Aggressive Perfector - Havoc At The Midnight Hour Vinyl

Evil heavy metal debut by the three piece from the UK. Bringing together the best from Heavy, Speed and Black Metal.

Havoc At The Midnight Hour, finds the English trio in resolutely evil form as they take a major step forward on their path of destruction. Summoning the ghosts of Metal past - Tank, Slayer, Venom and Mercyful Fate all playing a part- Havoc... fixates on the nuclear fury of an apocalyptic future, from which it culls new ways to pervert the course of heavy metal in the present.

Blackevil - Forever Baptised In Eternal Fire Vinyl

BLACKEVIL stay true to their roots yet transcend black/thrash with a new level of epicness.

Hailing from Germany, BLACKEVIL have been forging fire since 2013. Now BLACKEVIL's breakout moment arrives with their long-awaited second album, Forever Baptised in Eternal Fire. Never betraying their roots - whether it's the German thrash or evil speed metal legends like Razor and Exciter, they have managed to transcend black thrash altogether and make something more epic out of it.

Brucecampbell - South To No Life Vinyl

Blasting, furious grindcore that leaves you drooling over that new blu-ray disc you just picked up, of that new favorite horror movie. Based in LA, this is BRUCECAMPBELL's initial full length and it does not disappoint. Fast leads, pounding drum lines, blood inducing growls and howls. Do yourself a favor and appreciate the maniacs of LA. Limited to 250 on Mixed / Random colored vinyl!

Bunker 66 - Beyond The Help Of Prayers Vinyl

Black Thrash infused with the right dose of heavy metal.

Since 2007, Italy's BUNKER 66 have been proudly (and prolifically) flying the flag of thrashing '80s metalpunk, all in the beloved power-trio format. Of course, the joint influence of Motörhead and Venom looms large, but equally so do homeland heroes Bulldozer, the UK's Warfare, early Running Wild, early Bathory and Slayer, later Anti-Cimex and any '80s recordings from Discharge and Exciter.

Ron Carter & Russell Malone - Golden Striker Vinyl

Legendary performance of Maestro Carter for the first time completely available on Vinyl. Audiophile Gem!

Music on tiptoes, during which your interior light is automatically dimmed, you heartbeat slows down and notes float like feathers through the room. This wooden body in the center of the stage leads a life like no other from the guild in addition to the obligatory walking bass. That's great, subtle art.

Ray Charles - Greatest Hits Vinyl (Reissue)

The absolute greatest hits from all-time legend Ray Charles perfectly restored and pressed on 180 gram vinyl.

The term 'legend' is used all too loosely in this day and age, but in Ray Charles, modern music has someone it can proudly label one of culture's true geniuses. This album contains his absolute greatest hits including "Hit The Road Jack," "Georgia On My Mind," "Unchain My Heart," and "One Mint Julep." Perfectly restored and pressed on 180 gram audio-grade vinyl.

Coltre - Under The Influence Vinyl

They sound like a relic from the original NWOBHM with their dark 'n' mysterious riffs and pivotal rock 'n' roll thrust.

Rough and rustic but brimming with an authentically ancient fire, Under the Influence is moody metallic majesty: dark 'n' mysterious riffs, portentously galloping rhythms, epic-yet-direct compositions, and the sage-like pipes of Stagma atop it all. One could be mistaken for thinking COLTRE were some unearthed relic from the original NWOBHM movement.

Steve Dawson - At The Bottom Of A Canyon In The Branches Of A Tree Vinyl

Acclaimed Chicago singer/songwriter Steve Dawson's first solo record for Pravda Records.

Steve's new album carries on the thrilling progression of Dawson's recent work. His songwriting continues to grow in depth and lyricism while his voice has never sounded more rich or resonant. The album's twelve songs tie together the American musical influences that span his life: the late 60's/early 70's folk-rock of California and the blues, gospel, and soul of Chicago, where he resides.

Deathstorm - For Dread Shall Reign Vinyl

Their 4th album, lingering between aggressive mid/late 80s thrash and early '90s death metal.

Without doubt, the spectre of classic Kreator looms large over DEATHSTORM still - and why should it not, when you're doing deaththrash this devastating' - but with For Dread Shall Reign, the band bring forth a whole host of equally classic contours. From very old Metallica to equally old Slayer on to '80s Death and especially Demolition Hammer, DEATHSTORM here hammer out riffs, riffs, RIFFS!

Dog Heaven - Dog Heaven Vinyl

Dog Heaven takes the typical punk rock formula and puts it into a blender chock full of noise and feedback.

Dog Heaven is a record that takes the aspects of the typical punk rock formula and puts them into a blender chock full of noise and feedback. Equally driven by dissonant, angular guitar riffs and nasty bass lines, it is also carried by sardonic lyrics by way of a gruff vocal delivery.

Early Moods - Spellbound Vinyl

True HEAVY DOOM that doesn't step past 1980 with its molten grooves and bewitching atmosphere.

Hailing from Los Angeles, EARLY MOODS' goal has been simple yet sturdy: to pay homage to such classic bands as Candlemass, Witchfinder General, Pentagram, Trouble, and the almighty Black Sabbath. This is tried-and-true HEAVY DOOM that doesn't step past 1980! Not for nothing are EARLY MOODS monikered as such, for they stand for proto-doom and its eventual genesis into traditional doom.

Eisenhand - Fires Within Vinyl

Austrian ancient sounding heavy metal with lots to discover.

EISENHAND are a relatively new entity hailing from Austria. EISENHAND's sound recalls the pre-thrash days of heavy metal: whether the style was early power metal or belatedly-applied epic metal or simply speed metal straight from the garage. Names invoked include Gotham City, Bashful Alley, Brocas Helm, Kat, Turbo, as well labelmates like MEGATON SWORD, SANDSTORM, COLTRE and MIDNIGHT PREY

Escumergament - ...ni Degu Fazentz Escumergament E Mesorga... Vinyl

Swedish black metal from the '90s

Escumergament is the latest addition to the Avantgarde Music roster, a newborn band hiding long-standing musicians from the Swedish black metal scene, with an essential, old-school approach. We may dwell on pretentious descriptions trying to explain why their debut... ni degu fazentz escumergament e mesorga... is worth your time.

Essenger - After Dark Vinyl

The pioneering synthwave artist's debut on deluxe, heavyweight, limited edition, color vinyl.

After Dark is the breakout debut album from pioneering synthwave artist Essenger. By building cinematic synthscapes with a dark, futuristic edge and infusing them with personal lyrics and songwriting touches, Essenger has crafted an immersive and beautifully produced recording that is unlike anything else in the synthwave genre to date.

Gosudar - Morbid Despotism Ritual Vinyl

Debut full length of supremely crafted death metal morbidity from Russia.

With gut-churning vocals and seaisk serpentine riffage, Gosudar wind their way through twisted, psychotic arrangements, while never sacrificing their oppressive heaviness for technicality, nor disregarding the sheer power of a razor-sharp hook. It's a cyclonic style of death metal chaos crucial for fans of Dead Congregation, Mortiferum, and Incantation

Hammers Of Misfortune - The Bastard Vinyl

Vinyl re-release of an underground classic that set the standard for genre-defying, forward-thinking metal!

Twenty years after its original release, Hammers of Misfortune's classic The Bastard debut is getting the vinyl treatment, complete with never-before-seen artwork and a new mastering job!

Hexenbrett - Erste Beschwörung Vinyl

Eerie debut output by the entity called Hexenbrett. Black/Heavy metal, 4 tracks, now also available on CD.

HEXENBRETT is an entity that provides cemetery sounds exclusively. The first invocation, fittingly entitled Erste Beschwörung, is a sample of what will follow in the future. Roaming ancient dungeons with sword in one hand and torch in the other, HEXENBRETT conjures the madness of olde-worlde black metal, when unorthodoxy was celebrated and no blueprints yet existed - only paths to be blazed!

Hexenbrett - Zweite Beschwörung: Ein Kind Zu Toten Vinyl

Disturbing Cemetery Sounds inspired by the likes of Jean Rollin, Varathron, Danzig, Goblin and Van Halen.

"Cemetery sounds" is what the band called their music, but that only told half the story. Wild and wily, HEXENBRETT unloaded a dizzying payload of sounds both traditional and unorthodox, dumping into its hot-rockin' cauldron spices from first-wave black metal, Iron Curtain-era speed metal, outsider doom, and even old-school deathrock.

Iron Curtain - Danger Zone Vinyl

The long awaited 4th album by the Spanish heavy/speed metal machine. Each record keeps getting better!

Forged in the fires of the early '80s, IRON CURTAIN's sound set forth a smorgasboard of grit and gleam equally, largely nodding to the eternal Motörhead as well as Tank, but also Exciter to cult icons Savage Grace. Scaling back the speed that characterized the band earlier on, here do IRON CURTAIN work the sweet-spot mid-tempo, maximizing space and shade within these overtly more melodic gems.

King Of Dub Rock Vol. 3 Vinyl

King of the Dub Rock 3 is an essential companion for all Coxsones fans wanting to complete the trilogy.

Lloyd Coxson, began his career in the 60's soon after arriving from Jamaica. He was one of the first soundmen to play at West End clubs where a generation of stars like the Beatles and the Rolling Stones first heard music from Jamaica. Sir Coxson sound then dominated the seventies, when Bob Marley & Dennis Brown were among his greatest allies, as heard on unforgettable dub-plates from that era.

Paul Kuhn & John Clayton - The L.A. Session (Deluxe Edition) Vinyl

This first U.S. recording by German jazz legend Paul Kuhn happened to be his last one and became a dignified heritage

In November 2011 Paul Kuhn travelled to the legendary Capitol studios in L.A. where he was taken care of by the sevenfold Grammy award-winner Al Schmitt, sound engineer for Henry Mancini's "Breakfast At Tiffany's". In this magical place, Kuhn sang into the same microphone as Frank Sinatra had once done and was backed by drummer Jeff Hamilton and bassist John Clayton.

Lebrock - Real Thing/Action & Romance Vinyl

Both hit Lebrock albums on vinyl for the first time, combining '80s melodic rock riffs and shimmering synthwave melodies

Synthwave rockers LeBrock brought a fresh sound to the genre with their first two albums, 2016's "Action & Romance" and 2018's "Real Thing." Now, these beloved recordings are being combined and released on vinyl for the very first time! This special edition includes both hit albums in vinyl form, packaged together for maximum listening enjoyment.

Lucifuge - Infernal Power Vinyl

Evil black thrash metal for hellish maniacs.

Lucifuge's fourth album is all headbanging and boozy to the bitter end black thrash material, and Infernal Power palatably exudes a startling professionalism usually elusive to those flying the metalpunk banner. LUCIFUGE hail bands such as Inepny as easily as those Exciter or the almighty Warfare and Onslaught UK.

Lycia - Casa Luna 10" Vinyl

US pioneers of darkwave gothic are back with a new ep

Anyone with the slightest interest in darkwave music and the goth counterculture is familiar with Lycia. Born in Tempe, AZ, in 1988 from the creative mind of Mike VanPortfleet, Lycia is as seminal and influential as a band can get. Devoted to cold, somber and synthetic sounds, these pioneers of the ethereal are responsible for some of the most acclaimed underground albums of the '90s.

Magia Nera - L'ultima Danza Di Ophelia Vinyl

Psychedelic/progressive hardrock from Italy! Magia Nera was founded in 1969 and remained active till 1973

One of the reasons for the band to break up was that the members were discouraged after their van caught fire, destroying the tapes that were recorded for the debut-album. Some 44 years later most of the musicians got back together to re-record the old material, thus making the dream of Magia Nera (in English that is Black Magic) come true after all.

MP - Bursting Out (The Beast Became Human) Vinyl

Finally back! German Heavy Speed Metal from 1986.

Originally released in 1986 Bursting Out was the first record of Germany's MP. As such, it retains all the electricity and urgency of youth. It also upholds Germany's rich heritage of heavy metal, which spanned the early hot-rockin' throes of post-NWOBHM to the nascent rumblings of speed metal. The original album with 5 live bonus tracks.

MP - Get It Now Vinyl

Finally back on vinyl! German Heavy Speed Metal from 1987.

Originally released in 1987 Get It Now, was the second record of Germany's MP. A year after their debut, the power-trio unleashed a more finessed follow-up. While the band hardly wavered in their approach between the two albums - still spanning the early hot-rockin' throes of post-NWOBHM to the nascent rumblings of speed metal MP here focused their songwriting into a more streamlined push.

Significant Point - Into The Storm Vinyl

A great, varied mix of classic heavy and speed metal with high pitched vocals - from Japan.

Fittingly bearing the title Into the Storm, SIGNIFICANT POINT's debut album is indeed a monsoon of heavy metal mayhem, spanning traditional and epic styles to speed metal and even early power metal. The band live and breathe heavy metal in all its classicist forms, and the quintet know the intrinsic power of hooks and especially variety, both of which are found bountifully across Into the Storm.

Small Reactions play situational pop songs. Minimal instrumentation of guitar, bass, vintage organs, and drums.

Small Reactions play situational pop songs. Relying on the minimal instrumentation of guitar, bass, vintage organs, and drums, the quartet is equal parts post-punk, new wave, and surf. The band themselves prefer the term "nerve pop" to describe their music. The phrase comprises the frenetic energy of the late 70s new wavers and Bob Dylan's shaky foot circa 1965.

Roy Brooks: Understanding

180 GRAM VINYL, 3xLP / MVD AUDIO / SKU: RTRLP007 / UPC: 875531019438 / SRP: $55.99

Features a full performance by great musicians at their peak, providing a "you are there" experience of the excitement of great music and an appreciative crowd. Mastered from the original tape reels by Kevin Gray, the limited-edition 180-gram 3LP set includes an extensive booklet with rare photos, plus interviews with Carlos Garnett and Cecil McBee. Award winning arts journalist and critic Mark Stryker contributes the main essay as well as remembrances by American journalist, educator, author, activist and friend of Roy Brooks, Herb Boyd, alto saxophone legend Charles McPherson who grew up with Roy Brooks, Louis Hayes who got Roy the gig with Horace Silver and more. The project came about as a desire by Reel to Real Recordings to make a positive contribution to Black Lives Matter. Understanding is our celebration of the talent, courage and spirit of the Black musicians who created a timeless and universal art, with the recognition that the injustices of 50 years ago are still with us. All proceeds from album sales will go directly to The Detroit Sound Conservancy. The album is produced with the cooperation of Cecil McBee and Carlos Garnett and the estates of Roy Brooks, Harold Mabern and Woody Shaw.

ABOUT THE ARTIST: In his younger days in Detroit, Brooks started off drumming with Yusef Lateef. He played with Horace Silver from 1959-64, including on the album Song for My Father; in 1963 he released his first album as a leader. Following this he freelanced in New York City through the 1960s and early 1970s, playing with Lateef again (1967-70), Sonny Stitt, Lee Morgan, Dexter Gordon, Chet Baker, Junior Cook, Blue Mitchell, Charles McPherson, Pharoah Sanders (1970), Wes Montgomery, Dollar Brand, Jackie McLean, James Moody (1970-72), Charles Mingus (1972-73), and Milt Jackson. His 1970 album The Free Slave featured Cecil McBee and Woody Shaw. Later in 1970 he joined Max Roach's ensemble M'Boom, and in 1972 put together the ensemble The Artistic Truth.

Jon Anderson: Olias Of Sunhillow

180 GRAM VINYL, LP / CHERRY RED / SKU: QECLECLP2748 / UPC: 5013929474819 / SRP: $44.99

Esoteric Recordings is proud to announce the Record Store Day 2021 release of a strictly limited edition newly re-mastered 180 gram vinyl LP edition of the classic debut solo album by YES vocalist JON ANDERSON, Olias of Sunhillow. Released in July 1976, the album was a conceptual work recounting the story of an alien race on a journey to find a new world following volcanic destruction on their home planet. All music on the album was written and performed by Jon Anderson and the recording took place at Anderson's Buckinghamshire home studio whilst Yes were on hiatus following the tour to promote the album Relayer. Initially recorded on an 8-track tape machine, the arrangements were then re-recorded on to a 24-track tape machine. The album saw Jon perform the music entirely alone, teaching himself to play keyboards and acknowledging the influence of such legendary musicians as Rick Wakeman, Patrick Moraz and Vangelis on his work. Indeed, it was even rumoured Vangelis performed on the album, something the maestro would deny in interviews. Olias of Sunhillow was released by Atlantic Records in the summer of 1976 in an elaborate gatefold sleeve designed by David Fairbrother-Roe and was a top ten album in the

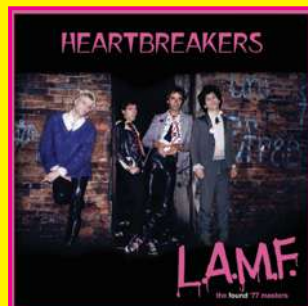

UK. This Esoteric Recordings edition has been newly re-mastered from the original album master tapes and was cut at Abbey Road studios. The limited edition LP release fully restores the stunning original gatefold sleeve and inner bag artwork

The Heartbreakers: L.A.M.F.: The Found '77 Masters

PURPLE VINYL, LP / JUNGLE RECORDS / SKU: TRACKLP77 / UPC: 5013145213414 / SRP: $24.99

A punk rock archaeological discovery! A newly-found copy master of the original 1977 Track Records tape, without 'mud'!

This classic punk album, recorded in London by the New York band featuring two New York Dolls, was always controversial - and not just for the acronym. Upon release on Track Records in 1977, it was widely condemned for having a 'muddy mix' - later found to be a mastering fault. When Track went bust the following year, manager Lee Black Childers burgled the office and liberated the tapes - he found everything except the master-tape.

Subsequent releases were remixed from the multi-tracks or compiled from outtake mixes - the 'lost '77 mixes' in 1994 being well-received and the version most known ever since. A lift from the vinyl didn't achieve much clarity. Meanwhile, fans found the '77 cassette version didn't have the infamous 'mud', nor did certain European vinyl matrices.

In 2020 a chance meeting led to Daniel Secunda's archives. He was an old-school music biz pioneer who became a Track Records director - and the Heartbreakers 'L.A.M.F.' co-producer. In amongst his many tape boxes were two with no artist name, marked 'Copy Master 12.7.77'. They turned out to be a crystal-clear 'L.A.M.F.', just as the band and producers intended it.

Sadly, in August 2020 the Heartbreakers co-lead vocalist, guitarist and songwriter Walter passed away. He was the last of the Heartbreakers 'L.A.M.F.' line-up - Johnny Thunders died in 1991, Jerry Nolan in 1992, and Billy Rath in 2014. Walter's autobiography is published in paperback in May 2021.

A limited edition in transparent purple vinyl. Inner bag with new notes by Simon Wright + a 12" poster with Roberta Bayley cover outtake pic.

The March Violets - Big Soul Kiss: The BBC Recordings Vinyl

Twenty-three tracks recorded for John Peel and others over six sessions - incl. nine unreleased songs. Ltd violet vinyl

Previously unreleased recordings by THE MARCH VIOLETS. Their six singles dominated the UK indie charts, but they never got around to recording an album - their only 1980's LPs, in the UK and USA, were singles compilations. Thankfully, their career was documented by John Peel and others. Here are six BBC sessions with 23 tracks including nine unreleased songs. Limited 2LP in Violet Vinyl.

The Night Eternal - The Night Eternal Vinyl

The first sign of life by this new German heavy metal band. Eerily haunting material!

Although THE NIGHT ETERNAL's first public recording, already, these Germans are evincing the mastery of veterans. Across their three original compositions and a cover of Judas Priest's "(Take These) Chains," the quintet concoct a powerful and stirring moody sort of heavy metal, both traditionally pure-steel in their dynamics yet also brimming with epicness and a sort of forlorn heroism.

If you keep your hair long and your denim dirty, TIME RIFT have the heavy-metal-rock-and-roll you're looking for.

Formed on the damp streets of Portland, Oregon, TIME RIFT have been cranking out riffs to rev your Camaro to since 2014. With their debut album, Eternal Rock, TIME RIFT establish themselves as a band whose sound has one foot firmly placed in 1974 hard rock and Motorhead-ish metal. If TIME RIFT shows the modern world of rock and roll anything, it's that time is irrelevant and rock is eternal.

Warlust - Unearthing Shattered Philosophies Vinyl

Crushing black/death/thrash metal with lots of epic moments. 2nd album.

Warlust joined the ranks of founding fathers Desaster, Deströyer 666 and Aura Noir. While the debut LP was still tethered to more traditional-style blackthrash, with Unearthing Shattered Philosophies WARLUST's command of dynamics here is impressive, to say the very least: part and parcel of those more epic stylings, taking the band into the upper echelon of nowadays evil metal.

Hamdi Benani & Mehdi Haddab - Nuba Nova CD

Nuba Nova: the title rings out like a manifesto, a transgressive descendant of Algerian classical music.

It began with Mehdi Haddab, magician of the electric oud, and his ambition to compare notes and share inspiration with the master of the malouf annabi, Sheikh Hamdi Benani. A high-calibre crew is brought on board. In this alliance it breathes easy, relaxes, takes on pop colours, treats itself to some bluesy riffs. This album is also a tribute to Hamdi Benani, who recently died of covid.

"Steamboat Whistle Blues (live at Post-Aula, Bremen Feb. 28th 1977)"

SKU#: MIG02412
Format: CD digisleeve
UPC: 885513024121
SRP: $ 18.77

Live recording of the Americana icon and multiple Grammy Award winner, John Hartford, incl. the hits „Gentle On My Mind“, „Buffalo Gals“ and „Orange Blossom Special“. The album was recorded in Feb. 1977, during one of Hartford's rare European tours. A great recording, entertaining, exciting, multifarious. Hartford takes his listeners on an acoustic journey through the varied and rich American musical history.

SUMMER DAYS AND SUMMER NIGHTS 31 SUMMERTIME BEACH NUTS

CD with 20-page booklet BCD17618 • UPC 5397 102 176180

- Summer Heat! Swimming! Beach parties – and music!!!
- This new collection continues the story that started with 'Banana Split' (BEAR FAMILY BCD 17513), 'Another Banana Split, Please' (BCD 17601), and 'Good Old Summertime' (BCD 17528).
- With 31 tracks from 1952-1963, the most beautiful season of the year comes alive, whether as a 'soundtrack' for listening in the car or as a musical enhancement at the garden party!
- Of course you will hear classics by famous artists like Dinah Washington, Conway Twitty, or Carole King!
- On the other hand, we present plenty of recordings from our rarities box – and some even appear here on CD for the first time!
- Groove to instrumentals by the Viscounts or by Tito Puente (with a nice Latin flair) – or enjoy early surf sounds by Dave York & The Beachcombers or The Fleetwoods!
- The musical range covers all angles: from pop to jazz, rhythm 'n' blues, doo-wop, country – and lots of rock 'n' roll, with Ricky Dean, Johnny O'Neill, and many others!

SUMMERTIME

What could be better now than dreaming of summer?! Of the sun and the beach, the warm sand and possibly a cool dive into the sea. Or the warm summer nights under the blue moon, with the smell of blossoms and a warm summer breeze? The themes surrounding the most beautiful season of the year are almost immeasurable. If in doubt you only have to check the music on BEAR FAMILY's already fourth summer compilation! The perfect soundtrack – suitable for all summer activities!

PUT ON A HAPPY FACE

Put On A Happy Face demands legendary crooner Tony Bennett right at the beginning, and fitting for the summer. He, like Eydie Gormé and Don Cherry, is among the pop artists in this compilation. There are also classics by The Brothers Four, Keely Smith, and others. Things get jazzy with the famous Barney Kessel, and the country music realm is covered by Bobby Williamson and Hank Snow. R&B and doo-wop are included with artists like T.J. Fowler and The Quotations, and there's hot rock 'n' roll as well from Sammy Salvo, Bucky & Premiers, South African Dickie Loader and Paul Peek of Gene Vincent's Blue Caps, among others. And as with the previous CDs, this compilation ends with the classic Good Old Summertime, here in the rare interpretation by Lee Diamond with the Challengers, released on the small LOLA label! The CD includes a fabulous 20-page color booklet with notes by producer Marc Mittelacher on each song, and many photos and rare illustrations.

Life Could Be A Dream indeed!!

...as well as several hundred more releases: CDs, DVDs, vinyl LPs and 45s, and CD box sets!

Dave Miller Trio - The Mask-erade Is Over CD

Top-notch pianist sounds wonderful with his own classic style blended with shades of Shearing, Evans and Brubeck!

Dave Miller, piano
Andrew Higgins, bass
Bill Belasco, drums

Swinging Jazz...! Dave Miller is rightfully enthusiastic about playing these songs and in his classic style. Converting the wind instrument bebop sound to the piano is always an enjoyable challenge. That whole era, including the standards and songs from movies and show tunes, is what keeps Miller going.

Steve Dawson - At The Bottom Of A Canyon In The Branches Of A Tree CD

Acclaimed Chicago singer/songwriter Steve Dawson's first solo record for Pravda Records.

Steve's new album carries on the thrilling progression of Dawson's recent work. His songwriting continues to grow in depth and lyricism while his voice has never sounded more rich or resonant. The album's twelve songs tie together the American musical influences that span his life: the late 60's/early 70's folk-rock of California and the blues, gospel, and soul of Chicago, where he resides.

STEVE MARRINER HOPE DIES LAST

Release Date: July 2nd 2021

One of Canada's busiest artists, Steve Marriner has proven himself to be a versatile and highly skilled musician, songwriter and producer. In addition to winning nine Maple Blues Awards as a harmonica player and vocalist on his own, he has won another ten Maple Blues, two Canadian Indie Music, two JUNOs and one American Blues Music awards as one-third of swamp rockers MonkeyJunk. Steve has performed in studio and on stage with some of Canada's top blues and rock artists such as Colin James, Sass Jordan and Matt Andersen... and 2018's album with Harry Manx under the banner 'Manx Marriner Mainline' turned heads on both sides of the border.

Hope Dies Last was half cut at The Ganaraska Recording Company, Jimmy Bowskill's studio (The Sheepdogs and Blue Rodeo), before the lockdown -- but when lockdown happened, Steve had the time to think about what he was sitting on that hadn't yet been released. The lead track "Take Me To The City" was recorded first three years ago in a session at Greg Keelor's studio. "Somethin' Somethin'" was also recorded two years ago, long before Covid lockdowns made mental health an international concern. Other singles "How High" and "Coal Mine" were written and recorded over the last year.

Marion & Sobo Band - Histoires CD

What on earth is more powerful than stories?

Her voice is sometimes tender and enchanting, sometimes gripping or tongue-twisting; the sound is raucous, almost whispering, then happily lilting or expressive and yearning. The Franco-American Marion sings of dancing dragons, of jumping into cold water and bathtubs full of beer, but also of tears and dreams, of love, lust and sorrow, of joy and fantasy.

Phantom Of The Black Hills - That Witch CD

Notorious hellbilly/doom from the Phantom of the Black Hills. Phantom of the Black Hills is definitely one of the most innovative bands in the hellbilly/doom country genre. They mix traditional country instruments with searing guitars, distorted vocals, intense sound effects and movie dialog. Their songs are brutal missiles that blatantly encourage all to live a life of full freedom and protest the wrongs and hypocrisies of an oppressive society.

Red Beard Wall - 3 CD

Red Beard Wall delivers fiery riffs and attitude on their third studio release. Red Beard Wall was born in 2016 on the dry, wind swept plains of West Texas. With a hyper focus on heavy, hooky and to the point songs, RED BEARD WALL delivers riffs with devastatingly heavy tones, vocals melodies that soar, alongside blistering screams of disillusionment. Influenced by the sounds of such as Floor, Helmet, Torche, Cavity, Snapcase, and Nirvana.

Debussy: Préludes
Vladimir Ashkenazy
PMR0100

Vladimir Ashkenazy's first recording of Debussy's Preludes is a somewhat of a sensation. This recording combines a new recording of Book 1 with a live recording of Book 2 from a recital in New York in 1971.

We therefore not only honor the 100th anniversary of Debussy's death in 1918, but also pay tribute to one of the most remarkable pianists and musicians of the 20th and 21st centuries.

Soul Grinder - Chronicles Of Decay CD

Finest Death Metal from Blast Speed Attacks to groovy steamrollers and mystical hymns.

Finest Death Metal from Blast Speed Attacks to groovy steamrollers and mystical hymns. Without straying too far from the core of brutal death metal, the band offers an enormous range on their debut, and thus a varied and stirring first album. The album features several guest appearances by musicians from the bands friends, so you listen also to members of Negator, Endseeker and Fear Connection.

James Lee Stanley & Dan Navarro - All Wood And Led CD

Vocal and Acoustic guitar reinventions of classic Led Zeppelin tunes by James Lee Stanley & Dan Navarro

Imagine if Led Zeppelin had formed in south California in 1969. What would their music have sounded like woven into the classic Laurel Canyon rock sensibilities. Stanley & Navarro have done just that. These are not cover versions of classic Zeppelin. These are reinventions of their best known tunes performed by two of the greatest singer songwriters in the genre. Amazing vocals and guitar work.

Suidakra - Wolfbite CD

With "Wolfbite", Suidakra succeed in travelling from the past into the future and surely one of THE albums of the 2021.

"Wolfbite" is bursting with power, uncompromisingness and joy of playing. The work with Aljoscha Sieg (Eskimo Callboy), which is certainly untypical for die-hard fans, results in a breathtaking, lively sound. With the concept story from "Realms Of Odoric", lyrically & visually realised by Kris Verwimp, of course, "Suidakra 2.0" presents itself in a form that even old fans wouldn't have dreamed of.

Tani - Mew CD

Simple and enchanting keyboard-based pop songs from Argentina / RIYL: Au Revoir Simone, Feist

On her second album, Tani's songs are simple and enchanting - almost innocent, in a way - pop gems played on a keyboard, and then filled out with other instruments, courtesy of her friends. Stylistically, they fit somewhere between the earlier recordings of Mirah & the Blow (but with keyboards) and Au Revoir Simone & Feist, but with a little more playfulness.

The Blue Hour - Lore CD

Ethereal, electronic, and neoclassical music to create a haunting dreampop-noir, reminiscent of classic 4AD artists.

THE BLUE HOUR is a Seattle-based duo that blends elements of ethereal, electronic, and neoclassical music to create a haunting dreampop-noir that is reminiscent of classic 4AD artists. Marselle's ethereal yet soulful vocal delivery often draws comparison to Kate Bush. Meanwhile, Brian's songwriting and production is frequently likened to This Mortal Coil and Dead Can Dance.

Tragedy And Triumph - Where Mountains Rise And Hearts Fall CD

Hail the vikings! For all fans of Bathory and Amon Amarth a must...!!!

Hail the vikings! On this album, they present themselves in the best Viking/Melodic Death Metal manner and thus consistently powerful, groovy and of course correspondingly melodic. Stylistically the band mentions, not unjustly, influences from bands like Bathory and Amon Amarth, and still shows variety and experimentation on these 11 songs.

THE WORLDWIDE BLU-RAY PREMIERE OF BOTH THE THEATRICAL & EXTENDED VERSIONS OF THE '80S CANUXPLOITATION SHOCKER
From co-directors Paul Donovan and Maura O'Connell (DEFCON-4) comes one of the most disturbing – and rarely-seen – Canadian shockers of the '80s, inspired by the actual 42-day Halifax police strike: When a local group of right-wing vigilantes massacres the patrons of a gay bar, the sole survivor seeks refuge in a nearby apartment building whose residents must now defend themselves in a night of hate, terror and bloodshed. Doug Lennox (BREAKING POINT), Tom Nardini (CAT BALLOU), Jack Blum (HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO ME) and Keith Knight (MY BLOODY VALENTINE) star in this “dark and intense thriller, still uncomfortably relevant 35 years after it was made” (Blog Of Horror) – released in the U.S. as SELF DEFENSE – scanned in 2K from the original negative recently discovered in a Nova Scotia archive.

FLIGHT TO MARS

WILL THIS BE MAN'S GREATEST EXPEDITION? OR WILL IT BE MAN'S DOOM?

From legendary producer Walter Mirisch comes Flight to Mars, a stirring adventure from the dawn of the 1950s Sci-Fi boom. Five Earthlings land on Mars and are greeted by a team of friendly Martians. Fearing they have depleted the key mineral used to power their life-support systems, these Martians are determined to get off the red planet by any means necessary — including stealing the Earthlings' ship and invading Earth! Can this group of Earthling space travelers outsmart these diabolical Martians?

Close Range + Savage Dog (Scott Adkins Double Feature)

Action-Packed Double Feature starring Scott Adkins!

CLOSE RANGE:

After rescuing his kidnapped niece from a powerful drug cartel, Colton MacReady (Scott Adkins, Hard Target 2) begins a relentless fight to save his family. The cartel has descended upon his secluded ranch with a thirst for revenge. In tow are a corrupt local sheriff and his crew of deputies, ensuring that help won't be coming any time soon. What ensues is a non-stop assault on the ranch, a blow-by-blow survival marathon for Colton to protect his loved ones and save his life.

SAVAGE DOG:

Indochina, 1959. A Wild West town controlled by the criminal class: Vietnamese warlords and European war criminals. Den-Dhin-Chan Labor Camp is run by four such dangerous men. The worst prison in the land, it is here that a European, former-champion boxer Martin Tilman (Scott Adkins) has made a name for himself fighting tournaments, on which wealthy criminals gamble in high stakes events. When Tilman is due for release, he just wants to return home, but the corrupt forces running the jail will do everything in their power to keep him locked down. When all that Tilman holds dear is taken away in a vicious act of violence, he is forced to confront the five men responsible and take his revenge.

Elvis: Summer Of '56

This one-hour documentary is the story of Elvis Presley's first fiancé, June Juanico, from the Summer of 1956.

This is one-hour documentary is the story of Elvis Presley's first fiancé, June Juanico, from the Summer of 1956. We're presented with 2 stories: We see the love story between Elvis and June and in the background the rise to national fame of Elvis in the summer of 56 with his first national No. 1 hit 'Heartbreak Hotel' and his famous T.V. appearances. June talks openly about the summer she spent with Elvis and doesn't look back in anger on breaking up with Elvis. She just retains and holds dear, the great memories she shared with Elvis.

PRESS

"This documentary is a nice addition to any collection. It contains ... a lot of footage of Elvis enjoying himself to full extent, still feeling free, something not caught on film very often afterwards."

Mr. Jealousy

A Comedy from the writer and director of "The Squid And The Whale" & "Marriage Story"

Eric Stoltz (Pulp Fiction), returns in Baumbach's sophomore feature, Mr. Jealousy as an aspiring novelist, Lester, who exhibits obsessive behavior when girlfriend Ramona (Annabella Sciorra, Cop Land) mentions a previous relationship with well-known writer Dashiell Frank (Chris Eigeman, Maid in Manhattan), which sends Lester into a spiral of obsessive behavior and hysterically elaborate subterfuges. From acclaimed three-time Academy Award® nominated writer and director Noah Baumbach (The Squid and The Whale, Marriage Story) and featuring Peter Bogdanovich (The Last Picture Show), comes this refreshing comic look at life, love and jealousy.

The Ringmaster

HOSTEL meets THE PURGE

Two young women working the night shift at a secluded gas station unwittingly become the stars of a terrifying show streamed live on the dark web. Held captive by a sadistic ringmaster and his cohorts, their survival instincts are stretched to the limit as they are forced to participate in a torture game with an unseen audience deciding their fate. Based on the award winning novel by Steen Langstrup, The Ringmaster explores our curiosity and complicity with voyeurism and violence in the age of the internet.

Emanuelle: Black Velvet

The Seamy Side of Paradise!

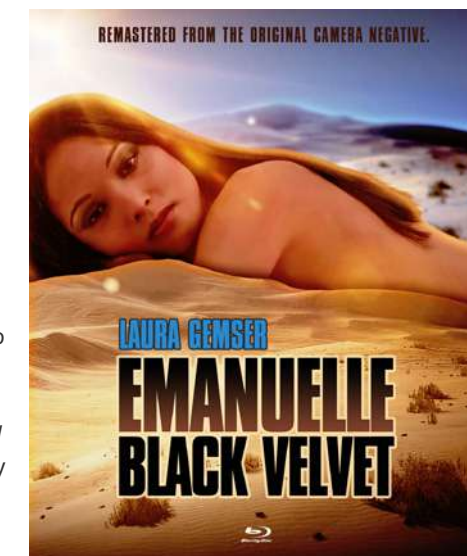

The stunning Laura Gemser returns to the character that has defined her career in this lush erotic drama. Emanuelle: Black Velvet sees Gemser playing an incarnation of the famous globe-trotting model/reporter as she travels to the sweltering deserts of Egypt with her macho fashion photographer boyfriend Carlo (Gabriele Tinti, Lisa And The Devil). Initially planning to simply visit her wealthy friend Crystal (Nieves Navarro, Death Walks At Midnight), the depressed damsel soon finds herself falling into a series of increasingly sensual encounters, while fixing her lustful attentions on Crystal's comely daughter Pia (Annie Belle, Lips Of Blood and House On The Edge Of The Park). Sexually charged, beautifully photographed, edited by the notorious Bruno Mattei and almost entirely free of conventional narrative trappings, Emanuelle: Black Velvet is the directorial work of frequent Federico Fellini co-writer Brunello Rondi and also stars Italian exploitation legend Al Cliver. Full Moon is proud to be presenting this rarely seen masterclass in '70s European softcore cinema remastered from the originally camera negative.

Emanuelle And The White Slave Trade

Emanuelle as you will never see her again!

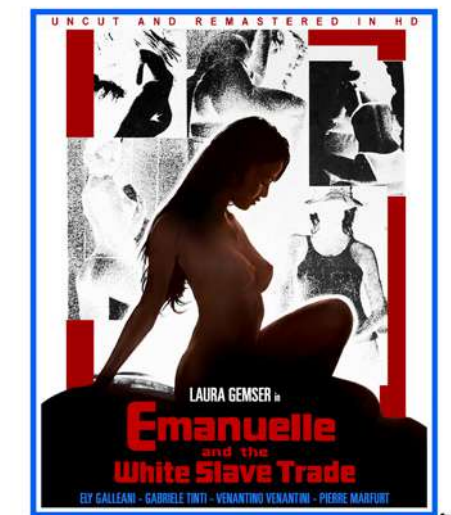

Laura Gemser returns to the role that made her famous in this scintillating work of depraved erotica, one of the many controversial entries in Italian director Joe D'Amato's "Black Emanuelle" series. Emanuelle And The White Slave Trade sees Gemser's comely and sexually curious journalist tracking down a notorious Mafia boss to the jungles of Kenya in hopes of interviewing him for her newspaper. Along the way, Emanuelle inadvertently stumbles upon an even more sensational story, that of a vile international white slavery ring, run by the sadistic Madame Claude. Once again, Emanuelle must go undercover, this time as a prostitute in Madame Claude's clandestine San Diego bordello, engaging in all manner of carnal couplings while secretly working to bring down the Madame's evil empire. Emanuelle And The White Slave Trade is one of D'Amato's finest works, a beautifully photographed work of sex and sadism with a pumping soundtrack by composer Nico Fidenco and a cast that includes Ely Galleani, Gabriele Tinti and Gota Gobert. Full Moon is excited to present this classic Euroslaze epic completely uncut and remastered in HD from the best available materials.

Year of Production: 1978 | Director: Joe D'amato | Actors: Gabriele Tinti, Ely Galleani, Laura Gemser

Beyond Terror

Their nightmare was further than fear... It was BEYOND TERROR!

After a drug-fueled night of violence, a group of young degenerates and their hostages find themselves stranded in a remote, abandoned church in rural Spain. Their evening of debauchery and blasphemy quickly turns to greed when they discover a local legend that tells of a vast fortune guarded by mummies in the catacombs beneath the ruins. Their lust for the treasure is short-lived as they find that the supernatural horror in the catacombs is something further than fear... it is Beyond Terror!

Beyond Terror is a lost gem that is long overdue for rediscovery. Never available on home video in the United States, Beyond Terror makes its worldwide Blu-ray debut from Cauldron Films with a brand new 4K scan from the camera negative that has been restored to its original grim glory. Co-written by Juan Piquer Simón (Pieces, Slugs), this early '80s hybrid unfolds like an homage to Amando de Ossorio's Tombs of the Blind Dead, by way of Mario Bava's Rabid Dogs, with a healthy dose of violence, gore, sex, eerie crypts and supernatural revenge!

The Crimes Of The Black Cat

9 lives fueled by murder

After a young model seemingly dies of a heart attack, her lover, Peter Oliver and his butler begin their own investigation into the death and soon find an intertwined series of murders, all involving a cat and a yellow shawl. One step ahead of the police, but always right behind the killer, Peter manages to piece together clue after clue until the final, shocking showdown with the bloodthirsty killer. Released in the shadows of Dario Argento's wildly successful The Bird with the Crystal Plumage (and one of over 30 Italian giallo films produced in 1972), The Crimes of the Black Cat delivers the style of a classic giallo with sleazy, over the top violence that rivals Italian films from a decade later. Despite its pedigree of talent including Sylva Koscina, Renato De Carmine, Giacomo Rossi Stuart, Umberto Raho, and Annabella Incontrera, an eerie score by Manuel De Sica, and behind the scenes work from Fabrizio De Angelis (producer of Zombie, The Beyond) The Crimes of the Black Cat has been largely ignored on home video. Previously unavailable in HD or in the proper aspect ratio, The Crimes of the Black Cat makes its worldwide Blu-ray debut with an uncut 4K restoration via Cauldron Films.

Howl From Beyond The Fog

The Most Important Kaiju motion picture of the last 20 years...

Set in Kyushu during the Meiji era, a blind girl, named Takiri, and the blind monster from a nearby lake, named Nebula, fight against greedy developers who threaten to take over her family's land. Using an all puppet human cast and a fantastic monster suit, it offers a new aesthetic in the world of kaiju films.

PRESS

"Daisuke Sato's Howl from Beyond the Fog is a uniquely gorgeous giant monster movie and is the exact kind of handmade, thoughtful work the genre desperately needs more of. You owe it to yourself to give this a watch."

Sharks Of The Corn

You're gonna get stalked!

Strange things are happening in Druid Hills, Kentucky, known mainly for its voluminous corn output. Victims of monsters in cornfields begin cropping up, and witnesses are saying there are "large great white sharks swimming in the corn stalks!" Meanwhile, serial killer Teddy Bo Lucas is arrested for killing dozens of people using shark jaws and teeth as weapons. Chief Vera Scheider (cult scream queen Shannon Stockin) is caught in the middle, trying to figure out if her missing twin sister Lorna might be one of them. When Teddy agrees to take her to one of his prime burial sites in a cornfield, an insane chain of events unfold that no one is prepared for, pitting the Druid Hills townsfolk against an outrageous shark worshipping cult that is planning to take over the world, one cornfield at a time! And their main protectors are jaw-snapping Sharks Of The Corn! From the twisted mind of newcomer Steven Kang. Executive Producer Ron Bonk presents director Tim Ritter reuniting with Producers Larry Joe Treadway and Al Nicolosi for the first time in many decades to bring you this demented mix-mash of humor, terror, and pure adrenaline rush shark action! Pop your corn, the shark movie of the year is here!

Gerry Marsden - My Home Town CD

Gerard Marsden MBE (24 Sept 1942 - 3 Jan 2021) was an English singer-songwriter, musician and television personality.

Gerry achieved three consecutive Number One singles and he was the first artist to ever achieve this remarkable landmark. One of those hits was the Rogers and Hammerstein song *You*ll Never Walk Alone*, a song which has continued through the years to this day, being sung by the faithful Liverpool Kop. If ever there was a man who never walked alone, that man was Gerry Marsden.
