MVD DROPS ANVIL IN JANUARY!

MVD hammers away with solid releases, fronted by the documentary ANVIL! THE STORY OF ANVIL. Hailing from Toronto, Anvil are the real version of the fictitious Spinal Tap. Plowing the path to rock stardom are Lips and Rob, who vowed at 14 years old to 'rock together forever!' Metallica, Anthrax and the lot were influenced by Anvil, but Anvil never achieved the mega-fame, instead fighting off obscurity to become an inspirational story of following dreams, hanging on and never growing old. DVD and Blu-ray features interviews with metal legends and new extras. Horns Up for Anvil!

Gather around for the CIRCLE JERKS 'LIVE AT THE HOUSE OF BLUES' DVD/CD. Filmed in Downtown Disney in Anaheim, the Circle Jerks roar through 25 songs, the sounds of which influenced Green Day and Black Flag. Keeping it in California are hip-hop toke-advocates KOTTONMOUTH KINGS, who blaze through a 1997 show in San Diego. Six smokin' songs comprise THE FIRST KROP!

Misfits alumni JERRY ONLY's gold nugget color vinyl release of his debut ANTI-HERO sold out fast, but the new year finds a new color-basic black. Cut at 45 RPM, the disc also comes with download card and Glow-In-The-Dark packaging. Keep It Dark-East Coast style! Hopefully Duke's Mood is not dark, and we wager to say it isn't, as guitarist DUKE ROBILLARD's 3-CD-two-concert set DUKE'S MOOD is an uplifting blend of swing jazz, R&B, rock 'n roll and blues. Yo, MVD RAPS, with new vinyl this month from ONYX, RICK HYDE, ULTRAMAGNETIC MCS and RZA! We cover the genre-front!

In film, MVD REWINDs back to 1982 for the Collector's Edition of the teen comedy THE LAST AMERICAN VIRGIN. Guys falling for the same girl in the awkward years. They are spurred on in their quest by a soundtrack featuring the Cars, The Police, Devo and U2! Another great soundtrack graces the comedy MEN AT WORK, starring Charlie Sheen and Emilio Estevez. The garbage men turned murder suspects bungle to the sounds of Ziggy Marley and Sly and Robbie.

ARROW VIDEO slings hot darts in 2023, leading off with THE DUNWICH HORROR, based on an H.P. Lovecraft story and THE EXECUTIONER'S COLLECTION, a double whammy of two Japanese karate flicks.

Enjoy chiseling away at these and more inside!

208 - Nearby Vinyl

208 induces what feels like an intense panic attack you don't want out of; these songs capture the same brashness as their live sets. 208 has aggregated all the wasted clipping segments hacked off of more thoroughly manicured garage rock and built a monster of an album from them. The momentum built from it pouring from the speakers is a slipstream that makes your escape a little easier. It emulates, well a live set at the last concert you'll ever properly hear.

Paul Carrack & The SWR Big Band
Don't Wait Too Long

New album from Paul Carrack and the GRAMMY Award-winning SWR Big Band & Strings.

Celebrating a momentous five decades in the industry, legendary musician and songwriter Paul Carrack, who's 'Golden Voice' features on numerous classic world wide hits such as 'How Long' (ACE) , 'Tempted' (Squeeze), 'The Living Years', 'Over My Shoulder' (Mike and the Mechanics) teams up with the GRAMMY Award-winning SWR Big Band & Strings on epic new album " Don't Wait Too Long".

The covers album celebrates the pioneering golden era in music from the 50s and beyond spanning blues, gospel, country and jazz. The first single "Cryin' Won't Help You" out in Jan 2023 is Paul's tribute to the legendary BB King.

Paul has a deep love of R&B songs from the fifties and beyond. For him, 50s music was filled with intense emotion, it was wildly kinetic and had a profound impact on his career. In Paul's mind, it's where all modern pop music began, the sounds were spectacular and revolutionary. Days when the change from jazz to pop was stretched via pioneers and great singers like Bobby Bland, Ray Charles, Aretha Franklin, and Lloyd Price..These artists always resonated as fantastic performers with stylistic records that had such joy and intensity.

The 50s were not only a time for musical revolution but a social and generational upheaval of vast and unpredictable scope. The power of this music is as vital today as it ever was with the power to change lives forever.

After working with the SWR band on a number of projects, Paul and his producers had the idea to find and record a selection of these time-warped classics, some well-known, others not so much, and the title track , a modern song that harks back to those times called 'Don't Wait Too Long'. The result is an impassioned, compelling album. Honest, epic, touching, the album showcases a great vocalist who is at home with his art and talent.

Witchhunter - Metal Dream Vinyl

Traditional pounding HEAVY/SPEED METAL for old school purists. 3rd album by the Italians. Founded in 2007, Italy's WITCHHUNTER began as the manifestation of true heavy metal obsession. It all coalesced together into a paradoxically refreshing version of traditional metal in the vein of Angel Witch, Jaguar, Tygers of Pan Tang, and Saxon.

The elegantly lyrical and deeply soulful guitarist returns to the studio. Are We There Yet? is hard swinging but also beautifully lyrical.

An expressive instrumentalist, Cherry has a hip, melodic approach that is a refreshing contrast to guitarists who frequently resort to playing 'finger music', the execution of rapid streams of notes that serve no musical purpose other than to fill space This recording is a continuation and salute to Ed Cherry's influences and mentors in music.

Emiliano D'Auria Quartet & Luca Aquino - In-equilibrio CD

Great jazz quartet from Italy featuring Luca Aquino on trumpet, flugelhorn. The music is endearing, enchanting and like a film...in sound

While each player has the opportunity to carry the melody or to find a new direction for the tune to explore, there is little sense of grandstanding soloing here. Rather, the quintet move together in a carefully coordinated and synchronised manner. This is not solely the result of d'Auria's delightfully constructed pieces but also a common purpose and sense of direction in the band. JazzViews, UK

Giuseppe Ottaviani - Horizons CD

Ottaviani's most predominant shift in concentration has been in tone and song.

Ottaviani's most predominant shift in concentration has been in tone and song. Specifically that's meant utilising sounds from outside of his usual remit and a greatly increased emphasis on deeply meaningful and relatable lyrics. Indeed, 'Horizons' and 'Evolver' hold their own unique symbiosis: 'Evolver' being purely instrumental, while 'Horizons[Part 1]' is vocal-detailed near enough throughout.

Hard driving bebop saxophonist shines on his first release in years backed by The Spike Willner and his trio! Bebop is very alive and well!

Jesse Davis is a true bebopper. His big, soulful sound has been on display on many records over the years. He has been somewhat quiet on the recording front of late but Live @ Smalls reminds us what an incredibly melodic improviser he is. He combines the perfect blend of blues and bebop and although he has an abundance of technique he is not flashy. One of the true story tellers!

Dinosaur Jr. - Puke + Cry: The Sire Years 1990-1997

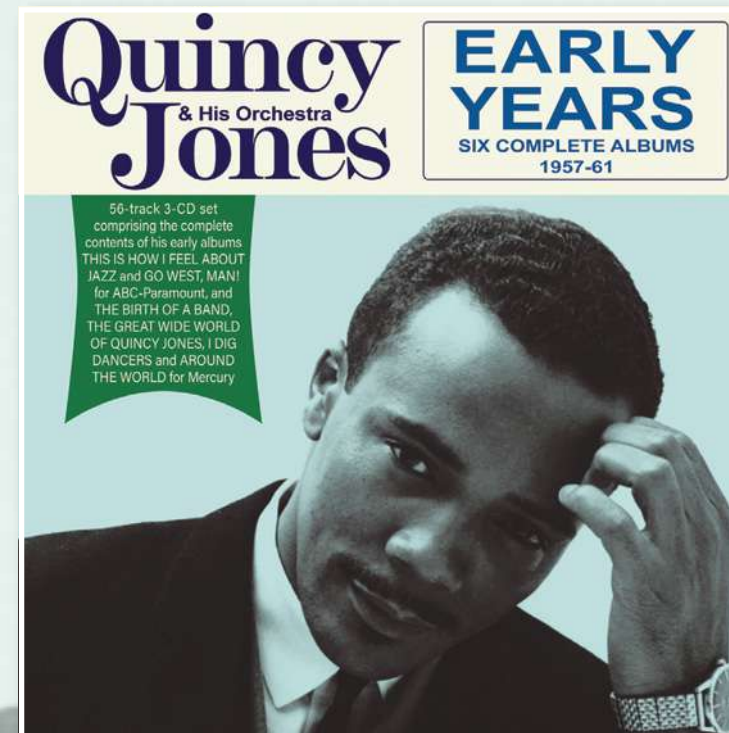

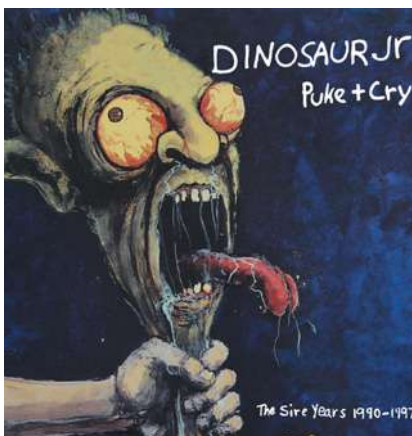

4CD Box Set Featuring All Four Albums Recorded By J Mascis And Dinosaur Jr For Sire Records.

Formed in 1984, Dinosaur Jr carved a singular path through the latter half of the 1980s, issuing three highly influential albums in the process before finding a home with Sire Records, who issued a run of four excellent albums as the alternative American rock scene the band had long been part of exploded, dominated and then retreated during the 1990s. Critically lauded on release, 1991's 'Green Mind' took Dinosaur Jr's reputation to a new level, aided by the singles 'The Wagon' and 'Whatever's Cool With Me', and remains one of the band's best collections, and a firm fan favourite. Next, 1992's 'Where You Been' continued that global ascent, becoming Dinosaur Jr's most successful album up to that point, reaching #50 in the US (where it sold over a quarter of a million copies), hitting #10 in the UK album charts, and spawning the hit single 'Start Choppin'. 1994's 'Without A Sound', the band's 6th album, continued that growth in popularity and commercial achievement, reaching #44 in the US (their highest ever album placing there) and featuring the hit singles 'Feel The Pain' and 'I Don't Think So'.

Such was their appeal that they also reached the mainstream during this period, contributing 'Blah' to the hit US TV show Melrose Place before 1997's 'Hand It Over' appeared at a time of declining international interest in American alternative rock. Nevertheless, the album received the widespread approval and appreciation amongst critics and reviewers, and was followed, unusually, by an EP of non-album songs recorded for the Matt Dillon movie Grace Of My Heart, which became the band's last significant release before a lengthy hiatus. Collecting together all of these recordings, alongside B-sides, alternates and session tracks, 'Yeah Right' is a perfect accompaniment to the band's original independent period, and captures Dinosaur Jr as best heard - loud, heavy and ready to explode.

ES-DUR offers meticulously produced editions and albums like the fantastic chamber music recordings with world famous cellist David Geringas or the series "Music at the Court of Gotha": The Thuringian Court of Gotha, steeped in musical tradition, was the home and field of activity of preeminent composers, conductors, and instrumentalists and seat of an aristocratic Gotha dynasty of great significance in European history. The series featuring the Thuringian State Orchestra Gotha, pays tribute to this by spanning the fading age of the basso continuo to the era of German Romanticism. But there is more to discover! Why not to listen to Swedish born Maria Lettbergs outstanding Piano release with the "Opus Posthum" of Alexander Scriabin, the artistry of Trumpet Star Matthias Höfs on his "Trumpet Acrobatics" or the String Quintets Nos. 2 and 4 by the French composer Eugène Walckiers (1793-1866) - real and mostly unknown chamber music gems interpreted by the Fabergé-Quintet.

You can be sure you will find something beautiful you have never heard before of as it is ES-DURs ambition to create a catalogue which not only reflects the richness and diversity of music history but also to present exciting contemporary music performed by great artists and upcoming talents. The Last American Virgin (Collector's Edition) [Blu-ray]

Gary, a shy guy, and his buddy Rick both fall for the same girl, Karen, in the classic 80's teen comedy. Music by Devo, The Cars, U2 & The Police.

THE COMEDY THAT PUTS ZIP INTO BEING A TEEN!

THE LAST AMERICAN VIRGIN is the cult-classic 1980's teen comedy about close-knit group of high school friends, Gary (Lawrence Monoson, Mask), the shy guy; his friend Rick (Steve Antin, The Goonies), the ladies man; and David (Joe Rubbo, Hot Chili), the comic foil, and their exploits in pursuit of love... or at the very least... their first time! Also starring Diane Franklin (Better Off Dead), Louisa Moritz (One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest) and Kimmy Robertson ("Twin Peaks"), this funny, dramatic and nostalgic time capsule chronicles the ups and downs of friendship, romance, and the bittersweet memories of youth, set to a classic 80's soundtrack.

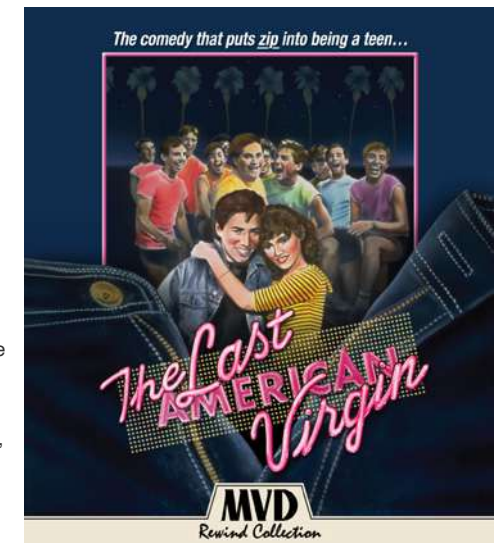

PRESS

"A powerhouse soundtrack-with the songs deployed slyly, as comment and foreshadowing-and a stunning ending balance the copious nudity and slapstick raunch... the film's frankness makes it more honest than its dreamy-eyed descendants."

—Noel Murray, The AV Club

Men at Work

CHARLIE SHEEN AND EMILIO ESTEVEZ ARE TWO GARBAGE MEN THAT KNOW WHEN SOMETHING SMELLS FUNNY!

With little respect for their superiors, and even less for the law, garbage collectors Charlie Sheen (Wall Street, Platoon) and Emilio Estevez (Young Guns, The Breakfast Club) have made trouble a way of life. Practical jokers with a gift for the truly twisted gag, the two pranksters glide through work with one eye on the ladies and the other on the surf shop they dream of owning. But their fun-loving life is turned upside down when they discover the corpse of a local politician - and realize they will be prime suspects. Pursued by both the police and the real killers, Sheen and Estevez know that to save their hides, they'll have to solve the case.

Hilarious supporting performances from Leslie Hope (Talk Radio), Keith David (They Live), Dean Cameron (Summer School) and Cameron Dye (Valley Girl) and an all-star soundtrack keeps things hot as they careen through kidnappings, car chases, and an unlikely romance, all in the name of justice... It's a dirty job, but someone's gotta do it!

PRESS

"The movie's desire to please is tireless, also engaging. Mr. Estevez's screenplay is not entirely coherent, but it has a number of comically crackpot lines."

—Vincent Canby, The New York Times

Metal Skin Panic MADOX-01

A young man activates mecha without reading the manual first, and finds himself late for a date, wildly overdressed, and being hunted by the Army.

In the first test of a revolutionary personal battle-suit, the MADOX-01, Ace female test-pilot Kusumoto Elle smashes an attacking tank force and humiliates Lt. Kilgore, Japan's most-macho tank-jockey, in the process. Kilgore swears he'll get even, and he gets his chance when the prototype MADOX literally falls off the back of a truck in the middle of Tokyo. Meanwhile, the MADOX, which fell off the back of one truck, off a bridge, and into the back of another truck, has found its way into the hands of college student Sugimoto Kōji. Intrigued by the MADOX, Kōji makes the big mistake of fooling with it without reading the manual first, and soon finds himself locked in the suit and zooming around downtown Tokyo. Unfortunately, the homing signal the now-active MADOX transmits results in a no-holds-barred response by Kilgore; even more unfortunately, even though Kōji doesn't know how to fight, the MADOX does a pretty good job on automatic (it's got "Full Self Driving" capability), resulting in a firefight the likes of which the local residents haven't seen since the last time Gogira hit town. Concerned about the property damage being caused to some of the world's most expensive real-estate, Elle dons a second prototype MADOX and tries to find and rescue Kōji before Kilgore's many minions totally trash Tokyo. And apart from the attempts to destroy the suit (and it's driver), Kōji has his own problems: if he breaks his date with his girlfriend, he will lose her forever -- and he's a tad overdressed for the occasion! Will Kōji be late for his date? Or will Kilgore make him "the late Kōji?" And more importantly, is it possible to eat Convenience Store shrimp in a battlesuit? The answers to these and many other questions await you in the 41 action-packed minutes of Metal Skin Panic: MADOX-01!

Anvil! The Story Of Anvil

At age 14, school friends Lips and Robb made a pact to rock together forever. 40 years later, they still haven't given up on their dream.

Forming the band Anvil in 1982, the duo released one of the heaviest albums of all time -- Metal on Metal -- influencing some of the biggest names in rock including Metallica, Slayer and Anthrax. But while those bands went on to sell millions of albums and achieve international fame, Anvil's career took a different path - straight to obscurity.

Until now...

Director Sacha Gervasi (Hitchcock) brings us Anvil! The Story of Anvil - a brilliant, achingly hilarious, and surprisingly touching documentary about Anvil's last-ditch quest for fame and fortune. He joins the band members, now in the 50's, as they perform all over the world, record a new album and struggle to make ends meet. Providing an intimate, insightful look into the band members' ever-supportive, yet long-suffering families, Anvil! The Story of Anvil is also a tale of survival - and the passion and drive it takes to follow your dream, year after year after year.

Kepi Ghoulie - Full Moon Forever Vinyl

Kepi Ghoulie (of the Groovie Ghoulies) has found his home on Pirates Press Records! Brand new album (with friends) bringing you some favorite songs!

Years of long backstage chats, between Kepi Ghoulie and Ara from The Slackers, revealed a common love of some of the "darker" songs of rock's pop, goth, and new wave eras... With 10 songs, including selections by The Cure, Nick Cave, Peter Murphy, Lou Reed and Iggy Pop, this project came together and it's their personal 'desert island disc' (and it's a great addition to the Kepi catalog)!
