DEAD MILKMEN DELIVER ON BLACK FRIDAY!

The infamous Philly punk band the DEAD MILKMEN have one of an eleven-pack of special Black Friday Indie store releases from MVD this year! The Dead Milkmen's 1990 previously hard-to-find LP METAPHYSICAL GRAFFITI has been given a fresh coat, with a bonus 7" color wax single and a repro of a promo only coloring book! Check out all of the MVD special Black Friday releases included herein. Get all of these limited editions quick, and avoid crying over spilled Milkmen!

DEVO are MVD favorites, and in addition to having a special GERALD V. CASALE Black Friday release, we spun the color wheel and offer red, yellow and red/yellow swirl vinyl variants on their 1988 live LP SOMEWHERE WITH DEVO. Freedom of Choice! Burning Sounds Records reissues the 1997 TOOTS AND THE MAYTALS release RECOUP on red vinyl this month. It's a heavy reggae record-literally, seeing as it's on 180 gram, mon.

Bear Family Records doesn't kid around with their line of expertly curated music packages, and this month behold their JOHNNY KIDD CD comp SO WHAT? Thirty-four tracks and a 36- page booklet chart the music of the pre-Beatles London rocker. Trapeze is another label that treats its compilations with TLC, this month coming with two multi-disc CD volumes of folk and country pioneers, THE CARTER FAMILY.

December film finds the gift of SHAWSCOPE VOLUME 2 from Arrow Video, already in a box and perfect for the Shaw Brothers Kung Fu obsessive on your list. Following the beefy Volume 1, Volume 2 offers 10 blurays of martial arts mayhem plus a plethora of extras! Also fighting for attention are new Asian Action titles from 88 Films, POLICE STORY: SUPERCOP, GORGEOUS and MAGNIFICANT WARRIORS.

Arrow Video also brings clarity to the Sci-Fi classic SILENT RUNNING with a 4K version, as well as George Kennedy in NIGHTMARE AT NOON and a new 2022 horror production, THE LEECH, so gripping it won't let you go! December turns into Dice-Member with DVD CHRISTMAS CRAFT FAIR MASSACRE. Who would know a holiday craft fair was a coven for Satan worshippers. We did!

On a somber note, we are saddened by the recent passing of legendary record biz executive, friend to MVD and Big Daddy, Burt Goldstein. Rest in Peace, Burt.

Batila - Tatamana Vinyl

Batila's (Berlin and London) music is soulphisticated, colourful and lively. Besides Congolese roots, there is a touch of R&B and soft, jazzy vibes.

Batila is a songwriter living in Berlin. He is the child of Congolese-Angolan parents and grew up between Berlin and London. Batila's music (Batila means protector) is "soulphisticated, colourful and lively". Besides Congolese roots, there is also a touch of R&B and soft, jazzy vibes. 'Tatamana' was recorded between Berlin and Kinshasa in the DRC.

Battalion Zośka - New Blood Vinyl

Punk band from Philadelphia, USA featuring members of Violent Society and Combat Crisis

Battalion Zoska (That's "Zoe-sh-ka") is the new band fronted by Pat of Philly punk bastions Violent Society. While VS may have reveled in the youthful shroud of American Street punk, the BZs take a decidedly more mature and nuanced approached- but thankfully, this is one of the cases where "more mature" doesn't mean softer or slower.

Billie Holiday & Buddy DeFranco - Live In Cologne 1954 Vinyl

Great concert recording in a pretty gatefold cover on JAZZLINE!

The year 1954 was to bring some jazz music prominence to Germany: e.g. Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughan, Oscar Peterson, Illinois Jacquet, Coleman Hawkins and the big bands of Woody Herman and Count Basie. And it had already gotten off to a promising start.

Bud Powell - 1960 Essen, Grugahalle (Gatefold/180gram) Vinyl

Great live record from 1960 on JAZZLINE!

Racism and disdain for improvised music in the "motherland of jazz" drove more and more Americans to Europe in the 1950s and 1960s. Bud Powell, Kenny Clarke and Oskar Pettiford, who had already contributed to the development of bebop in the early 1940s, appear here on the occasion of the Jazztage in Essen in 1960, and the saxophonist Coleman Hawkins joined them in the second half of the concert.

Bunker 66 & Lucifuge - Of Night And Lust Vinyl

These two bands fit perfectly for a split: Filthy black thrash from Italy and Spain/Germany.

Both BUNKER 66 and LUCIFUGE should be familiar names to those versed in the dark deeds of DYING VICTIMS. Here on Of Night and Lust, both bands each deliver three exclusive songs, making for 23 minutes of ancient blackened speed metal sleaze and metalpunk ghoulishness.

Carrellee - Scale Of Dreams Vinyl

Scale of Dreams is the noir, synth-pop debut album from Wisconsin songwriter, Carrellee.

At the start of the pandemic, Carrellee turned to the microKORG and Yamaha DX7 synths after finding traditional folk music to fall a bit flat in expressing the personal intensity of the year including the dissolution of her marriage.

Claus Fischer - Downland (180 Gram) Vinyl

Downland, the new Claus Fischer record is out on LEOPARD!

It is a pleasant experience to record an album. To turn one's own compositions into music, to invite the right artists, to arrange and act as one pleases, in short: to be in charge of the musical direction and dramaturgy. In the best case, the result resembles an identity card, a musical ID.

Colonial Wound - Easy Laugh Vinyl

"Easy Laugh" is the debut from Colonial Wound- 9 tracks of sludgy, metallic noise rock to crush you all into dust.

The debut full-length "Easy Laugh", from FL's Colonial Wound is coming this winter on Hex Records. They lay down 9 tracks of immediate, crushing heaviness, full of the sludgy metallic noise rock that turned heads on their two EPs and now forged to perfection here. In less than a half-hour they deliver the goods with one relentless hammering after another.

SECRET RECORDS / SKU: BT5026 / UPC: 5036436130924 / SRP: $29.99

America recorded live at "Goodbye Summer" concert at the Oval, London on 18th July 1971 - prior to release of their first album. This title features a 12" vinyl 45rpm + CD and includes sleeve notes approved by band. This is the first time this content has ever been released on any format.

Side A: Riverside // Sandman // Sea of Destiny // Three Roses

Side B: I Need You // Submarine Ladies // Everyone I Meet Is From California

Big Bill Broonzy

Live In Amsterdam, 1953

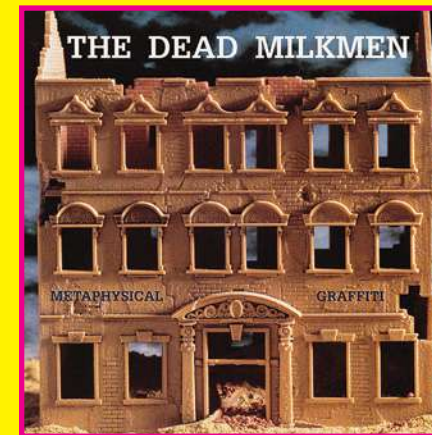

BLACK VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: ROC-3455 / UPC: 089353345525 / SRP: $24.99

Legendary blues singer-songwriter guitarist Big Bill Broonzy was a force in music from the 1920s until his passing in 1958. He was one of the first American blues artists to play Europe, and this fine recording shows how he influenced a generation of guitar players including Eric Clapton, John Lennon, Jerry Garcia and Bert Jansch. Live in 1953 was recorded in Amsterdam, Netherlands and features 10 tracks by this inaugural member of the Blues Hall of Fame. The set makes its vinyl debut.

Side A: Broonzy Talks (Intro) // Goin' Down the Road // When the Sun Goes Down
House Rent Stomp // Willie Mae // Black, Brown and White

Side B: Caribbean Rag // Down By the Riverside // Mindin' My Own Business
Just a Dream // Glory of Love

The Dead Milkmen

Metaphysical Graffiti

BLACK LP + SNOT-COLORED 7", LP + 7"

THE GIVING GROOVE / SKU: GG022 / UPC: 760137102816 / SRP: $49.99

The Giving Groove is proud to present the first vinyl reissue of The Dead Milkmen's classic album Metaphysical Graffiti, now remastered with bonus material. Fans have cherished hits such as "If You Love Somebody, Set Them on Fire" and "Methodist Coloring Book," but since the Enigma label's initial release in 1990, copies of the original pressing have become increasingly difficult to unearth. The remastered album will be offered as a limited-edition variant, pressed exclusively for Record Store Day Black Friday 2022. Housed in a gatefold jacket, bonus materials will include:

- A reproduction of the Methodist Coloring Book. Penned by Dean Clean's wife, Melissa, the coloring book was printed as a promotional item for the 1990 release and has never been made commercially available.
- Four of the album's songs, which the band loving refers to as "The Earls," have been pulled from the 12" and given their own 7" vinyl (pressed as snot-colored brown and green variants) with new artwork.
- An interior jacket designed with never-before-seen photos, text about the model house that is featured on the front cover, and Dandrew's recounting: "Everything I Needed to Know About Culture I Learned from Metaphysical Graffiti."
- The 12" sleeve featuring the original art, lyrics, and credits.
- A QR code to download the remastered album digitally as a compliment to the vinyl.

The Flying Burrito Brothers

Live From The Bottom Line NYC 1976

BLACK VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-5103 / UPC: 089353510329 / SRP: $24.99

Touring in support of their fifth studio album Airborne, The Flying Burrito Brothers performed at the legendary New York City venue, The Bottom Line on August 18, 1976. This 12-track set features many of their classic tracks alongside a few C&W standards. The group's line up consisted of Skip Battin and Gene Parsons (both ex-Byrds band members), along with Gib Guilbeau, Joel Scott Hill and original Burrito pedal steel legend, "Sneaky" Pete Kleinow. This live recording is previously unreleased. 1976 was a great year for re-iteration of the Flying Burrito Brothers having the opportunity to travel throughout the USA celebrating the 200th Anniversary of the founding of the United States. Though Gram Parsons wasn't around anymore, Chris Hillman embarked on a solo career, and Chris Ethridge had just departed this band, we had some great guys that just happened to be really familiar with the 'Burrito' mentality. It all came together quite spectacularly! To begin, Gib Guilbeau was my life-long pal and Cajun guy par excellence. Gene Parsons, formerly of the Byrds, was he drummer from hell who lifted the excitement to the limit (and picked a great banjo and string bender guitar. What can I say about Joel Scott Hill? A rebel? A reverent fanatic? A soulful and emotional artist? ALL of the above! Then there is Skip Battin, who just joined the band whom everyone loved and called friend who provided very original bass and vocal support. All these cuts are genuine items from a live performance at New York City's legendary "Bottom Line" club with all the warts AND magical moments. No fix ups and no apologies. Just real music and true enthusiasm. This was the way it was when he hit the road in 1976! - Sneaky Pete (2001)

DEVO's Gerald V. Casale

The Invisible Man EP

TRASPARENT CLEAR VINYL, 12"

MVD AUDIO / SKU: MVD10624LP / UPC: 760137106241 / SRP: $19.99

Brand new recordings and remixes from DEVO's Gerald V. Casale. This 12" 45 RPM EP features an eye-popping sleeve by acclaimed woodcut artist Tomo77. Release to be supported with a great video from collaborator Davy Force.

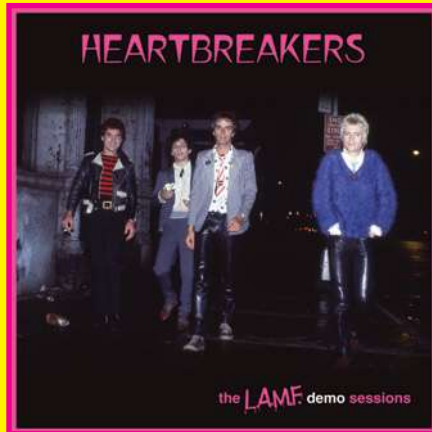

DEVO's Gerald V. Casale follows last year's solo release of the song and video "I'm Gonna Pay U Back" with a new single and forthcoming video, "The Invisible Man." Once again, Gerald worked with Josh Freese (Guns N' Roses, A Perfect Circle, Nine Inch Nails, Weezer) and Steve Bartek (Oingo Boingo). As with his groundbreaking collaboration with Davy Force on last year's acclaimed video for "I'm Gonna Pay U Back", Gerald will once again team with Davy for "The Invisible Man" video. The release will also feature new cover artwork by acclaimed woodcut artist Tomo77.

Heartbreakers

The L.A.M.F. demo sessions

MAGENTA VINYL, LP

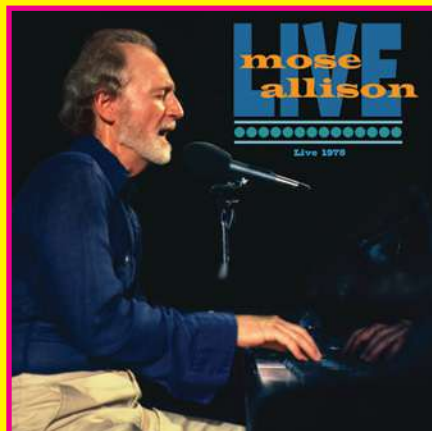

JUNGLE RECORDS / SKU: FREUDLP135 / UPC: 5013145213513 / SRP: $24.99

The Heartbreakers (Johnny Thunders, Walter Lure, Billy Rath & Jerry Nolan) with four studio demo sessions for 1976 and 1977, compiled onto one album for the first time. Two sessions were recorded in 1976 in New York, including four tracks in their early incarnation with Richard Hell, and later six tracks after Billy Rath had joined on bass. In London in 1977, they recorded one session just prior to signing with Track Records, and another after L.A.M.F. had been released, with The Clash's Terry Chimes on drums replacing the newly departed Jerry Nolan.

Pressed on transparent magenta vinyl, it comes with a 12" poster of the Roberta Bayley cover photo, an outtake from the L.A.M.F. cover session, and an inner bag with Walter Lure interviewed by Johnny Thunders' biographer Nina Antonia in 2005.

The album shows the development of the band building towards their classic 1977 'L.A.M.F.' album (recently reissued with a newly found original master), and further points to the direction they would have gone had they not split up.

Side A: Born Too Loose, Chinese Rocks, Let Go, Can't Keep My Eyes On You, I Love You, It's Not Enough, Do You Love Me, Take A Chance. Side B: Born To Lose, I Wanna Be Loved, Going Steady, Flight, Pirate Love, Give Her A Great Big Kiss, Too Much Junkie Business, London Boys (16 tracks)

Mose Allison

Live 1978

BLACK VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-5105 / UPC: 089353510527 / SRP: $26.99

Jazz and blues pianist/vocalist/composer Mose Allison has been described as "one of the finest songwriters of 20th century blues." His songs have been covered by countless rockers including The Who, The Clash, Elvis Costello, John Mayall, Bonnie Raitt, Van Morrison, Leon Russell and many others. This rare performance was recorded on March 26, 1978 at the Showboat Lounge in Silver Springs, Maryland as a trio with bassist Tom Rutley and drummer Jerry Granelli. The 13-track set makes its vinyl debut.

Side A: Lost Mind // Wildman on the Loose // Your Molecular Structure // It Feels So Good Swingin' Machine // You Can Count on Me to My Part // I Live the Life I Love

Side B: If You're Going Up to the City // Hey Good Lookin' // Meet Me at No Special Place Seventh Son // Your Mind Is on Vacation // Wildman/Show Closer

Paquito d'Rivera & Arturo Sandoval

Reunion

BLACK VINYL, LP

MESSIDOR / SKU: 15805-2CD / UPC: 821891580521 / SRP: $24.99

Paquito d'Rivera (the highly regarded Cuban-American alto saxophonist and winner of 14 Grammy Awards) and Arturo Sandoval (the highly regarded Cuban-American jazz trumpeter and winner of 10 Grammy Awards) rejoined in Germany to record this incredibly special album originally released in 1991.

"Reunion was the first time that Paquito d'Rivera and trumpeter Arturo Sandoval recorded together since d'Rivera's defection in 1980; Sandoval had recently left Cuba himself. The co-leaders are joined by a superb band: pianist Danilo Perez, acoustic guitarist Fareed Haque, bassist David Finck, drummer Mark Walker, and Giovanni Hidalgo on conga. The group mostly performs originals plus a couple Chucho Valdes songs, "Body and Soul" (a showcase for Sandoval) and Dizzy Gillespie's "Tanga." Plenty of fireworks occur on this consistently heated Afro-Cuban jazz set and the co-leaders clearly inspire each other. When will they have their next reunion?" -Scott Yanow, AllMusic

Question Mark & The Mysterians

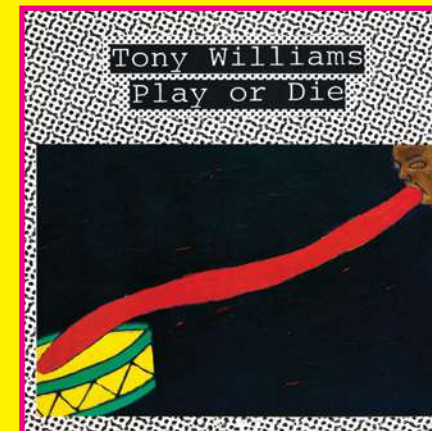

Cavestomp! Presents: Are You for Real?

PSYCHEDELIC SPLATTER PURPLE VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: ROC-3456 / UPC: 089353345624 / SRP: $24.99

Although they only released two albums during their 1960s heyday, Michigan's Question Mark and the Mysterians were a significant influence upon garage rock and an inspiration for punk rock. Led by Chicano rocker Rudy Martinez who created an enigmatic mystique and image making him one of the first Mexican rockers.

Following the band's 1997 reunion, they went into the studio to re-record some of their old favorites; their million-seller, number one hit "96 Tears" appears here, along with a Spanish-language rendition: and their follow up hit "Can't Get Enough of You Baby" made famous by Smash Mouth. The 14-track set includes a 1966 demo of "Are You for Real?" along with a 1998 concert recording of "I Need Somebody." Also features covers of Suicide's "Cheree" and The Lyres' "Don't Give It Up Now." The set makes its vinyl debut on Psychedelic Splatter Purple vinyl!

Tony Williams

Play Or Die

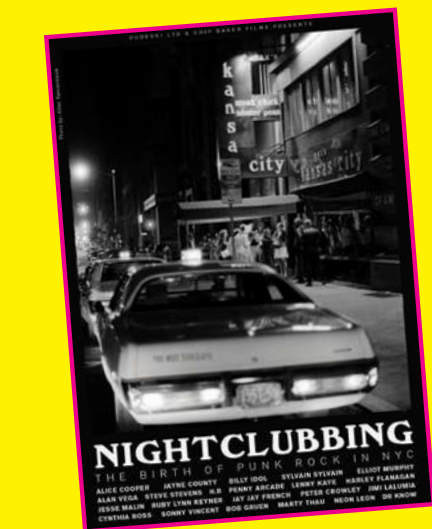

BLACK VINYL, LP

MOOSICUS / SKU: M1214-1 / UPC: 885513121417 / SRP: $24.99

Tony Williams certainly counts among those unique drummers in jazz today, whose work has had a lasting influence on styles and still does. At the tender age of 16, saxophonist Jackie McLean brought him to his band in New York. He also made his first recording with McLean. Soon after, aged 17, Williams was already making a splash in the second Miles Davis Quintet.

Almost twenty years later, in 1980, on May 30 and 31, Tony Williams went to the Zuckerfabrik recording studio in Stuttgart/Germany, together with Tom Grant (keyboards, synthesizer), he joined this band on the recommendation of Jeff Lorber and Patrick O'Hearn (bass, synthesizer). In the 1970s and early 1980s, this studio was an illustrious address for audio productions of all kinds. Larry Coryell, Wolfgang Dauner, Stephane Grappelli, Elvin Jones, Martin Kolbe + Ralf Illenberger, Volker Kriegel, Alphonse Mouzon, John Scofield and the United Jazz+Rock Ensemble recorded there, to name just a few.

This timeless album, released in an edition of only 500 copies, was hardly promoted at the time and may therefore have remained unknown to one or the other. All the better that now for the first time since the release of the Vinyl it is also available on CD (released 7/8/2022), and on this Record Store Day exclusive LP with a significantly improved sound.

Nightclubbing:
The Birth of Punk Rock in NYC

DVD + CD

MVD VISUAL / SKU: MVD11033D / UPC: 760137110330 / SRP: $29.95

"Nightclubbing: The Birth of Punk Rock in NYC" is the first-ever documentary about the renowned New York City nightclub Max's Kansas City (1965-1981), which had an indelible impact on the world of music, fashion, art, culture, and the creation of the New York City Punk Rock scene. As legendary Alice Cooper puts it: "A million ideas we're launched back there," referring to the Max's Kansas City famous backroom, where everybody gravitated toward the pop art genius Andy Warhol, who held court there. This first-ever film on Max's Kansas City features never-before-released footage, including footage of three of Warhol's superstars - Jayne County, Ruby Lynn Reynier and Penny Arcade.

DVD bonus features include the 7-minute feature titled "Survivors' Guide to 70s NYC w/ Neon Leon and Sonny Vincent," trailer and Spanish subtitles. This deluxe version, exclusive to RSD, will also include an additional 50 minutes of deleted scenes, a soundtrack CD, poster and special slipcover.

Devo - Somewhere With Devo (Yellow Vinyl) Vinyl

Battalion Zośka - New Blood

Punk band from Philadelphia, USA featuring members of Violent Society and Combat Crisis

Battalion Zoska (That's "Zoe-sh-ka") is the new band fronted by Pat of Philly punk bastions Violent Society. While VS may have reveled in the youthful shroud of American Street punk, the BZs take a decidedly more mature and nuanced approach- but thankfully, this is one of the cases where "more mature" doesn't mean softer or slower. To that end, the entire self-titled album seems have been written and recorded with great consideration. Yes, there is a base of street punk here, but the band cherry picks the high points of hardcore, oi, classic punk, and even some metal here. "Sold and Bought" almost verges on the poppy jump of Buzzcocks while "Island of Lost Souls" sits in that sweet spot between grime metal and grime punk- call it Motorhead with slightly less rock and more hatred, if you will.

Ron Carter & Richard Galliano - An Evening With Vinyl

Second collaboration of Ron Carter and Richard Galliano after their acclaimed album „Panamanhattan".
 „Believe me, there is nothing more real than to go on stage with a gambler," Carter raved about the refreshed liaison with his Gallic buddy. The two rediscovered the once lost central thread in March 2016 at Jazz Week in Burghausen as a short intermezzo during a joint appearance with the WDR Big Band. The provisional climax was then the recording made in Theaterstübchen in Kassel on October 29.

This SACD compiles for the first time all of Simon Laks' works for cello and piano as well as for two cellos. For several years now, Laks compositions have been gaining more and more traction in concert halls in Europe and abroad. It is his biography that grips us all and it is his music that speaks to us timelessly. This subset of his output draws a line through almost the entirety of Laks life.

Claus Fischer - Downland CD

Downland, the new Claus Fischer record is out on LEOPARD!

It is a pleasant experience to record an album. To turn one's own compositions into music, to invite the right artists, to arrange and act as one pleases, in short: to be in charge of the musical direction and dramaturgy. In the best case, the result resembles an identity card, a musical ID.

Colonial Wound - Easy Laugh CD

"Easy Laugh" is the debut from Colonial Wound- 9 tracks of sludgy, metallic noise rock to crush you all into dust.

The debut full-length "Easy Laugh", from FL's Colonial Wound is coming this winter on Hex Records. They lay down 9 tracks of immediate, crushing heaviness, full of the sludgy metallic noise rock that turned heads on their two EPs and now forged to perfection here. In less than a half-hour they deliver the goods with one relentless hammering after another.

Exaudi & James Weeks - Christopher Fox: Trostlied CD

Fox has always looked beyond the often foggy and restrictive horizons of English music towards a wider and more cosmopolitan artistic landscape.

A suite of German motets, steeped in the music of Heinrich Schütz and the poetry of Martin Opitz;a winsome English partsong, setting Shakespeare's contemporary Edmund Spenser;three angular Italian madrigals intercutting Gramsci with Dante;an experimental score on a text of Yeats;a thrilling whirlwind of vocal sound,scattering syllables from Wordsworth's Prelude like dead leaves in a Cumbrian gale.

Francesco D'orazio & Francesco Abbrescia - Ivan Fedele: Works For Violin CD

This album is bound to become a reference recording of what will be standard violin repertoire in the future.

Francesco D'Orazio is the ideal interpreter of Fedele's violin music: he has long workedwith the composer, and has recorded Fedele's complete works for violin and orchestra. D'Orazio is a modern and eclectic violinist, with mastery of a wide repertoire ranging from early to contemporary music. This album is bound to become a reference recording for this selection.

Fredrik Lundin & Odense Jazz Orchestra - It Takes All Kinds To Make A World CD

"It Takes All Kinds To Make A World" pairs critically acclaimed saxophonist & composer Frederik Lundin with forward-thinking Odense Jazz Orchestra

"It Takes All Kinds To Make A World" pairs critically acclaimed saxophonist and composer Frederik Lundin with the forward-thinking Odense Jazz Orchestra in an original set of intricately composed music which bridges the gap between avant-garde emotion and heavy groove. But this is much more than simply a collection of newly-commissioned big band jazz.

Goddamnit - All This Time Is Yours Now CD

Meshing the emotive sounds of bands like Jawbreaker and The Promise Ring with the ferocious intensity of Quicksand

In 2011, Goddamnit formed with a desire to make music that harkens back to the "golden era" of punk and post hardcore. Meshing the emotive sounds of bands like Jawbreaker and The Promise Ring with the ferocious intensity of Quicksand, Goddamnit offers a fresh perspective on a genre that Hot Water Music and Small Brown Bike carried the torch for in the early aughts.

Greg Blake & Hometown - The View From Here CD

Blake's unmistakable vocals and rock-solid rhythm brand the band's sound, but Cochran, mandolinist McCarty and banjoist Todd Davis immediately prove that this IS a "band", and a fine one at that. At times they are reminiscent of the Lost and Found, one of my favorite bands of all time.

Het Zweet - Het Zweet CD

Re-issue of a classic tribal Industrial album by Dutch project Het Zweet, originally released in 1987, comparable to the music of Z'ev

Het Zweet (Sweat) was the band project by Marien van Oers, native of Breda in the Netherlands active from 1983 to about 1988. The music consisted of long 10 minute percussion pieces played on self built instruments (shopping trolleys amplified with pickups, blown cardboard tubes etc.) with repetitive shouted vocals by Marien. The music was often placed in the industrial camp.

Holger Groschopp - Simon Laks: Works For Piano CD

Simon Laks' works for keyboard instruments date from different phases of his life; most of them remained unpublished / unperformed during his lifetime

Simon Laks' piano works do not form a monolithic block. There is no corpus of piano sonatas, for example, and no extensive collections of préludes or concert études. The pieces for keyboard instruments date from different phases of his life in the most diverse contexts; most of them remained unpublished or even unperformed during his lifetime and may in some cases be classified as occasional works.

Hub Hildenbrand - Athem CD

Guitarist Hub Hildenbrand's latest album is a very personal work, brimming with emotion, but open to interpretation.

Athem, the latest solo effort from Hub Hildenbrand is a body of work that brings the artist's singing voice into the foreground, albeit in an unconventional way. Hildenbrand decided to create an actual language, one that would allow him to encode meaning, but without it being readily accessible to the listener. The result is a very personal work, brimming with emotion, but open to interpretation.

Intestinal Laceration - Chaotic Eschatological Madness CS

Chaotic Eschatological Madness is the debut album by Peruvian Death Squad, Intestinal Laceration! It's been seven years since their debut EP, but the band has not been dormant. Intestinal Laceration has honed their skills, tightening their riffs and releasing a slamming cacophony. Sometimes it's lightning fast, at other times it slows to a crawl, punctuated with the deepest of gutturals and some well-placed, not overtly-showy solos.

GIPSY KINGS Tonino Baliardo RENAISSANCE

Having last released an album over eight years ago, GIPSY KINGS founder member Tonino Baliardo returns with a breath-taking new album 'Renaissance'

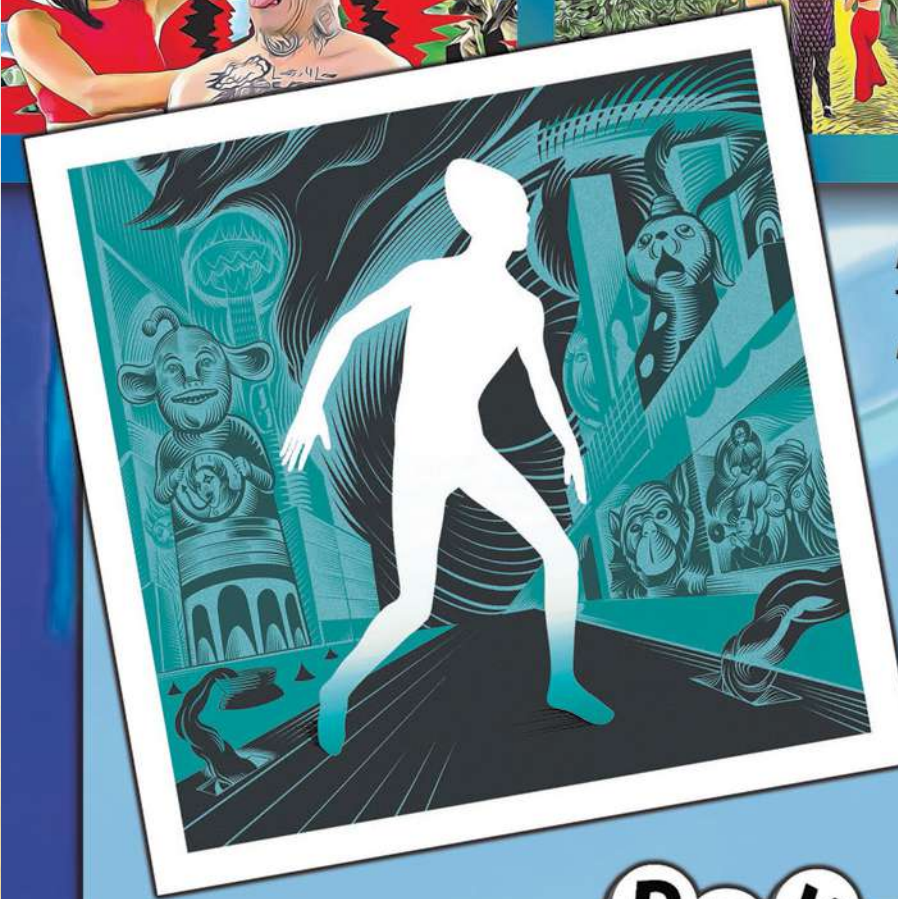

It has been over eight years since Tonino Baliardo, founder member of GIPSY KINGS, released an album. Now, with the release of 'Renaissance', the wait is finally over. The selection is delightfully varied, from the up-tempo 'Chica Del Sol' to the ballad of 'Abandonado', an orchestral walk with a finale that will blow listeners away.

GIPSY KINGS Tonino Baliardo are touring extensively in 2022 and 2023, bringing their unmistakable sound and showmanship to fans far and wide. Expect great Gipsy Guitar rhythms, unforgettable melodies and a Gipsy Vocal sound that only GIPSY KINGS can do!

Kalaha - Mystafa CD

Kalaha's powerful and anarchist way of playing with genres and musical traditions shines through on their album, 'Mystafa'. Kalaha are known for being eternally adventurous in their search through the outer limits of both the musical and the geographical spectre. As a live act they are captivating and energetic and they are known to set the dance floor on fire and put their audience in a trance. To obtain this, the band uses elements of everything from psych rock and improv jazz to Anatolian funk and acid techno.

Kamra - Cerebral Alchemy CD

Cerebral Alchemy is bound to leave you questioning and repeating the insanities that will be released through Avantgarde Music. As a room's confining embrace, Kamra grabs and plunges you in a world of allegories, ruminations and imagery with their upcoming debut Cerebral Alchemy. There is no shortage of uneasiness intertwined with familiarity through sounds of those who came before and left their whispers for this five-piece to interpret in a disturbing, brutal, unnerving, beautiful and even caring way.

Keith O' Rourke - Imperfect Perfectionist CD

Always the perfectionist, Keith strives in his own imperfect way to take us on a musical journey through his life with this new, chordless trio. Propelled by the prolonged period of reflection and practice during the pandemic, Keith O'Rourke began exploring the freedoms and boundaries of a smaller, chordless trio. 'Imperfect Perfectionist' is a collection of compositions and arrangements that shine in this new ensemble. Always the perfectionist, Keith strives in his own imperfect way to take us on a musical journey through his life.

Krilloan - Emperor Rising CD

They have the true power of heavy metal! Krilloan came into the power metal world with a bang in 2021. Their debut EP 'Stories of Times Forgotten' - full of high pitch vocals, soaring guitar solos and thundering drums - made a direct impact on the metal community. Following the path of the true Gods, they aim to go straight for the heart when it comes to power metal - that is, fast, melodic, anthemic and epic stuff.

Limite Acque Sicure - Limite Acque Sicure CD

Progressive Italian Synchronic Rock - A journey throu' mediterranean cultures. Limite Acque Sicure is a progressive band from Italy. Progressive in terms of real 70's prog rock that ruled the European music in those days. The sound it's obviously revisited and redefined but the intentions of writings is the same. Not a concept album, but a thin thread ties all the songs as a single masterpiece.

Little North - Finding Seagulls CD

Little North brings together the warmth of American jazz with the cold, minimalist sounds of Scandinavia. There's of course a long and well-documented lineage of Scandinavian music which brings together melancholic Nordic soundscapes with the deep tradition of jazz. Little North, a young piano trio out of Denmark, is by no means an exception to this, but their third album, 'Finding Seagulls' sees them writing the next chapter of this rich tradition.

Lumnos - A Glimpse Through The Event Horizon CD

Expansive, Melodic, Mesmerizing. Intuitive black metal with a melodic (and spacious) twist. Most black metal albums I've heard that combines space synths and such just sound self-indulgent, gimmicky, or half-hearted. This band, Lumnos, have been the exception and this album sees their sound fully embracing psytrance and space ambient. Its scope is epic, symphonic, and most of all triumphant. A truly unique experience.

Residents - Triple Trouble: The Original Soundtrack Album

The soundtrack to the residents' long awaited new feature film 'Triple Trouble'

Seven collaged suites of brand new Residents music, film dialogue and one or two familiar themes. 'Triple Trouble' the movie will be appearing at film festivals and art house cinemas near you throughout 2022. "From priesthood to plumber: In the wake of his mother's death, an idealistic but emotionally isolated man replaces his belief in God with a faith in fungus..." The Residents present 'Triple Trouble', the soundtrack to their forthcoming fifty-years-in-the-making feature film of the same name. Featuring a blend of extended instrumental cues, film dialogue and spoken word extracts, and self-produced by The Residents and regular collaborator Eric Drew Feldman. Dive deep into the psyche of Randall "Junior" Rose, son of a recently deceased rock star and a former priest who has lost faith in the church. Convinced that a fungus is a threat to humanity, and accompanied by his only friend Cherry, an AI enhanced drone, Junior slowly gathers evidence to support his bizarre theory, spiralling out of control in the process...

Meredith Willson's The Music Man: The 2022 Broadway Cast Recording

Tony, Emmy and Grammy Award winner Hugh Jackman and Tony Award winner Sutton Foster lead an all-star cast in the Broadway revival of Meredith Willson's The Music Man. Often cited as the quintessential American musical, the story centers around a traveling salesman/conman and a prudish spinster librarian who together find that love and acceptance transcends people's differences. Set in the fictional city of River City, Iowa the musical's most famous number is the rousing Seventy-Six Trombones. The Music Man, which features a book, music, and lyrics by Meredith Willson, tells the story of what happens when con artist Harold Hill arrives in River City and falls in love with the straight-laced librarian, Marian. The work first opened on Broadway in 1957 at the Majestic Theatre. A 2000 revival played the Neil Simon Theatre. Jerry Zaks directs the new production of the musical, which also features vocal and dance arrangements by David Chase, orchestrations by Tunick, and music direction by Patrick Vaccariello.

Orrin Tucker - Oh Johnny! The Golden Years 1938-49 CD

It's an entertaining showcase for an artist about whom not much is known or heard about these days

Orrin Tucker was a saxophonist, singer and bandleader who had his heyday during the late 1930s and into the '40s, and whose orchestra played in the popular "sweet" style of the era, broadly favouring a relaxed style of swing, using featured vocalists to present popular standards and new compositions of the day.

Phantasos - Last Shining Breath CD

Fantastic. Mysterious, sinister, melodic melodies like a colour out of space. High quality atmospheric BM. Buy it, you won't regret it.

Very electronic driven atmospheric (or cosmic) black metal, which is something they've always perfected. This album, though it isn't my favorite, shows they still got it and they aren't slowing down anytime soon. Favorite track: Forgotten Spaces

Ploho - When The Soul Sleeps CD

The new album from dark Russian post-punk trio Ploho is easily the band's best!

Ploho offers up their most exciting and best-produced album to date: Корда душа спит (When the soul sleeps). Out on Artofact, the new album promises to be one of this year's high-lights and is sure to stand out on many end of year lists. Ploho's music combines early post-punk, new wave and Russian rock, drawing inspiration from the aesthetic and sounds of the late 1980s and early 1990s.

Present Music & David Bloom - Ryan Carter: On A Better Filtering Algorithm CD

Carter's musical imagination is characterized by its sensitivity to the sound world of electronics, even when he is writing for acoustic instruments.

Ryan Carter's musical imagination is characterized by its sensitivity to the sound world of electronics, even when he is writing for acoustic instruments. In the pieces collected on his first album, Chamber Works, the influence of technology manifested itself as interruption and challenge. The compositions on this album, take up technological themes in the spirit of sublimation and resolution.

Reece - Kronlund - Solid

Reissue of David Reece and Martin Kronlund's "Solid"

David Reece joins forces once again with guitarist/producer Martin Kronlund the founder of Gypsy Rose; the man who got Reece back to making albums, their offering this time is Solid. Now, why this collaboration was not marketed as Gypsy Rose instead of Reece-Kronlund is anyone's guess. Never the less, Solid more than verifies that the musical chemistry between the singer and the guitarist remains intact.

Trhä - Endlhëtonëg CD

If Twin Peaks were to have a black metal soundtrack, this would be it.
The best possible way i could describe this record is as follows: Imagine a church organ/keyboardist making apex twin style ambient music, then mix it with a choir, but that choir is actually a black metal band. The last song destroys and rebuilds you many times over. There is no better example of this style of black metal. Simply stunning. Icy, ethereal, entrancing, nocturnal, mysterious.

Moonshine Bandits - Whiskey And Women

Whiskey and Women (The Complete Sessions) brings all the songs from the original release and the Deluxe Shiner Edition into one collection.

Whiskey and Women debuted on Suburban Noize Records in 2011 after the Moonshine Bandits' three self-released albums. Following the success of this release, a deluxe edition soon followed with five additional unreleased tracks came out in 2012. However, three of the tracks for this original release did not appear on the deluxe version.

Gathered here on one release, 'Whiskey and Women (The Complete Sessions)' are all the songs from the recording session of one of the band's classic albums. When you add the ingredients of women, whiskey, 4-wheel drives, a twist of Johnny Cash meets the Beastie Boys, shake well & pour over ice - you get the Moonshine Bandits. The Bandits' songwriting reflects a backstage pass into their "Shiner" lifestyle on the road and their "let's raise some hell" attitude. As the Moonshine Bandits gained momentum and SHINER NATION WAS BUILT. Shiner Nation was formed to unite all the Moonshine Bandits' fans.

Creature From Black Lake

There's a hairy humanoid beast lurking in the Louisiana swamps, and two college grad students try to unravel the mystery of the mythical creature.

There's a hairy humanoid beast lurking in the Louisiana swamps, but only trapper Joe Canton has seen it and lived to tell the tale, and the other residents of Oil City, Louisiana don't talk about it. But that's not about to stop intrepid grad students Pahoo and Rives, who are determined to track down the Bigfoot-like creature. Defying local sheriff Billy Carter, the duo trek deep into the wilds of Black Lake, and a series of frightening encounters make it clear the monster is no mere legend.

Following in the (big) footsteps of THE LEGEND OF BOGGY CREEK and similar docudramas, 1976's CREATURE FROM BLACK LAKE is a fictional Sasquatch saga, albeit one inspired by real reports. With a colorful cast, also including Dub Taylor (THE WILD BUNCH), and plenty of rural atmosphere courtesy of cinematographer Dean Cundey (HALLOWEEN, JURASSIC PARK), sripter Jim McCullough Jr.--who also co-stars--and director Joy Houck Jr. bring touches of humor and humanity that complement the mystery of the monster, and the terror of its attacks. A longtime late-night TV favorite, CREATURE FROM BLACK LAKE now roars onto its Blu-ray debut with a new 4K restoration and a boatload of special features!

BONUS MATERIALS

- Original theatrical trailer and radio spot
- Newly translated optional English subtitles for the deaf and hard of hearing
- SWAMP STORIES - All-new featurette with Director of Photography Dean Cundey
- Audio commentary with author/filmmaker Michael Gingold and film historian Chris Poggiali
- Brand-new 4K restoration from the original 35mm camera negative

La PETITE MORT

They are no more than 10 hours away from summer, sun and beaches. Simon (ANDREAS PAPE), his blind girlfriend Nina (INES ZAHMOUL) and vivid and fun loving Dodo (ANNA HABECK) are on their way to Mallorca. Having to change planes in Frankfurt gives them enough time for a sightseeing tour through the city. After being robbed by a stranger (MARTIN HENTSCHEL) they coincidentally end up in the "Maison de la petit mort" a place where sick and twisted games of a perverted high society take place. Lady Boss Madame Fabienne (MANOUSH) and her psychopath "daughters" Dominique (ANNIKA STRAUSS) and Angelique (MAGDALENA KALLEY) run the club where brutal torture, thrill kill murders and the deranged fantasies of incurably sick minds are daily business. Will there be any chance for an escape...?! YOU'LL FIND OUT IN "LA PETITE MORT"!

The Last Bookshop Of The World

Four Europeans set off in a minibus with a trove of books, searching for a place where they will establish "the world's last bookshop."

Four Europeans from different cultures and fields of art set off in a minibus with a quality trove of world literature. They go in search, across a vast desert-like landscape, to find a place as remote as possible where they will establish the world's last bookshop. An isolated location is just perfect for their purpose, as there, the printed books of the world will be much safer from big city termites and the ups and downs of the internet. During the journey, the four discuss the unique gift of reading and also certain works of world literature that have changed each of them in a decisive way. They also ponder why Westerners are consuming more and more violent literature and at the same time harboring fears of increasing physical violence in all countries. Bringing the almost-lost purpose of books to the fore, this creative documentary poses important questions not yet discussed in film about whether we're reading what's worthwhile and if the timeless qualities once praised in literature have been replaced by sheer entertainment. What does this mean to our inner lives and to civilization? A road movie about books by and for people who love them. In Spanish, French, German, and Finnish with English subtitles.

Old Friends: A Dogumentary

The paw-inspiring tale of the Old Friends Senior Dog Sanctuary, a place where love never grows old.

The paw-inspiring story of the most beloved animal sanctuary in the world, the Old Friends Senior Dog Sanctuary in Mount Juliet, Tennessee. From their humble beginnings as a small backyard sanctuary, we follow founders Zina & Michael Gooden, their amazing staff, and the gang of one hundred plus senior pooches, as they grow and settle into a brand new 20,000 square foot state-of-the-art facility. You'll meet the dogs, and the people who saved them, fostered, and gave them back a reason to wag their tails. It's a tale of compassion and commitment, where love knows no bounds and as Zina like to say, "the sky is the limit." Old Friends, A Dogumentary, a film about a place where love never grows old.

Aftereffects: Memories Of Pittsburgh Filmmaking

Comprehensive documentary about the making of Effects featuring interviews with the cast and crew including George A Romera

During the late 1970's in Pittsburgh an ambitious and intrepid trio of filmmakers pooled their resources together and came up with just enough money to make their first feature-length narrative film. Originally called THE MANIPULATOR, and later re-titled EFFECTS, the movie was finished but sat unreleased for nearly 25 years. In 2005, EFFECTS was finally unveiled to movie-goers world- wide, and Red Shirt Pictures was brought on to document the movie's long and winding road to release. With AFTEREFFECTS: MEMORIES OF PITTSBURGH FILMMAKING, many of the film's cast & crew re-unite to discuss not only the making of the movie but their experiences in the fledgling independent film industry in Pittsburgh in the 1970s.

Hallucination

Based on true events, this cautionary tale of drugs was one of the first films to deal with the influence of LSD.

When Bill travels to Ibiza to visit his friend Denny, he falls in with a group of expats who spend their days sleeping and their nights turning on. Under the guidance of Eric, the self proclaimed "guru" of the group, Bill and Denny find themselves experimenting with various drugs and opening their minds with LSD. After Bill's mother cuts off his allowance, Eric uses his drug cocktails to put him in a suggestive state and convince him to rob a wealthy antiques dealer so that they all can continue their hedonistic life style. Starring stuntman and sculptor George Montgomery, Danny Steinmann and directed by Edward Mann, Hallucination aka Hallucination Generation is snapshot of wasted youth and an era gone by.

Nightmare Symphony

Frank is a stressed-out director, trying to complete a seemingly doomed horror film called A Peacock's Tale. Between ongoing arguments with the scriptwriter and producer, Frank faces his own existential crisis and is plagued by terrible nightmares and paranoia. Life begins to imitate art, it seems, when those involved in the film production are butchered by a mysterious masked figure. Can Frank still differentiate between reality and the brutal killings that are based on the movie's script? Nightmare Symphony is a loving tribute to the films of Lucio Fulci and the Italian Giallo. Starring Lady In White's Frank LaLoggia, written by Antonio Tentori (Fulci's Cat in the Brain) and directed by extremists Domiziano Cristopharo and Daniele Trani, this "elegant, stylish and sadistic" horror-thriller also features an amazing soundtrack by Antony Coia and is enhanced by Fabio Frizzi's original theme of terror.

Nobody Famous

Trust in the things you're hoping to find... The award-winning story of The Pozo-Seco Singers and their lead singer Susan Taylor (Pie).

Set against the backdrop of the socially and politically volatile 1960s, Nobody Famous traces the quick rise and steady fall of the 60s folk/pop trio, The Pozo Seco Singers. It is the award-winning story of the threesome and their lead singer Susan Taylor (Pie). The Pozo-Seco Singers were an American folk band that experienced national commercial success during the 1960s. Comprised of Susan Taylor, Don Williams and Lofton Kline, the trio hailed out of Corpus Christi, TX, but once they signed to Columbia Records, their music went national. They are perhaps best known for their 1966 hit "Time" but that was just one moment in their acclaimed history. Susan Taylor was the lead singer. She is best known as Taylor Pie, but with her overly friendly, always smiling, and lighthearted humorous persona she prefers to be simply be called "Pie". When The Pozo-Seco Singers were signed by Columbia Records, they joined a folk force of artists that included Bob Dylan, Simon & Garfunkel, Johnny Cash, Marty Robbins, Barbara Streisand and more. "I felt like I'd made it to the top of the mountain," says Pie reflectively. This film is really about Pie and the folk wind she's traveled on.

El Gran Movimiento

A symphony of the city in the heights, the illness of a worker, the nightmare and his redemption.

A monumental, gently mystical portrait of the contemporary central South American cityscape and those who work within its bowels and environs. After a seven-day walk with his companions, the young Elder arrives in the big city seeking to be reinstated in his work at the mine. The city is overwhelming, and Elder soon falls ill, causing him to suffer frequent choking and shortness of breath. As his condition gets worse, he enlists the help of the elderly Mamá Pancha, who sends him to Max - a homeless witch doctor, hermit, and clown - who could have the ability to bring Elder back to life. Set in the alternately harsh and beautiful terrain of La Paz, Bolivia, El Gran Movimiento is a spellbinding and hypnotic journey into a psychological space that touches upon the supernatural.

The First Turn-on!

A group of teenage summer campers and one counselor share the stories of their first sexual experiences when an avalanche traps them in a cave.

On the last day of summer at Camp Big-Tee-Pee, all the teenage campers are crazy with hormones and eager to go home. While on a nature walk with ditzy hippie camp counselor Michelle Farmer, four students - self-proclaimed stud Mitch, his girlfriend Annie, overweight Henry, and nerd Danny - break off from the rest of the group to indulge in some cannabis. They take refuge in a nearby cave, only to be caught in the act by Michelle some time later. While being shooed out, Henry's flatulence causes a landslide, trapping the five of them inside. To pass the time until their eventual rescue, the group shares stories of how each lost their virginity.

Can't Be Stopped

A group of teens on the Hollywood streets use their talents as graffiti artists to gain worldwide notoriety and ultimate success.

Hollywood's own "Can't Be Stopped" crew is one of the most influential and recognizable graffiti crew to emerge out of the U.S. Since its inception in the early 1980's, the initials C.B.S. have been at the forefront of evolving graffiti art into a true, authentic art form. The kinship forged by father figure "Skate" creates a bond of brotherhood, a surrogate family protecting these artists from the temptations of the Hollywood streets, imprinting upon them an unrivaled standard of morality, respect and integrity in graffiti. Skate's tutelage becomes their lore and mantra, the driving force as these boys come of age, many from broken homes, into their ultimate success and prosperity. Unbeknownst to these young artists, they were shaping the medium and ultimately became pioneers. Their notoriety and acclaim was a transcending factor that evolved this contemporary art form, transcending the stigmas attached to this subculture.

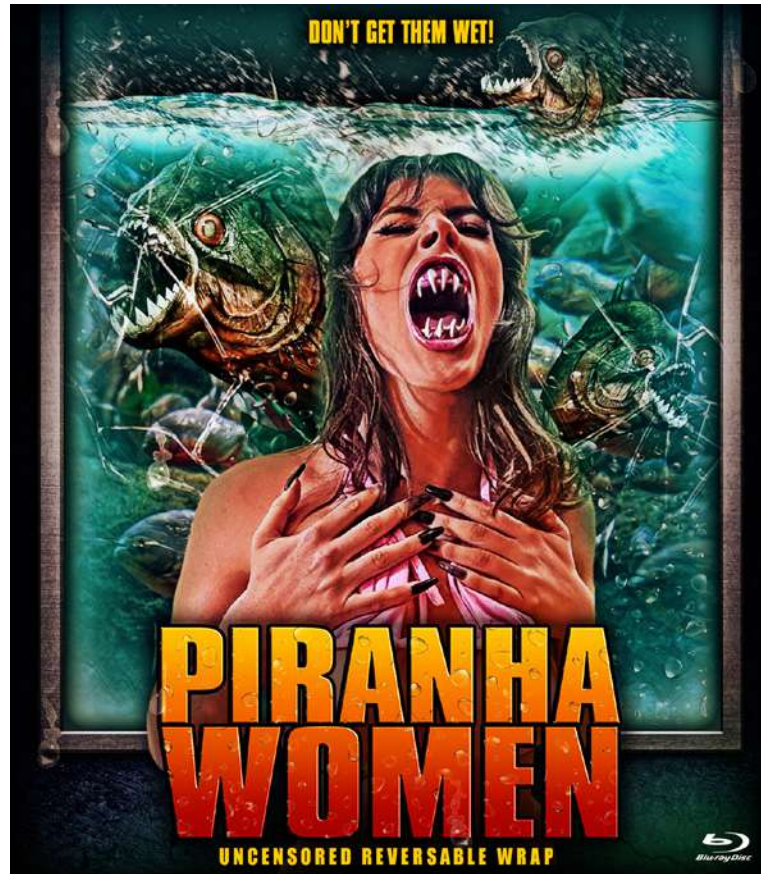

Through interviews, the story of Hollywood's "Can't Be Stopped" crew is told. Father figure "Skate" mentors a group of boys, raising them from broken homes and forming a surrogate family. Under his tutelage, these boys come of age as he protects them from the Hollywood streets, mentoring them in standards of morality, respect and integrity in their art. The CBS crew grow in notoriety and acclaim, transcending this contemporary art form, breaking the stigma and stereotypes associated with graffiti.

Pirates Press Records are happy to announce the long overdue reissue of one of The Slackers most acclaimed albums, Wasted Days. Their fourth studio double album, originally released in 2000, hasn't been available since 2013, and is an essential component to any Slackers collection! It showcases The Slackers' innovative incorporation of diverse influences to create a sound that is truly their own - from ska, reggae, rocksteady, and dub to soul, R&B, calypso, jazz, and rock 'n roll. Led by Vic Ruggerio's unmistakably Bronx accented vocal stylings, the band never lose touch with the scrappy energy of where they call home, New York City. With The Slackers continuing to tour the world throughout the end of 2022 and early 2023 in support of their recent full length "Don't Let The Sunlight Fool Ya" it seems only right to get their back catalog back in press for the new fans they never fail to make at every single show. Be sure to catch them in a town near you!

La Muerte - Sortilegia CD

Four years after their unanimously acclaimed self-titled album, cult Belgium metalheads, LA MUERTE, continue to push their boundaries with SORTILEGIA.

A scorching soundtrack to the Apocalypse. La Muerte returns to battle with an even more intense, massive, and cohesive burner than their 2018 self-titled album. Once, in response to a journalistic question, Dee-J and Marc du Marais called their work "morbid surrealism," which defined their intentions better than any other label. La Muerte has lost none of its raw and fierce radicalism.
