NEW MOON JELLY ROLL FREEDOM ROCKERS -VOLUME 2

CORONA ZOMBIES

INVISIBLE MAN APPEARS/ INVISIBLE MAN VS. THE HUMAN FLY

MVD UNMASKS THE EYES OF MARCH!

All eyes are on our March releases, and we can't believe what we're seeing! Is the Invisible Man really invisible if you can see him? Find out on the Blu-ray double feature THE INVISIBLE MAN APPEARS/THE INVISIBLE MAN VS. THE HUMAN FLY. Arrow Video has created a buzzworthy package with collectors' booklet, reversable sleeve and featurettes. Good to see you Invisible Man! And wearing a mask before anyone.

Speaking of masks and why we are urged to wear them is to prevent us from becoming CORONA ZOMBIES. This DVD from Full Moon Features is destined for Mystery Science Theatre, but you can catch it early! BLOODHOUND is a new film from Arrow, dealing with a house full of malaise, depression and despair, its principals yearning for emotional connection amidst the fragility of mental health. Relevant today as ever before. FALCON RISING comes on DVD and Blu-ray- Action Adventure from the MVD Marquee Collection. Post-traumatic stress and guilt propel this vigilante towards the ultimate revenge.

Lighter fare (!) is FLOWER AND SNAKE is an erotic S&M-laden film dealing with a sexually oppressed man living with his adult toy store owner mother. Boom! THE DAY OF THE BEAST comes to us on DVD and Blu-ray from Severin Films. Antichrist Superstar has his day.

Here's music to our ears. THE RESIDENTS continue their pREServed Edition series with FREAK SHOW, a three CD romp, including 28 unreleased recordings! Jam up and Jelly Tight with the NEW MOON JELLY ROLL FREEDOM ROCKERS-VOLUME 2 CD from Stony Plain. Luther Dickinson, Cody Dickinson and Jimbo Mathis jam with guest Charlie Musselwhite. Negative Approach, Laughing Hyenas, Detroit Cobras-all names in punk rock, and all are members of EASY ACTION. Motor City mania drives this reissue of their debut release-on colored vinyl! R.I.P. to two rock pioneers, Uriah Heep's KEN HENSLEY and Heep/Ozzy drummer LEE KERSLAKE. Kerslake's final release is a LP and CD titled ELEVENTEEN, and Hensley has the CD and LP of MY BOOK OF ANSWERS. Maybe Ken can give us an update from the afterlife!

Perk up those Ears and get into the Eyes of March!

Strawbs Settlement

The new studio album from the legendary STRAWBS

Esoteric Antenna is delighted to announce the release of the new studio album by the legendary band STRAWBS. Settlement is the latest album recorded by STRAWBS, more than 50 years on from the band's first major label release. The album comes at a time of political and social upheaval, which the lyrics and melodies of the songs reflect. Undeterred by the fact that 'business as usual' was not possible because of the global COVID-19 pandemic - working remote from one another, from their own home studios - Settlement is a remarkable achievement.

David Cousins, leader of STRAWBS says: "Settlement is something extraordinary. I can't think of another band who can go from metal grunge to the lilt of an Irish ghost story - or from a song in 6/8 time to singing in 4/4 over a 5/4 backbeat - in half an hour. The lyrics reflect the times we have been living through and I'm immensely proud of what we've achieved."

BEAR FAMILY RECORDS presents

THE DRUGSTORE'S ROCKIN' Bobby Vee

- Our Bobby Vee retrospective focuses on the teen idol's rock 'n' roll years from 1959 to 1962, and it features his debut single, Suzie Baby, plus his first major hits for LIBERTY, Devil Or Angel and Rubber Ball, and the violinenriched blockbusters Take Good Care Of My Baby and The Night Has A Thousand Eyes.
- Also includes five rockin' tracks from the splendid 'Bobby Vee Meets The Crickets' album – with ex-Buddy Holly sideman Tommy Allsup on lead guitar.
- Bobby Vee's career began in the wake of arguably the greatest tragedy in rock 'n' roll history: on February 3, 1959, Buddy Holly, Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper – on tour as the 'Winter Dance Party' – were killed in an accident, and the 15-year-old Bobby Vee stepped in as a replacement at the Moorhead show!
- Liner notes by Bill Dahl, plus many little-known photos and illustrations in the fabulous, 32-page booklet.
- These carefully mastered recordings provide optimal sound quality.

Charlie Musselwhite, Jimbo Mathus, Alvin Youngblood Hart, Jim Dickinson, Luther Dickinson, Cody Dickinson are the New Moon Jelly Roll Freedom Rockers

The New Moon Jelly Roll Freedom Rockers return with Volume 2 from the famous sessions that produced last year's Top 20 Billboard and Top 10 Living Blues album Volume 1.

"NMJRFR, Volume 1 lays out a musical feast at which we relish every course. By the end, we want more, of course." - Henry I. Carrigan Jr. Living Blues

"In true rock-and-roll tradition, NMJRFRs were born in the back of a tour bus, and they're everything their name implies: Raucous, rattly, raw, and magnificently loose... a group of road-tested wanderers turned loose for a rip on what they dubbed a potluck session."

- Grant Britt No Depression

This album crosses the generations of new Blues-Rockers and Classic Blues Statesmen. It is a testament to the great experience and talent of these esteemed performers that they could casually conjure a recording of this quality out of the ether in a casual jam session -- sounding as if you are right there in the room with them with between-song banter and commentary, the classic structures of the Blues, being pulled together and teased apart by some of the most award-decorated members of the Blues Elite.

Klangforum Wien - Georges Aperghis: Solo CD

One might be able to describe Aperghis' works for solo instruments as literally inventing a new sound language.

In accordance with his line of thinking, Aperghis sets sound gestures to music in his instrumental pieces, proceeding from linguistic units - even in pieces which have absolutely no textual source. This album is part of Klangforum Wien's "Solo" 5-CD series of recordings of pieces for one performer, which is the ensemble's response to the 2020 Covid-19 pandemic.

Klangforum Wien - Olga Neuwirth: Solo CD

Neuwirth produces changing musical textures, boldly and impetuously combining the most contrasting elements.

"I know that the arts won't change anything, but art can point towards what has become ossified and reveal the desolate state of society and politics. I refuse to be yodelled away." (Olga Neuwirth). This album is part of Klangforum Wien's "Solo" 5-CD series of recordings of pieces for one performer, which is the ensemble's response to the 2020 Covid-19 pandemic.

Klangforum Wien - Rebecca Saunders: Solo CD

Rebecca Saunders deeply explores the world of the sounds, offering a declaration of love to the respective music.

Rebecca Saunders Solo pieces occupy an important place in her oeuvre, since at least during the preparation period, the composer's solitude is transformed into a dialogue with the soloists with whom she seeks a close collaboration; This album is part of Klangforum Wien's "Solo" 5-CD series of recordings of pieces for one performer, which is the ensemble's response to the 2020 Covid-19 pandemic.

Klangforum Wien - Salvatore Sciarrino: Solo CD

In these transitory realms, the scans of a magical originality find their very own space.

Sciarrino's oeuvre is the preserve of silence. It can be encountered in the sound spaces of night, in nocturnal trickles, creaks, creepings and wings; filigree sounds disappear into silence and re-appear abruptly, in large, irregular forms. The soundscapes of his music continually probe the thin line between life and death, recollection and oblivion, light and dark, growth and decay.

Klangforum Wien - Toshio Hosokawa: Solo CD

Toshio Hosokawa's music is strongly connected to the aesthetic and spiritual roots of the Japanese arts.

Hosokawa creates his distinctive musical language from the relationship between Western avant-garde art and traditional Japanese culture. He gives musical expression to notions of beauty rooted in transience: "We hear the individual notes and appreciate, at the same time, the process of how the notes are born and die: a sound landscape of continual 'becoming' that is animated in itself."

Aldo Orvieto & Alvise Vidolin - Stefano Gervasoni: Muro Di Canti CD

Gervasoni emphasizes one of the Edenic traits of childhood: an openness to oneself, to the other and to the world

Like his master Niccolò Castiglioni, Stefano Gervasoni emphasizes one of the Edenic traits of childhood: an openness to oneself, to the other and to the world. For him, this innocence, which occurs naturally at first, is also a goal to be reached through music. The program of this album focuses on the presence of the voice, that of Monica Bacelli.

THE RESIDENTS FREAK SHOW 3CD PRESERVED EDITION

Formed in the early 1970s, The Residents have been charting a unique path through the musical landscape for almost fifty years. From far-out, experimental recordings to highly conceptual, innovative multi-plat-form projects, the band refuses to stand still, and continues to move in several different directions at once. Produced with The Cryptic Corporation using archival tapes supplied by the group themselves, this package explores and expands the classic 1990 album, which formed the basis of a move into multi-media work which characterised The Residents' '90s output. 'Freak Show' explores a series of character studies of unfortunates and unloveables, all of whom have their origin in The Residents' own childhood memories of travelling 'freak shows', such as they were.

This 3CD set includes the original album and related contemporary tracks, an entire CD detailing the evolution of the album's musical content throughout 1990 and live interpretations of all of the album's tracks, including the legendary "Ty's Freak Show' performance. 28 unreleased recordings in all! Remastered, expanded, and preserved for future generations - this is The Residents as we've always wanted to hear them, and the latest in a series of archival reissues that will continue throughout 2021 and beyond. Look out for forthcoming 'Gingerbread Man', 'Wormwood' and 'Icky Flix' sets, as well as a number of special vinyl releases.

Robert Keßler Trio - Bloodline CD

"Bloodline" is not a concept album, and yet the CD follows a very clear concept. This concept is called life.

Bloodline - that means something like family tree. Every artist must honestly decide for himself to whom he feels obliged and why. To himself and thus to those who can identify with his statements, or to external factors such as media expectations, zeitgeist or a canon. Guitarist Robert Keßler has made a very clear decision, and his album "Bloodline" bears witness to this step.

Say Amen Somebody CD

Documentary about the American gospel music scene, focusing on two of the movement's pioneering forces

The soundtrack to the 1982 film documentary on gospel music, "Say Amen Somebody" is joyful and moving, even lacking the visuals provided by the film. The film is focused on two of the movements pioneering gospel artists, Rev. Thomas A. Dorsey and Willie Mae Ford Smith, whose dynamic "song and sermon" approach to gospel set an almost impossible to duplicate performance standard.

Schapiro 17 - Human Qualities CD

Schapiro 17 'explodes' with incredible large ensemble sound - Fresh, innovative music played by world-class musicians!

Human Qualities is the follow-up to the 2020 debut, New Shoes: Kind of Blue at 60. This recording brings back the 17 members of the progressive New York big band. Unlike New Shoes, which offers a thematic focus on Kind of Blue, Human Qualities features seven Jon Schapiro originals and one arrangement - featuring a powerhouse rhythm section, fiercely swinging ensembles, and sterling solo work.

Spliffripper - Spliffripper CD

The anti-stoner reefer-enforcement squadron of stoner metal has arrived: SPLIFFRIPPER!!!

Prepare your feeble, hazed-out minds for a sonic assault of sludgy death, cultic tone worship, and cannabis-fueled rage, with riffs so nasty, you'll drink the bongwater! Songs of overdose, addiction, loss, and insanity that are a direct result of this dangerous chemical substance! Spliffripper sounds like a joke, but thier music isn't. This is top tier Stoner Metal to satisfy stoner rock fans.

Arnold Tony & Gábor Csalog - The Sayings Of Péter Bornemisza CD

The authentic recording of Kurtág's milestone work

György Kurtág himself introduces his first masterpiece on this recording: the words of Péter Bornemisza's archaic sermons resonate particularly strongly in Kurtág's voice. His song cycle reveals more than the power of utterance - it uncovers the genesis of a composer's logic that's devoted to the singing voice. The songs are interpreted by the soprano Tony Arnold and pianist Gábor Csalog.

Zanzibara 10: First Modern, Taarab Vibes From Mombasa & Tanga, 1970-1990 CD

In the early 1970s a new tagrab emerged in the East African coastal cities of Mombasa and Tanga, Taarab is a music genre popular in Tanzania and Kenya. It is influenced by the musical traditions of the African Great Lakes, North Africa, the Middle East, and the Indian subcontinent. Mombasa was at the forefront of taarab production from the 1960s to the 1990s, thanks to the enterprising Mzuri record label: the Mombasa - Tanga era is now affectionately known as "First Modern".

The Queers - Save The World

The Queers are back with 15 new & catchy songs that show why they're one of the greatest pop-punk bands in the world

The Queers are back with a batch of 15 new and undeniably catchy songs that are spilling over with the qualities that made them one of the best pop-punk bands in the world. Filled with catchy hooks, juvenile humor and flat out amazing pop songs, "Save The World" is easily their best record since the Lookout years and it is destined to be remembered as one of their classic albums. Tunes like "Sh*t For Brains" and "Fanculo a Tutti" could've been right at home on "Love Songs For The Retarded" and prove that The Queers haven't lost their edge when it comes to writing a fast tune, while songs like "If I Had A Girl like You" and "Let The Rain Wash Away My Tears" show that they are still writing some of their strongest material to date. This may be their first new album since 2010's "Back To The Basement" but The Queers haven't missed a beat.

Ripsaw - An Evening In Chaos...

Limited edition of 500 copies cd+dvd!

The band was formed back in 1986 and recorded a few tracks of 80's thrash metal. These songs were produced by Mark "The Shark" Shelton, but never officially released. The band also opened for Manilla Road back in these days. After many years, in 2013, Ripsaw (having also members of Born of Fire) reunited for a documentary that was presented at independent film festivals. After the documentary, they decided to record some new songs too. This material, along with the old songs, is featured in "An Evening in Chaos"

A prodigal son returns to the rural farm of his childhood and rejoins the family struggling to get by.

This is the farm where Thomas was born. This is his family. His brother, who won't be coming back, his mother, who is going down the same road, and his father, who has always stood aloof. Thomas gets back to everything he ran away from twelve years ago. Only today, there is Alex, his six-year-old nephew, and Mona, the boy's radiant mother.

Mr. Jealousy

A comedy from the writer and director of "The Squid and The Whale" & "Marriage Story"

Lester Grimm is haunted by jealous thoughts of his girlfriend Ramona and her past lovers. Encountering one of Ramona's exes - the dashing author Dashiell Frank - Lester gets an idea: join Dash's group therapy sessions under an assumed name and secretly discover Ramona's private past. But Lester's plan only raises more questions: will he ever let go of the past? Does Ramona really love him? And why is his best friend suddenly speaking in a British accent? From acclaimed two-time Academy Award© nominee writer and director Noah Baumbach, comes this refreshing comic look at life, love and jealousy.

Running Time

Time is running out!

Bruce Campbell (The "Evil Dead" Series, TV's "Burn Notice") stars as Carl, a man who launches a full-scale heist to steal mob money from the prison that just released him. With the help of an old friend (Jeremy Roberts, "The People Under the Stairs"), a driver and a safe-cracker, Carl's attempt to carry out the heist is fraught with incompetence and bad luck. As the clock ticks and the circumstances turn tragic, Carl is forced to make the most important decision of his life. Inspired by Alfred Hitchcock's "Rope" and filmed over twenty years before Sam Mendes' "1917", writer/director Josh Becker designed "Running Time" to play out using the "one continuous shot" technique with no computer-assisted trickery. Expertly photographed and edited on film to take place over 70 minutes of real-time, this gritty crime drama was shot entirely on location in the streets of Los Angeles.

Flower And Snake

One of the most requested titles to be added to our Nikkatsu Films Collection!

Based on Oniroku Dan's famous Japanese novel, FLOWER AND SNAKE is the first Nikkatsu erotic film to deal with the subject of sadomasochism. Makoto (Yasuhiko Ishizu) is a sexually suppressed man living with his mother Miyo (Hiroko Fuji) who owns an adult toy store. When he was a child, Makoto remembers shooting a soldier whom he found having sex with his mother. The elderly man who owns the company Makoto works for has an interest in BDSM and wants Makoto to kidnap and "train" his wife (Naomi Tani) to submit to him. With Makoto battling the demons of his past and unsure of the consequences of his own sexual awakening, what transpires is one of the most shocking, perverse and jaw-dropping Nikkatsu films ever made. Remastered by Nikkatsu Studios in high-definition, FLOWER AND SNAKE is one of Impulse Pictures' most-requested titles to be released in our continuing Nikkatsu adult film collection.

SALES POINTS

• Since the late 1960s, Naomi Tani had been known as the 'Queen of Pink,' the most popular actress in the low-budget, independent 'pink films' which dominated Japan's domestic cinematic market

Shark Encounters Of The Third Kind

The Only Thing Worse Than Aliens... Sharks!

A group of hostile aliens crash land at the bottom of the ocean, and via mind control use sharks to terrorize a small town full of secrets in the hopes of completing their invasion mission. It's up to a disparate group of townspeople to sort it out, but in the end it's sharks versus aliens in a surprising climax.

My Mexican Bretzel DVD

Home movies and fleeting moments of sound to tell the story of Vivian Barrett, a wealthy Swiss woman.

MY MEXICAN BRETZEL uses home movies and fleeting moments of sound to tell the story of Vivian Barrett, a wealthy Swiss woman, and her husband, Léon, a WWII pilot-turned-entrepreneur whose hearing was partly lost in a plane accident. Years of their lives are chronicled from the 40s through 60s, from Le Mans to Hawaii. Vulnerability, loss, and belief are explored in an indulgently cinematic fashion.

Back Home

A prodigal son returns to the rural farm of his childhood and rejoins the family struggling to get by

Thomas, arrives at a secluded farmhouse near Valence, in a hilly region of the Drôme in south-eastern France. It belongs to his parents, from whom he has long been estranged, and he has returned having heard that his mother is in hospital, terminally ill. Bit by bit, Thomas catches up on recent events - the dire financial straits that the farm has fallen into, his father's and brother's desperate turn to extreme right politics, and the real circumstances of the death of his brother Mathieu. Thomas visits his mother Catherine at her bedside, fails to get much response from his chronically depressed dad Michel and gets to know Mona, Mathieu's ex, who is living at the farm with her little son Alex. Thomas obligingly spends much of his time looking after Alex, and gradually becoming a surrogate dad - while his sensitive, no-nonsense presence also arouses Mona's interest.
