WE'RE JAZZED ABOUT JANUARY!

Legendary jazz pianist Vince Guaraldi tickles the ivories and tickles your fancy with the complete score of BE MY VALENTINE, CHARLIE BROWN, released on vinyl and CD for the first time. Celebrating its 50th Anniversary of the TV special, BE MY VALENTINE, CHARLIE BROWN features the soundtrack, plus 8 never before heard bonus cuts. This release joins other recent Charlie Brown/Vince Guaraldi releases on LP and CD, freshly remastered with bonus material curated by Lee Mendelson Film Productions. Fall in love again with Sweet Babboo, the Peanuts characters and Vince Guaraldi's revered performance on BE MY VALENTINE, CHARLIE BROWN!

Outside of the realm of the Peanuts love bubble lives the 1969 film LOVE AND CRIME from 88 Films, a Japanese horror film of four tales of Crimes of Passion in a grotesque anthology. Charlie Brown may set your heart a flutter, but LOVE AND CRIME will rip your heart out! We love it all.

The Basterds are back, and no matter how you spell it, INGLOURIOUS BASTERDS arrives in 4K and bluray formats from Arrow Video. The Quentin Tarantino directed 2009 film stars Brad Pitt as one basterd who infiltrates the Nazis behind enemy lines, looking to blow up the regime, resulting in a shockingly different ending to what is written. Nominated for 8 Academy Awards, INGLOURIOUS BASTERDS is Tarantino rewriting history in his own pop-art 'cinophilia' style.

More zingers from Arrow are limited edition releases with bonus content, including Japanese horror from four filmmakers in RAMPO NOIR, William Shatner in the devil-may-card Satanic shocker INCUBUS and THE CELL, a Sci Fi thriller that puts you in the mind of a comatose killer!

Far from comatose are THE FABULOUS THUNDERBIRDS with a scorching 2006 show from Houston, released on BR and CD/DVD packages from Cleopatra. Wrap It Up, We'll Take It! Loudon Wainwright III is one timely folk/blues/comedy (!) artist, releasing a CD from a show from 2024 LOUDON LIVE IN LONDON. Favorites, new material and carefully chosen covers covers it. From the merch table to your shelf, previously only available at shows cassette tapes from THE OZARK MOUNTAIN DAREDEVILS of new material are now available on CD with NOW HEAR THIS!

Hear this-MVD January. A lot to get Jazzed about!

Apocryphal - Facing The End (Transparent Marbled Red & Black LP With printed inner sleeve Limited Edition) Vinyl

Bjorn "Speed" Strid doesn't need much to say. The way he spits the lyrics transforms the whole effort, sending it to the heavens. Apocryphal's return 25 years after their debut album "Black Dreams Of Silence" is done in a deafening way. When we first heard the new material, from the first notes of the opening song "Smells Like The End Of The World", it was like a bomb dropped in our offices. Aggressive, straight in your face melodic death metal at its best

A cauldron of gut-wrenching death metal and atmospheric black metal seen through the kaleidoscope lens of prog rock

Vrazorth, a cryptic force lurking in Sweden's black metal underworld, conjures chilling atmospheres that spiral through the infinite void. The solo project of Vra, shrouded in anonymity, blends icy riffs with cosmic dissonance, like the cold embrace of a forgotten star collapsing into darkness. Unholy whispers entwine with celestial screams, creating soundscapes that evoke a realm beyond time.

Isabelle Courroy - Un Éloge De L'Oblique CD

Isabelle Courroy, virtuoso of the kaval, a flute of Turkish-balkan origins, explores the possibilities of her instrument in several repertoires. Though modest and rustic in appearance, the kaval is not an easy instrument to handle; it takes all the delicacy and conviction of a true artist to master its ultimate subtleties. These qualities are put to good use here in the service of a kaleidoscopic inspiration, constantly renewed over the course of the pieces which are scattered throughout this album of a thousand oriental flavours.

"A Crimson Cosmos" is the pivotal point where Lake of Tears' doom metal was enriched, evolved and grafted with psychedelia, 1997. Just 2 years have passed since the magnificent "Headstones" and Lake of Tears release another historic album, somehow shocking audiences and journalists alike.

And if some thought that the "Lady Rosenred" EP that preceded the release of "A Crimson Cosmos" was something experimental that the band simply did as a break, then they were completely disproved.

Lord Agheros - Anhedonia CD

Mystic and esoteric Avantgarde Black Metal influenced by MOONSPELL, EMPYRIUM, WOLVES IN THE THRONE ROOM and ULVER

The perfect balance between these elements represents in sounds the essence of this decadent era.

LOUDON WAINWRIGHT III

LOUDON LIVE IN LONDON

In 2024, Loudon played a short residency at Nell's Jazz and Blues in London. Because the shows were being recorded, alongside some of his current favourites, he took the opportunity to include some brand-new material of his own and a few perfectly executed cover versions of songs by others that he has admired over the years.

The twenty-one tracks that made it onto this album make it an essential addition to the three previously released live albums that dot the discography of his fifty-plus-year recording career.

As can be expected, this is a fine example of the man doing what he does best. It is another chapter in this remarkable life that's been preserved to the artist's satisfaction to the extent that he is happy to share it with the world in the form of this commercial release.

Thy Kingdom Will Burn - The Loss And Redemption CD

Thousand lakes melodic death metal

Thy Kingdom Will Burn has definitely found a peculiar, moving voice. "The Loss And Redemption" is by far their most personal work: musically-wise, the album is massive, pitch-black dark, and beautifully melancholic at the same time - once again the guys have pushed themselves to the next level as songwriters and musicians.

Thy Legion - Grand Cosmic Funeral CD

In Grand Cosmic Funeral, we aimed to craft a melancholic album, providing a spiritual experience while retaining an extreme sound.

We aimed for the artwork to serve as a visual gateway, allowing listeners to instantly connect with the mood of the music. We wanted it to reflect the dark, cold, melancholic, and spiritual themes that run through the album, so that when people see the cover, they can almost feel the atmosphere and emotions the songs evoke

The 20-year-old signature sound makes a warm return on Tunng's eighth studio album, Love You All Over Again.

The 20-year-old signature sound makes a warm return on Tunng's eighth studio album, Love You All Over Again, a winning amalgam of texture and melody, disconcerting imagery and shapeshifting production. Rather than searching for a new avenue we went back to what we used to do, which after all this time, felt like it was a new avenue... Love You All Over Again is our way of coming full circle."

IMPACT (1949) [BLU-RAY + DVD COLLECTOR'S EDITION]

A unfaithful wife plots with her lover to kill her husband, but the lover is accidentally killed instead.

Millionaire industrialist, Walter Willams, has it all, power, money, success and a supposed, idyllic life with his young, beautiful wife, Irene. When a business trip to Denver arises, Walter decides to take his wife along, hoping to turn the scenic ride over the mountains via Lake Tahoe into a mini vacation. However, things begin to go awry when Irene claims she's ill and can't go but insists Walter give a ride to her poor "cousin," who is hitchhiking his way home to Evanston, Illinois. The "cousin" is actually Irene's lover, Jim Torrence, and he is there to carry out his and Irene's plot to murder Walter. But in a twist of fate, after Jim's attack upon Walter, and while Jim is fleeing the scene, he is killed in a head-on collision. Once the bloodied, very shaken, and very bewildered Walter awakens and pieces together what all had happened, he claims amnesia and goes into hiding, with the hope of somehow bringing Irene to justice.

"As far as 'modest' film noirs go, this is one of the best. A simple plot idea is twisted to the max for late 1940s audiences."

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF LAWN MOWER MAN, VIRTUOSITY & MAN-THING

Intensely grotesque and shocking as hell, Feed is a heavyweight thrill ride through the depths of depravity. A veteran of cyberporn investigations, Australian cop Philip Jackson, is no stranger to the dangerous side of sexual fetishes. He may have found his sickest case yet when he discovers a sinister side to an American website devoted to fat-admiring men and obese women called "feeders" and "gainers." Could the man behind it all be force-feeding missing women to death? Tense, dark and deeply disturbing, director Brett Leonard (The Lawnmower Man, Virtuosity, Man-Thing) takes the crime-thriller genre to a twisted, gut-wrenching new level.

Dark Sanctuary: The Story Of The Church

The story of the longest running goth club in the US and community of artists and misfits who call the Dallas TX club, The Church, their sanctuary.

A feature-length documentary about the historic Dallas, TX Goth club - The Church, Dark Sanctuary exposes the incredible, shocking history of one of the longest running goth clubs in the U.S. as well as the world-renowned artists who performed there.

Through interviews with world-famous music artists, local bands, and patrons, the film tells the story of the community that formed over nearly three decades of the legendary club's existence. The motto of The Church became "Enter Without Prejudice" meaning no matter who you are, how you look, how you dress, your sexuality, your gender identity, the color of your skin, your body type, all are welcome and embraced at The Church.

Follow DJ in residence, Joe Virus, on his journey from aspiring musician to headlining the main stage for over 20 years and through the events of the global epidemic which lead to a neighborhood buyout from a multimillion-dollar real estate company, threatening to claim the beloved building at 2424 Swiss Avenue.

Nadia

The true story of international soccer star, Nadia Nadim, who escaped Afghanistan to become one of the top women's strikers in the world.

How can you rebuild your life when you lose both a parent and your homeland forever at the age of 8? Nadia Nadim, whose father was killed by the Taliban in 2000, has embarked on such a quest. Her incredible journey - from her family's escape from war-torn Kabul to reaching the pinnacle of international soccer fame - is the stirring story that unfolds in the feature-length documentary, NADIA. Escaping Afghanistan with her mother and four sisters, the Nadim family traded danger for a life of relative peace in Denmark. It was here that a passion for soccer helped Nadia assimilate and thrive, eventually leading to her becoming a striker for Denmark's national team and Paris Saint-Germain, one of the most popular women's teams in the world. Now, having reached the top of her game, Nadia yearns to return to Afghanistan to uncover details about her father's fate. However, with the country still gripped by terrorism, she's forced to give up the trip. But with unshakable confidence, Nadia forges ahead with plans for the future: to become a reconstructive surgeon and transform people's lives. Nominated for an International Emmy Award for Best Sports Documentary, NADIA, from filmmaker Anissa Bonnefont (Wonder Boy) is an uplifting, inspirational and ultimately unforgettable story for our times.
