TRUE ROMANCE [LIMITED EDITION]

ALIENS, CLOWNS AND GEEKS [SPECIAL EDITION]

ENHANCED ROMANCE!

Arrow Video slings a dart to the heart of TRUE ROMANCE this month, releasing four limited editions of this classic film in formats that you will love! The action gets hot in TRUE ROMANCE, starring Christian Slater, Patricia Arquette, Gary Oldman, James Gandolfini, Brad Pitt, Val Kilmer with a screenplay by Quentin Tarantino-Interstellar Overdrive indeed! Limited edition bluray, UHD and two steelbooks include beefy booklets, tons on extras, interviews, collectible posters-the works! Lust for more no more- get intimate with the enhanced TRUE ROMANCE!

Feel more amour with the MVD Rewind Collection release of THE FABULOUS BAKER BOYS, starring Michelle Pfeiffer, Jeff Bridges and Beau Bridges. A piano duo hits the right note by hiring a sultry singer to spice up the act, hoping that the eventual love triangle doesn't burn any of those Bridges! From MVD Rewind comes the VAMPIRE'S KISS special edition bluray. Starring Nicolas Cage and Jennifer Beals-this one-night-stand will drive a stake through your heart! Vampires also stalk in BLOODY 70'S HORROR DOUBLE FEATURE from VCI, pairing two 1972 films MARY, MARY BLOODY MARY with BLOOD FEAST for a bloodsucking banquet! From Banquet to Levity Ball is HIGHBALL, a MVD Marquee Collection comedy on DVD and bluray. Three separate celebrations turn into one raucous party with Justine Bateman, Peter Bogdanovich and Ally Sheedy in attendance!

Music for our eyes this month with some fantastic DVD and bluray. THE BEATLES AND INDIA documents the fab Four's trip to India, seeking transcendental peace and a desire by John Lennon for the Maharishi to 'slip me the answer.' The answer here is one reveling film, essential to any Beatles collection. MEGADETH - A NIGHT IN BUENOS AIRES showcases a 2005 gig in front of rabid Argentinian metal fans, and ATLANTA RHYTHM SECTION'S SOUND AND VISION ANTHOLOGY gets 'So Into You' with a collection of live concert and studio footage. Go goo-goo-ga-ga over the multi-disc and stand-alone DVD of the GOO GOO DOLLS-GROUNDED WITH THE GOO GOO DOLLS. A live show in pandemic lockdown from last year, this show keeps the Dolls House lit while in quarantine.

Music to our ears included new vinyl from RHINO BUCKET, THE TROGGS, ANDREAS VOLLENWEIDER, STABBING WESTWARD, NINE POUND HAMMER, MOUNTAIN and new CDs from SASS JORDAN and TONY WILLIAMS.

What's not to love?

Black Tape For A Blue Girl - The Cleft Serpent Vinyl

NeoClassical darkwave with seductive mournful string, electronics & voice. Their 13th album, limited edition of 500.

The Cleft Serpent presents an original and thoughtful gothic torch song to humanity, embracing all of our tragedy, heartache, and loss. It is the perfect album for these times: life, with its longing, ennu and contradiction, is narrowed down to the touching interaction of flawed souls that alight in the scorched dreams of acceptance, transcendence and annihilation.

Harbinger - Doom On You Vinyl

Finally on vinyl! Michigan Heavy Metal with a GOING-FOR-IT attitude.

Originally released in 2009 on CD, Doom On You would be the only full-length Lansing, Michigan's HARBINGER would record, yet it has successively grown to a gem of cult American metal. Their style is classic heavy metal, influenced as much by NWOBHM mainstays as Satan, Avenger, Iron Maiden, Praying Mantis, and Tokyo Blade as well as the power metalled likes of Gotham City and Jag Panzer.

Hard Bop Messengers - Live At The Last Hotel Vinyl

John Covelli and the Hard Bop Messengers put you in the lobby bar for Live at THE LAST HOTEL, an original jazz experience.

John Covelli has crafted something special. LIVE AT THE LAST HOTEL is a jazz journey that takes you to a place and time that somehow feels both nostalgic and modern. An original concept, this album plays like a love letter to a time when crowds flocked to the lobby bar to hear John and the Hard Bop Messengers cast a spell over the room. So, belly up and give it a listen. In fact make it a double!

Laceration - Demise Vinyl

1st full length of Bay Area death metal from Laceration. A non-stop volley of furious drumming, rapid-fire riffs, and rampaging tempos.

1st full-length debut of Bay Area death metal horde, Laceration. Following in the steps of 2018's "Imitation" EP the 11 tracks on Demise dispense a non-stop volley of furious drumming, rapid-fire riffs, and rampaging tempos. It's the kind of crushing chug that came roaring out of the late '80s and into the early 90's, where death metal and thrash metal converged

The House - Horror Tribute Collection Vinyl

The House is one of the many names of Vladimir Pavelka (Cult Of Fire, Death Karma).

At 17 he stole his school's money and used it to buy his first guitar. It was clear that he wasn't going to play folk songs but something darker and more terrifying. At 19, he began working in a morgue where his fascination with death deepened to such an extent that it became his daily routine and a part of his life to this day. Now you can enjoy his tribute to famous horror soundtracks and films

Alexander Hülshoff & Martin Rummel - Johann Stiastry: Works For Two Violoncellos, Vol. 1 CD

This album is a must for cello lovers and for collectors of rare 18th century repertoire.

Already in the 1920s, Wasiliewski called Johann Stiastry's music "of such a nature that they may be counted among the better products of the older cello literature, just as they contain effects quite new for that time". Alexander Hülshoff and Martin Rummel present premiere recordings of the first instalment of Stiastry's music for two violoncellos.

Alfonso Gómez - Gabriel Erkoreka: Works For Solo Piano CD

"Gabriel Erkoreka's pianistic oeuvre occupies a prominent place within the contemporary repertoire." (Alfonso Gómez)

"Gabriel Erkoreka's pianistic oeuvre occupies a prominent place within the contemporary repertoire for several reasons: its sonorous poetry, its violence, its technical complexity and its courageous commitment to colour, but also its established craftsmanship and a relationship as intense as it is ambiguous with folklore, the Central-European musical tradition and the avant-garde." Big Little Lions - Happy Accident CD

Folk-pop duo Big Little Lions wrote these songs apart - Helen Austin in Canada, Paul Otten in America - to stay sane & connected over the past 2 years

The folk-pop duo of Helen Austin (Canada) and Paul Otten (USA) came together as a Happy Accident. Living thousands of kilometres apart, they were used to writing award winning songs remotely, but they had always enjoyed coming together to tour. With shows cancelled the duo pledged to release a single a month to keep themselves sane and connected. Happy Accident is the best of those songs.

During July & August 1934 Buddy Moss cut eighteen titles over five sessions, with all but one of them being subsequently released. To gain an appreciation of how valuable Buddy was to his record company as a potentially large seller of records, his contracts of the time indicate that he was paid $5 for each selection. By the end of the following year that payment had been doubled to $10.

Buddy Moss - Restless Night Blues: Complete Recorded Works 1933-1941 Volume 1 CD

After Blind Blake disappeared from the recording scene in the early 1930s, the next influential figure in the East Coast blues was Buddy Moss.

After Blind Blake disappeared from the recording scene in the early 1930s, the next influential figure in the East Coast blues was Buddy Moss. He recorded solidly for a couple of years, it was only when he was sent to prison in 1935 that the next important musician from the region appeared, Blind Boy Fuller. Moss's stretch in jail coincided more or less with Fuller's brief period in the spotlight.

Clifford Gibson - Complete Recorded Works 1929-1931 CD

Clifford Gibson's oeuvre had been committed to wax by 1929, his 1st year of recording.

Clifford Gibson's oeuvre had been committed to wax by 1929, his 1st year of recording, with 8 sides for QRS around June and another 12 sides for Victor in November and December of that year. There is little to gauge Gibson's popularity at the time but his memory is assured by his meticulous guitar picking and original lyrics while his musical eminence on St. Louis' blues scene was never in doubt.

Dance Crazy A Rama Vol. 1 CD

28 thematic songs, with a pleasing dance tempo, several of the titles entered the hot 100 charts, although many of the titles were one-off attempts

Atomicat Records have expanded the Bop, Jive, and Stroll -A-Rama series and added several new concepts to the series, and Dance Craze -A- Rama Atomicat inaugurates the additions. The album is stuffed full of thematic dance-craze songs which are embellished with catchy tempos even though many of the titles were one-off attempts by the artist to create a hit, and become as popular as the Twist."

Dark Tranquillity - Construct CD

"Construct" is ultimately 100% a Dark Tranquillity album that is worthy of being put in perspective and duly considered again in 2022.

In retrospect it has to be said: unjustified, because it has an emotional depth that perfectly reflects the mood in which the band found themselves in the run-up to the creation process. So "Construct" is ultimately 100% a Dark Tranquillity album that is worthy of being put in perspective and duly considered again in 2022.

Grant Stewart - The Lighting Of The Lamps CD

Gleaning new insights from old songs, & making space for each player's distinctive voice. All refreshing elements of jazz that's vital and alive.

Like the vibe in NYC where Stewart lives, the music on this invigorating recording has a dynamic spirit. Like Eliot's poem, right from the first song there's an expectant anticipation about where Stewart and the musicians will go with the uniquely curated repertoire. They deliver on the promise, with ardent jazz that both honours tradition and sounds timeless.

Hard Bop Messengers - Live At The Last Hotel CD

Live at THE LAST HOTEL is, above all, a musical love story - told in jazz. An inspired release from The Hard Bop Messengers.

John Covelli has crafted something special. LIVE AT THE LAST HOTEL is a jazz journey that takes you to a place and time that somehow feels both nostalgic and modern. An original concept, this album plays like a love letter to a time when crowds flocked to the lobby bar to hear John and the Hard Bop Messengers cast a spell over the room. So, belly up and give it a listen. In fact make it a double!

Label: True North Records

While Sass Jordan is celebrated as a multi-platinum selling premiere rock singer, her 2020 album, Rebel Moon Blues, demonstrated that she sings the blues with as much power and authenticity as she personified in the rock world. Following up on the rave reviews garnered by Rebel Moon Blues, Sass continues to mine her talent as a blues singer with 8 new tracks on Bitches Blues, dropping June 3, on Stony Plain Records.

Reflecting on the impact the past two years has had on us all, Sass has recorded songs that examine the visceral emotional territory of a pandemic, and the multiple conflicts that the world is reeling from in the aftermath. "Still Alive and Well" is Sass's triumphant take on a Rick Derringer song that leads off the album. Her original song, "Still The World Goes Round" marks the mid-point with a look at power structures, both within and without, while another new creation "Change Is Coming" ends the collection with a trance-like chant that offers an uplifting perspective.

As we have come to expect from Sass, the album features fierce guitar licks, driving tempo's, the raw and soulful Sass Jordan rasp, and a glorious assortment of rambling road dogs, known as the Champagne Hookers. This particular collection of Hookers includes long time associates and rebel rouser guitarists Chris Caddell and Jimmy Reid, drummer Cass Pereira, keyboardist Jesse O'Brien and the magnificent Mr. Steve Marriner on bass and harmonica.

Marketing Points

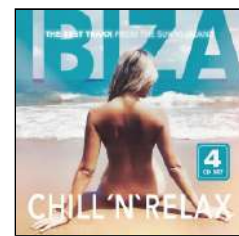

- Publicists in Canada, the US and Europe globally promoting the album
- Radio Promotion to Blues & Non-Comm stations
- Tour of Netherlands in June 2022 and North American touring in autumn
- This album to be released on coloured vinyl in October 2022

Insineratehymn - Disembodied CD

2nd album from LA's Insineratehymn. Malevolently atmospheric, savagely urgent, classically styled death metal delivered with deadly effectiveness

Insineratehymn give a masterclass in '90s death metal, from the spiraling vortexes of early Tampa to the sewage to come from New York, on to eerie emanations from Europe. The band bend those classic tropes in a variety of ways, all of which bespeak their own identity: malevolently atmospheric, savagely urgent, classically styled death metal delivered with deadly effectiveness and memorability.

Intestinal Laceration - Chaotic Eschatological Madness CD

Chaotic Eschatological Madness is the debut album by Peruvian Death Squadant, Intestinal Laceration!

It's been seven years since their debut EP, but the band has not been dormant. Intestinal Laceration has honed their skills, tightening their riffs and releasing a slamming cacophony. Sometimes it's lightning fast, at other times it slows to a crawl, punctuated with the deepest of gutturals and some well-placed, not overly-showy solos.

Jan Schreiner Large Ensemble - Songs & Moods CD

Cologne based bass trombone and tuba player Jan Schreiner plays with different sounds and forms as if they were colours, that fade into each other. "Songs & Moods" is his second album with his Large Ensemble. His unique sound stands between chamber ensemble and jazz orchestra, but every track has its own accents. Beautiful Compositions and Arrangements, compact, fat band sound and impressive soli.

Kui Dong: Painted Lights CD

Kui Dong's music exists at the intersections between several different cultural traditions as they each had undergone significant transformations.

Repeated listenings to recordings of Kui Dong's seemingly disparate pieces reveal common kinships even though they are often so stylistically contradictory. Musicians need to move from one part of the performance area to another, creating various sonic clashes in so doing. Perhaps this is somehow an acoustic metaphor for her own personal journey from one side of the world to the other.

Martin Rummel & Mari Kato - David Popper: Works For Cello And Piano, Vol. 1 CD

Martin Rummel, together with pianist Mari Kato, presents the first part of his planned recording of the works for cello and piano by David Popper.

In addition to a few already popular works, there is evidence of Popper's own extensive concert activity in the form of music influenced by Spanish, Scottish, Venetian, Hungarian, Little Russian and Oriental folk music. Rummel's warm cello tone helps give this music its distinctive charm, the effect of which is the same today as that which Popper's music had on late 19th century audiences.

Michele Marco Rossi & Francesco Abbrescia - Ivan Fedele: Works For Violoncello CD

The works for solo cello collected in this album were inspired, for instance, by the Baroque form of the suite.

During his long creative career, Ivan Fedele has often engaged with the perceptual mechanisms inherent in ancient forms as archetypes to be reinterpreted in modern forms. The works for solo cello collected in this album were inspired, for instance, by the Baroque form of the suite as an alternation of contrasting movements, each based on a single thematic idea and on the stylization of a dance.

Dark melancholy rock/metal band Outshine to release the new album "The Awakening"

With this darker and gloomy approach to it, much more in line with their history, Outshine are now releasing the new album and a series of videos for "The Awakening". The sound is darker, melancholy and with more of a Sisters Of Mercy, Paradise Lost & Type O Negative feel to it with influences from 1980ties horror movie and film noir soundscapes.

The House - Horror Tribute Collection CD

The House is one of the many names of Vladimir Povelka (Cult Of Fire, Death Karma).

At 17 he stole his school's money and used it to buy his first guitar. It was clear that he wasn't going to play folk songs but something darker and more terrifying. At 19, he began working in a morgue where his fascination with death deepened to such an extent that it became his daily routine and a part of his life to this day. Now you can enjoy his tribute to famous horror soundtracks and films.

True Romance

STEALING. CHEATING. KILLING. WHO SAYS ROMANCE IS DEAD?

In 1993, action movie supremo Tony Scott teamed up with a hot new screenwriter named Quentin Tarantino to bring True Romance to the screen, one of the most beloved and widely-quoted films of the decade. Elvis-worshipping comic book store employee Clarence Worley (Christian Slater) is minding his own business at a Sonny Chiba triple bill when Alabama Whitman (Patricia Arquette) walks into his life - and from then on, the two are inseparable. Within 24 hours, they're married and on the run after Clarence is forced to kill Alabama's possessive, psychopathic pimp. Driving a Cadillac across the country from Detroit to Hollywood, the newlyweds plan to sell off a suitcase full of stolen drugs to fund a new life for themselves... but little do they suspect that the cops and the Mafia are closing in on them. Will they escape and make their dream of a happy ending come true? Breathtaking action set pieces and unforgettably snappy dialogue combine with a murderers' row of sensational performances from a stunning ensemble cast in Scott and Tarantino's blood-soaked, bullet-riddled valentine, finally restored in dazzling 4K with hours of brilliant bonus features.

Human Lanterns Blu-ray Disc

HUMAN LANTERNS taps into the 80s craze for the slasher film by providing a grisly take on the serial killer feature in an inimitable Hong Kong style.

When an unbalanced craftsman decides to get revenge on two Kung Fu masters all hell breaks loose in this gruesome tale of bloody retribution. Inspired by movies like Psycho, HUMAN LANTERNS is clearly not for the faint-hearted with its over the top gore and sadistic qualities but this slice of darker than dark fantasy still manages to be both wonderfully horrible and impressively entertaining.

The Brain From Planet Arous
Film Detective Special Edition

When Gor, an evil brain from planet Arous, inhabits the body of scientist Steve March, his intention is nothing less than world domination!

Get ready for planet Earth to be overtaken by a criminal brain from outer space! When Gor, an evil brain from planet Arous, inhabits the body of scientist Steve March, his intention is nothing less than world domination. Lucky for Earth, another intergalactic brain, Vol, offers to assist March's wife, Sally, in stopping the madness. How does Vol intend to help? By inhabiting Sally's dog! A great example of cut-rare sci-fi from the 1950s, this independently produced feature stars B movie favorite John Agar (The Mole People, Revenge of the Creature), and was directed by Nathan Juran, a master of the genre who helmed such classics as The Deadly Mantis, Attack of the 50 Foot Woman, and The 7th Voyage of Sinbad.

Human Lanterns

HUMAN LANTERNS taps into the 80s craze for the slasher film by providing a grisly take on the serial killer feature in an inimitable Hong Kong style.

Though featuring the Shaw Brothers custom brand of martial arts mayhem, HUMAN LANTERNS also taps into the early 80s craze for the American slasher film and the earlier Hammer horrors by providing a grisly take on the serial killer feature in an inimitable Hong Kong style. When an unbalanced craftsman decides to get revenge on two Kung Fu masters by creating special lanterns constructed from the human skin of their dead relatives, all hell breaks loose in this gruesome tale of bloody retribution. Taking its inspiration from movies like Psycho and real cases like Ed Gein, HUMAN LANTERNS is clearly not for the faint-hearted with its over the top gore and sadistic qualities but this slice of darker than dark fantasy still manages to be both wonderfully horrible and impressively entertaining.

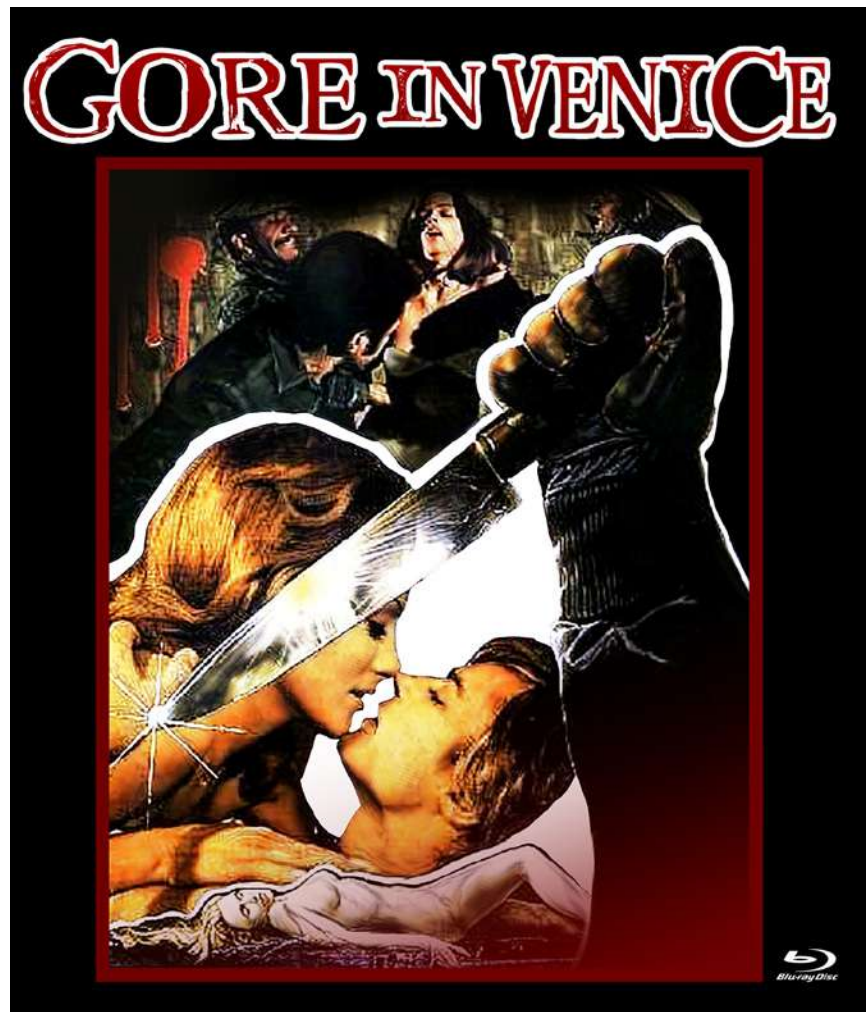

PRESS

"Human Lanterns has got enough action, chaos and carnage to make it worth a look"

Gore In Venice

A detective investigates a horrifying series of murders that have gripped Venice.

Director Mario Landi's notorious 1979 Italian thriller GORE IN VENICE (aka GIALLO IN VENICE) remains one of the most harrowing examples of the European horror film, a shocker filled with sex, violence and graphic gore galore! Set against the picturesque canals of the famed Italian city, GORE IN VENICE follows the plight of Inspector Angelo De Paul (Jeff Blynn, WEAPONS OF DEATH), a cop assigned to investigate a horrifying series of murders that have gripped Venice and left the authorities baffled. As the bodies mount, De Paul gets sucked deeper and deeper into a sleazy mystery leading to a startling conclusion. Graphic bloodshed, lurid eroticism and unsavory characters fill every inch of this jaw-dropping Giallo classic, presented here totally uncut and remastered from the best available materials.

The Diary Of Anne Frank DVD

During World War II, a teenage Jewish girl named Anne Frank and her family are forced into hiding in the Nazi-occupied Netherlands.

The story is based on a stageplay which was in turn based on the actual diary of Anne Frank, whose family went into hiding in Nazi-occupied Holland in 1942, sharing a very small space with several others. We watch her grow up in this claustrophobic setting, starting at age 13 and spending more than two years there until the group was discovered.

Beyond Evil

An architect and his wife move into a colonial mansion, where the demonic presence of the original owner's wife takes residence.

Architect Larry Andrews and his new wife Barbara travel to a small island off the coast of the Philippines, where they are due to move into a condominium. Barbara is perturbed when Larry's business associate, Del, notifies them the residence is not ready yet, and pays for them to stay in a hotel, and tells Larry she feels Del exploits him. At dinner, Del subsequently reveals to the couple that there was no condominium to begin with, and that he instead arranged for them to live in a large, historic colonial mansion named Casa Fortuna. Del soon explains that the home is supposedly haunted by Alma MartÃ-n, the first lady of the home.

Forced Entry [Collector's Edition]

A maniac with a history of child abuse takes to murdering women.

A hair-raising suspense drama starring Tanya Roberts ('Charlie's Angels', A View To a Kill), in a chilling nightmare faced by a beautiful woman forced into a life and death struggle against the demented obsessions of a psychopathic killer. The constant tension is unremitting from the first deadly encounter to the final diabolical conclusion. Definitely not for the faint-hearted.

The Fabulous Baker Boys (Collector's Edition)

For 31 years it's been just the Fabulous Baker Boys... but times change.

Jeff Bridges (The Big Lebowski), Michelle Pfeiffer (What Lies Beneath) and Beau Bridges (The Descendants) enchant in this "lovely and fragile" (New York Magazine) tale about sibling musicians and the sultry singer who leads them to success. "Wry, sexy and enormously rewarding" (Jeffrey Lyons), The Fabulous Baker Boys is sizzling, slick entertainment that could "play just about everybody's strings" (Washington Post).

Jack and Frank Baker are stuck in a rut. Playing the same tired tunes night after night; the brothers are in desperate need of change. So when they meet a sultry songbird named Susie Diamond, their future starts to sparkle. But when life in the limelight brings old rivalries to the surface as Jack and Susie's relationship heats up, the Baker boys soon find their act - and their lives - growing more entertaining than either of them may be able to handle!

The Living Dead At Manchester Morgue

Two travelers, George and Edna, investigate an experimental machine that may be bringing the dead back to life!

"This is one of my favourite zombie films of them all; a genuinely chilling UK set horror..." Director Edgar Wright (Last Night in Soho, Shaun of the Dead, The World's End) A strange twist of fate brings two young travelers, George (Ray Lovelock, The Cassandra Crossing) and Edna (Christine Galbo, The House That Screamed), to a small town where an experimental agricultural machine may be bringing the dead back to life! As zombies infest the area and attack the living, a bullheaded detective (Academy Award® nominee Arthur Kennedy, Peyton Place) thinks the couple are Satanists responsible for the local killings. George and Edna have to fight for their lives, and prove their innocence, as they try and stop the impending zombie apocalypse! The Living Dead at Manchester Morgue (aka Let Sleeping Corpses Lie and Don't Open the Window) is a gory horror tale from Spanish director Jorge Grau and widely considered to be one of the best zombie films ever made. Beautifully restored in 4K from the original camera negative, Synapse Films presents the film with the true original English theatrical mono mix and the real opening and closing credit sequences intact.

The Beatles And India

A unique historical chronicle of the enduring love affair between The Beatles and India that started more than half a century ago.

Rare archival footage, recordings and photographs, eye-witness accounts and expert comments along with location shoots across India, bring alive the fascinating journey of George, John, Paul and Ringo from their high octane celebrity lives in the West to a remote Himalayan ashram in search of spiritual bliss that inspires an unprecedented burst of creative songwriting. It is the first serious exploration of how India shaped the development of the greatest ever rock band and their own pioneering role bridging two vastly different cultures.

Director Ajoy Bose was a teenage rebel in Calcutta in love with the Beatles when they came to India. His long mop and the psychedelic flowers painted on his shirt imitating the Fab Four led to fierce fights with his bureaucrat father. In an interesting quirk of fate half a century later as an established journalist and author, Bose was writing a book, Across the Universe to mark the 50th anniversary of The Beatles historic trip to Rishikesh for the world's largest publishing house Penguin Random House.

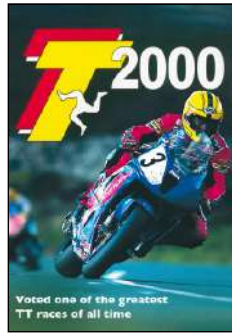

Inspired by Ajoy Bose's book, British Indian music entrepreneur Reynold D'Silva has now taken the amazing saga of The Beatles and India further by producing Bose's directorial debut. Bose and cultural researcher, co-director, Pete Compton, have created an audio-visual presentation that stands apart from the many documentaries on the band, delving deep into the most crucial period of their evolution from the world's most famous pop stars into multi-faceted pioneering musical artists.

THE BEATLES AND INDIA

A CHRONICLE OF THE LOVE AFFAIR BETWEEN THE BEATLES AND INDIA.

Rare archival footage, recordings and photographs, eye-witness accounts and expert comments along with location shoots across India, bring alive the fascinating journey of George, John, Paul and Ringo from their high octane celebrity lives in the West to a remote Himalayan ashram in search of spiritual bliss that inspires an unprecedented burst of creative songwriting.
