DEAL

A VICIOUS CHRISTMAS!

The holiday season is a time for re- birth, and wouldn't you know it, Sid Vicious lives again! This month finds the release of SID LIVES, a live double CD document from the last ever Sid gigs, featuring two late members of the New York Dolls. All told, these punk icons breathe new life into classic staples by the Dolls, Iggy and the Sex Pistols. These guys never sounded more alive than on SID LIVES!

Also rising from the ashes is the quintessential Southern rock band Lynyrd Skynyrd. The story of the tragedy that claimed the lives of key members of the band is detailed on the DVD I'LL NEVER FORGET YOU: THE LAST 72 HOURS OF LYNYRD SKYNYRD. They'll be playing 'Free Bird' in heaven when we get there!

The legendary Kenny Rogers has given up the touring life, but was recorded on his swan song in 2017, documented on the CD/DVD combo THE GAMBLER'S LAST DEAL. All the hits with lots of bonus features keeps the Kenny Rogers performing legacy alive!

The genre of Heavy Metal has been enjoying a long holiday that shows no signs of dying, since its heyday in the '80s up until the present. The DVD COME ON FEEL THE NOIZE: THE STORY OF HOW ROCK BECAME METAL presents its LOUD history with interviews from the land of the living, including those with Alice Cooper, James Hetfield, Ozzy Osbourne and more.

WATERWORLD, the limited edition Kevin Costner epic is back in circulation this month with a bluray reissue from ARROW VIDEO. "The most expensive film ever made," at the time of its release, and YOU can own it for a mere pittance! Also from Arrow this month comes the 4K restoration of the Sci-Fi opus SLAUGHTERHOUSE-FIVE, adapted from a Kurt Vonnegut novel. And Sci-Fi meets horror meets zombies in the DVD VIRUS OF THE DEAD. You are already infected!

If you have a dream to see Dr. Martin Luther King Jr on the advent of that famous speech, the DVD series DAVID SUSSKIND ARCHIVE features an intimate interview with the Reverend. King accuses the Kennedy administration of dragging its feet on Civil Rights legislation, that provided the president a wake up call.

MVD HOLIDAY- Alive Inside!

SALES! On M.i.G. Music (pg15), and Trapeze (pg26) and Christmas titles (pg38)!

Acidhead - Distractions Vinyl

An experimental deconstruction of pop music and R&B, a reassembly of classical beauty delivered with love and angst.

Acidhead is the brainchild of Patrick McGee, saxophonist, composer, multi-instrumentalist, producer, empath. Distractions is his debut, an introduction and experiment; a deconstruction of pop music, a fracturing and reassembling of classical beauty delivered with angst. The songs blur and blend the lo-fi of punk with the tenderness of Aaron Copland, brimming with the desperation of troubled love.

Dearly Beloved - Times Square Discount Vinyl

TSD is an LP partially borne of bingeing on Kubrick and drugs and wondering How do we make Kubrick an album?

Times Square Discount, has some of the most pop-savvy material yet to appear in the Dearly Beloved canon. "Vacation" and "LSD" have a slinky, stick-in-your-head seductiveness, "Close Encounters" and "Dog Food Thumbs" a sing-song quality lurking amidst the battery. Meanwhile, "Race to the Bottom" is an anthemic salute to the mom-and-pop shops and the family members that run them.

Eloy - The Vision, The Sword And The Pyre Part II Vinyl

Frank Bornemann, from German art rock legends ELOY, presents part 2 of his opus on the history of Joan of Arc.

The author first realised this ambitious work in English as a band version, predominantly with musicians under the successfully established ELOY trademark. But there are also big choirs to be heard on this rock opera, various contributions by guest musicians, which effectively complement the band instrumentation, and also spoken parts at special moments.

Dana Gould - I Know It's Wrong Vinyl

Like his beloved Lenny Bruce, Dana Gould gleefully bounds over the line, daring listeners to leap along with him. Like his beloved Lenny Bruce, Dana Gould knows exactly where the line is. Which is to say, he knows exactly what he's doing when he gleefully bounds over the line, daring listeners to leap along with him. A multi-hyphenate (actor, comedian, voice talent, producer, podcaster, & seven-year "Simpsons" writer, among other jobs) Pied Piper, he segues with, "Here's a funny story about a recent murder."

Low-fly Quintet - Winter Love Song Vinyl

Vocal jazz with inspiration from New Orleans and jazz from the first half of the 20th century Their first release was reviewed in Down Beat: «(...) A modern take on a bluesy 30s sound (...) the group shows it's potential in appealing takes on vintage songs. (Down Beat February issue 2018) They have developed their expression further, creating vivacious, elegant, raw and genuine original songs inspired by the vocal jazz of the first half of the 20th century. .

Mesarthim - Absence Vinyl

Mesarthim shows a darker, harsher, and more depressive side to their music, still with their unmistakable sound. Limited edition grey vinyl. Mesarthim voyages into the greatest of unknowns. They acknowledge the terrifying vastness with throat shredding rasps and frigid tremolo picking lines while affirming the glorious wonder through shimmering synth pads and driving rhythm. "Absence" encapsulates the fear and awe humanity feels towards the outer reaches of the universe.

Bill Conti

Masters Of The Universe: Original MGM Motion Picture Soundtrack

SILVER + BONE WHITE VINYL, 2 X 12" LP

NOTEFORNOTE ENTERTAINMENT / SKU: NFN1018LP / UPC: 850001545020 / SRP: $34.99

This edition features different cover art from previous editions. We are using two colors that go with the theme of the movie - LP1 will feature a silver color that reflects He-Man's famed power sword, the one where he proclaims he has the POWER!. LP2 will be what we call bone white color to match Skeletor's famed face. There is a whole new generation of fans collecting the toys and watching the old cartoon series. A new film is coming out later this year which should create major excitement with fans. This is a great opportunity for new fans (and old ones who missed out on previous releases!) to pick up this soundtrack and enjoy what we feel is one of Bill Conti's best scores. Get them while they last! The Masters of the Universe are being rebooted for a new live action movie in 2020 by Mattel and Sony Pictures.

Chris Porter - Lost & Alone Vinyl

the chances of getting a heart-warming story about a life of happiness out of your Uber driver are pretty much zilch.

Even drunks can understand probabilities & the chances of getting a heart-warming story about a life of happiness & fulfillment out of your Uber driver are pretty much zilch. Chances are about the same w/ an internationally known comedian. The chances of hilarity, however, are far higher with the latter. Last Comic Standing, Netflix special, 2 Comedy Central features, a live DVD/CD, & now this LP.

Revillos! - Compendium Of Weird Vinyl

Collection of Revillos! rarities

Collection of rarities. So many years after the demise of The Revillos!, can there be any music in the vaults that hasn't already been regurgitated? I thought we had exhausted our spare tunes with the From The Freezer CD back in 1996. But no. Shortly before he passed away, I convened with guitarist Kid Krupa to review some unreleased material, and we were encouraged enough to revisit the exercise.

Revillos! - Live From The Orient Vinyl

Expanded reissue of the classic 1994 live album from The Revillos!

The Revillos! had lain dormant since 1985, but nine years on, we were asked to reform especially for a Japanese tour. All gigs were filmed and the Tokyo performances were captured on an 8-track machine. Finally coming out some two years later in 1996, the resultant album - on the Vinyl Japan label - missed off six songs. Most of the original, unreleased mixes became lost. Until now!

Solace - The Brink Vinyl

Evolving from Headbanger's Ball alum Godspeed, South Jersey's SOLACE helped found the first wave of US stoner metal with their timeless debut "Further," dropping 50-ton slabs of next-level riffage every few years up to their acclaimed "A.D" album in 2010. An epic return, "The Brink" is a glorious double-album of NWOBHM dual-guitar attack, weighty doom power and riff-drunk sea shanties. Legends!

David Cross - ...America...Great...

In a time of Trumpian greatness, Cross takes the stage to share his favorite things, like jokes that require explanation

In a time of Trumpian greatness, David Cross takes the stage to share just a few of his favorite things: jokes that require explanation, inscrutable customer service guarantees, the ancillary powers of dairy, Infowars Santa exposés, manipulating international currency at family genocide celebrations, using his given name (Sugar Ray Leonard), parsing the verbal tics of Hitler youth, fantasizing--sexually and politically--about patriotic statuary, swiftly destroying the street cred of Libertarian icons, calculating the scope of tragedy necessary to spur gun reform in legislative halls awash in NRA rhetoric and cash, and predicting the cascade of nationalist, racist, and misogynist retrenchment that would come to mark the Trump Administration's efforts to remake American greatness. All that and limited edition vinyl? MAGA, mother*ckers!

Amazon is the third chapter of our river collection, taking you on a journey through South American traditional music

After the Nile and Mississippi, it is now the turn of the world's largest river - and perhaps the most important - to be honoured: the Amazon. Whether from Brazil, Peru, Colombia, Venezuela or Bolivia, this "Amazonian" music is unique in its territorial particularities. It is like the river: it is whole, it is powerful, even sometimes indomitable

One day before the first anniversary of Jack Bruce's death, on 24th. October 2015, his daughter Natasha (also known as Aruba Red) organized a tribute concert in honor of her father at London's Roundhouse.

The 25th. Oct. 2019 is the fifth anniversary of the death of Jack Bruce. And exactly on this day this concert will be released in a box set as DVD and double CD, all in outstanding sound- and image quality.

The concert was quickly sold out, many guests came to honor the unique person and artist Jack Bruce on stage: the "longtime Cream companion" Ginger Baker, Jon Anderson (Jethro Tull), Joss Stone, Phil Manzanera (Roxy Music), Mark King (Level 42), Uli Jon Roth and many more. Musical director of the evening was with the well-known British DJ, producer and remixer Nitin Sawhney.

Eric Clapton, who founded the legendary psychedelic blues rock band Cream together with Jack Bruce and Ginger Baker in 1966, was unfortunately not able to take part in the London Roundhouse event. But he personally remembers his friend Jack Bruce, who was an "enormous inspiration" for him throughout his life, with the musical homage "For Jack", which he wrote especially for him and which is released here for the first time on record as a bonus.

Stefanie Boltz - Midwinter Tales CD

Stefanie Boltz is a storyteller: own, strange, invented stories or the embellished ones, on long midwinter evenings

The wintertime holds a very special energy. Centuries before mulled wine and Christmas cookies, this time has already had a magical effect on our ancestors. Singer-songwriter Stefanie Boltz especially likes the "Midwinter", the winter solstice - when the days are getting shorter, one moves closer together by the fireplace, comes to rest and gives the soul the yearning for spring.

Cochise - Exit: A Good Day To Die CD

Sixth studio album by grunge rock band from Poland, Cochise

New studio album by one the best grunge rock bands from Poland. The follow-up to the album "Swans And Lions" (2018) is their sixth full-length release. Musically, new material is a continuation of what the band recorded so far. Cochise perfectly blend energetic songs enriched with heavy, almost metal sounds with more delicate, atmospheric ones.

Sid Vicious - Sid Lives

The resurrection of SID VICIOUS continues with SID LIVES' - a 2xCD of Sid's last ever four shows. Containing 39 tracks, mostly previously unreleased, it comes packaged with comprehensive 8,000-word notes in the 24-page booklet. This tells the story of Sid: firstly in an eyewitness account from surviving guitarist Steve Dior; secondly in a lengthy SID, NANCY and SEX PISTOLS day-by-day timeline from pre-Pistols early days to his demise (and inevitable Nancy death theories); plus a song-by-song background. Since his death Sid has come to symbolize the Sex Pistols - always courting controversy he out-did old college-mate Johnny Rotten in the punk outrage stakes. With an impressive rock'n'roll voice and an abundance of attitude, just three memorable solo singles was all that he left - plus an industry of posters, documentaries and films. These recordings, backed by the New York Dolls' late rhythm section of Arthur Kane and Jerry Nolan along with guitarist Steve Dior (who at that time were playing together as 'The Idols'), show the direction Sid would have gone for his next recordings had he lived. This is the definitive Sid Vicious release for all fans of the punk-rock scene.

Alvin Curran & Jon Rose - Café Grand Abyss CD

A duo made in heaven and a rare combination of proper musicianship and exquisite musical thinking. Living legends...

Living legends Rose & Curran have known each other since 1985. Here Alvin is spookily surefooted in his deployment of an often counterintuitive palette of sounds & Jon just brilliant: a rare combination of proper musicianship and exquisite musical thinking. Curran takes his samples straight - it's the choice that leads away from the main path. Rose responds w/ regular & amplified tenor violins.

Deckchair Poets - Always Piste At Christmas CD

Always Piste At Christmas, is an extraordinary take on skiing (or is it?)

Deckchair Poets fourth album, Always Piste At Christmas, is their extraordinary take on skiing (or is it'), but obviously as seen from a rather unique, and sometimes extremely humorous sleigh ride, situated somewhere over the rainbow, maybe near The North Pole, or maybe not. It's Christmas, but not as we know it, Jim!

Eyehategod - Dopesick [Reissue] CD

Sludge masters!

Eyehategod was formed in 1988 in New Orleans and could be considered one of the most famous American sludge metal bands. Eyehategod have noted Melvins, Carnivore, The Obsessed... as key influences to their sound. Heavy, detuned, and bluesy guitar riffs dominate the band's discography. They are combined with walls of feedback and tortured vocals to create a harsh misanthropic vibe.

Sverre Gjorvad - Voi River CD

Instrumental jazz/alternative, with their own version of G.Harrison´s Here Comes The Sun

Instrumental jazz/alternative rock/pop/roots..... It is tempting to describe the music as minimalistic, but it is perhaps more correct to call it transparent, or "not saturated". The titles of the compositions give room to the listener's imagination, and the music is characterized by melodic lines and riffs, dressed suitably with harmony and colour.

Ow! Live at The Penthouse is a collection of previously-unissued recordings by the super-charged saxophone duo of Johnny Griffin / Eddie "Lockjaw" Davis captured over 2 nights at the famous Penthouse jazz club in Seattle, WA in 1962. Though the tenor sax battle became a fixture of the hard bop era after Dexter Gordon and Wardell Gray established the format with "The Chase" in 1947, no duo was as powerful or as prolific as Davis, a veteran of the Count Basie Orchestra and a popular trio with organist Shirley Scott, and Griffin, noted for his high-voltage work with Thelonious Monk. The pair who became known known as "the Tough Tenors" cut nine LPs – including four live albums caught at Minton's in New York – for Prestige and Jazzland in 1960-62. This limited edition deluxe CD set features the potent rhythm section of Horace Parlan on piano, Buddy Catlett on bass and Art Taylor on drums. The extensive booklet includes rare photos from Lee Tanner and Esmond Edwards, cover photo by Don Schlitten ; essays by historian Ted Panken and pianist Michael Weiss; inter-views with drummer Kenny Washington and saxophonist James Carter plus more! This is the third release from Reel To Real Recordings launched by producer Zev Feldman and saxophonist Cory Weeds focussing on important archival jazz recordings.

Stefan Koschitzki & Fabiano Pereira - Brazilian Blues CD

Brazilian Blues, the new album by the duo Koschitzki / Pereira, is both continuation and expansion.

At the beginning of 2011, Stefan Koschitzki (saxophone, clarinet, flute) and Fabiano Pereira (guitar), started a musical track that provided plenty of scope for future exploits, together with two colleagues in the band collective Mit4spiel5. At that time, excellent solo finesse playfully and easily merged with emotions that had become music - both casual and demanding at the same time.

Atle Nymo - Solo For Trio CD

At the ripe age of 42, the saxophonist Atle Nymo debuts in 2019 with music that has inspirations from the 60s

"I wanted to explore a musical setting that was more open and subdued than the ones that I usually work within," says Atle, who cites the energy-sparkling, expressive jazz of the 60's as the main base for his playing, and saxophonists like John Coltrane, Sonny Rollins, Gato Barbieri and fellow Norwegians Knut Riisnaes and Jan Garbarek among his early influences.

Ofdrykkja - Irrfard CD

One of the best depressive black metal releases ever!

Depressive rock is something that I'm not a stranger to, but pairing it with black metal has lead to a combination that simply must be heard. I knew that this record was going to be something special, and the ensuing venture that "Irrfard" provides is one that the listener won't soon forget simply because of how splendid it is. This band is destined to garner a loyal cult following.

Andrea Pancur - Weihnukka CD

Weihnukka is a unique and very personal musical mixture of the two great festivities Christmas and Hanukkah.

Why don't you do a Weihnukka CD", that's what label boss Daniel Dinkel said to me on the phone. My reply: „Me' Something religious' I'm not that into religion. Daniel, are you sure I'm the right person'" He said, „ Yes, just go ahead." So I decided to record a very personal „Weihnukka" CD and wrap up my own questions around the two festivities of Christmas and Hanukkah.

Revillos! - Compendium Of Weird CD

Collection of Revillos! rarities

Collection of rarities. So many years after the demise of The Revillos!, can there be any music in the vaults that hasn't already been regurgitated? I thought we had exhausted our spare tunes with the From The Freezer CD back in 1996. But no. Shortly before he passed away, I convened with guitarist Kid Krupa to review some unreleased material, and we were encouraged enough to revisit the exercise.

Revillos! - Live From The Orient CD

Expanded reissuue of the classic 1994 live album from The Revillos!

The Revillos! had lain dormant since 1985, but nine years on, we were asked to reform especially for a Japanese tour. All gigs were filmed and the Tokyo performances were captured on an 8-track machine. Finally coming out some two years later in 1996, the resultant album - on the Vinyl Japan label - missed off six songs. Most of the original, unreleased mixes became lost. Until now!

The Precious Years: 34 Teen Dance Hits From The Bear Family Archives

CD with 28-page booklet, 34 tracks, total playing time approx: 77:29 mns

Teenage parties of the late 1950s and early '60s had a soundtrack all their own, full of sweet and happy songs about teenage love, innocent good times, breaking-up and well...teenage parties. Bear Family's 34-song CD compilation 'The Precious Years'would have been perfect listening for those attending high school dances, sock hops, college parties, record hops, pyjama parties, and senior proms, loaded with wonderful ditties celebrating the joys of being young by some of the leading teen idols of the day-Rick Nelson, The Everly Brothers, Paul Anka, Tommy Sands, Eddie Cochran, Johnny Burnette (his brother Dorsey's here too), and Pat Boone, just for starters. But here's more. Even though we have names like Lefty Frizzell, Marty Robbins, Jimmy Donley, Marvin Rainwater and Glenn Reeves (to name a few) not directly associated with teenage music, these artists have delivered a number of highly acclaimed contributions to this genre. Nothing too wild or raucous here, just lighthearted toe-tapping and up-tempo rock and roll and a few dreamy ballads from the golden teenage era by young singers who knew how to carry a tune. This is the kind of great pop music you could hear at the parties of those years. We will take you on a journey through time to the milkshakes, ice cream sundaes, pizza parlors, malt shops and drive-in cinemas.

Karl Schwonik - Reinventions CD

Award-winning Canadian jazz quartet reinvent their sound

The act of invention can take many shapes and forms. Creating something where there was once a void, identifying an opportunity and maximizing the potential therein, changing the world by bringing a newness not experienced before. Reinvention however is another concept all together: there is preexisting material, something came before, creation already occurred.

Solace - The Brink CD

Evolving from Headbanger's Ball alum Godspeed, South Jersey's SOLACE helped found the first wave of US stoner metal with their timeless debut "Further," dropping 50-ton slabs of next-level riffage every few years up to their acclaimed "A.D" album in 2010. An epic return, "The Brink" is a glorious double-album of NWOBHM dual-guitar attack, weighty doom power and riff-drunk sea shanties. Legends!

Solarstone - One CD

A project assured enough in time & scope to draw the listener in, rather than hustle for short-lived attention in a consume/forget manner. The reason: well, several. Chief among them though is if you cross paths with but one Solarstone longplayer in your life, better it's his most considered, expansive & honed 'One'.

Tad Morose - Undead [Reissue] CD

Superb prog-power from Sweden!

Tad Morose is a Swedish prog-power band formed in 1991 and led by guitarist Christer Andersson. They debuted back in 1993 ("Leaving The Past Alive"). The band released "Modus Vivendi" in 2004, which signaled a shift away from symphonic and prog metal. Then they stopped every activity. Tad Morose reformed in 2013 with a new lineup featuring singer Ronny Hemlin, formerly of Steel Attack.

The Twelve Rockin' Days Of Christmas CD

The Twelve Rockin' Days of Christmas, The Grown-Up Christmas A 30 track celebration

'The Twelve Rockin' Days of Christmas, The Grown-Up Christmas' takes a different approach towards compiling a Christmas album. Most certainly I include songs which are related to the season of joy, togetherness and childhood memories. I however look at Christmas from different eyes, those of a grown-up who no longer believes in Santa Claus, but naturally wishes to celebrate.

Robbie Basho - Voice Of The Eagle:
The Enigma Of Robbie Basho

Feature-length documentary on the extraordinary life and visionary music Robbie Basho.

Voice of the Eagle: The Enigma of Robbie Basho is a feature-length documentary on the extraordinary life and visionary music of the American guitarist, singer and mystic Robbie Basho. Before his bizarre death at the hands of a chiropractor, Robbie Basho was sure that his compositions would not outlast him. Orphaned during infancy, diagnosed with synaesthesia (a union of the senses that caused him to interpret sound as colour) and claiming to be the reincarnation of a 17th century poet--the Baltimore-born, Berkeley-based guitarist and singer's musical output was equally as outlandish as his persona. In his brief and troubled life he laid the foundations for radical changes to the musical landscape of America during the 1960s and '70s but reaped little more than a sparse (if fervent) following during his lifetime. Voice of the Eagle: The Enigma of Robbie Basho is a journey into the heart of an artist's lifelong struggle: designed to illuminate and satiate existing fans while serving as a perfect starting point for the uninitiated. Featuring interviews with Basho's former students, contemporaries and few close friends (including Pete Townshend, William Ackerman, Henry Kaiser and Country Joe McDonald), the documentary integrates new information and anecdotes on Basho with previously uncovered archive material and photography of the landscapes and natural phenomena that informed his work.

Black Metal: The Ultimate Documentary

Blu-ray Disc

The only Black Metal documentary that you will ever need

You can watch the fake documentaries that perpetuate the fictional stories and yellow journalism, or you can watch something that shows artists speaking as they do to friends, instead of facades that the media loves. No other documentary has this huge amount of bands, and no other documentary treats you, the viewer, like an equal. There is no need to explain things that you already know.

Kenny Rogers - The Gambler's Last Deal

Farewell concert from country superstar Kenny Rogers, filmed at the London Palladium in 2017

Kenny Rogers is a true living legend of classic country music. His final tour, titled The Gambler's Last Deal,celebrates that career and the scope of his talent from his very first recording made when he was in school, through his time with The First Edition, then on to his amazing solo years.

The Gambler's Last Deal is more than just a concert. It's a musical journey of Kenny's life, compered by Kenny of course, complete with track after track of all his hits, archive footage, music videos and past concert performances from Dolly Parton, Alison Krauss and Dottie West.

Filmed at the legendary London Palladium in 2017 at the end of his final world tour and combined with live footage from numerous other venues on the tour, the concert spans an impressive six-decade career that established Kenny as a top recording artist with 150 million records sold worldwide.

Ever the master storyteller, Kenny builds a strong rapport with his captivated audience, as he weaves often humorous anecdotes of his career between songs. The concert is also interspersed with interviews with his two sons, fellow artists and writers who helped shape his musical career, including Lionel Richie, manager Ken Kragen, producers David Foster and Larry Butler and president of Capitol Records Jim Mazza.

Complemented by a superbly tight backing band, Kenny dazzles the packed crowd with his hits Ruby, We've Got Tonight, Coward of the County, Islands in the Stream, The Gambler and many others. Special guest Linda Davis joins Kenny on a number of songs.

This stunning CD/DVD set is packaged in a deluxe digipak and includes a booklet of vintage photos of Kenny and a forward by writer/producer Kelly Junkermann. A selection of songs from the concert are featured on the CD, making this a wonderful collectors' item for his devoted fans and will serve as a perfect tribute to the country superstar.

Lynyrd Skynyrd - I'll Never Forget You: The Last 72 Hours Of Lynyrd Skynyrd

Survivors firsthand accounts of the wild times, the 72 hours leading to the crash, the crash itself & its aftermath.

At the height of its fame in 1977, the popular southern rock band, Lynyrd Skynyrd, was struck with tragedy--a plane crash that killed the band's founder and lead singer Ronnie Van Zant along with Steve Gaines, backup singer Cassie Gaines, assistant road manager Dean Kilpatrick, pilot Walter McCreary and co-pilot William Gray. I'll Never Forget You: The Last 72 Hours of Lynyrd Skynyrd chronicles the story of three survivors: security guard Gene Odom, lead backup singer Leslie Hawkins and guitar tech Craig Reed. These survivors give their firsthand accounts of the wild times of the band, the 72 hours leading to the crash, the harrowing crash itself and its aftermath. The documentary features original behind-the-scenes film footage of life with the band before the crash, dramatic reenactments illustrating key dramatic scenes, and high-end CG animations--including a simulation of the plane crash that matches the NTSB report. Rare interviews with four first responders were also captured, filmed on location at the crash site in Gillsburg, Mississippi. Based on Gene's book, I'll Never Forget You, this documentary offers the fond remembrance of one man's journey with this legendary band, but more importantly, the loss of his dearest friend. Gene's unique perspective and down-to-earth sensibility grants unique access to the behind-the-scenes story, the celebration and the tragedy. The film weaves the three survivors' stories together to paint a picture of what might have been and the web of tragic decisions leading to the plane crash that forever altered their lives--and Lynyrd Skynyrd's place in history.

David Susskind Archive: Interview With Dr. Martin Luther King Jr

The historic interview that stopped JFK in his tracks...

David Susskind's historical, long and intimate interview with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. originally aired on June 9, 1963. Now, restored by The Paley Center, this broadcast has not been seen in full since its original airing. Among the subjects discussed were the current state of the American Civil Rights Movement and the then recent events in Birmingham, Alabama. On that Sunday night in June, WPIX-TV (NY) cleared this extraordinary interview between Susskind (host of 'Open End') and the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. 'Open End' had recently been removed from the schedule of WNEW-TV because of the station's management reluctance to air discussions regarding race relations in America. WPIX picked up the ball, and the rest, as they say, became history. Susskind and Dr. King discussed the gamut of racial issues of the day, particularly Dr. King's disappointment at the speed at which the Kennedy Administration was moving regarding Civil Rights legislation. The interview so rattled the White House that President Kennedy responded by going on national television to defend his Administration's positions and to outline his push for what would later be the Civil and Voter's rights Acts.

SALES POINTS

- Recorded two months before the civil rights leader delivered his 'I Have a Dream' speech.
- Restored by The Paley Center, this broadcast has not been seen in full since its original airing in 1963

PRESS

“In his broadest attack to date on President Kennedy's Civil Rights record, the Southern Negro integrationist leader charged the President with a failure of leadership and with not having lived up to his campaign promises.”

—NY Times (June 1963)

“The talk session, recorded for the 'Open End' program, abounded in so many highlights that the British Broadcasting Corporation has requested a copy of the tape for telecasting in England”

Barbara Rubin And The Exploding Ny Underground DVD

This bold, enthusiastic documentary details the role played by Barbara Rubin in the 1960s artistic counterculture.

Barbara Rubin shocked NYC's experimental film scene with her orgiastic masterpiece, Christmas On Earth. A mythical "Zelig" of the sixties, she introduced Andy Warhol to the Velvet Underground and Bob Dylan to the Kabbalah and collaborated with Allen Ginsberg. She shocked everyone when she converted to Hasidic Judaism, moved to France and died unnoticed and forgotten... until this documentary.

La Barraca

First time on Blu-ray produced from a new 4K restoration. This classic is recognized as one of Mexico's Top 25 movies of all time! In rural Spain, a new family arrives in town to work a parcel (barraca), the townsfolk are very hostile to the idea of "another" working the land that once belonged to one of them.

After serving his apprenticeship as a screenwriter and assistant director, Gavaldon took on his first fully realized project as a director with this adaptation of an 1895 novel by the popular Spanish writer Vicente Blasco Ibanez (Blood and Sand). Though set in Spain, this story of an immigrant family's struggles to establish their own small farm was close enough to the concerns of Mexico's tradition of rural melodramas to become an immediate popular and critical success.

In recent years, as part of a collaborative project, the Film Library of the UNAM and the AMACC (Mexican Academy of Cinematographic Arts and Sciences) have joined efforts to restore and preserve Mexico's national film collection. La Barraca is one of five films that have been restored so far.

A Family Like Many Others

Recognized as one of Mexico's top 40 movies of all time!

Rodrigo Catano (Fernando Soler) runs his household like his own private kingdom, demanding obedience and respect from his submissive wife Dona Gracia (Eugenia Galindo) and their five children. This strictly maintained state of affairs is disturbed with the arrival of charming traveling salesman Roberto (David Silva), who convinces the initially resistant Rodrigo to purchase his newfangled household wares (first a vacuum cleaner, then a fridge) and enchants the family's 15-year-old daughter Maru (Martha Roth). When Maru declares that she intends to marry Roberto, she defies not only her domineering father, but also the entire patriarchal order he represents. Long considered one of the key films of the Golden Age of Mexican cinema, Alejandro Galindo's resonant family drama movingly depicts the tension between tradition and modernity that was gripping Mexican society at the time.

A Guide to Recognizing Your Saints

SOMETIMES THE ONLY WAY TO MOVE FORWARD IS TO GO BACK

A coming-of-age drama about writer/director Dito Montiel's (Fighting) youth, the film captures the mid-1980's in the toughest neighborhood of Astoria, Queens. Dito (Academy Award Nominee* Robert Downey Jr., Avengers: Endgame) called home after 15 years because his father (Academy Award Nominee Chazz Palminteri, Bullets Over Broadway) is ill, encounters old friends - the ones he lost, the ones he left behind, the ones he can't help but remember. These are Dito's saints. An honest account of a bittersweet return to a neighborhood where relationships can never be what they once were, Dito's story is about to come to terms with a father's rage and a father's love.

Jungle Queen: 2k Restored Special Edition

First time on Blu-ray and produced from a new 2K scan of the 35mm nitrate fine grain studio masters! During World War II, the Nazi High Command sends agents into the African jungle to stir up the local Tongghili tribes against the British Allies. This allows them to plant Commander Elise Bork, posing as a scientist, and her subordinate, Lang, within the Tambosa Experimental Farm. Along with the help of Maati, an evil rival tribesman, they search for the legendary "Secret Sword", which has mysterious powers. Two Americans, Bob Elliott (Edward Norris) and Chuck Kelly (Eddie Quillan) arrive to aid the Allies and meet Pamela Courtney (Lois Collier), who is looking for her father, an explorer who mysteriously disappeared. Bork and Lang feign friendship with the trio in order to find out what they know, before trying several ways to kill them. Their attempts always fail though, due to the well-timed appearances of Lothel (Ruth Roman), the beautiful and mysterious Queen of the Jungle, Tongghili's spiritual leader. In desperation, the Nazis try to kill Lothel by letting loose wild animals, and setting fire to the jungle. Lothel, however, walks through the flames un-harmed and seems to tame even the wildest beast. And in the end, she helps our heroes end the Nazi terror and return peace to the jungle, before vanishing into a sheet of flame.

Melody Makers

Should've Been There

This stunning, award winning film takes you behind the scenes to explode the myths, honor the legends, and reveal the incredible stories and never-before-seen photographs of rock giants like Mick Jagger, David Bowie, Elton John, Bob Dylan, Jimmy Page, Jimi Hendrix, Ray Davies, Frank Zappa, Patti Smith and many, many others. This tell-all reveals anecdotes and unpublished photos from the world's most influential music publication, Melody Maker magazine with its intimate access to legendary rock bands including The Rolling Stones and the Beatles, Pink Floyd, Queen, The Who, Led Zeppelin, The Animals and on and on. At the heart of this film is Melody Maker's head photographer, Barrie Wentzell who takes us along on an intimate journey with his colleagues into the world of rock icons. These journalists, with cameras in hand, had free rein and were creatively involved with the artists, something unheard of today. The film captures this unique period telling the story behind the magazine's rise and fall, showing first hand how the artists, the record companies and journalists came to move a generation. The magazine was a "must read" during its time, now the movie is a "must see" for musicians, music fans and photo buffs alike!

PRESS

“The stories are fun, and the photos are great - Wentzell really does have an incredible eye”
—Norman Wilner, Now Toronto

—Andrew Parker, The Gate

“Melody Makers is a riot of musical appreciation and wild tales from a beloved bygone era for fans of rock 'n' roll”
—Francesca Amorosa, The Spread

Barbara Rubin And The Exploding Ny Underground

This bold, enthusiastic documentary details the role played by Barbara Rubin in the 1960s artistic counterculture.

Made when she was just 18 years old, Barbara Rubin's art-porn masterpiece Christmas On Earth (1963-65) shocked NYC's experimental film scene and inspired NYC's thriving underground. For the next four years her filmmaking and irrepressible energy helped shatter artistic and sexist boundaries. A mythical "Zelig" of the sixties, she introduced Andy Warhol to the Velvet Underground and Bob Dylan to the Kabbalah. But beyond shaping the spirit of the sixties, Barbara was seeking the deeper meaning of life. After retiring to a farm with Allen Ginsberg, she shocked everyone by converting to Hasidic Judaism, marrying and moving to France to live an anonymous life. Tragically, she died in 1980 after giving birth to her fifth child. For years, Jonas Mekas treasured all of Barbara's letters and films and cherished her memory. Working with Mekas' footage, the film takes us inside the world and mind of Barbara Rubin; a woman who truly believed that film could change the world. Critics have christened her The American Rimbaud, for the poetry of her work, the trajectory of her life, and her legacy. This bold, enthusiastic documentary details the unsung yet important role played by Barbara Rubin in the 1960s artistic counterculture and provides an evocative portrait of a vibrant and mysterious artist.

Ever After (Endzeit)

A gothic fairy tale that follows Eva and Vivi as they trek through a zombie infested Black Forest.

Carolina Hellsgard's chilling second feature follows two women fighting for their lives in a post-apocalyptic world overrun by zombies -- a future Hellsgard presents as both horrific and hopeful. With women in every major creative role, ENDZEIT is a different kind of zombie movie. Set during a terrifying near-future zombie apocalypse, Carolina Hellsgard's sophomore feature is chilling and dooms laden, but it's also a transfixing, gorgeous, and unusually intimate sort-of road movie -- in which humanity has come to its end and nature is reclaiming its terrain. A plague has swept the world. Weimar and Jura, the only surviving cities, have very different approaches to the epidemic. In Weimar, Vivi (Gro Swantje Kohlhof) -- vulnerable and numb as a result of apocalypse- triggered tragedies -- reluctantly volunteers at the city's perimeter. It is at the ramshackle outer fences, requiring constant defense from attacks by infectious cannibal revenants, that she meets Eva (Maja Lehrer) -- whose icy stoicism makes a striking contrast to Vivi's delicate fragility. Following an attack at their post, they board an automated supply train bound for Jena, whose more humane approach to the victims of the epidemic offers some hope for the future. When the train unexpectedly breaks down, Vivi and Eva are left to fend for themselves in a countryside teeming with dangers and marvels they never dreamed of. With its pulse-pounding confrontations, ENDZEIT absolutely delivers as horror, but with a distinct and refreshing perspective. It also poses existential questions about our world. --Kerri Cradock, TIFF

Dick Cavett - Pioneers Of New York Radio

Legendary NY radio personalities Bob & Ray, Don Imus and Howard Stern discuss their lives with Dick Cavett

Legendary NY radio personalities Bob (Elliot) & Ray (Goulding), Don Imus and Howard Stern discuss their lives on the radio in one-on-one conversations with Dick Cavett . Bob & Ray are legendary radio icons who whose satiric and irreverent humor easily translated to television and commercials; perhaps best known and Bert and Harry Piel, animated spokesmen for Piels Beer from 1955 to 1960. They also created a vast number of fictional characters to populate their universe. Imus: was the original 'shock jock', who successfully battled his own demons to be heard nationally, at one point being the most popular radio personality in the U.S., being #1 in 12 of 13 demographic categories, Howard Stern: Truly the "King of All Media" who reinvented himself into a media mogul, a renaissance man. He has succeeded in virtually everything he's ventured in to: radio, television, PPV, film, artist, author of 3 best selling books and now, generally considered to be the best celebrity interviewer.

Leon Redbone - Strings And Jokes, Live In Bremen 1977 RSD

A true entertainer of early American music such as Blues, Jazz, Folk, Tin Pan Alley and Ragtime in his own unique style

Best known for his interpretations of music ranging from Blues, Folk and the Tin Pan Alley era and his remarkable singing style. Both concerts took place in the same year, 1977 in Bremen and show two different kinds of Leon Redbone. Whilst at his first concert at the "Glocke" he was accompanied by tube player Jonathan Dorn, the other concert at the "Post-Aula" was a solo concert, pure and simple.

Lou Rogai - Cathedral Vinyl

An experimental elegy for chamber ensemble in three movements. Orchestrations laced with tendrils of field recordings.

An experimental elegy for chamber ensemble in three movements. Orchestrations of classical guitar, winds, brass, synthesizer, vocals, and piano are woven with tendrils of string passages and field recordings. The movements are exercises and expressions on theme, working within an overarching reference to the inner cathedral or sanctuary, the hidden spiritual chambers and corridors inside of us.

THE HISTORIC INTERVIEW THAT STOPPED JFK IN HIS TRACKS...

David Susskind's historical, long and intimate interview with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. originally aired on June 9, 1963. Now, restored by The Paley Center, this broadcast has not been seen in full since its original airing. Among the subjects discussed were the current state of the American Civil Rights Movement and the then recent events in Birmingham, Alabama.

The interview so rattled the White House that President Kennedy responded by going on national television to defend his Administration's positions and to outline his push for what would later be the Civil and Voter's rights Acts.
