MVD DECEMBER - A SEWER THING!

Arrow Video delivers a pizza film history with the release of the TEENAGE MUTANT NINJA TURTLES TRILOGY, a three-film box set on bluray and 4K! Mutants, Martial Arts, New York mayhem and lots of pizza are on the menu for the Fab Four franchise, as they combat evil in NYC. Trained in Ninja by a rat from deep in their sewer dwelling, it's a real New York story! Presented with extras and a 100-page book in the style of a pizza menu. But snap these turtles up quick, as both formats are limited editions. No need for the hard shell, it's a sewer thing!

The Shaw Brothers film company gets its biggest collection yet with the 10-disc SHAWSCOPE VOL. 4 collection. Limited edition box includes 60-page book and high-definition restorations of 16 classic Martial Arts Films. Eureka Entertainment consistently has a range of topflight fight, highlighted this month with TRIPLE THREAT, a trilogy featuring Hong Kong iconic actor Sammo Hung. Also coming from Eureka is MABUSE LIVES! DR. MABUSE AT CCC: 1060-1964. Mabuse wrote the book as a literary German villain, and six of the mysteries are included in this 4-disc box along with new and archival extras.

The Hip-Hop trailblazing 1982 film WILD STYLE gave most their first glimpse of graffiti, break dancing and the two turntable and a microphone culture in NYC. Starring Fab 5 Freddy with musical performances from Grandmaster Flash and Kool Moe Dee, WILD STYLE gets a new spray can of paint with Bluray and 4K versions.

Writing this in the woods, I cannot fail to mention the new horror epic from Cleopatra, AFRAID? whose plot is a game of 'what are you afraid of?' played among five 'friends.' Things turn deadly. Now I AM VERY afraid! What was that?

In music, we mean it MAN- literally- as Made in Germany releases MAN-LIVE AT ROCKPALAST 1975. Revel in the bands mix of rock, blues, country and folk in this 2-disc CD/DVD set. LESTER LEAPS IN: LIVE AT BIRDLAND 1951-1952 is the CD counterpart to the Black Friday vinyl release from Liberation Hall, compiling jazz saxophone player Lester Young's legendary performances at Birdland in New York. And speaking of Black Friday, let's not forget MVD offers this Lester Young, a Sonny Terry & Brownie McGhee folk set LIVE FROM THE ASH GROVE on purple vinyl and DEAD MILKMEN 'BIG LIZARD IN MY BACKYARD', two discs on yellow and green vinyl.

Turtles, Lizards-, what's next, Snakes on a Plane?

MVD'S OFFICIAL RELEASES FOR RECORD STORE DAY
BLACK FRIDAY
2025

The Dead Milkmen: Big Lizard in My Backyard (40th Anniversary)

ONE GREEN + ONE YELLOW RECORD + LENTICULAR COVER, 2xLP

THE GIVING GROOVE / SKU: GG033 / UPC: 760137181231 / SRP: $59.99

The debut album that started it all way back in 1985. Can you believe this album is celebrating its 40th anniversary!? With classic hits such as "Tiny Town", "Dean's Dream", and, of course, "Bitchin' Camaro" this is the collection of songs that sprung the Milkmen onto the indie rock scene (for better or worse). Hear what Maximum Rockroll describes as "20 satire-laced songs are real crack-ups...backed up by tight playing that incorporates funk, country, and lots of other styles into their punk approach". In addition to the newly remastered album (pressed on green vinyl), this 40th anniversary RSD exclusive release includes a 2nd vinyl of never-heard-before, straight off the original 8-track, alternate takes of 10 classics (pressed on yellow vinyl). Also included is brand-new, custom windowed die-cut lenticular cover featuring updated artwork by Dean Clean, a gatefold layout of take-sheets, photos, and posters, and a QR code digital download.

Lester Young: Lester Leaps In: Live At Birdland 1951-1952

BLACK, 180 GRAM VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-2158 / UPC: 810177215820 / SRP: $26.99

The never-before-released set captures one of the most influential tenor saxophonists of all time, live at NYC's iconic jazz venue Birdland. It features eight tracks recorded on four different dates in 1951 and '52 for ABC Radio's famed "Jumpin' with Symphony Sid." Host Sid Torin introduces several of the tracks, one of which, "Neenah," includes a shoutout to audience member Billie Holiday who originated the bebop legend's nickname "Prez" (for "President of the Tenor Sax"). The backing bands feature pianists John Lewis, Cyril Haynes, and Earl Knight; percussionists "Papa" Jo Jones and Lee Abrams; bassist Gene Ramey; and trumpeter Jesse Drakes. The album will be pressed on 180-gram vinyl and features rare photos with extensive liner notes from jazz historian Scott Yanow. Here's an excerpt of the performance notes: In 1951, the 41-year old saxophonist was still very much in his prime, leading a supportive and swinging quartet. The first three numbers on this album are from Jan. 20, 1951 and have Young joined by pianist John Lewis who was a year away from forming the Modern Jazz Quartet, bassist Gene Ramey, and drummer Jo Jones. Five weeks later on Feb. 24, 1951, Lester Young was back at Birdland, this time with pianist Cyril Haynes along with Ramey and Jones. Young is in the spotlight on a medium-slow version "These Foolish Things Remind Me Of You." & Pres' simple up-tempo riff blues "Neenah" Side two moves ahead to May 19, 1951 with trumpeter Jesse Drakes making the group a quintet. Young and Drakes make for an appealing frontline on spirited versions of "Indiana" and "How High The Moon" from the May 19 broadcast. The final selection from a May 2, 1952 broadcast brings back Young, Drakes and Ramey but with pianist Earl Knight and drummer Lee Abrams. The quintet concludes this compilation with a romping version of "Deed I Do" that makes one look forward to future releases in this valuable series.

Sonny Terry & Brownie McGhee: Live from The Ash Grove

PURPLE GRAPE VINYL, LP

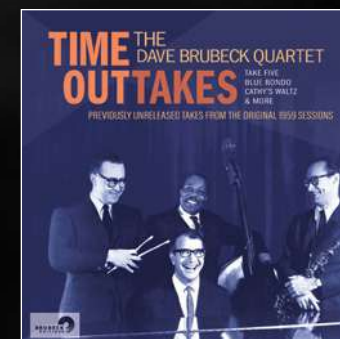

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-5039 / UPC: 810177215820 / SRP: $24.99

Never before available 8 song performance from blind harmonica wizard Sonny Terry with legendary blues guitar picker Brownie McGhee at the Ash Grove in Hollywood recorded in 1973. Features 2 bonus tracks also recorded at the Ash Grove from 1965. The acclaimed duo had a 35-year long partnership that helped define the 1960s folk/blues revival movement. On the movie screen they appeared together in the Steve Martin's movie "The Jerk". Sonny was featured in Steven Spielberg's "The Color Purple" and Brownie in "Angel Heart". In 1982 they were acknowledged with the National Endowment for the Arts Heritage Fellowship award.

Kakuhan & Adam Golebiewski - Repercussions Vinyl

"Repercussions" is a collaborative album from Japanese duo KAKUHAN and Polish improvising drummer Adam Golebiewski.

"Repercussions" is a collaborative album from Japanese duo KAKUHAN and Polish improvising drummer Adam Golebiewski. Owing as much to Autechre as it does to Arthur Russell, it's dizzyingly psychedelic music that flits between wild free improv and obsessive, micro-edited precision, unclassifiable rhythmic and tonal experimentation that nods to the renaissance era and the contemporary dancefloor.

Martin Dupont - You Smile When It Hurts Vinyl

French cold wave cult band whose stark synths and haunting vocals echo Joy Division, later inspiring samplers from Madlib to Tricky.

Martin Dupont, cult icons of France's 1980s new wave, return with You Smile When It Hurts -- their first studio album in over thirty years. Famed for melodic minimalism and elegant melancholy, often compared to Depeche Mode, New Order.Rediscovered decades later, their textures drew the attention of samplers like Madlib and Tricky, who recognised the timeless intensity hidden in these recordings.

Orlok's Plague - Jupiter's Killbox / Resonator 7" Vinyl

ORLOK'S PLAGUE emanates eerie, haunting, old-school death metal from its black heart.

ORLOK'S PLAGUE emanates eerie, haunting, old-school death metal from its black heart, harkening listeners back to the genesis of extreme metal, but forged with modern-era technologies. The lyrical themes of ORLOK'S PLAGUE center on lesser-known horror movies, the kind of films that one would dub to VCR tapes in Extended Play speed in the twilight of the 20th century.

Revenge - Night Danger Vinyl

The pioneers of Colombian Heavy/Speed Metal are back with their 10th album!

Formed in 2002, Colombia's REVENGE have been keeping it true for a very long time now. Like clockwork, every couple years do REVENGE return to the full-length front. The tenth(!) album to date, rips and races with class and craft - the kind that REVENGE have been forging in steel for time eternal. Night Danger is a speed metal record, but one imbued with a prominent sense of classic heavy metal.

Sad Snack - Vending Machine Vinyl

Debut full-length album from Bay Area ska upstarts Sad Snack

Vending Machine, the debut album from San Francisco darlings Sad Snack, fuses the band's love of ska and punk with dime-stop genre changes in bossa nova, jazz, emo, and Fiona Apple/Magnetic Fields style oddball indie-rock. The nine song, half-hour of original tunes showcases the band's storytelling, four-part horn lines, topped with danceable melodies

Suidakra - Darkanakrad Vinyl

Back to the roots?! Melodic death metal highlight by one of Germanys leading acts in this genre!

German melodic/Celtic death metallers present their 15th album! Musically, the band seem to be returning to their early years, as Darkanakrad is undoubtedly dominated by melodic death metal parts, but at the same time also undergoes further development. The album sounds as fresh and powerful as if the band had sprung from a fountain of youth and concludes the "Realms Of Odoric" trilogy.

T.O.Y. - The Prophet Vinyl

T.O.Y.'s new album, The Prophet, is passion, history, a vintage museum, and full of great songs that are waiting to be heard.

The Prophet is something truly special. During the Corona pandemic, wrapped in isolation, we all needed consistency, a sense of comfort, and security. I found that feeling through sounds--the sounds I have known my whole life: the music of the 80s. The Prophet is passion, history, a vintage museum, and full of great songs that are waiting to be heard. White vinyl edition.

The One - Lighter Than Air (Cool Blue 180 Gram Gatefold Vinyl) Vinyl

Symphonic rock F.f.o Marillion's Clutching At Straws

Lighter than Air marks a clear step forward. Whereas the debut leaned heavily on the legacy of '70s progressive rock--with influences from legends like Genesis, Yes, and King Crimson--the follow-up sounds more modern and contemporary. Still, the roots in prog tradition remain evident: epic compositions, adventurous rhythms, and virtuosic instrumental passages continue to define the band's sound.

Will Wood & The Tapeworms - Everything Is A Lot (Hyperspace Ultraclear/Black Ice Splatter Double LP) [Indie Exclusive] ((2015 Mix)) Vinyl

Will Wood's first LP displays a variety of genres, with a chaotic homemade anti-folk feel and an experimental edge.

Released under the moniker "Will Wood and the Tapeworms" in 2015, "Everything is a Lot" whiplashes between genres and emotions rapidly, tying the irreverent to the sentimental with a thrashing experimental feel that reflects the chaos of one's early 20s. Guttural vocals, edgy lyrics, and honky-tonk piano make this cabaret-punk LP a fitting start to what would become Wood's ever-changing style.

Crabber - Sweet Credibility CD

Catchy & jangly guitar-pop w/trumpets and the occasional string section on this German band's fourth lp / RIYL: Comet Gain, Cinerama

This Hamburg quartet's fourth album is a somewhat calmer affair than their previous ones. Though these songs retain a lot of the same qualities they've always had (such as excellent melodies & catchy hooks galore), there's considerable more diversity here than found on the band's previous records - including plenty of trumpets and even a string section at times - and with wonderful results!

Josephine Baker - J'ai Deux Amours: The Collection 1926-60 CD

This collection offers a fascinating cross-section of her work, and an intriguing showcase for a remarkable artist

Josephine Baker was one of the most extraordinary, individual and distinctive artists of her era, an American singer, dancer and actor, who adopted France as her home. She established a reputation as an outrageous, stylish and provocative stage performer, defying all the norms of the day, as she appeared on the Folies Bergere stage wearing not much more than a bunch of bananas

Jü - Rudel CD

JÜ transports the audience from the present straight into the future: they deliver a performance that changes the audience's perception of music.

Jü's music brims with rapture and energy, blending psychedelic and noise rock, folk, and power jazz. Themes may start strict or swirl in repetition, yet evolve into vibrant compositions. While evoking the golden age of genre-crossing sounds, Jü isn't nostalgic--they forge their own path, far from the late-sixties and early-seventies fusion lane.

Leroy Carr - A Career Anthology: Vocalion & Bluebird Recordings 1928-35 CD

It's a substantial and comprehensive showcase for the work and talents of one of the genre's true greats.

Leroy Carr was one of the most important of all the early blues singers and songwriters. Music historian Elijah Wald called him "the most influential male blues singer and songwriter of the first half of the 20th century". He was a pianist and singer, developing a distinctive and sophisticated laid-back style with a hip urban feel that was different from most of his country blues contemporaries.

MAN - Live At Rockpalast 1975 CD/DVD

Great Rockpalast performance from WDR Studio L in Cologne on 1975-4-17 with the core MAN lineup: Micky Jones, Deke Leonard, Martin Ace, Terry Williams

7 years after their formation, MAN from Wales performed at Rockpalast on April 17, 1975 at Studio L in Cologne. What was impressive about MAN was their musical "live" performance with their very own "Welsh" mix of rock, blues, country, folk, and a good dose of West Coast rock. Nevertheless, influences from (distant) Grateful Dead, but above all from Quicksilver Messenger Service, are unmistakable.

Martin Dupont - You Smile When It Hurts CD

French cold wave cult band whose stark synths and haunting vocals echo Joy Division, later inspiring samplers from Madlib to Tricky. Martin Dupont, cult icons of France's 1980s new wave, return with You Smile When It Hurts -- their first studio album in over thirty years. Famed for melodic minimalism and elegant melancholy, often compared to Depeche Mode, New Order. Rediscovered decades later, their textures drew the attention of samplers like Madlib and Tricky, who recognised the timeless intensity hidden in these recordings.

Revenge - Night Danger CD

The pioneers of Colombian Heavy/Speed Metal are back with their 10th album!

Formed in 2002, Colombia's REVENGE have been keeping it true for a very long time now. Like clockwork, every couple years do REVENGE return to the full-length front. The tenth(!) album to date, rips and races with class and craft - the kind that REVENGE have been forging in steel for time eternal. Night Danger is a speed metal record, but one imbued with a prominent sense of classic heavy metal.

Reverend Lee Taylor - Anchors Of The Soul CD

Awaken your spirit core and bring greater self-awareness by moving out of the unconscious trance-like state we often fall into in daily life.

This guided meditation by Rev. Lee Taylor is designed to focus you on the three anchor points of the soul: the mind, heart, and will--drawing from spiritual and religious traditions that view these centers as gateways to inner balance and spiritual awakening. These points are recognized as essential for integrating the human experience into a coherent spiritual journey.

The One - Lighter Than Air (Digi CD) CD

Lighter than Air marks a clear step forward. Whereas the debut leaned heavily on the legacy of '70s progressive rock--with influences from legends like Genesis, Yes, and King Crimson--the follow-up sounds more modern and contemporary. Still, the roots in prog tradition remain evident: epic compositions, adventurous rhythms, and virtuosic instrumental passages continue to define the band's sound.

Vincent Courtois & Colin Vallon - A Simple Fall CD

A Simple Fall is both personal testimony and shared meditation. It reminds us that music can bear silence as gracefully as it bears sound.

A Simple Fall brings together two of Europe's most distinctive voices in contemporary improvised music: French cellist Vincent Courtois and Swiss pianist Colin Vallon. Courtois is no stranger to the BMC catalogue. His tone, equally capable of lyricism and restraint finds a remarkable counterpart in Vallon's unique sense of portion when it comes to piano.

LANDMVRKS - Lost In The Waves: The Complete Edition (Limited Light Blue/Mint 2LP)

French metalcore juggernaut LANDMVRKS return with Lost In The Waves (The Complete Edition) on CD, an expanded version of their legendary studio album.

»Lost In The Waves« (The Complete Edition) is full of surprises, including three brand new songs with famous features from DREW YORK of STRAY FROM THE PATH, Bertrand Poncet of CHUNK! NO, CAPTAIN CHUNK! and Anthony Diliberto of RESOLVE, as well as the full livestream set, which premiered on 2nd June last year. The purpose of this album, entitled »Lost In The Waves«, is clearly not to reinvent LANDMVRKS. The purpose is to fully deploy the band's arsenal in order to definitively impose its style. An uncompromising style, assumed, claimed, and highly distinctive. The listener goes through massive, energetic, or even aerial parts, without escaping the efficient groove inherited from a rap culture. The musical production of this album is the most accomplished and organic that the group has ever had. The tone was clearly set by 'Rainfall', the first single released from the record. This album shows that instead of getting lost in the waves, the French band firmly holds the helm.

MAN - Live At Rockpalast 1975 CD/DVD

Great Rockpalast performance from WDR Studio L in Cologne on 1975-4-17 with the core MAN lineup: Micky Jones, Deke Leonard, Martin Ace, Terry Williams

7 years after their formation, MAN from Wales performed at Rockpalast on April 17, 1975 at Studio L in Cologne. What was impressive about MAN was their musical "live" performance with their very own "Welsh" mix of rock, blues, country, folk, and a good dose of West Coast rock. Nevertheless, influences from (distant) Grateful Dead, but above all from Quicksilver Messenger Service, are unmistakable.

Emmanuelle 2
Goodbye Emmanuelle
I, emmanuelle

THE UHD PREMIERES OF 4 CLASSIC FILMS WITH 15+ COMBINED HOURS OF SPECIAL FEATURES 2 SOUNDTRACK CDs AND 128 PAGE BOOKLET

The world's most iconic erotica has only one name, and her sexually seismic saga begins here: The 1974 global breakthrough film EMMANUELLE – presented in its Original Theatrical Version and Director's Cut – marked the debuts of star Sylvia Kristel and director Just Jaeckin and forever changed depictions of female sensuality on screen. Kristel returned in 1975's EMMANUELLE 2 featuring a lush soundtrack by Academy Award® winner Francis Lai. The original trilogy bids farewell with 1977's GOODBYE EMMANUELLE, again starring Kristel and featuring some of the most sumptuous couplings in the series. The final film is also the first, as Erika Blanc stars in the rarely seen and darkly provocative 1969 Italian production I, EMMANUELLE, inspired by the then-newly published memoir by Emmanuelle Arsan. All 4 films in this limited edition collection are now scanned in 4K from their original camera negatives, with over 15 combined hours of new and archival Special Features, 2 Bonus Soundtrack CDs and a 128 page booklet of essays, Sylvia Kristel artwork and more.

Mabuse Lives! Dr Mabuse At CCC: 1960-1964 (Standard Edition) Blu-ray Disc

The Masters of Cinema series is honoured to collect all six of the 1960s Mabuse films together in this set.

Fritz Lang made two of the defining works of early German cinema with Dr Mabuse the Gambler and The Testament of Dr Mabuse, two masterpieces centered on Norbert Jacques' nefarious literary supervillain. In 1960, Lang was charged by Artur Brauner's CCC Film with making a third crime thriller centered on the infamous Dr Mabuse, completing a trilogy nearly forty years in the making.

The House With Laughing Windows [Limited Edition] 4K Ultra HD

Often counted among the greatest gialli ever made, The House with Laughing Windows offers a uniquely eerie twist on the genre.

While typically famed for its lurid Technicolor hues and grand guignol murders, the Italian giallo thriller had a less bombastic side as well. Erring less towards exploitation than to art, these lesser-seen gems offer some of the greatest rewards for adventurous viewers. Among them, 1976's The House with Laughing Windows, directed and co-written by Pupi Avati, rises up as the cream of the crop.

Thank You Very Much

Portrait of Andy Kaufman's wild genius, legacy, and unseen footage--told by those who knew him best. A deep dive into comedy's greatest enigma.

FROM THE FILMMAKERS BEHIND UN CUT GEMS AND WONT YOU BE MY NEIGHBOR?

LIFE IS A BEAUTIFUL AND CONFUSING PERFORMANCE

THANK YOU VERY MUCH traces the life and career of legendary performance artist Andy Kaufman, exploring the enigmatic legend's gonzo, boundary-shattering comedy which provoked and often outraged audiences. The film reveals a nuanced understanding of what drove the mercurial performer, who inspired an entire generation of offbeat comedians and entertainers after him. The film includes rare, never before seen footage and audio recordings that shed new light on Kaufman's creative process; including newly uncovered archival footage and intimate recollections of friends, colleagues, and family members, and interviews with Kaufman's closest collaborators such as Bob Zmuda, Lynne Margulies, Steve Martin, Danny DeVito, and Marilu Henner. THANK YOU VERY MUCH excavates the all-too-short life and career of a comedy iconoclast whose impact is felt all the more today with the blurring of artifice and reality that defines our present age.

Giallo, Guns & Gore! The Films of Darren Ward [3-Disc Collector's Set] (Sudden Fury, A Day of Violence, Beyond Fury)

The complete works of independent action and crime director Darren Ward

The break-neck bloody action and crime films of British independent director Darren Ward in an exhaustive collection beginning with his early shorts, to his debut feature SUDDEN FURY (1998) - described by Mondo Digital as "an astonishing frenzy of gangster gore that's still one of the most gruesome British projects ever filmed." From 2004 his serial killer short NIGHTMARES paves the way for his next feature A DAY OF VIOLENCE (2009) described by critic MJ Simpson as "a film about deeply unpleasant people doing extremely violent things to other deeply unpleasant people." Rounding off his "FURY" trilogy is his most ambitious feature, BEYOND FURY (2019) described by Starburst as "a love letter to the Italian exploitation films of the seventies and eighties...this brash, gory, revenge flick manages to rise above its humble origins."

...And You Will Know Us By The Trail Of Dead - Madonna (Limited White/Purple/Magenta Marbled LP)

Trail of Dead's 1999 album Madonna fused post-hardcore chaos, noise rock, and punk energy, cementing their reputation as bold, ambitious innovators.

Released in October 1999 via Merge Records, Madonna was the second studio album by ...And You Will Know Us by the Trail of Dead and a breakthrough moment in their career. Expanding on their chaotic post-hardcore roots, the record blends noise rock, punk urgency, and artful experimentation into a visceral sonic assault. With tracks like "Mistakes & Regrets," "Totally Natural," and the explosive closer "A Perfect Teenhood," the album captured the raw intensity of their live shows and cemented Trail of Dead's reputation as one of the most ambitious and uncompromising acts of their era.
