DURAN DURAN - A HOLLYWOOD HIGH: LIVE IN LOS ANGELES [BLU-RAY]

TAXI HUNTER [BLU-RAY]

THE TOXIC AVENGER COLLECTION (8-DISC TOX SET) [4K ULTRA HD + BLU-RAY]

MVD AUGUST: A MONTH OF FUNDAYS!

'A Month of Sundays' is a term describing a very, very long time, and much like that definition, MVD has been providing top quality entertainment for months upon months of Fundays, and will continue to do so for a very, very long time! August is no exception, so dive into our cool pool in this hot month!

DURAN DURAN has been on fire forever with sold out shows in the World's biggest arenas. Witness these shows with the DVD and Blu-ray A HOLLYWOOD HIGH: LIVE IN LOS ANGELES, featuring songs from their latest disc FUTURE PAST as well as iconic hits filmed on a Hollywood rooftop. Packed with exclusive interviews and a never-before-seen performance, A HOLLYWOOD HIGH will keep you soaring!

Legend in his own mind is modest for the singer/poet/civil right activist GIL SCOTT-HERON, who was a legend far beyond his own mind. The GIL SCOTT-HERON & HIS AMNESIA EXPRESS-LEGEND IN HIS OWN MIND live LP and CD expands your cranium with music that's described as 'poetry with much muscle, humor, street talk that is justifiably angry and accurate.' Gil Scott is rightly dubbed 'the Godfather of Rap.' No video component unfortunately, so this Revolution will NOT be televised! Holiday and Heritage vinyl this month includes 16 CHRISTMAS CLASSICS and MORE HALLOWEEN NUGGETS (orange vinyl!), and new wax from HANK WILLIAMS, GENE VINCENT and THE KINGSTON TRIO. What's old is new again!

Arrow Video are slinging a bevy of bluray and 4K this month, with multi-disc packages and first-time-ever 4K releases of WEIRD SCIENCE, NEW FIST OF FURY (starring Jackie Chan), the drama UNMAN WITTERING AND ZIGO and a 2009 remake of THE LAST HOUSE ON THE LEFT, frightening you with two versions, the original theatrical version and an unrated version. But you gotta jump on these, because these limited editions won't last, and then there won't be any left!

Falling into a toxic waste dump in New Jersey could seem like a normal occurrence in the Garden State, but this particular dump birthed THE TOXIC AVENGER-the first superhuman-hero from New Jersey. And I thought that was Bruce Springsteen! Celebrate with the 4K debut of all four Toxic Avenger films in one package with the limited 8-disc TOXIC AVENGER COLLECTION!

So open up and get in on the fun-every damn day!

Anna Setton - O Futuro É Mais Bonito Vinyl

Anna Setton's third album understands to innovate the classic moulds of Música Popular Brasileira with a modern and subtle production.

"O Futuro é Mais Bonito" (The Future is More Beautiful) is Anna Setton's third album, recorded in Recife, letting, as she explains, the songs choose her. Over a modern and subtle production, Anna sounds playful, charged with light, slick and transparent, with her voice positioning itself right in the centre of the song, as it should be.

Atonement - Sadistic Invaders Vinyl

Young and hungry thrash metal from Sweden - for old school maniacs only!

Sweden's ATONEMENT are steeped in the ancient essence of thrashing death metal circa 1987. Bubbling forth from their cauldron of nastiness were the likes of early Destruction, Sepultura, Possessed, Death, Sweden's Morbid, Germany's Poison, and Chile's Pentagram. Sadistic Invaders carries forward that filth & fury of its short-length predecessor and amazingly ups the nastiness to hellish levels.

Chernaya Rechka - Chernaya Rechka Vinyl

The debut album from post-punk trio Chernaya Rechka (Black River), available on Artobject Records.

A sombre look into the toll the current state of Russia is taking on its residents, the debut self-titled album from Chernaya Rechka is beautiful, harrowing, and full of despair though playful at times. Mostly, it is a showcase of the euphonious songs that can come out of not much more than commitment to a pure passion for making music, creativity, and a lot of hard work.

Cherry Casino And The Gamblers - Let's Play Around 10" Vinyl

Cherry Casino and the Gamblers' debut long player is finally out on vinyl, strictly limited to 500 copies

Issued for the first time on vinyl is Berlin's hot ticket for authentic rhythm and blues, Cherry Casino and the Gamblers' Let's Play Around. Reason to celebrate therefore, but also as a mark of respect for an album that, upon its initial release of CD only, shifted more units than a baker's bag squeezed full of German strudels, that's how much it was appreciated.

Facet - Facet Vinyl

Facet are a trio from Oakland that began in 2019. They quickly got underway with their debut self-released EP "Duck" that summer and then did a west coast tour later that same year. Expect coils of knotty and rhythmic bass, jangling angular guitar, and driving post-hardcore riffs that propel this group to take their influences (think "Repetition" or "Challenge"-era UNWOUND) into this decade.

Flight - Echoes Of Journeys Past Vinyl

Heavy Rock from Norway, third album. An impressive lesson in musicianship and songwriting!

To call Norway's FLIGHT "retro" or "vintage" is to miss the point. Since 2012, the band have walked the fine line between effortless and studious - a throwback to '70s proto-metal, done with such vigor and authenticity that every listener will be whisked away some four decades into the past. Now, FLIGHT continue with LP #3, Echoes of Journeys Past, which may be the band's breakthrough record.

Green Jelly - 333 Vinyl

Too thrashy for the majors

Featuring Maynard from Tool! 333 was the follow-up album to the Cereal Killer Soundtrack. It had songs featured on the Dumb and Dumber soundtrack as well as the Maximum Carnage video game on the Super Nintendo. This album rules, but it was too metal for the majors so it was considered a flop at the time.

Julian Taylor Band - Avalanche Vinyl

Julian Taylor Band is a "soul and roll" hybrid of R&B/soul/country and rock. Recorded live off the studio floor, the focus is on a consistent groove.

Julian Taylor doesn't fit in a box. It's tempting to call his music R&B, except that means something different today than it did in the days of Al Green, Bill Withers, and Van Morrison. JTB look and sound like a rock group, but they're nothing at all like Staggered Crossing, or any other modern rock radio band: there is no macho posturing or distortion pedals to be found--just a hot horn section.

Lloyd Price - Mr Personality: The R&B Hits 1952-60

Without question, Lloyd Price was one of the key protagonists for the rock 'n' roll explosion of the mid-fifties. Taking the gritty style of New Orleans R&B, where he started, he adapted it with innovative instrumental arrangements alongside the emergence of rock 'n' roll during the late '50s. Before the likes of Martin Luther King started smashing the cultural barriers down, Lloyd "Mr Personality" Price was already bringing the black and white youth together through his music. Of his 1952 hit, Lloyd pronounced "I revolutionised the South! Before Lawdy Miss Clawdy white kids were not really interested in this music". He went on to achieve a remarkable run of pop and R&B successes throughout the decade with over 30 chart entries, a combined 11 top ten hits and 4 no. 1's. This stunning 18 track collection concentrates on the biggest R&B hits he enjoyed from the debut smash hit Lawdy Miss Clawdy in 1952 through, Personality, I'm Gonna Get Married, Come Into My Heart to his last top ten hit in 1960 Question.

The Chantels - Born In The Bronx: The Singles 1957-62

Widely credited as being one of the first 'girl bands' of the rock era, The Chantels were a remarkably talented vocal group. Starting off while at High School, a fortuitous meeting in the street with doo wop group The Valentines led lead singer and producer Richard Barrett to champion the teenagers. With a combination of the sensational song writing skills and vocal ability of Chantels lead Arlene Smith and Barrett's influence within the industry, the young group from The Bronx, enjoyed many successes at a very young age. All students at the St. Anthony of Padua Elementary School in The Bronx, NY, they started singing together in the early '50s in second grade, being members of the St. Anthony's church choir. Unlike many African American vocal groups, with roots in gospel, the music they learnt together of a different religious bent in the form of liturgical music, Latin hymns and Gregorian chants. They combined the unique vocal blend they had acquired with the doo wop harmonies they heard performed by the male groups on the street corners. This collection celebrates The Chantels unique talent across the first five years of their recording career and helps emphasize just how influential they were in paving the way for future girl groups.

Gene Vincent - The Wild Cat 1956-62

Gene Vincent was an iconic figure in the history of rock 'n' roll, if only for his iconic landmark hit in 1956 with the self-penned Be-Bop-A-Lula, which remains one of the great rockabilly records of its time. It has become one of the most recorded rock 'n' roll songs of all and has been a standard in the repertoire of bands all over the world ever since. Performing with his band The Blue Caps, his moody image of a leather-clad bad boy with distinctive quiffed hair, the mystique being heightened by walking with a pronounced limp - the result of a motorcycle accident in 1955 - made him a popular figure in rock 'n' roll films and tours on both sides of the Atlantic. He was at least as popular in the UK, if not more, as the USA, influencing as he did not only rockers like Cliff Richard and Johnny Kidd, but also The Beatles. This 18 track LP celebrates his legacy by bringing together his most beloved A and B sides from his massive debut hit Be-Bop-A-Lula through to his more up tempo, twist inspired re-recording of the hit in 1962.

Hank Williams - Hey Good Lookin': The Hits 1949-53

Hank Williams was one of the single most important and influential artists in the history of country music, providing a template for which a host of country stars successfully followed during the decades after his tragically premature death in 1953 at the age of 29. He was a recording artist for just six years, yet he had around thirty-five country chart hits, including eleven No. 1s. His songs have been recorded by, and provided hits for, dozens of artists across just about every genre over the years. This 16-track collection features all Hanks chart toppers alongside the majority of his 2nd place finishes and provides a great snapshot of country music's biggest icon. It is not only a showcase for his unique talent but an insight into a song writing and performing style which was central to the development of country music. With broken marriage, alcohol dependence and drug addiction featuring heavily in his life, he skilfully captured these personal demons in his song writing and performance creating the template for country acts to follow paving the way for others to articulate their own intimate feelings.

Morbius - The Shades Below Vinyl

Diabolic gloom from the shadows of hell.

MORBIUS' first experience in a real studio took place in March of 1992 at Inner Ear Studios in Arlington, VA under the guidance of Producer King Fowley and engineer Don Zientra. The Shades Below was recorded on a reel-to-reel system and manually edited (with a razor blade) and was produced and mixed in only two days. A combination of the top songs from the band's 1990 Realm Demo and new tracks,

Carl Verheyen - Riverboat Sky

New album from guitarist Carl Verheyen

Riverboat Sky is a collection of accessible songs written and road tested by guitarist Carl Verheyen and his band of virtuoso musicians. The title track is a duet with Sophia James of American Idol fame. And Carl's regular touring band of Dave Marotta (bass), John Mader (drums) and Troy Dexter (keyboards) is supplemented by satellite members Jim Cox on keyboards, Alex Acuna on percussion and Chad Wackerman on drums. "I learned a valuable lesson from all those years making records and touring with Supertramp. We always lamented that the record was a demo for the tour, because the songs developed so much more on the road. This time I was fortunate to play the music for a year and a half before committing it to CD and vinyl, so the songs feel much more fully realized. It was a luxury recording music we all knew so well."

Spectre - Lonesome Gambler Vinyl

Finally new tracks by the Australian hard rocking heavy metal two-piece.

SPECTRE is the sterling heavy metal vision of Will Spectre. Formed in 2017, the band's primary influences are heavy metal and hard rock of the late '70s and early '80s. SPECTRE conjure a mystical realm where private-press NWOBHM resides: the rocking is measured but not too hard, the melodies are melancholic but not totally depressing, and the vocals are anthemic and sagely simultaneously.

Chernaya Rechka - Chernaya Rechka CD

The debut album from post-punk trio Chernaya Rechka (Black River), available on Artofact Records.

A sombre look into the toll the current state of Russia is taking on its residents, the debut self-titled album from Chernaya Rechka is beautiful, harrowing, and full of despair though playful at times. Mostly, it is a showcase of the euphonious songs that can come out of not much more than commitment to a pure passion for making music, creativity, and a lot of hard work.

Chris Hazelton - After Dark CD

On Chris Hazelton's new album he takes organ music back to it's traditional 'After Dark' setting, alongside a quintet of Kansas City's finest.

Inspired by his late mentors Everette DeVan, Seleno Clarke, and the incomparable Dr. Lonnie Smith, Chris Hazelton's new album invokes the feeling of what jazz organ has always traditionally been: late night music. The album finds him in a focused, subtle setting with a quintet of Kansas City's finest. The selections tell the story of a night out and the enchantment of what can happen after dark!

Atonement - Sadistic Invaders CD

Young and hungry thrash metal from Sweden - for old school maniacs only!

Sweden's ATONEMENT are steeped in the ancient essence of thrashing death metal circa 1987. Bubbling forth from their cauldron of nastiness were the likes of early Destruction, Sepultura, Possessed, Death, Sweden's Morbid, Germany's Poison, and Chile's Pentagram. Sadistic Invaders carries forward that filth & fury of its short-length predecessor and amazingly ups the nastiness to hellish levels.

Bestial Mouths - R.O.T.T. (inmyskin) CD

R.O.T.T. (inmyskin) marks the beginning of the new cycle for Bestial Mouths.

The culmination of vocalist Lynette Cerezo's path thus far--emerging from trauma to reimagine the band as a solo-driven effort--the album sees Bestial at its most refined. Produced by Rhys Fulber, R.O.T.T. (inmyskin) bridges the darkwave oddities and industrial experimentation of past works with tekno danceability, peeling back the rawness of old wounds to reveal polished, gleaming bone.

Danny Burns - Promised Land CD

Burns brings together an all star cast of guests together for a collection of covers reimagined as bluegrass classics.

Burns is gearing up for his next full-length album, Promised Land. The first taste came in the form of "Someone Like You" featuring Tim O'Brien. It's a spin on the famous Adele tune, except reimagined with a Bluegrass / Americana upbeat twist. It went on to become Burns' very first No. 1 on the Grassicana charts in the fall of 2022.

Tangerine Dream - Dead Solid Perfect

BSX Records presents the soundtrack release of DEAD SOLID PERFECT, featuring music composed by Tangerine Dream.

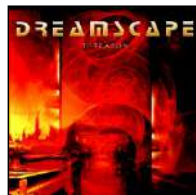

BSX Records presents the soundtrack release of DEAD SOLID PERFECT, featuring music composed by Tangerine Dream (SORCERER, THIEF, RISKY BUSINESS) for the 1988 drama written and directed by Bobby Roth (HEARTBREAKERS, THE MAN INSIDE), starring Randy Quaid, Kathryn Harrold, Jack Warden, Corinne Bohrer, Brett Cullen, Larry Riley, DeLane Matthews, and Bibi Besch. Based on the novel by Dan Jenkins, DEAD SOLID PERFECT first aired on HBO in December 1988. The term 'Dead Solid Perfect' is an old expression that refers to when golfers hit the ball at the perfect angle. It's also the goal for Kenny Lee (Quaid), a touring pro from Fort Worth, Texas who has his ups and downs on the professional circuit. Kenny's caddy, Spec (Riley), matches him up with a flamboyant, wealthy sponsor named 'Bad Hair' Wimberly (Warden). Wimberly convinces Kenny to return to the lucrative country club circuit of sponsorship tours. Kenny is married to Beverly (Harrold), an upper-middle-class woman from Dallas who is getting impatient with his insensitive behavior. When Beverly is hospitalized, it teaches Kenny a lot about how much he cares for her, and how much they care for each other. Her spirit keeps him going and he starts giving extra attention to his putting at the U.S. Open. More than ever, Kenny is inspired to score a dead solid perfect shot. The music for DEAD SOLID PERFECT was composed by the pioneering German electronica band Tangerine Dream. Founded in 1967 by Edgar Froese, Tangerine Dream is a ground-breaking musical act that veered away from the influence of traditional Anglo-American rock/pop and instead relied upon hypnotic rhythms, sustained drones, musique concr te, tape-music looping techniques, and the proliferation of early synthesizers. Throughout their seven-decade existence (which continues to this day) the band has released over eighty-five studio, extended play, or mini albums, fifty-two motion picture scores, and a handful of episodic television or video game scores.

Eddie Fisher - The Hits Collection 1948-62 CD

An enjoyable showcase for his notable talents as a highly distinctive song stylist from a golden age of traditional pop.

Eddie Fisher was one of biggest stars of the first half of the 1950s, both as a singer and movie actor, and had more than 60 hits across the Billboard, Cash Box and UK charts. He was a singer very much of his era, with an old-school formal singing style that was ideally suited to the big-voiced ballads of the early '50s

Flight - Echoes Of Journeys Past CD

Heavy Rock from Norway, third album. An impressive lesson in musicianship and songwriting!

To call Norway's FLIGHT "retro" or "vintage" is to miss the point. Since 2012, the band have walked the fine line between effortless and studious - a throwback to '70s proto-metal, done with such vigor and authenticity that every listener will be whisked away some four decades into the past. Now, FLIGHT continue with LP #3, Echoes of Journeys Past, which may be the band's breakthrough record.

Paul Chain - Park Of Reason CD

This album is unashamedly doom and proudly proclaims itself as such from the first negative chord.

The atmosphere is profoundly different from, say, "alkahest". quite fitting for Italy's notoriously enigmatic and stylistically capricious doom maestro, really! the emphasis here is on torturous, droning, mammoth dirges, almost VITUS-esque in magnitude, but less anguished and desperate feeling.

TOULOUSE ENGELHARDT

THREE NOVELLAS
FOR GUITAR AND ORCHESTRA

Toulouse Engelhardt Three Novellas For Guitar And Orchestra

Toulouse Engelhardt's neo-classical Jazz for guitar and orchestra -- featuring a superb cast of international talent!

Three years in the making, Three Novellas for Guitar and Orchestra is a signature collection of audiophile masterworks composed by award-winning guitarist Toulouse Engelhardt. Integrating jazz, folk and classical expressions into a tableau of imaginative, symphonic color, Three Novellas is crafted into an instant classic. String visions of these three tone poems will send listeners on a sonic odyssey to mythological worlds of mermaids, UFOs, and interstellar, mathematical space.

Three Novellas is deeply influenced by the masters of French impressionism: Debussy, Ravel and Satie. Innovators of the early Twentieth Century, Bartók and Schönberg, have also given inspiration to Engelhardt -- whose "neo-classical jazz" compositions reflect the inventive arrangements of Andre Segovia and jazz greats Pat Metheny and Wes Montgomery, as well as the guitar forms of Kenny Burrell.

Three Novellas for Guitar and Orchestra are multi-movement, interconnected suites, reminiscent of mythical stories from the past. A mosaic of sound leads listeners by suggestion, atmosphere, and novelty. While exploring uncommon simplicities in Engelhardt's music, you can imagine lyrical and sonic visualizations -- while painting your own imagery.

Special guests include Monique Donnelly (soprano), Mark Robertson (concertmaster), Mike Deutsch (percussion), and Cristina Montes Mateo (harp).

Music director and conductor, Christopher M. Allport, has assembled a superb cast of international symphonic talent -- emerging from Los Angeles Philharmonic, Hollywood Chamber Orchestra, San Diego Symphony, Orchestral de Paris -- and beyond. Evoking a totality of sonic pleasures, from worlds yet untapped, Allport evokes feelings of mystery, pleasure, and sensory stimulation in Engelhardt's pastoral fantasia.

Rowan Parsaca & Hayden Wayne - Introducing Rowan Parsaca CD

So rich and lush is the beauty and maturity of her vocal sound, demonstrating the intelligence of her interpretation, considering her young age.

In 2018, I was introduced to Rowan when she was twelve. I was immediately taken by the beauty and maturity of her sound, as well as the security and effervescence while singing, demonstrating the intelligence of her interpretation, considering her young age. So rich and lush her voice, so obvious her talent, I felt the world should experience her gift. Thus, this recording when she was 16 and 17.

Finally new tracks by the Australian hard rocking heavy metal two-piece.

SPECTRE is the sterling heavy metal vision of Will Spectre. Formed in 2017, the band's primary influences are heavy metal and hard rock of the late '70s and early '80s. SPECTRE conjure a mystical realm where private-press NWOBHM resides: the rocking is measured but not too hard, the melodies are melancholic but not totally depressing, and the vocals are anthemic and sagely simultaneously.

Thomas Guthrie - Live On Stage CD

Live on stage in Italy April, 1993

Guthrie Thomas was an American singer-songwriter based in L.A. that released two albums on Capitol in the mid seventies, when every Major was hunting for the new Dylan. He is the epitome of the "beautiful losers" roster that many rave about. Powerful voice, majestic fingerpicking and desperate love songs are his distinctive skills. A tortured soul of immense talent.

Tjaktjadálve - Echoes On A Windswept Plain CD

A journey through the calm of a snowy forest and step by step they will enter you penetrating your bones as only frost can do.

Looking at the artwork you can feel you are in a bleak place, and this album delivers those morose greys of DSBM, scarred with troughs of grim ambience, yet elevated with the primal energies of elemental atmospheric black metals into walls of harrowing trance, from its origins through to modern incarnations... quiet winter meditation album

Unto Ashes - Orchids Grew Here CD

A resplendent tapestry of apocalyptic folk, gothic, and neoclassical influences. With a cover of Madonna's "Frozen." Mystery, elegance, & melancholy.

A tapestry of apocalyptic folk, gothic, & neoclassical styles, Orchids Grew Here is an enigmatic excursion into existential terror & hope in the face of universal void. The illuminated sound-paintings are enchanted & enchanting; sparse instrumentation from the medieval (hurdy-gurdy, viola da gamba, dulcimers) to the modern (analog synthesizers, tape loops) with bewitching male & female vocals.

Evil Building DVD

A group of top European underground filmmakers invite us inside the Evil Building for several horrific tales of the macabre.

A group of top European underground filmmakers invite us inside the Evil Building for several horrific tales of the macabre. There exists a place beyond horror, beyond suffering. It is a building we walk past everyday and think nothing about. But it has a life, and bloodlust, of its own. In this place, death is only a moment, but torment is forever. And we are never leaving.

PRIMETIME PANIC?

From 1977-1984, producer Michael Jaffe turned out a series of hard-hitting and topical primetime television movies. First working within his father Henry's production company, the younger Jaffe has gone on to produce well over 100 TV movies, series and mini-series, in addition to popular feature films such as Better Off Dead and One Crazy Summer. This collection includes three made-for-television films from Michael Jaffe's early career: The Death of Richie, Incident at Crestridge and The Seduction of Gina. Each film has been restored from the best surviving 35mm or 16mm elements and is presented in both 4:3 and widescreen aspect ratios.

In the searing, fact-based drama The Death of Richie (1977), Robby Benson (Jeremy and One on One) stars in the title role as a teen spiraling into drug addiction and clashing with his father (Ben Gazzara, The Killing of a Chinese Bookie and They All Laughed), who is desperate to set his son straight. The sobering material is sensitively handled by veteran director Paul Wendkos (The Mephisto Waltz and Gidget) and a talented cast that includes Eileen Brennan (Private Benjamin), Lance Kerwin (Salem's Lot), Clint Howard (Rock 'n' Roll High School), Charles Fleischer (A Nightmare on Elm Street), Barry Miller (Fame), John Friedrich (The Wanderers) and Cindy Eilbacher (Bad Ronald).

A newcomer in a corrupt Wyoming town (Eileen Brennan, The Last Picture Show and Clue) runs for sheriff and takes on the crooked mayor (Pernell Roberts, Bonanza and Trapper John, M.D.) and his goons in Incident at Crestridge (1981). A modern Western that evokes High Noon, the film reflects the changing times by having a "lady with a badge" as its hero. Inspired by a true story, it is directed by Jud Taylor (Star Trek and The Great Escape II) and co-stars Sandy McPeak (Ode to Billy Joe), Bruce Davison (Last Summer) and Cliff Osmond (The Fortune Cookie).

Playing against type, Valerie Bertinelli (One Day at a Time and Silent Witness) is wholly convincing as a college student who succumbs to a gambling obsession that empties her bank accounts and pushes her young marriage to the brink in The Seduction of Gina (1984). This chilling, ripped-from-the-headlines tale is directed by Jerrold Freedman (Kansas City Bomber and Borderline) and co-stars Michael Brandon (Four Flies on Grey Velvet), Ed Lauter (The Longest Yard), Frederic Lehne (Ordinary People) and Dinah Manoff (Grease). It boasts cinematography by Tak Fujimoto (Badlands) and original music by Eddie Van Halen and Thomas Newman (The Player).

City Of The Living Dead

A newsman (Christopher George) and a prematurely buried woman (Katriona McColl) confront the living dead in Massachusetts.

"The Dead Shall Rise and Walk the Earth" When a priest hangs himself in a cemetery, he opens the gates of hell in the mysterious New England town of Dunwich. At the same moment, Psychic Mary Woodhouse (Catriona MacColl- House By the Cemetery, The Beyond) enters a trance and witnesses the cosmic events unfold, causing her to seemingly die of fright. After being buried alive, she is rescued by skeptical reporter Peter Bell (Christopher George - Pieces, Enter the Ninja, Rat Patrol) who joins her on the journey toward Dunwich to help close the gates of hell before evil is unleashed upon the world! Will they be able to close the gates in time or will the souls of Dunwich be forever stuck in the twilight void?

Lucio Fulci's gut-spewing, brain smashing, head drilling, Lovecraftian zombie nightmare features an amazing list of Italian talent behind the scenes with a screenplay co-written by Dardano Sacchetti (Rat Man, Demons), special FX by Gino De Rossi (Zombie, Cannibal Ferox) cinematography by Sergio Salvati (Contraband, The Beyond), and soundtrack by Fabio Frizzi (Contraband, The Psychic). With supporting performances by Giovanni Lombardo Radice (Phantom of Death, House on the Edge of the Park), Carlo De Mejo (Contamination, House by the Cemetery) and Janet Agren (Rat Man, The Iron Commissioner), City of the Living Dead (a.k.a. The Gates of Hell) is among the greatest Italian Horror films of all time! Frankenstein '80

A mad scientist creates a monster called "Mosaico," who breaks out of the laboratory to hunt down and kill beautiful women.

When Professor Schwarz invents a new serum that helps transplant patients better accept their new organs, Dr. Frankenstein quickly steals it to bring to life his greatest creation... Mosaic! Once alive, Mosaic is uncontrollable and escapes from the lab nightly to solicit prostitutes and leave a trail of corpses across the city that only seems to baffle the police and create a wave of fear. Mario Mancini's (camera operator on Mario Bava's Blood and Black Lace and Black Sunday) only film as director is a stylish, gory, and sleazy take on the Frankenstein story in true Italian exploitation fashion. With nods to giallo films, a streak of dark humor, featuring gruesome special effects by Carlo Rambaldi (E.T., Bay of Blood) and starring Gordon Mitchell (Shanghai Joe), Xiro Papas (Black Killer), John Richardson (Black Sunday), Renato Romano (The Fifth Cord) and Dalila Di Lazzaro (Flesh for Frankenstein), Cauldron Films is delirious to present Frankenstein '80, uncensored and restored on Blu-ray for the first time to an unsuspecting North American audience. 2K restoration from the uncensored negative / 1080p presentation English audio Optional English SDH subtitles Italian audio w/ English subtitles Extras Dalila Forever: The Recorded Memories of Dalila Di Lazzaro Little Frankensteins: History of Italian Frankenstein films with Domenico Monetti Audio commentary by film historian Heather Drain Reversible Blu-ray wrap with alternate artwork 1972 / 88 mins / 1.85:1 / Director - Mario Mancini / All Region

The Only Thrill

A small town clothing shop owner (Sam Shepard) and a seamstress (Diane Keaton) fall in love and confront personal challenges.

Academy Award® winner* Diane Keaton (Annie Hall) and Academy Award® nominee Sam Shepard (Steel Magnolias) are paired as two ill-fated lovers who risk a chance at happiness for fear of commitment.

Reece McHenry (Shepard) runs a clothing store where he meets Carol (Keaton), a seamstress and single mother, looking for work. The two soon find they are attracted to each other but are afraid of expressing their emotions. As the years pass, the deep friendship develops into love, but perhaps because of time and circumstances, it may be too late. Now, Carol's daughter (Diane Lane, Man of Steel) and Reece's son (Robert Patrick, Terminator 2: Judgement Day), who have been friends since childhood, have fallen in love and may be making the same mistakes as their parents. The Only Thrill is the powerfully tender story of love long delayed and almost lost.

*1977: Best Actress, Annie Hall,  1983, Best Supporting Actor, The Right Stuff

SALES POINTS

- Stars Academy Award® winner Diane Keaton (Annie Hall) Academy Award® nominee Sam Shepard (The Right Suff) and reunites these two award winning actors for the third time following the smash hit 'Baby Boom' and 'Crimes of the Heart'.
- Also stars Diane Lane (Man of Steel), Robert Patrick (Terminator 2: Judgment Day), Tate Donovan (Argo), Sharon Lawrence (NYPD Blue) and Brad Leland (Friday Night Lights).
- Directed by Peter Masterson (The Trip to Bountiful, Blood Red).
- Comp to: Afterglow, Ray Meets Helen, Digging to China, Mr. Jealousy

PRESS

"Recalls its director Peter Masterson's first film, the 1985 version of Horton Foote's 'A Trip to Bountiful...' 'The Only Thrill,' a modest, unpretentious venture, is a rewarding experience."

—Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times

"Shepard and Keaton (who have appeared together before in Baby Boom and Crimes of the Heart) are pleasing and believable as the stunted lovers... The Only Thrill offers tantalizing glimpses of love unfulfilled."

—Marjorie Baumgarten, Austin Chronicle

Journey Into The Beyond (4k Restoration Blu-ray) Blu-ray Disc

John Carradine narrates a look at psychic phenomena: crying statues, levitation, a witch doctor's eye surgery.

An apparent investigation into the fringes of psychic spirituality with so-called real experts, exorcisms and seances, be warned Journey also manages to be a very sleazy cocktail indeed. There's many a grotty scene of real brain tumor removal and animal cruelty. An unforgettable scene offers a Third-World doctor yanking out cancers from his patients using his bare hands and no anesthetic. Imdb.

Holy Spider

Female journalist Rahimi travels to the Iranian holy city of Mashhad to investigate a serial killer targeting sex workers.

Female journalist Arezoo Rahimi (Zar Amir-Ebrahimi, White Paradise) travels to the Iranian holy city of Mashhad to investigate a serial killer targeting sex workers. As she draws closer to exposing his crimes, the opportunity for justice grows harder to attain when the murderer is embraced by many as a hero. Based on the true story of the 'Spider Killer' Saeed Hanaei (Mehdi Bajestani, 'Whisper'), who saw himself as on a mission from God as he killed 16 women between 2000 and 2001.

Nominated for the Palme d'Or at the 2022 Cannes Film Festival (and winner at Cannes for Best Actress, Zar Amir-Ebrahimi), "Holy Spider" was selected as the Danish entry for Best International Feature Film at the 95th Academy Awards (and made the December shortlist) in this "riveting, true-crime serial killer thriller." (Tom Meek, Cambridge Day)

The Inconfessable Orgies Of Emmanuelle Blu-ray Disc

When a violent assault upends her uninhibited lifestyle, Emmanuelle pursues a perverse odyssey of machismo, repression and erotic degradation.

When Golden Films Internacional requested he make an alluring Emmanuelle film, writer/director Jess Franco instead held a dark mirror to the series' sunny fantasies of sexual freedom: When a violent assault upends her uninhibited lifestyle, Emmanuelle (Muriel Montossé of Franco's CECILIA and DEVIL HUNTER) chooses to pursue a perverse odyssey of machismo, repression and erotic degradation.

Kissinger

A feature-length documentary on Henry Kissinger based on exclusive interviews with the man himself

These twenty-five hours of tape are not only the most wide-ranging interviews Henry Kissinger has ever given but, contractually, the last extended interviews he will give in his extraordinary life. The resulting ninety-minute documentary film is effectively his epitaph. Kissinger's is the only contemporary interview in the film, and his story is told with no narration and illustrated with the extraordinary film and audio archive, much of it never seen before. As such, the film offers a unique insight into the mind and personality of the man who, more than any other individual, shaped the post-war foreign policy of the United States. Indeed, with Nixon embroiled with Watergate, Kissinger was the high priest of U.S. grand strategy and decision making. For a time, he was the most powerful figure in the most powerful country in the world. Because of his reputation as a Machiavellian and devotee of Realpolitik, there is perhaps no more controversial figure in American public life. To many liberals, he is implicated in "war crimes" allegedly committed with his knowledge in countries from Cambodia to Chile. By allowing Kissinger to respond to these and other criticisms in his own words, this film recasts our understanding not only of the Cold War era but also of the predicament of the United States and the world today. The film also reveals the true character of this extraordinary multi-faceted man.

Unman Wittering And Zigo [Limited Edition] Blu-ray Disc

When a young man takes a vacant teaching spot at a British public school he quickly learns he may have gotten into more than he expected.

Masterfully shot by cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth (2001: A Space Odyssey) and directed by John Mackenzie (The Long Good Friday), this film adaptation of Giles Cooper's classic play is presented on home video for the first time ever. Unman, Wittering and Zigo presents a scathing exposé of the kind of environment from which brutish empires are born.

Subhumans - Crisis Point (White & Black Galaxy Vinyl) Vinyl

Subhumans are one of the most influential bands from the UK Anarcho-Punk scene of the 80's. Colour repress of their 2019 album!

Subhumans are one of the most influential bands from the UK Anarcho-Punk scene of the 80's, filed right alongside Crass and Conflict, and just as relevant today as they were during the darkest days of Thatcher's Britain. Colour repress of their 2019 album! - ten songs about terror/pollution/minid control and similar reflections on a world in crisis!
