IN LOVING MEMORY of

Elinor Seaman

Elinor Seaman, the co-founder of MVD, passed peacefully on October 5, 2016, the day of her birthday, after a 7-year battle with pancreatic cancer.

Elinor’s passing marks a tremendous loss. She was a steady, comforting presence—the yin that balanced and anchored our office. Her warmth was unmatched and made even more genuine by all of her sass. And she was incredibly smart, usually teaching us something new about art, architecture or nature. She was also an accomplished fine artist, as well as a “critter whisperer,” taking great care of all the cats, deer, squirrels, chipmunks, birds, and raccoons that made their way to her backyard sanctuary.

Elinor consistently made people feel good, listened to and cared about—and that’s a hard thing to do. She was a beautiful person, and she leaves us with a lot of beautiful memories.

The family encourages donations in her memory be made to Fox Chase Cancer Center:
333 Cottman Ave., Philadelphia, PA 19111

MVD unwraps the gifts this season, opening with BRAD PAISLEY “LIFE AMPLIFIED WORLD TOUR: LIVE FROM WVU”! Pop goes the Country Superstar with this DVD and DVD/CD combo pack, filmed and recorded live in his home base of West Virginia in front of 30,000 raging fans! It doesn’t get any bigger, and Brad delivers the hits along with a special version of John Denver’s “Country Roads,” which has become the anthem for West Virginia University.

From Paisley Power to folk icons PETER, PAUL AND MARY, December offers the definitive documentary DVD on the iconic trio, 50 YEARS WITH PETER, PAUL AND MARY. This film was one of PBS’ biggest fundraisers in nearly a decade. Features personal archives, rarely seen footage, hit songs and their fascinating story, from Greenwich Village coffee houses to the World’s biggest stages. From that legendary trio to the tragic duo that was SID AND NANCY, the DVD THE LAST DAYS OF SID AND NANCY digs deep into their final days at NYC’s Chelsea Hotel, with new interviews from people who were there at the beginning and end. And the trip keeps rolling in this star-crossed month with the hit laden vinyl soundtrack to the classic film EASY RIDER, starring PETE FONDA and DENNIS HOPPER. Steppenwolf, JIMI HENDRIX, THE BYRDS and more relay the audio story of their wild ride. On translucent yellow vinyl to boot!

In film, a different ride invades the mediocre life of hairdresser BARNEY THOMSON in the dark comedy of the same name. Watch as his life goes from zero to 60 in five seconds as his staid life is about to intersect with that of a serial killer! And we continue the splatter spree with an ARROW VIDEO mega-deluxe reissue of both HELLRAISER (The Scarlet Box Limited Edition Trilogy) and George Romero’s classic CREEPSHOW 2. These vignettes of sheer terror are available in standard and limited editions. Pepper in some Sci-Fi with the films THE HYBRID, PLAN 9 and the creepy OUIJA POSSESSION and you have quite the hot pot!

MVD welcomes SEPIA RECORDS with a 10% OFF SALE (page 46): MVD’s on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter (MVD Entertainment Group).

2 Pac - Assassination: Battle For Compton

The unsolved murders of Tupac Shakur and Christopher "Biggie Smalls" Wallace still stir the public’s imagination after 20 years. Yet law enforcement has been at a standstill to produce results. The producers of “American Federation” and the first two “Assassination” films, finally unravel the tangled cases and expose not only who may have done it, but also why these cases have never seen justice.

Year of Production: 2014 | Rating: ALL | Director: Jim Brown | Producers: Jim Brown, Heather A. Smith, Martha Hertzberg | Actors: Peter Yarrow, Noel Paul Stookey, Mary Travers

50 YEARS WITH PETER, PAUL AND MARY is a documentary by four-time Emmy Award-winning producer/director Jim Brown and features rare and previously unseen television footage including a BBC program from the early 1960s that embodies many of the trio’s best performances and most popular songs. This is Peter, Paul and Mary at the peak of their artistry, a time when popular and influential trio dominated the Billboard music charts. From the group’s emergence in Greenwich Village, the hub of the Folk Music scene in New York, to the Civil Rights and Anti-War era of the 1960s, through the decades of their later advocacy and music, to Mary Travers’ moving memorial, and finally to the present, where their legacy continues to inform and inspire successive generations, this far deeper and more intimate exploration of the trio reveals the impact of their artistry and activism on their generation and the world. We wanted to sing songs of substance. We always felt that our actions had to have worth to be worth doing. We wanted to work together enough to have it be a meaningful part of our lives, but not so much that it wouldn’t be fun.

50 YEARS WITH PETER, PAUL AND MARY features these songs and more: • "Leaving On A Jet Plane" • "Blowin’ In The Wind" • "Puff, The Magic Dragon" • "Five Hundred Miles" • "Brother, Can You Spare A Dime?" • "If I Had My Way" • "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" • "Where All The Flowers Gone?" • "Early Mornin’ Rain" • "The Legend Of Peter, Paul And Mary" • "Long Gone Daddy" • "Would You Still Be Mine?" • "I’m Abel" • "If I Had My Way" • "If I Had My Way" • "Leaving On A Jet Plane" • "Blowin’ In The Wind" • "Puff, The Magic Dragon" • "Five Hundred Miles" • "Brother, Can You Spare A Dime?" • "If I Had My Way" • "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face" • "There But For Fortune" • "Early Mornin’ Rain" • "Where All The Flowers Gone?"

PRESS
"'The Ecstasy of Isabel Mann' is brutally horrific yet tragic. At its core, is a character piece that sees innocence develop into a macabre monster. Such a memorable piece of work with good old-fashioned storytelling from somebody who knows how to do it."
— Blood Guts

"'The Ecstasy Of Isabel Mann' sets a new standard for modern horror. The film - a brilliant mix of psychological thriller and over-the-top bloodbath - taps into viewers' psyches from every angle, without a single wasted frame. The story, the imagery, and the action are of the highest caliber."
— The Impaler Speaks

"Mullen is fantastic in the lead role, imbuing her character with all the melancholy and confusion required to breathe sympathy into someone who's been groomed to kill and is starting to enjoy it - though never truly understanding why."
— Sex Gore Mutants

"The movie strips out vampire mythology and leaves in a murder investigation. The strength of the whole thing is that it has no cackling villains doing rotten things. We just see the aftermath with the families the victims leave behind. Horror movies never looked so good and atmospheric."
— Revolution-SF (USA)

"Mullen is so good. A real pleasure to watch a vampire film that pushes the boundaries. Realistic, believable, and great."
— The Movie Monster (USA)

"'The Ecstasy Of Isabel Mann' is a superbly horrific piece of work that will leave you feeling unable to unthink its images."
— Stuart Willis, Sex Gore Mutants

Plan 9
A small town faces an alien invasion. But instead of lasers, spaceships, or epic force, the aliens are using the town's recently dead as soldiers.

Plan 9 is the story of Nilbog, a small town with a big story. The begin of an invasion! However, instead of lasers, space ships, and epic force, these aliens have a different plan for the inhabitants of Earth. To resurrect their dead as their own army set with but one goal...To wipe out all mankind! Only the towns folk on this Halloween night stand in the way of total domination. From the police department, to those trapped in a convenient store, and even those trying to stay alive in the streets, this night will decide the fates of all who walk the planet and thought they were the top of the food chain.

Pulse  Blu-ray Disc:
Kiyoshi Kurosawa delivered one of the finest entries in the "J-Horror" cycle of films with this moody and spiritually terrifying film that delivers existential dread along with its frights. Setting his story in the burgeoning internet and social media scene in Japan, Kurosawa’s dark and apocalyptic film foretells how technology will only serve to isolate us as it grows more important to our lives.

The Hybrid
An elite team of mercenaries is chosen to carry out a covert operation deep in a former Soviet state.

An elite team of mercenaries is chosen to carry out a covert operation deep in a former Soviet state. They must first battle the ferocious armed militia at ground level before descending through a maze of tunnels inhabited by dark, menacing creatures. When the team members arrive at an underground laboratory, they discover the purpose of their mission: A genius scientist has been genetically splicing alien DNA with human, and the results of this revolutionary work must be secured.

A group of eccentric college kids, struggling to get through their hectic exams, decide to throw a holiday party, adding a Secret Santa exchange for fun. Little do they know a killer is in town and has made a special list and each one of them has a special present waiting for them. A threading to classic holiday horror films from the 70's and 80's.

Sit Stay Ride: The Story Of America's Sidecar Dogs  DVD
Story of America's Sidecar Dogs is a documentary film about motorcyclists and their canine co-pilots. Across America, there are dogs of all breeds riding in the open air of motorcycle sidecars, whether on short trips around town or extended adventures on the highway. Entertaining and engaging, Sit Stay Ride follows a number of sidecar-riding dogs, trios, and foursomes as they travel together - sharing the experience of being out and about on a machine as unique as it's passengers.

Spaghetti Western Double Feature: Django The Bastard/Boot Hill  DVD
Two exceptional Spaghetti Westerns from 1969. Djang0 THE BASTARD follows a former Confederate soldier, who is seeking out 3 of his former commanding officers that betrayed his unit during the American Civil War over 15 years prior. BOOT HILL is the final act of the "Colizzi" trilogy. Estranged gun-slinging brothers team up once more to rid a small town of a greedy businessman.

Twilight Hour: Visions Of Ireland’s Haunted Past  DVD
A photographer finds fear as he investigates ghost stories in the darkest corners of the Emerald Island.

Since the dawn of history, people have believed in the existence of some form of ghosts. THE TWILIGHT HOUR is an unsettling encounter with the Celtic ruins, foreboding estates and restless spirits that haunt the landscape of Ireland. This innovative film - nominated for 2 Irish Film and TV Academy Awards - follows the late Sir Simon Marsden, acclaimed photographer of the fantastic and supernatural, into the darkest corners of Ireland, many uninhabited by living souls. He visits such notorious properties as Castle Leslie, where Sir John Leslie shares ancestral accounts of hauntings, as well as his own personal encounters with ghosts. Marsden wanders the eerie corridors of a long-forsaken mansion known as the most relentlessly haunted house in Ireland, and visits such weird and desolate spots as The Hill of the Witch in County Meath. The chilling result has been described as “an atmospheric tour de force”. THE TWILIGHT HOUR reveals the stories behind the ill-fated castles and abandoned mausoleums, the mysterious ruins and standing stones that have stood vigil through the ages across the Irish countryside. The film gives voice to the restless souls whose presence is both legendary and documented: the reckless child; the victim of a husband’s jealous rage; the family of violent, butchering men; the simple housemaid who was terrified to death, and now returns to terrify those still living. Marsden shares both his incredible store of paranormal folklore and his own innermost fears, while acclaimed actor John Hurt adds to the macabre voice of the restless spirits that haunt the landscape of Ireland. This journey is a disturbing, but beautiful glimpse into the darkness that is the Emerald isle.

Nino Rota - Satyricon Original Soundtrack Vinyl

Satyricon (1969) was one of the few adaptations helmed by Fellini during his career, based on the fragmented novel of the same title by Petronius. Nino Rota composed one of his most unusual scores for the film, evoking baroque rhythms and ancient-sounding instruments to underscore the colorful visual cacophony of the film. New remastered stereo version Limited lime vinyl plus poster of the iconic film's cover

AC/DC - Tokyo 1981

This CD was recorded in 1981 in Japan. AC/DC embarked on the mammoth Back In Black Tour, playing more than 240 shows worldwide over 13 months. The show presented on here was taken from the Japanese leg of the tour. Featuring a number of tracks from the new album - such as 'Back In Black' and 'You Shook Me All Night Long' - alongside many older favourites, this performance captures an extraordinary group.

Alexis Korner - Live From London

This super concert performance celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Marquee Club in London and recorded as part of the 'Live From London' series, is testament to Korner's talents as he is joined on stage by some famous friends including Bill Wyman, Charlie Watts, Ruby Turner & Jaki Graham to name but a few. Aenaon - Hypnosophy

This CD was recorded in 1980 in Germany. The great Oscar Peterson praised him with the simple words “THIS MAN WILL BE STRONG IN THE MUSIC WORLD FOR A LONG TIME!” and with this in mind Watson, San Francisco Sound, Tower Of Power (horn section), Eddie Cornelius, Duane Winslow, Larry Williams, Ernie Watts, Tony Matthews, Jessie Boyce, Freeman Brown, Bobby “Youngblood” Forte, Melvin Woolner, Blood Sweat and Tears and many more musicians and friends were brought in to record this incredible album. Songs include “Try To Help Your Brother”, “Latin X”, “Dew Drop Inn”, “People Don't Care No More”, “California I'm Coming”, “Good Good Girl”, “Iron Horse”, and “Funk Proof”. 10. “Working Hard”, “You Make Me So Very Happy”, and “Freeway Crowd” This A=album is not only a timeless masterpiece but a collectors edition! A MUST HAVE!
Vegas Knockout. Intense, angry songs with a sense of humor. Firmly rooted on a foundation of punk rock, and with a sarcastic wit, the 12 original tracks of aggressive indie rock inspired by and are set in the fictional universe created by author P Moss in his book, Attack Ships On Fire - Vegas Soul.

When Aswad played the Rockpalast recording at the Studio-B of the Westdeutscher Rundfunk nobody expected them to become pop stars. The Rockpalast concert shows Aswad at an early stage: influenced by punk, raw and untamed.

"Mind's Eye" is the third album of the Dutch neo-psych solo artist Astral Son. Tracks full of cosmic soundscapes, progressing into psychedelic songs with some funny riffs, ever changing and flowing.

The Rockpalast concert shows Aswad at an early stage: influenced by punk, raw and untamed. When Aswad played the Rockpalast recording at the Studio-B of the Westdeutscher Rundfunk nobody expected them to become pop stars in the future, yet. The 1980 Rockpalast concert shows the band at an early stage: influenced by punk, raw and untamed, years before they rose to be one of the most important reggae bands from Great Britain next to Steel Pulse.

The early '50s was a heyday for vocal groups, riding the wave of middle-of-the-road popular music in the Tin Pan Alley-dominated years before rock 'n roll changed pop music for ever. The early '50s was a heyday for vocal groups.

John Coltrane - Trane 90

Coltrane is a name that requires no forename prefix to identify its owner.

Like Parker, Ellington, Davis and Armstrong, Coltrane is a name that requires no forename prefix to identify its owner as one of the greatest of all jazz icons. It’s also a name that instantly conjures a sound: spearling, questing, earnest, deep and intense, that of a man who, in a recorded career of around a dozen years transformed not only his own music but much of the jazz landscape around him. His death, aged 41 in 1967, left an ach ing chasm at the heart of an art form and nearly fifty years after his passing his legacy continues to inform much of what is thought of as innovative within contemporary jazz. Even more unbelievably, a staggering nine decades have passed since the birth of this still controversial figure, a man whose music continues to generate passionate debate both for and against. Coltrane: 90 presents a four-disc anthology charting his journey from sideman to star, covering his seminal work with leaders including Miles Davis and Thelonious Monk, through his "horn for hire" phase as one of New York's hottest new jazz talents, in which he recorded with everyone from fellow tenor Sonny Rollins to avant-garde gurus Cecil Taylor and George Russell, onto the formation of his own quartet, a unit that was to change both the pace and the face of jazz. Classic Coltrane performances such as Moment's Notice, Giant Steps, Naima and Chasin' The Trane are included, as are his some steadying soles on tracks with Miles Davis (So What) and Thelonious Monk ( Trinkle Tinkle). However, this package is much more than a "greatest hits" writ-large. Complete with a major new essay on Coltrane by saxophonist and author Simon Spilliet, period photographs and a bonus disc of live material tracing Coltrane's career back to his early work with Dizzy Gillespie and Johnny Hodges, it provides the ultimate opportunity to witness Coltrane building his own legend, step by step.

A Study in Scarlet marks the first appearance of Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson, who would become two of the most famous characters in popular fiction. The book the title derives from a speech given by Holmes, an amateur detective, to his friend and chronicler Watson on the nature of his work, in which he describes the story's murder investigation as his "study in scarlet". "There's the scarlet thread of murder running through the colourless skein of life, and our duty is to unravel it, and isolate it, and expose every inch of it." By Sir Arthur Conan Doyle/Narrated by Graeme Rizzuto

Alice Cooper - El Paso County Coliseum 1980
Early Recording From Alice Cooper's Third Phase
With his eccentric stage antics, extensive use of props and trademark theatrical approach to the hard rock genre, it is no doubt that Alice Cooper's "The Godfather of Shock Rock" is justly deserved. Since his breakthrough as a solo artist in 1975 - which of course followed the Alice Cooper glory years when AC was an entire band, not just the singer.

Bob Drake - Arx Pilosa (CD)
Ideas rich, sonically breathtaking & compositionally daring pop songs…Radical innovation recast in contemporary terms!
So remarkable it’s hard to begin. Those who liked the idea-rich, sonically breathtaking & compositionally daring pop music of the 60s, will recognize a similar mixture of pop-sensibility & radical innovation, now recast in contemporary terms. Unassumingly virtuosic & a state of the art studio merely as means to greater ends. I know we’ve all heard everything these days, but you haven’t heard this.

MVD WELCOMES:
Squidhat Records

Established in 2012 in Las Vegas, SquidHat Records, is an artist friendly, independent record label created to help talented, interesting, creative and passionate artists record and promote their music, develop their brand and image, and increase their exposure to a larger audience. Our focus is on local Las Vegas punk and aggressive indie rock. With over 45 years of combined experience in the business as recording and touring artists, we have seen the good and the bad of the music industry. SquidHat Records was founded on the principle of helping artists bypass the pitfalls and BS of the industry so that they can do what they do best and get heard by people who will get what they all about. Utilizing our talents and experience as well as the relationships we have built with recording studios, distributors, merchandisers, venues and other musicians, we can help hard-working and dedicated artists succeed. Why? Because music doesn’t have to suck and neither does the music business.

MVD WELCOMES:
Spotted Peccary Music

Spotted Peccary Music is North America's finest independent record label with a focus on deep, vast and introspective soundscapes. Since the mid-1980s, Spotted Peccary Music has been on a mission to develop, produce, publish and release ultra high quality, deep listening experiences that engage the listener and exceed expectations. For over three decades, the artists of Spotted Peccary have continued to explore the combined textures of electronic and acoustic music; defining a unique sound that embodies the essence of this vast world, and expanding the very boundaries of inspiration. From deep drone, to chillout, to high energy beats, Spotted Peccary traverses the worlds of Ambient Electronic, Classic Berlin-School, Ethereal Atmospheric, Spaceemusic, Rock, Pure Acoustic and more; with one goal in mind — releasing outstanding music that transcends any boundaries previously imposed by these genres. In many cases, Spotted Peccary releases are difficult to classify, and for good reason — our label believes that good music is of utmost importance, while fitting neatly into any one category is irrelevant. “Creativity, freshness, dedication, aural and visual equilibrium, consistency, spirituality, fineness, essentiality...these are just some of the words in my mind when speaking about Spotted Peccary.”

Knowbody Else - Soldiers Of Pure Peace

Culled from the pre-black Oak Arkansas Psychiatric Masterpiece from 1967, Hailing from the northeast corner of Arkansas, Knowbody Else was a groundbreaking musical force during the Summer of Love who were caught up in the post-Sgt Pepper / Byrds-ian day-glow era. What they created at Ardent Studio in 1967 with legendary Memphis producer Jim Dickson is nothing short of a truly brilliant psychiatric masterpiece influenced by "the times they are a changin'!" How these ten unreleased original songs have remained unknown and unheard for 45 years is both a mystery and a crime. Arf! FiXT

FiXT, the brainchild of Klayton, the internationally-renowned artist/producer Celldweller, is a forward thinking independent record label serving a group of world-class electronic, alternative, and hybrid artists, including: Blue Stahli, Celldweller, Circle of Dust, I Will Never Be The Same, Richy Nix, Scandoird, SeamlessR and Voicians.

FiXT heavy-hitters Celldweller and Blue Stahli have developed a die-hard following with the significant success of their respective Self-Titled (debut) and sophomore albums – Celldweller’s 'Wish Upon A Blackstar' and Blue Stahli’s 'The Devil.' Additional both artists are supported by a list of extensive Film/TV/Video Game credits, which include: Guardians of the Galaxy, Pacific Rim, Iron Man 3, Tron, John Wick, Robocop, American Horror Story, American Idol, Dead Rising 2 & 3, Assassins’ Creed II and hundreds more. Never one to be confined by borders, FiXT is undertaking a world invasion in 2016, with European newcomers The Algorithm and The Qemists already on board and forthcoming releases from UK 5-piece Seething Akira and Russian based quartet Raizer.
Satyricon (1969) was one of the few adaptations helmed by Fellini during his career, based on the fragmented novel of the same name by Petrusius Nino Rota. One of his most unusual scenes for the film, evoking baroque rhythms and ancient-sounding instruments, was the colorful visual iconography of the film's New Testament-styled version.

Pinetop Perkins: "This traces the lifetime of this great blues man from Plantation to blues piano with Muddy Waters. Live concert footage and interviews with, Kim Wilson, Bernard Allison, Bob Margolin, Koko Taylor, Ann Rabson, Ike Turner, Paul Desager, Marcia Ball, The Knight Hawks, Willie Smith, Dr. John, Bobby Rush, Calvin Jones and others."

MVD WELCOMES:
Pitch Black Records

Established in 2008, Pitch Black Records is a heavy metal label whose founder first and foremost loves music! He is also thrilled to discover great new music (and talent) however and sharing his discoveries with others. Pitch Black Records was created (and is still run) out of pure love and passion and those two elements are always reflected in each and every one of the label’s releases. Pitch Black Records has always been proud about its diversification in terms of styles, ranging from hard rock, progressive and heavy or power metal to thrash, black and death metal. The label is equally proud to be home to many different nationalities of artists, while its releases are truly special, full of passion and top-notch in terms of musicianship and quality. Included among the label’s many outstanding releases, are “Citizens of Nowhere” (2016) by Canadian stoner metallers GYPSY CHIEF GOLIATH which was recorded fully analogue as well as “Ira Imperium” (2011) by epic power metallers ARRAYAN PATH which features a guest appearance by former BLACK SABBATH vocalist Tony Martin (ARRAYAN PATH’s vocalist is now also handling vocals for legendary US epic metallers WARLORD).

Damned - The Captains Birthday Party (Vinyl)

The album to show is documenting live a concert at London's Roundhouse. Featuring the original classic line-up running through Damned Damned Damned-era songs, and a smattering of new ones. While the studio recordings the group did show their considerable abilities at making fiery, kicking rock and roll, this entertaining record still boasts through enough performance and energy. The recording is recorded on early Pat, but still is remarkably clear (aside from a number of feedback squawks) making it a much better document of the era than many of the similar live releases from the same time.

Fleetwood Mac - Life Becoming A Landslide Vinyl

The release of this album in October '75 by the Mac-Vo-We-Mele-Buckingham-Nicks line up, three months after the release of their first album together, is an early illustration of the new Fleetwood Mac in their initial phase. Their eponymously titled album had not at this point charted and the single 'Over My Head' had only reached No. 12 of the charts. However, listening to this broadcast concert today it is not difficult to understand how it was that within another year Fleetwood Mac would be among the biggest rock bands on the planet.
