KEEP MVD WEIRD!

MVD's quest for weird is never in question, that's for sure! This month we unveil another in ARROW VIDEO's spectacular deluxe versions of classic cult films with WEIRD SCIENCE. Director John Hughes offers a hefty dose of wacked-out Sci-Fi in this 1985 film starring Kelly LeBrock and Robert Downey Jr. Being a nerd isn't so weird after Superwoman appears! Also available as a limited edition Steelbook. This summer, get blinded by WEIRD SCIENCE!

A sharp month for Arrow, with their redux of the 1978 rock movie FM, depicting the glory days of free form radio. Stars Martin Mull and Cleavon Little. Corporate greed infiltrates the airwaves, followed by rock and roll rebellion! Infectious soundtrack, featuring several surviving dinosaurs. Tune in, but don't tune out these other Arrow darts, including THE CHILL FACTOR ("snow, slaughter and Satan!"), THE LOVELESS (starring Willem Dafoe), and the drama of Olivia de Havilland in 1941's HOLD BACK THE DAWN. And we'd be weak not to mention the killer virus that infects the biological classic thriller THE ANDROMEDA STRAIN, released last month. Sick!

Two films that piggyback major studio summer releases are ADVENTURES OF SONIC THE HEDGEHOG, an animated 5 disc complete TV series with all 65 episodes on DVD. Perfect companion to the November release of SONIC THE HEDGEHOG movie, starring Jim Carrey. SCARY STORIES is a documentary film that chronicles the wildly successful SCARY STORIES TO TELL IN THE DARK book series, and will be a major movie this August. SCARY STORIES tells the REAL story!

THE PRETENDERS WITH FRIENDS is a live DVD/Blu-ray show. Chrissie Hynde and company are joined by Iggy Pop, Incubus, Kings of Leon and Shirley Manson. No pretending here, it's the real sh**! From BEAR FAMILY comes the CD SUN SHINES ON HANK WILLIAMS, which features Sun Records artists performing Hank tunes. On CD, THE MARVELOUS MRS. MAISEL: MUSIC INSPIRED BY THE TV SERIES is just that, and a whole lot more! Finally, the Wizards of Weird, PERE UBU bestow upon us a new CD and LP of synthesized sounds with THE LONG GOODBYE. With music as good as this, they can take as long as they need!

Ashen Horde - Fallen Cathedrals Vinyl

ASHEN HORDE strive to embrace a multitude of extreme metal sub-genres with their brand new album

Hailing from the cold, unforgiving wastelands of Hollywood, California, ASHEN HORDE is a two-piece band that strives to embrace a multitude of extreme metal sub-genres, without being bound to any one of them. Drawing influence from metal's crème de le extreme, from Enslaved and Devin Townsend to Inhahn and Opeth, ASHEN HORDE may have a sound rooted in death and black metal.

Besvarjelsen - Frost Vinyl

Sultry Swedish doom featuring haunting female vocals and the original rhythm section from Dozer!

When you combine the fuzz-riffing swing of classic stoner rock with haunting female vocals and set the whole thing in the heart of a dark, wintery Scandinavian forest, you get Besvärjelsen. Fresh from the success of their 2018 debut album and a coveted slot opening for legends Deep Purple, this 5-song mini-album levels the band up to look their peers in Windhand and Lucifer straight in the face.

Elder - The Gold & Silver Sessions Vinyl

An experimental LP of ranging, krautrock-style jams that dramatically expands the Elder sound from its stoner/doom roots

Capturing Elder's expanding dynamic and ongoing progression, The Gold & Silver Sessions is an experimental LP of ranging psychedelic jams that captures their expressive and nuanced development in a way a "regular" studio release wouldn't. This is still the band who put out 2017's crushing "Reflections of a Floating World," but following their imagination in an entirely new direction.

M Sage - Catch A Blessing Vinyl

Chicago ambient producer Matthew Sage brings a second LP of rustically urban(e) plunderphonics on Geographic North. "Catch a Blessing" shows Matthew Sage in a impulsive light. Where past work existed in space that was cerebral, meditated, and composed, the music here is more natural, playful, and effort-less. Opting for chance and the unknown rather than rules and conceptual rigor, Sage "practiced" an amorphous technique that led to profound moments of accidental, unplanned beauty.

She Past Away - Disko Anksiyete (limited Edition Black Vinyl) Vinyl

Disko Anksiyete blends melancholic dark-wave with an 80's influence, post-punk & minimalist poetry in sung Turkish. She Past Away presents the beautifully melancholic new album Disko Anksiyete. This unique act blends dark-wave with an 80's influence, post-punk era guitars with minimalist poetry in sung Turkish. She Past Away is a driving, mesmerizing outburst of sentimental anxiety through the nihilistic mind-frame, it is both personal & broad, like a wandering mind brave enough to question taboo existence.

Jessica Heine - Goodbye Party Vinyl

Singer/songwriter Jessica Heine threads gossamer cords between all she has lost, finding regrowth, born in the aftermath

Singer/songwriter Jessica Heine's voice shakes rooms. Yet on her third album, Goodbye Party, her power is tampered by loss. With fragility, she opens up about her personal grief, threading gossamer cords between her painful divorce, unexpected death and regrowth born in the aftermath. Heine's voice may not quake the room in Goodbye Party, but she harnesses powers that shake the soul much deeper.

Lividity - To Desecrate And Defile Vinyl

The fourth full length album by the US deathers Lividity. First time released on black vinyl.

The 4th full length album by the US deathers Lividity. The band sounds better than ever before, with a good, vibrant thrust to the album that delivers their typical debauchery. Lividity created a caustic atmosphere of grinding guitars, simple grooves that become incredibly infectious with freshly bloodied surgical blade. Released for the first time on standard black vinyl, gatefold format.

Leonard Cohen - The Lost Sessions CD

Early BBC Recordings Made By Leonard Cohen In 1968

Shortly after releasing his debut album, in January '68, Cohen was the special musical guest on the BBC's Julie Felix Show, he performed 3 songs, one of which was a duet with Felix. Further BBC performances came later in 1968, when Leonard recorded a BBC special, broadcast in two parts as 'Leonard Cohen Sings Leonard Cohen'. All these BBC recordings are now included on this superb CD release.

Coma - Disorder CD

Thrash tradition with modern elements from Sardinia!

Coma is a Thrash Metal band from Sardinia. Their debut, "Mindless", was released in 2013 via Punishment 18 Records. This new album was mixed by Riccardo Atzeni, mastered by Ettore Rigotti (Disarmonia Mundi, Destrage), and sees the collaboration of Craig Locicero from Forbidden on the song "Again". More powerful than ever, you can hear now in this new chapter!

Giovanni Costello & SWR Big Band - True Italian Stories CD

Italian Songs and Big Band sound with an outstanding singer

Giovanni Costello makes a "bella figura" in every way. He elegantly combines canzone, soul and jazz - his role models are Rossini, Verdi and Puccini, Nat "King" Cole, Tony Bennett and Frank Sinatra on the other. After numerous concerts and tours he feels more mature and more philosophical, as he says, something that "is also reflected in the lyrics". He interprets "True Italian Stories" credibly.

Thomas Dahl & Court - Quilter CD

Exciting music with lines and layers that exposes something new with each listen

For the listener, the different musicians move in and out of focus, not primarily by what they are playing, but by how we as listeners decide to listen. It is not that the music feels "visual" - calling the sounds a picture is a metaphor - it is rather that the compositions give themselves to being listened to with different entry-points.

Dave Robbins Sextet - Joan Of Art CD

In hard swinging fashion Dave Robbins and his sextet come together to pay tribute to a patron of Vancouver Jazz, Joan.

For 20 years Joan has been a major contributor to many things jazz in Vancouver, BC, Canada. Having a special affinity for drummer Dave Robbins, she offered Dave an opportunity to do a recording. The 11 tunes on the aptly titled Joan of Art - all but two composed by Dave - exemplify what Joan and any fan of intensely swinging and vigorously expressive jazz loves. Hard swinging and straight ahead!

Down Home Blues: Chicago Volume 2 Sweet Home Chicago

Second volume 5CD collection of Chicago blues music, produced in a deluxe digipak with 94 page book

*Down Home Blues: Sweet Home Chicago is the second volume of Chicago Blues post war down home blues music from Wienerworld, recorded from the mid-1940s through the golden decade years of the 1950s up to the early 1960s

*Features 46 artists who were influential in developing the Chicago blues scene including Chuck Berry, Bo Diddley, Elmore James, Howling Wolf and Jimmy Rogers.

*A five CD set, packaged in a deluxe digipak with an outer slip case, featuring 135 tracks all remastered and including alternate takes of well-known recordings. All unissued and alternate take records are from Peter Moody's private collection, many of which are otherwise unavailable

*Includes an outstanding 94 page book, featuring a new essay by renowned blues historian Mike Rowe on the post war Chicago scene; over fifty rare period photographs illustrate the essay throughout; full track details, as well as full sessionography. A feature page section on some of the artists and a five page gallery of original 78 and 45 record labels

Continuing the mix of well-known artists to the lesser-known, all the recordings are prime Chicago masterworks. With big hitters like Muddy Waters, Little Walter and Sonny Boy Williamson, all their tracks are alternate takes or originally unissued masters by the record companies, most of which are currently not available on release. Mixing with these three there are many more stars of this down home genre including Albert King, Jimmy Reed and Memphis Minnie, again with alternate recordings of their best well-known music. In this golden age of blues, there were so many superb recordings being made it was impossible to issue many of them into the singles record buying market place. Eventually when the new long playing albums began to surface they began to cater for this wealth of music when recording in later years.

SALES POINTS

Fred Frith - Woodwork/Live At Ateliers Claus CD

First guitar solo album by Fred Frith since 1981's legendary Live In Japan!

Fred Frith is one of the most important musicians of our time. In 1974 Fred Frith released his landmark album Guitar Solos, a glimpse into what he had been doing with his guitar. It was improvised and recorded within four days and presented an experimental and innovative way of playing the instrument. Now, in 2019 we are proud to present you a new solo guitar album, recorded live in concert.

Trey Galyon - Live At Creep Records CD

Trey Galyon 'Live at Creep Records' is a nod to the comedy albums of old. Recorded at the Creep Records store/smoke shop

Trey Galyon 'Live at Creep Records' is a nod to the comedy albums of old. Recorded at the Creep Records store and smoke shop, Trey Galyon gives you a glimpse into the true experience of live comedy, which is less often set in large theaters, more often takes place in front of an intimate crowd. Sometimes awkward, it is also raw and honest comedy.

Heathen Apostles - Dust To Dust CD

Gothic Americana & Murder Ballads: Dig the grave a little deeper

"I truly dove in head-first on this album, building complex and layered vocal harmonies as a complement to the musical arrangements. Just as the best movies inspire multiple viewings, I sought to create melodies that invite the listener back to hear more and more of the song unfold. With Dust To Dust, we dug the grave a little deeper sonically, but we think you'll enjoy falling in" Mather (voc)

Jessica Heine - Goodbye Party CD

Singer/songwriter Jessica Heine threads gossamer cords between all she has lost, finding regrowth, born in the aftermath

Singer/songwriter Jessica Heine's voice shakes rooms. Yet on her third album, Goodbye Party, her power is tampered by loss. With fragility, she opens up about her personal grief, threading gossamer cords between her painful divorce, unexpected death and regrowth born in the aftermath. Heine's voice may not quake the room in Goodbye Party, but she harnesses powers that shake the soul much deeper.

Sun Shines On Hank Williams: Sun Artists Sing The Songs Of Hank Williams

1-CD with 28-page booklet, 26 tracks. Total playing time approx. 57:41 minutes

Well-known titles combined with several unreleased alternate versions and demos!

Extensive liner notes by Hank Davis, carefully remastered for the best possible sound.

Hank Williams died too soon to know about Sun Records, but the folks at Sun surely knew about him. This CD collects for the first time the response to Hank Williams by Sun Records artists and producers.

We present issued records by major artists (Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis) - as well as lesser known Sun lights (Sonny Burgess, Warren Smith, Carl Mann) - along with originally unissued alternate takes, undubbed recordings and demos. It's quite a range: male and female, black and white - they all took on Hank Williams. Sixteen different artists singing 16 different songs. Twenty-six tracks in total. The contrast is amazing.

You'll also hear some candid moments of Sam Phillips working as a producer in the studio. And there's a memorable bit of egotistical comedy as Jerry Lee Lewis, in discussion with Phillips, wants to take credit for writing a Hank Williams song.

A unique collection showing the impact of Williams on Sun Records in the ten years following the singer's death in 1953.

Min Hye-sung & Gyun Eun-kyung - The Tale Of Lady Sugyeong (Pansori) CD

Pansori is a traditional Korean art in which an actor speaks, acts, sings a lengthy tale, accompanied only by a drummer.

While today only five "classical" pansoris remain, this sixth pansori was resuscitated at the end of the 20th century by national treasure Mrs Pak Song-Hee (1927-2017) who had only received the second half of the work. She reconstituted the entire beginning and transmitted her work to her young disciple Min Hye-Sung, who today is its sole depository. This recording is a world premiere.

Daniel Kobialka - Bach Your Baby To Sleep CD

It is thought that babies use the consistent patterns in Bach's compositions to recognize the patterns in their lives.

If one listens carefully, one can identify the manner in which Bach incorporates mathematics into his music. Studies of his compositions demonstrate his calculated approach to composing. Following Bach's lead, Daniel Kobialka's interpretations of works found in this album will not only encourage this activity but also will assist in relaxing both infants and toddlers.

Miserable Failure - Unheimlich CS

Nihilistic, Chaotic and Blasphemous Grindcore.

As short as brutal, as nihilistic as its legendary vocalist is now dead, as putrid as the smell of a corpse rotting, "Unheimlich" is the ultimate testimony of all the chaos, nihilism and hate Miserable Failure was all about. RIP, Mika Bleu. Gone, but never forgotten.

Monkey House - Friday CD

Friday is more than just a collection of songs - it's a fully formed compelling work of art. Their strongest release yet

Sophisticated musicianship, imaginative lyrics, and a flair for melody are signatures of the sound of Monkey House, a sound that has earned the group serious critical acclaim, peer respect, and a steadily expanding international following. Those characteristics are again evident on Friday, set for release on ALMA Records July 26, 2019.

Monkey House - Friday

Friday is more than just a collection of songs - it's a fully formed compelling work of art. Their strongest release yet

Sophisticated musicianship, imaginative lyrics, and a flair for melody are signatures of the sound of Monkey House, a sound that has earned the group serious critical acclaim, peer respect, and a steadily expanding international following.

Those characteristics are again evident on "Friday", on ALMA Records. It is the fifth full-length release from the L.A./Toronto combo that has just celebrated the notable milestone of 25 years of playing together.

Adding to the comfort level in the studio for the recording of Friday was the return of the team of co-producer Peter Cardinali and engineer John 'Beetle' Bailey, reprising their roles from previous Monkey House records. Cardinali also plays bass on four tracks.

All but two of the tracks on Friday are solo Don Breithaupt compositions. "Book Of Liars", is a cover of a song by Steely Dan's Walter Becker. "As a lifelong Steely Dan fan, Walter's death hit me hard," says Don. "I thought it'd be a nice gesture to do one of his."

This generous 12-song collection sounds cohesive, while possessing enough musical twists and turns to keep things interesting.

As has become the norm on MH records, Friday features some notable guests. Guitarist Drew Zingg (Boz Scaggs) and trumpeter Michael Leonhart (Steely Dan) have guested on previous albums and make tasteful contributions here, as does François D'Amours (Gino Vannelli), and Snarky Puppy guitarist Mark Lettieri. Ground Up artist Lucy Woodward (Rod Stewart) adds background vocals throughout, while famed vocal quartet The Manhattan Transfer add their magic to the choruses of "The Jazz Life." It's hard to mistake the sound of those four incredible voices together."

Don notes, "I have a tradition of having at least one poppy, quirky, outlier track on an album. This time, it's '(I Wanna Ride) Shotgun,' which is designed to be fun and funky and stick in people's heads." It's a tune as warm and breezy as a Malibu drive in a vintage convertible.

Obnosticon - Benderschwartz Rising CD

Obnosticon - Benderschwartz Rising EP is a progressive, musical, and punk rock masterpiece.

Obnosticon is a 4-piece progressive punk band from Austin TX featuring Carolyn Cremona (Brown Whorenet) on Vocals, Guitar, Saxophone and Glockenspiel. With Glam and Metal leanings, songs like "Stable Genius" strike a familiar, sarcastic chord with the current 2019 political climate in America. "Babyman" sings the words muttered by many women in the world who are fed up with the men in their life.

Resurrected - Fierce CD

The music is fierce and tenacious, living up to the title of the album. Aggressive, but within a solid structure.

The music here is fierce and tenacious, living up to the title of the album. Performed aggressively, but within solid structure. The band put together blast beats in a fashion that is appealing and doesn't become monotonous. They are able to avoid the potential of becoming generic for the most part. In fact, there's a solid cover of "Day of Suffering" to be found.

She Past Away - Disko Anksiyete CD

Disko Anksiyete blends melancholic dark-wave with an 80's influence, post-punk & minimalist poetry in sung Turkish.

She Past Away presents the beautifully melancholic new album Disko Anksiyete. This unique act blends dark-wave with an 80's influence, post-punk era guitars with minimalist poetry in sung Turkish. She Past Away is a driving, mesmerizing outburst of sentimental anxiety through the nihilistic mind-frame, it is both personal & broad, like a wondering mind brave enough to question taboo existence.

Two years back Mark Sherry had his humanity questioned. Nobody - least of all he - could have known it'd trip off his first artist album. Clicking a captcha to 'confirm' his 'humanity' was an innocuous, seemingly fleeting moment. Everything that followed that, well, markedly less so. Over the following minutes, hours, days & weeks he returned to the question with ever-increasing interest.

Suneaters - Suneaters III: Unfathomable Darkness CD

With a black belt in earnestness and buffoonery (Idiot's Guide to Westerberg), a tribute to guitar and harmony!

Sporting swagger copped from classic rock transmitters, Suneaters, with a black belt in earnestness and buffoonery (The Idiot's Guide to Westerberg), are devotees to guitar and harmony. Much guitar. Cavemous guitar. Immediate. When coupled with a thump and a crack, some ethereal touches, slippery words, a jigger of pain, and a drop of fear, we see that, as the dude sings, it'll be all right.

Hail Mary!

Get Ready for the SUMO Bowl...

There has never been a football team like the Maine Lobsters! There will never be again! What does it take to turn a losing pro-football team around? Sumo wrestlers protecting the champion quarterback? Come on!?! In an act of desperation, the coach (Eddie Mekka aka The Big Ragu) of The Maine Lobsters, a pro football team that has lost 32 games in a row, travels to Japan to buy a school of sumo wrestlers. His intention? To bring the humongous wrestlers back to Portland to replace his inept offensive line. The key wrestler is played by Yama (Zoolander 2). Hail Mary! is unusually produced with a combination of hilarious live action and uniquely developed brush-stroke animation. The football sequences were filmed on green-screen and back-dropped into the Buffalo Bills Ralph Wilson Stadium, Sumo cheerleaders, fans and all! There's never been a "family football comedy" like Hail Mary! There will never be again! "Will become a cult hit" - Marty Meltz, film critic, Portland Press Herald and Maine Sunday Telegram

BONUS MATERIALS

- Song and Lyrics for 'The Acorn Song', a traditional Japanese Nursery Rhyme (Audio File)
- 'Sushi Tushi' Comic Book Teaser
- Original Movie Trailer

SALES POINTS

- Stars Eddie Mekka... 'The Big Ragu' from Laverne and Shirley
- Stars Sumo Wrestler Yama... from Zoolander 2
- Appeals to lovers of underdogs and fans of such family sports films as The Bad News Bears, Rudy, Crooked Arrows, Hoosiers, The Replacements, The Sandlot and The Waterboy
- Appeals to animation enthusiasts as it makes great use of Brush-Stroke Animation sequences to further the comedy and absurdity of the storyline.
- Perfect for fans of pro football and sumo wrestling, popcorn and hot dogs :)

PRESS

"Will become a cult hit...Superb sense of comic irony and creative situations to move the plot. Intro of Sumos to the art of the sport provides very good humor, very funny."

—Marty Meltz, Portland Press Herald and Maine Sunday Telegram

"Presents a total departure from the current crop of motion pictures. It relies heavily on strong visuals and a distinctive visual style. Simply put, the story-line is exceptionally funny with huge commercial potential."

—Ron Draper Cinematographer (Halloween 5, Spitfire)

"A killer idea here. First, it's fun, crazy, fantastical energy. It reminds me a bit of 'Shaolin Soccer', which I loved. This world isn't constrained by the rules that govern ours. Their sports prowess is so great as to transcend the boundaries of physics..."

—Colin Theys, Film Director

"Funniest sports' comedy I've ever read"

—Kimberly Pettit, Momentum Entertainment

Shiraz: A Romance Of India

A historical romance set in the Mughal Empire and shot in India, it tells the dramatic love story behind the Taj Mahal

A historical romance set in the Mughal Empire. Selima (Enakshi) is a princess-founding raised by a potter and loved by her brother, Shiraz (Rai). She is abducted and sold as a slave to Prince Khurram, later Emperor Shah Jehan (Roy), who falls for her, to the chagrin of the wily Dalia (Seeta Devi). When Selima is caught with Shiraz, the young man is condemned to be trampled to death by an elephant. A pendant reveals Selima's royal status and she saves her brother, marries the prince and becomes Empress Mumtaz Mahal while Dalia is banned for her machinations against Selima. When Selima dies (1629), the emperor builds her a monument to the design of the now old and blind Shiraz, the Taj Mahal.

Based on the romance between 17th-century Mughal ruler Shah Jahan and his queen, this epic silent film is the ravishing, romantic tale behind the creation of one of the world's most iconic structures: the Taj Mahal.

Shot entirely on location in India, it features lavish costumes and gorgeous settings - all the more impressive in this 2K restoration by the BFI National Archive which features a specially commissioned score by the Grammy Award-winning Anoushka Shankar.

Produced by and starring Indian film legend Himansu Rai, the film is performed by an all-Indian cast, featuring Rai as humble potter Shiraz, who follows his childhood sweetheart Selima (Enakshi Rama Rau) when she's sold by slave traders to the future emperor (Charu Roy).

BONUS MATERIALS

- Music of India featurette

SALES POINTS

- An Indian/British/German co-production shot on location in India by star and producer Himansu Rai based on Indian classical legend / story.

- First time ever available on home video (and on HD) in North America!

PRESS

"For this sumptuous fictional reworking of the romantic origins of the Taj Mahal does not stint on scale. Blessed with a cast of literal thousands, not to mention camels, elephants and horses without number, this film is more than set in 17th century India, it transports you back to that time and place."

—Kenneth Turan, LA Times

"I'll never forget the first time I saw 'Shiraz,' and if you take a chance and take in this gorgeous silent extravaganza, a landmark of Indian cinema, you will surely feel the same."

—Kenneth Turan, LA Times

"A startlingly ambitious epic."

—Peter Bradshaw, The Guardian

Dude Bro Party Massacre III

Don't Let A Bro See It Alone!

A satirical twist on the gory and sexually charged 1980's slasher genre, Dude Bro Party Massacre III is presented as the only surviving VHS copy of the reviled horror franchise's third, and final, installment. In the wake of two back-to-back mass murders on Chico's frat row, loner Brent Chirino must infiltrate the ranks of a popular fraternity to investigate his twin brother's murder at the hands of the serial killer known as Motherface. As they are picked off one by one, Brent and his fellow Dude Bros must face the terrifying reality that their deadly foe, believed to have been killed (twice!), has returned from the grave (again!), and is hell-bent on the destruction of the Delta Bis.
