MVD CLIMBING!

MVD reaches the summit in July with the release of Nils Lofgren's MOUNTAINS! On CD and LP, MOUNTAINS finds Nils scaling new heights with nine originals and a cover of Bruce Springsteen's 'Back In Your Arms.' MOUNTAINS features a plethora of special guests, including Neil Young, Ringo Starr, David Crosby and Ron Carter. Blues, rockers and ballads erupt! As a long-time solo artist, a collaborator with Neil Young and an E Street Band member for decades, there is a reason why Bruce call Nils 'one of the greatest guitarists in the World!' Add songwriter, vocalist and bandleader to that accolade with MOUNTAINS!

Trapeze Records, a brilliant heritage label, has their pressing plant plumping out the plastic from names that will have you spinning in aural joy. This month's vinyl offerings are from The Everly Brothers, Etta James, Bobby Darin, Chet Atkins and Carl Perkins.

From the highest summit to the murky swamp, the 4K/bluray combo and stand-alone bluray package of the Wes Craven written and directed SWAMP THING clears things up with vibrant new transfers. For the first time on 4K, see the half man/half plant rescue Adrienne Barbeau from evil, in eye-bulging clarity! One thing is clear about this month's Arrow Video releases-they are ALL limited editions, so set your sights on these quick! BLOOD MONEY is a 4-disc spaghetti Western bluray box, the Martin Scorsese directed, magical-mystical family film HUGO arrives on 4K and bluray, and get ready for the bluray of FIGHTING BACK, where Italian vigilantes seek revenge on Philadelphia street punks. We know a few of those!

Segues nicely with STOOGES-O-RAMA: THE MEN BEHIND THE MAYHEM bluray and DVD 3-disc set. Over 8 hours of nyuk nyuk from the legendary Three Stooges, including outtakes, home movies, TV appearances, trailers, enough to keep any knucklehead engrossed. Three formats are needed to contain the alien invasion in the bluray/4K/DVD release of INVADERS FROM MARS. Even more green seen in these men in this restored 1953 sci-fi classic. Nothing to sniff at is the wrath incurred when you mess with COCAINE SHARK, wild drug mutations wired on blow, ready to chop you up!

A Plane To Catch - Moko Jumbie Vinyl

Bonded over a mutual love for Motown, Soul, Afrobeat and Jazz, April Records, presents 'Moko Jumbie', the debut by 'A Plane To Catch' Through the eight compositions the quintet joyfully navigates familiar harmonic clichés from 70's soul tunes, a variety of infectious toe-tapping grooves, playful improvisations and melodic duo horn arranging. Explorations of darker tonalities popularised by Ethio-Jazz legend Mulatu Astatke provide a welcome departure through harmonic contrast and propulsive polyrhythmic groove.

AC/DC - The Music Roots Of 10" Vinyl

The music roots of the AC/DC members

AC/DC are one of the most successful, well-known and popular heavy rock bands in the world. But what did the musicians before they formed AC/DC? The Music Roots of AC/DC looks back to the 60's and 70's. This limited 10" vinyl includes songs and interviews by Bon Scott, Angus Young etc before the start of the rock group AC/DC.

Armagh - Serpent Storm Vinyl

The melancholic and anthemic nature of their blackened heavy metal makes Armagh a force to be reckoned with!

Truly, ARMAGH are a manic maniac's band, idiosyncratic mainlining such noble influences as Thin Lizzy, Black Sabbath, Motörhead, early Slayer, W.A.S.P, Bathory and Running Wild in general into something effortlessly unique. ARMAGH's second album seemingly comes from an alien place - one where the classic albums of the aforementioned bands all simultaneously play in perfect, hellish harmony.

Bröselmaschine - Live At Rockpalast Vinyl

Unique Rockpalast concert OFFSTAGE from the Corona era, recorded on April 20, 2021 at Heinrich-Robert colliery in Hamm, Germany, without audience.

The band played almost exclusively songs from their latest studio album "Elegy" from 2019, as well as the title track of the previous album "Indian Camel" and as a finale the Marc Bolan cover of "Children Of The Revolution". Bröselmaschine put on a great performance. Never were Bröselmaschine more musically valuable than on that special occasion. But judge for yourself.

Carl Perkins - Dixie Fried: 1955-62 Vinyl

A fine showcase for the undisputed King Of Rockabilly.

"If there were no Carl Perkins there would be no Beatles" - Sir Paul McCartney. It would be easy to dismiss Carl Perkins as a one-hit wonder who only merits a footnote in the annals of popular music, but his contribution to the development and popularisation of rock 'n' roll and his influence on artists who themselves shaped the future of pop is indisputable.

Lebanon Hanover - Sci Fi Sky Vinyl

Sci-Fi Sky comes as a double-LP and is Lebanon Hanover's most cohesive artistic statement to date.

At the dawn of the global pandemic, where dystopian nightmares that were only ever seen before within the pages of books and flashes of silver screen celluloid, has become a daily reality, a new kind of darkness envelops the world.

Lillian Briggs - Follow The Leader 10" Vinyl

This is the story of a school girl with a love of jazz who naturally moved into Rock 'n' Roll music

The peroxide blond rock 'n' roller Lillian Briggs was a slim and pretty girl, with powerful vocal cords, who held a trombone in one hand while performing. This is the story of a school girl with a love of jazz who naturally moved into Rock 'n' Roll music, had eight-teen 45RPMs released from 1955 to 1961, and gained some chart success

Nord1kone & DJ MROK - Tower Of Babylon Vinyl

An epic underground album like they used to make!
Following their underground hit LP "Escape The Yard," emcee Nord1kone and DJ MROK re-team to bring more boom bap to the masses. This time they brought along an all-star lineup including Kool G Rap, Chuck D, Gift Of Gab, Masta Ace, Craig G, Chip-Fu, Donald D, Chill Rob G, El Da Sensei and more to construct a rap odyssey strictly for the heads. Hard beats, razor sharp lyrics, scratches & cuts.

Nostalghia - Wounds Vinyl

There is a pronounced Alcest/Amesoeurs influence at times here; don't write it off as Neige worship though; Alex Becerra is very much doing his own thing, with more emphasis on raw black metal and catchy, dare I say almost poppy metal riffs. It's an incredible creation from an inspired artist. The whole discography is a thrilling journey; excuse me while I buy the rest of it.

Peter Somuah - Letter To The Universe Vinyl

Gifted storyteller from Ghana on the trumpet combining Jazz with Global Groove.
Ghana has been considered a land of storytellers for many centuries. But this great tradition does not necessarily have to be continued with words or the voice. Peter Somuah spins storytelling with his trumpet. He embarks on a fascinating search for identity between the highlife of his homeland, his idol Miles Davis and Global Groove. This journey is his "Letter To The Universe".

Rapid - Blackstar Oppression Regime Vinyl

The melancholic and anthemic nature of their blackened heavy metal makes Armagh a force to be reckoned with!
Truly, ARMAGH are a maniac maniac's band, idiosyncratic mainlining such noble influences as Thin Lizzy, Black Sabbath, Motörhead, early Slayer, W.A.S.P, Bathory and Running Wild in general into something effortlessly unique. ARMAGH's second album seemingly comes from an alien place - one where the classic albums of the aforementioned bands all simultaneously play in perfect, hellish harmony.

Sadistic Vision - Destroyer Of All Dreams Vinyl

Sadistic Vision return with five tracks of old-school death metal that will snap necks and explode livers.

Formed in 1989, Sadistic Vision released two demos in the early '90's during the first wave of death metal. Shortly after, they disbanded but returned in the 2000's as a trio. They released an EP in 2016 and their first full-length in 2020. With Destroyer Of All Dreams, they bring five tracks of down-tuned, down-tempo death metal that will snap necks and explode livers.

Sadness - April Sunset Vinyl

"April Sunset" wears out like this, wearing out (for better or for worse) even the most devoted of listener!

This magnificent album proves to be even more convincing than the latest releases with "Spotlight" (but above all with the last notes entrusted to "Collar") we find the most inspired Sadness, the one that manages to depress and make us dream at the same time. As if the loss were a flash of light, a rainbow after the flood, a sublime journey through pain and longing.

Sienna Dahlen & Bill Coon - Balladextrous Vinyl

Guitarist Bill Coon and vocalist Sienna Dahlen navigate silence and shape time on their poignant debut. They reside in spacious spontaneity.

"Se balader": a french verb meaning to stroll, wander or roam. In other words, a slow & easy movement through time. Musically, this is what Dahlen & Coon set out to experience in Jan., 2020 under a misty evening sky in Vancouver, BC. There was really no end goal, only the moment to honour, as living in a jazz ballad means remaining open & vulnerable while navigating silence & shaping time.

Speedwhore - Visions Of A Parallel World Vinyl

The 2nd album takes the band to a completely new level of thrash, black and ancient heavy metal.

German black/thrash/heavy act SPEEDWHORE is back with their 2nd album. On the surface, much of Visions of a Parallel World could soundtrack a heavy metal drinking party...but listen closely and one will detect unique twists of atmosphere and songwriting that jointly put SPEEDWHORE in a whole new realm (such as fellow Germans Witching Hour or Slovenian labelmates VIGILANCE).

A Plane To Catch - Moko Jumbie cd

Bonded over a mutual love for Motown, Soul, Afrobeat and Jazz, April Records, presents 'Moko Jumbie', the debut by 'A Plane To Catch'

Through the eight compositions the quintet joyfully navigates familiar harmonic clichés from 70's soul tunes, a variety of infectious toe-tapping grooves, playful improvisations and melodic duo horn arranging. Explorations of darker tonalities popularised by Ethio-Jazz legend Mulatu Astatke provide a welcome departure through harmonic contrast and propulsive polyrhythmic groove.

Armagh - Serpent Storm cd

The melancholic and anthemic nature of their blackened heavy metal makes Armagh a force to be reckoned with!

Truly, ARMAGH are a maniac maniac's band, idiosyncratic mainlining such noble influences as Thin Lizzy, Black Sabbath, Motörhead, early Slayer, W.A.S.P, Bathory and Running Wild in general into something effortlessly unique. ARMAGH's second album seemingly comes from an alien place - one where the classic albums of the aforementioned bands all simultaneously play in perfect, hellish harmony.

Between Interval - Legacy CD (Reissue)

Synthesizer sequences and arpeggios give movement to the deep ambient soundscapes, textures, and nuanced melodies

Between Interval's long awaited fifth studio album, LEGACY, is a exploration into the unknown through excursions into electronica, spacemusic, Berlin school, and elements of dub techno. Ten meticulously crafted journeys offer vignettes of the wonders of the universe as humans observe and experience it - internally and externally.

Planet X - Anthology

4-CD set of the long-awaited re-release of the entire Planet X catalog

The long-awaited re-release of the entire Planet X catalog has finally arrived, in the form of one lavishly bundled digipak. This 4-CD set has been re-mastered by Simon Phillips and includes a twenty-page booklet packed with photos, liner notes, and a detailed history of the band and the music. Packaged in deluxe O-Sleeve "In a world of recycled or transient musical ideas, it's rare for any band to be truly ground-breaking and innovative. Too often, acts merely create poorly executed retrograde musical concepts that could never be classed as genre-leading. There are of course a few exceptions, many of whom are more familiar names to the uninitiated than Planet X. Yet this band was able to accomplish what others merely dreamed of - inventing their own genre and leaving a high watermark for others to attempt and equal." Featured artists include Derek Sherinian, Virgil Donati, Brett Garsed, Allan Holdsworth, Jimmy Johnson, Tony MacAlpine, Dave Larue, and Tom Kennedy. Disc 1: Universe (2000) Disc 2: Moonbabies (2002) Disc 3: Live From Oz (2002) Disc 4: Quantum (2006).

Julia Lee - King Size Papa: The Julia Lee Collection 1927-52 CD

it is a thoroughly enjoyable showcase for her very personal brand of R&B.

Born in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1902, pianist and singer Julia Lee grew up singing and playing in the musical hotbed of that city's jazz scene in the '20s and '30s, developing a style that featured "the songs my mother taught me not to sing" - risqué material with unsubtle double entendres

Kevin K - Broken CD

Kevin K says, "this might be the best collection of songs I have ever done. Crazy emotions, odd lyrics and lots of emotion.' BROKEN is dark and heavy!

NYC punk veteran Kevin K. has put his signature melodic-punk style on hold-instead conjuring up darker influences that draw a line to Black Sabbath! BROKEN sets a new standard for volume and heaviness for Kevin K-the sonic glamour reflecting the bleak, dark, cold environment in which the album was recorded-a dank Detroit basement during one of the harshest American Mid-Western winters on record.

Kevin Tomkins - Music For An Unprepared Autoharp CD

Avantgarde solo album by Kevin Tomkins of Sutcliffe No More, ex-Whitehouse, created solely on an autoharp

Kevin Tomkins is best known for his work in Whitehouse and his own group Sutcliffe Jugend, now called Sutcliffe No More. Most of his music has its background in the power electronics scene. This album's music was all generated on an autoharp and is totally different to Sutcliffe No More. Its roots lie in avantgarde music rather than noise, with rhythms and melodies generated on the instrument.

Membrane - Undead Island CD

Death metal band from Italy with the addition of Venetian dialect

"Undead Island" is a flurry of punches in the stomach. No clean vocals or clean guitars. Without slow songs and without half measures. A death metal record that draws its inspiration mainly from extreme old school genres proposed to listeners not necessarily linked only to those genres and with the intention of hitting repeatedly without respite from the first to the last song.

Neculai Florea & Nicolae Amarandei - Moldavia: Peasant Tunes From The Old Land Of Hârlău CD

This album carries us back to the golden age of Romanian peasant music.

Near Hârlău, a town in Romanian Moldavia, live the three traditional musicians who took part in this project: Neculai Florea, Nicolae Amarandei and Valentin Bălăsoiu. The recordings are based around the cobza, a plucked string instrument, and the rural repertoire. Cobza, violin and shepherd's flute accompany dance tunes and songs that are often satirical or drawn from bardic folk tradition.

#PEOPLE - two compelling lineups fronted by tenor saxophonist Ray Blue: one his deeply swinging working band, the other with Kenny Barron on piano.

#PEOPLE documents two compelling lineups fronted by tenor saxophonist Ray Blue: one his deeply swinging working band, the other a special collaboration with the great Kenny Barron on piano.

There's pathos in the message -- people who need people are the luckiest people in the world -- Ray intends it as such, bringing his expansive tenor sound to bear as he makes music for #PEOPLE.

Sadness & Oculi Melancholiarum - Springgarden CD

Oculi Melancholiarum is a solo project by multi-talented Mexican artist Victoria Hazemaze.

Wild that an act called Sadness opens with one of the most joyous explosions of color and energy I've ever heard from this subgenre. Life-affirming and triumphant. I actually don't even know how to describe what is happening here. It's the first time my ears have been exposed to this kind sound. All I know is that it's perfect. This is what perfect music sounds like. Unbelievable.

Sadness - April Sunset CD

"April Sunset" wears out like this, wearing out (for better or for worse) even the most devoted of listener!

This magnificent album proves to be even more convincing than the latest releases with "Spotlight" (but above all with the last notes entrusted to "Collar") we find the most inspired Sadness, the one that manages to depress and make us dream at the same time. As if the loss were a flash of light, a rainbow after the flood, a sublime journey through pain and longing.

Sentenced - Crimson [Reissue] CD

Finnish melodic death/gothic metal masters! Their first two albums, "Shadows of the Past" and "North from Here", were in typical European death metal style. "Amok" has slowed down, acquiring a more melodic structure. The next two "Down" and "Frozen" turned into a more heavy metal attitude with melodic features. "Crimson", "The Cold White Light" and their ultimate release, "The Funeral Album", are mixed of gothic and melodic death metal.

Libera - Forever

Brand new album from Libera titled FOREVER with 13 songs. Coinciding with the Group's USA Tour in July - August 2023 and planned TV appearances.

3 time Classical BRIT nominees and You Tube sensations with over 200 million views release their brand new studio album titled "Forever", containing 13 newly recorded songs and coinciding with a World Tour in 2023.

6 page gatefold digipack CD plus 12 page coloured booklet and full colour on-body. 'Forever' is the first album recording without Libera's founder, Robert Prizeman, at the helm. The Libera sound was conceived by Robert and was first truly realized in recorded form in 1999. Since then, the sound and repertoire have evolved as the group has gained popularity with audiences across the globe. In the early days the music was mainly based on Robert's compositions, taking influence from ancient plainchant and the great choral repertoire, as well as contemporary production and instrumentation. The boys' voices, however, have always been front and center. We now get to hear and enjoy the new Musical Director Sam Coates's contribution to the group's choral legacy.

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

The London based group Libera is over 20 years old and one of the UK's international success stories. They are No1 selling artists around the world and sung to millions. The group has never had a breakup and whose members are the same age as when it was formed over twenty years ago.

The boys who make up the South London based vocal group Libera have been described as "normal" and "ordinary". However, as their recordings and performances demonstrate, the music they produce is anything but.

The boys of Libera don't come from the hothouse environment of a dedicated choir school, but from different schools, backgrounds, and areas of South London. They come together four times a week to rehearse for regular church services, concerts and international tours. During their time in Libera boys learn musicianship of course but they are also exposed to a wide range of related disciplines such as stagecraft, sound and video recording, lighting and so on.

Violent Sin - Serpent's Call CD

Debut album, a feast for fans of the classic 80s speed metal sound.

Hailing from Belgium, VIOLENT SIN formed in 2016 to build upon the legacy of heavy metal. VIOLENT SIN's first full-length Serpent's Call is a summons to all headbangers who love denim and leather, cauldron and sword. Like a jukebox, Serpent's Call synthesizes all sorts of righteous metal styles - classic speed, proto-blackthrash, speed-cum-thrash, juiced-up traditional - into 37-minutes.

T.S.O.L. - Ignore Heroes

Loud mouthed punk in a faux fur coat thrills us with wild tales about the bad old days of Southern California hardcore.

IGNORE HEROES tells the story of the original T.S.O.L. through interviews with the surviving members and those who were there with them in the madness of the early Californian punk rock scene. Frontman, author, and provocateur Jack Grisham takes the audience on a freewheeling tour of his personal hell in a series of anecdotes that are equal part demented TED talk and stand up comedy. T.S.O.L. took the visceral energy of surfing, the violence of skateboarding, and created a heady brew of music that stood apart from the t-shirt and ripped jeans esthetic of the day. T.S.O.L. brought style to the nascent punk rock scene and quickly evolved their sound while drawing thousands to their shows. Initially derided for adding keyboards to their "hardcore" sound, T.S.O.L.'s music now sounds visionary and ahead of its time. There are no celebrity cameos, only people who were in the band's inner circle. The band members themselves discuss their wild descent from punk rock legends to prison, addiction, death -- and back again, to continuing to play sold out shows around the world 40 years later.

Box set featuring 4 classic spaghetti westerns including "$10,000 Blood Money", "Vengeance is Mine", "Find a Place to Die" & "Matalo! (Kill Him)".

In the 1960s, the success of Sergio Leone's "Dollars" trilogy gave rise to an explosion of similar productions. Filmmakers sought to capitalize on this uniquely Italian take on the western characterized by their cynical outlook, morally grey antiheroes and savage violence. This specially curated selection gathers four outstanding examples of the genre all centered around the theme of blood money.

Shin Ultraman

As the threat of giant unidentified lifeforms known as "S-Class Species" worsens in Japan, a silver giant appears from beyond Earth's atmosphere.

There's never a dull day on Japan's newly established SSSP Kaiju defense taskforce, led by Kimio Tamura, played by DRIVE MY CAR's Hidetoshi Nishijima. After a particularly challenging encounter, a silver giant descends from the sky to rescue the planet. Dubbed Ultraman, this giant's identity and purpose are a mystery. SHIN ULTRAMAN is a delightful reimagining of one of Japan's classic superheroes, full of cosmic twists, charismatic villains, and giant Kaiju.

What The Waters Left Behind: Scars

A rock band gets stranded in a ghost town - where internal conflicts and the bad tour quickly lose importance - compared to the hell that awaits them

Drawing comparisons to SAW meets THE WRONG TURN, WHAT THE WATERS LEFT BEHIND: SCARS begins when after a packed gig in the middle of nowhere and a wild night out, an indie rock band's RV gets stuck in the middle of nowhere. The situation is tense: there is trouble within the band and member Billy Bob (Matías Desiderio, Palermo Hollywood) lives up to his reputation as the band's black sheep when he first sleeps with a groupie and then flees. The remaining band members Jane (Clara Kovacic, The 100 Candles Game) and Mark (Juan Pablo Bishel), as well as manager Javi (Agustin Olcese, The Red Book Ritual) and companion Sophie (Eugenia Rigón, Abracadabra). go in search of the ruins of Epecuén. They soon realize not only that they are not alone, but that they are also in acute danger. And that you should also be careful with groupies.

Swamp Thing (Collector's Edition) [4K Ultra HD + Blu-ray]

After a violent incident with a special chemical, a research scientist is turned into a swamp plant monster. Based on the smash hit DC Comic Book!

THE DC COMICS SUPERHERO COMES TO LIFE IN WES CRAVEN'S CULT CLASSIC FILM, MAKING ITS DEBUT ON 4K ULTRA HD!

Deep in Florida's darkest everglades, a brilliant scientist, Dr. Alec Holland (Ray Wise, Robocop) and a sexy government agent, Alice Cable (Adrienne Barbeau, John Carpenter's The Fog) have developed a secret formula that could end world hunger and change civilization forever. Little do they know, however, that their arch nemesis, Arcane (Louis Jourdan, Octopussy) is plotting to steal the serum for his own selfish schemes. Looting the lab and kidnapping Cable, Arcane douses Holland with the chemicals and leaves him for dead in the swamp. Mutated by his own formula, Holland becomes "Swamp Thing" - a half human/half plant superhero who will stop at nothing to rescue the beautiful Cable and defeat the evil Arcane... even if it costs him his life.

Holy Spider

Female journalist Rahimi travels to the Iranian holy city of Mashhad to investigate a serial killer targeting sex workers.

Female journalist Arezoo Rahimi (Zar Amir-Ebrahimi, White Paradise) travels to the Iranian holy city of Mashhad to investigate a serial killer targeting sex workers. As she draws closer to exposing his crimes, the opportunity for justice grows harder to attain when the murderer is embraced by many as a hero. Based on the true story of the 'Spider Killer' Saeed Hanaei (Mehdi Bajestani, Whisper), who saw himself as on a mission from God as he killed 16 women between 2000 and 2001.

Nominated for the Palme d'Or at the 2022 Cannes Film Festival (and winner at Cannes for Best Actress, Zar Amir-Ebrahimi), "Holy Spider" was selected as the Danish entry for Best International Feature Film at the 95th Academy Awards (and made the December shortlist) in this "riveting, true-crime serial killer thriller." ## McBain

Christopher Walken stars as "McBain" a man who avenges the death of a friend by sending a team to Colombia to assassinate a drug lord.

TAKING ON THE DRUG LORDS IS IMPOSSIBLE. TAKING ON A COUNTRY IS INSANE. When prisoner of war Robert McBain (Academy Award winner Christopher Walken, The Deer Hunter) is rescued in the jungles of North Vietnam by a group of Rangers, he expresses his thanks and gratitude. The leader of the Rangers, Santos (Chick Vennera), takes out a $100 bill, tears it in two, gives half to McBain and says, "If the other half of this bill ever finds you, you can pay me back." Eighteen years later, Santos is killed in Colombia while leading a fight against drug lords and corrupt politicians. His sister, Christina (Maria Conchita Alonso, Predator 2, The Running Man) goes to New York with the other half of the bill and seeks out McBain to enlist his help in overthrowing the Colombian regime. With the surviving ex-Rangers from his Vietnam rescue, including Michael Ironside (Total Recall, Top Gun) and Steve James (The Exterminator, The Soldier), McBain's team travels to Colombia to break the power of the drug lords and avenge Santos' death. Directed by genre favorite James Glickenhaus (The Exterminator, Shakedown, Slaughter of the Innocents), McBain delivers "a macho action fantasy... spectacular mayhem that action audiences expect." (Kevin Thomas, Los Angeles Times).

T.S.O.L. - Ignore Heroes DVD

Loud mouthed punk in a faux fur coat thrills us with wild tales about the bad old days of Southern California hardcore.

IGNORE HEROES tells the story of the original T.S.O.L. through interviews with the surviving members and those who were there with them in the madness of the early Californian punk rock scene. Frontman, author, and provocateur Jack Grisham takes the audience on a freewheeling tour of his personal hell in a series of anecdotes that are equal part demented TED talk and stand up comedy.

MONSTERS AND ROCK N' ROLL, WHAT MORE COULD YOU WANT?

The classic era of drive-in schlock was near its end in 1959, but there was still time for The Giant Gila Monster and The Killer Shrews, a pair of no-budget howlers from producer Gordon McLendon. In The Giant Gila Monster, a lizard takes on a small town. If that's not enough for you, there are plenty of cool cars and some ersatz rock 'n' roll sung by the movie's star, Don Sullivan (The Monster of Piedras Blancas). The Killer Shrews stars James Best (The Dukes of Hazard) as a riverboat pilot stuck on an island where the shrews are the size of German Shepherds. The cast includes Ken Curtis (Gunsmoke) and Ingrid Goude (Miss Universe, 1957). These two features were originally released on a double-bill. Trust us — they belong together!

Shabu

Meet Shabu, a 14-year-old artist with big dreams but even bigger problems. After totaling his grandmother's car, he must find a way to pay her back.

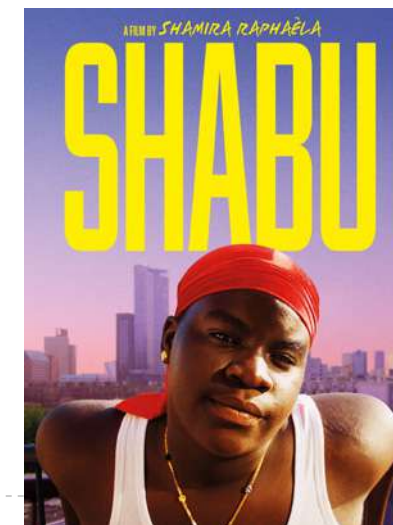

Meet Shabu, a 14-year-old Dutch-Surinamese aspiring artist from "The Paperclip," an innercity apartment complex in one of Rotterdam's most notorious neighborhoods. Shabu has big dreams but even bigger problems. He's just totaled his grandmother's car and desperately needs to raise some cash before the end of the summer in order to pay her back. Utilizing his musical talent and street smarts, Shabu concocts a plan to both make the money and make his family proud in this "crowd-pleasing" documentary that culminates in a "rousingly raucous finale" (Screen Daily).

In The Arms Of Morpheus

A creative exploration of sleep, reality, and dreams.

Sleep: simple in its basic description, elusive in attempts at a comprehensive understanding of all its manifestations. What happens behind closed eyes when we lose consciousness and give ourselves over to dreams? And how is our perception of reality changed when the line between waking and sleeping is blurred? In his new documentary, Marc Schmidt introduces us to several people suffering from sleep disorders. He unobtrusively helps us see and feel what it's like to suffer from insomnia and be trapped between dream and reality. When sleep ceases to be an automatic part of life, we find new ways of looking at our existence.

Johanna Enlists (4K Restoration)

Johanna Enlists is a strikingly different and very personal war story. Instead of the guns, cannons and Huns audiences were getting used to in 1918, Mary plays a young woman living quietly with her family on an isolated farm, wondering how she will ever meet a potential husband. When an entire battalion of soldiers march in to be bivouacked on the land, the war is brought home and she suddenly is faced with a wide choice of suitors. Johanna Enlists served as an important means of encouraging enlistments that were still needed even as the film was released only a few months before the war's end. Miss (Frances) Marion knows every one of Mary's good points as an actress, and she never permitted one to escape her. Does anybody in pictures give us better, sweeter, more wholesome, and natural comedy than Mary Pickford? - Los Angeles Times, September 16th, 1918 Mary Pickford is admittedly the foremost motion picture actress in the world. She has attained this distinction by her talents, her winsome personality, her delightful artistry, her perseverance, and un-grudging efforts to give to her admirers the best that genius has to offer. Miss Pickford's artistry is unrivaled in the exceptional field in which she shines, and in every role, she essays and exhibits that effervescence of youth which is a source of constant delight to her audiences. In "Johanna Enlists", Miss Pickford creates a new and delightful role and one which will serve to endear her the more, if that be possible, with the motion-picture loving public. - The Houston Post, October 27th, 1918

Big Laugh - Consume Me CD

Driving Midwest Punk Hardcore

For decades, the upper Midwest of the United States has been a hotspot for hardcore bands that bend genres and refuse to stick to tired formulas, producing acts like HUSKER DU and DIE KREUZEN. Milwaukee's BIG LAUGH are here to continue that tradition, with a sound that finds them as much at home playing DIY shows in dingy basements as playing large clubs alongside some of punk's luminaries.
