THE BIRTHDAY MASSACRE -
DIAMONDS

A WHOLE LOT MORE 'BEYOND THE DOOR!'

Opening the portal to this month's pleasures is Arrow Video, with the devilish BEYOND THE DOOR! Italian directors were possessed by the original Exorcist film, and that horror classic spawned a subculture of copycats, with BEYOND THE DOOR levitating above the rest. This 'popcorn spiller' has the Mom as the host of Beelzebub's unholy offspring! Two discs packed with enough extras to make your head spin! C'mon, Satan is waitin'!

HANUKKAH keeps the faith, featuring father and son Hanukillers. A real 'Festival of Frights' leads to a REAL Black Sabbath! On DVD and Blu-ray from Invincible. And if you're praying for another spiritual-based thriller, check out Arrow's THE PASSION OF DARKLY NOON Blu-ray. A religious fundamentalist descends into an explosive rage over jealousy and unrequited love, devoted to satisfying that passion! Starring Ashley Judd and Brendan Fraser.

Kansas City here we come! Arrow jazzes up this month's set list with the 1996 drama KANSAS CITY, starring Jennifer Jason-Leigh and Harry Belafonte. A Depression-era gangster drama, KANSAS CITY was directed by the legendary Robert Altman. This high-def Blu-ray presentation includes reversible artwork, Altman audio commentary, trailers, TV Spots, interviews with the stars and a limited edition collector's booklet. KANSAS CITY is a hit, man!

New titles in the continuing DAVID SUSSKIND ARCHIVES interview DVD series launch this month, with I WAS A HITMAN FOR THE MAFIA (echoes of KANSAS CITY!), GAY RIGHTS: PRO AND CON (can there be a 'con' concerning Human Rights?!?) and HOWARD HUGHES: THE WATERGATE CONNECTION. Revealing TV interviews from the early 70s. LADYWORLD is DVD and Blu-ray thriller finding eight teenage girls trapped without food and water and losing their sanity in an endless birthday party. Which lead us to this month's music.

THE BIRTHDAY MASSACRE celebrate with a new LP and CD DIAMONDS, an exercise in light, shade and darkness with their patented gothic dance beat. CHRISTIAN DEATH is also cut from the same Goth cloth. DEATH CLUB 1931-1993 is a live CD/DVD featuring original vocalist/founder Roz Williams, casting doom on the appreciative audience.

Sax Man Bobby Keys was a legend, known as the '6th Rolling Stone' during his lengthy association playing with that band. The DVD EVERY NIGHT'S A SATURDAY NIGHT: THE BOBBY KEYS STORY is an autobiographical road trip through a musical life, showing the ups and downs and late nights playing and partying with the Stones, Lennon, Harrison, Joe Cocker, and many, many more. The Keys to success!

So go beyond, open the door and March right in!

Evel Knievel - Evel Knievel

12 inch picture disc in a clear vinyl sleeve inserted into a custom printed jacket

Evel Knievel was the world's greatest motorcycle daredevil. Very few people in the world would even try what he does, and no one so far has done it quite as well or nearly as spectacularly. Over the course of his career, he attempted more than 75 ramp-to-ramp motorcycle jumps; in 1974, he failed an attempted canyon jump across Snake River Canyon in the Skycycle X-2, a steam-powered rocket. This is the original and only album that was released at the time of his now historic Snake River Canon jump. While he failed, the album went on to sell hundreds of thousands of copies in department stores and free standing record outlets.

100 mile house - Love and Leave You CD

Attuned to life's impermanence, 100 mile house cherishes what we have, yet accepts that eventually it will all be gone

There's a poignant double meaning behind the new album Love and Leave You by the Edmonton, Canada, based folk duo 100 mile house. Peter Stone and Denise MacKay seem naturally attuned to life's impermanence; the reality that we must cherish what we have, while accepting we must eventually let it go. On their fifth album they have emerged stronger, wiser, and more honest than ever before.

“THE NIGHT IS SHORT. IT WEIGHS HEAVY, BUT THE LIGHT ALWAYS AWAITS US.”
DIAMONDS, THE NEW ALBUM BY THE BIRTHDAY MASSACRE, IS ANOTHER EXCITING SERIES OF DARK AND LIGHT MOMENTS FROM HEART-BREAK, TO ANGUISH AND FROM LUST TO LOVE. AS WITH MANY OF THE BIRTHDAY MASSACRE ALBUMS, THIS ONE CONTAINS AN EXPLORATION OF DARKNESS AS WELL AS LIGHT, POISON AS WELL AS ITS ANTIDOTE. WITHIN THE SONGWRITING, ONE CAN SENSE THE PASSING OF TIME, AND THE CONFLICTS AND RESOLUTIONS THAT WE CAN ALL FEEL INSIDE OF OURSELVES. NIGHTS END, AND DAYS RESOLVE. IF WE LOOK INSIDE OURSELVES, WE CAN FIND THESE PRECIOUS EMOTIONS AND CONFLICTS. EVERY SINGLE ONE OF THEM IS VALUABLE. LIKE THE DIAMONDS IN THE DARK. AND THUS, WE HAVE "DIAMONDS" BY THE BIRTHDAY MASSACRE. THE DISTINCTIVE SOARING SYNTHS AND GUITARS, PAIRED WITH OUR CHIBI'S BEAUTIFUL FAMILIAR AND REASSURING VOICE, GUIDES US ALL INTO THE DARKNESS AS WELL AS THE LIGHT - GUIDES US TO MOURN AND TO LOOK INSIDE, BUT ALSO TAKE OUR HAND AND INVITE US TO DANCE, AND REMEMBER - THE NIGHT IS SHORT. IT WEIGHS HEAVY, BUT THE LIGHT ALWAYS AWAITS US.

Harry Chapin

“Some More Stories - Live at Radio Bremen 1977”

SKU:	MIG02232
Format:	CD digipack
UPC:	885513022325
SRP:	$ 18.99

On April 11th 1977, Harry Chapin and his band, near the end of their first tour overseas, performed a concert broadcast over German radio at a small auditorium in the city of Bremen in front of 400 people.

The performance was akin to the calm after a storm in that it followed two consecutive arena shows (in Munich and Dortmund) where Harry would open up for a roster of rock, blues and heavy metal bands that featured The Small Faces, John Mayall, The Scorpions and headliner Status Quo. A more unlikely billing for Harry and the band was unimaginable. The crowd was very drunk, very loud and very not-at-all-interested in Harry's songs and sound. So, on the following night he was delighted to be back in his element, in Bremen, in front of a small, quiet, and appreciative audience attentively listening to his words and stories. Fueled by the change of atmosphere, a now energized Harry would speak and speak and speak, as if he were in Boston or Boise, to an adoring audience regardless of how many of his words were actually understood. And it would be remiss to understate the potent effect that the cello in Harry's music had upon this German crowd whose proud connection to a heritage of classical music drew them even deeper into the story songs now presented to them. Barely known on the European continent, the look on the faces of the small crowd and their reaction after each song was a joy to Harry and the perfect way to cap off his first tour outside of North America.”

Roscoe Mitchell & Ostravaska Banda - Distant Radio Transmission

Roscoe Mitchell Ostravaska Banda performing Distant Radio Transm., Nonaah Trio, Cutouts For Woodwind Quintet, and 8.8.88

The first Piece 'Distant Radio Transmission' was first recorded as an improvisation by Roscoe Mitchell, Craig Taborn, and Kikanju Baku in 2013 and released as the third composition on Roscoe Mitchell Conversations I (Wide Hive Records WH-0317). It was then transcribed by Stephen P. Harvey in 2016 with further Transcription and Orchestration of air sounds for Strings by John Ivers in 2017 and finally then fully Orchestrated by Roscoe Mitchell in 2017. Here it is performed in 2019 by Mr Mitchell on Soprano Saxophone and the influential Czech Orchestra Ostravaska Banda.

'Nonaah Trio' was recorded in Oregon with Roscoe Mitchell on Soprano Saxophone, Dana Reason on Piano, John C Savage on Flute, and Catherine Lee D. Mus on Oboe. 'Cutouts for Woodwind Quintet' was rewritten for five instruments by Mr. Mitchell in 2019 and recorded in New York before his Park Avenue Armory performance in March of 2019.

August 8, 1988 Roscoe wrote three compositions for piano intended for the great concert pianist Mr. Joseph Kubera. Since this work was not subject to the constraints associated with commissioned work Roscoe spent ten years finalizing the first movement. In 1998 The Mutable Music Foundation commissioned the composition's remaining movements. 8/8/88 consists of three sections. The first movement is 35 measures long, divided asymmetrically into uncommon time signatures such as 15/8, 11/8, 17/8 etc. The second movement has 17 measures and the third movement 44 measures. Here it is performed on a Disklavier by Seth Horvitz.

Coco O'Connor - When I Was Your World CD

A deep and breathtaking vision from and into one of Americana's songwriting jewels.

From the moment the album opens (the track "Honey Bee,") the songstress' invigorated approach is clear. Other standouts like the stripped down "Trophies and Tiaras" and "White Horse," bring a variety of Americana, Folk, Roots and even Bluegrass influences. The lead single and shining centerpiece "When I Was Your World" is a heartwarming tribute to her daughter.

Sculpture - Eisenzeit cd

Death Metal bulldozer from Germany in the vein of BOLT THROWER or HAIL OF BULLETS

While the members were doubtlessly raised on a diet of Bolt Thrower with two big spoons of Dutch & American fare respectively, it's clear from the outset that Sculpture's second full-length is its very own beast. As a musical narrative unfolding during the ravages of World War I, "Eisenzeit" ("iron age") does not once plumpily glorify armed conflict and heroic violence but displays a peculiar depth

Burrito Brothers - The Notorious Burrito Brothers

This new studio album is music that is the Burrito Brothers' message to love.

This band's history has been characterized by change, with the first incarnation of The Flying Burrito Brothers simply taking the name of a band that had just folded - albeit one that had been named with Gram Parsons in mind. Gram himself said of the band, "The idea'll keep going on. It's not like it's dead or anything. Whether I do it or anybody else does it, it's got to keep going." And so it has. From the early incarnation that featured Gram and Chris Hillman of The Byrds and recorded the seminal albums 'The Gilded Palace Of Sin' and 'Burrito Deluxe' the only constant has been change.

The iconic Gram Parsons was fired from the band in 1970 as it was felt that he was spending too much time hanging with the Stones and not enough time working, but the membership morphed constantly; in fact, no two consecutive LPs feature the same personnel. The band was even known as Sierra for a while, before becoming The Burrrito Brothers, then came another phase as The Flying Burrrito Brothers, then Burrrito Deluxe, then in 2012 The Burrrito Brothers once again! The line-up on 'The Notorious Burrrito Brothers' album features: Chris P James - who is marking his tenth year with the band - on Vocals, Keyboards and Harmonica, Tony Paoletta on Pedal Steel Guitar, Dobro and Mandolin, Bob Hatter on Electric & Acoustic Guitars and Bass, with Peter Young on Drums, Vocals and Percussion. They play everything on every song except 'Do Right Man', which features Ronnie Guilbeau (the son of Gil Gilbeau who was a member of The Flying Burrito Brothers from 1974 - 1984) on lead vocal and bass.

The Burrrito Brothers extend credit (with high interest) to: Ronnie Guilbeau, Walter Egan, Fred James, Coley Hinson, Michael Curtis, Rick Lonow, Carlton Moody, Supe Granda, Jody Maphis, John Sturdivant Jr, Larry Marrs, Bill Lloyd, Skip Spence, Al Perkins, Thomas Aubrunner, Rick Roberts, Terry Rogers, Rusty Russell, Don Richmond, Will James, Randall Harris, Sam Lowe and Argyle Bell.

Bobby Keys - Every Night's A Saturday Night: The Bobby Keys Story

An autobiographical documentary film about Lubbock Texas legendary sax man Bobby Keys, known as the "6th Rolling Stone".

The true story of Bobby Keys in his own words. Born in the same small town (Lubbock Texas) as Buddy Holly, Keys literally "horned" his way onto a Buddy Holly and the Crickets tour at the tender age of 13. Life on the road with The Rolling Stones and their partying lifestyle was legendary but took it's toll on the Keys. After losing his role with the Stones due to an infamous bathtub incident filled with dom perignon, Keys was lost for a few years and hit rock bottom. Keith Richards forced his hand with Mick to bring Bobby back into the fold and Bobby resumed his role as The Rolling Stones main sax man performing on hits Brown Sugar, Can't You Hear Me Knocking, Bitch, and so many other great hot influenced Stones songs. As Bobby states about music - "put horns on it and then it will rock".....and rock he did up until his untimely death in December 2015. Bobby Keys mark on the music industry and his soulful brash and bellowing sax solos will be felt and heard until the end of time. Knowing Bobby.....they will go on beyond the end of time. Beyond The Door

Demonic Possession LIVES and GROWS in the Most Terrifying Event in the History of Mankind!

Legendary filmmaker Ovidio G. Assonitis, whose Tentacles and Piranha II sought to cash in on the killer fish craze spawned by Jaws, first hit pay dirt in 1974 with Beyond the Door - a gloriously bonkers riff on The Exorcist featuring Emmy Award-winning actress Juliet Mills and distinguished British actor Richard Johnson. Set against the backdrop of San Francisco, Beyond the Door stars Mills as Jessica Barrett, a young mother who starts to develop strange behaviors whilst pregnant with her third child. Before you can say "split pea soup", Jessica is displaying signs of full-blown demonic possession - complete with projectile vomiting and fully-rotating head! Could it be that she's carrying the child of the Antichrist himself? Described as "disgusting", "scary trash" and "maddeningly inappropriate" by film critic Robert Ebert and subject to a lawsuit by Warner Bros. (who claimed copyright infringement against a certain William Friedkin film), the devilish denizens at Arrow Video have summoned up this wickedly entertaining popcorn spiller in a brand new, extras-packed edition fit for Satan himself!

PRESS

"Beyond the Door is one of the Top Grossing Movies in the country right now. Why? Maybe because at some dumb, fundamental level, it really does live it up to, or down to, its promise. It's all trash, but it's scary trash."
—Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun Times

"Many of the special effect scenes do hold most of what they set out to do...frighten and impact the viewer. Beyond the Door certainly doesn't disappoint with the specialized subject matter."
—Wee Willie Wicked, HorrorNews.net

Clay Pigeon

Joe Ryan had but one life to give for his country. The CIA asked for it twice.

Joe Ryan, a returning Vietnam veteran, (Tom Stern, Hells Angels 69) thinks his life is on 'borrowed time' because he jumped over a grenade to save his platoon and it didn't go off! He just wants to be left alone to collect scrap, pay his rent, and smoke his 'weed'.

Into his life comes 'Redford' (Telly Savalas, Kojak), a CIA operative looking for a drug kingpin Neilson (Robert Vaughn, The Magnificent Seven), running heroin, cocaine and other habit-forming illegal drugs into the LA area. The CIA names our 'Joe' as the Kingpin in order to draw him out into the open, where they can catch him, making Joe the 'Clay Pigeon'.

This classic action film captures early 1970's Hollywood in all its retro glory. The first and only film about Vietnam made by Hollywood prior to 'CLAY PIGEON' was a film starring JOHN WAYNE called 'THE GREEN BERETS' made in 1968.

While You Live, Shine

A journey deep into the oldest music in the Western world - Greek music - guided by an eccentric musicologist.

A journey deep into the oldest music in the Western world - Greek music - guided by an eccentric musicologist who has dedicated his life to understanding and preserving it. An immersive sonic and visual feast that leaves the viewer feeling they've looked into a way of life that the 21st century has left behind. A call to arms for a different way of listening to music and understanding humanity. The film stars Chris King, an American music expert fascinated by early recordings of melancholy blues and folk from the start of the twentieth century. The title of the film is derived from the Seikilos song, the world's oldest recorded piece of music, from Greece. The transcendental music carved into stone remains alive in Epirus, where Greeks gather every summer to play, dance and sing. Chris King traveled there to experience and share the enchanting phenomenon that rekindles this art form annually.

“There's a magnificent match cut at an early juncture of While You Live, Shine -- from a microscopic view of the grooves in the 78 RPM record supplying the film's soundtrack to the craggy landscape of the Greek mountains from which the music comes--that demonstrates in an instant this wonderful documentary's innate understanding of the power of art to transport us.”

Obediah Lazarus is the son of Judah Lazarus, the original Hanukiller. In 1983, Judah terrorized NY for seven nights and was preparing to sacrifice his eight year old son, Obediah, on the eighth night. Judah was convinced it was God's will, like Abraham and Isaac, to sacrifice his only son to God. Luckily for Obediah, police tracked Judah down and stopped the sacrifice, but Judah was gunned down in the process. Warped by hatred with no guidance, Obediah Lazarus becomes a religious extremist, intolerant of non-Jews, "bad Jews", and those he perceives to be enemies of the Jewish faith. He is about to unleash eight nights of horror. A group of Jewish teens are getting ready to party for the holidays, but are in for a Festival of Frights. Paul Carrack - Live 2000 - 2020 The Independent Years

Paul Carrack - Live 2000-2020 The Independent Years 5 CD Boxset / 16 Page Book containing 75 rare & unreleased tracks.

These recordings that celebrate those 20 years are aptly called The Independent Years. They are a collection of rare and unreleased recordings from live concerts and TV shows and demonstrate what it takes to be a successful musician and songwriter.

Real talent is much rarer than people imagine. And in Paul Carrack that talent is here to be heard in all its raw emotion. Each Paul Carrack show is different, he sings how he feels, with the ability to channel those emotions to his many fans.

Paul wrote and sang "How Long", the much-covered 1974 classic from his days with Ace, and was the voice of "Tempted", from his tenure with Squeeze. Then came such hits with Mike + the Mechanics as the Grammy-Nominated "The Living Years" and "Over My Shoulder", the latter a co-write with Mike Rutherford. Not to mention that another co-write, "Love Will Keep Us Alive", was covered by the Eagles and won a hugely prestigious ASCAP award as Song of the Year.

Diana Ross, no less, covered Carrack's co-write with Nick Lowe, "Battlefield", and as an in-demand collaborator, Paul's decades of distinction include sessions with The Smiths, Roxy Music, B.B. King and countless others, culminating in a request from Eric Clapton to join his touring band. That rare honor happened in the summer of 2018 with their homecoming performance in London's Hyde Park.

BEYOND THE DOOR

A BRAND NEW, EXTRAS-PACKED EDITION FIT FOR SATAN HIMSELF!

Beyond the Door stars Mills as Jessica Barrett, a young mother who starts to develop strange behaviors whilst pregnant with her third child. Before you can say "split pea soup", Jessica is displaying signs of full-blown demonic possession - complete with projectile vomiting and fully-rotating head! Could it be that she's carrying the child of the Antichrist himself?
