Mean Mistreater - Do Or Die Vinyl

The US American band's 2nd album blends relentless riffs with powerful vocals. Classic heavy metal - nostalgic and fresh at the same time.

Urgent, passionate, like street-walking cheetahs with hearts full of napalm.

The hooks are heavy and headbanging, but the quartet exhibit a knack for spacious, atmospheric dynamics.

Magnus Bakken - Slackline CD

Great contemporary jazz with roots in the 50s and 60s Blue Note music. Adding a Weather Report feeling to some tracks for explaining the groove

Does the cover of Magnus Bakken's album remind you of earlier Blue Note albums from the 50s and/or 60s? Maybe it's not entirely coincidental, because much of the music here sounds like it has its roots in this fantastic period of American jazz. Magnus probably has a good eye for this music, but since the music was recorded very recently, the music is completely up to date.

Mean Mistreater - Do Or Die CD

The US American band's 2nd album blends relentless riffs with powerful vocals. Classic heavy metal - nostalgic and fresh at the same time.

Hot on the heels of their debut album, MEAN MISTREATER return with their second full-length, Do or Die. Urgent, passionate, like street-walking cheetahs with hearts full of napalm.

Jimmy Jones
Good Timin': The Singles Collection 1956-62

It neatly encapsulates the core era of his career and is a great showcase for his highly individual vocal talents

Born in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1930, Jimmy Jones moved to New York as a teenager and started his career as a tap dancer, and then added singing to his work, joining a doowop group in 1954. He got a deal with the Savoy label in 1956 and made records for them and the Rama label, followed a year or two later by one for Epic, without making any waves. In 1959 he teamed up with songwriter Otis Blackwell (writer of "all Shook Up" and "Great Balls Of Fire") to rework a song he first wrote in 1955 "Handy Man". He recorded it for MGM's Cub label, finally finding the right vehicle for his remarkable and distinctive falsetto voice, and it was a Top 3 hit on both sides of the Atlantic. This 31-track CD comprises just about all his releases from his debut through to 1962, by which time he had had all his career hits. It features A and B sides on the Savoy, Rama, Epic and Cub labels from these years, plus the tracks from his 1960 MGM album "Good Timin'" which were not otherwise released on singles. It naturally includes his big hits "Handy Man" and the UK No. 1 and US No. 3 "Good Timin", plus his other chart entries "That's When I Cried", "I Just Go For You", "Ee-I-Ee-I-Oh!", "Itchin'", "Ready For Love" and "I Told You So". It neatly encapsulates the core era of his career and is a great showcase for his highly individual vocal talents.

"I GAVE ONE OF THE BEST PERFORMANCES OF MY CAREER"
- MALCOLM McDOWELL

A FILM BY DAVID GRIECO

EVILENKO

4K ULTRA HD™ + BLU-RAY™
2-DISC LIMITED COLLECTOR'S EDITION

Based on the shocking true story of the former Soviet Union's most notorious serial killer, this riveting, haunting film explores the mind of a true monster; a man who mutilated and devoured more than 50 children. For years, Andrei Evilenko (Malcolm McDowell, A Clockwork Orange, Gangster No. 1, TV's "Entourage") eluded the obsessive Detective Lesiev (Marton Csokas, The Lord of the Rings Trilogy, xXx, Aeon Flux) and the psychiatric profiler Aron Richter (Ronald Pickup, The Chronicles of Narnia). Spurred on by his rabid fury at the gradual crumbling of his precious Soviet Union, Evilenko is a man who will live, die and kill as a communist. The haunting melodies of composer Angelo Badalamenti (Twin Peaks, Mulholland Drive) and writer-director David Grieco's stark imagination have created a portrait of a serial killer that will resound in the psyches of us all.

THE FIRST TIME ON BLU-RAY, PLUS DVD!

Quackser Fortune Has A Cousin In The Bronx

A comedy of the human spirit about a highly independent young Irishman who triumphs over conformity.

Reminiscent of "Harold & Maude" and "Start the Revolution Without Me," this gentle comedy is the story of a man out of step with this world, marching to the beat of his own drum. Quackser Fortune (Wilder) earns his living by following the horse-drawn delivery wagons of Dublin, scooping up the droppings and selling it as fertilizer. Margot Kidder is the American exchange student who finds herself drawn to this unlearned, but not unknowing man.

- Early 1970's comedy starring comedy superstar Gene Wilder (The Producers, Young Frankenstein) and Margot Kidder (Superman: The Movie, Sisters)
- 'Quackser Fortune' was nominated for Best Comedy Written Directly for the Screen (WGA Award – Screen) at the Writers Guild of America, awards in 1971.
- From director Waris Hussein, best known for directing some of the earliest episodes of the smash hit TV series 'Doctor Who'.

Karmakanic - Transmutation

JONAS REINGOLD is delighted to announce the release of TRANSMUTATION, the sixth studio album from his critically acclaimed solo project KARMAKANIC. Feat. Simon Phillips, Steve Hackett, John Mitchell. Jonas Reingold He believes Transmutation marks his boldest artistic vision yet and is an album which pushes progressive rock to both new heights and new fans. Progressive rock in its finest. Reingold has recruited an impressive array of world class musicians to realise his vision for Karmakanic; not least of which is his long time friend and musical companion Steve Hackett (Genesis), who guests throughout the album, providing some breathtaking guitar - as only he can. Drum legends Simon Phillips (Toto, The Who, Judas Priest), Nick D'Virgilio (Big Big Train, Spock's Beard, Mr Big) and Craig Blundell (Steven Wilson, Steve Hackett, Frost) supply a rhythm section nothing short of extraordinary. For the first time, Reingold teams up with vocalist John Mitchell (Asia, Lonely Robot, Frost, Arena) whose gritty and soulful voice provides the perfect complement to Reingold's melodic compositions. Marking their first collaboration since The Fringe 2016, Randy McStine delivers lead guitar firepower. Reingold says: I have to pinch my arm thinking who's actually on the album. All heroes of mine and I'm truly humble and thankful that they have given me a part of their talent to shape this album. It's truly a joint venture. I sometimes joke that Karmakanic is the equivalent to prog what Barcelona FC is to football. Only the best players onboard. Recorded across Nashville, Los Angeles, Germany, and Austria, the production captures every nuance for a breathtaking sonic experience, carefully mixed by 5x Grammy award winning mix engineer Chris Lord Alge (Rolling Stones, Muse, Tina Turner, Prince) in his Los Angeles based studio MIX LA.

Led by guitarist Tommi Holappa of European desert rock icons Dozer, Greenleaf began as an informal collective of friends making music inspired by their shared love of '70s riff rock.

Having transformed into a proper band in 2013, Greenleaf enters 2025 at the forefront of the global heavy scene on the heels of acclaimed latest album The Head & The Habit. Moving into the staggering twenty fifth year of an incredible career, they mark the impressive feat with a special new reissue of their earliest releases.
