2021 ANYONE!

Goodbye to all that and let us welcome the new year with the last great party of 2020!

MARDI GRAS 2020 is a Blu-ray/DVD/CD package from Omaha's alt-rocking 311, sellers of over 9 million records. You won't be dialing 3-1-1 for any noise complaints, as 311 turns it up for you and a packed house of New Orleans revelers! Thirty years in service with the same lineup, 311 bring the house down with their eclectic style!

Speaking of eclectic acts that have endurance, none fits the bill more than FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY. Gliding between rock, industrial, dance and now MECHANICAL SOUL, which happens to be the title of their new limited-edition LP and CD. On the scene since the early 80s, FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY continues to define the genre that influenced Throbbing Gristle and Cabaret Voltaire. POP-O-PIES, also around since the early 80s, are San Francisco punkers whose early live set was comprised solely of the Grateful DEAD'S Truckin'! THE WHITE EP includes that song, as well as a dozen others. Called "absolutely the worst band in California" by the LOS ANGELES TIMES, but what do they know, as Jerry Garcia himself was a fan of the band.

Music on video this month comes from PETER, PAUL AND MARY with PETER, PAUL AND MOMMY TOO DVD, a kid's hootenanny sing-along of Greatest Hits from the folk legends. On the flip side of that wholesome coin is the DVD and Blu-ray of MEAN MAN: THE STORY OF CHRIS HOLMES. Follow the extreme highs and lows of the WASP guitarist. More music? OH-OK. As in the minimalist post-punk band of the same name, which features Michael Stipe's sister and Matthew Sweet. THE COMPLETE REISSUE is a white vinyl retrospective.

A theatrical bonanza this month as GAMERA raises its Japanese turtle head once again with two 4-disc Blu-rays THE HEISEI ERA and THE SHOWA ERA, with a limited Steelbook of THE HEISEI ERA. Snap these up quick. SOUTHLAND TALES is a deluxe package 2-disc Blu-ray of the 2006 comedy/thriller, written and directed by Richard Kelly, of DONNIE DARKO fame!

We have had plenty of 2020. 2021 anyone?

Free Will - The Tony Caputo Tapes 1971 Vinyl

During 1971 Free Will recorded three tapes at Dorothy St., Syracuse, N.Y. which were produced by Tony Caputo

This compilation represents the best versions of each song from those tapes. "Treat you right" is a good rocking song to open the album. "Carry me Home" continues that good rocking feeling. "Can't Judge what you Missed" has the message to those people on internet who writes comments in all places to other people without having to know them personally.

Kari Ikonen - Impressions, Improvisations And Compositions Vinyl

using a unique proprietary device, this solo piano album is a veritable symphonic experience.

The influence of painter Wassily Kandinsky inspired Ikonen to write some of his most monumental pieces. To be able to play the Arabic modi he had in mind, he invented the "Maqiano", a small device expanding the interval range of the piano. And so, what could have turned into just another solo piano album ended up a symphonic experience.

Raison D'être - In Sadness, Silence And Solitude Vinyl

First time on vinyl. Double LP re-issue of the fourth full-length album of raison d'être that was first released in 1997

First time on vinyl. Double vinyl re-issue of the fourth full-length album of raison d'être that was first released in 1997. Yet another astonishing dark ambient industrial masterpiece it defines the term "hauntingly beautiful". This is music guaranteed to at least bring about thoughts of mysticism, if it doesn't produce mystical states outright.

First time on vinyl Double LP re-issue of the third full-length album of raison d'être that was first released in '95

Double LP re-issue of the third full-length album of raison d'être that was first released in '95. "Within the Depths of Silence and Phormations" takes the listener deep below the world of the ordinary into the catacombs of the subconscious, the worlds lying within us so few ever live to explore. This is music meant to stimulate the mind, to inspire one in their explorations of self and solitude.

quantum years tangerine dream Live sets reissued on vinyl

In their imperial years of the 1970s, Tangerine Dream's live concerts were an electronic exploration, improvised and different every night, with little or no relationship to their smash hit albums, which were similarly esoteric. As the 1980s dawned, their recorded work contained more recognisable themes and they scored some of the biggest films of the decade (Risky Business, Firestarter, Near Dark, Thief, Sorcerer). Now, they are returning in part to those pioneering days, and every show includes a section of improvisation, different every night. The best improvisations are being released as Sessions, and Invisible Hands Music is proud to release them out on deluxe double vinyls mastered at Abbey Road by Miles Showell.

Spy Kids - Covert Action Vinyl

Legendary California ska band reunites in the studio after 30 years. Featuring members of Flogging Molly & Buck-O-Nine.

Formed in 1990, Spy Kids drew influences from British 2-Tone, Jamaican ska, and fellow SoCal acts Donkey Show, Let's Go Bowling & Hepcat. The band fizzled in 1991 as members joined Flogging Molly, Unwritten Law, Buck-O-Nine, Unsteady & Pivit. Thirty years later the band triumphantly entered the studio recording 5 songs from its initial incarnation, plus a couple of covers and a brand new tune.

Thom Rotella Band - Thom Rotella Band Vinyl

Sound delicacies. Precise, experienced and yet they convey so much fun in playing that the fusion spark is ignited.

In the 80s and 90s Thom Rotella was one of the absolute cracks of the fusion guitar. At HiFi fairs the title 'Friends' was very popular demonstrating Wayne Pedzwater's gorgeous bass solo - concise, to the point, cracked.

For more than a decade, the legendary album by the Thom Rotella Band was no longer available. Now TRB emerges from the sinking again - namely as a Double-LP. 180 Gr. Vinyl

According To What - A Time You Felt Insecure Around All Your Friends CD

Debut album of '90s-styled fuzzy boy/girl indie rock from Wisconsin / RIYL: Kiddo, Dunebuggy

Out of the gate, this Madison, WI band's debut album reminds me a lot of Kiddo, but the more I listen to the record, the more I think fondly of forgotten bands from indie rock's past like Humidifier, Dunebuggy and Moped (and if I wanted to go back even further, I'd also add the Embarrassment).

Agata Zobel: Cleopatra's Songs CD

Agata Zobel's relationship to music: Music: a vital need, a thirst, but also something that you give.

"Give me some music!" These words from Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra, which open Cleopatra's Songs, seem particularly well chosen to characterize Agata Zobel's relationship to music. Music: a vital need, a thirst, but also something that you give. This portrait album with three major works, performed by leading ensembles, follows her receipt of the Erste Bank Kompositionspreis in 2018.

Arne Torvik Trio - Northwestern Songs cd

Torvik continues to explore the relationships between pop sensibilities and jazz in the format of a piano trio

And while one can hear elements in Torvik's trio that seem to align it with some of the prominent Norwegian piano trios of today - a strong feel for melody and lyricism and a penchant for space which allows the pieces to breathe and the notes to resonate- there are others that sets Torvik's piano trio apart and highlight his unique voice as a pianist and composer.

Be The Wolf - Torino CD

The swing out brothers are back to the roots!

After the 80's melodic hard rock digression of the very brilliant 'Empress' album (2018), Be The Wolf are back where they belong. Starting from the title, their fourth effort marks a sort of return to the past. 'Torino', the band's hometown, is not an ordinary city: it sticks to you and marks you forever, leaving a black shade in your soul.

Erik Bertsch - Marco Stroppa: Miniature Estrose: Primo Libro Per Pianoforte D'amore CD

Pianist Erik Bertsch presents this album of fascinating piano music, which took almost 20 years for Stroppa to write.

"Miniature" as it is used here does not so much refer to a piece that is brief as it does to one that is fashioned in great detail, like the elaborately decorated initials of medieval illuminated manuscripts. 'Estrose' is an untranslatable word with various shades of meaning, having to do with imagination, creative intuition, inspiration and genius." (M. Stroppa).

Paul Chain - Dies Irae CD

This is one of Paul Chain's experimental albums.

The title of this album, 'Dies Irae', is taken from the latin hymn 'Dies Irae' (translated: "day of wrath"). It's first verse is translated above and yields an insight into the thoughts behind this album. It was dedicated to the victims of war and is a musical statement, through this metaphor of the apocalypse, of the horrors which they have experienced.

Paul Chain - Emisphere CD

'Emisphere' was the last album from Paul Chain to be completely improvised Gatefold Digipack with Plastic Slipcase

As usual, the tracks tend to be pretty long, many being near or above the 15 minute mark. He also makes heavy use of a Hammond Organ throughout, and introduces some electronic elements as well. The female spoken word passages first introduced on 'Dies Irae' are back, and are just as disturbed and emotional as ever. The music has a chaotic atmospheric that is at once depressing and nerve-racking.

Paul Chain - Opera Decima (the World Of The End) CD

The music is a combination of ambient and industrial which can sometimes sound fit for a horror movie.

Heartbeats, the chatter of children and ghostly voices swiftly floating around. Other times it's more spaced out, sad or just odd. A Hammond organ is present as a little link between his heavy metal/hard rock roots and this, and the whole work is pure drone masterpiece. Gatefold Digipack with Plastic Slipcase

Veronika Harcsa & Anastasia Razvalyaeva - Debussy Now! CD

"There is no theory. You have only to listen. Pleasure is the law" Debussy

"There is no theory. You have only to listen. Pleasure is the law" - explained Debussy. The same principle served as the benchmark for Anastasia Razvalyaeva, Veronika Harcsa, and Márton Fenyvesi for creating Debussy NOW! The sovereignty of Debussy's songs and their personal quality that seemingly contradicts it propelled the artists to find new sets of skills.

Kari Ikonen - Impressions, Improvisations And Compositions CD

using a unique proprietary device, this solo piano album is a veritable symphonic experience.

The influence of painter Wassily Kandinsky inspired Ikonen to write some of his most monumental pieces. To be able to play the Arabic modi he had in mind, he invented the "Maqiano", a small device expanding the interval range of the piano. And so, what could have turned into just another solo piano album ended up a symphonic experience.

Kodax Strophes/Martyn Bates - It Doesn't Matter Where It's Solstice When You're In The Room CD

New solo project by co-founder and singer in British post-punk group Eyeless in Gaza

Martyn Bates is an English singer, musician and songwriter. After releasing tapes of experimental, industrial music as Migraine Inducers he formed Eyeless in Gaza with Peter Becker in January 1980. Kodax Strophes is all about him wanting to make something wide-screen and filmic, kind of unhinged, and yet painterly - aleatoric, yet not absolutely, definitively so.

Hugh J. Noble - The Beach Boy CD

Soft and introspective songs from this unique and prolific songwriter / RIYL: Joe Pernice, Lucksmiths

After a great recent album from his band, Slum Summer, this marks a return to Hugh's solo roots, courtesy of the forced isolation the world is experiencing. Sometimes minimal and acoustic, other times with drum & bass accompaniment, this is a rich assortment of songs about places and relationships in the style of Joe Pernice, Darren Hayman or maybe even something from the Lucksmiths' softer side.

Tangerine Dream - Sessions II CD

Every show included a section of improvisation, different every night. Sessions are the best improvisations.

In their imperial years of the 1970s, Tangerine Dream's live concerts were an electronic exploration, and different every night. As the 1980s dawned, their recorded work contained more recognisable themes and scored some of the biggest films of the decade (Risky Business, Firestarter, Sorcerer). They now return to those pioneering days, with a double CD mastered at Abbey Road by Miles Showell

Thom Rotella Band - Thom Rotella Band CD

Sound delicacies. Precise, experienced and yet they convey so much fun in playing that the fusion spark is ignited.

In the 80s and 90s Thom Rotella was one of the absolute cracks of the fusion guitar. At HiFi fairs the title 'Friends' was very popular demonstrating Wayne Pedzwater's gorgeous bass solo - concise, to the point, cracked. For more than a decade, the legendary album by the Thom Rotella Band was no longer available. Now TRB emerges from the sinking again - namely as a UHQCD.

White Rose Transmission - Happiness At Last CD

Brand new album by the German/Dutch Wave Rock formation

Brand new studio album by the German-Dutch Wave Rock-projet feat. Carlo Van Putten. "Happiness at last" celebrates the moments when everything is there, but you can never be sure whether it will last - as in "Winning", this hymn of the wave rock about not being able to win. Today it sounds no less haunting than it did back then, just less aggressive. Giving up is still not an option.

Humble Pie - The Atlanta Years

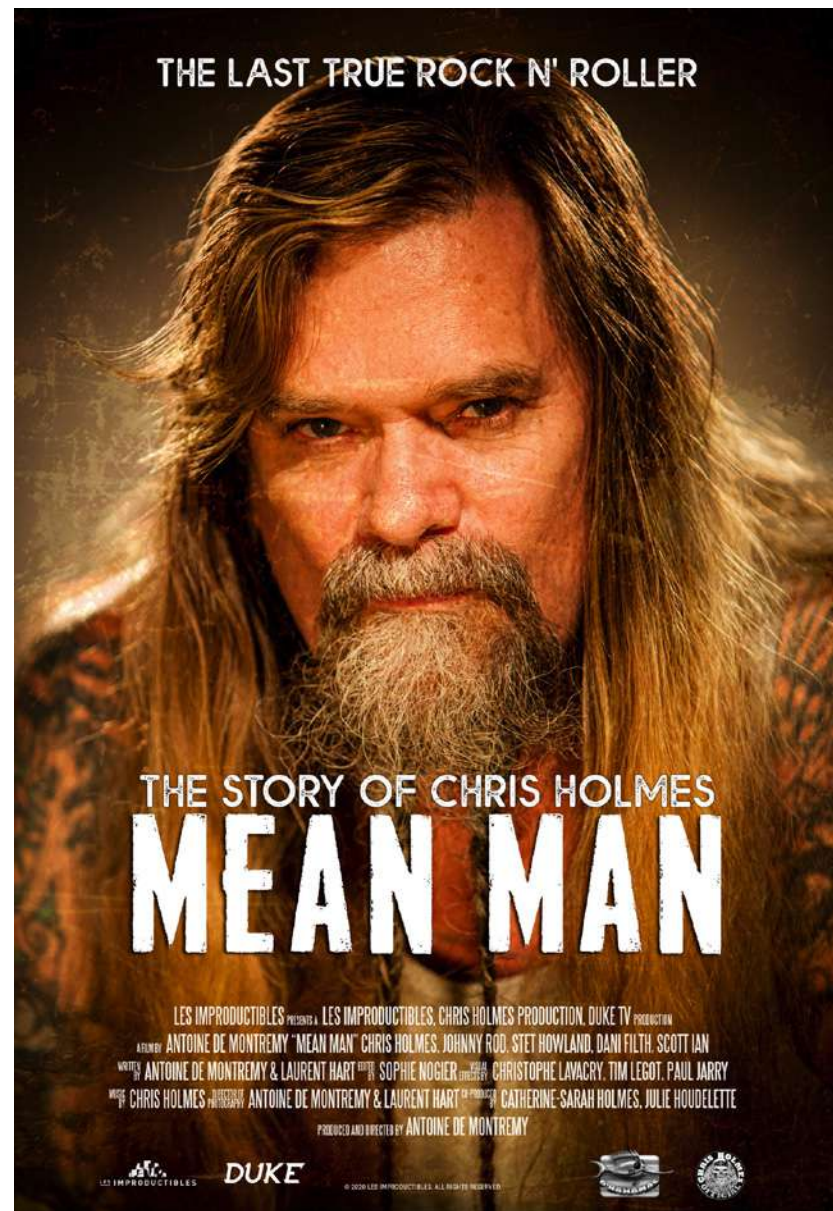

Known by many as the lost years as Steve Marriott disappeared from the public eye after the demise of Humble pie Mk II.

Known by many as the lost years as Steve Marriott disappeared from the public eye after the demise of Humble pie Mk II. He then assembled a third version, recording tracks for a new album down in the Atlanta area. This 2 CD collection presents 9 tracks for that album, Recorded in Pyramid Eye Studios Chattanooga, Tennessee in 1982 The 2nd CD is a live concert of the band in Cincinnati in '83, featuring some later material mixed in with classic Pie tracks "I Don't Need No Doctor" and "Hallelujah I Love Her So". The new stuff is good, and the live CD is an excellent reminder of how good Marriott was. This is a fascinating period in the life of Steve Marriott as so little is know about it . The shows were fierce and tight the studio songs were strong the lifestyle was far far from normal.

Mean Man: The Story Of Chris Holmes

The Last True Rock 'N Roller

The story of an iconic guitar player who has lived a life of extreme highs and lows. After losing the publishing rights of his own songs and combating dangerous addictions, the legendary W.A.S.P. guitarist is shown starting over from scratch while living at his mother-in-law's in Cannes, France. He is now ready to take on Europe with his new band. As we follow him along, he meets many fans and proves that he still is the showman he was as a young and famous rock star. This musical journey draws parallel stories of the rise, fall and rebirth of Chris Holmes with archives, live performances, interviews and behind-the-scenes footage.

Runrig - One Legend: Two Concerts (Live At Rockpalast 1996 & 2001) CD/DVD

Two concerts of famous Scottish Folkrocklegend Runrig, recorded at „Rockpalast" in 1996 and 2001

The two Runrig concerts captured on this CD/DVD set are superb evocations of a band before and after major change. Dusseldorf in 1996 sees the most successful, major label Runrig lineup with Donnie Munro making one of his last stands as lead vocalist and frontman before leaving the band. By the time of the Cologne concert in 2001, Bruce Guthro had settled into his role as the new frontman.

Batwoman & The Panther Women: Double Feature (4K Restoration)

The invincible super-women are coming to disc for the first time!

BATWOMAN: The body of a professional wrestler is found off Acapulco's coastline; the victim, by all appearances, is believed to have drowned. The autopsy reveals a very perplexing and disturbing prognosis - the victim's pineal gland has been surgically drained of all fluid. With this prognosis eerily imitating the findings in the autopsies of murdered victims in Hong Kong and Macao, the police turn the investigation over to Mario Roble, who enlists the help of a beautiful crime fighting luchador known as Batwoman.

THE PANTHER WOMEN: In an effort to resurrect the dead leader of their satanic cult, the Panther Women must perform blood sacrifices in order for him to arise. Using the wrestling ring as their sepulcher and their unsuspecting opponents as their blood sacrifice's, these beautiful sirens of Satan perform their life-resurrecting rituals.

PRESS

"Rene Cardona competently directs [Batwoman] an interesting hybrid of science-fiction and adventure, with elements of lucha libre thrown in to appease fanatics of Mexico's most famous masked luchadors like Santo or the Blue Demon... it's a damn enjoyable movie"

—Ken Wynne, Attack from Planet B

Afterglow + Ray Meets Helen [Alan Rudolph Double Feature]

Romantic Comedy & Drama Double Feature From Award Winning Writer

AFTERGLOW:

Nick Nolte (48 Hrs.), Julie Christie (Heaven Can Wait), Lara Flynn Boyle (Happiness) and Jonny Lee Miller (Trainspotting) star in director Alan Rudolph's (Mortal Thoughts) wry romance about a handyman who wreaks havoc and builds romance in two marriages. Desperate to have a baby, Marianne hires Lucky Mann to remodel a nursery. There's just one problem: Marianne's not pregnant and her husband isn't interested in sex. So what's a handyman to do? Intimate, intelligent, reckless and romantic, "you'll delight in this one and you'll leave in an 'AFTERGLOW' of pleasure!" Gene Shalit, Today, NBC-TV.

RAY MEETS HELEN:

In bizarre, unrelated turns of events, Ray (Keith Carradine, Nashville) and Helen (Sondra Locke, Bronco Billy) each happen upon large sums of money which give them the chance to re-invent themselves. From acclaimed writer / director Alan Rudolph (Mrs. Parker and the Vicious Circle), Ray Meets Helen features an all-star supporting cast that includes Keith David (The Nice Guys), Samantha Mathis (American Psycho) and Jennifer Tilly (Bullets over Broadway) in a "wonderfully, magically humane film filled with imaginative visuals" (NY Times) that is "filled with Rudolphian magic" (The Film Stage).

Blue Monkey (AKA Insect)

THEY BREED. THEY HATCH. THEY KILL!

Take a fifties-style horror film in the tradition of 'Them' and 'The Fly' and the cross it with the spectacular special effects of the eighties and you've got BLUE MONKEY. This bizarre tale of horror begins in a greenhouse where a mysterious plant rubs its first victim the wrong way. So wrong that he lands at County Memorial Hospital where he gives "birth" to a hideous worm-like creature! Police detective Jim Bishop (Steve Railsback, Lifeorce) and Doctors Glass (Susan Anspach, Five Easy Pieces) and Carson (Gwynyth Walsh, The Crush) manage to contain the 'thing', but within hours, the BLUE MONKEY has developed into a grotesque insect of gigantic proportions. Now roaming the corridors looking for its favorite food - human bones - the creature is virtually indestructible. And when it produces an egg-laying female, only one course of action seems apparent.. Blow the hospital and everyone inside away!

From the writer of the of 80's video store hits 'Children of the Corn', 'Force: Five' and 'Nowhere to Hide', the cult classic BLUE MONKEY (aka 'Insect') features an all-star supporting cast that includes Sara Polley (Zach Snyder's Dawn of the Dead), Robin Duke (Groundhog Day), John Vernon (Animal House), Joe Flaherty (SCTV) and Done Lake (Netflix's Space Force).

Beach Babes From Beyond

Hot. Tan. And Alien.

Hot! Tan! Alien! An intergalactic babe borrows her dad's T-bird ship to do a little planet hopping with her two friends, but they run out of fuel unexpectedly, and must land on earth. They land on the California coast and run into some guys, where they have fun and a few close encounters at the beach. One of the guys' Uncle Bud, who just wants to meditate and hang out, is being threatened with condemnation of his beach house unless he puts some money into repairs. The alien babes offer to enter the bikini contest with their way-out designs to try and win the money he needs, but they are hampered by the garment designer who will stop at nothing to win. It's up to the three out-of-this-world beauties to help the holistic hipster the only way they know how by busting loose in a wet and wild bikini contest that sets the strand a-sizzle, and proves once and for all that the Pacific Coast Highway leads straight to hard-body heaven!

The Hand That Feeds The Dead

The Hand That Feeds Can Be The Hand That Kills!

Legendary eccentric performer Klaus Kinski brings his inimitable brand of intensity to this rarely seen work of visceral European horror, presented here uncut for the first time in North America, remastered from the original 35mm negative! Kinski plays Professor Nijinski, whose work with experimental skin grafts has been aborted by a lab fire that has left his wife Tania (Katia Christine) now hideously burned, her face a bloody mass of flayed flesh and tissue. Nijinski vows to continue his research, venturing into the village with his hypnotized henchman (Erol Tas) to kidnap and murder local young woman and remove their skin, transplanting it onto his tortured wife's ruined skull. Will Nijinski get away with his hideous crimes and bring his beloved back to her previous luscious luster? Or will the long arm of the law put an end to his tirade of murder and mad science?

GIANT FROM THE UNKNOWN

DELUXE EDITION

THE CREEPING TERROR THAT ROSE FROM THE DEPTHS OF THE UNKNOWN!

Dr. Frederick Cleveland and his daughter Janet are joined by scientific researcher Wayne Brooks in the pursuit of ancient artifacts from Vargas, a giant 500-year-old Spanish conquistador. When a lightning storm interrupts their search, the team finds much more than artifacts when the long-lost Vargas returns to life, with a murderous rage and an axe to grind! With a shock a minute, Giant from the Unknown (1958) features make-up design from horror mainstay Jack Pierce, known for his work on Frankenstein (1931) and The Mummy (1932).
