TRY THESE ON FOR SIZE!

Similar to their namesake, CINDERELLA went from rags to riches, becoming the belle of the Glam Metal Ball in the '80s and 90s. Fitted with a slew of Multi-Platinum Slippers that spawned many hits, CLEOPATRA RECORDS releases CINDERELLA-IN CONCERT, a live show on remastered bluray that features all of those hits and more, for a not-so-princely sum! From Philadelphia to the Sunset Strip, A Hair Metal Fairy Tale!

If the Blues shoe fits, wear it, and the FABULOUS THUNDERBIRDS slide into it comfortably with their mega-selling LP TUFF ENUFF, released on blue vinyl. This is the first in a series of eight Thunderbirds blue vinyl reissues from THE LAST MUSIC COMPANY, also all compiled in a lavish 4-disc CD box set, THE FABULOUS THUNDERBIRDS-THE JIMMIE VAUGHAN YEARS. Blues, Jazz and Voodoo Rock are the gumbo that defines DR. JOHN, and the live CD/DVD LIVE AT ROCKPALAST 1999 is testament to the Blues Music Hall of Famer's unique talents. DR. JOHN-Worship at the altar of the High Priest! Texas Music Hall of Famer FREDDIE STEADY KRC releases PASS THAT JUG on LP and CD. The Austin based legend has "thrown a wide-loop" musically for decades in a genre-jumping career. PASS THAT JUG will intoxicate you with it's blend of rock, country, folk and above all, the blues.

In film, ARROW VIDEO hurls some zingers with an array of lovingly created packages of iconic titles. SALEM'S LOT, a 4K limited-edition mini-series adapted from Stephen Kings' novel finds a small New England town mired in a vampire frenzy. Cloaked in a deluxe package, with a perfect-bound booklet all the bells and whistles you would expect from Arrow, this is one vampire release that does not suck! Avenging her family's murder and stopping World annihilation is the goal in RED SONJA, a 4K Action/Adventure starring Arnold Schwarzenegger and Brigitte Nielsen. Warriors, swords and sorcerers-Oh My!

PICTURE OF A NYMPH from 88 FILMS is an Action film that finds a monk taking under his wing a scholar who accidentally burned down his house after battling a demon. Not too smart on the scholar's part! What is smart is the 4-disc continuation in the EUROCRYPT OF CHRISTOPHER LEE box set series. VOLUME 3 features seven 4K and bluray discs with six rarely seen Lee movies with loads of extras. SEVERIN FILMS really puts the Hammer down in this series! MVD March. Slip these on. They fit!

The Wedding Present - Maxi Vinyl

Maxi is the new EP by the Wedding Present, six new songs about driving that goes from britpop to post rock and back. 27 minutes of shambling bliss.

In 1996, The Wedding Present released Mini - an EP featuring six tracks that all had connections to motoring. Almost thirty years on, David Gedge has revisited the concept with Maxi, a brand-new, six-track EP which is again loosely based around the theme of driving. Maxi blends David's shambling lightning quick strumming guitar style with nods to britpop and further into post rock.

Will Wood & The Tapeworms - Self-ish [Cortex Coil] (Neon Pink, Black And Neon Green 3 Color Stripe) INDIE EXCLUSIVE Vinyl SELF-ISH is a quick but intensely dramatic concept album with dark psychedelic themes and nonstop experimental energy.

Mere months after Will Wood's debut "Everything is a Lot," producer Kevin Antreasian offered Wood a deal on his next LP. With no time to spare, Wood wove scraps of unfinished songs into an abstract concept album with prog-rock influences and psychedelic lyrics. Kevin and a new band mixed heavy metal intensity with Wood's vision, and SELF-ISH became an intense outlier in his discography.

Daniel Grabois - Water Names CD

Horn w/ electronics: the final edition of the series - Water signifies slippery, ever-changing. This recording is no holds barred, purely experimental

This is the fourth and final album in Daniel Grabois' "Names" series. The title of the first release in the series, Air Names, came from a nonsense poem he wrote with the help of some very ineffective dictation software years ago. The rest of the recordings ran with the theme of the ancient elements: Air, Fire, Earth, and Water. Water is slippery, ever-changing, impossible to pin down.

Fotocrime - Security CD

Fotocrime's Security channels the dark, paranoid energy of legends like Killing Joke and Steve Albini into a visceral tribute to punk's raw roots.

Louisville dark punk stalwarts Fotocrime return with Security, an LP rife with paranoia and nuclear-age machismo. While echoing the intensity of post-punk icons Killing Joke, frontman Ryan Patterson avoids conspiracy, instead channeling the raw influence of late legends Geordie Walker, Steve Albini, and Rick Froberg. The result is a visceral celebration of his musical roots and honest living.

Seeming - The World CD

The World is Seeming's fourth album: Antifascist darkwave blending siren-like brass/strings, thunderous drums, ruin, hunger, and queer love.

The world will not change itself, says Seeming's fourth album. Then it gets to business. Brass and strings blare a warning siren. Drums roll like thunder behind songs of ruin, hunger, and queer strains of love. Unflinchingly antifascist and soaringly tuneful in spite of itself, The World is a diary of collapse and defiance. Darkwave in a new, urgent key.

Freddie Steady's Wild Country

Pass that Jug!

Legendary Texas Music Hall of Famer Freddie Steady Krc is back with a new album that offers an intoxicating mix of rock, country, blues, folk, and gospel.

Known for his work with legendary artists Jerry Jeff Walker, Roky Erickson, Roger Waters, Ronnie Lane, Augie Meyers, Carole King and many others, Freddie brings all his experiences and influences to his new recording.

He has revived his groundbreaking Americana outfit Freddie Steady's Wild Country that started in 1986 while living in London. It was a unique sound inspired by his South Texas Gulf Coast roots. Freddie was previously a founding member of Austin, TX new wave/punk rock/power poppers The Explosives. He also founded and led western folk rockers The Shakin' Apostles, and explored the garage rock sound with The Freddie Steady 5. Freddie has always "thrown a wide loop" of musical influences and they all come together in the new album Pass that Jug!

The album includes some of Austin's finest musicians. Cam King, Floyd Domino, Lloyd Maines, Layton DePenning, Howard Kalish, David Hargraves and John Inmon bring their special musical magic to the recordings. Freddie Steady's Wild Country "Pass that Jug!" is an exciting gumbo of roots music, Texas-style!

Squirrel Nut Zippers - Squirrel Nut Zippers Starring In Fat City (The Ballad Of Lil' Tony) CD

A swinging tale of lust, betrayal and redemption.

Thirty years ago in Metairie, I found "Fat City" a fading district failing to mask its grit with glamour. I spent nights there absorbing its shabby melodramas. Now in 2025 those ghosts have become a "Beggar's Opera." Based on my grandfather's life as a bootlegger and promoter, we recorded in historic theaters to capture their velvet reverb. A musical fever dream for fans old and new. Toujours gai!

From Award-Winning Filmmaker
John de Graaf

Just in time for the 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, the new release From Sea to Shining Sea delves into the life of poet, journalist and Wellesley College alumna Katharine Lee Bates, whose poetry inspired the lyrics to the immortal patriotic anthem "America The Beautiful."

The first words of Bates' poem "America" came to her as she surveyed the Great Plains and the Rocky Mountains from the summit of Colorado's Pike's Peak on July 22, 1893. During her long career as an educator, author and journalist for national news outlets, Bates was outspoken in her support for the working class, women's rights, and brotherhood among all Americans. These values are reflected in the words of "America," which was later set to music and became "America the Beautiful." Her story should not be forgotten, nor its context within the tumultuous period of American history which inspired the words many Americans still sing today.

the KEY

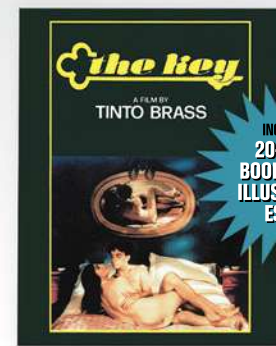

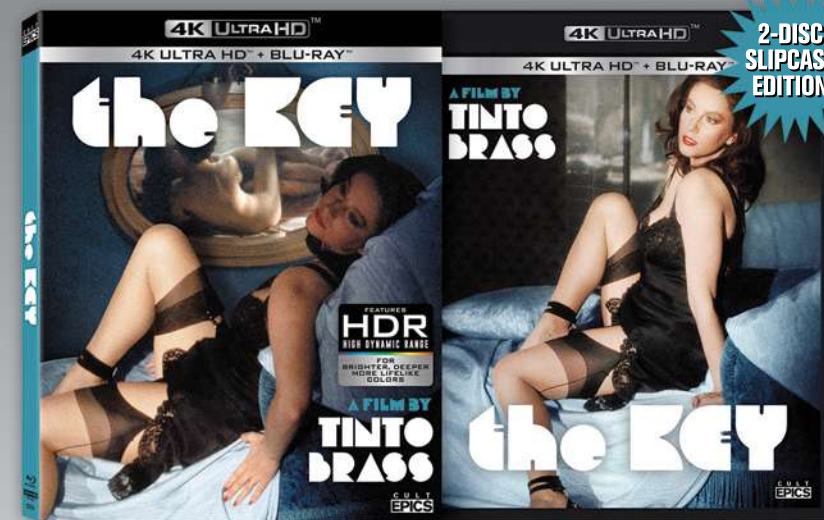

Directed by TINTO BRASS

Art professor Nino (Frank Finlay) feels he can no longer satisfy his younger, passionate wife Teresa (Stefania Sandrelli) the way she desires. He articulates his innermost thoughts and sexual fantasies in a diary, including the secret wish to see his daughter's fiancé's Laszlo (Franco Branciaroli) make love to Teresa. Nino leaves the key to the drawer, containing the diary, out for his wife to find.

The Key is based on the Japanese novel by Junichiro Tanizaki, but set in Venice, in the year 1940 during World War II. The Key is Tinto Brass' erotic masterpiece featuring a seductive score by Ennio Morricone. This is regarded worldwide as one of the best erotic arthouse movies ever made.

Eiichi Kudo's Samurai Revolution Trilogy [Limited Edition] Blu-ray Disc

The Samurai Revolution trilogy depicts the rot at the heart of the Tokugawa shogunate.

Beginning in 1663 with 13 Assassins, followed by The Great Killing in 1664 and 11 Samurai in 1667, the Samurai Revolution trilogy depicts the rot at the heart of the Tokugawa shogunate: despotic lords oppress their people and abuse their power with impunity, loyalty to the Shogun is valued above compassion and righteousness, and samurai have shed nobility in favor of their own self-interest.

88 FILMS

Synapse Films is proud to present Jeff Lieberman's 1977 cult-classic horror film "Blue Sunshine" in an all-new 4K restoration presented in Dolby Vision (HDR10 compatible) and loaded with hours of supplemental material.

BLUE SUNSHINE

One man, falsely accused of a murderous rampage, tries to clear his name and then discovers the shocking truth. The murders may be due to a drug called "Blue Sunshine" that turns its users into homicidal maniacs.

It starts off as a great party--just eight people in a secluded lodge. One of the guests suddenly goes on a shockingly violent, murderous rampage. There is something wrong with his hair, and pure evil in his eyes. What he does to three of the girls there is too hideous to describe. Falsely accused of the brutal killings, Jerry Zipkin (Red Shoe Diaries' Zalman King) goes on the run. More bizarre murders occur, and while trying to clear his name, Jerry discovers the shocking truth: The people losing their hair and turning into violent psychopaths may be connected to a drug each killer took a decade before. A drug known as "Blue Sunshine."

BONUS MATERIALS

- 4K restoration of the original 35mm camera negative mastered in Dolby Vision (HDR10 compatible)
- Lossless English DTS-HD Master Audio original theatrical mono and a 5.1 surround sound mix supervised by director Jeff Lieberman

Timestamp

A tender portrait of young Ukrainians navigating education, identity, and change as their country transforms in this powerful poetic documentary.

Timestamp is an intimate, time-woven portrait of a generation coming of age in Ukraine, seen through the eyes of young people whose lives have been quietly shaped by uncertainty, resilience, and the slow rhythms of everyday life. Acclaimed Ukrainian filmmaker Kateryna Gornostai (Stop-Earth) returns to the terrain of adolescence--this time in the real world, among her own friends, students, and fellow citizens--as they record themselves, reflect on the passage of time, and search for meaning in a country still reckoning with its past and its fragile present.

Filmed across several years, before and after the full-scale Russian invasion, the film traces how young Ukrainians see themselves and their country transforming. Some have left; others have stayed. Their faces, first carefree and curious, gradually carry the weight of awareness. Yet Timestamp resists tragedy; instead, it finds dignity in small acts of continuity--friendships maintained, creative work pursued, laughter shared amid instability.

Gornostai's approach is deeply participatory: her subjects become co-authors of their own representation. The result is a tender mosaic of voices that collapses the distance between filmmaker and participant, private and political. The film's quietness is its strength--it allows moments to breathe, letting the audience feel the slow pulse of time itself as it moves through a country on the threshold of change.

At once a document and a reflection, Timestamp speaks to the resilience of ordinary lives lived in extraordinary times. It is a film about remembering who we are, how we grow, and how cinema--like memory--holds the power to preserve what cannot be repeated.
