MVD FEBRUARY - GET THE POINT!

MVD gets to the point, with the expanded release of animated family film classic THE POINT! This charming Bluray from MVD REWIND is narrated by Ringo Starr with music by Harry Nilsson. Oblio has the only pointless head in a pointed society, and he and dog Arrow are banished to the Pointless Forest, where their journey is serenaded by a great soundtrack. THE POINT! is justly sharpened with a hi-def first time ever Bluray release, and is packed with new bonus features. Includes a collectible mini-poster. Don't miss THE POINT!

Also on point this month is ARROW VIDEO. They hit the mark with the Spanish cut-em-up slasher delight DEADLY MANOR, and a Japanese horror trilogy ONE MISSED CALL. Victims get premonitions on their imminent demise, answering a phone call of death. Send that call to Voice Mail!

VEROTIKA is a trilogy of erotic terror based on Misfits singer GLENN DANZIG comic imprint and directed by the man himself! A BLURAY/DVD and CD soundtrack package, with Danzig-penned music. Erotic terror of another stripe can be found amongst the dark clubs and steamy secrets held by entitled millennials in NIGHTHAWKS. An All-star cast lurks in the sordid core of the Big Apple. The captivating documentary 16 BARS concerns a unique rehab project in a Virginia prison, encouraging inmates to write and record music with the help of Speech Thomas of Arrested Development. They could be tomorrow's breakout artists!

HARRY CHAPIN settles into a German theatre to tell SOME MORE STORIES: LIVE AT RADIO BREMEN 1977. This CD chronicles an intimate performance of Harry's story songs, including those in "Taxi" and "Cat's in the Cradle." Doing justice to a classic rock story is the FILMRISE studio with a DVD/Bluray documentary on the classic band BAD COMPANY. Fully authorized and includes interviews with band and company. Another doc on a sadder note is BRIANIAC: TRANSMISSIONS AFTER ZERO. BRIANIAC was an influential indie rock band poised for stardom when their lead singer was killed in a car accident. This DVD is a journal of their rise, their influence and coping with their sudden loss.

The SUPERSUCKERS are a never-say-die band 30 years in service to PLAY THAT ROCK N' ROLL, which is the name of their 13th CD! Eddie Spaghetti and company conduct another master class in their rock fueled passion. February also finds two new limited edition Throbbleshed polyresin dolls in the AGGRONAUTIX series. New casts of GIBBY HAYNES (Butthole Surfers) and the RESIDENTS MR. SKULL. Figurines in classic poses. Hell on a Shelf!

That's February with an exclamation POINT!

Bad Spell - Don't Go Out Tonight Vinyl

13 tracks of fuzzed-out, psyched-up southern garage rock and roll.

Bad Spell is a three-piece garage rock & roll combo hailing from Atlanta, GA. Their approach was simple: A fuzzy guitar, a booming baritone, and a madman on drums playing catchy songs with a more than a hint of hell-bound attitude and plenty of reckless abandon. Their psyched-out, over-the-top live show has endeared them to the Southeast's music scene and beyond.

Billy Childish & The Chatham Singers - Kings Of The Medway Delta Vinyl

The Chatham Singers return with a third album of urban blues.

I've been making blues recordings since the early 1980s ... I was listening to Slim Harpo ("Got Love If You Want It") in a cafe, Jim from Ranscombe Studios was having a coffee and I said "this is a great song, we should try to get that echo chamber going." Next day he said he'd been messing with it and I said "right, let's record!"

Cryptic Brood - Outcome Of Obnoxious Science Vinyl

Rancid, rotten, brain eating death/death metal from Germany

Cryptic Brood's second full-length is a sonic lobotomy that vaporizes your brain in a vortex of filth. Rotten metal of death to shatter your skull with ghastrly grindcore and distasteful doom metal, (de-)composed in their dungeon in Wolfsburg/Germany. Highly recommended if you like Repulsion, Autopsy, Coffins, early Deceased.

Dan Melchior Band - Outside In Vinyl

8 tracks of distortion-drenched, fuzzed up rhythm and blues and rock and roll.

Dan Melchior is known for his unique take on lo-fi garage rock and American roots music. His latest LP is 8 tracks of distortion-drenched, fuzzed up R&B and rock and roll. While his distinctive vocals and guitar playing are the cornerstone of the group's sound, the entire album is awash in a sea of unspooling riffs and hooks, moving from heavy locked in bass grooves to distorted synth freakouts.

Exmaid - Sorcery Vinyl

Second full length album from Exmaid, a quartet from NJ who are obsessed with proto-metal, gloomy pop, and the occult.

Exmaid is a band from New Jersey whose sophomore album "Sorcery" has a fine mixture of riffs, reverb, and an obsession with the occult. Floating vocals are grounded by a heavy instrumental anchor and lots of gross feelings. The themes of together and apart, by choice or by force, are explored and peppered with references to otherworldly influence on our daily lives and relationships.

The Flatmates - The Flatmates Vinyl

Bristol UK's c86 indiepop darlings the Flatmates live up to their early promise and release a debut LP of all hits.

Bristol UK's the Flatmates were only around for three years (1986-1989) releasing a handful of songs with a few of them being UK radio hits before disbanding. The band reformed with a new vocalist in 2013 and are now finally releasing a debut LP nearly 30 years after splitting up. Considered one of the bands that created the fuzzed out guitar indiepop band formula along with the Wedding Present.

Paul Chain - Ash Vinyl

Fans of Cathedral's Forest of Equilibrium will recognize where a few of the riffs from that record actually came from.

Paul Chain has long been known for his improvisational eccentricities, aggressive nightmarish doom, and moody atmospheric meanderings. Since its release in 1988, the ASH EP has been considered a masterpiece of thrash and total doom. The LP re-release contains two bonus tracks: Moment of Rage and Undead and is packaged in a gatefold cover with inner sleeve and coloured vinyl.

Carry The Torch - Obsession CD

Many of the tracks on Obsession, the new album from Carry The Torch, were originally written in 2009/2010

Over the next few years, Philip (guitars) honed these raw gems into more coherent and melodic structures which form the base of the albums sound. Philip (vocals) brought in Dennis to contribute towards lyrics and melody and together they continued to rewrite and rearrange the songs. Some songs were kept in their original form, others were torn apart, rebuilt, rearranged and so on.

Charles Pillow Ensemble - Chamber Jazz CD

Incredible NYC artists with Chamber jazz: fusing elements of French composers with jazz - a TASTY, accessible DELIGHT!

The music compiled here is the result of an interest in combining the warmer sonorities of alto flute, English horn, french horn, tuba and strings with a rhythm section and soloist to complete a large ensemble picture. Chamber jazz: fusing elements of music from French composers, most notably, Ravel and Debussy with jazz. Result: Tasty outing that you'll want to hear over and over.

Billy Childish & The Chatham Singers - Kings Of The Medway Delta CD

The Chatham Singers return with a third album of urban blues.

I've been making blues recordings since the early 1980s ... I was listening to Slim Harpo ('Got Love If You Want It') in a cafe, Jim from Ranscombe Studios was having a coffee and I said "this is a great song, we should try to get that echo chamber going." Next day he said he'd been messing with it and I said "right, let's record!"

Creem Circus - The Glitterest, Sladest, Rockin'est, Laidest, Overtime-Paidest, Boogiest Band In Town CD

The Creem Circus is your favorite band's favorite band. Hard, glitter, Glam.

Creem Circus hails from the dirty, grey streets of Fishtown, Philadelphia, just a few block from where Eraserhead was filmed. Created in the basement of DiPinto Guitars on the off hours between making sparkly, glittery guitars, the band got tired of staring at local Philly-ites in their jammy pants, flip-flops and socks and decided to launch some Glitter-Glam Rock goodness.

Bach's monumental work is even today an unavoidable, inexhaustible source for every music lover.

Although the Wohltemperiertes Klavier is still today the daily bread of student pianists of the highest calibre, alongside its pedagogical role, its greatest importance lies in the encyclopaedic richness of its musical contents, the variety of types of movement, textures and characters, the formal rigour and freedom, and the juxtaposition of archaic and the most modern of styles from Bach's time.

Exmaid - Sorcery CS

Second full length album from Exmaid, a quartet from NJ who are obsessed with proto-metal, gloomy pop, and the occult.

Exmaid is a band from NJ/Philly whose sophomore album "Sorcery" has a fine mixture of riffs, reverb, and an obsession with the occult. Floating vocals are grounded by a heavy instrumental anchor and lots of gross feelings. The themes of together and apart, by choice or by force, are explored and peppered with references to otherworldly influence on our daily lives and relationships.

Supersuckers - Play That Rock N' Roll

Supersuckers deliver the goods on their 13th studio album

Tracked over the course of four sweltering days at Willie Nelson's Austin, TX studio, "Play That Rock n' Roll" rocks with an amphetamine intensity, delivering muscular riffs, big choruses and more than a few tricks up it's sleeve. Raw, immediate and often times hilarious, "Play That Rock n' Roll" is the album a band makes after slugging it out on the road for thirty years (barring a one year hiatus while Eddie battled throat cancer). No frills, no guest stars and no collaborations, the album earns the listener's ear - the Supersuckers have lived this sh*t and you can feel it. Songs like "Bringing It Back" and "Last Time Again" deliver a Ramones-like wall of sound, courtesy of guitarist Metal Marty Chandler, while "You Ain't The Boss Of Me" recalls Dirty Deeds-era AC/DC - and never one to be taken too seriously, Eddie and company make sure to keep the Supersuckers tongue firmly planted in cheek with "That's a Thing?" and "Gettin' Into Each Other's Pants". The album also includes a rousing cover of Michael Monroe's "Dead, Jail or Rock n' Roll" and a long overdue revival of the Allen Toussaint penned "A Certain Girl," which appears as an "unlisted track." "The Supersuckers have been doing this for a long time. A LONG time. And the fact that we're still doing it is not lost on us. We still love Rock n Roll. I mean, we must. There's no other explanation for why we would still be putting out fresh, new rock music anymore. No one NEEDS it. Hell, hardly anybody even WANTS it. But here it is. Another master class in quality Rock n' Roll. Sure it's for the few, the proud, the People of Impeccable Taste, the Connoisseurs Of Quality but it makes us happy to know we still got it. And we do. We might be better than we've ever been and that's exciting. So here it is, our love letter to good, ass kicking rock n roll. Turn it on, turn it up and listen to the Supersuckers play that Rock n' Roll!!!"

Creem Circus - The Glitterest, Sladest, Rockin'est, Laidest, Overtime-Paidest, Boogieest Band In Town

The Creem Circus is your favorite band's favorite band. Hard, glitter, Glam.

Creem Circus hails from the dirty, grey streets of Fishtown, Philadelphia, just a few block from where Eraserhead was filmed. Created in the basement of DiPinto Guitars on the off hours between making sparkly, glittery guitars, the band got tired of staring at local Philly-ites in their jammy pants, flip-flops and socks and decided to launch some Glitter-Glam Rock goodness. Why do such a thing, you ask? Well, think about it, if they didn't, who would? The band is the brainchild of guitar maker Chris DiPinto, owner of DiPinto Guitars. His retro, glittered-out instruments have ended up in the hands of super rockers such as Cheap Trick, Jack White, Elliot Easton of the Cars, Dick Dale, Earl Slick and the duke of glam rock himself, David Bowie. But making the guitars is not where it stops. The sounds and melodies that can be coaxed out of them is where it really starts to matter and Creem Circus is the culmination of a life's work of making, playing and recording glitter-glam rock. Of course the retro sounds you'll hear on a Creem Circus record will rocket you back to a time when Bolan was king and Slade stomped British bandstands. But seeing them is the complete package; glitter suits, platform boots, bug-eyed glasses and faux fur coats that light up like the northern lights! This is a band not to be missed. Catchy choruses, hard riffin' guitars and floor tom beats that hit like early episodes of Top of the Pops. Or in the words of Creem Circus: "...we are The Creem Circus and we are your favorite band's favorite band. We play hard, glitter, tandem lead, platform-powerchord rock & roll with lots of boogie down soul. We shop in the women's department and our amps are ALWAYS stacked. The time has come to party on down and run away...with the Creem Circus!"

Miklos Lukacs & Cimbiosis - Music From The Solitude Of Timeless Minutes CD

This music has no genre; it has style, idiom, and atmosphere.

The main protagonist on the album is clearly the cimbalom and Miklos Lukacs, yet his two colleagues are indispensable to the ideal state of mutual interplay. There is folk music in Bartokish transfiguration, Gypsy music in the ornamentation, in places the volcanic energy of rock music erupts, and the entire classical tradition is there, too, from Bach through Debussy to Kurtag.

Massface - Massface CD

The self-titled album by Russian alternative rock group Massface, influenced by all kinds of music.

Massface wrote this album as organically as possible, starting at rehearsals, or even at home, when an idea or a piece of music came to mind. Then it is all polished and a demo tape is gradually produced, although this is still far from the final sound. Each track got the final coloring in the studio, somewhat like cooking - when you add spices and the dish gets its final, unique taste.

Harry Chapin - Some More Stories: Live At Radio Bremen 1977

Rare live recording of the US singer-songwriter, who died 1982 in a car crash at the age of 39.

Harry Chapin's brother Steve and his drummer Howard Fields remember: "On April 11th 1977, Harry Chapin and his band, near the end of their first tour overseas, performed a concert broadcast over German radio at a small auditorium in the city of Bremen in front of 400 people.

The performance was akin to the calm after a storm in that it followed two consecutive arena shows (in Munich and Dortmund) where Harry would open up for a roster of rock, blues and heavy metal bands that featured The Small Faces, John Mayall, The Scorpions and headliner Status Quo. A more unlikely billing for Harry and the band was unimaginable. The crowd was very drunk, very loud and very not-at-all-interested in Harry's songs and sound. So, on the following night he was delighted to be back in his element, in Bremen, in front of a small, quiet, and appreciative audience attentively listening to his words and stories. Fueled by the change of atmosphere, a now energized Harry would speak and speak and speak, as if he were in Boston or Boise, to an adoring audience regardless of how many of his words were actually understood. And it would be remiss to understate the potent effect that the cello in Harry's music had upon this German crowd whose proud connection to a heritage of classical music drew them even deeper into the story songs now presented to them. Barely known on the European continent, the look on the faces of the small crowd and their reaction after each song was a joy to Harry and the perfect way to cap off his first tour outside of North America."

Worth mentioning is, that over his career, Harry Chapin (December 7, 1942 - July 16, 1981) raised millions of dollars, roughly half of his income, and performed over 1000 benefit concerts for causes he believed in.

As Harry said "My commitment to end hunger and my music and story songs, are ways of dealing with the world as I see it. There Only Was One Choice."

NEW RELEASE FROM JOHNNY GANDELSMAN: JS BACH : COMPLETE CELLO SUITES

LABEL: IN A CIRCLE RECORDS

The New Yorker has called Grammy award winning violinist and producer Johnny Gandelsman “revelatory” in concert, placing him in the company of “radically transformative” performers like Maurizio Pollini, Peter Serkin and Christian Zacharias. NPR’s Fresh Air called Gandelsman’s recording of Bach’s Partitas and Sonatas “among the very best.” Gandelsman’s musical voice reflects his artistic collaborations since moving to the United States in 1995. As a founding member of Brooklyn Rider and a member of the Silkroad Ensemble, he has worked closely with such luminaries as Bela Fleck, Martin Hayes, Kayhan Kalhor, Yo-Yo Ma, Mark Morris, Anne Sofie Van Otter, Alim Qasimov & Fargana Qasimova, Joshua Redman, Suzanne Vega, Abigail Washburn and Damian Woetzel. Gandelsman integrates a wide range of creative sensibilities into a style unique amongst today’s violinists, one that according to the Boston Globe, possesses “a balletic lightness of touch and a sense of whimsy and imagination.”

Sales Points

- FOR FANS OF: Brooklyn Rider, Yo-Yo Ma, Silk Road Ensemble, Anner Bylsma, Bela Fleck, Martin Hayes

- Full Service press/publicity/radio campaign by label's in-house PR firm; including, but not limited to viral/email campaigns, physical promotional mailouts, radio promotion, etc.

- Richard Brody of The New Yorker has called Grammy-award winning violinist and producer Gandelsman “revelatory” in performance, placing him in the company of “radically transformative” performers like Maurizio Pollini, Peter Serkin and Christian Zacharias.

- Johnny will tour the album extensively in the US, including shows in New York, Boston, Washington DC, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Press Quotes & Publicity

-Gandelsman’s album of Sonatas and Partitas (2018) reached No.1 on Billboard Classical Chart, and was featured on end-of-year Best lists by The New York Times, NY Magazine and WBUR.

-“There are many fine recordings and several great ones of these sonatas and partitas, and now a new one by Johnny Gandelsman takes its place among the very best” - NPR’s Fresh Air

-“Crisp, buoyant and with a sweet clarity of tone, it’s one of the most dance-like takes on this daunting set of masterpieces” - The New York Times

-“An extraordinary CD. This is music that requires titanium technique and - even rarer - a rich inner life. Live and on disc, Gandelsman shares them both” - NY Magazine

-“Sparklingly personal Bach, shorn of grandeur, lofted by the spirit of dance, and as predictable as the flight of a swallow.” - The Boston Globe

-“Exquisite expressive directness” - San Francisco Chronicle

JS Bach’s cello suites are known and loved by music aficionados of all ages around the world. Rarely ever performed on the violin, this album also features the first-ever recording of the Sixth Suite on a 5-string violin. Gandelsman’s years of experience working with master musicians from various world traditions (Bela Fleck, Martin Hayes, Kayhan Kalhor) bring a refreshing and deeply personal viewpoint to these magnificent works.

A follow-up to Gandelsman’s celebrated debut recording of Bach’s complete Sonatas and Partitas, this album is an absolute must-have for lovers of the music of JS Bach, cello suites, violin, baroque, folk and instrumental music.

Syr Daria - Tears Of Clown CD

Tears Of A Clown is the third, self-produced album from French heavy thrash group Syr Daria.

The album was created with an additional member on the bass, Mr Pascal Husser, who joined Syr Daria as the official bass player in 2018. Tears Of A Clown is probably the most powerful and mature album from the band with the mix of heavy "traditional" sounds with groovy thrash sequences. Two years were necessary to compose the tracks and the mixing and mastering process was done at KR Noyz Studio

Residents - Refused

A collection of 18 versions of The Residents' Christmas smash hit Santa Dog

The Residents are an American art collective best known for their over 60 studio albums that were recorded over a period of over forty years. They also created some outstanding multimedia works, mainly three CD ROM projects and ten DVDs. Working as an anonymous collective, their identities were kept secret until in 2017 Hardy Fox revealed himself as their primary composer. Hardy died in October 2018, but the group continue to record and perform. The compilation album Refused was originally released by the band's own Ralph America label in 1999 and collected 11 versions of the track "Santa Dog". For our 2019 Christmas re-issue, we have collected a total of 18 variations and have adapted the original artwork.

Brainiac - Brainiac: Transmissions After Zero

An exploration of the seminal 90's rock band Brainiac, its creative force Tim Taylor and the tragedy they overcame.

In the mid 90's the Dayton, OH music scene became a hot spot generating worldwide buzz from the influential indie rock being produced there (The Breeders, Guided by Voices). Arguably the most innovative of them all was the band Brainiac, led by musical genius and insanely charismatic front man Tim Taylor. The band was opening for Beck and slated to sign a major label record deal when Taylor was tragically killed in a bizarre auto accident leaving his family and bandmates to pick up the pieces. Over the past two decades Brainiac's music has gone on to influence the likes of Nine Inch Nails, The Mars Volta, The National and countless others. This film explores the band's music, legacy, massive influence on pop culture and how people survive and cope with the loss of loved ones.

SALES POINTS

- Features members of Brainiac, The Taylor family and a slew of musicians including Fred Armisen, Steve Albini, Matt Berninger, Buzz Osbourne, Cedric Bixler-Zavala, Melissa Auf der Maur, David Yow, Stuart Braithwaite, Eli Janney, and many others.
- 2019 SXSW FILM FESTIVAL 'World Premiere'
- 2019 Official Selection of the Cleveland International Film Festival
- 2019 Official Selection of the Oak Cliff Film Festival

PRESS

"They quickly became a cornerstone of Dayton's thriving '90s rock scene, alongside the Breeders and Guided By Voices. Even among those soon-to-be alt icons, many heard and saw and believed that Brainiac was the one... In the years since, everyone from Trent Reznor to Wayne Coyne has expressed admiration for Brainiac's distinct blend of noisy rock and extreme electronics."

—Pitchfork

"Seeing how the journey of making the movie reunited these old friends and helped them heal is inspiring... Stylish directing and amazing sound design."

—Film Threat

"Compelling... 'Transmissions After Zero' chronicles Brainiac's unlikely rise and subsequent fall with intelligence and humor."

—Variety

"... celebrating the music of the groundbreaking band Brainiac. Emerging from Dayton, Ohio in 1992, they pioneered a distinctly aggressive electronic/rock music attack that just kept growing in both sophistication and audience appreciation. They were absol"

—Brooklyn Vegan

"Star Wars actor Mark Hamill and musician Trent Reznor are throwing their support behind a crowdfunding effort to create a documentary about the 1990s Dayton band Brainiac."

—Dayton.com

"Before you think that this is a documentary about yet another rock musician who died in his late twenties, think again. 'Transmissions After Zero' is essential to where we are at socially, culturally and creatively in 2019."

—At Large Magazine

"The documentary is an excellent primer that should help to secure Brainiac's place in music history... this may well be an introduction to their new favorite band. "

THE DREAM VACATION BECAME A NIGHTMARE

Maxwell Caulfield (Grease 2, Empire Records) stars in this taut psychological thriller from director Bob Yari (producer of the Academy Award® winning Crash) about a family's battle for survival against a cruel, scheming stranger.

Trapped in an unhappy marriage, Dana Lund (Edward Albert, Galaxy of Terror) and his wife, Rita (Shawn Weatherly, Police Academy 3: Back in Training) try to breathe new life into their relationship by taking a trip through northern California with their 10-year-old son Kevin (Matt Norero, "Roseanne"). Along the way they pick up Eric (Caulfield) an amiable hitchhiker who's a psychology student. But Eric's charm masks the fact that he is psychotic. Sensing the Lund's vulnerability, he decides to take control of the family, then destroy it through deceit and emotional manipulation. At first the Lunds are easy prey until they realize they've become victims of a bizarre reign of terror. They begin to fight back in a desperate attempt to save themselves from Eric's madness and perverse MIND GAMES

Get Gone

Coming to get you....Soon!

Hoax Busters, an internet 'fake video' team take a weekend retreat after busting another online lie to do some team building. They travel to Whiskey Flats, Oregon and meet with Craig Eubanks, a shifty, bossy know-it-all outdoor guide who promises them his company - Rocks and Roots - will build their team confidence. At the same time, an invasive drilling company with the rights handed over by the Federal government are moving onto the land of a family that has lived on the property (illegally as "squatters") for over 30 years. When the drillers attack the family and the Hoax-busters get caught in the middle, things quickly go awry.

SUPERSUCKERS DELIVER THE GOODS ON THEIR 13TH STUDIO ALBUM

Tracked over the course of four sweltering days at Willie Nelson's Austin, TX studio, "Play That Rock n' Roll" rocks with an amphetamine intensity, delivering muscular riffs, big choruses and more than a few tricks up it's sleeve. Raw, immediate and often times hilarious, "Play That Rock n' Roll" is the album a band makes after slugging it out on the road for thirty years.
