MVD REWIND MARCHES FORWARD!

Plaudits to the MVD REWIND COLLECTION, the studio that takes you Back to the Future with expertly curated cult classic films on DVD and Collector's Edition Blurays that are packed with bonus content! Two comedies arrive this month, JOYSTICKS and HARDWARE WARS. There's funny business when Joseph Rutter (Joe Don Baker) decides to shut down 'the den of juvenile delinquency' that is the video arcade in JOYSTICKS, originally released in 1983 but brought to vivid new life here. HARDWARE WARS, from 1978, was the first STAR WARS parody film, written and directed by Ernie Fosselius, from theatrical and music group the Mystic Knights of the Oingo Boingo. Called his favorite Star Wars parody by George Lucas himself, HARDWARE WARS lies in stark contrast to the Star Wars mega-production, with cardboard sets and visible wires adding to the cheezy charm!

ARROW VIDEO's February roster includes FEAR IS THE KEY, an Action film from 1972 that features Ben Kingsley in his first role, THE LUKAS MOODYSSON COLLECTION, a seven-film drama comp from Sweden's greatest filmmaking talent, and a duo of Italian crime thrillers ROGUE COPS AND RACKATEERS. RADIANCE FILMS shines with ALLONSANFAN, a drama of a lifelong revolutionary questioning his commitment, and BLACK TIGHT KILLERS, a Japanese drama featuring a team of female assassins who use vinyl records as weapons!

Which leads to KMFDM, the electro-industrial music giants, who certainly have used their vinyl record statements as weapons! Their 23rd studio LP LET GO is an onslaught of pulse-pounding rhythms, scorching electronics, blistering guitars, & vocals full of grit & grind addressing the social, political, & cultural ills of a world in perpetual turmoil. More weapons like this please! Available on 2LP and CD.

The LIBERATION HALL/ROCK BEAT labels have some classic rockers on their roster with two LPs from legends MARK FARNER and CARL PALMER. Farner, the mastermind of Grand Funk Railroad revisits that band's hits as well as solo gems on the red and black splatter vinyl ROCK AND ROLL SOUL, and Carl Palmer joins ELP mate KEITH EMERSON and vocalist RICHARD BERRY for 1983's live 3: ROCKING THE RITZ on Sky Blue Vinyl with signed insert from Palmer and Berry! Plus, releases from DION, LEE PERRY, RICHARD THOMPSON and the FLYING BURRITO BROTHERS!

Cast - Love Is The Call (Pink Vinyl) Vinyl

Cast were one of the big success stories of the Britpop era. Cast's gift for sparkling melodies and additive hooks remains as strong as ever. As one of the most traditional guitar bands to emerge during the Brit-pop era of the '90s, Cast have carved out a sound that was heavily indebted to the British Invasion of the early '60s, yet it was infused with a mystical, pseudo-hippie lyrical sensibility, which lead singer John Power expanded upon. Love Is The Call feels like a missing link between The La's and Cast's debut album 'All Change'.

Ritvs - Der Tag Naht Vinyl

Ritvs, the Kraut & Heavy Rock band from Aschaffenburg (formerly known as Vvlva) is starting an exciting new chapter with their first all-German album.

RITVS may be new in name, but their history starts earlier. Under the band name Vvlva, the band released a couple albums and a couple EPs of studiously vintage early hard rock / proto-metal. And the German quintet continue this backwards-looking path with the new moniker RITVS as a "new" old approach: exquisitely rustic late '70s sounds spanning hard rock, prog, AOR, and even late-days krautrock.

SabaSaba - Unknown City Vinyl

Unknown City is an imaginary soundtrack for a dystopian city: digital raga, horror Exotica, half-speed techno, metallic dub and organic electronics.

SabaSaba's personal OST is a whirlwind of analog and digital instruments colliding, textured samples, syncopated drums and spiritual synth sweeps often heightened by Ambra Chiara Michelangeli's eerie viola playing, an ancestral force resisting under a cement tower, modulars gasping for air, endlessly reverberating into noir-soul and gray landscapes.

Sadness - Somewhere Along Our Memory Vinyl

Slow-burning, dreary instrumental (mostly) post rock peppered with emotionally draining, black metal crescendos. The final track is everything.

Truly monumental. I do believe this is the album on which Damian found and fully expressed the voice of Sadness, which continues to evolve and find new facets and forms with each new piece of music. This may be a perfect album. Sadness has only gotten better, in my opinion, but there's not a note out of place here. Very rare to find such magic in this world. We must cherish this!

The High Hawks - Mother Nature's Show

The High Hawks easily traverse a variety of musical stylings on 'Mother Nature's Show', a literal melting pot of American song forms.

It's not surprising The High Hawks recorded a collection of songs that take the listener on a musical journey when you consider the group is a passion project comprised of six musical road warriors and friends who have logged hundreds of thousands of miles in their careers traveling the country from gig to gig.

Herman is best known as one of the two frontmen for Leftover Salmon and many people know Staehly from the jam band supergroup Hard Working Americans, but it's the group they co-founded -- Great American Taxi -- that connects all the members of The High Hawks in one way or another. Bassist Brian Adams and drummer Will Trask were both members of Taxi, while vocalist-fiddler-guitarist Tim Carbone, best known as a member of Railroad Earth, produced two of GAT's albums. In addition, vocalist-guitarist Adam Greuel of Horseshoes & Hand Grenades was influenced by Taxi in his teenage years and even played a few gigs with the group.

The High Hawks easily traverse a variety of musical stylings on Mother Nature's Show -- from various rock flavors including Southern, country and psychedelic, as well as honky tonk and even a ballad and a waltz -- while maintaining a sonic cohesiveness that claims each style as their own.

The band's performances throughout the record are top-notch, and there's very little overdubbing. What you hear are six superb musicians in the Pachyderm tracking room, looking at one another, reacting in real time to what is being played and capturing the kind of musical magic that eludes recording artists who build their records part by part.

When asked about the authenticity of The High Hawks' new album, Herman assures with a laugh, "AI had no part in the making of this record."

Cast - Love Is The Call CD

Cast were one of the big success stories of the Britpop era. Cast's gift for sparkling melodies and additive hooks remains as strong as ever.

As one of the most traditional guitar bands to emerge during the Brit-pop era of the '90s, Cast have carved out a sound that was heavily indebted to the British Invasion of the early '60s, yet it was infused with a mystical, pseudo-hippie lyrical sensibility, which lead singer John Power expanded upon. Love is The Call feels like a missing link between The La's and Cast's debut album 'All Change'.

Erwan Keravec - In C // 20 Sonneurs CD

It does, however, offer an unusual interpretation by 20 pipers of IN C (Terry Riley) as a thrilling field of play

IN C (1964) consists of 53 ordered patterns. The musicians repeat them at will and then move on to the next. Terry Riley simply explains that each musician must be neither too far behind nor too far ahead of the others. Giving this degree of freedom to each performer ties in with the desire for an ensemble of soloists. . Recorded in a circle, under live conditions.

Post-black metal duo Olhava is back with Sacrifice, a new studio record, almost two years after the release of their acclaimed album Reborn.

Sacrifice is the necessary step for one to be Reborn. It's the ultimate point of no return. Everything one used to value will turn to ash and be forgotten. For only by stripping ourselves of everything we know and have can we truly separate our Self from our Ego. Only by burning ourselves can we enjoy peace among stars. But the end is also the beginning. A new self built from dust.

Paul Kendall - Whisper Not CD

Saxophonist Paul Kendall's debut CD for ZOHO - a Hammond B3 organ trio playing bebop arrangements of Great American Songbook songs and jazz classics.

I told drummer Rudy Petchauer I'd like to lead a session, and he recommended Dan Kostelnik on organ. In March 2023, we recorded in Saylorburg, PA. This session, was just 3 hours. Many tracks are first takes. We play in the Bebop vein. It is a fallacy to say every jazz record must break new ground. If cats can say it their way, and do it with artistry, that should suffice. ### Ritvs - Der Tag Naht CD

Ritvs, the Kraut & Heavy Rock band from Aschaffenburg (formerly known as Vvlva) is starting an exciting new chapter with their first all-German album.

RITVS may be new in name, but their history starts earlier. Under the band name Vvlva, the band released a couple albums and a couple EPs of studiously vintage early hard rock / proto-metal. And the German quintet continue this backwards-looking path with the new moniker RITVS as a "new" old approach: exquisitely rustic late '70s sounds spanning hard rock, prog, AOR, and even late-days krautrock.

Sadness - Somewhere Along Our Memory CS

Slow-burning, dreary instrumental (mostly) post rock peppered with emotionally draining, black metal crescendos. The final track is everything.

Truly monumental. I do believe this is the album on which Damian found and fully expressed the voice of Sadness, which continues to evolve and find new facets and forms with each new piece of music. Otis Grand and I had been working on this project for a few years before his untimely death. This is a part of a magnificent body of work. Otis was guitarist, producer, bandleader, songwriter and important figure on the blues scene.

In the mid 1980s I was busy touring some great U.S. Blues acts in the U.K. when out of nowhere comes this American guitarist. Otis Grand became the biggest thing on the British circuit and in Europe too. Later we spent time at the first Burnley Blues Festival in 1989. Otis had the headlining spot and it's that show which is Disc A.

Our first artistic collaboration was the Guitar Shorty album. Otis was the perfect bandleader to back Shorty playing real blues, not 'commercial' or blues/rock. Next came legend Phillip Walker – Texas Blues with an L.A. twist. And then Joe Houston who virtually invented honking tenor. We also have Otis with Joe Louis Walker at the top of their game.

Otis Grand was a man and artist much more than the sum of his parts and talents. Otis was Lebanese/American and a many faceted person who had roots in different cultures. It is our luck and honour that one of them was the Blues.

John Stedman, JSP Records

Trhä - Endlhëdhaj Qáshmëna Ëih Vim Innivte CD

Trhä continues to craft some of the most original music out there in the black/ambient/shoegaze crossover realm. Sometimes peaceful, sometimes tortured Trhä continues to weave his totally idiosyncratic spell, glamouring you into a sonic world that does not sound like anyone else. A world of shadows and joy, of might and tiny shufflings, of lanterns in the dark, seeking and strange. Hard to pick a favorite track, but the quiet melody of the first, like a spider edging along a leaf or a fairy treading quietly in a moonlit marshland, gave me chills.

Trhä - Mä Hëshiva Õn Dahh Khata Trhândlha Vand Ëfd Datnen Aghen Eciës Drhätldhan Savd CD

This is incredible. Situated at the halfway point between Darkthrone and Vivaldi, which sounds incredibly lame, but somehow he pulls it off beautifully

So many emotions thrashed then allowed to be licked... Melancholic and Nostalgic.. doesn't even begin to describe. These are but the threshold.. to the insane depths you're taken through your mind. this. is. art. impure but pure.. black but light. pure serenity but pure chaos. epic af is what it is.

Trhä - Rhejde Qhaominvac Tla Aglhaonamëc CD

Relentlessly creative and raw black metal. Trhä never disappoints, and this, even though one of the shorter releases, might be a new favorite!

A bit of a more traditional approach but no less enjoyable. This short album features melancholic and depressive parts in a wonderful symbiosis with ever-present keyboard melodies. The final part especially is a concise crescendo of all the brooding and stumbling felt in the first parts of the record.

Zanias - Ecdysis CD

Chrysalis is genre-defying, ethereal electronic art-pop as dark and evocative as it is ethereal and uplifting.

Zanias is Australian born, Berlin-based artist Alison Lewis. She creates her own brand of ethereal pop: multi-layered & as alien as it is authentically, vulnerably human. On Ecdysis, Zanias takes a more atmospheric, experimental ambient approach to her signature art pop. Less lyrically driven, with her stunning voice working as another instrument to create a work of haunting ethereal beauty

Hardware Wars (Collector's Edition)

"Fluke Starbucker" must learn to master the power of "The Farce" in the very first "Star Wars" parody / fan film ever made!

THE RETURN OF THE ORIGINAL STAR WARS PARODY! YOU'LL LAUGH! YOU'LL CRY! YOU'LL KISS 20 BUCKS GOODBYE!

Fluke Starbucker (Scott Mathews) must learn to master the power of "The Farce" with help from Artie Deco, 4-Q-2 (Frank Robertson), Princess Anne-Droid (Cindy Furgatch), Ham Salad (Bob Knickerbocker), and the rest of the Red Eye Knights.

In 1978 writer / director Ernie Fosselius (former member of "The Mystic Knights of the Oingo Boingo") created the very first "Star Wars" parody, HARDWARE WARS. Complete with cardboard sets and visible wires (holding up ships which were various household appliances), the film was shot over four days with a budget of around $8,000. Now, nearly 50 years later, the original version of this classic short that George Lucas called his "favorite Star Wars parody" (in a 1999 interview on the UK's The Big Breakfast TV show) has been restored in High Definition for a whole new generation of cult movie fans to discover!

Joysticks [Collector's Edition]

When a successful businessman decides to shut down the local video emporium, a group of dedicated gamers battle to save the arcade.

There's something going on at the local video arcade - something totally insane, outrageously hilarious, very sexy and thoroughly entertaining; the hit film JOYSTICKS!

This antic romp begins when "The Video Arcade's" newest employee, Eugene (Leif Green, Grease 2) arrives pantless for his first day on the job. Teenage heartthrob Jeff (Scott McGuinnis, Secret Admirer), who runs the arcade and Dorfus (Jim Greenleaf, Liar's Moon), the slovenly video game addict, decide to take revenge on the vivacious Alva (Kym Malin, Weird Science) and Lola for tricking Eugene out of his pants with a wild game of "strip video." But before they can act, King Vidiot (Jon Gries, Napoleon Dynamite) and his sexy troupe of high-tech video addicts invade the arcade and pandemonium breaks loose. In the midst of the chaos, Joseph Rutter (Joe Don Baker, Fletch), an influential businessman, comes into the arcade looking for his daughter Patsy (Corinne Bohrer, Surf II). When he witnesses the madness around him, he vows to see the "den of juvenile delinquency" shut down for good!

Will the city council decide to close the arcade and spoil the kids' fun? Or, will Jeff, Eugene and Dorfus manage to turn Rutter's anger with a little help from Alva and Lola? It all comes together in a climatic and hilarious video game competition - with a winner-takes-all bet on the future of the video arcade in this early 80's cult classic comedy produced and directed by Greydon Clark (Final Justice).

“The climatic moment when he finally enters the house creates a knot in your stomach that tightens with each blow to the head of Bundy’s first victim. And it only grows worse. It’s unconscionable, unbelievable, and incredibly unsettling to watch. But, it’s a necessity to understanding pure evil. And it’s fully captured superbly in Black Mass.”

After wooing stewardess Yoriko, war photographer Hondo sees her kidnapped by a team of deadly female assassins.

After wooing stewardess Yoriko (Chieko Matsubara, Tokyo Drifter), war photographer Hondo (Akira Kobayashi, Battles Without Honor and Humanity) sees her kidnapped by a team of deadly female assassins who use vinyl records as weapons. Investigating her whereabouts, Hondo uncovers a conspiracy to steal a buried stash of WWII-era gold. Soon he must dodge go-go dancing ninjas and chewing-gum bullets to save Yoriko, whose family secret is tied to the hidden treasure. Every bit as stylish and inventive as the wildest works by his mentor Seijun Suzuki, Yasuharu Hasebe's spy spoof is a gaudy 1960s pop delight that ranks with the likes of Joseph Losey's Modesty Blaise and Mario Bava's Danger: Diabolik!

Allonsanfàn (Limited Edition)

An aristocrat who has dedicated his life to the revolution has become disillusioned and his cowardice keeps him from joining his comrades.

After the fall of Napoleon, the Restoration begins. Fulvio (Marcello Mastroianni, La dolce vita), an aristocrat who has dedicated his life to the revolution has become disillusioned and his cowardice keeps him from joining his comrades. As he struggles to manage his evasion and lies he gets swept up in a suicidal uprising in Southern Italy. Stunningly photographed with lush period detail and featuring the Taviani brothers' trademark magic realism and absurdist irony, Allonsanfàn has Mastroianni on top form as the reluctant insurgent and one of Ennio Morricone's finest scores. Radiance Films is proud to present this essential film on Blu-ray for the first time in the world.
