CANNONBALLS and DYNAMITE Ignite 2019!

MVD sparks up the New Year with a Big Bang of new releases! Leading the charge is the Arrow Video Blu-ray deluxe edition of the Blaxploitation epic WILLIE DYNAMITE. Tighter, tougher and meaner than John Shaft, Willie Dynamite shows you around 70s New York while avoiding all manner of authority. Of course sporting the most outrageous outfits and cruising in his purple-and-gold Cadillac. Includes an exclusive featurette KISS MY BAAD ASSS, hosted by Ice-T, and featuring interviews with Richard Roundtree, Melvin van Peebles, Isaac Hayes and more. Feel the heat of WILLIE DYNAMITE!

The great CANNONBALL ADDERLEY blazes this month with the previously-unissued CD SWINGIN' IN SEATTLE. Recorded at the Penthouse in 1966-67, Cannonball is joined by Nat Adderley, Joe Zawinul and more jazz masters. Reel to Real Records also lights up January with a CD release from ETTA JONES, and the newly discovered recording A SOULFUL SUNDAY: LIVE AT THE LEFT BANK. Recorded in Baltimore in 1972 with the Cedar Walton Trio, Etta Jones erupts in her sultry soul style. And welcome the long sought after GOOD OLD BOYS live CD release on Rockbeat Records, a bluegrass offshoot fronted by the Grateful Dead's JERRY GARCIA. Live from Santa Cruz, California, restored from the original two-track tapes, this treasured piece of history is available for the first time.

Arrow Video's appreciation for a subsidiary of the Italian horror giallo genre, which sports psychological tension over graphic violence, arrives this month with FORBIDDEN PHOTOS OF A LADY ABOVE SUSPICION. Perverted whims are exchanged for silence in a case of misplaced marital loyalty. There is nothing scarier! CRIMSON PEAK delves into the dark heart of decadent romance, horrendous family secrets and supernatural forces. Lighter fare. This limited edition version includes an 80-page hardback book.

And if you want Action in 2019, we have it, with MVD Rewind's release of DOUBLE DRAGON. Based on the video game, DOUBLE DRAGON crackles with energy (and has a star turn from Alyssa Milano). First time ever on Blu-ray, and chock full of special features in the Rewind style. ROAD HOUSE 2, from MVD Marquee, deals with drug lords terrorizing the protagonist's uncle, leading to an expose of a drug ring higher than anyone imagined!

So light it up and get set for an explosive 2019 from MVD!

NEW FROM ARROW VIDEO

Willie Dynamite

HE'S TIGHT, TOGETHER, AND MEAN. "The hands-down winner of the all-out best blaxploitation movie of the seventies," declares author and artist Darius James in That's Blaxploitation! Willie Dynamite may not be as well-known as John Shaft, Sweet Sweetback or Super Fly's Youngblood Priest, but he certainly deserves to be. Who is Willie Dynamite? He's the flashiest pimp in New York - he drives a personalised purple-and-gold Cadillac and wears some of the most eye-catching outfits ever seen on a cinema screen. He wants to be number one, but with the police, the D.A., fellow pimps and a tough-talking social worker on his tail, can a man as arrogant and amoral as Willie D avoid a downfall? Willie Dynamite competes with the best of blaxploitation on all levels. Roscoe Orman dominates with his central performance - a star turn that's the equal of Richard Roundtree in Shaft or Pam Grier in Coffy. Multi-award-winning director Gilbert Moses balances action and social commentary as deftly as Gordon Parks, Jr. did with Super Fly. And the score by J.J. Johnson featuring Motown legend Martha Reeves is as catchy as anything composed by Isaac Hayes, Curtis Mayfield or James Brown.

BONUS MATERIALS

- Theatrical trailer
- Reversible sleeve featuring original and newly commissioned artwork by Sean Phillips
- Optional English subtitles for the deaf and hard-of-hearing
- Kiss My Baad Asss, a guide to blaxploitation hosted by actor and musician Ice-T, and featuring interviews with Richard Roundtree, Melvin van Peebles, Isaac Hayes and others
- Original 1.0 mono audio (uncompressed on the Blu-ray)
- High Definition Blu-ray (1080p) and Standard Definition DVD presentation of the feature, transferred from original film elements by MGM
- FIRST PRESSING ONLY: Fully illustrated collector's booklet containing new writing on the film by Cullen Gallagher

Year of Production: 1974 | Rating: 18+ | Director: Gilbert Moses | Actors: Roscoe Orman, Diana Sands, Thalmus Rasulala

Jozsef Balog - Wolf-temperiertes Klavier CD

A cycle of 24 movements for piano. Two character pieces (one major, one minor) in every key of the chromatic scale.

The model for the Wolf-temperiertes Klavier, as the title might suggest, is Bach's keyboard cycle. In line with this, Péter Wolf's collection of 24 piano pieces uses each of the twelve notes of the octave from C to B as home keys (major and minor) for the movements. It differs from the Bach work in having no fugues, only freely composed preludia, or as Chopin would have called them, preludes.

Blurt - Bullets For You CD

Classic Postpunk-Jazz album by UK legend Blurt feat. Ted Milton

Blurt's compositions feature simple, repetitive, minimalistic guitar and/or saxophone phrases, but they can also explore more abstract musical territories, often serving as an atmospheric backdrop for Ted Milton's existentialist poetry. The music has been described as Dada-Avantgarde-Jazz or Paranoid Jazz-Mutant Funk. Practically impossible to pigeonhole.

Discrvst - MMXVIII CD

Montreal's best new band signed to PRC MUSIC and Pens new musical style... DISCRVST plays Grimcrust!

Discrvst prove themselves very adept at mercilessly pounding and crushing, and equally effective at braying and brawling, and the music is pretty damned bleak at all times. The sonic weaponry consists of a gravel-chewing bass, skull-busting drum work, brutish riffs, and changing arrays of yowling, boiling, shimmering, vibrantly pulsating leads. The vocals are incinerating in their intensity.

From The Fire - 30 Days And Dirty Nights/Evil Men Do/Octopus CD

Boxset with 3CD+booklet with all 3 original albums "30 Days And Dirty Nights", "Evil Men Do" & "Octopus" + Bonustrack

First From The Fire album "30 Days And Dirty Nights" was originally released in 1992. Though the album got very favorable reviews, Grunge was shoving a flannel-clad shoulder against melodic rock. Second album "Evil Men Do" came in 2014, followed by "Octopus" in 2016, also a self-release of the band, due to the fact that a promised production of an indie label wasn't delivered.

Kataplexis - Kataplexis CD

PRC MUSIC signs the 3rd full length from the Canadian Grind heroes KATAPLEXIS! Featuring Wake singer!

KATAPLEXIS' music is predominantly grindcore. The technical licks are infused into this grindcore sound, in a manner that seems so fluid and not contrived in the least bit. Conventional structure is blatantly disregarded in favor of just sheer carnage. Kataplexis' charm lies in the authenticity of their sound. They recall some of the classic '80's era deathgrind in the tradition of Napalm Death.

Good Old Boys - Live

Legendary live bluegrass super group performance featuring Jerry Garcia

Some of the greatest musical moments happen only once, in a live setting, and if you're not there to experience them at the time, they're lost to history. But every now and then, a buried treasure is discovered that brings a lost moment back to life and thrills music fans. Such is the case with this recently unearthed live recording of the all-star bluegrass band the Good Old Boys playing at Margarita's Cantina, a Santa Cruz club, in February of 1975. Most Jerry Garcia fans know of his early interest in bluegrass music, which was an essential part of Garcia's development as an instrumentalist and songwriter, but many Garcia fans are unaware that in 1975, during a Grateful Dead's hiatus, Jerry produced a seminal album for another bluegrass group called the Good Old Boys, featuring guitarist David Nelson from the New Riders of the Purple Sage, and Frank Wakefield, one of the greatest mandolin players in the genre. The Good Old Boys made one album for Round Records, recorded up at Mickey Hart's Ranch. Shortly after completing the Good Old Boys album, the group decided to do a series of live shows, but during that time period, two of the key players from the original studio lineup were unavailable to go on the road. In a conversation with bassist Pat Campbell, Garcia mentioned that he would love to sit in on banjo, and with Jerry's participation, and the addition of fiddle player extraordinaire Brantley Kearns, a new version of the Good Old Boys emerged, ready to hit the club circuit. On February 20th and 21st in 1975, the Good Old Boys played for two nights at Margarita's Cantina. The performances were well received, with outstanding singing, blistering mandolin and violin solos, and a crowd pleasing vibe that's apparent from the moment the band takes the stage. Here, for the first time, thanks to a full restoration of these 2-track tapes, fans can finally hear this music in all its glory.

Lemma - Women Artists From Algeria's Saoura Region CD

The Lemma ensemble, created under the impetus of Souad Asla, comes from Saoura, the Saharan southern part of Algeria

The music of the Saoura is sometimes slow and languorous, sometimes lively and swaying. The voice and the hands remain the principal instruments, to which the percussions, banjo and gambri are joined. Serious or trivial, the text sings disappointed loves, insomniac watches and torments, the elegies to the Prophet and the invocations of his family.

Little Feat - St. Valentine's Day Massacre CD

Rare Live Little Feat Radio Broadcast From 1976

Few bands that formed in the early 1970s have managed to survive and continue touring to the present day. Little Feat is one of the few that have, in no small part due to their outstanding musicianship and the idiosyncratic songwriting of founding member, Lowell George. This 1976 Winterland performance is one of the finest examples of Little Feat during the prime years.

Stefan Sterzinger - Keuschheit & Demut In Zeiten Der Cholera CD

Austrian singer and accordionist Stefan Sterzinger presents an album full of musical and sarcastic stories. Stefan Sterzinger has always been concerned with substantial narratives: Tender, loving, bitter, poisonous and stoic narratives, travelogues and epics. Sterzinger is the "poet with the accordion", the eternal crossover artist, the emcee with the feather boa, the theater man, the chronicler. His music is clever, witty, jaded world music that comes deep from the wounded heart.

Lee Scratch Perry - The Revelation Of Lee Scratch Perry

A music documentary of the making of Grammy®-nominated reggae album

This is the music documentary of the making of Grammy®-nominated reggae album "Revelation" by dub reggae legend Lee "Scratch" Perry. Perry continues to create unique, category-defying music, drawing his narrative from his spirituality and today's global events. For the uninitiated, Lee "Scratch" Perry is one of the most important figures in the history of reggae music. Not only did he help develop the early reggae sound captured in a number of important recordings, but as an engineer, producer, songwriter, and performer he pioneered a number of innovations, including dub reggae. This documentary is set at Lee Perry's mountain top home and studio in Switzerland and features some of the actual sessions for the original studio recording of "Revelation". It focuses on Lee's work in collaboration with multi-instrumentalist Steve Marshall in both his engineering and his producer ("John Saxon") roles. While not appearing in this film, the musical contributions of very special guests Keith Richards and George Clinton, along with Duncan & Green, Tim Hill, Dr Sleepy, Alec Hay, elodieO & Abi Browning, and David Stewart Jones, are included. Visually, it is an interplay of color and light, ritual and the mystical aspects of Lee Perry's spiritual and worldly spontaneity, and a frank snapshot of his musical genius. The documentary also includes excerpts of a free-flowing and revealing interview of Lee Perry by Steve Marshall. The Revelation of Lee "Scratch" Perry is directed by Steve Marshall, photographed by John Palmer, and is a State of Emergency production. DVD extras include the complete interview of Lee "Scratch" Perry by Steve Marshall.

DOUBLE DRAGON

From producers Don Murphy (Transformers franchise), Jane Hamsher (Natural Born Killers), Alan Schechter (Showdown), writers Michael Davis (Shoot 'Em Up) and Emmy® Award Winner Peter Gould (Better Call Saul, Breaking Bad) comes the cult classic movie based on the video game smash!

Double Dragon roars to life with amazing special effects, spectacular action sequences, and a knock-about sense of humor. It's the year 2007, and what remains of L.A. is now "New Angeles," a city ravaged by earthquakes, tidal waves and vicious gangs. The evil tycoon Koga Shuko (Robert Patrick, Terminator 2: Judgment Day) is obsessed with finding the two halves of a talisman known as the "Double Dragon," which will give him awesome mystical powers. Two teenage brothers, Jimmy (Mark Dacascos, John Wick 3: Parabellum) and Billy Lee (Scott Wolf, Party of Five) find themselves in possession of the amulet's missing half, thrusting them into the adventure of their lives. With the help of Maria (Alyssa Milano, Charmed) and her vigilante group "The Power Corps," Jimmy and Billy must summon all of their courage, resourcefulness and martial-arts skills to stop the villain's malevolent plan. Crackling with the energy and humor of its two heroes, Double Dragon is a high-octane action spectacular. Buckle your seatbelt and enjoy the ride!

Getting Even with Dad

Macaulay Culkin (Home Alone) is a clever kid out to reform his wayward father (Ted Danson, Three Men and a Baby, Cheers) in this exuberantly zany, heartwarming comedy for the whole family. Sparkling with love, larceny and laughter, this “wonderfully entertaining film” is delightful family fare... “Kids will squeal with delight” (Paul Wunder, WBAI Radio).

When he is dropped off at the home of Ray Gleason (Danson), the father he hasn't seen in years, Timmy (Culkin) hopes that they'll be able to spend some time together. Unfortunately, that's not what Dad has in mind. Involved in the get-rich-quick scheme of a lifetime, Ray and two klutzy cohorts are illegally paving the road to financial bliss... that is, until Timmy steps into their path. Recognizing that only he can set his father straight, this inventive kid creatively thwarts their plan and makes Ray do time...as a dad.

Road House 2

Shane Tanner (Johnathon Schaech, That Thing You Do!), son of the legendary “cooler” Dalton, is an undercover DEA agent with all the right moves. He's put away his share of dealers, but hasn't made a big-time bust. When a deadly drug runner begins terrorizing his uncle Nate's (Will Patton, Armageddon) bar in Louisiana, Shane leaves New York and heads south, determined to settle the score.

From drunken fistfights to all-out brawls, the Black Pelican is known for its rough and rowdy atmosphere. It's also considered prime real estate for drug trafficking - and one local dealer, Wild Bill (Jake Busey, Starship Troopers), is determined to make this road house his personal office by any means necessary. But when Shane takes over the Pelican for his battered uncle, he's about to find out that this local drug ring is bigger and deadlier than he ever imagined. With help from a gorgeous blonde (Ellen Hollman, “Spartacus: Blood and Sand”) and backup from the DEA, Shane is out to make the biggest bust of his career and exact a lethal shot of revenge along the way.

Poldark

"Poldark" is a British historical period piece drama, based on the twelve novels of the same name, written by Winston Graham and published between 1945 and 1953. The first seven novels were set in the 18th Century and the remaining five deal with the early years of the 19th Century and the descendants of the previous novel's main characters. The BBC created and aired two television adaptations, the first airing in 1975 and again in 1977, based on the initial 7 novels. The second series, which began airing in 2015 on BBC1 is entering season four and as with the initial series, airs on PBS as part of the Masterpiece series. This controversial 1996 TV film adaptation, produced by HTV, was to be the pilot for a second series and is also known as "The Stranger From the Sea", written by Robin Mukherjee. The pilot utilized a new cast with playing the characters from the original series which wasn't well received by some fans of the first series. The "Poldark" TV series that started in 2015 and continues to appear on Masterpiece on PBS, will be started season 4 shortly.

Black Shampoo

HE'S BAD...HE'S MEAN... HE'S A LOVIN' MACHINE!

John Daniels stars as Jonathan Knight, the owner of "Mr. Jonathans," the most successful hair salon for women on the Sunset Strip. Jonathan is tall, muscular, black and ballsy. His reputation as a lover has become so awesome that he is sought after almost as much in that capacity as in his experience as a hair stylist. Everything is cool for Jonathan until he messes with the mob in an effort to protect his young attractive receptionist from her former boss. Action explodes when the "lovin' machine" becomes the "killing machine". Jonathan, equipped with chainsaw in hand, gets down on the vicious mob gang.

Kiss Of The Tarantula

SO SILENT, SO DEADLY, SO FINAL

Mommy and Daddy operate and live in a mortuary with their daughter, Susan, who collects tarantula spiders and has always been ostracized by her friends because... well she's a little bit strange. In true schlocky b-movie horror fashion, this is a real All-American Dysfunctional Family! So when Susan discovers that mommy dearest is plotting to have dear old dad killed... well this puts sweet little Susie over the top and she pulls out all the stops, making good use of her father's mortuary and her creepy little playmates to exact horrendous revenge! A 70s drive-in classic! Includes new 2018 commentary by David Del Valle.

JUST ANNOUNCED FOR JANUARY: NEW CDs FROM THE RESIDENTS

Residents - Eskimo: 2CD pREServed Edition

Formed in the early 1970s, The Residents have been charting a unique path through the musical landscape for over 45 years. From far-out, experimental recordings to highly conceptual, innovative multi-platform projects, the band has refused to stand still, and continues to move in several different directions at once. But you probably already knew that. Produced with The Cryptic Corporation using archival tapes supplied by The Residents themselves, this package explores and expands the classic 1979 album - the record which brought The Residents to a wider, international audience. Including an acapella suite, live in the studio recordings, related unreleased recordings, the 'Goosebump' and 'Replacement' projects and live tracks, this is The Residents as we've always wanted to hear them. Bonus material includes unheard 1978 Demo, album acapellas, unreleased tracks and live in the studio material.

GOOD OLD BOYS

Legendary live bluegrass super group performance featuring JERRY GARCIA

SOME OF THE GREATEST MUSICAL MOMENTS HAPPEN ONLY ONCE, IN A LIVE SETTING, AND IF YOU'RE NOT THERE TO EXPERIENCE THEM AT THE TIME, THEY'RE LOST TO HISTORY.

But every now and then, a buried treasure is discovered that brings a lost moment back to life and thrills music fans. Such is the case with this recently unearthed live recording of the all-star bluegrass band the Good Old Boys playing at Margarita's Cantina, a Santa Cruz club, in February of 1975. Most Jerry Garcia fans know of his early interest in bluegrass music, which was an essential part of Garcia's development as an instrumentalist and songwriter, but many Garcia fans are unaware that in 1975, during a Grateful Dead's hiatus, Jerry produced a seminal album for another bluegrass group called the Good Old Boys, featuring guitarist David Nelson from the New Riders of the Purple Sage, and Frank Wakefield, one of the greatest mandolin players in the genre...
