CRUISING

IF YOU DON'T KNOW ME, WHO DO I THINK I AM?

That may be something you hear spoken on your shrink's couch (or something Pee Wee Herman would say), but those words also describe new MVD releases that are anything but tiny! First up, the BIG MAN, CLARENCE CLEMONS with WHO DO I THINK I AM? Testifying to his life in music and spiritual journey, this DVD/Blu-ray combo pack follows Clarence from the early days to the world's largest stages with Bruce Springsteen and his life awakening in China. Spirituality also rises in the film IF YOU DON'T KNOW ME, tracking the life of soul legend TEDDY PENDERGRASS. From his ascent to the supreme soul singer of his time, to the tragic accident that left him paralyzed, see and hear how Teddy overcame obstacles to reclaim his throne at the top.

Music that's got soul, and blues too comes in the form of the 26th album by RONNIE EARL & THE BROADCASTERS. Earl, the Roomful of Blues guitarist and 4 time W.C. Handy Award winner will give you an earful of blues, Motown grooves and virtuosic guitar on his latest BEYOND THE BLUE DOOR. BEAR FAMILY RECORDS continues their deep dive into American music with the immaculate 10 disc/book THE BAKERSFIELD SOUND box. From Buck Owens to Fuzzy Owen, this beautiful CD package runs down the history of Bakersfield and its role in country as the "Nashville of the West." All that country fiddling reminds us of the 2018 NYC cast album of the Yiddish Theatre's version of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF, out on CD this month. From TIME LIFE records, this is the only version of this classic performed entirely in Yiddish! But we understand it is killer!

Killing will be done with the Arrow Video deluxe release of ALICE, SWEET ALICE. Starring Brooke Shields, see how far sibling rivalry can go. Arrow also offers CRUISIN', the classic film about a murderer lurking in the seedy NYC club world. See Al Pacino's character go undercover into the underbelly in this fabulous 4K restoration! LADYWORLD is a film about an endless birthday party after an earthquake that dissolves into madness as food and water run out. Hope they didn't run out of cake! Not running from anything are the protagonists in MY SAMURAI. This Action/Adventure Collector's edition from MVD REWIND doesn't lack fight!

So get to know us and see why we think what we are!

The Gerbils - Are You Sleepy Vinyl

Athens, Georgia's The Gerbils showcase their fuzzy, noise pop aesthetic on their 1998 debut album.

Hailing from Athens, Georgia, The Gerbils' 1998 debut album is gushing with ecstatic fuzzed out melodies and noise pop aesthetic. Like other bands in the infamous Elephant 6 Collective, they are connoisseurs of lovingly deranged pop and lo-fi bedroom recordings and borrow equally from late 60s psychedelic and early 70s prog + rock. Featuring Scott Spillane and Jeremy Barnes of Neutral Milk Hotel.

Lord's Family - Innere Musik 10" Vinyl

Rare recordings by the German music community Lord's Family to be released for the very first time on coloured vinyl

LORD'S FAMILY was a music community that was founded in Nuremberg/Germany in 1970 and existed from 1971 to 1974 in Bavaria. The family was inspired by their psychedelic experience, the influence of Christian mysticism and Eastern spirituality. LORD'S FAMILY played live often, but never recorded an album. The musicians hardly cared about the music market. Similar to Father Yod, Amon Duul, Popul Voh and råd, Gräs och Stenar.

Oh, Rose - While My Father Sleeps Vinyl

Oh, Rose make their Park The Van Records debut with "While My Father Sleeps"

While My Father Sleeps tells the complex story of family, adversity, love, and friendship. In ten songs, the record bears the soul and shares the truths of the band's frontperson and creative driver, Olivia Rose, while also serving as an homage to Rose's mother, who passed away in January of 2017. It's Rose's life's story, told under the banner of a story her mother was never able to finish.

RXAXPXE - Death Trance Vinyl

Occult Power Electronics from Germany

Some albums are catchy, some are bulky, some immediately stick to you, others touch you. "Death Trance", the terrific new opus by RxAxPxE is far off these categories. It contains an aggressive world of sound, composed of menacingly clattering frequencies merged with low, massive tones and their ritualistic dimensions into a rustling, shrill, mangling mix of Terror Noise and Power Electronics...

SNFU - ...And Yet, Another Pair of Lost Suspenders Vinyl

Canadian legends SNFU unleash a live album recorded during the band's ascendancy in the early 90s -- splatter vinyl!

Canadian hardcore punk legends SNFU recorded this unparalleled concert shortly after their reformation and during their ascendancy to prominence in the early 90s, which culminated in their signing to Epitaph. Uncounted world tours, including support slots for Green Day, Bad Religion, Korn, and Tool followed, but arguably nothing beats the raw energy of the band in the early days. Artoffact 2019.

PRESS

“The great fiddler Martin Hayes speaks with the soul of a poet. A remarkable artist, the only one of his type.”

—The Sunday Independent, Ireland

“In the decades to come, we'll surely talk about this man in the way others talk of Miles Davis or Jimi Hendrix or John Coltrane.”

—The Irish Times

“Brooklyn Rider is really like no other string quartet. Any previous notions you had of string quartet music will get shaken up and ultimately thrown out for good.”

—Times Union

Daniel Erdmann's Velvet Revolution - Won't Put No Flag Out CD

An album that combines compositional wit with personal expression, an immediately identifiable sound and attitude.

The name of the band, Velvet Revolution, here stands as a cipher for a musical departure, a stylistic renewal that by no means negates history, but unmistakably and highly convincingly creates an individual, progressive form. The subversive power of this musical idea comes by stealth rather than with brazen crowing, which allows it to be all the more sustainable.

The Flamin' Groovies perform live at the Vaillencourt Fountain with the same line-up as the group that recorded for Seymour Stein on Sire Records. The fountain is located in Justin Herman Plaza in San Francisco and was completed 2 years after the Groovies played there. It may be best known for a 1987 concert by U2, just starting their Joashu Tree tour, when Bono famously spray painted on the fountain and was both praised and criticized for his actions. This soundboard recording was confusingly called "Jumpin' In The Night", otherwise known as "Valencourt Plaza" where it was recorded. The concert serves to document a typical Groovies gig of the time with staples like "Shake Some Action", "Tell Me Again" and "First Plane Home", covers of "Feel A Whole Lot Better", Moby Grape's "Fall On You", the odd Beatles and even NRBQ's "I Want You Bad". The performance was broadcast live on KSAN

Commander Cody & His Western Airmen - Live From Electric City

After years of playing honky tonk bars, Commander Cody has perfected the four piece rock and boogie band.

After some 20 years of roaming the countryside, playing what seems like every honky tonk in America, I have finally perfected the four piece rock and roll boogie band. It has taken a very long time and I'm happy to get it recorded. The scene was the Sunbanks Festival in beautiful Electric City, Washington, on the shores of the Grand Coulee in front of thousands of culture lovers, on Saturday, September 8, 2018. No frills, no overdubs, nothing fancy, just four like minded reprobates doing what we do best: playing their hearts out and creating good time rock and roll music. Tim Eshliman and I have been working together, on and off, playing and producing for 40 years. He plays bass and sings a lot in this band. Sean Allen, western swing hall of famer and pedal steel whiz plays the electric guitar in this group and sings a lot of the songs on this album. Steve Barbuto is the drummer, here been backing the Commander Cody groups for going on 25 years and sings Don't Let Go for the first time live.. I think this is the best album I've done in 45 years and I hope you'll agree...just basic rock and roll from the ozone

Yann-fanch Kemener - Roudennou: Traces CD

This tribute to Breton poetry marks forty-five years of a rich career of explorations, of encounters and of creativity.

It started with folk poetry, transmitted orally, worn and weathered by time, chewed on and breathed out by the lips of peasants, labourers, pilgrims and beggars. Then Breton writers turned their attention to their own time, opening up the horizons of what is possible, lyrical, sarcastic-mystical, even. The purpose is to pay tribute to these men and women of light and to their inspiring messages.

This Rockpalast was recorded on 1st December 1976 in the Sporthalle Cologne and shows the inventors of the legendary “dual lead-guitar/twin guitar sound” with the classical line-up of the band from Andy Powell (guit., voc.), Martin Turner (bass, voc.), Steve Upton (dr.) and Laurie Wisefield (guit.) in captivating form and mood. In 1976 Wishbone Ash were at the zenith of their career. Their albums, from “Pilgrimage” to “New England”, reached worldwide top positions in the album charts, were refined with silver and gold, the band was constantly on tour around the globe and tracks like “The King Will Come”, “Warrior” or “Blowing Free” achieved cult status among fans of guitar-oriented progressive rock and are milestones in rock history. Characteristic of Wishbone Ash is their melodic, guitar-oriented rock, which is dominated by two electric guitars played in duet. In addition there is an almost ballad-like vocal style. This Rockpalast edition is a must for every Wishbone Ash fan!

Misia - Pura Vida (Banda Sonora) CD

Misia presents Portuguese fado full of gaps, rough edges and sometimes a little

Here is the soundtrack of that period in which there is heaven and hell, harshness and passion. This album includes fado musics but it is not an album of Fado. Pura Vida (soundtrack) is full of gaps, rough edges and sometimes a little "silk, velvet and wool". The Portuguese guitar is Heaven and the electric guitar Hell. The feeling of tragedy is conveyed in this work through the electric guitar.

PJ Perry & Bill Mays - This Quiet Room CD

The boundless creativity of Perry and Mays demonstrates that there is much to unpack & discover by exploring these tunes

A simpatico musical approach is crucial to the success of any improvisational recording, especially so in the case of a duo performance. And what a good musical relationship has been established here between Canadian saxophonist PJ Perry and the California-native, pianist Bill Mays. Recorded in the inmate confines of a gorgeous house in Point Grey, a neighbourhood on the West Side of Vancouver.

Pokaz Trio - Kintsugi CD

An odyssey from Odessa, Kintsugi is a most praiseworthy addition to the great tradition of great piano trios.

In a journey through Kintsugi, a delicate song may feel as though the trio are breathing together, whilst a fleet-fingered romp may seem as though they are pursuing one another. But always there is a universal sense of harmony, synchronicity and coherence

Zoe Poledouris-Roche - Watermelon Cookies CD

Dragon's Domain Records presents WATERMELON COOKIES, a compilation of film music composed by Zoë Poledouris-Roché.

As the eldest daughter of film composer Basil Poledouris and his wife Bobbie, Zoë Poledouris took to music from an early age. As a child, she interpreted her father's music as a competitive figure skater. At the age of nine, a piece of music she created while her dad was scoring CONAN THE BARBARIAN became the countermelody for a major sequence featured in the movie.

RXAXPX - Death Trance CD

Occult Power Electronics from Germany

Some albums are catchy, some are bulky, some immediately stick to you, others touch you. "Death Trance", the terrific new opus by RxAxPx is far off these categories. It contains an aggressive world of sound, composed of menacingly clattering frequencies merged with low, massive tones and their ritualistic dimensions into a rustling, shrill, mangling mix of Terror Noise and Power Electronics...

Jasper Schwappe & Riko Fukuda - Schubert: Die Schone Mullerin CD

Etcetera presents a third recording of the Dutch baritone Jasper Schwappe, with Riko Fukuda on a Conrad Graf pianoforte

The music of Schubert breathes the romance of its day, and wakes in me a yearning for that timeless time. In my performance, I try to reach as near as I can to Schubert's intention, by thinking not so much from a bel canto perspective as from declamation of the text. I try to escape today's manner of singing by approaching his songs from the 18th century.

Johan Soderqvist - Amundsen: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack CD

Original score from the award-winning film

"We wanted a new aural world for the South Pole; to feel like we're arriving to a whole new world. We recorded many different crazy things but in the end we loved the sound of Indian native flutes being blown - or screamed into! - a great new Russian electronic voice/breath processor called "the Pipe". That together with heavily distorted ambiances & drums became the signature sound of the film."

Filippo Vignato & Hank Roberts - Ghost Dance: Live At Le Vigne Di Zamo Winery CD

Here is music that speaks equally from and to the past, and looks confidently into the future.

The Ghost Dance movement of 1890 was a new spiritual direction among North American Indian tribes, based on the belief that a circle dance could bring together the living and dead in meaningful and enriching communication. The metaphor provides a strong backing for the work of improvising duo Filippo Vignato and Hank Roberts

Huw Warren & Mark Lockwood - New Day: Live At Livio Felluga Winery CD

New Day catches the duo performing live at the Livio Felluga winery in Brazzano di Cormòns, Italy,

Pianist Huw Warren and saxophonist Mark Lockheart have been friends and associates since they formed the influential British jazz group Perfect Houseplants more than two decades ago. If the British are not always associated with joyous living - and "houseplants" might sound more domestic than wild - Warren and Lockheart, apart but particularly together, always give off a sense of quiet delight

Oh, Rose - While My Father Sleeps

Oh, Rose make their Park The Van Records debut with "While My Father Sleeps"

While My Father Sleeps by the Olympia, Washington, based band Oh, Rose, tells the complex story of family, adversity, love, and friendship. In ten songs, the record bears the soul and shares the truths of the band's frontperson and creative driver, Olivia Rose, while also serving as an homage to Rose's mother, who passed away in January of 2017. It is Rose's life's story, told under the banner of a story her mother was never able to finish. "'While My Father Sleeps' is the title of the book my mother wrote throughout her life," Rose says. "It involved her relationship with my grandfather, the way she could communicate with him through the poetry of Carl Sandburg and the writings of Truman Capote. Her storytelling always inspired me to tell my own through music. The album title and artwork serves as a bookend, the songs written between two moments. The front cover shows my mother reading to my brother and me outside the North Asheville library in the summer of 1995, the back is her headstone. Though I didn't write these songs in a state of grief, I came to know this album while I was grieving. When my mother died, I learned a new language, the language of death. At the same time, I was continuing to build strength and love within my community. My story isn't uncommon. I hope my music finds a home with those who speak these same languages." Throughout the record, it is Rose's powerful, expressive voice that carves our path, navigating a sure and delicate way from song to song. The emotion shifts and sways, a quality she attributes to the undulating nature of her past, ultimately providing a sturdy ground upon which to build. While My Father Sleeps is an album about family and friendship, beauty and love, turbulence and trauma amidst the sense of finally coming home. While My Father Sleeps is set for release August 23rd via Park The Van Records

Clarence Clemons - Clarence Clemons: Who Do I Think I Am?
His Journey Had Just Begun

After Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band's marathon "Rising Tour" came to an end in 2003, Clarence Clemons felt like he needed a break. So he packed up his saxophone and voyaged to China, where he could be more-or-less a nameless traveler in a foreign land. "WHO DO I THINK I AM" continued to follow Clarence after China and document his transcendent awakening and then tragedy struck. While in Florida Clarence suffered a stroke and passed away.

Featuring interviews with President Bill Clinton, Joe Walsh, Nils Lofgren, Jake Clemons, former bandmates, friends, and close family members, WHO DO I THINK I AM highlights Clarence's life as musician and member of the E Street band while also presenting another side of Clarence not many saw when he was away from bright stage lights. It's an intimate portrait of a man who searched for enlightenment and meaning at the unknowingly final years of his life.

My Samurai (Collector's Edition)

Teacher. Protector. Personal Weapon.

When young Peter McCrea (John Kallo) witnesses a gang murder, he is thrust into a dangerous world where strength and power are the keys to survival. His only hope is Young Park (Julian Lee, Assassin's Code), a powerful martial arts master with a gift for destroying any opposition. On the run from the gang and the police, Young Park must teach Peter the secrets of self defense - and inner strength. From one action-packed sequence to the next, Peter learns about courage, force, and himself - so that he may confront the ultimate challenge of his life.

MY SAMURAI is the solo directorial debut of Fred H. Dresch after making his mark as an assistant director on cult classics such as Final Exam and Syngenor and boasts a supporting cast that includes Mako (Conan The Barbarian), Terry O'Quinn (Lost) and Bubba Smith (Police Academy series).

“A savage, surreal and superbly performed creation.”
—Screen Daily

“Brings another fierce female perspective to the world of cinema... Pondering the savage nature of teenage girls, Ladyworld maintains that it's always more beneficial for them to band together than to tear each other apart.”
—Emily Sears, Birth.Movies.Death

“Ladyworld builds to a hysterical fever pitch in its final act, the cherry on top of a confident, impressive debut. ”
—Andrew Winter, Film Inquiry

“In pairing the aftermath of a natural disaster with the minefield that is female adolescence, it proves its own surreal, savage and superbly performed creation. ”
—Sarah Ward, Screen International

Skateboard

The movie that defies gravity

A sleazy Hollywood agent with gambling debts has to come up with cash fast. He organizes a team of exceptionally talented skateboarders to enter them in a major skateboarding competition, in spite of opposition from a dangerous gangster. If they win, they get $20,000 and the bookie leaves him alone. Manny Bloom (Allen Garfield) is a small time theatrical agent who has fallen on hard times. His troubles include not having the cash to pay alimony to his ex-wife, and even more pressing, his bookie is asking for more money from him, so what could save his skin? Naturally, a team of local skateboarders. Making up this team, are a collection of skilled skateboarders including teen star Leif Garrett, who did all his own stunts on this, plus a number of boarders from the famous Zephyr skate crew. Backing him up is Millicent a female nurse and mother figure to accompany the team as they drive around the state putting on shows and entering competitions. The footage includes highlights, with cutting edge tricks, ramps and barrel jumping, all supplying the inspiration to the young folks of the day for what they would have liked to fill up their time doing as the skateboard craze really took hold.

Rondo DVD

A kinky sex proposition devolves into a chain of murder, sex, revenge. And more murder.

Twisted, kinky and violent, Rondo is a highly stylized pulp noir revenge/murder melodrama. A young man's romp with a prostitute goes murderously wrong. He and eventually his sister, are sucked into a bizarre criminal underworld where sex and murder are daily specials and revenge is served piping hot. Part black comedy, part slasher and part homage to the seedy films of 1970s grindhouse cinema.

William Clarke - Heavy Hittin' West Coast Harp Vinyl

1 Vinyl LP (180 gram), 10 tracks. Playing time approx. 42 mns. - limited to 1000 copies

William Clarke (1951 - 1996) ranks alongside Rod Piazza among the most successful harmonica players from the George 'Harmonica' Smith school in Los Angeles. He is regarded as the master of an extremely "fat" tone and a playing style that is reminiscent of saxophone virtuosos at times. First vinyl retrospective spanning almost his entire and much too short career.

Logan and Nathan - Chasing Tales (And A Few Other Things) CD

A tender freak-folk dance of early love and passion from the Vancouver-based duo Logan and Nathan.

Chasing Tales (And a Few Other Things) is a tender freak-folk dance of early love and passion from the Vancouver-based duo Logan and Nathan. The couple's music meets at the confluence of Nathan Turner's west coast salt-water swagger and Logan Thackray's wild Rocky Mountain meltwater. Guitar and banjo duel, vocals are shared and swapped and lyrics are filled with intimacy, longing and self-doubt.

CLARENCE CLEMONS WHO DO I THINK I AM? [BLU-RAY/DVD]

HIS JOURNEY HAD JUST BEGUN

After Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band's marathon "Rising Tour" came to an end in 2003, Clarence Clemons felt like he needed a break. So he packed up his saxophone and voyaged to China, where he could be more-or-less a nameless traveler in a foreign land.

"WHO DO I THINK I AM" continued to follow Clarence after China and document his transcendent awakening and then tragedy struck. While in Florida Clarence suffered a stroke and passed away.
