SLOW RIDE ON A FAST TRACK!

Rock Icons FOGHAT had anything but a slow ride to the top of the 70s blues rock heap, their meteoric rise fueled by hits like Fool for The City, I Just Want to Make Love to You, and well, Slow Ride. On SLOW RIDE: LIVE IN CONCERT, Foghat are captured in a 1999 Texas show, significant in that it is one of original guitarist "Lonesome Dave" Peverett's last performances before his passing with the band he founded in 1971. The CD/DVD and bluray remind you of what a powerhouse band this was, and still is.

Slow Ride and the Groovin' Is Easy with ROGUE BLUES, the first CD in eight years from NICK GRAVENITES. Joined by Jefferson Starship alumni PETE SEARS. Gravenites pedigree includes stints with Janis Joplin, and Nick was the singer in the Electric Flag's classic "Groovin' Is Easy." Features a guest spot from Charlie Musselwhite.

Musicians who still have the blues over Chet Atkins death band together in WE STILL CAN'T SAY GOODBYE: A MUSICIANS' TRIBUTE TO CHET ATKINS. This CD/DVD along with multiple vinyl variants celebrates the life of Atkins. Paying homage are Vince Gill, Eric Clapton, James Taylor, Ricky Skaggs, Brad Paisley and more. Different dinosaurs walk the Earth with a new live LP from ear-splitting icons DINOSAUR JR., who release THE BLACK SESSION: LIVE IN PARIS 1993.

The vigilante known as BLACK MASS takes us into the heart of Kung Fu country in this two-disc limited edition bluray. Starring Jet Li, BLACK MASS is a Superhero spectacle! 'Spectacle' is in Arrow Video's DNA with elaborate limited-edition packages and 'standard' editions that are anything but. This month's limited titles include 1959s Film Noir THE SCARFACE MOB and 1957s Western THE TIN STAR. Come out and play with the 'standard' edition of THE WARRIORS, which includes a remaster of the theatrical cut. On 4K and bluray. Can You Dig It? Yes, you can!

Dig the action from 88 Films with their kick-ass collection of Asian Cinema. THE PROJECT A COLLECTION arrives this month, a 4-disc bluray collection of Jackie Chan as Coastguard, intent on splashing cold water on pirates, smugglers and corrupt police officers. Take a SLOW RIDE and splash around in our pool of April releases!

Eloy - Destination Vinyl

With the growing desire for earlier works by ELOY, the "German flagship of art and progressive rock", "Destination" (1992) is finally available again.

"Destination" is an album on which the band processed and mixed many different inspirations and stylistic elements. Although, bassist Klaus Peter Matziol picked up the bass for the band again for the first time during production, the material was mainly the result of a collaboration between Michael Gerlach and Frank Bornemann, and the result was a mixture of atmospheric but also very rocky sounds.

Chrysalis is genre-defying, ethereal electronic art-pop as dark and evocative as it is ethereal and uplifting. Ltd Ed. ### Trhä - Lhum'adsejja CD

Beautiful! Trhä exceeds expectations with every release. The songs have an intense emotional quality.

A furious and ravaging album, yet not devoid of melody at all. Ferocious but not devoid of grandeur. One of Trhä's most focused and complete releases in this particular style. The drums are especially prominent and help to unravel the guitar's devastating potential.

Trhä - ř'anawë Aglivajsamë Cá Nêlhjïha I Eddana Piřfe CD

While most of nowadays BM is boring, lacking spirit and soul, Trhä manages to capture so much feeling and nostalgia. Stunning again.

The build-up is immense while the subsequent payoff feels heavenly. I do think this is slight blend of the signature atmosphere of Trhä and the soul-touching melodies of Sadness. The structural side is strong as always and every song is a complete journey in itself. This album is such a varied and engaging effort that it is hard to believe 50 minutes have passed by the end of it.

The film considered too shocking for the world! Written, edited, produced and directed by Gualtiero Jacopetti and Franco Prosperi of MONDO CANE fame, this epic recreation of the American slave trade atrocities was both condemned as depraved exploitation and acclaimed as an unprecedented cry of Black anguish and rage. The Detroit Chronicle hailed it as “a graphic, moving, nerve-paralyzing film.” Legendary film critic Pauline Kael called it “the most specific and rabid incitement of the race war.” It became one of the most reviled and misunderstood films of its time. Five decades cannot diminish GOODBYE UNCLE TOM's impact or quiet its controversy as it has become even more relevant TODAY!

In 1971, distributors forced the filmmakers to completely re-cut the film and radically re-write its extreme narration, removing more than 13 minute of race-war politics and inserting alternate scenes – creating what would become an entirely different film – before it could be released. Now more than 50 years later, both versions of GOODBYE UNCLE TOM can finally be seen in brand-new restorations, scanned in 4K 16-bit from their original negatives, with Dolby Vision HDR & newly restored DTS-HD Master Audio, and packed with over 5 hours of Extras!

It wowed audiences at Locarno, Edinburgh and FrightFest, and won top prizes at Trieste and Sitges. It's been hailed as "magnetic" (Los Angeles Times), "masterful" (Indiewire) and "deeply disturbing" (Horror Cult Films). Now this "one-of-a-kind gem" (Cinemacy) can be discovered by genre fans everywhere: The year is 1941, and brilliant UK sisters Thomasina (Emma Appleton of THE KILLING KIND) and Martha (Stefanie Martini of PRIME SUSPECT 1973) have created a device that intercepts broadcasts from the future. Besides revealing the coming glories of rock & roll, the invention – which they call 'Lola' – also allows them to alter the course of World War II. But will their unmaking of history provoke a lifetime of shocking consequences? Rory Fleck Byrne (THIS IS GOING TO HURT) co-stars in the ingenious debut feature from director/co-writer Andrew Legge that Horror Buzz calls "a bracing sci-fi mind-bender that reminds you why you like movies."

DEATH NEVER RUNS OUT OF TIME.

The Cat And The Canary

Paul Leni directs one of the most influential films in the early history of genre cinema, which set the stage for the 1930s Universal horror cycle.

EUREKA ENTERTAINMENT PROUDLY PRESENTS "THE CAT AND THE CANARY" MAKING ITS HD DEBUT ON SPECIAL EDITION BLU-RAY!

Paul Leni (The Man Who Laughs) directs one of the most important and influential films in the early history of American genre cinema, which perfected the 'old dark house' formula and set the stage for the Universal horror cycle of the 1930s.

Twenty years after the death of millionaire Cyrus West, his surviving relatives are called together in a decaying mansion on the Hudson River. There, they gather to hear West's lawyer Roger Crosby (Tully Marshall) read his last will and testament and discover that West has left everything to his niece Annabelle (Laura La Plante). That is, at least, on the condition that she is judged to be legally sane. As the family settles in for the evening, tensions rise when they are informed that a murderer nicknamed the Cat has escaped from a nearby asylum and is suspected to be somewhere on the grounds. Crosby soon disappears in mysterious circumstances, which proves to be just the first in a series of horrifying events that will punctuate a long, dark night of terror - during which Annabelle's sanity will be called into question again and again.

Based upon the 1922 stage production by John Willard, The Cat and the Canary is a perfect blend of horror and black comedy and stands at the apex of a cycle of films adapted from mystery plays throughout the 1920s. It later inspired James Whale's The Old Dark House and has been remade several times - but never bettered. The Masters of Cinema series is proud to present this cornerstone of horror cinema for the first time ever on Blu-ray from a glorious 4K restoration.

Black Mask (2-Disc Limited Edition)

Jet Li stars in an action-packed superhero spectacle produced by the legendary Tsui Hark!

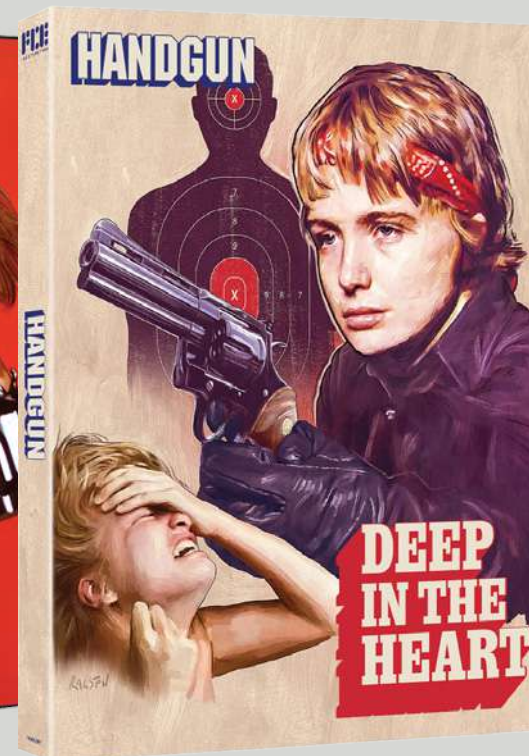

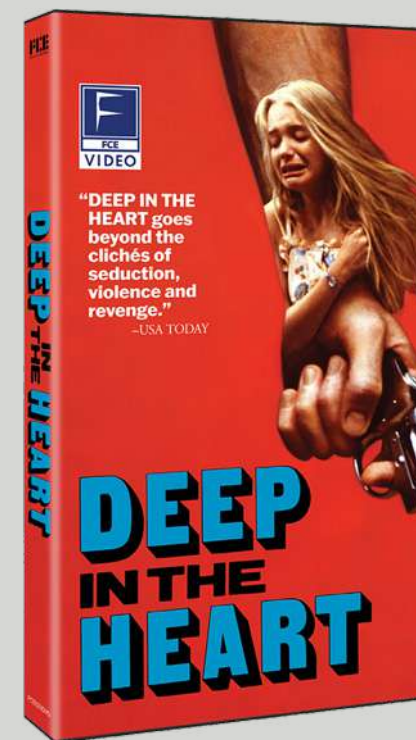

Tsui Chik (Li) is a librarian who leads a quiet, unassuming life - or, at least, that's what he wants people to believe. In truth, he was once a member of the 701 Squad, a group of elite combatants produced by a failed super-soldier project. In kind with his former comrades, his central nervous system has been altered to render him impervious to pain. When several of his fellow test subjects resurface and embark on a crimewave under the leadership of their former commander Hung Kuk (Patrick Lung), Tsui is forced to use his extraordinary abilities once more. Donning a costume, he sets out to face his past - as the vigilante known as the Black Mask.

Adapted from the manhua by Pang Chi-ming and Li Chi-tak and heavily influenced by Bruce Lee's turn as Kato in The Green Hornet, Black Mask is one of the most entertaining movies in Jet Li's filmography and boasts action orchestrated by Yuen Woo-ping, who would later win an Academy Award for his work on Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon. Eureka Classics is proud to present the film in its rarely seen uncut version on Blu-ray from a 2K restoration!

Kathleen Sullivan has been raped at gunpoint. Now she plans her revenge! Having left Boston to start a new job in Dallas, Kathleen Sullivan soon makes friends and begins to enjoy her new life. Larry Keeler is immediately attracted to Kathleen, but Kathleen makes it clear she would rather have a friend than a boyfriend. At the end of one date, Kathleen gives Larry a peck on the cheek and dashes into her apartment, leaving Larry confused and angry. On the next date, however, Larry is determined to get what he wants—at gunpoint. The tables start to turn when Kathleen joins a local gun club and buys her own gun. Now she becomes the hunter—on a vengeful mission. Producer, writer and director Tony Garnett (Prostitute) was fascinated and troubled by the proliferation and celebration of firearms in the United States. So, he traveled from his native England to Texas to make a dramatic film that would explore the widespread availability of guns there and the accompanying potential for deadly violence. The result was the hard-hitting Deep in the Heart (released in the U.K. as Handgun). Restored in 4K from its original 35mm camera negative for its worldwide Blu-ray premiere, the film boldly examines issues that continue to torment American society over forty years later.

Hardware Wars (Collector's Edition)

"Fluke Starbucker" must learn to master the power of "The Farce" in the very first "Star Wars" parody / fan film ever made!

THE RETURN OF THE ORIGINAL STAR WARS PARODY! YOU'LL LAUGH! YOU'LL CRY! YOU'LL KISS 20 BUCKS GOODBYE!

Fluke Starbucker (Scott Mathews) must learn to master the power of "The Farce" with help from Artie Deco, 4-Q-2 (Frank Robertson), Princess Anne-Droid (Cindy Furgatch), Ham Salad (Bob Knickerbocker), and the rest of the Red Eye Knights.

In 1978 writer / director Ernie Fosselius (former member of "The Mystic Knights of the Oingo Boingo") created the very first "Star Wars" parody, HARDWARE WARS. Complete with cardboard sets and visible wires (holding up ships which were various household appliances), the film was shot over four days with a budget of around $8,000. Now, nearly 50 years later, the original version of this classic short that George Lucas called his "favorite Star Wars parody" (in a 1999 interview on the UK's The Big Breakfast TV show) has been restored in High Definition for a whole new generation of cult movie fans to discover!
