The Dead Milkmen

Eat Your Paisley! (40th Anniversary Deluxe Remaster)

BLUE CRAYON VINYL, LP

THE GIVING GROOVE / SKU: GG034 / UPC: 760137217404 / SRP: $39.99

Ever wanted to hear what a satirical grenade lobbed at the Summer of Love crowd would sound like? Well, it's time to drop your needles on the upcoming reissue of "Eat Your Paisley!". Originally released in 1986 by Restless Records, the Milkmen's sophomore album is celebrating its 40th anniversary and what better way to observe than with a new pressing full of all the stuff you probably never wanted. Hear what Trouser Press calls "wacky observations of stereotypes and artifacts are vague but astute; the music is expendable but never less than presentable." Or the review from People Magazine stating the album "produces rough, ragged rock 'n' roll with lyrics that express disdain for anything the adult world holds sacred and with music that purposefully negates the slickly produced synthesizer sounds of pretty boys such as Duran Duran and Howard Jones." The 40th anniversary pressing from The Giving Groove will feature a unique take on the original cover, remastered audio (from the original tapes) for contemporary vinyl, digital download QR code, a gatefold design loaded with historical documents, and the debut of The Giving Groove's Artifact Registrar & Public Ledger.

Bonus Materials: Reimagined Cover / Remastered from original tapes for contemporary vinyl / poster/lyric sheet insert / QR WAV & MP3 download / Unique Artifact ID & Provenance Registration / Gatefold with historical documentation

Charlie Parker

Bewitching Bird: Charlie Parker At
Café Society & Lindsay's Sky Bar

180 GRAM BLACK VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-2226 / UPC: 810177210078 / SRP: $29.99

Two performances from the iconic saxophonist. Side one features five tracks recorded in 1950 at the legendary Greenwich Village club, Café Society. Featured on the set is a ten-minute medley of four standards with an all-star band - trumpeter Kenny Dorham, pianist Al Haig, bassist Tommy Potter and drummer Roy Haynes. Two tracks are very rare cuts. Parker had never recorded "I Cover The Waterfront" and the version of "Bewitched" had never been officially released on any Bird album. The final track "Lover, Come Back To Me" was recorded on a different date with pianist Dick Hyman, guitarist Mundell Lowe, bassist Irv Lang and drummer Irv Kluger. Side two contains ultra-rare, never before issued live tracks recorded in 1951 at Lindsay's Sky Bar in Cleveland, a venue where few, if any other tracks survived. Featuring band members drummer Roy Haynes, trombonist Jimmy Knepper, pianist Walter Bishop Jr. and bassist Teddy Kotick, these sides have never been available or heard in any capacity. They are the stuff that ornithologists "dreams are made of"--not only for their rarity, but for their quality. The LP is mastered from the original tapes and pressed on 180g vinyl. Includes detailed liner notes written by Matthew Rivera and includes a download card for a non-LP unreleased bonus track, "Wahoo" recorded in 1951 at Lindsay's Sky Bar.

Side A: Bewitched / Summertime / I Cover the Waterfront / Easy To Love / Lover, Come Back To Me

Side B: Barbados / Bongo Bop / Cool Blues / Star Eyes

thrown - UNWANTED

Swedish breakout act thrown: 227M+ Spotify streams, 2x Heavy Music Award winners, new album UNWANTED on the way.

Few bands in modern heavy music have risen as fast -- or hit as hard -- as thrown. Since emerging from Stockholm, Sweden, the four-piece have turned their uncompromising blend of metallic hardcore, crushing grooves and nu-metal intensity into a global phenomenon, with more than 227 million streams on Spotify alone and a worldwide audience that continues to grow. Their 2022 debut EP EXTENDED PAIN put thrown firmly on the map. The EP remained in Spotify's Global Metal Top 200 for almost an entire year and has since accumulated more than 80 million Spotify streams. Songs such as "grayout," "fast forward" and "parasite" established the blueprint: short, explosive and relentlessly heavy songs built around suffocating riffs and visceral vocals. That momentum exploded with debut album EXCESSIVE GUILT, released in August 2024 via Arising Empire, surpassing 120 million Spotify streams. At the centre sits "on the verge," thrown's biggest song to date with almost 60 million streams, while "guilt" has passed 25 million and "backfire" approaches 20 million. thrown have taken their music across Europe, North America and Australia, touring alongside Knocked Loose, Fit For A King, Emmure, Counterparts, While She Sleeps and Wage War. That rise was recognised at the Heavy Music Awards, where thrown won Best Breakthrough Live Artist in 2024, followed by Best Breakthrough Album for EXCESSIVE GUILT in 2025. Now entering their next chapter, thrown's forthcoming sophomore album UNWANTED is on the way, with first singles "split," "rehearsed" and "critic" already accumulating millions of streams. With over 227 million Spotify streams, award-winning releases and a reputation forged on stages around the world, thrown are no longer simply one of heavy music's most promising new bands. They've already arrived.

Charlie Parker Bewitching Bird: Charlie Parker At Café Society & Lindsay's Sky Bar

Two rare performances from 1950-'51, including a never before available set from Lindsay's Sky Bar in Cleveland

Two performances from the iconic saxophonist. Side one features five tracks recorded in 1950 at the legendary Greenwich Village club, Café Society. Featured on the set is a ten-minute medley of four standards with an all-star band - trumpeter Kenny Dorham, pianist Al Haig, bassist Tommy Potter and drummer Roy Haynes. Two tracks are very rare cuts. Parker had never recorded "I Cover The Waterfront" and the version of "Bewitched" had never been officially released on any Bird album. The final track "Lover, Come Back To Me" was recorded on a different date with pianist Dick Hyman, guitarist Mundell Lowe, bassist Irv Lang and drummer Irv Kluger. Tracks 6-10 contain ultra-rare, never before issued live tracks recorded in December 1951 at Lindsay's Sky Bar in Cleveland, a venue where few, if any other tracks survived. Featuring band members drummer Roy Haynes, trombonist Jimmy Knepper, pianist Walter Bishop Jr. and bassist Teddy Kotick, these sides have never been available or heard in any capacity. They are the stuff that ornithologists "dreams are made of"--not only for their rarity, but for their quality. The set features detailed liner notes from Matthew Rivera, and a bonus track available on CD and digital only.

NEW 4K RESTORATION FROM THE ORIGINAL 35MM FINE GRAIN PRINT

MACHINE-GUN KELLY SPECIAL EDITION

2-disc collection
$45.95

Includes an 14-page insert booklet with a new essay by author/film historian Don Stradley.

Before Charles Bronson became one of cinema's definitive tough guys, he delivered his first leading role in Roger Corman's lean, hard-hitting gangster classic Machine Gun Kelly (1958). Loosely inspired by the notorious Depression-era outlaw George "Machine Gun" Kelly, Bronson plays Kelly as a ruthless bank robber whose fear of death and dependence on his domineering partner, Flo Becker (Susan Cabot), reveal the fragile man behind the myth. Directed by the great Roger Corman, Machine Gun Kelly is a stripped-away, tense psychological portrait that marked a turning point for both Corman and Bronson's careers.

This title is restored in 4K and newly remastered in Dolby Vision HDR, presented in Superama 2:1 and 1.37:1 aspect ratios. A companion BD50 includes bonus features as well as both aspect ratios of the film for the standard Blu-ray player.

COMING DECEMBER 15, 2026

THREE CULT CLASSICS FROM JUST JAECKIN
BY THE DIRECTOR OF STORY OF O & EMMANUELLE

JUST JAECKIN
COLLECTION

Cult Epics presents the Just Jaeckin Collection, featuring three female-driven cult classics by the director of Emmanuelle.

Following the worldwide smashes Emmanuelle (1974) and The Story of O (1975), influential French filmmaker Just Jaeckin returned in 1977 with the sensual real-life drama Madame Claude, starring Françoise Fabian in the title role, along with a sinister Klaus Kinski and the lovely Dayle Haddon.

In The Last Romantic Lover, the editor-in-chief (Dayle Haddon) of a New York women's magazine is organizing a "Last Romantic Lover" contest to find out if men still have a sense of romance. One of the winners is a circus lion-tamer (Gérard Ismaël), whose's prize is to spend ten days with her.

Coming-of-age flick Girls features Susanne (Charlotte Wailor), Annie (Zoé Chauveau) and Catherine (Anne Parillaud), who have just finished high school, going out every night in discos and cinemas to meet boys. Susanne's younger sister, Betty (Isabele Mejias), often joins them and copies their behavior.

From acclaimed filmmaker Bill Zebub, King of the B Movies, comes The Gods Are Rapists, a new re-edit of Santa Claus: Serial Rapist (also Santa Claus: A Horror Story).

“ Like the best of Troma movies, Bill Zebub’s movies are imbued with self-awareness, cheap effects, simple storylines and, surprisingly, charm. The thing that sets Zebub apart is his seeming obsession with going for the jugular when it comes to each feature’s title and storyline. ”

—Chris Gore, Film Threat

“ Joel Gilbert’s new film on Tulsi Gabbard was an eye-opener. Not only did Joel capture the spirit of this exceptional woman, but thanks to the shrewd use of AI, he captured the remarkable color her life, both figurative and literal. The film is as smart and sophisticated as its subject, and it never stops entertaining. ” —Jack Cashill, Film Review

Tulsi Gabbard Against the Machine follows Tulsi Gabbard’s extraordinary political journey, beginning with her childhood in Hawaii, where her family instilled the values of spirituality, service, and independent thinking. Believing politics could be a force for peace, integrity, and public service, Gabbard rose from the Hawaii Legislature to military service in Iraq, the U.S. Congress, leadership within the Democratic Party, and a campaign for president.

Troll Collector's Edition

A wicked troll king in search of a mystical ring that will make him human invades a San Francisco apartment complex where a powerful witch lives.

When the Potter family moves into a new San Francisco apartment building, young Wendy Potter begins acting strangely--possessed by an ancient evil force. Unbeknownst to her family, Wendy has been taken over by Torok, a powerful troll wizard from a magical realm. Torok seeks to reshape the human world into a kingdom of mystical creatures, one apartment at a time.

As Torok begins transforming the building's eccentric tenants into fantastical beings--goblins, fairies, and woodland monsters--each apartment unit turns into a bizarre, enchanted ecosystem. The only person who notices the growing strangeness is teenage Harry Potter Jr., Wendy's older brother. As the building becomes a twisted labyrinth of vines, glowing fungi, and magical creatures, Harry turns to Eunice St. Clair, an elderly tenant with a mysterious past.

Eunice reveals that she is a centuries-old witch who once knew Torok in his human form. She teaches Harry about the ancient war between humans and magical creatures, and arms him with a magical spear to combat the spreading curse. With her guidance, Harry must navigate a world of illusion and danger to save his sister and stop Torok before the troll's enchanted domain consumes the entire building--and possibly the world.

Filled with inventive practical effects, puppetry, and a mix of horror and fantasy, Troll blends fairy-tale whimsy with eerie creature horror. As Harry faces off against trolls, nymphs, and even a monstrous bat-like beast, the film builds to a magical showdown that tests courage, love, and the balance between two worlds.

Bride of Re-Animator (4K Ultra HD + Blu-ray) [2-Disc Standard Special Edition]

Bride of Re-Animator returns in 4K! Herbert West and Dan Cain resume their experiments, creating new life with gruesome consequences.

Eight months after the horrific events at Miskatonic University, Herbert West and Dan Cain have resumed their forbidden experiments in Bride of Re-Animator, the outrageous and unforgettable sequel to Stuart Gordon's cult horror classic. Working as battlefield doctors during a brutal civil war, the pair continue to perfect West's infamous re-agent, pushing the boundaries of life and death further than ever before. Back home, Dan remains haunted by the loss of his fiancée, Megan, while Herbert becomes consumed by an audacious new obsession: creating a living woman from an assortment of stolen body parts.
