MAY: WE TAKE YOU TO HELL

MVD's May inferno begins with the 4k ultra-HD bluray of Arrow Video's JASON GOES TO HELL. It's Friday the 13th all over again, as Jason finds new life in Youngstown, Ohio (!) and starts hacking and slashing his way to the end. Two-disc limited edition, so get it while the Gates of Hell are still open! Jason goes from hellfire to his frozen body thawed and shot into the heavens to become the first Space Age serial killer in JASON X! Heavens or hell, Jason has you covered with these two limited 4K releases!

From the Gates of Hell to GATE OF FLESH, a Japanese bluray from 88 Films. In the ruins of postwar Tokyo, prostitutes form a dance club, soon infiltrated by gangsters and pimps looking for a cut. There's trouble amongst the rubble! Also from 88 are LADY OF THE LAW, a bluray cut from the Golden Age of Hong Kong swordplay and MAGNIFICENT BODYGUARDS starring Jackie Chan, who bursts into your living room in the first ever Hong Kong movie shot in 3D! MVD has skin in the game with two very different flicks, Severin's unsettling horror film IN MY SKIN on bluray and two-disc 4K, and THE BIKINI CARWASH COMPANY I and II bubble feature, a bodacious babe video store classic!

Berlin experimental band DIE HAUT did a collaborative record with Birthday Party-era NICK CAVE in 1982 called BURNIN' THE ICE, long out of print but back now in limited edition red and clear vinyl versions. PETER MURPHY, co-founder of dark and gloomy Bauhaus, returns with his first new CD and LP in 10 years, SILVER SHADE from Metropolis Records. SOFT MACHINE co-founder ROBERT WYATT's music is the soundtrack for the Cleopatra DVD release ROCK BOTTOM, a cautionary tale of the '70s hippie culture gone awry. Involved in the music production were Pink Floyd's Nick Mason and Brian Eno.

As Jason goes to hell, he'll undoubtedly run into G.G. ALLIN, who for sure will hype him on his new record, a reissue LP and CD of his debut album ALWAYS WAS, IS AND ALWAYS SHALL BE.

Open up and you'll see hell ain't a bad place to be!

Animalize - Verminateur Vinyl

The tongue-in-cheek heavy shock-rockers are finally back with their 2nd full length. Powerful heavy/speed metal, this time all-French lyrics.

At last, the second wind of youth is blowing for "French Heavy Metal" - and, to be honest, not a moment too soon. It took just over 40 years for France to finally have its own heavy shock-rock band, ANIMALIZE. Mostly mid-tempo, nearly all of the album's ten tracks hit that heavenly balance between buoyant hook and heavy thrust, between rock-god maximalism and back-street mischief.

Pennisi, a maniacal listener to say the least; and who as a result, in addition to having studied the instrument with the likes of Clare Fischer, Walter Norris, Bill Dobbins, David Berkman, Andy Laverne and several others, has been largely trained on records.

Hellcrash - Inferno Crematório Vinyl

Album #3 sees the evil Italian speed metal horde more refined and streamlined than ever - without leaving rawness and filth behind.

A dozen years after their formation, HELLCRASH have pulled off the impossible and refined this attack even further with LP#3, Inferno Crematório. Of course, another totally OTT cover graces the album, and somehow it makes absolute sense with where HELLCRASH are now going. They sound their most blackened, but "blackened" in the sense of evil thrash and speed metal imbued with more atmosphere.

Breathtaking live performance on October 4, 2004, recorded at the "Sendesaal" in Bremen (Germany) by Radio Bremen of Grammy Award winner Janis Ian

When you think of American singer-songwriters, you inevitably think of artists like Joni Mitchell or Tracy Chapman. But don't forget Janis Ian. The foundation of her career was laid in 1967 with her single "Society's Child". The song was also on the program when Janis Ian performed in the studio of Radio Bremen on Oct. 4, 2004. Solo, just the artist, her guitar, her voice and her unique charisma.

Lo & Behold - Mrs. Shrill's Mindblowing Experience CD

This double CD offers a delightful mix of sounds from the formation, with elements of ethno, jazz, pop and a cabaret audio book.

Sandra Weckert is not only Germany's most argumentative musician, but is also a master of placing herself in the spotlight.. She knows that it is no longer sufficient to play her horn with virtuosity. Sandra is an iconoclast; her CD is a labyrinth of styles and insidiously laid tracks. She is searching for eclecticism, leaves jazz impudently behind, but always finds a way back to mother jazz.

JUST STAY HIGH

The Alexis P Suter Band is a powerfully compelling six-piece ensemble that artfully blends the lines between Blues, Soul and Rock music. The band burst on to the music scene with regular performances at Levon Helm's legendary Midnight Rambles in Woodstock, NY and continues to captivate every audience they meet more than twenty years later.

Three-time Blues Music Award (BMA) nominee, vocalist Alexis P. Suter, is an American blues and soul blues singer-songwriter. Owner of a booming voice that is equally poignant roaring with pained passion, exploding with energy and purring with soothing soulfulness, her powerful presence radiates energy and love.

The core band, fellow Brooklyn natives Ray Grappone (drums), Jimmy Bennett (guitar), Daniel Weiss (keyboard), Peter Bennett (bass) and Vicki Bell, (producer, vocals and percussion) have been making music together for almost three decades. Grappone and Bell own and operate the Hipbone Records label, where they first met and worked with Suter in the 1990's when she was performing House Music, Funk and R&B and signed to Epic/Sony Records Japan. Captivated by her unique and incredible talent, they invited her to record vocals on a Hipbone project, which was the start of a life-long collaboration. Link Wray - The Rock Prophet Feature film that tells the story of the inventor of the power chord and distortion.

The Rock Prophet is the best kept secret of Rock N Roll, and only Rock's mighty heroes know about Link Wray and his infamous 3 chords.

An unlikely figure responsible for the birth of Rock N Roll, music superstars such as James Brown, Jimi Hendrix idolized him, and Jimmy Page said he would have never picked up a guitar if he hadn't heard him on the radio.

The Native American musician catapulted into the spotlight with his iconic song, Rumble. Born into poverty, he faced adversity his whole life. He was pursued by the Ku Klux Klan, mis-represented by record companies, he even lost a lung during the Korean War and was told he could never sing again.

Featuring an A-lister cast of rock legends such as Pete Townshend, Jimmy Page and Dan Auerbach, Director and media-industry veteran Jon Brewer (BB King The Life of Riley, Nat King Cole: Afraid of the Dark) and iconic Music Doc Producers, Cardinal Releasing tell the story of The Rock Prophet: Link Wray for the first time on screen.

Why is it that most people don't know about this foundational figure in the history of rock music? The Rock Prophet looks at his life and asks why.

Pusherman: Frank Lucas & The True Story Of American Gangster

The true story of dope dealer Frank Lucas and how crime and ghetto culture entered popular culture

Pusherman is the real-life story of Frank Lucas, the Harlem dope-dealer who smuggled pure heroin from Southeast Asia's "Golden Triangle" into the U.S. inside the coffins of dead GI's flown back from Vietnam. Narrated by Mark Jacobson, who wrote the original story for New York magazine, that the hit movie, "American Gangster," was based on, and produced by Legs McNeil, award-winning best-selling author and film documentarian, with extra commentary by Daily News and New York Magazine crime writer, Michael Daly. Pusherman will reveal the spectacular story of heroin and Vietnam and the cultural phenomena known as Blaxploitation films in the 1970's. The ending reveals the epidemic of police corruption in New York City during the 1970's-- all the subjects and stories the $255 million grossing film, "American Gangster" left out.

PRESS

" If there really is a true cultural story of Frank Lucas, this is it. The inclusion of how the story became myth and a brand is profound. Congratulations! Really something to be proud of and I am personally touched to be in it."

Sour Party

Gwen and James are on a quest to scrounge money in order to show up to a baby shower with a proper gift... from the registry.

Gwen and James are two broke, self absorbed, emotionally stunted 30-somethings, eking their way through a meager LA existence. They've tried everything to get rich quick from cliché artistic endeavors and failed business startups to sex work, playing the victims all the way. When Gwen realizes she forgot her older sister's baby shower the night before, she's determined to save face in front of her family and get her sister a proper gift... from the registry. After putting their heads together, Gwen and James assemble a list of people they believe owe them money and set out on a twisted road trip across Los Angeles in an attempt to collect on their "debts." What begins as a journey to confront the ghosts of their pasts quickly shifts gears as Gwen and James realize maybe they're not the victims after all - maybe they've just been throwing themselves a sour party. Featuring hysterical performances from Reggie Watts (Comedy Bang! Bang!), Corey Feldman (The Lost Boys), and Christopher Rodriguez Marquette (Barry), this female-led comedy in the vein of SUPERBAD will resonate with anyone who's felt lost in their life.

One Tough Cop

A detective (Stephen Baldwin) tries to remain loyal to his partner, and his best friend... a mobster.

THERE ARE STILL REAL HEROES. SOMETIMES THEY GET LOST IN THE HEADLINES.

From the acclaimed producer of such gut-wrenching action hits as Carlito's Way, Sea of Love, Scarface, Serpico and Dog Day Afternoon comes the real-life story of former NYPD detective Bo Dietl. When a nun is savagely raped and mutilated, Bo Dietl (Stephen Baldwin, The Usual Suspects) and his partner, Duke Finnerty (Chris Penn, Reservoir Dogs), track down the bad guys in the raw nerve that is New York's underbelly. Dietl's lifelong friendship with Richie La Cassa (Mike McGlone, The Bone Collector) helps. The ranking cappo of one of the biggest organized crime families in the country, Richie gives Bo access to the names and addresses he needs to solve the crime. This connection also puts Dietl under suspicion of the OCB and FBI agent Jean Devlin (Amy Irving, Carrie). Solving the most heinous crime in New York history ahead of the law enforcement hierarchy costs Dietl and Finnerty their badges. In this emotional crossfire, Bo betrays Richie by taking solace in the arms of his friend's ex-mistress, Joey O'Hara (Gina Gershon, Bound).

Miss Julie

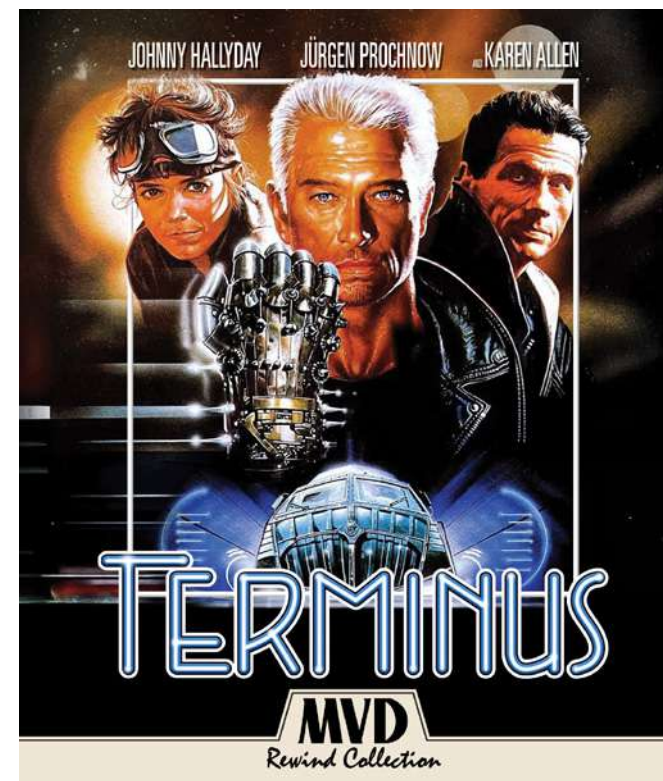

This film adaptation of August Strindberg's play explores the tragic affair between an aristocratic young woman & her father's valet in 1890s Sweden.

Miss Julie (Saffron Burrows, Deep Blue Sea, Troy) is a young woman of privilege, destined to marry into an affluent family of high standing. But one night, while rubbing elbows with her family's servants, she finds herself irrevocably drawn to Jean (Peter Mullan, Children of Men, War Horse), a strong-willed and impertinent footman. Though he's already engaged, Jean yearns for the rebellious Miss Julie. Passion ignites, and, as the couple allow themselves to give way to temptation, the consequences of their affair grow increasingly dire, in this acclaimed film from Academy Award® nominated director Mike Figgis (Leaving Las Vegas).

Terminus (Collector's Edition)

In the year 2037, evil forces try to stop the drivers of a computer-guided super-truck in a sadistic cross country race.

In the year 2037, the future is in the hands of a genetically engineered boy: Mati (Gabriel Damon, RoboCop 2) a child-genius with a brain programmed by a brilliant and evil doctor (Jürgen Prochnow, Dune... in three deliciously crazy roles). Mati is the master of a sadistic cross-country rally (with a 100 million dollar prize that no one has ever won), controlling "Monster", a gigantic A.I. operated storm truck that rumbles across the continent, while being pursued by a squad of rebels determined to stop "Monster" before it reaches the "End of the Line".

Karen Allen (Raiders of the Lost Ark), Julie Glenn (Betty Fisher) and the legendary Johnny Hallyday (the French rock-n-roll singer famously known as the "French Elvis") are all along for the ride in this fast-paced, action-packed "Mad Max" inspired futuristic adventure!

Long, Lonesome Highway: The Story Of Michael Parks

Long Lonesome Highway is the story of the greatest performer that you've likely never heard of.

Long Lonesome Highway is the story of the greatest performer that you've likely never heard of. Once called "the world's greatest living actor" by Quentin Tarantino, Michael spent the majority of his life being blacklisted by the Hollywood system. This documentary is designed to show the world the unmistakable talent they failed to pay enough attention to.

Our director, Josh Roush, was assigned to be Michael's assistant on the set of Tusk by Kevin Smith. The first day between a young, green haired punk and an older, cranky actor was quite awkward, but they soon developed a kinship over a mutual love of music and literature that lasted until the end.

For years, Josh tried to get a documentary off the ground about Michael and now, thanks to the support of Kevin Smith, James Parks (son), Tricia Mancuso Parks (daughter), Kathy Onstad (sister), and many more friends and family members, that dream is now a reality.

The River: A Songwriter's Stories Of The South

A kaleidoscopic journey exploring the lives, lore, and locales along three great rivers of the American South

An award-winning, visionary journey through lives, lore, and locales along the Mississippi, Cumberland, and Tallahatchie rivers via musical performances, storytelling, light art, aerial dance, and cultural history. Stars the Nashville based cosmic roots band Coyote Motel, aerial dance troupe Suspended Gravity Circus, and light artists Darling Lucifer Productions. Written and co-produced by Premier Guitar editorial director and musician Ted Drozdowski and directed by Richie Owens, director of the Dolly Parton series Smoky Mountain DNA.

Grammy Award winning author and music journalist Anthony DeCurtis calls the film "a dream journey that teases out why and how music means so much to so many of us." These songs and the narratives connecting them are a journey along these beautiful rivers, and the river of life, with the music, visuals, and aerial dance adding a kaleidoscopic palette that broadens the film's emotional landscape to something beyond what words and music alone can convey.

Starting at Nashville's Cumberland and weaving south along the Mississippi and Tallahatchie, The River introduces viewers to muleskinners, coal miners riverboat gamblers, freedom fighters, and the late musical giants of North Mississippi blues. It also essays the omnipotent, timeless magic of the rivers themselves, and the cities and rural outposts along their endless waters.

Coyote Motel--Drozdowski on vocals, guitar and diddley bow; Sean Zywick on bass; Kyra Lachelle Curenton on drums; Luella on vocals, guitar, and percussion; and Laurie Hoffma on Theremin and glockenspiel--cast a sonic spell that's both otherworldly and deeply rooted. INCLUDES SONG PERFORMANCES: 1) Tupelo 6:03, 2) Black Lung Fever 4:46, 3) Keep Me in Your Mind 3:18, 4) The River Runs Forever 3:25, 5) Long Distance Runner 7:12, 6) Trouble 3:04, 7) Homegoing 4:08, 8) Still Among the Living 4:32, 9) Down in Chulahoma 3:57, 10) The River 6:14 (All songs by Ted Drozdowski except Homegoing, which is public domain.)
