More AMOUR from MVD!

February may be manufactured romance month, but MVD spreads real love throughout the year, no matter the calendar! We are giddy over our offerings this month, leading off with AMOUR, the debut CD from Blackie and the Rodeo Kings' Colin Linden and jam band legend and North Mississippi All Star Luther Dickinson. They honor their roots and brew up an affair that sparks passionate Americana. Welcome Stony Plain Records! It's hard not to get passionate about an artist who is also on the NEW YORK TIMES Best Seller list! The artist/author is Josh Malerman, the book is BIRD BOX, the band is THE HIGH STRUNG, and the vinyl is QUIET RIOTS. A harmony laden masterwork! More black wax for March with titles from BLACK LUNG, DAVE BRUBECK, DEAD MILKMEN, MODERN JAZZ QUARTET, NEKTAR and more. Freddie always gets our Mercury rising, as in QUEEN front man Freddie Mercury. THE GREATEST SHOWMAN DVD documents his colorful, dramatic life, without the dramatizations of the recent hit movie.

We do have a fondness for movies as you know, and March unloads a harvest from Arrow Video, including the political controversy of THE PRISONER, taking down the bad guy in the SISTER STREET FIGHTER COLLECTION, the desperate search for the PHANTOM LADY and the sexy sociopaths in STRIP NUDE FOR YOUR KILLER. Also on target is MVD Rewind, with a Triple Feature of NEMESIS Sci-Fi films (#1 ranked on Amazon). Cleopatra Entertainment presents LIFE AFTER FLASH, a Blu-ray doc on Sam J. Jones, and his roller coaster life after starring in FLASH GORDON. Put on your suit and Sea some horror in two Oceanic panic films. BEYOND ATLANTIS, half human, half fish and complete trouble, and a six-pack of shark mania that is 6-HEADED SHARK ATTACK. Love bites!

MVD HAS A CRUSH ON YOU IN MARCH!

ALL RELEASES ►

Anders Aarum - Shakin' Our Souls Vinyl

Driven jazz, dreamy beatscapes, atmospheric electronics - like a roller

The album feels like a roller coaster ride. Aarum won't even decide which instrument to focus on: Rhodes, Moog or the piano' Thankfully for the listener, he just can not decide.

Katie Barbato - The Art Of Falling Vinyl

New 7-song EP from Philly's own folk and country songstress Katie Barbato.

Barbato brings great talent and a generous heart to bear on her new 7-song EP, "The Art of Falling". Musically, The Art of Falling is by no means dark, however. The production by Barbato and multi-instrumentalist Brett Kull (Grey Eye Glances, Echolyn) feels warm, hopeful and openhearted, brightened by Barbato's delicate guitar work and sweet, expressive voice, as a singer and as a writer.

Dave Brubeck - NDR 60 Years Jazz Edition No02 Vinyl

Dave Brubeck's quartet on the US ambassador tour on the 28th of February 1958 in Hanover, Germany

In the whole treasure trove of recordings from six decades of Jazz at NDR, this one stands out in particular, because it is one of the first in the series of concerts recorded outside of the broadcasting station. But with increasing regularity the transmission vans were making their way to other Jazz venues. In 1958, for the first time the itinerary included Hanover and Brubeck.

Funeral - Discography 2001-2004 Vinyl

The complete discography of Syracuse hardcore band The Funeral now available for the first time on vinyl as a double LP

The hardcore-punk scene in the city of Syracuse, NY was considered one of the strongest and most vibrant in the world. In the early 2000's one of the bands to emerge from that era was The Funeral, an unabashedly heavy hardcore band that left a short, but important, mark on that scene. This discography collects their entire recorded output onto a beautiful double LP, on vinyl for the first time.

Dizzy Gillespie & Hans Koller New Jazz Stars - NDR 60 Years Jazz Edition No01 Vinyl

NDR Jazzworkshop 1953 with Dizzy Gillespie Quintet and Hans Koller New Jazz Stars with Jutta Hipp & Albert Mangelsdorff

In 1953 Gillespie is 36 years old and a world star in Jazz. Born in 1917,he is known in the scene as "Dizzy" because, alongside the inventors of bebop Charlie Parker and Bud Powell, he likes to play the mad intellectual with goatee beard, Basque beret and round sunglasses. He cultivates the role of provocateur, in 1964 he even stands for election as president of the USA.

Modern Jazz Quartet - NDR 60 Years Jazz Edition No04 Vinyl

The MJQ made a stop at the broadcasting station of the Norddeutscher Rundfunk in Hanover on the 28th of October 1957.

John Lewis on piano, Milt Jackson on vibraphone, Percy Heath on double bass and Connie Kay on percussion. "Integration " was the key word used by Lewis all his life to describe MJQ: finding a balance between intellect and emotion, between the language of form of the European classic tradition and the eloquent tradition of the "black" Blues from the USA.

ROSCOE MITCHELL ORCHESTRA

LITTLEFIELD CONCERT HALL MILLS COLLEGE

Roscoe Mitchell 25 Piece Orchestra Returns with an Outstanding Follow up to its 2017 release "Discussions."

Each of the four pieces on the album is a product of the Roscoe's tireless efforts to devise systems to articulate and capitalize on the tensions between composition and improvisation in both his own work and music as a practice at-large. Three of the four works ("Rub," "Wha-Wha," and "Frenzy House") are part of the "Conversations for Orchestra" series, the history of which is described in detail in the liner notes for Mitchell's 2017 album "Discussions" (Wide Hive Records WH-0339). In brief, the "Conversations" series consists of compositions which trace their genesis back to a suite of improvisations recorded by Mitchell, pianist Craig Taborn, and drummer Kikanju Baku in 2014 (which can be heard on the Wide Hive releases "Conversations I" and "Conversations II"). Mitchell has employed some of the most talented minds from all over the globe to produce precise, note-for-note transcriptions of the complex material improvised by the trio. The process suggests a vision of music making which eschews both the rigid fixity of composition and the flighty transience of improvisation, recasting both practices in a way that emphasizes meticulous idea-craft, instantaneous communication, and unbounded imagination. The album's first track is "Rub" from the "Conversations" series. In this iteration, the orchestra eases us into an opening improvisation by Soo Yeon Lyuh, whose utterly, exquisitely sensitive haegeum playing nearly crystallizes the air around her as she's soon joined by baritone Thomas Buckner and flautist Gianni Trovalusci. Andy Strain's opening cadenza on the second track, "Wha-Wha," serves as a testament to the trombonist's soaring talent as a melodist and full-bodied mastery of tone. "No Nah Nah Nai", is an original work conducted by Mitchell himself Ellis's harp. Such is the stunning genius of the series, each element of which is a fruitful, boundless text ever always being by becoming.-from the liner notes of Joshua Marshall

Accursed Spawn - The Virulent Host CD

Technical Death Metal recommended For fans of Necrophagist, Suffocation, Decapitated, Cryptopsy, Death...

Formed in 2010 with one mission: turn raw aggression into music. The band mixes influences from old and new forms of extreme metal, resulting into a renowned energetic live show. Musically Accursed Spawn's ability to hone in on their chops and assault listeners with a wall of pounding drums, thundering vocals and wailing guitars is a prime example that GREAT death metal can still be written!

Commander Cody - Live At Rockpalast 1980

CD/DVD

July 1st 1980 at WDR in Cologne, Commander Cody was rocking through his set list, always with a tongue-in-cheek.

Commander Cody already gained cult status by 1980 when he was invited to Rockpalast. His music wandered between blues, country rock, boogie and rockabilly spiked with his very own wit and humor. The audience witnessed a colorful, high energy concert evening in the WDR Studio A in Cologne. In his known manner Commander Cody was rocking through the set list, always with a tongue-in-cheek.

Devours - Iconoclast CD

Devours is the sound of a queer DIY punk channeling love for The Presets and Fischerspooner, mixed with Nintendo themes!

Vancouver-based Jeff Cancade, AKA Devours, is the sound of a queer DIY punk channeling love for The Presets, Fischerspooner, and Britney Spears, mixed with vintage Nintendo themes into fiery, confessional bedroom electro-pop anthems. Mixing disco, funk, and 80s video game sounds with a political and nostalgic fury, making for easy-listening that gets less easy the more you listen.

RITCHIE VALENS

ROCKS

DigiPac (6-sided) with 40-page booklet, 36 tracks, playing time approx. 73:28 minutes.

Eight months is a tremendously slim timespan to build a legacy. Yet that's all the time Ritchie Valens had to create his classic recordings, which remain revered around the world. Valens made his first sides for Del-Fi label producer Bob Keane in May of 1958, and on February 3, 1959, he was killed in the tragic plane crash that also took the lives of Buddy Holly and The Big Bopper. In that all-too-brief period, Ritchie scored three indelible hits--his debut single Come On, Let's Go and a blockbuster double-sided single pairing Donna and La Bamba. The teenager certainly knew how to rock, and his Bear Family disc does precisely that as Valens storms through his aforementioned hits and a plethora of other spicy gems: Hurry Up, Ooh! My Head, Rockin' All Night, Dooby Dooby Wah, various alternate takes, and plenty more. As a special bonus, we've included both sides of Donna Ludwig's rare tribute single to her departed boyfriend, touchingly closing the CD.

Fenrir - Legends Of The Grail CD

Fenrir sustain their momentum, while preserving their characteristic style, with this mature and coherent new album. The album is darker and heavier than the earlier one, mainly in the guitar and drum parts, but is still strongly folk-based, with ever-present fiddles and acoustic passages between pure metal sections. The female vocals, extremely varied, contrast with male backing vocals and several sections with screamed vocals.

Flying - Angry, Undead CD

Brutal Death Metal Recommended For fans of Suffocation, Archspire, Death and Obscura...

The Flying is a death metal band based in Quebec city (Canada) formed in July 2010. Formed by great musicians, their tech death metal while not being over the top extreme, is controlled, defined, tight and memorable. While being totally brutal and in your face, The Flying still manage to incorporate more melodic elements making the whole album completely incendiary.

Goo Munday - 9 Lives CD

Dance party that will make you head bang and want to smash something.

Following Goo Munday's debut EP, Munday is now releasing her brand new album titled "9 Lives." Her album contains 12 tracks and includes an exciting collaboration with Sidewalks and Skeletons. Munday's sound has evolved from a down-tempo dark/pop sound into a punk, dance party that will make you head bang and want to smash something, yet it still visits dark and witchhouse vibes as well.

Larry Graham & Graham Central Station - Raise Up CD

Bassist Larry Graham - the architect of the slap bass technique that defined the funk sound of the '60s and '70s.

He's been doing it for more than four decades - first as the rock-solid foundation for a string of enduring and iconic hits by Sly and the Family Stone, and later as the head of his own powerhouse unit, Graham Central Station.

Gran Afro Cuban Orchestra De Generoso Jimenez - Generoso, Que Bueno Toca Usted CD

With this CD I intent to put new live into the unique sound of Benny's orchestra - the sound of a forgotten epoch

In 1951 I recorded several LPs with Bebo Valdes, Chico O'Farrill and with Obdulio Morales. In 1955, I joined Benny Moré's band where I played the trombone as a soloist and did the arrangements of that band for 16 years.

Stephane Grappelli - NDR 60 Years Jazz Edition No03 CD

In 1957 Stéphane Grappelli came to Hamburg for a recording session with a quartet in Studio 1 of the NDR broadcaster.

In its natural and self-evident way this studio session was an illustration of what was to be Grappelli's life-long guiding principle: "Jazz is all about feeling: It is a matter of the heart", as he once summarized it in simple words "It is only when you have the feeling that the music happens as if by itself."

Great Tragedy, The: Winter Dance Party 1959 CD

1-CD with 24-page booklet, 34 tracks. Total playing time approx. 78:32 minutes

February 3, 1959 will always be remembered as 'the day the music died.' On that frigid occasion, a small plane carrying Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens, and The Big Bopper crashed in a frozen Iowa field, killing all touring three rock and roll luminaries and their pilot. Bear Family's posthumous tribute disc to the tragedy brings together some of their greatest recordings on this one-of-a-kind collection, along with key sides from the surviving participants of the tour.

Grimoire De Occulte - Wisdom Of The Dead CD

After 5 years of channeling the occult energies - The debut album of German occult Death Metal temple is unleashed!

In this digital age where everybody is interconnected to the point of saturation, it's getting harder and harder to shy away from the public eye and let the ancient magic do its thing. Yet GRIMOIRE DE OCCULTE have been pretty good at it: formed in the early 10's in Aachen, they've managed so far to keep an on purpose low profile, with only scattered and limited releases and four live shows only...

Trilok Gurtu - Spellbound CD

Spellbound is a veritable symbol of Trilok Gurtu's vision of world music

Two short snippets recorded live by and with Don Cherry bookend the album "Spellbound": an improvisation in a duo with Cherry on trumpet and Gurtu, who can be heard on the drum set especially converted and modified for his needs, forms the start of the new CD by the Indian percussionist, while a brief "Thank you, thank you very much" from Cherry for the applause of the audience closes the album.

Helge Lien Trio - 10 CD

On the first record with the new line-up, the Helge Lien Trio present a vision of runic jazz.

After the departure of Frode Berg, the Helge Lien Trio were in need of a fresh start. 10 presents a panopticum of this unique formation's versatility, including onomatopoeitic piano paintings and hypnotic grooves, experimental abstractions and runic jazz. Lien is known for being capable of everything. This time, he just did everything all at once.

Lousberg - The Death Of Humanity CD

Amazing landscape of dark ambient soundscape - The soundtrack for the collapsing world.

With "The Death Of Humanity," Lousberg achieves what most composers fail to do so in a lifetime, much less a career. Transcending styles of dark ambient and dungeon synth, Lousberg is responsible for the merger of worlds; both specific and abstract. Intensely contemplative, "The Death Of Humanity" offers itself as an existential soundtrack...

MVD WELCOMES:

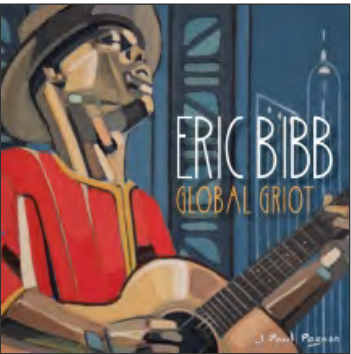

Stony Plain

Established in 1976, Stony Plain is a record company based in Edmonton, Alberta, a culturally diverse city on the edge of Canada’s prairies, but one that rarely shows up on the music industry radar. The label specializes in what its founder, Holger Petersen, calls roots music: Contemporary music with roots in the past that stands on its own, but which influences almost all the pop music you hear around you. Stony Plain has released over 400 albums of blues, classic R&B, folk, country, bluegrass, rock and roll, and music that is impossible to put into neat pigeonholes. The common element in all of these forms of music is that the musicians, regardless of current fad or fashion, put their hearts and souls into the music they make. Stony Plain released the results – and almost invariably found that people responded.

Modern Jazz Quartet - NDR 60 Years Jazz Edition No04 CD

The MJQ made a stop at the broadcasting station of the Norddeutscher Rundfunk in Hanover on the 28th of October 1957.

John Lewis on piano, Milt Jackson on vibraphone, Percy Heath on double bass and Connie Kay on percussion. "Integration " was the key word used by Lewis all his life to describe MJQ: finding a balance between intellect and emotion, between the language of form of the European classic tradition and the eloquent tradition of the "black" Blues from the USA.

Nostalgico Puerto Rico CD

a blend of Africa, Spain and the Caribbean: Puerto Rico has played a major role in the emergence of contemporary salsa

If salsa was born in New York at the end of the 60s, it is rooted in the musical movement, in the Caribbean islands in general and in Puerto Rico in particular, that led to the birth of popular mixed music, mostly for dancing. Puerto Rican folk music was fed by its Afro-European origins, the strong Cuban influence and the culture discovered in the United States by the diaspora.

ELETRIK RENDEZVOUS - WARRIOR

Warrior is a journey into the world of fusion, where you can rediscover this genre.

Fusion is more than alive. The album title is a statement. At the helm of The Elektrik Rendezvous is Gumbi Ortiz. With his Latin influenced percussion, he instills all his passion into the iconic songs that have accompanied and influenced his musical life. So it is no surprise that he has included some of Al Di Meola's repertoire. With him, celebrating 30 years of fusion stage and recording history, he shares not only an ongoing musical partnership but also a long-lasting friendship. Warrior is a journey into the world of fusion, where you can rediscover this genre. At the end you will conclude enthusiastically: Yes, Fusion lives and has arrived here and now! Musicians: Gumbi Ortiz - Percussion Luis Alicea - Drums Elias Tona - Bass Justino Walker - Guitar Larue Nickleson - Guitar

Klaus Schulze Wahnfried - Trancelation CD

Re-Release of the extraordinary Klaus Schulze album

This album is one of Klaus' sideline ideas, a "Wahnfried" release. And certainly not exactly a typical "Schulze", if such a character does exist at all. In the 90ties there was a new musical dance fashion, called Techno, Trance or Ambient, and most of its champions called Klaus and respectfully the "Fathers of Trance and Techno". The idea for Klaus Schulze was, to do a "Trance" album himself.

Jim Shearer - Secret Frets: Jim Shearer & Friends With Strings CD

Unlikely teaming of tuba with guitar, mandolin & violin on a recording that took 22 years to complete

It all started with a pick-up band focusing on the music of Django Reinhardt. The group featured Steve Smith, mandolin; Gordon Butler, violin; Joseph Mancilla, acoustic rhythm guitar; Curt Warren, electric arch-top guitar; and Jim Shearer, tuba and vocals. The band played a series of shows, festivals, and club during the 90s, which culminated with the band recording most of the tracks featured on this current release.

Stacy Sullivan - Tornado Alley CD

"A commanding,...presence, Sullivan captures that rare combination of vulnerability and worldliness." The London Times

"Tornado Alley" might be described as a weather map of the American psyche, a cross-country journey by a formidably talented artist driven by curiosity, optimism and a fierce intelligence. Sullivan brings an acute psychological insight into whatever she sings in a program that connects the songs to evoke a tale of awakening and hope in troubled times.

We Are The Catalyst - Ephemeral CD

"Ephemeral" explores depression, the darkness within us all, hope, loss, dystopian world views and existential themes.

"Ephemeral" explores depression, the darkness within us all, hope, loss, dystopian world views and existential themes. Most pronounced on the album is the sense of being just a small cog in the machinery that is the universe. All the struggles, strives, hopes and dreams we all have are generally nothing in the greater scheme of things.

Commander Cody - Live At Rockpalast 1980 CD/DVD

July 1st 1980 at WDR in Cologne, Commander Cody was rocking through his set list, always with a tongue-in-cheek.

Commander Cody already gained cult status by 1980 when he was invited to Rockpalast. His music wandered between blues, country rock, boogie and rockabilly spiked with his very own wit and humor. The audience witnessed a colorful, high energy concert evening in the WDR Studio A in Cologne. In his known manner Commander Cody was rocking through the set list, always with a tongue-in-cheek.

Freddie Mercury - The Greatest Showman

Freddie Mercury - The Greatest Showman DVD

The sad passing of Freddie Mercury in 1991, took from the world probably the finest rock and pop performer of all-time. With only a handful of front men and women coming anywhere close to Mercury's level of showmanship, the great man remains as important a 20th century artist as Valentino, Sinatra or Monroe. But Freddie was much more than just a consummate and professional performer; his magnetic stage presence and outstanding vocal abilities, alongside his genius as a songwriter and skills as a highly regarded musician, made this iconic all-rounder among the most respected and best loved personalities to ever grace a stage. This 2 x DVD film presentation is a tribute to a great man, almost 30 years after the tragic circumstances of his death. Featuring contributions from his closest friends and colleagues plus fellow musicians and the finest critics, writers and broadcasters, the film also boasts extensive archive footage, interviews and news reports from the man himself and with the group which he so expertly co-created. Still as popular today as he ever was, Freddie Mercury was a once-in-a-generation personality whose life, albeit short, was one which touched almost everyone who ever saw him perform.

MVD Rewind Collection

NEMESIS 2/NEMESIS 3/NEMESIS 4:
TRIPLE FEATURE

NEMESIS 2: NEBULA: 73 years after the events in NEMESIS, humans have lost the Cyborg Wars and they are now slaves to the cyborg masters. Rebel scientists have developed a new DNA strain, which could signal the end of the cyborgs, and it is injected it into a pregnant volunteer. When the cyborgs learn of the woman and her baby, both are listed for termination. To escape, the woman steals a cyborg ship and is transported back in time to East Africa in 1980, where the mother is killed, but the baby is saved. It takes 20 years, but a cyborg bounty hunter named Nebula (Chad Stahelski, John Wick) eventually locates the young woman, named Alex (Sue Price), and travels back in time to terminate her.

NEMESIS 3: TIME LAPSE: Alex finds that she has twenty half-sisters who are waiting for her to return to the year 2077. Central Command wants Alex (Sue Price) captured alive and scanned to see if her DNA is a strong and more powerful strain than normal. But Alex may be too tough for Farnsworth (Tim Thomerson, Near Dark) to capture.

NEMESIS 4: DEATH ANGEL: Following an uneasy ceasefire between the humans and the cyborgs, Alex Sinclair (Sue Price) is making a living in the future working as a cybernetically-enhanced assassin for her boss Bernardo (Andrew Divoff, Wishmaster). But when Alex accidentally targets the wrong man and kills the son of a major crime syndicate head, she finds herself on the run once again as every assassin in town comes to collect the bounty on her.

Beyond Atlantis

Forgotten by Nature... Invaded by Modern Man...Half Human...Half Fish!

A band of adventurers on the search for a reported fortune in buried treasure, investigate many islands to the south of the Philippines and discover an unknown civilization that may be descendants of the lost continent of Atlantis. These half human, half fish creatures, have pearlized eyes and are able to stay underwater for great lengths of time...a bonus because all of their important rituals, including love-making, take place on the sea bed. But this lost tribe needs outsiders for mating and when they capture the greedy band of fortune hunters, the adventure becomes a fight for treasure!

Miseducation Of Cameron Post, The (Special Edition)

Based on the celebrated novel by Emily M. Danforth, THE MISEDUCATION OF CAMERON POST follows the titular character (Chloë Grace Moretz) as she is sent to a gay conversion therapy center after getting caught with another girl in the back seat of a car on prom night. Run by the strict and severe Dr. Lydia Marsh (Jennifer Ehle) and her brother, Reverend Rick (John Gallagher Jr.) -- himself an example of how those in the program can be "cured" -- the center is built upon repenting for "same sex attraction." In the face of intolerance and denial, Cameron meets a group of fellow "sinners," including the amputee stoner Jane (Sasha Lane) and her friend, the Lakota Two-Spirit Adam (Forrest Goodluck). Together, this group of teenagers forms an unlikely family as they fight to survive. Winner, Sundance Film Festival Grand Jury Prize. Blu-ray includes: 5.1 Surround, Stereo, English subtitles for the deaf and hearing-impaired

PRESS

“The Vault' is a combination heist and horror picture; and it's the rare genre mash-up where each element's equally strong.”

—Noel Murray, Los Angeles Times

“The Vault is a strange but successful mixture, a heist thriller-turned-horror movie.”

—Alexa Dalby, Dog and Wolf

“The Vault is one of those films that have no right to be as good as they are, given that it is that most unlikely of genre-defying hybrids -- the bank robbery film with added, er... supernatural chills.”

—Matthew Bond, Mail on Sunday (UK)

“Though it could do with being weirder and wilder, this high-concept mash-up - what if crooks robbed a haunted bank? - features fine work from a brace of rising stars.”

—Kim Newman, Empire Magazine

“This is all great fun and as the heist begins the robbers are revealed to be a charismatic bunch with a very interesting dynamic.”

—Andy Lea, Daily Express (UK)

Long Goodbye, The

A wife and young mother with terminal breast cancer explores the raw edges of dying with grace and dignity.

Watch in real time as Kara Tippetts, the quintessential "normal mom" struggles through each new breast cancer diagnosis, ending with her untimely and hard to understand death. Her honesty and courage inspired hundreds of thousands of fellow moms to follow along with Kara through her suffering and eventual death. All one has to do is watch Kara for 30 seconds to realize she was an amazing person with a God-given purpose. Anyone who has experienced loss, pain, or disappointment will relate to Kara, and despite her suffering, even because of her suffering, she will uplift and encourage anyone who dares to watch. No one will be the same after watching Kara's story.

Fat John Sextet - Honesty: The Unreleased 1963 Studio Session CD

Continuing Turtle Records exploration into previously un-released historic British Jazz.

The unsung band leader and drummer (Fat) John Cox led several modern jazz line ups through the 1960s, and rather like Alexis Korner in the Blues and John Mayall in R&B, his bands were incubators of young and talented English musical performers. With the likes of Alan Skidmore, Art Themen, Harry Beckett, Dave Castle, John Mumford, Ron Mathewson going through the ranks.

THE PRISONER

Banned from the Cannes and Venice Films Festivals for being anti-Communist and excoriated elsewhere as pro-Soviet propaganda, Peter Glenville's The Prisoner stoked controversy at the time of its original release and remains a complex, challenging and multifaceted exploration of faith and power.
