SPRING INTO DARKNESS!

Spring may be around the corner, but MVD embraces The Darkness! WELCOME TO THE DARKNESS is an illuminating Blu-ray documentary about the British hard rock band's rise, implosion and long haul back to the light. A roller coaster of pitfalls, success and cringe-worthy moments on their quest for success. Talking heads like Ed Sheeran, Queen's Roger Taylor and Bryan Adams testify and shed light into The Darkness. WELCOME TO THE DARKNESS, from Lightbulb Films. Almost too perfect.

Segueing from Darkness to BLUE SUNSHINE, a three-disc 4K Sci-Fi thriller from Synapse Films. Residual effects from a drug called Blue Sunshine make users lose their hair and turn into violent killers a decade later. I have one of those two covered! Severin Films unleashes two more Russ Meyer movies on DVD, Blu-ray and eye-popping 4K. The two big ones this month are MOTORPSYCHO (Bikers on a murder spree squelched by a vet!) and RUSS MEYER'S UP, a co-write with Roger Ebert that is "jaw-droppingly perverse!"

What were once deluxe limited editions are here to stay, as Arrow Video releases unlimited versions of the 3-disc Blu-ray MEXICO TRILOGY, along with 4K renditions of DESPERADO and AMERICAN GIGOLO. And the INGLOURIOUS BASTERDS are back on 4K and Blu-ray. New titles from Arrow include THE LONG KISS GOODNIGHT, a two-disc Action film starring Geena Davis and Samuel L. Jackson, and V-CINEMA ESSENTIALS: BULLETS & BETRAYAL, a lavish Blu-ray package of 5 Japanese crime thrillers. Eureka! Lest we forget new titles from this rising studio. MABUSE LIVES is a 4-disc 6 Blu-ray collection of 6 German crime films, THE ADVENTURERS is Hong Kong cinema awash in espionage, and THE MAGNIFICENT CHANG CHEH, two films from Shaw Brothers director Chang Cheh that'll put Ca-Ching in your Asian Action collection!

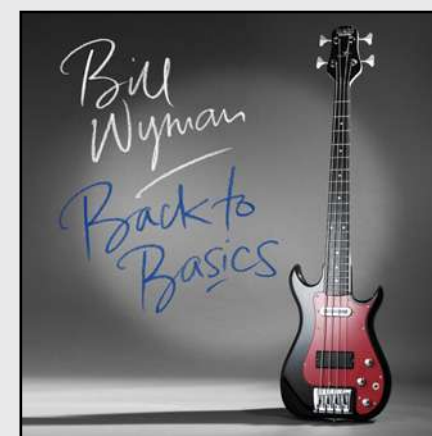

MVD basks in the light of music legends this month. Rolling Stone Bill Wyman goes BACK TO BASICS on a CD and limited blue vinyl version of this 2015 release, and Chuck Berry lets it rock on LET IT ROCK: GREATEST HITS 1955-60 on vinyl. Add in a Bob Marley DVD MARLEY and a DVD from THE MAN WHO INVENTED ROCK & ROLL, Lead Belly and we have a truly enlightening month!

Andrew Morgan Smith & HARLØ - You Might Be The Killer: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack Vinyl

Andrew Morgan Smith's original soundtrack score for the meta-slasher comedy horror You Might be the Killer

Drosselbart - Drosselbart (limited randomly colored vinyl) Vinyl

Ltd. randomly selected colored vinyl edition of Drosselbart's legendary and only album

Drosselbart's music has very little to do with the punk of the mid-seventies. The whole thing sounds a lot like the 1960s, occasionally reminiscent of harder rock, psychedelic US bands like Iron Butterfly or the music of British blues rockers like Brian Auger and Julie Driscoll. Keyboardist Christian Trachsel contributes some progressive moments and guest musician Ralf Nowy adds a classical touch.

Krokus - Round 13

For the very first time on vinyl! "Round 13", by 1970s Platinum-selling Swiss hard rock/metal band Krokus 1970s Platinum-selling Swiss hard rock/metal band Krokus successfully broke the US market in the '80s and forged a path through the live sector there and on continental Europe that has continued one way or another to this day. In 1999, the band was back in the studio for 13th album, the appropriately-titled 'Round 13'. Welsh vocalist Carl Sentance (ex-Persian Risk, Geezer Butler Band) joined co-founder Fernando von Arb (guitars, keyboards), Chris Lauper (guitars), ex-Killer's Many Maurer (bass) for Round 13, with ex-Calhoun Conquer drummer Peter Haas returning. Fernando von Arb recalls: "I had wanted to revive the old Krokus but the band had all had babies and wanted to stay at home! "So we stopped for a few years and then I went to the UK and found Carl: such a pro, a pleasure to work with. It's a good album though on reflection I would have chosen a bigger studio: it was tiny!" Krokus sold over 15 million records, toured the world, and received gold and platinum record awards in the USA and Canada. In its 50th year, the band continues to perform live.

Mads Tolling - Masters Of Jazz Violin

Two-time Grammy Award-Winning Violinist, Mads Tolling pays tribute to his favorite jazz violinists growing up: Grappelli, Ponty, Asmussen, Ray Nance, and Stuff Smith.

Mads Tolling is the 2016 winner of the DownBeat Critics Poll Rising Star Award for violin. A former member of Stanley Clarke's band and the Turtle Island Quartet, he has spent the past four years touring and recording with Bob Weir & Wolf Bros. In addition to collaborating with legends such as Kenny Barron, Ramsey Lewis, Paquito D'Rivera, and Leo Kottke, Mads leads his own groups: Mads Tolling & The Mads Men and the Mads Tolling Quartet. His work has been featured on NPR's Morning Edition and in The Washington Post.

Originally from Copenhagen, Denmark, Mads moved to San Francisco in 2003, where he still resides. In 2014, he returned to his roots by forming a new quartet with Danish jazz musicians. Their first album, Celebrating Svend Asmussen (2016), honored the jazz violin icon's centennial—just before Asmussen's passing. Mads had the privilege of knowing Asmussen personally, receiving a generous donation of the violinist's private sheet music collection during their visits.

Masters of Jazz Violin features guitarist Jacob Fischer and bassist Matthias Petri. The album offers fresh, creative arrangements of jazz violin classics, including Grappelli's "Swing 39," Chick Corea's "Armando's Rumba," and Hoagy Carmichael's "Stardust." This project is a heartfelt tribute to the artists who reshaped Mads' view of the violin—an instrument that has since defined his life and career.

Mads' journey in jazz violin took a major turn when Jean-Luc Ponty personally recommended him for his first major gig with bassist Stanley Clarke after graduating from Berklee College of Music. That opportunity led to years of international touring and collaborations.

Experience the masters--through the artistry of a burgeoning master of jazz violin, Mads Tolling.

Mads Tolling - Celebrating Svend Asmussen

Two-time Grammy-winning violinist Mads Tolling releases a studio album paying tribute to the iconic jazz violinist Svend Asmussen.

Mads Tolling's studio album, Celebrating Svend Asmussen, is a heartfelt tribute to one of the most iconic figures in jazz-violin history. The album release coincided with Svend Asmussen celebrating his 100th birthday, and passing away shortly before he reached 101. Asmussen, often referred to as "The Fiddling Viking," had a career spanning eight decades and left an indelible mark on jazz with his inventive techniques, vibrant personality, and deep connection to the swing era. Tolling, a two-time Grammy-winning violinist, pays homage to Asmussen through this album, drawing inspiration from his mentor's extensive repertoire and musical philosophy.

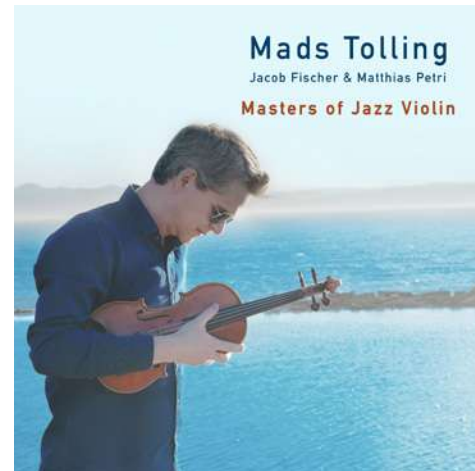

The album centers around a selection of songs from the American Songbook, including classics like "After You've Gone" and "I Got Rhythm." The release also features several Asmussen originals, including "Nadja," "Take Off Blues" and "Scandinavian Shuffle," a tune he wrote for the popular group Swe-Danes, which Asmussen toured extensively with in the early 1960s. These songs, staples of Asmussen's performances, are reinterpreted by Tolling with a fresh, contemporary flair, while still maintaining the essence of the original compositions. Tolling's mastery of the violin shines through as he navigates these timeless pieces, blending his virtuosity with a deep sense of swing and lyricism that echoes Asmussen's legacy.

Backing Tolling on this album are talented Danish musicians, including guitarist Jacob Fischer, bassist Kasper Tagel, and drummer Snorre Kirk. When Asmussen considered retiring from music at 85 years old, he met with Tolling for brunch. During the meeting, Asmussen gifted a large stack of his sheet music to Tolling, including hand-written arrangements and compositions—a beautiful gesture to pass on to the next generation.

Whether you're a long-time jazz enthusiast or new to the genre, this album invites listeners to celebrate the enduring magic of jazz violin.

Slow Poke - Redemption CD

With Redemption, Slow Poke delivers a fascinating blend of blues, rock, gospel, and country influences, wrapped in a sound that's both raw and refined

The band name is a politically-not-so-correct insinuation, hinting at an un hastened sexual encounter, a lazy, lustful affair. Well, one doesn't need many more words to describe the band's debut album. It's a damp, groovy thing, oozing sensuality, displaying great skill and the patience to thoroughly apply it. So... take your time enjoying this one.

Falsely accused of some violent killings, Jerry Zipkin (Red Shoe Diaries' Zalman King) uncovers the shocking truth about BLUE SUNSHINE!

It starts off as a great party--just eight people in a secluded lodge. One of the guests suddenly goes on a shockingly violent, murderous rampage. There is something wrong with his hair, and pure evil in his eyes. What he does to three of the girls there is too hideous to describe. Falsely accused of the brutal killings, Jerry Zipkin (Red Shoe Diaries' Zalman King) goes on the run. More bizarre murders occur, and while trying to clear his name, Jerry discovers the shocking truth: The people losing their hair and turning into violent psychopaths may be connected to a drug each killer took a decade before.
