The "now" part of The Ozark Mountain Daredevils' "Now Hear This!" album has finally arrived. In 1990, a decade and a half after their two huge radio hits, "If You Wanna Get to Heaven" and "Jackie Blue," the Daredevils made another in a string of great albums that would only be available on cassette tape at the merch table of their live shows, until now. On CD and digitally for the first time!

Featuring:

Drums - Ron Grep
Lead Guitar - D. Clinton Thompson
Vocals, Bass - Michael Granda
Vocals, Guitar, Mandolin, Fiddle - John Dillon
Vocals, Harp - Steve Cash

...The Daredevils will embark on their farewell tour, "When It Shines" this year (2024) through next, retiring from the stage at the end of 2025. The tour's name is a nod to the band's second studio album, "It'll Shine When It Shines," released in 1973...

Though Dillon may no longer strum a mouth bow to the tune of "Chicken Train" on stage, the band will continue writing and recording music following its touring retirement...

The instrumentation reveals a proximity to country & western music, but what these two virtuosos conjure up here is a much greater range of tonal colors stemming from classical music, the avant garde, blues and naturally jazz.

2nd album by this Polish speed/thrash band. Lots of variation, but always sharp like a knife and straight to the point.

PANDEMIC's second album can neither be too conveniently classified as thrash nor as speed metal as it marries thrashing riffs to a dynamic style of metal that more often than not, has the gleaming contours and drama of paradigmatic '80s power-thrash.

The R&B Hits Collection 1955

This fills in another of the gaps on our strand of R&B and country collections associated with Acrobat's highly popular "America's Greatest Hits" series, this one focusing on the top R&B records in the US Billboard charts during 1955. This great value 104-track 4-CD anthology includes, with the exception of certain records which are unavailable for inclusion due to copyright restrictions, just about every record which peaked during the year in the published Top 10 "Best Selling Retail Rhythm & Blues Records" and "Most Played Juke Box Rhythm & Blues" charts. It was a fascinating time in R&B, with different strands of the genre creating the musical landscape from which rock 'n' roll was already emerging - Bill Haley's "Rock Around The Clock", Little Richard's "Tutti Frutti" and Chuck Berry's "Maybelline" were hits during this year along with hits by the likes of Fats Domino, Big Joe Turner, Ray Charles, Bo Diddley and Ruth Brown that were rock 'n' roll in all but name. There are numerous doowop groups like The Platters, The Penguins, the and The Clovers, sophisticated As with all these collections, it provides a window onto a dynamic and exciting musical environment, and includes a number of unfamiliar names and recordings of which even enthusiasts of the genre may not be too aware, and which will be welcome additions to their collections. It contains a 12,000+ word booklet featuring background notes on every record as well as full discographical and chart information.

The Greatest Country Hits Of 1954

This release continues the series of 4-CD sets which comprises selected collections of the biggest US country hits of each year, and this expanded edition provides a fuller picture of 1954 than our existing 2-CD set devoted to that year (ADD3025). This 90-track collection covers the year of 1954, during which time Billboard published three charts devoted to Country & Western Records - Best Sellers In Stores, Most Played in Juke Boxes and Most Played by Disc Jockeys - and it comprises every record which peaked in the Top 15 of those charts during the year, apart from one we are unable to include. The pop landscape was still only feeling the first stirrings of rock 'n' roll, and on the country scene, the familiar names still dominated the scene, some of them having long-running No. 1s during the year, notably Hank Snow and Webb Pierce, with those two, along with Carl Smith, Kitty Wells, Eddy Arnold, Slim Whitman, Ray Price and Jim Reeves all having several big hits. Needless to say there are also one or two collectible obscurities. It's a fascinating and entertaining musical snapshot of the country scene as the music industry entered a dynamic new musical era, and with an in-depth 12,000+ word booklet with background notes on every record as well as full discographical and chart information, it gives a solid overview of the most popular country music of the year.

The 20th Anniversary Billboard Chart July 1960

As adjuncts to our highly popular "America's Greatest Hits" series of collections for each calendar year in the 50s and early '60s, we have already produced collections based on landmark moments in the Billboard charts. This collection homes in on another anniversary in the history of the Billboard chart, the 20th anniversary of the first chart, which was published in July 1940. This collection features just about every record from the Hot 100 of 18th July 1960, apart from a few titles which are unfortunately unavailable for copyright reasons. It provides a fascinating and evocative snapshot of the music scene at what was a dynamic and exciting time as the rock 'n' roll and teen era gave way to emerging new sounds at the beginning of the 1960s, and features an entertaining range of styles and genres. As always with these chart collections, it includes a number of unfamiliar names and recordings towards the bottom of the chart, of which even seasoned pop enthusiasts may not be too aware, and which will be welcome additions to their collections. It contains a 12,000+ word booklet featuring background notes on every record as well as full discographical and chart information.

From writer/director Lamberto Bava (DEMONS) comes a modern-day reimagining of his father's classic BLACK SUNDAY featuring FX by Sergio Stivaletti (CEMETERY MAN), music by Simon Boswell (SANTA SANGRE) and hailed as "an impressive evolution of '80s Italian horror that not enough fans have seen" (At The Mansion Of Madness): When a group of skiers becomes trapped in a crevasse, their discovery of a long-frozen female corpse will unmask an ancient evil, unlock a portal of the damned and unleash a nightmare of Satanic vengeance. Mary Sellers (STAGEFRIGHT), Debora Caprioglio (Klaus Kinski's PAGANINI) and Michele Soavi (director of THE CHURCH and THE SECT) star in this "visual roller coaster" (Ninja Dixon) – also known as DEMONS 5: THE DEVIL'S VEIL – now scanned in 2K from the original camera negative for the first time ever in North America.

This 1983 production from writer/director Jess Franco can finally be experienced as one of his most surprising and heartfelt offerings of the decade: It's summer's end in the resort city of Benidorm, where seductive foreigners, conniving hustlers, gullible tourists and insatiable celebrities all come together in a barbed confection that's part sunny comedy, part NASHVILLE-style satire and totally, unmistakably, sexy Franco fun. Jess' partner/muse Lina Romay (at her most luscious) and production manager/star Antonio Mayans (NIGHT OF OPEN SEX) are joined by a cast of familiar faces from their '80s stock company – including Eva León (MANSION OF THE LIVING DEAD), Muriel Montossé (THE INCONFESSABLE ORGIES OF EMMANUELLE), Juan Soler (CRIES OF PLEASURE) and Analia Ivars (BAHIA BLANCA) – in this unexpected delight from "one of the cinema's great individualists" (The Guardian), now scanned in 2K from the original camera negative with over 2 hours of new Special Features.

New From

“‘Quackser Fortune’ ...a tribute to Gene Wilder. He’s completely delightful. A joy to watch!” – Judith Crist, NEW YORK MAGAZINE

“Wilder’s delicate blend of humor and pathos makes the viewer think he is seeing young Charlie Chaplin...one of the most delightful comic dramas in recent years!” – TIME MAGAZINE

Quackser Fortune Has A Cousin In The Bronx

A comedy of the human spirit about a highly independent young Irishman who triumphs over conformity.

Reminiscent of “Harold & Maude” and “Start the Revolution Without Me,” this gentle comedy is the story of a man out of step with this world, marching to the beat of his own drum. Quackser Fortune (Wilder) earns his living by following the horse-drawn delivery wagons of Dublin, scooping up the droppings and selling it as fertilizer. Margot Kidder is the American exchange student who finds herself drawn to this unlearned, but not unknowing man.

- Early 1970’s comedy starring comedy superstar Gene Wilder (The Producers, Young Frankenstein) and Margot Kidder (Superman: The Movie, Sisters)
- ‘Quackser Fortune’ was nominated for Best Comedy Written Directly for the Screen (WGA Award – Screen) at the Writers Guild of America, awards in 1971.
- From director Waris Hussein, best known for directing some of the earliest episodes of the smash hit TV series ‘Doctor Who’.

BONUS FEATURES:

- Commentary track by Robert Kelly, artist, reviewer, and film buff extraordinaire!
- Restored original Theatrical Trailer

The Masters of Cinema series is proud to present this cornerstone of horror cinema on Blu-ray from a glorious 4K restoration.

Sibylle Zerr - Picture Infinity: Marshall Allen & The Sun Ra Arkestra BOOK

Sibylle Zerr portrays the big band from Philadelphia over a time span of eight years.

Sibylle Zerr portrays the big band from Philadelphia over a time span of eight years. The monograph, however, stays a fragment by intention, being an open-end collection of photos, quotations and essays worthy of further consideration. This portrayal of the mystery of the music makes Sun Ra's legacy more palpable - without glamorizing or disenchanting it.
