MEDESKI, MARTIN & WOOD - NOT NOT JAZZ [BLU-RAY]

THE MEXICO TRILOGY: EL MARIACHI, DESPERADO & ONCE UPON A TIME IN MEXICO [4K ULTRA HD]

CASTLE OF BLOOD [4K ULTRA HD]

WE'RE JAZZED ABOUT AUGUST!

We're jazzed this month, but it's all NOT NOT JAZZ. Which happens to be the title of a new DVD and Bluray from downtown NYC legends MEDESKI, MARTIN & WOOD! These improvisational innovators of multi-styles are rooted in groove-based jazz but take the genre to stratospheric new heights. NOT NOT JAZZ is words, music, and a whole lot more!

Definitely NOT Jazz are iconic Cleveland punk band, the DEAD BOYS, who live again with RETURN OF THE LIVING DEAD on DVD and Bluray. Filmed live at an untamed Halloween show at the Ritz in NYC. Long live Stiv! A melding of blues, jazz and rock are spotlighted with releases from Allman Brothers original member DICKEY BETTS and CANNED HEAT. Betts' dazzles with LIVE AT THE LONE STAR ROADHOUSE NEW YORK CITY 1988, which is a mouthful, but Dickey delivers an earful of classics on this scorcher of a release. Available on CD, black vinyl, and indie exclusive green splatter vinyl. CANNED HEAT emerges on vinyl with an essential remaster of their 1970s release FUTURE BLUES, which features their hit cover of "Let's Work Together." They predicted the future, and it is available now!

WHEN TITANS RULED THE EARTH is not a reference to aging rockers, but the title of a limited edition 4K and Bluray from Arrow Video. This box set showcases two Action films cut from the CONAN cloth, CLASH OF THE TITANS and WRATH OF THE TITANS. Equally titanic is THE MEXICO TRILOGY, which compiles three South of the Border films, EL MARIACHI, DESPERADO and ONCE UPON A TIME IN MEXICO. Mucho caliente! THE WOMAN & OFFSPRING limited edition 4K is a tasty tale of the last surviving member of a feral cannibal clan, intent of taking a bite of the lawyer who tries to 'civilize' her!

New Kung Fu Action in Eureka Entertainment's Bluray of A MAN CALLED TIGER, a martial arts extravaganza from deep down in the depths of the Tokyo Underworld, our protagonist seeking revenge on a criminal conspiracy. And it is High Time for HIGH CRIME, coming from Blue Underground on DVD, Bluray and 4K. The Marseille, France heroin trade invades Italy. Available for the first time in America! International intrigue!

How can you NOT NOT LOVE THIS!?!

ACCRA Quartet - Gbɛfalɔi vinyl

Modern avant-garde jazz from Ghana with a funky groove and a bold experimental sensibility.

Recorded on a hot night in a one-room gospel music studio in Accra, comes Gbɛfaloi -- a remarkable record exploring the edges of contemporary African music. It's at once traditional and Avant Garde, extremely local and thoroughly cosmopolitan. Anchored in folkloric instruments and free improvisation, the music is more like the Art Ensemble of Chicago than the court drummers of the Ashanti king.

Aki Takase & Daniel Erdmann - Ellington Vinyl

Aki Takase and Daniel Erdmann collaborate on this Ellington themed recording.

Each song opens up a different approach and develops its own color. Swinging happiness stands next to ballad-like passion and romantic melancholy, impressionistic lightness next to dense clouds of sound

Ellington becomes the common point of reference, it's about his spirit, which inspired Mingus to write a piece that could be the title for this recording: 'Duke Ellington's Sound of Love".

Angel Sword - World Fighter Vinyl

Skull-crushing, rough-edged heavy metal from Finland - 3rd album.

Hailing from Helsinki, ANGEL SWORD formed in 2010 with the intent to play old-school heavy metal. Their music is a fresh breath of old air, finding some elusive (and deceptively laidback yet rough) landscape of late '70s heavy metal, subsequent NWOBHM, and adjacent early US power metal. "Our goal in this age of overproduced modern metal is to play rough-edged heavy metal," state ANGEL SWORD.

Critical Defiance - The Search Won't Fall Vinyl

The Chileans deliver their 3rd album - still a non-stop feast of riffs and violence but their most mature and professional so far.

The Chilean Critical Defiance has something for every thrash fan out there. Not in the sense of being homogenized and generic, but in their nearly magical melding of blitzkrieg tempos, dizzying technicality, aggressive shouts and gang vocals, and--rarest of all for a post-1990 thrash act--a healthy dose of actual, memorable melody.

Gorgatron - Sentience Revoked Vinyl

Top quality choice USDM from the beating heart of the Midwest

Gorgatron's 4th LP, Sentience Revoked, continues their upward trajectory of brutality & riff mastery. The album is a non-stop aural assault of top quality choice USDM from the beating heart of the midwest. Elements of tech and brutal death metal are abound, but in clever spurts that never pigeonhole the band to any micro-subgenre. Sentience Revoked see the band at their deadliest and most savage!

Lucifer's Hammer - Be And Exist Vinyl

The 4th album by this true-as-steel Heavy Metal band from Chile, anthemic and atmospheric from start to finish.

Since their formation in 2012, Chile's LUCIFER'S HAMMER have been fighting the good fight for heavy metal, both at home and abroad, establishing their trademark sound: pure & proud HEAVY METAL equally rooted in the '70s and '80s, with an air of anthemic memorability ala classic radio metal but never forgetting their underground roots. Be and Exist is their 4th album and arguably their storngest.

Lucifuge - Hexensabbat vinyl are their influences.

The blackened thrash beast is back with its 6th album which leans stronger to 80s thrash than the more blackened "Monoliths of Wrath". Since 2016, LUCIFUGE have been steadily perfect an addicting style of blackened speed metalpunk, all guided by the iron fist of mainman Equinox. Classic, ripping-FAST thrash similar to the '80s gods of Sodom. Kreator, Exodus, and of course Slaver + first and early second wave black metal bands

Unconditional Arms - Formation Vinyl

Debut full-length album from Oakland, CA post-rock band, Unconditional Arms

On the genesis of the album, primary songwriter and instrumentalist Jeff Wright says, "Formation" is the culmination of many things, but more so a reflection of my flawed ideation of compassion. It is an auditory exploration of my constant grappling with time, relationships, and responsibility. It is a gift I have wanted but did not have the knowledge to receive. It is a love letter to my growth.

Free Ride - Acido Y Puto CD

Free Ride channels the spirit of the '70s with their raw, real approach to rock music that transport listeners to the outer reaches of the cosmos.

Free Ride channels the spirit of the '70s with their raw approach to rock music. Influenced by the likes of Hendrix, The Stooges and Black Sabbath, the band's sound is a sonic tapestry of fuzzed-out riffs, pulsating rhythms, and lysergic solos that transport listeners to the outer reaches of the cosmos. 'Acido y Puto' it's a sonic exploration of the human psyche and the depths of the unknown.

BEASTO BLANCO are a raw, powerful, rock & roll band with a searing, theatrical live experience. Blood, Sweat and Gasoline are fueling Beasto Blanco's explosive rock sound. A band and an audience united in one inseparable union of musical thunder and sensational spectacle. Whether illuminated in the spotlights of cavernous arenas or headlining packed theaters and clubs, the band's mission is unwavering: to create an immersive experience where everyone is welcome to join an extended family whose support is unconditional and authentic. Produced by Chris Harms / Lord Of The Lost, the new record captures a sound inspired by Rob Zombie, Ministry, and Glenn Danzig. "Chris instantly got that vibe," says Calico. "We flew to Hamburg to track vocals and finish writing, and the sessions were amazing. Great energy in that city!" The resulting album, "Kinetica," blends the best of rock and metal into pure mayhem!

PRESS

"They have the unique approach of turning pure angst into an irreverent celebration of all things dark and malevolent while pushing the boundaries of hard rock and heavy metal. They are a highly entertaining and visual band flying the flag for theatrical heavy metal."

-Robert Cavuoto, Metal Rules.com

"One such example is the stunning cover of 'Feed My Frankenstein'. Beasto Blanco have taken one of Alice Cooper's most beloved tracks of the last few decades and knocked it on its ass. Beginning with an acoustic intro from Latham, it builds into a smoulder"

 $- {\sf Dave\ Stott,\ http://} {\it devilsgatemusic.co.uk/review-beasto-blanco-}$

"This adrenaline-fueled track Run For Your Life kicks things off with a sonic and lyrical call to face fears and trust bestial instincts."

-Eddie Trunk, https://eddietrunk.com/beasto-blanco-releases-new-

"Beasto Blanco refuses to run, embodying the spirit of the less than perfect, the flawed, and the free."

-Heavy, https://heavymag.com.au/beasto-blanco-return-with-

Klaus Schulze - In Blue CD

Klaus Schulze has revolutionized electronic music and is one of the legends of German electronic music. More than 3.5 hours of "Klaustrophobia"

When "In Blue" was released in 1995, many fans thought that this was the most typical Schulze record for a long time. They were probably right because Klaus did the songs a little bit with the fans in mind for whom the sounds of the previous album were too modern. In this respect "In Blue" is a more traditional Schulze record and, also, because it featured Manuel Goettsching.

Lucifer's Hammer - Be And Exist CD

The 4th album by this true-as-steel Heavy Metal band from Chile, anthemic and atmospheric from start to finish.

Since their formation in 2012, Chile's LUCIFER'S HAMMER have been fighting the good fight for heavy metal, both at home and abroad, establishing their trademark sound: pure & proud HEAVY METAL equally rooted in the '70s and '80s, with an air of anthemic memorability ala classic radio metal but never forgetting their underground roots. Be and Exist is their 4th album and arguably their storngest.

Ruben Romano - The Imaginary Soundtrack To The Imaginary Western Twenty Graves Per Mile

Ruben Romano's debut solo musical experimentations have become this imaginary soundtrack to an imaginary western film.

Within the popular heavy rock genre known as "Stoner Rock', Romano is a first round pioneer. He is the original drummer for both stoner rock legends "FU MANCHU" and "Nebula" while now fronting his own band appropriately named "The Freeks". Ruben is also a multi-instrumentalist, composer, and lyricist. He is a recording artist as well as a recording engineer.

Serries Amado Lisle - The Invisible CD

Debut album by international free jazz trio Dirk Serries (guitar), Rodrigo Amado (saxophone) and Andrew Lisle (drums)

When free jazz saxophonists of Portugal, Rodrigo Amado, met Belgian experimental guitarist Dirk Serries, it just clicked. After this duo they both felt they could continue as a trio with a drummer, Andrew Lisle. This trio meets the warm sax tone, grounded in proper free jazz traditions, with the relentless abstract guitar playing of Dirk Serries and versatile drumming of Andrew.

Zen – Live In Katsuvama was recorded in November 2023 at the Daishizan Seidai-ji Temple in Fukui, Japan. The performance by Kitaro and his ensemble commemorated the 35th anniversary of the temple's founding. The concert features Kitaro's most acclaimed and well-known compositions as well as rarely played

The most striking feature of the temple, also known as Echizen Daibutsu, is a 17-meter statue of Birushana Nyorai, one of the earliest Buddhist deities to arrive in Japan in the 6th century. The statue is commonly referred to as the Great Buddha of Echizen and is the tallest seated Buddha statue in Japan. The Buddha is flanked by four standing Bodhisattva statues, all of which are surrounded by over a thousand smaller stone statues. The five-storied pagoda that sits adjacent to the temple is also the tallest of its kind in Japan. For years, visitors have enjoyed breathtaking and impressive panoramic views of the surrounding landscape and mountainside from these buildings.

The accompanying DVD contains stunning footage of the temple, its surrounding grounds and Kitaro's live performance staged in front of the Great Buddha statue.

As Kitaro notes, "For many years, I have always strived to create a memorable and exciting spiritual live concert experience with breathtaking visuals. For this performance, my intention was to delve deeper into my past and include music that I have not performed anywhere previously. I am grateful and appreciative to those in my audiences that have supported me hout many decades. This performance reflects my heartfelt delight and appreciation of those many years and many enthusiastic audiences."

Guy Davis - The Legend Of Sugarbelly

M.C. Records is proud to announce the release of The Legend of Sugarbelly by legendary roots musician Guy Davis on August 23.

M.C. Records is proud to announce the release of Guy Davis' The Legend of Sugarbelly on August 23. The 13-song release by the Grammy-nominated legendary roots musician contains mostly original songs and several blues classics from Leadbelly, Rev. Gary Davis, and Blind Lemon Jefferson. On The Legend of Sugarbelly, Guy's gift for storytelling is on full display as he weaves tales of lost love, moonshiners, and redemption. The sparse backing on the recording lets Guy's voice shine throughout as well as his banjo and guitar playing. On some songs, you'll find him playing solo, others with a more full accompaniment. This is Guy's most complete recording with its engaging storytelling and gritty blues.

NICOLE MITCHELL & BALLAKÉ SISSOKO BAMAKO*CHICAGO SOUND SYSTEM

Nicole Mitchell's and Ballaké Sissoko's collaborative album embodies African griot traditions, rooted in the Black Amerikan blues/jazz lineage.

Renowned flutist, former AACM chair, Nicole Mitchell, and innovative kora player, Bamako's musical ambassador, Ballaké Sissoko have both defied conventions in their respective genres; Mitchell's Afrofuturist sound and cosmic ethic and Sissoko's integration of guitar progressions into kora compositions. Both push traditional forms into new spaces. Both bring a rich history of collaboration across various genres.

ACCRA QUARTET Gbsfaloi

Modern avant-garde jazz from Ghana with a funky groove and a bold experimental sensibility.

Recorded on a hot night in a one-room gospel music studio in the New Town district of Accra, comes Gbefaloi -- a remarkable record exploring the edges of contemporary African music. Ghanaian trombonist Elikplim Kofi and American guitarist Nathaniel Braddock had met at a concert at Accra's Alliance Française in 2017 when they both performed as members of the Abiza band. When Eli heard that Braddock was returning to Ghana in 2019, he reached out via WhatsApp to suggest a collaboration, sharing a sketch of a song and asking Braddock to produce a collaboration record. That August, they set up the session joined by two percussionists, known as Black and Brown. This session is the product of that night.

Medeski, Martin & Wood - Not Not Jazz

An in-depth look at the unique and wholly improvisational creative process of the revolutionary "avant-groove" band Medeski, Martin and Wood

A group that effortlessly straddles the gap between avant-garde improvisation and accessible groove-based jazz, Medeski, Martin & Wood have simultaneously earned standing as relentlessly innovative musicians and as an enormously popular act. Emerging out of the New York downtown scene in the early '90s, MMW soon set out on endless cross-country tours before returning home to Manhattan to further refine their sound through myriad influential experimentations. Each of the musicians -- keyboardist John Medeski, drummer/ percussionist Billy Martin, and bassist Chris Wood -- had crossed paths throughout the '80s, playing with the likes of John Lurie, John Zorn, and Martin mentor Bob Moses. In 1991, the trio officially convened for an engagement at New York's Village Gate. Soon, the group was rehearsing in Martin's loft, writing, and then recording 1992's self-released Notes from the Underground. As the group began to tour, escaping the supportive though insular New York music community, Medeski -- a former child prodigy -- switched to a Hammond B-3 organ rather than a grand piano.

with ULTRA-RARE BONUS FILM

From the early 60s, Film Masters brings you two independently produced films both with their own cult following. Door-to-Door Maniac, originally released in 1961 as Five Minutes to Live, stars Johnny Cash as a hardened criminal (Johnny Cabot). The wife (Cay Forester) of the bank vice president is taken hostage in her own home. What follows is a robbery gone awry in every way!

Right Hand of the Devil is a little-known film where Aram Katcher makes his bid to become the next Hitchcock. While a prominent movie director he is not, Turkish-born Katcher does star in the film, and not just on-screen. Producer, story creator, editor, title designer, and costume designer are just some of the other roles he took on with his magnum opus. Katcher leads the cast as an ingenious criminal mastermind who hires a motley crew of questionable henchmen who are intent on robbing a sports arena. Along the way, and critical to their plans, he seduces a middle-aged cashier, but she is not so easily convinced as she may appear. Representative of the neo-noir crime films of that era, these regional films make for a perfect back-to-back viewing late at night!

BONUS FEATURES

- Feature-length commentary for Door-to-Door Maniac by Author/Podcaster Daniel Budnik, and Film Historian Rob Kelly
- Feature-length commentary for Right Hand of the Devil by the Monstery Party Podcast
- Visual essay by Someone's Favorite Productions about the career of Aram Katcher
- Liner notes by Don Stradley and C. Courtney Joyner in a full-color booklet
- Original trailer for Right Hand of the Devil

An infamous burglar and jewel thief known as "The Bat" plays cat and mouse with the police and terrorizes the occupants of a mansion, leased from a bank president who is in Europe.

After the town bank is robbed, "the Bat" and a cashier named, Brook, who disappeared afterwards, are the main suspects. Strange things begin to occur in the mansion, such as mysterious noises, lights being turned on and off and an ominous shadow is seen by the occupants. When a rock is thrown through a window with a threatening note telling the occupants to leave 'or else', the renter, Cornelia Van Gorder, and her guests, suspect the money from the robbery might be hidden there. They begin a search for a hidden room, hoping to find the stolen money but when Ms. Gorder's guests begin turning up dead, she fears "The Bat" is trying to keep them from finding his 'Stash."

Sinister, otherworldly seeds take root in a locked-down Los Angeles with deadly results.

Spinning a modern-day allegory of the turbulent times we're living in "Terror Firma" is a sci-fi thriller and debut film from writer-director Jake Macpherson. It weaves a dark, out-of-this-world mystery of family, betrayal, and deadly floral.

When struggling artist Lola has nowhere else to go she uncomfortably leans on her older brother Louis for help. They haven't seen each other in over a year and the awkwardness is hard to hide as he welcomes her to stay with him in his run-down East Hollywood home. There's one catch though...Lou has a strange roommate named Cage whose instant interest in Lola is made agonizingly clear. Within minutes of Lola's arrival, the city of LA goes into a vague, mysterious lockdown with not much information for anyone other than the occasional police message from a circling helicopter. As the city keeps everyone inside, a packet of seeds arrives from the outside with no label and no answers.

VCI Entertainment presents this action-packed collection of Dick Tracy Film-Noirs made by the RKO Pictures restored and remastered for Blu-ray!

The comic-strip crime-fighter Dick Tracy, created by Chester Gould, was part of the Saturday matinee serials, starring Ralph Byrd. In 1945, RKO revived the Tracy series, and Morgan Conway was chosen to portray Tracy in a pair of feature films: Dick Tracy Detective (1945) and Dick Tracy vs. Cueball (1946). RKO's earliest publicity photos posed Conway in profile, hoping to imitate Gould's square-jawed caricatures. Although Conway's' screen Tracy didn't resemble the print Tracy in the flesh, Conway's dramatic interpretation was faithful; he gave the role a humble, businesslike quality while keeping with police procedure and is considered by many to be the best on screen Dick Tracy. Although Conway's Tracy was praised by critics as the closest to Gould's original concept, the public seemed to prefer Byrd, who returned in the role for the final two RKO features, Dick Tracy's Dilemma (1947) and Dick Tracy Meets Gruesome (1947)(with screen legend Boris Karloff (Frankenstein) spicing up the final RKO feature as the fearsome "Gruesome").

Bonus Features:

Loaded with Bonus Features including 8-commentary tracks by 4 different film experts | 4-video intros by Max Collins, former writer of the Comic Strip | 12-Page Collector Booklet | Poster & Photo Gallery | Plus bonus Dick Tracy serial chapters!

Country singers stranded on the way to Nashville spend the night in a mansion filled with skeletons, ghosts, and foreign secret agents.

Two country and western singers (Ferlin Husky and Joi Lansing) and their manager are en route to the Nashville Jamboree but become tired and stop to rest in an abandoned mansion. Little do they know, but the basement of the old house is headquarters for the evil Madame Wong (Linda Ho) and her entourage of foreign spies. Strange things begin to happen almost immediately and they suspect the place is haunted. However, our three heroes decide to spend the night anyway to escape an upcoming storm. Soon, (a song or two later) they settle down to get some shut-eye, but during the night the spies kidnap our female singer. Now things really get exciting as the hillbillies help capture the bad guys and foil a diabolical plan to steal a secret formula for rocket propellant. Now they're off to Nashville, not very rested, but happy and content to participate in the more normal pleasures of entertaining the audience of the giant Nashville Jamboree.

"Underneath the satirical madness lies a genuinely moving story of self-acceptance, self-love, and the inspiring act of an artist stepping into her power."

This revolutionary DIY parody film and hilarious reimagining of the classic autobiographical coming-of-age story follows an unconfident, closeted trans girl as she moves to Gotham City to make it big as a comedian by joining the cast of UCB Live - a government-sanctioned late night sketch show in a world where comedy has been outlawed. As mainstream success eludes our heroine, leading her to unite with a ragtag team of rejects, misfits, and a certain love interest named Mister J, "Joker the Harlequin" is born again as a confident (and psychotic) joker on a collision course with the city's fascist caped crusader. Vats of feminizing chemicals, sexy cartoon interludes, scarecrow psychiatrists, CGI Lorne Michaels, and psychedelic gender dysphoria all play supporting roles. Helmed by writer/director/editor/star Vera Drew and using her own life experiences as a basis for the film, 'The People's Joker' is a deeply personal journey that's as much documentary as it is parody.

When The Bullet Hits The Bone

An emergency-room doctor (Jeff Wincott, Prom Night) declares war on street crime after linking drug traffic to the federal government.

EVERYTHING SHATTERS...

As an ER doctor, Jack Davies (Jeff Wincott, Prom Night) has seen too many gunshot wounds, crack-addicted babies, and over-doses to feel like he's making a difference any more. Now he wants to get to the heart of the problem - drugs. Without knowing where to start, Jack accidentally uncovers a web of trafficking, payoffs, and corruption that extends to the very top of the U.S. government. Now he launches a one-man war against the conspiracy and learns that in order to conquer the brutal criminals, he has to fight them on their own terms.

Cult Classics DEMONS and DEMONS 2 newly remastered in 4K Ultra HD from the original camera negative in Dolby Vision

People trapped in a movie theatre become possessed by flesh-ripping demons!

They will make cemeteries their cathedrals and the cities will be your tombs... A masked man offers tickets to a horror movie sneak preview at the mysterious Metropol cinema. When a patron is scratched by a prop displayed in the theatre lobby, she transforms into a flesh-ripping demon! One by one, the audience members mutate into horrible creatures hell-bent on destroying the world! Can anyone escape this gory orgy of terror? Regarded by horror fans the world over as one of the greatest Italian splatter films ever made, Lamberto Bava's Demons is not only major cinematic nightmare fuel, but also a hugely entertaining gore-fest of the highest order. Produced by Dario Argento (Suspiria, Tenebrae, Phenomena). Demons features an amazing soundtrack of 80's rock/heavy metal music by Billy Idol, Scorpions, Mötley Crüe, Accept, Saxon and MORE!
