THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET - TIME OUTTAKES

TIME OUT AND TAKE FIVE!

We could use a breather from what has been a most turbulent year, and with our December releases, we provide a respite with fantastic discoveries in the annals of cool jazz. THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET "TIME OUTTAKES" is an alternate version of the masterful TIME OUT 1959 LP, with the seven tracks heard for the first time in crisp, different versions with a bonus track and studio banter. The album's "Take Five" is the biggest selling jazz single ever, and hearing this in different form is downright thrilling. On LP and CD. Also smooth jazz reigns supreme with a CD release of a newly discovered live performance from sax legend GEORGE COLEMAN. "IN BALTIMORE" is culled from a 1971 performance with detailed liner notes and rare photos. Kick Out the Jazz!

Something else we could use is a release from oddball novelty song collector DR. DEMENTO. Weird before AI, the FIRST CENTURY DEMENTIA CD compilation focuses on 1900 to 1930, known as the Dawn of Dementia. Continuing the demented lineage are punk rockers, and this month finds a deluxe 7 CD + DVD box set from IGGY AND THE STOOGES, "FROM K.O. TO CHAOS." Cobbling together the classic METALLIC K.O. album with tons of extra live stuff, there is no more demented performer than Iggy. Not to be out PUNK'D are WALTER LURE, the late great Heartbreakers guitarist with his last ever live CD and LP, "L.A.M.F. LIVE IN TOKYO," and the SUPERSUCKERS LP re-release of "MF'ERS BE TRIPPIN," available on vinyl for the first time in 17 years!

It's also a TREMOR-ENDOUS month for movies, with the Arrow Video release of TREMORS, on Blu-ray and 4K/UHD! See Kevin Bacon get fried by what lurks beneath! From Blue Underground comes a special definitive two-disc bluray version of MANIAC, and a 4K/UHD version of VIGILANTE. Revenge never looked so good! And a trio of tremor-endous DVD releases from Wild Eye Releasing, MONSTER FORCE ZERO, GOLD DIGGER KILLER and WEREWOLF ISLAND set the template for terror.

Take time out and dig into December!

Mark Lanegan - Another Knock At The Door (iyeara Remixes)

Mark Lanegan and dark wave band IYEARA have combined their talents to release a remix of his entire 2019 album Somebody's Knocking, reimagined as Another Knock At The Door. Released on Mark's label Flooded Soil Recordings, the album is the first full record he has given to another artist to rework. Characterised by opening single Playing Nero, IYEARA have added a brooding, industrial edge to a beautiful, wistful original score. This was followed by She Loved You where they combined the throbbing synths of John Carpenter with the ethereal, ambient sonics of Tangerine Dream, to create their own cerebral take on the works of a unique, enduring artist. The Screaming Trees and Queens of the Stone Age front man's 11th solo album was a synth-laden and pulsating soundscape. IYEARA have reimagined the primal, guttural songs in their own image, each release offering something different to the listener. Comprised of The Duke Spirit guitarist Toby Butler, producer Malcolm Carson and vocalist Paul O'Keeffe, IYEARA announced themselves in 2019 through the release of CONSEQUENCES EP; a record including a cover of Shout by Tears for Fears featuring The Duke Spirit's Liela Moss. The group are also remixing the current Humanist ft Dave Gahan project.

TIME OUTTAKES

THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET

PREVIOUSLY UNRELEASED TAKES FROM THE ORIGINAL 1959 SESSION

DAVE BRUBECK PIANO
PAUL DESMOND ALTO SAXOPHONE

JOE MORELLO DRUMS

"You can't understand America without understanding jazz and you can't understand jazz without understanding Dave Brubeck."
-President Barack Obama

"Jazz changed everything for me, and Dave did that! That's because Dave was the Wizard of West Coast Cool. With "Time Out" things took off into the stratosphere."
-Herbie Hancock

Time OutTakes celebrates Dave Brubeck's centennial with the debut release from the new Brubeck Editions record label. Kabir Sehgal, multiple Grammy winning producer, writes "This remarkable new album, Time OutTakes features alternate takes from the original 1959 studio sessions. You'll hear Dave Brubeck's signature pieces afresh and anew. Listening to this album will make you rediscover why you fell in love with the Dave Brubeck Quartet. This is mesmerizing music." Brubeck Editions was created by the Brubeck family for the release of officially authorized music by the late musical innovator and American original, Dave Brubeck, and his many collaborators.

The tracks on Time OutTakes offer listeners a window into the compositional mind of a true American icon, in celebration of his 100-year legacy of innovation. Acclaimed Author, Grammy Winning Producer and CNN Commentator Douglas Brinkley writes in his liner notes: "Once the Dave Brubeck Quartet released Time Out in 1959, the world of jazz was never the same. What Time Out soon made clear was that Brubeck was much more than a pianist and composer; he was a genius of stunning originality. Time Out was an instrumental album which had the power to make people dream big or contemplate life or swing till dawn. Time OutTakes features alternative takes to the masterpiece that blew the hinges off the doors of jazz. What a high privilege it is to be able to be in the studio with the quartet as they innovate playing such classics as "Blue Rondo a la Turk" and "Three to Get Ready." What joyous music for the ages!"

Mr. Bomb Skwad - Candyland CD

"Candyland" shows off tremendous bursts of energy morphed into big beautiful hooks!

Surprisingly freewheeling and limber, Mr. Bomb Skwad shifts gears remarkably quickly throughout the whole of the album. A dense sound works wonders too for it is easy to surrender to the vast walls of sound. Texturally the way the songs build upon their grooves is outright masterful while the energy never lets up. Every piece perfectly plays upon the last in a way that is uniquely satisfying.

Knowles contributes one of his better performances as the first officer. Gene Evans ably heads the supporting cast while Rhys Williams is superb in a small role...A strong photography job is contributed by Ernest Lazlo."
