MVD's 2020 VISION!!

MVD sees a great year ahead, raising the bar, year after year. Like MARTIN BARRE, iconic prog-rock guitarist from Jethro Tull. LIVE IN NYC showcases Martin and his Gibson, captured in a rare intimate set of solo and Tull classics. LIVE IN NYC comes wrapped in an eight panel Digi, and includes a DVD of the show and two audio CDs. Fellow space shifters YES are likewise placed on a prog pedestal for their continuing history. FLY FROM HERE: RETURN TRIP is a remix from YES vocalist and producer Trevor Horn of this 2011 release, available on LP and CD. Ain't no Roundabout it!

Now you see her, now you don't! The story of singer BETTY DAVIS is spotlighted in the DVD THEY SAY I'M DIFFERENT. Follow the life of Davis, wife of Miles, friend to Hendrix, and Funk Queen. Then she was gone. What happened? You gotta see it to believe it!

Altamont, the free festival disaster that was the culmination of the Rolling Stones 1969 tour, also put the lid on the '60s in general. DAYS OF RAGE is a revelatory new DVD documentary of those times and that event. The stuff of legend.

Speaking of legend, watch the documentary BLUEBIRD. The Bluebird Café has long been an intimate incubator for live music in Nashville, providing opportunities for future legends like Taylor Swift, Garth Brooks and Vince Gill, who are interviewed throughout.

A different shade of blue is the great horror movie line BLUE UNDERGROUND, who dig up a wealth of extras on the deluxe 3-disc, 4K restoration of the Italian horror epic THE HOUSE BY THE CEMETERY. Bury yourself in another doomed Italian dwelling with the remaster DVD and Blu-ray of CASTLE FREAK, "a pulse-pounding roller coaster ride!" See June use her cleaver in the horror cut-up films MOMMY! Both original and sequel MOMMY films in a special edition Blu-ray/DVD pack. And you thought Dance Moms was nuts!

Set your sights on these new releases from ARROW VIDEO. Witness the Master of Pieces monster in EDGE OF THE AXE. It'll grind you down! And listen here, see. The film-noir murder mystery BLACK ANGEL is a stone cold classic!

MVD 2020. Open up and see it our way!

A Flock Named Murder - An Appointed Time CD

"An Appointed Time" is a record that's still getting my blood pressure to rise just by listening to it

Every now and then, we're given a record that manages to take metal and spin it right on its head as the band in question really changes things up. It's because of acts like YOB, Tchernobog that we're able to still get unique morsels of art like this one in these times, and I'm more than happy to put A Flock Named Murder in that small yet very capable company of top-tier bands.

Erik Aliana - Ancestors CD

The solo album, dedicated to ancestors, by Erik Aliana, young singer from Cameroon

The tracks on this new album are mainly devoted to saluting and celebrating ancestors. Erik sings in the vernacular, in English, French and pidgin "camfranglais". His accomplished vocal technique bears the influence of pygmy polyphonies, and his innovative guitar playing is captivating and percussive. Debashish Bhattacharya, master of the Indian slide guitar, joins him for two tracks.

Coldawn - ...in The Dawn CD

Alcest, Deafheaven, An Autumn For Crippled Children Drudkh

Coldawn's sound features plenty of melancholy but also a layer of bright tones and noise wash suggesting that behind every dark cloud there lurks a silver lining of hope and optimism. Lovely liquid acoustic guitar melodies and equally crystalline piano flow side by side with harsh wintry tremolo guitar scourge under a filmy treatment that blankets most tracks with a gentle glowing ambience.

Cruel Fate - A Quaternary Of Deceit Night Mares CD

Canada's best new DEATH METAL band CRUEL FATE unleashes debut album on PRC MUSIC!

CRUEL FATE delivers an old school Death Metal with pride and conviction throughout the entire album... nothing fancy here, just pure heavy riffing with an astonishing vocalist (and front man!) on top of it with a rock solid rhythm section. CRUEL FATE comes as a refreshing option for the old guards as much as for the kid jumping feet first in the pit of the international Death Metal scene.

Dust - The Fall Of All Things CD

Ultra heavy sludge sound. Limited first edition DigiPak.

With "The Fall Of All Things" the Doom veterans DUST from Bielefeld hit us with their fourth album and tear everything down without any compromises. Their ultra-heavy mixture of doom, metal, sludge and rock with lots of corners and edges wafts out of the speakers in the form of five overlong songs. Even after 20 years DUST are a guarantor for infinite heaviness, downright the epitome of heaviness.

Libera - Christmas Carols With Libera

You Tube sensations Libera invite you to celebrate Christmas with their unique sound and 17 of their favorite songs

Boys from South London with 65 million views on YouTube make up the choral group Libera and are normal kids aged 7 to 16 years. The music they produce is truly extraordinary. In addition to their annual tour to America, Libera appearances include The Today Show, Tonight Show, PBS, NBC, Kennedy Center Honors, Yankee Stadium Papal Mass and many more. Their new album 'Christmas Carols With Libera' is available on CD plus digital formats. Taking on the mellow and the more upbeat songs in this collection, the boys of Libera had great fun. The likes of 'Ding Dong Merrily On High' require real precision, as well as purity. Many of the tracks were recorded during a group 'retreat' to a rehearsal space in an old school, this allowed a true live feel to the process. The boy who took the lead vocal on 'The Snowman' had just turned 9 years old, whilst the introductions to the French 'Noël Nouvelet' and the Irish 'Wexford Carol' are both handled by native French and Gaelic speakers, Libera is as polyglot as ever. The distinctive sound of Libera has travelled the world in the last few years. The group's albums have topped both mainstream and classical charts in many countries, and their recordings hold their place in top 10s alongside major artists. Libera's unique sound has endeared the group to fans all over the world, particularly in the USA, the UK, the Philippines, South Korea and Japan, where their CDs top the mainstream and classical charts and where they pack concert halls appearing in their trademark flowing white robes on imaginatively lit stages. "When I heard them sing...It does remind me a lot of The Beach Boys, but actual boys" - Brian Wilson

Kosmogyr - Eviternity CD

First album from the masters of Black death metal

Eviternity is the debut full length album from the international duo Kosmogyr. The band's sound is rooted heavily in second wave black metal, the members are from China and the Czech Republic. The pair's debut album is destructive and forceful, yet an air of melancholic introspection and bleak decrepitude permeate the entire offering. A stunning first offering.

Roger Lent - The Sublime Gershwin CD/DVD

Solo Piano Works of George Gershwin

George Gershwin, a quintessential New Yorker, was an optimistic young man in early 20th century America, keenly aware of the potential of its great culture. In his concert pieces, he was not trying to write jazz music. In the same tradition as Chopin or Bartok, he was writing a mix of European classical music, immigrant folk melodies, blues, and the rhythmic sophistication of African Americans.

Lumnos - Ancient Shadows Of Saturn CD

For fans of black metal atmospheric black metal avantgarde black metal black metal blackgaze cosmic black metal

Lumnos sound draws inspiration from the most recent cosmic currents, and bands such as Mesarthim, Lustre and Midnight Odyssey are the first to come to mind: long, varied songs, often above ten minutes, built on blurry riffs and electronic, inhuman drum beats, but most of all dreamy, spacey synthesizers

Lumnos - The Helisphere Singularity CD

Great atmosphere throughout. Just all around great Black Metal Mesarthim,Darkspace

I have liked Lumnos's past work, but this album is a revelation. If you love everything from dungeon synth to cosmic black metal you should check this out. It's worthy of year end lists, and A Hell of a Thousand Suns is one of my favorite songs this year for sure. Favorite track: A Hell of a Thousand Suns.

Frankie Miller - Live At Rockpalast 1976, 1979 & 1982 CD

The legendary Rockpalast Concerts

If you had asked a critic in the 70's who the best white artists of soul and blues saturated rock were, besides Eric Burdon, Rod Stewart and Joe Cocker he would always have named Frankie Miller. Although born in Scotland his heroes originate in the US rock and soul scene: Ray Charles, Sam Cooke und Otis Redding. These three concerts display his impressive form and his exceptional musical talent!

PLAMEN PRESS & SUN KING RECORDS PRESENT: STEEL STRINGS + IRON CURTAINS

The first-ever English-language recordings of songs that helped to ignite the downfall of Communism in Europe

Released for the 30th anniversary of the Velvet Revolution and the fall of the Berlin Wall, ten famous songs by often-blacklisted Czech folk masters Karel Kryl and Jaromir Novahica sparkle in new versions from the Yehla Collective, a group of American, Czech, Slovak, Moravian & Armenian musicians brought together especially for these recordings.

Gypsy jazz, western swing, folk guitar, violin & traditional fujara and koncovka flutes breathe new life into the passionate, political and existential lyrics of the two greatest Czech poet-bards. Sun King Records is very pleased to offer this unique listening experience from E. European translation publisher Plamen Press.

Sul Ad Astral - Oasis CD

One of the biggest revelations of 2018 is the band Súl Ad Astral
There's a sensation of space that's present on this album that is usually absent from post black metal. Post black, and its adjacent blackgaze genre, rely on the overwhelming abrasiveness of black metal, packing blast-beats, tremolo riffs, and harsh vocals into one mass which washes over you. Here, more post-rock influences have been brought to bear to create a more ephemeral album.

Amongst rock music's most legendary figures, Phil Lynott remains the epitome of everything a rock star should be.

And despite his lifestyle playing no small part in his premature death, he is today still regarded as a hero by millions of fans who haven't forgotten the impact of this incredible band he led and the dynamic music he composed and performed. This two-disc set contains radio live recordings from Glasgow (1980) and Nakano (1983).

Tonic Sol-fa - All For One CD

Five of TSF's most requested songs of recent years on a new EP? Yes please!

"All For One" is the right EP to fill out any eclectic album collection. Witness the perfect matching of voice to song in the latest installment from the Emmy-winning quartet, as they once again chart their own path in a world of often overly produced and underwhelming musicianship. If a cappella music done right is what you're looking for, look no further than Tonic Sol-fa's "All For One!"

Twilight Fauna - Where Birds Sing My Name CD

Twilight Fauna is an atmospheric metal band devoted to telling the stories of Appalachia.

Twilight Fauna has been slowly coming into its own over the course of the past few years via a dizzyingly prolific release schedule, and I'm quite impressed by where they've ended up. The soul of the mountains and their people are alive in everything Twilight Fauna does, and listening to their albums is like stepping into a dark, depressing yet bleakly beautiful pocket of the world.

Stunning 2002 Broadcast Recording From The Final Leg Of Roger Waters In The Flesh Tour

Roger Waters' In The Flesh - a series of three separate concert tours, spanning three years - took place in 1999, 2000 and 2002. While the 1999 and 2000 tours were limited to dates in North America, their success led Waters to stage a worldwide jaunt in 2002, during which, on 7th March 2002, Waters and his band played in Buenos Aires at the city's Estadio Vélez Sarsfield.

Weather Report - Tokyo 1978 CD

Weather Report live at the Shinjuku Kosei Nenkin Hall in Tokyo on June 28th, 1978

As close to a supergroup as jazz ever came, Weather Report played a storming set for their adoring audience at the Shinjuku Kosei Nenkin Hall in Tokyo in 1978. The gig - broadcast live by NHK Radio on 28 June - featured the band as a quartet for the first time, with Joe Zawinul, Wayne Shorter and Jaco Pastorius joined by new kid Peter Erskine on drums.

Welo/Welo Quartet - Harvest Time CD

Swing and ballads, groovy organ, melodic piano and great sax playing. Original compositions, melodic, memorable songs.

All compositions by father Tor or son Ola with one exception being the beautiful ballad: "Norwegian Sunset". Somehow they make it sound like old standards in the swing, bop and ballad tradition. Tor Welo on groovy organ or melodic swinging piano and Ola Welo already one of the best saxophonists in Norway with Lars Tormod Jensen on bass and Martin Wister on drums making this a very good qrt.

The Aggrolites - Dirty Reggae

This is the album that started it all. The album that invented the genre of the same title 15 years ago. Back in press!

This is the album that started it all. Cock Sparrer has "Shock Troops". Rancid has "Let's Go". The Aggrolites have "Dirty Reggae"; and off the back of this album emerged a scene embracing that term itself, that would grow to be bigger than the band could ever be. "Dirty Reggae" is now in-and-of-itself a category of Reggae that has taken the world by storm over the past decade-and-a-half. 15 years after the original release of this pinnacle record, Pirates Press Records and Axe Records have teamed up to repress "Dirty Reggae", and make it widely available to all those who haven't been able to find this classic for a long time! Nobody could've guessed at the time, preparing an assembly of musicians to support classic reggae artist Derrick Morgan, that the project would lead to a band that has truly changed the face of Reggae. As with other classic albums, from the moment the needle touches down, the music takes the listener to a special place; in this case, one that has and continues to inspire others to build upon what this integral band has started. This 'standard' version brings this truly important record back into press, in a way that can be accessible to a whole new generation of Reggae (and vinyl) lovers across the globe.

Rolling Stones - Days Of Rage: Road To Altamont DVD

Peace, love, riots, assassinations, war. The Rolling Stones and the end of the 1960s with the Hells Angels at Altamont.

The decade that began with vibrant optimism and the Summer of Love was shattered in the late 1960s amidst riots, assassinations, and a war that would not end. The Rolling Stones emerged as a prominent voice of this new era and became the band which unwittingly played a leading role in the fall of the decade, coming to a horrific close with the Hells Angels at the Altamont music festival.

Roger Lent - The Sublime Gershwin CD/DVD

Solo Piano Works of George Gershwin

George Gershwin, a quintessential New Yorker, was an optimistic young man in early 20th century America, keenly aware of the potential of its great culture. In his concert pieces, he was not trying to write jazz music. In the same tradition as Chopin or Bartok, he was writing a mix of European classical music, immigrant folk melodies, blues, and the rhythmic sophistication of African Americans.

David Susskind Archive: Interview With Nikita Khrushchev DVD

A personal interview with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev

October 1960. The Cold War was at its zenith. Nikita Khrushchev visited the United Nations NY. David Susskind announces that he would appear on his show 'Open End'. Negative reaction from both press and public followed. No Soviet leader had been interviewed by an American, much less live on TV. What followed was a contentious, open discussion comparing Soviet communism with American capitalism.

Bluebird

An Accidental Landmark That Changed History

Discover the origins of megastars like Garth Brooks and Taylor Swift while following emerging singer-songwriters as they chase their dreams inside The Bluebird Cafe, Nashville's accidental landmark that has altered the course of music history. It's 35 year history is revealed thru never-before-told stories from those that have worked, played, been discovered and helped preserve this unassuming strip-mall haunt that is the bedrock of American songwriting.

SALES POINTS

- Entertaining, Critically acclaimed movie perfect for both country music fans and documentary / film fans!
- Features interviews with Taylor Swift, Sam Hunt, Maren Morris, Faith Hill, Garth Brooks, Trisha Yearwood, Vince Gill along with the stars of the hit TV series Nashville.
- Festival Smash! Official Selection: SXSW (2019), Nashville Film Festival (2019), Newport Beach Film Festival (2019) and more!

PRESS

"Director-editor Loschiavo capably balances the household names (Faith Hill, Garth Brooks, Kacey Musgraves) and unsung heroes (open-mic hopefuls, songwriters little known outside the Nashville music community) in the cavalcade of interviewees who, with degrees of enthusiasm ranging from nostalgic to reverential, tell the story of an improbable landmark in an unlikely setting."

—Joe Leydon, VARIETY

"Technically, the film is a gem. Seamless editing, harmonious non-diegetic background music combined with the film's mise-en-scene evoked a moment of self-awareness and the suspension of disbelief."

—Larry Gleeson, Hollywood Glee

Betty Davis: They Say I'm Different

Before Beyoncé, Madonna and Prince - there was Betty Davis

Funk Queen Betty Davis changed the landscape for female artists in America. She "was the first..." as former husband Miles Davis said. "Madonna before Madonna, Prince before Prince". An aspiring songwriter from a small steel town, Betty arrived on the 70's scene to break boundaries for women with her daring personality, iconic fashion and outrageous funk music. She befriended Jimi Hendrix and Sly Stone, wrote songs for the Chambers Brothers and the Commodores, and married Miles - startlingly turning him from jazz to funk on the album she named "Bitches Brew". She then, despite being banned and boycotted, went on to become the first black woman to perform, write and manage herself. Betty was a feminist pioneer, inspiring and intimidating in a manner like no woman before. Then suddenly - she vanished. Creatively blending documentary and animation this movie traces the path of Betty's life, how she grew from humble upbringings to become a fully self-realized black female pioneer the world failed to understand or appreciate. After years of trying, the elusive Betty, forever the free-spirited Black Power Goddess, finally allowed the filmmakers to creatively tell her story based on their conversations.

David Susskind Archive: Interview With Nikita Khrushchev

A personal interview with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev

In October 1960, Eisenhower was President and the election that put John F. Kennedy into the White House was less than a month away. The Cold War was at its zenith. Nikita Khrushchev, the Soviet Premier was visiting the United Nations headquarters in New York City. No Soviet leader had ever been interviewed by an American, yet Khrushchev agreed to appear live on David Susskind's "Open End."

There was an immediate negative reaction to the announcement, even causing then F.B.I. director Hoover to ask "What do our files show on Susskind?"

The program aired live on Sunday, October 9 on New York television station WNTA. The two-hour conversation (through an interpreter) was very spirited and focused on two main topics. First, the virtues of Soviet styled communism versus American style capitalism, and second, would Khrushchev give his assurance that he would never initiate a nuclear war.

At one point, after a commercial break, Khrushchev is informed that one of the commercials during the break was for Radio Free Europe. The commercial depicted a communist soldier smashing a radio set with an axe. Initially, this set Khrushchev off, but after a moment he said "Well, alright, let them screen it. We are not afraid. This will only make us stronger... Let them do it."

The show is followed by an extensive panel discussion that included DEAN EDWARD BARRETT OF COLUMBIA SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM, HENRY SHAPIRO, JAMES WECHSLER, MAX LERNER OF NEW YORK POST, MARGUERITE HIGGINS & JOE NEWMAN OF NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE, EUGENE LYONS OF READER'S DIGEST, BLAIR FRASER OF MCLEAN'S MAGAZINE & CBC, HARRY SCHWARTZ OF NEW YORK TIMES, & FRANK KANIF OF HEARST NEWSPAPERS. Plus many more.

SALES POINTS

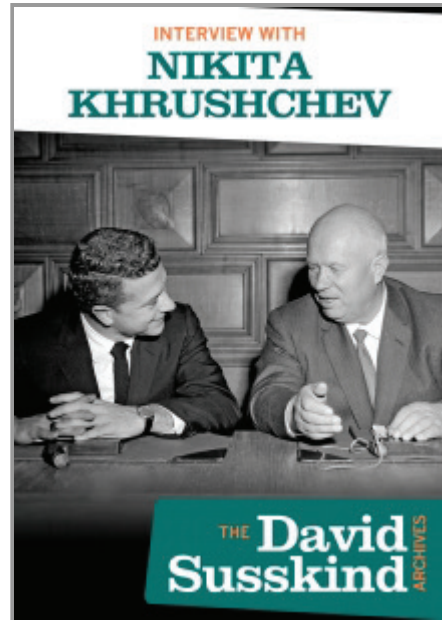

- Not seen in full since its original broadcast
- One of the most controversial interviews conducted by David Susskind. Susskind's office was deluged with telephone calls, telegrams, and hate mail from people who called him a 'dirty red' and far worse.
- When the airing was announced, 'Disgusting!' was the headline on the New York Daily Mirror editorial denouncing the interview.
- Recorded just after Khrushchev was in New York for a meeting of the United Nations Security Council after the U-2 spy plane incident.

El Esqueleto De La Senora Morales AKA Skeleton Of Mrs. Morales

Recognized as one of Mexico's top 20 movies of all time!

The Skeleton of Mrs. Morales (Spanish: El Esqueleto de la señora Morales) is a 1960 Mexican black comedy film adapted from horror master Arthur Machen's 1927 story "The Islington Mystery" by screen writer Luis Alcoriza, a frequent collaborator of Luis Buñuel. It is regarded by critics as one of the hundred best Mexican films of all time. This film is ranked #19 in the list of the 100 best films of Mexican cinema, in the opinion of 25 film critics and experts on Mexico, published by the magazine Somos in July 1994. It tells the tale of quiet taxidermist Pablo Morales (former matinee idol Arturo de Córdova) who suffers the demands of his prudish and hypochondriac wife Gloria (Amparo Rivelles). After twenty years of a hellish marriage, he decides to murder her. Over the top performances and an ironic, final twist make this film by Rogelio A. González a timeless satire of weepy melodramas.

La Barraca

First time on Blu-ray produced from a new 4K restoration. This classic is recognized as one of Mexico's Top 25 movies of all time! In rural Spain, a new family arrives in town to work a parcel (barraca), the townsfolk are very hostile to the idea of "another" working the land that once belonged to one of them.

After serving his apprenticeship as a screenwriter and assistant director, Gavaldón took on his first fully realized project as a director with this adaptation of an 1895 novel by the popular Spanish writer Vicente Blasco Ibáñez (Blood and Sand). Though set in Spain, this story of an immigrant family's struggles to establish their own small farm was close enough to the concerns of Mexico's tradition of rural melodramas to become an immediate popular and critical success.

In recent years, as part of a collaborative project, the Film Library of the UNAM and the AMACC (Mexican Academy of Cinematographic Arts and Sciences) have joined efforts to restore and preserve Mexico's national film collection. La Barraca is one of five films that have been restored so far.

Yehla Collective - Steel Strings & Iron Curtains CD

Kryl & Nohavica's powerful, politically-minded, existential lyrics inspired generations living behind the Iron Curtain.

In their native Czech, Kryl and Nohavica are known for powerful, politically-minded, existential lyrics that inspired generations living behind the Iron Curtain. Just in time for the 30th anniversary of the Velvet Revolution, Steel Strings & Iron Curtains introduces the English-speaking community to Central Europe's versions of Bob Dylan, Leonard Cohen, Tom Waits, Ray LaMontagne and Elliot Smith.

BETTY DAVIS THEY SAY I'M DIFFERENT

BEFORE BEYONCÉ, MADONNA AND PRINCE - THERE WAS BETTY DAVIS

Funk Queen Betty Davis changed the landscape for female artists in America. She “was the first...” as former husband Miles Davis said. “Madonna before Madonna, Prince before Prince”. An aspiring songwriter from a small steel town, Betty arrived on the 70’s scene to break boundaries for women with her daring personality, iconic fashion and outrageous funk music. She befriended Jimi Hendrix and Sly Stone, wrote songs for the Chambers Brothers and the Commodores, and married Miles - startlingly turning him from jazz to funk on the album she named “Bitches Brew”.
