MVD DECEMBER: WHERE THE LAST ARE FIRST!

Leading off the last month of the year we have to first tell you about two new entries into the ARROW VIDEO canon, THE LAST STARFIGHTER and THE LAST VIDEO STORE. The first shall be LAST! THE LAST STARFIGHTER is a 1984 sci-fi classic that finds an arcade game whizz kid in an interstellar war! Directed by Nick Castle (the man behind the mask in the original HALLOWEEN), THE LAST STARFIGHTER has a galaxy of bonus features and arrives on 4K and Blu-ray. THE LAST VIDEO STORE is a little more Earthly, concerning a budding romance captured by the store's video camera. A girl has to sell her estranged father's VHS collection and takes a shine to the geeky store employee. They watch one mysterious tape that unleashes a curse that activates a series of villains that terrorize the store. That video camera is gonna be busy! Blu-ray only, although this release begs for a VHS video store style release!

Folk Horror is a subgenre that uses folklore to invoke fear and foreboding, and that essence is captured fully with a massive 13-disc Blu-ray set from SEVERIN films, ALL THE HAUNTS BE OURS. This is Volume Two of these deluxe sets, this one featuring 24 films from 18 countries. Severin has got your Folkin' Horror! EUREKA! The Eureka label is kicking it with another two-disc Blu-ray HORRIBLE HISTORY: FOUR HISTORICAL EPICS BY CHANG CHEH-the "Godfather of Hong Kong Cinema." 88 FILMS are no stranger to Martial Arts Mayhem, releasing MAGNIFICENT BODYGUARDS, a two-disc Blu-ray starring Jackie Chan. IGNITE MEDIA harkens back to 1945 with Blu-ray and DVD packages of THE STORY OF G.I. JOE. Starring Burgess Meredith, this is war seen through the eyes of correspondent who witnesses bravery at every stage.

Cheesy movies touting the giant-monster craze of the 1950s is epitomized in THE GIANT SPIDER INVASION Blu-ray. Creepy-crawlies from space threaten a town in Wisconsin, the cradle of cheese making!

Cheese-Whizz Kids GREAT WHITE melt your hair-metal brain with the DVD and Blu-ray LIVE AND RAW. The California band is captured live at the height of their success through various performances.

Buddy Holly - Oh Boy! Singles Collection 1956-59 Vinyl

It is a rollicking ride through the recordings which established Holly and his colleagues as influential pioneers of the genre.

Buddy Holly, with his Ivy League suits and horn-rimmed glasses, made for a very unusual rock star. No smouldering good looks, no flamboyant stage presence, but one could argue that Holly's influence on popular music far outweighs that of Elvis Presley, or Little Richard.

Challenger - Force Of Nature Vinyl

The Slovenians' traditional heavy/speed metal is based on majestic, melancholic leads, yet bursts with energy.

Now, at long last, the Slovenians' debut album is here: Force of Nature. Aptly titled, CHALLENGER draw from a deep well of heavy metal wisdom. Influences include Saxon, Iron Maiden, Tank, Rainbow, Judas Priest, Venom, Mercyful Fate, Running Wild, Black Sabbath, Deep Purple, and the UK's Satan, and verily do CHALLENGER siphon off both the best and most idiosyncratic strains of those legends' DNA.

The triple LP set will be packaged in a gatefold sleeve with new liner notes from Allman Bros biographer Alan Paul, memorabilia and photos.

Dickey's recent passing has created a heightened appreciation and demand for his music and this brilliant performance on vinyl is certain to be highly collectible. The Allman Brothers Band's At Fillmore East, was of course the album that captured the original Allman Brothers Band at their high water mark, showcasing a group as original and fiery as any ever to take a stage, spotlighting and fueled by Betts and Duane Allman's remarkable playing. It's the ghost that the band and all its members were always chasing. Performances like the one heard here show remind us how large of a part Betts played in the ABB's brilliance and how he could summon the musical Gods on his best nights throughout his career.

"When Dickey was feeling like this, his playing floated over time and existed on its own place. This performance is as good as any that I can recall the band doing."

Charles Tolliver / Music Inc Live at the Captain's Cabin

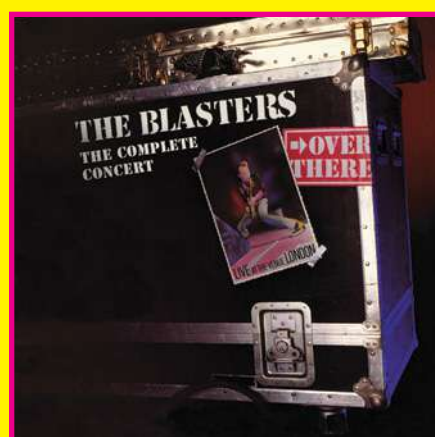

BLACK VINYL, 180 GRAM, 2xLP

REEL TO REAL RECORDINGS / SKU: RTRLP014 / UPC: 628308830572 / SRP: $49.99

Live at Captain's Cabin is a newly discovered gem from Edmonton, Alberta, Canada that finds Music Inc in absolutely fine form at a club called the Captain's Cabin. Playing mostly original music from Tolliver the band let's loose in the live setting. In his words "The players I had, John Hicks, Clint Houston and Cliff Barbaro. I just let them go do their thing and I didn't rein them in so we could have some pretty wild renditions of things, which if I were to do it now with a different rhythm section, it would sound different. It would be different. But I think that 50 something years ago that we were just expressing the exuberance of playing together and being on the road and the songs that I composed at that time, a few of them I still play, are completely different."

This recording is an incredible document from an amazing band that was continually pushing boundaries.

- Previously unissued live recording from 1973
- 180 gram double LP mastered by Kevin Gray of Coherent Audio
- Remastered audio transferred from the original tape reels
- Includes extensive booklet with rare photo, and essay by renowned writer Angelika Beener, an interview with Tolliver by Jeremy Pelt and more!

Raptore - Renaissance

Dark heavy metal from Spain! The 3rd album is catchy as usual while introducing new influences.

Truly titled, Renaissance is a tour-de-force of classic & classy HEAVY METAL steeped in all the black velvet and neon-lit chrome of the mythical '80s. So authentically rendered and passionately played, so rapturously engaging and dreamily transcendental, it would not be remiss to suggest that RAPTORE somehow travelled through time and returned with a lost sacred scroll from 1986 or even 1989.

Challenger - Force Of Nature CD

The Slovenians' traditional heavy/speed metal is based on majestic, melancholic leads, yet bursts with energy.
Now, at long last, the Slovenians' debut album is here: Force of Nature. Aptly titled, CHALLENGER draw from a deep well of heavy metal wisdom. Influences include Saxon, Iron Maiden, Tank, Rainbow, Judas Priest, Venom, Mercyful Fate, Running Wild, Black Sabbath, Deep Purple, and the UK's Satan, and verily do CHALLENGER siphon off both the best and most idiosyncratic strains of those legends' DNA.

John Askew - A Room Full Of Pros & Cons CD

It's time to announce the long-awaited John Askew album, 'A Room Full Of Pros & Cons'

Are we looking at the final artist album from John Askew? It is after all his first since his 'Z List Uber Star', which is currently closing in on its 20th anniversary. Add to that the duality of 'A Room Full Of Pros & Cons's' title; the faintly Last Supper-ish lean of its cover, not to mention some flagrant nose-thumbing of LP conventions, and, well, the question could at least be asked.

Lord Agheros - Anhedonia CD

Mystic and esoteric Avantgarde Black Metal influenced by MOONSPELL, EMPYRIUM, WOLVES IN THE THRONE ROOM and ULVER

Night In Gales - Shadowreaper CD

Since their 'return' with 2018's "The Last Sunsets", NIGHT IN GALES are consistent in the best sense of that word.

The "Shadowreaper" symbolizes the final stage of the finiteness of all existence: it shreds the lost souls - aimlessly caught up in "The Black Stream" - so that nothing remains. He is also the incarnation of our nightmares: a stalking horror made of shadows and burnt remains, longing for us all in the final hour.

So authentically rendered and passionately played, so rapturously engaging and dreamily transcendental, it would not be remiss to suggest that RAPTORE somehow travelled through time and returned with a lost sacred scroll from 1986 or even 1989.

Residents - Are Faceless!

Live recording of 2023 tour by The Residents focusing on their Duck Stab album plus some greatest hits

The Residents are an American art collective best known for their over 60 studio albums that were recorded over a period of over forty years. They also created some outstanding multimedia works, mainly three CD ROM projects and ten DVDs. Working as an anonymous collective, their identities were kept secret until in 2017 Hardy Fox revealed himself as their primary composer. Hardy died in October 2018, but the group continue to record and perform. In 2021, the band wanted to depart on a European tour called Dog Stab! but the Covid pandemic put a halt to it. 2022 wasn't more lucky, but early in 2023, The Residents finally made it to Europe stopping in Amsterdam, Brussels, London, Dublin, Oslo, Berlin, Vienna and many others. The concert presented here is the show at Kampnagel, Hamburg. The tour now offered a wider retrospective of The Residents' work, with less emphasis on Metal, Meat & Bone and Duck Stab! than had been seen in the earlier Dog Stab! shows. Instead the concerts focused on the Duck Stab material, with an additional greatest hits part thrown in for good measure. After the tour, The Residents parted ways with their long-time collaborator, guitarist Nolan Cook. Although Cook was planned to join the group on a UK/Europe mini-tour of their theatrical show God In 3 Persons - Live! in April 2024, those shows were ultimately cancelled, leaving the last date of the Faceless Forever tour as Cook's final performance with The Residents.

Everything Will Be Alright

An intimate, character-driven documentary filmed across four years, delving into the life of the Russian-speaking community outside of Riga, Latvia.

Everything Will Be Alright, director Stanislav Tokalov's non-fiction debut, is an intense, character-driven documentary filmed across four years and taking the viewer into the everyday life of his immediate family and the Russian-speaking community in Purvciems, a suburb outside of Riga. There's Nina, his grandmother, a World War II veteran who arrived in Latvia in 1955 in pursuit of a better life, his mother, a former university lecturer, and his 18 year-old sister, a talented artist who's starting her adult life by discovering love and trying to break away from her family. Together with cinematographer and co-writer, Valdis Celmiņš, Tokalov has created an intimate film about family, Latvia's ethnic divisions, and the Russian-speaking community's sense of belonging in a country that's not their own. Without promising that "everything will be alright," the film unravels vital questions about integration, collective memory, propaganda, and the war of identities that affects many -- both in Latvia, and around the world.

A New Haven-native with a love for the town's beloved "apizza", brings the charred, thin-crust, best pizza in the world to southern Florida.

A true fish-out-of-water story, or should we say, a pizza-out-of-Connecticut story, about a New Haven-native with a love for the town's beloved "apizza" (pronounced: ah-beetz), who does the impossible by bringing the charred, thin-crust, best pizza in the world to southern Florida.

In Slice of America, episode one, Charred in the Florida Sun, Jimmy Fantin opens Fantini's "New Haven Style" Apizza in the small coastal town of Stuart, Florida. With the support of loyal Connecticut snowbirds jonesing for a slice of home, and a rave review from One Bite's Dave Portnoy, Fantini's thrives and becomes a hub for pizza in Florida, with pizza-lovers driving a hundred miles or more for just a taste of one of Jimmy's pies.

Director Gorman Bechard, the filmmaker behind the documentary Pizza A Love Story (and 20 other feature-films), and host/pizza historian Colin M. Caplan lead us on this amusing journey of pizza love and perfection. You will laugh, learn about the origins of pizza, and fall in love with Jimmy's passion. But mostly you will leave hungry, wanting to experience Fantini's New Haven Style Apizza for yourself.

PRESS

"Toxic Crusaders is recommended, as it gives you a chance to see how others envision the Troma world, and how an actual attempt was made to market said mania to kids - a lot of lamentably loopy entertainment value"

—Bill Gibron, DVD Talk

"This is without any doubt one of the funniest cartoon series that I've seen in a long time. It's a brilliant parody of the genre tropes that were forming at the time and is not only genuinely great for kids to watch, but [for] fans of the original movie"

— The Great TV Marathon

Only The River Flows

Acclaimed, gritty, film noir set in 1990s small town China in the vein of True Detective. Based on Yu Hua's popular novel Mistakes by the River.

1990s small town China. A woman's body washes up in the local river. The chief of police, Ma Zhe, is tasked with heading up the investigation. An obvious perp leads to a hasty arrest, though the mystery lingers in Ma Zhe's mind. What kind of darkness is truly at play here? Director Wei Shujun's murky throwback film noir, gritty, textured film grain captures the pulpy proceedings. Torrents of rain envelop the characters as they descend into madness in pursuit of the truth. Equal parts atmospheric tour-de-force and beguiling puzzler, ONLY THE RIVER FLOWS is a masterfully styled ode to a bygone cinematic era and a sharp-edged portrait of provincial paranoia. The film, starring Zhu Yilong, is based on Yu Hua's popular short novel Mistakes by the River.
