Well, not ME literally, but Richard Gere answers the call in his star-making role in the Arrow Video limited edition bluray and UHD of 1980's AMERICAN GIGOLO! Defined by costumes by Giorgio Armani and featuring Giorgio Moroder's disco soundtrack that prominently features the Blondie hit "Call Me," AMERICAN GIGOLO is a neo-crime drama that'll keep you hanging. Get into Gere with this dressed-up version of AMERICAN GIGOLO!

Free love and debauchery also are bedfellows in 1972s AN AMERICAN HIPPIE IN ISRAEL, released on bluray deluxe edition from Grindhouse Releasing. More Americans indulging in freaky, outta sight situations. We can't keep quiet about another American working in Moscow, who witnesses a murder and becomes the target of killers in Arrow Video's bluray and UHD of 1995s MUTE WITNESS. Other June notable films include a 4K version of the Mystery Giallo classic THE CASE OF THE BLOODY IRIS, Yakuza Action with SYMPATHY FOR THE UNDERDOG and BEAST FIGHTER, a Martial Arts Action flick starring Sonny Chiba, Chiba!

In audio, we get a new release from Southern California's crime fighting synth pop Superheroes, the AQUABATS. FINALLY! is their 8th studio album, available on double LP and CD. Drown in the punk pop fury of the Aquabats! On a different note are new vinyl issues from virtuosos Dave Brubeck and Roy Buchanan. The Brubeck Quartet is captured on the LIVE AT THE NORTHWEST, 1959 on 180 Gram black vinyl. This legendary show was recorded by iconic engineer Wally Heider to the highest musical and technical quality. The Master of the Telecaster Roy Buchanan comes with the blues, rock and soul drenched YOU'RE NOT ALONE, a fresh scrubbing of the 1978 gritty classic in the vinyl reissue from Made in Germany.

This month's RESIDENTS reissue is a double LP and triple CD of their 2002 response to 9/11, DEMONS DANCE ALONE. First time ever on vinyl, this deluxe package features original artwork and picture inner sleeves. Soothe you soul with PIPER, the Japanese pop/rock band who bestow upon us SUMMER BREEZE on Blue/White marble vinyl. "Lick your lips and you can taste the salty sea air" is the descriptive text for this much-loved LP.

Alvin Purple provided their own Brit-Pop anthems, fusing 60s British pop, melodious post punk and a smattering of blue-eyed soul. It wasn't long before the band and it's songs caught the attention of NME scribe Simon Williams who included a demo of 'Billie' on 'Return to Splendour' -- a 7" compilation EP on his own Fierce Panda label; the EP also included The Bluetones amongst others.

Goodchilde - Email Female/Hang Up 7" Vinyl

Goodchilde's roots stem firmly from the likes of The Prisoners, The Daggers and The Offbeats.

Goodchilde included Glenn Prangnell, Jon Barker, Allan Crockford and Wolf Howard, so it was no accident that they were good. Despite the unserious reasons for playing, the band was actually made up of members of more celebrated and influential Medway bands, such as The Prisoners, The Daggers, James Taylor Quartet, The Offbeats and The Kravin' A's. Maybe they were the first Medway 'supergroup'.

Grymheart - Hellish Hunt Vinyl

The most entertaining metal-horror extravaganza

Grymheart combines the energy of power metal, the harmonies of folk metal, the epicness of symphonic metal and the screaming vocals of death metal. The most important elements of their sound are the catchy melodies: all tracks contains memorable parts which get stuck in your head; the songs are mostly fast and uplifting with lots of double kick drums & there are some slow parts with a darker mood

Meredith Willson's The Music Man: The 2022 Broadway Cast Recording

Tony, Emmy and Grammy Award winner Hugh Jackman and Tony Award winner Sutton Foster lead an all-star cast in the Broadway revival of Meredith Willson's The Music Man. Often cited as the quintessential American musical, the story centers around a traveling salesman/conman and a prudish spinster librarian who together find that love and acceptance transcends people's differences. Set in the fictional city of River City, Iowa the musical's most famous number is the rousing Seventy-Six Trombones. The Music Man, which features a book, music, and lyrics by Meredith Willson, tells the story of what happens when con artist Harold Hill arrives in River City and falls in love with the straight-laced librarian, Marian. The work first opened on Broadway in 1957 at the Majestic Theatre. A 2000 revival played the Neil Simon Theatre. Jerry Zaks directs the new production of the musical, which also features vocal and dance arrangements by David Chase, orchestrations by Tunick, and music direction by Patrick Vaccariello.

"THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET - LIVE FROM THE NORTHWEST, 1959"

is the newest release from Brubeck Editions, the Brubeck family-run label that only puts out music of the highest musical and technical quality. These exciting performances were recorded by the trailblazing and iconic audio engineer, Wally Heider, who pioneered the art of remote recording from his "studio on wheels." The sound he achieved is stellar, and this is perhaps the best live recording you can hear of one the most popular jazz groups of all time. The tapes were recorded in April, 1959 at the Multnomah Jazz Club and Clark College, both in the Portland, Oregon area. On this recording you can hear the Quartet's mastery of spontaneous counterpoint improvisation. Four months later, the Dave Brubeck Quartet's focus shifted to polytonal and polyrhythmic approaches when the group recorded the legendary "Time Out", and changed the course of jazz forever.

Roy Buchanan - You're Not Alone Vinyl

Roy Buchanan is one of the most influential guitarists of the blues.

This is another excellent album from the late Roy Buchanan. Many consider this album his best, even it was a commercial failure and led Buchanan to a break and a pause for reflection. His sound on this album seems to be a mixture of Pink Floyd meets Jimi Hendrix but with his own unique style as well. There are 2 notable cover here, Joe Walsh's "Turn To Stone" and Neil Young's "Down By The River"

🔥 "The Best 'Punk' Album in 25 Years. A high concept project that bashes through generational barriers. They combine roots-punk style music a la the Buzzcocks, The Undertones, the Ramones, and the Misfits, and then incorporate this into Japanese Saturday morning cartoon imagery. It's sort of like the Archies on steroids, or the Fountains of Wayne on amphetamines. Osaka Popstar have perfected a near-miraculous combination of fun and catharsis that leaves you breathless, exhausted, and completely satisfied."
— American Hit Network

🔥 "The verses are catchier than many a groups choruses, and the choruses are like three-chord crack. And similarly irresistible."
— Classic Rock Magazine

🔥 "A phenomenal ode to power pop and deeply infectious pop punk...should be standard issue for every punk popper even dreaming about starting a band."
— AMP (American Music Press-monthly)

Fur - Bond CD

Clarinetist-composer Hélène Duret's French-Belgian trio with hypnotical, groovy jazz, adding some blues, repetitive motifs and psychedelic colours.

FUR is the French-Belgian trio of the clarinetist Hélène Duret, featuring Benjamin Sauzereau on guitar and Maxime Rouayroux on drums. Bond is pure jazz, but also features unpredictable musical shifts, an unlikely mix of styles and genres: a succession of ballads, groovy sections, blues themes, hit-like compositions, hypnotical, repetitive motifs and psychedelic colours.

Henry Kane - Circle Of Pain CD

HENRY KANE arrives with the infectious third album, Circle Of Pain. 7 heavyweight tracks once again taking the project's sound in new directions.

HENRY KANE arrives with the infectious third album, Circle Of Pain. 7 heavyweight tracks once again taking the project's sound in new directions. The record crosses the D-beat-inspired punk/crust influences into much more metallic territory, with dreary melodic elements and blackened atmospheres infiltrating a caustic bed of more modern-sounding metallic grindcore and crust-infused death metal.

Magnus Öström & Dan Berglund - e.s.t. 30 CD

e.s.t. 30 zooms in from the widest of panoramas to the intimacy of the close-up.

e.s.t. 30 zooms in from the widest of panoramas to the intimacy of the close-up. And from the total silence and weightlessness of space in the opener to the heartfelt sincerity of the final track Believe, Beleft, Below, or as it is called in the later version with vocals: Love is Real. If we meet again, I'd tell you how I feel, I'd tell you from the start, I'd tell you love is real. Love remains.

Eden Brent's newest disc - laid down in London, mixed up in Memphis, made in Mississippi - brings serious Delta vibes to a blues and roots classic.

What happens when a Delta-bred blues pianist finds herself in a London studio? If you're Eden Brent, you make the record of a lifetime, Getaway Blues. Tracked remarkably over two short days and backed by top British session pros including in-demand guitarist Rob Updegraff (Jamie Cullum), the nine-song album is Brent's favorite to date, one that places her firmly among the finest pianists and songwriters in the blues world and beyond. Highlights include the hook heavy, boogie-woogie brilliance of opening title track, "Getaway Blues," the gorgeous country-soul ballad, "You on My Mind," the double-entendre blast of "Gas Pumping Man," the Mose Allison-worthy "Watch the World Go By," and the N'awlins-channeling, 88s-rollicking vibe of "What You Want." Her first studio album of new material since 2014's Jigsaw Heart, Getaway Blues opts for the immediate setting of keyboards, guitar, bass, and drums, musical arrangements that can "travel," to quote Brent, and be tour ready. Yet in scaling back, Brent's nuanced vocals step up, embracing the emotional truths at the heart of each song. Great performances abound, with compositions as evocative of her Delta upbringing as Jesse Winchester's once were but with the added sass and humor of Memphis Minnie and vocal persuasion of the finest blues belters. Brent's husband, British jazz trombonist and arranger Bob Dowell, produced the album while Grammy-feted engineer Matt Ross-Spang gave the record a sharp, intimate mix that befitted the down-to-earth sessions. Decades into a career topped by four acclaimed albums for Yellow Dog Records, Brent - the onetime protégé and touring partner of Greenville, Mississippi, boogie-woogie blues master, Abie "Boogaloo" Ames - is now setting her own standard for others to follow. The resulting musical journey is testament to all that makes the award-winning musician shine as an artist. Road-tested and roots-perfected in taste, chops, and songcraft, Getaway Blues is Brent at her irrepressible best.

Nathan Graham Saint Of Second Chances

Soulful and steady, Graham's music offers a raw introspective of the human condition that's both painful and comforting. A Stunning debut.

Born and raised in Chicago, Graham meshes South Side Blues with Nashville Americana, beginning his career backing blues singers at famous haunts like Buddy Guy's Legends and Kingston Mines. He spent a decade as a guitar-for-hire before picking up a mic to tell his own stories on the stage. Soulful and steady, Graham's music offers a raw introspective of the human condition that's both painful and comforting. His guitar conveys heartbreak, lyrics tell stories of regret, but his rich vocal delivery offers the remedy. Having brought his songs on international tours with both major label and indie acts, Graham is challenging the notion of what it means to be a singer-songwriter. He's driving inclusivity within the genre, and he hopes to evoke a sense of understanding in the process.

"I'm writing about universal experiences," he says. "I'm writing music to connect my story to yours, show you all that we have in common, and maybe help both of us feel less alone."

Steve Dawson - Ghosts

Largely written between 2017 and 2023, these ten songs on "Ghosts" combine intimate confessions and tightly constructed narratives

Across all ten songs, Dawson's voice, with his soulful, golden burr, communicates with searing emotion and resilience. That visceral and instantly recognizable tone finds an ideal complement in an ensemble of principally Chicago-based musicians and close friends. "My last album was pretty much all me," Dawson says. "It was recorded and mixed mostly during the pandemic - I played all the instruments and sang all the parts (except for Diane on one and my friend Alton [Smith] playing keys on one song). So for this album I wanted to NOT do that. I wanted to play a 'dream band' of amazing Chicago musicians I've worked with over the last 15 years or so."

Pagan Altar - The Time Lord CD

Originally recorded back in 1978-79, "The Time Lord" features Pagan Altar's earliest recordings.

Two of these flawlessly executed tracks are from a 24-track recording session, and the rest of the album are early, atmospheric versions of songs that were later re-recorded on Judgement of the Dead. This LP includes a long-lost, never-heard before version of "Night Rider", from the same era as the other songs! This is pure doom metal sorcery.

Peter Hammill - Been Alone So Long (The Naked Songs Tour, Bremen 1985) CD

Peter Hammill is a master of his craft and The Naked Songs Tour 1985 is an impressive testament to his musical prowess.

After years of touring with his K-Group since the early 1980s, VdGG founder member Peter Hammill went on an extensive solo tour in 1985, covering 24 cities across Europe, with the motto: "The Naked Songs". Hammill alone on stage, with his instruments and his songs, he and the audience. Hammill: The performances were, in a way, turning more into themselves rather than blasting out with bombast."

Pooogie Bell Band - Suga Top CD

The 15 tracks represent the quintessence of Pooogie's career with all the ingredients of Funk & Soul, Blues & Pop, combined with the spirit of Jazz.

It is not really enough to listen to Pooogie Bell's new CD "Suga Top" - his fifth album as leader - under the heading of mere "biography". The 15 tracks represent, rather, the quintessence of Pooogie's career to date with all the ingredients of Funk and Soul, Blues and Pop, combined with the spirit of Jazz. But above all, Pooogie digs deep into his own (family) history.

Rain Sultanov - Forgiveness CD

From anger to love: In a trio of organ, sax, and cello, Rain Sultanov is facing the dark side of the soul.

Anger is a destructive force. On his new album, Rain Sultanov is confronting it by writing some of the most heavenly music of his career. Soprano saxophone, organ, cello - this unusual instrumentation is at the heart of these nine floating, deeply moving compositions. Forgiveness is an extension of the palette of the 2018 release Cycle, which focused on the core duo of organ and saxophone.

LIVE IN CONCERT 2023 ROBIN TROWER

featuring SARI SCHORR
with Richard Watts
Chris Taggart

ROBIN TROWER PERFORMS LIVE IN CONCERT WITH SARI SCHORR.

For six decades, Robin Trower's career has been an act of quiet rebellion. Rewind the reels of the British guitarist's backstory and you'll find an artist who has always rolled the dice rather than take the path of least resistance. In the early '70s, Trower announced his fearless streak by leaving the security of Procol Harum for a gold-selling solo career whose ever-present Bridge Of Sighs album filled the stadiums of North America. Since then, he's flowed from his own projects to collaborations with everyone from Jack Bruce to the United State Of Mind supergroup alongside Maxi Priest and Livingstone Brown. For an artist with such a pedigree as Robin's, having made dozens of albums, concert performances on DVD are much rarer items. 2005 was the first recorded performance with his own band. The only other DVD was made with Jack Bruce and Gary Husband in 2009. A new concert DVD was long overdue. After taking a break for the last few years Robin returned to work to make his latest album Joyful Sky with New York vocalist Sari Schorr. This album was released in October 2023 to tremendous critical acclaim. Having enjoyed the recording sessions so much, Robin was inspired to look for an opportunity to play these new songs live. Rehearsals with his band Richard Watts, Chris Taggart and Sari were arranged, a concert hall and a film crew booked. So in September '23 Robin recorded his 2nd ever live concert video. To make the event even more significant, Robin decided to perform classic tracks such as Bridge Of Sighs and Day Of The Eagle.. Robin, Sari and the band were all on fantastic form and a unique visual testament to a unique artist was created.

"UTTERLY FANTASTIC."

Cinema Crazy

Within hours of his funeral, Hong Kong movie studios began to produce hundreds of unauthorized biopics, spin-offs and rip-offs starring a competing roster of Bruce Lee lookalikes. Over the next decade, 'Bruceploitation' would become a staple of global cinema. Director David Gregory - whose award-winning documentaries include LOST SOUL: THE DOOMED JOURNEY OF RICHARD STANLEY'S ISLAND OF DR. MOREAU and BLOOD & FLESH: THE REEL LIFE & GHASTLY DEATH OF AL ADAMSON - now examines this fascinating phenomenon via interviews with Bruce Li, Bruce Le, Bruce Liang and Dragon Lee; martial arts legends like Angela Mao, David Chiang, Phillip Ko and Sammo Hung; and the producers, directors, distributors and experts - along with copious clips from the films themselves - that for the first time reveal the history, controversy and legacy behind one of the most bizarre genres in movie history.

"At its best, Bruceploitation was some of the most uninhibited and exciting martial arts cinema of the age."

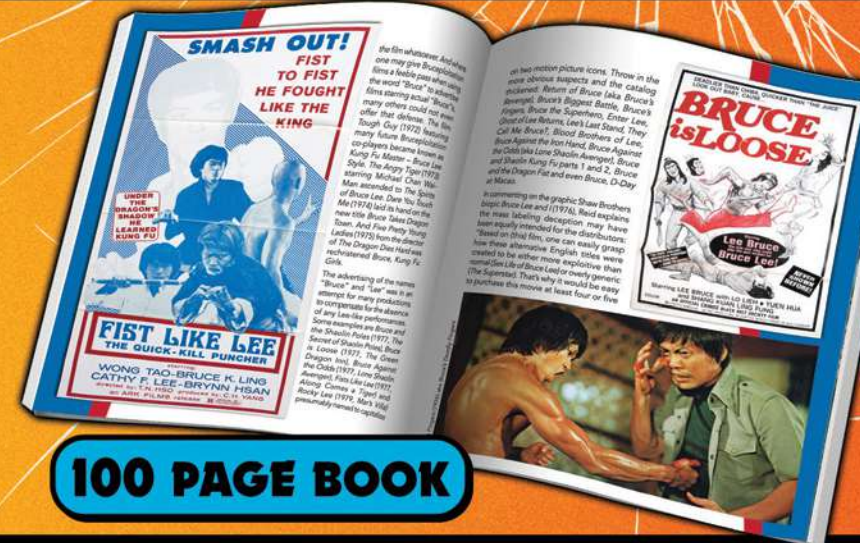

Den Of Geek

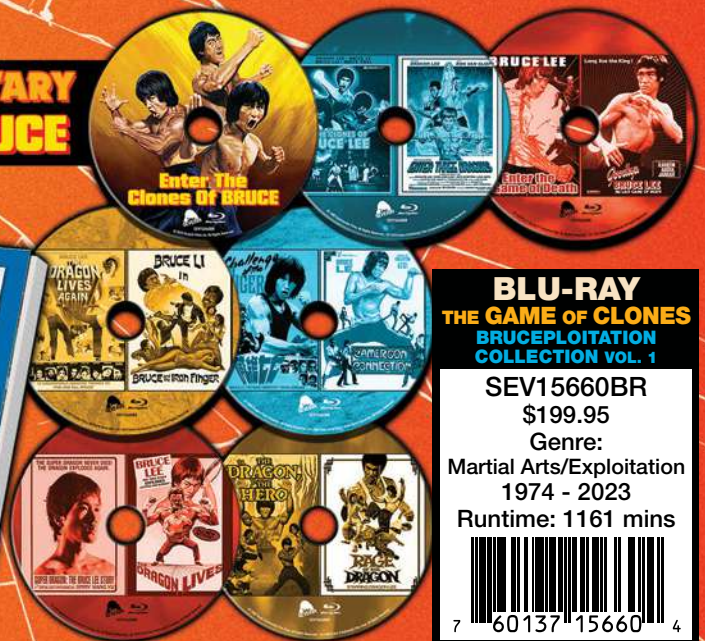

Hours after Bruce Lee's death, Bruceploitation was born. And for the next 10 years, talented martial artists were enlisted to mimic iconic aspects of Lee's life, style and mannerisms. Fueled by equal parts deception and demand, these films created one of the most wildly entertaining sub-genres in movie history. THE GAME OF CLONES: BRUCEPLOITATION COLLECTION VOLUME 1 now presents 12 of the very best - and frequently very bizarre - films starring Bruce Li, Bruce Le, Dragon Lee, Bruce Liang and more, all restored for the first time ever from original elements. Then in the "fascinating gem of a documentary" (Culture Mix) ENTER THE CLONES OF BRUCE, director David Gregory tracks down the surviving Bruces - along with martial arts legends, producers, directors, distributors, historians and more - to reveal the entire shocking and bittersweet saga behind a celluloid phenomenon that still refuses to die.

COMMON LAW WIFE

JENNIE, Wife/Child

Wealthy old coot Shugfoot Rainey wants to trade in his over-the-hill mistress for his young niece, "Baby Doll" Jonelle, a pouty-faced stripper from New Orleans. But Rainey's mistress, Linda, has a surprise for both: according to Texas law, she's Shugfoot's common law wife and has no intention of leaving quietly. With its small-town setting and hilariously rotten characters, Common Law Wife is an overripe slice of Southern sleaze.

Jennie is so unhappy she puts the moves on Mario, the hunky hired hand. But when Albert realizes Jennie and Mario have been making' bacon in the barn, he drugs them, chains them in the cellar, and digs their graves. Based on an infamous adult manga series, this film is a delirious riot of action, sleaze, and outrageous style directed by genre master Yukio Noda (Golgo 13: Assignment Kowloon). Pagan Altar - The Time Lord Vinyl

Originally recorded back in 1978-79, "The Time Lord" features Pagan Altar's earliest recordings.

Two of these flawlessly executed tracks are from a 24-track recording session, and the rest of the album are early, atmospheric versions of songs that were later re-recorded on Judgement of the Dead. This LP includes a long-lost, never-heard before version of "Night Rider", from the same era as the other songs! This is pure doom metal sorcery.
