THE MAN FROM U.N.C.L.E. [LIMITED EDITION] [4K ULTRA HD]

GHOULIES II (2-DISC COLLECTOR'S EDITION) [4K ULTRA HD + BLU-RAY]

SAY U.N.C.L.E.!

Submit to MVD as we give up the best entertainment in movies and music! July kicks off with the 2015 Guy Ritchie directed THE MAN FROM U.N.C.L.E. from Arrow Video. This limited edition bluray and 4K remaster is the definitive feature film version of this Action/Adventure classic, which was adapted from the smash 1964 TV series. Brand new extras, double sided posters and more will have you crying for joy!

Guy Ritchie remade Sherlock Holmes films in the 2000s, and we pay homage with original Sherlock Holmes films from the 60s, SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE DEADLY NECKLACE starring Christopher Lee from 1962, and 1968s SHERLOCK HOLMES, with Peter Cushing reprising the role he defined in 1959 for Hammer Films. Both on bluray from Severin.

The Ghoulies go number two with the 4k/bluray combo pack of GHOULIES II! These toilet-dwelling critters wreak havoc in an amusement park, rising from the deep water of their 'Satan's Den' exhibit to flush the park with fright!

David Bowie and Rosanna Arquette star in 1991s THE LINGUINI INCIDENT, where two bungling criminals rob a restaurant, only to find that things never go as planned. For Bowie, it was a Diamond Dog Day Afternoon! Madcap comedy on bluray and DVD.

88 Films kicks it this month, unspooling THE INSPECTOR WEARS SKIRTS 2 and 3 in two separate bluray packages. Hong Kong Girls with Guns- shoot to thrill! It's all Greek to us in the Arrow Video bluray box set THE NICO MASTORAKIS COLLECTION. Six films from cult film-leader Mastorakis that roast American off kilter cinema. Zany, shocking and unhinged? You Feta believe it!

We lost a legendary musician recently, Allman Brothers guitarist Dickey Betts. S'More Entertainment honors his legacy with the CD LIVE FROM THE LONESTAR ROADHOUSE NEW YORK CITY 1988. ABB and solo career classics augmented by appearances from Mick Taylor, Jack Bruce and Rick Derringer! Todd Rundgren is a musical iconoclast who still walks this earth, and the ever-evolving Todd comes this month with a bluray from a 2005 show, LIARS LIVE.

Hot Fun in the Summertime with the Vince Guaraldi vinyl soundtrack for the TV special IT WAS A SHORT SUMMER, CHARLIE BROWN. Recently discovered alternate takes and unreleased gems add to the original soundtrack!

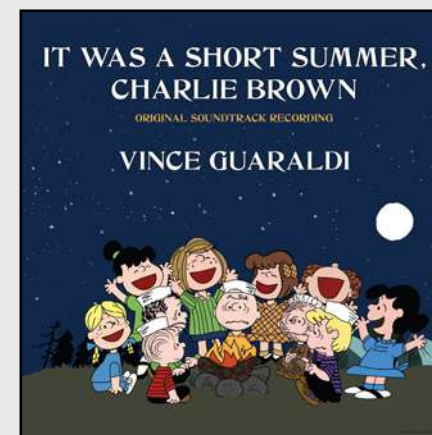

Can we twist your arm some more? Open up and submit to MVD! U.N.C.L.E.!

Brïi - Último Ancestral Comum Vinyl

What a unique album. I've never heard anything like it. Songs flow and then take sharp turns, truly chaotic. Like someone put a microphone to the cosmos

Atmospheric Black Metal from Brazil. It never ceases to amaze me how artists can take local musical themes & develop them to a completely logical & almost inevitable BM conclusion! So it is here & It is also done in a totally beautiful & passionate way. Yet another exciting project whose discography I am going to have to dig int. A fusion of cultures, styles, and ideas.

MOSQUITO, NÁSTIO - 0 [LP] Vinyl

"0" is the 3rd and final step into Nástio Mosquito's quest to debunk identity as the commonplace of human self-recognition.

"0" is the 3rd and final step into Nástio Mosquito's quest to debunk identity as the commonplace of human self-recognition. This is a sprint towards clarity, and the joy of reinvention. The simple profound idea was to construct a gesture that would truly translate the invitation to consider human dignity.

Nostalgia - Echoes From The Moonriver Vinyl

Nostalgia continues to be one of the most consistently excellent bands in contemporary black metal.

A testament to the weight, emotional and creative, which can be sustained by a black metal framework. Double-tracked clean vocals, acoustic guitar, clarinet, piano, a deliciously self-indulgent (and totally successful) jazz break.This album might be less than half screams and blast beats. A sad and gorgeous record and an undoubted high point in the Nostalgia story

Quadro Nuevo - Happy Deluxe Vinyl

Quadro Nuevo's music radiates the joy of an adventurous life. The band's recent tour in Brazil inspired their new album "HAPPY DELUXE".

Quadro Nuevo's music radiates the joy of an adventurous life. The new album is called "Happy deluxe". It was inspired by samba, bossa nova and the cheerfulness of the people there on the band's tour in Brazil. This release, recorded in Rio and Munich, embodies the multicultural influences and charm of handmade sounds incorporating talents like Tim Collins on vibraphone and Paulo Morello on guitar.

Quinn DeVeaux - Leisure Vinyl

Quinn DeVeaux was raised on a healthy diet of his mom's 80s R&B favorites and dad's classic rock leanings and baptized by Ray Charles.

A teenaged Quinn DeVeaux, raised on a healthy diet of his mom's 80s R&B favorites and dad's classic rock leanings, left his hometown of Gary, Indiana, and was driving across the country when he really heard Muddy Waters for the first time. He recalls, "I couldn't believe it. Didn't seem real, that bone-raw emotion." Quinn was no stranger to the important legacy of American roots music.

Trhä - Rhejde Qhaominvac Tla Aglhaonamëc Vinyl

Relentlessly creative and raw black metal. Trhä never disappoints, and this, even though one of the shorter releases, might be a new favorite!

A bit of a more traditional approach but no less enjoyable. This short album features melancholic and depressive parts in a wonderful symbiosis with ever-present keyboard melodies. The final part especially is a concise crescendo of all the brooding and stumbling felt in the first parts of the record.

The year 1994 marks the birth of the Funk Unit. After 30 years of albums, touring and everything connected to it, Nils Landgren thought it would be a great idea to go somewhere special for our 30th anniversary recording session. To make an album celebrating our 30-year history as a funk band from Sweden. The result is this album Raw.

Nostalgia - Echoes From The Moonriver CD

Nostalgia continues to be one of the most consistently excellent bands in contemporary black metal.

A testament to the weight, emotional and creative, which can be sustained by a black metal framework. Double-tracked clean vocals, acoustic guitar, clarinet, piano, a deliciously self-indulgent (and totally successful) jazz break. This album might be less than half screams and blast beats. A sad and gorgeous record and an undoubted high point in the Nostalgia story

Péter Eötvös - Fermata, Respond, Cziffra Psodia CD

Three concertos by Péter Eötvös performed by major European ensembles: Ensemble Contrechamps, Concerto Budapest, and Orchestre de la Suisse Romande.

Péter Eötvös's new posthumous album features three works that take an unusual approach to the long-standing genre of the concerto: the pandemic-inspired Fermata, a reimaging of an earlier viola concerto entitled Respond, and the Cziffra-Psodia, written to mark the centenary of György Cziffra's birth. The performers: Ensemble Contrechamps, Concerto Budapest, and Orchestre de la Suisse Romande.

Quinn DeVeaux - Leisure CD

Quinn DeVeaux was raised on a healthy diet of his mom's 80s R&B favorites and dad's classic rock leanings and baptized by Ray Charles.

A teenaged Quinn DeVeaux, raised on a healthy diet of his mom's 80s R&B favorites and dad's classic rock leanings, left his hometown of Gary, Indiana, and was driving across the country when he really heard Muddy Waters for the first time. He recalls, "I couldn't believe it. Didn't seem real, that bone-raw emotion." Quinn was no stranger to the important legacy of American roots music.

Rotting Christ - Khronos CD

Iconic extreme masters!

From '87 to '89, the band played grindcore. On their '89 demo, Satanus Tedeum, their sound shifted to black metal. With the release of A Dead Poem, the band's sound evolved towards gothic metal realms. They started going back to their heavier era on Khronos and on Sanctus Diavolos they blackened their sound even more. With Theogonia, the band began incorporating folk/world music into their music.

Valerie Whitney - Courage! CD

Magnificent horn player explores the impact of solitude, the quiet reflection of self and nature, and the qualities of courage and hope

This recording reflects Whitney's desire to create a narrative exploring the positive and negative impacts of solitude, the quiet reflection of self and nature, and the animating qualities of courage and hope. She wished to feature works by Canadian and women composers that were not yet well-known, and include some pieces that she simply enjoyed playing. Two premiere works bookend the album.

An Elephant Sitting Still Blu-ray Disc

Under the gloomy sky of a small town in northern China, different protagonists' lives are intertwined in this furious tale of nihilistic rage.

Considered a landmark of Chinese cinema, Hu Bo's An Elephant Sitting Still is a furious indictment of the spiritual costs wrought by China's economic boom from the perspective of those at the bottom. Taking place over a single day in an unnamed industrial city, the film's interlocking narratives paint a portrait of a society marked by selfishness--winner of Best Film Golden Horse Awards.

THE CRIPPLED MASTERS

SPECIAL EDITION

NEWLY RESTORED FROM ORIGINAL 35MM ARCHIVAL ELEMENTS

TWO CRIPPLED BROTHERS, ONE INDESTRUCTIBLE FORCE. REVENGE AGAINST ALL ODDS.

Originally debuting in 1979, The Crippled Masters would later be released under its English title in the United States in 1982. Directed by Joe Law, the film tells of two men, one who has lost both arms and the other who has lost both legs, as they seek revenge against the villainous master who crippled them both. Along the way they form a deep bond and develop innovative techniques that capitalize on their strengths and compensate for their weaknesses. Known for its inventive fight scenes, which showcase the protagonists' resourcefulness and determination despite their physical limitations, this film highlights that with perseverance and skill any obstacle can be overcome.

BONUS FEATURES

- Full commentary track by Will Sloan and Justin Decloux of The Important Cinema Club
- New documentary from Ballyhoo Motion Pictures detailing the history of martial arts film exhibition in the 1970s and 1980s

Don't Look at Me That Way (IndiePix Classics)

Hedi and Iva's torrid affair quickly turns into a taboo love triangle with destructive consequences.

While struggling to balance her job, university studies and raising her five-year-old daughter, Iva (Catrina Stemmer) encounters Hedi (Uisenma Borchu), a strange and fascinating woman who lives in her building. Friendship quickly turns into passion, and the two begin a torrid affair. But when Hedi inserts herself into Iva's relationship with her father (Josef Bierbichler), boundaries are crossed, leading to a taboo love triangle with destructive consequences. Written, directed and starring Uisenma Borchu in her narrative feature debut, DON'T LOOK AT ME THAT WAY is a "compelling examination of female roles, the power of sexuality, gender identity and alienation between cultures" (Reviews by Amos Lassen).

The Linguini Incident (Director's Cut)

A waitress (Rosanna Arquette) and a bartender (David Bowie) decide to rob their employers in this romantic caper from director Richard Shepard.

ROSANNA ARQUETTE AND DAVID BOWIE STAR IN THIS DELIGHTFUL ROMANTIC CAPER FROM DIRECTOR RICHARD SHEPARD!

Lucy (Rosanna Arquette, Pulp Fiction) is an underpaid waitress at "Dali", a terminally hip New York City restaurant, who's seriously in need of cash. Dali's new, mysterious, charming (and very in debt) bartender, Monte (David Bowie, The Hunger) needs to marry someone, anyone, by the end of the week... or else. Together they join forces-- along with Lucy's lingerie designing best friend, Viv (Eszter Balint, Stranger Than Paradise) -- to rob the popular eatery and solve their financial woes. However these three are far from master criminals and they soon learn that in robberies, as in love, things never go as planned.

This "lively and amusing" (Los Angeles Times) romantic caper co-stars Andre Gregory (Demolition Man), Buck Henry (Heaven Can Wait) and Academy Award® winner Marlee Matlin (Children of a Lesser God) and features "David Bowie's zaniest most underrated film role" (Collider) in this engaging romantic comedy from acclaimed director Richard Shepard (The Matador) in this never before seen director's cut.

SALES POINTS

All-star cast includes Rosanna Arquette (Pulp Fiction), David Bowie (The Prestige), Buck Henry (Heaven Can Wait), Marlee Matlin (Coda), Viveca Lindfors (The Sure Thing), James Avery (License to Drive) and Maura Tierney (Liar Liar); From acclaimed director Richard Shepard (The Matador, Dom Hemmingway, I Knew It Was You: Rediscovering John Cazale); Available in a first-time-ever director's cut; From producers Sarah Jackson (Biggles: An Adventure in Time) and Arnold Orgolini (Meteor); Features legendary singer, songwriter, musician, and actor (and Rock and Roll Hall of Famer + six-time Grammy Award winner) David Bowie in the leading role!

PRESS

"'The Linguini Incident' trumpets its eccentricity with its title and casting, as well as in every other way it can... Mr. Bowie makes himself an amusingly level-headed presence, and Ms. Balint is scene-stealingly good as the hapless inventor."

Crash The Animated Series

Crash, the unlikely superhero who has the power to teleport into moving vehicles to stop distracted drivers.

In the age of social media, distracted driving has become one of the most serious causes of injury and death, especially for our youth. Fortunately, there's Crash, the unlikely superhero who has the power to teleport into moving vehicles to stop distracted drivers before it's too late. However, there are those trying to destroy Crash as they believe families should make up their own minds about safety without somebody in a mask and cape telling them what to do.

Season 1, Episode 1 "Hey, Not Cool!"

After a near fatal car accident leaving a high school student with the powers of teleportation, Ronnie Fields becomes Crash, the unlikely superhero who stops other kids from distracted driving. Unfortunately, not everyone takes kindly to his help when a desperate out-of-work computer genius sets out to take down Crash, claiming Crash is responsible for his own downward spiral.

Season 1, Episode 2 "Crashing the Case"

Now that Crash has become a celebrity, with an agent and a steady girlfriend, does he really have time to help people as much as he used to? Meanwhile, The Cell plans his revenge by framing Crash for the death and injuries of several kids in the neighborhood, which leads to an official arrest warrant being put out for Crash by the LAPD.

Season 1, Episode 3 "Dude, Where's My Crash?"

Crash and Bluetooth square off against the escaped convict Infra-Red, who wants to destroy all the roads in Los Angeles. But after Crash goes missing, several folks set out to find LA's missing hero including a bumbling detective duo, an eccentric mad scientist, and a social media influencer and superhero team, The Carpool Kids.

Season 1, Episode 4 "The Good, The Bad, & The Big Head"

The Carpool Kids go toe-to-toe with Mega-Bite who has been holding a powerless Crash hostage along with several kids from the neighborhood. But it seems their biggest threat might come from one of Crash's closest allies, who now goes by Road Rage. This final battle will put the entire city of Los Angeles.

WORLDWIDE BLU-RAY PREMIERES

Spain's tradition of Gothic Horror – particularly during the Franco dictatorship – was characterized by daring concepts, lush visuals, extreme sexuality and a startling aesthetic all its own. These four classic shockers from the 1970s represent the genre at its most audacious: In NECROPHAGOUS, the debut feature by writer/director Miguel Madrid, a fractured family in a crumbling castle conceals a grisly graveyard secret. The anthology film CAKE OF BLOOD – never previously available outside of Spain – presents a quartet of supernatural tales by four young filmmakers. Hammer Films director John Gilling brings his inimitable style to the occult thriller in CROSS OF THE DEVIL. And a terminally ill woman is enticed by eternal life in León Klimovsky's vampire masterwork, THE NIGHT OF THE WALKING DEAD. Each film in this collection has been scanned from its original negative – with over 8 hours of Special Features – for the first time ever in America.

Sherlock Holmes And The Deadly Necklace Blu-ray Disc

The first authorized U.S. disc release of Christopher Lee's sole feature film portrayal of the world's greatest detective.

Shortly after their hit collaboration on THE HOUND OF THE BASKERVILLES, Christopher Lee and director Terence Fisher returned for Lee's sole feature film portrayal of the world's greatest detective. Lee considered it to be "one of the best things I've ever done because I tried to play Holmes really as he was written - as a very intolerant, argumentative, difficult man."

Sherlock Holmes Blu-ray Disc

The six surviving episodes from the 1968 BBC television series starring Peter Cushing as Sherlock Holmes and Nigel Stock as Dr. Watson.

Having first portrayed the legendary detective for Hammer Films in 1959, Peter Cushing enthusiastically returned to the role of Sherlock Holmes for this 1968 BBC television series co-starring Nigel Stock (THE LOST CONTINENT) as Dr. Watson. Though most of the shows were forever lost, these six surviving episodes showcase Cushing at his elementary best.

“There’s a timeless quality to the work that makes it a cultural touchstone, the movie anyone making a New York City period piece today consults and references when recreating the ‘street scenes’ of a ‘Godfather’ or ‘Do the Right Thing’.”

—Roger Moore, Movie Nation

Street Scene (4k Restoration)

Twenty-four hours elapse on the stoop of a Hell’s Kitchen tenement as a microcosm of the American melting pot interconnects during a summer heatwave.

One of the great stage-to-screen adaptations of the early sound film era, STREET SCENE (1931) presents a New York City tenement melting pot, boiling over with summer heat, resentment, and longing. Independent producer Samuel Goldwyn acquired the rights of the Pulitzer Prize winning and hit Broadway play by Elmer Rice, who also penned the screenplay.

Monster Squad - Fire The Faith (Red With Neon Yellow Splatter Vinyl) Vinyl

Monster Squad's most recognizable and revered album is finally back in press on Red W/ Neon Yellow Splatter Vinyl!

From the moment the needle drops on Monster Squad's 2007 album "Fire The Faith" with the title track's scorching bass lines, the record serves as a time capsule for a tenuous moment around the world. Radicalized politics, a neverending war, and the onset of an economic depression characterize a period we'd all soon rather forget!

Battles Without Honor And Humanity: The Complete Collection Blu-ray Disc

Battles Without Honor and Humanity, also known in the West as The Yakuza Papers, is a classic Japanese yakuza film series produced by Toei Company.

Kinji Fukasaku gave the world Japan's answer to The Godfather with this violent yakuza saga, influencing filmmakers from Quentin Tarantino to Takashi Miike. Made within just two years, the five-film series brought a new kind of realism and ferocity to the crime genre in Japan, revitalizing the industry and leading to unprecedented commercial and critical success.

Strangers Kiss Blu-ray Disc

The director of a 1950s film noir pushes his novice leads to fall in love to give his film "heat," while the leading lady's mobster boyfriend stews.

Hollywood. 1955. The director of Strange and Dangerous encourages his novice lead actors to fall in love in "real life" so as to provide the "heat" needed for the film's romance. The actress' gangster boyfriend, who is also the film's financier, is kept in the dark about this scheme. When he learns the truth, he becomes violently angry. The suspense draws to a tingling close with a strange twist.
