmmakers such as Kevin Smith ('Clerks'), Joe Carnahan ('Blood, Guts, Bullets and Octane'), Ed Burns (The Brothers McMullen), David Siegel & Scott McGehee (The Deep End) and more.

FILM HAWK takes an intimate look at Bob Hawk, from his early years as a young gay child of a Methodist minister to the man who shepherded the careers of and selflessly championed filmmakers on some of the most influential independent films and filmmakers of our time, in this critically acclaimed feature documentary written and directed by JJ Garvine and Tai Parquet.

PRESS

"What's important here is Hawk's contribution, which was the result of love and passion for films and his desire and selfless efforts to shepherd work he cared about to a public that would appreciate them."
—Todd McCarthy, The Hollywood Reporter

"It is clear the influence that Hawk has had on many artists and people throughout his storied career; however perhaps more interestingly we get a peek at the more personal story of the man himself."
—Benjamin Gummery, Indie Mac User

Lowrider - Refractions (Cream/Magenta Color Merge Vinyl) Vinyl

Sweden's desert-rock luminaries deliver on their mythic status with a blistering album of fuzz-heavy stoner rock bliss!

New repressing of LOWRIDER's triumphant comeback LP! Before Monolord, Truckfighters and Graveyard, one band stood at the dawn of the Kyuss-inspired desert rock movement. With their seminal "Ode to Io" album, LOWRIDER spawned thousands of imitators, and they return at long last with undeniable album "Refractions" to deliver on their mythic status as progenitors of a worldwide phenomenon.

Thee Headcoats - Irregularis: The Great Hiatus

It's been 22 years since the last Headcoats album, but now Billy, Bruce, and Johnny return with a brand-new studio album

The undisputed kings of garage rock are back! It's been 22 years since the last Headcoats album, but now Billy, Bruce, and Johnny return with a brand-new studio album! Recorded last year at Ranscombe Studios in Rochester. Billy, Bruce, and Johnny kindly answered some pertinent questions... You got back together recently as Thee Headcoats Sect to make the 'Tribute to Don Craine' EP. What was it like working with each other again after all this time? BILLY: It was 'fab' and 'gear.' BRUCE: The weirdest thing for me was how weird it wasn't. It was like time compressed, but to the 'good old days', early on. I was wary that it 'wouldn't be like Thee Headcoats', but it was. JOHNNY: I'm with Bruce and Billy on that one. I think we were all surprised how it all just worked. If I remember correctly, we kicked off role playing like we detested each other. Then we got started and well, you can hear the result. You've also paid tribute to Don with a track on the Irregularis album - 'Oh Leader We Do Dig Thee'. He was, along with the other members of Downliners Sect, a big inspiration to Thee Headcoats. When did you first become aware of his music and what was he like to work with? BRUCE: We were given (or possibly lent) a reissue of the Sect's first LP around 1977, marketed as 'Punk From The Vaults', which certainly floated our boats and definitely popped our corks, due to the somewhat aggressive yet carefree nature of the tunes and sound in general. Ollie, our old bassist, found an ad in a trade magazine for them with a contact number for a Michael O'Donnell, which I excitedly called almost immediately. T'was none other than Don his'self and we managed to convince him into venturing down to Rochester to record some tunes with us which became the first Headcoat Sect EP. We were fairly starstruck and presented hm with a brand new 'dearstalker' (or 'Headcoat', as they were now known).
