MVD MAY-HEM!

May Madness abounds with the movie release of LORDS OF CHAOS, a theatrical representation based on the Norwegian Black Metal band MAYHEM and the unholy alliance they made with the dark arts! An official SUNDANCE selection, LORDS OF CHAOS tracks the antics of the devil's children as they burn churches and steal gravestones-all the while leading the charge of the Black Metal scene. An in-band rivalry leads to a brain-teasing ending that'll leave you scratching your metal head!

The controversial death of New York Dolls guitarist and drug induced legend JOHNNY THUNDERS is explored in the film ROOM 37: THE MYSTERIOUS DEATH OF JOHNNY THUNDERS. Did Johnny OD or was he murdered on that Sad Vacation in New Orleans? Deluxe package includes a bonus audio CD soundtrack, along with the Blu-ray and DVD. Get a little Hynde-sight with the DVD release of WITH FRIENDS, a live PRETENDERS show finding the band joined by guests Kings of Leon, Iggy Pop, Shirley Manson and Incubus. Chrissie Hynde gambles and wins with this hot show filmed in Atlantic City.

Classic artists have their May Day. BACHMAN: SPECIAL EDITION is a Blu-ray/DVD that spans the hit-making career the Guess Who and BTO driver RANDY BACHMAN. DUKE ROBILLARD, the founder of ROOMFUL OF BLUES, musical partner with many and esteemed solo artist with 20 CDS under his belt releases the LP and CD of his latest EAR WORMS this month. Swing baby!

Three hot movie studios — ARROW VIDEO, BLUE UNDERGROUND and MVD REWIND/MARQUEE COLLECTION — come in hot this month. Arrow strikes with SHE-DEVILS ON WHEELS (acclaimed director Hershell Gordon Lewis' depiction of a female dominated biker world), the spaghetti-Western THE GRAND DUEL and YAKUZA LAW, a film that tracks methods of torture administered by in the Japanese underworld. BLUE UNDERGROUND spices things up with 3-disc limited editions on erotic classics EUGENIE: STORY OF HER JOURNEY INTO PERVERSION and MARQUIS DE SADE'S JUSTINE. MVD REWIND has a special deluxe edition of the gritty action thriller BOOGIE BOY, and our MARQUEE COLLECTION series lightens things up with ROBIN WILLIAMS in THE BIG WHITE and ARTIE LANGE in BEER LEAGUE!

RECORD STORE DAY: See MVD's official releases on pg 14.

36? - Milk Mountain Vinyl

Art Rock and Ear-worms on 36?'s

On their first vinyl LP, "Milk Mountain", Calgary's 36' makes pop-punk-neo-jazz-fusion soul music from heaven and hell. 36' makes ballroom dancing music for the disco. 36' makes music that comes from the heart even when the heart feels nothing. From radio ready "EZFM" to the indie-rock anthem "I Think My Dog Knows I'm High" 36' makes whatever feels right at the time.

Agitation Free - 2nd Vinyl (Reissue)

Krautrock Avantgarde

When the band Agitation Free came together in 1967 as a result of the merging of two Berlin rock groups, one of the most interesting groups in a dawning independent German music scene was created. With their improvisations between rock, jazz and new music, Agitation Free - soon relegated to the not so flattering category of "Krautrock" - made musical forays into areas that few of their fellow German musicians had ever penetrated.

Down MF - Critically Acclaimed vinyl

A collection of singles released between 1991 and 2002 by the lo-fi, very underground Michigan band Down.

A collection of singles released between 1991 and 2002 by the Michigan band Down, this is a crackling selection of warped, lo-fi pop songs influenced by wiry post-punk, early Flying Nun, the Wipers and the Who. It's intense music that cuts to the bone, documenting dark nights of the soul and the ravages of romance set to bloody shards of guitar and powerfully ramshackle bass and drums

Foreign Resort - Outnumbered (White Vinyl) vinyl

Explosive yet melancholy post-punk, The Foreign Resort are a must-listen on Artoffact's roster, pressed on white vinyl!

Formed in 2009 in Copenhagen, Denmark, the Foreign Resort has spent 10 years creating and honing an explosive yet melancholy post-punk sound that is as rich as it is exciting, and as immediate as it is dark and deep. The new album Outnumbered is no exception, supported by N. American and European tours, a stellar video premiered by Decibel, and a sound that will infest your ears!

Gold - Why Aren't You Laughing? vinyl

The fourth album from Dutch post-rock band GOLD, pressed on cream-colored vinyl.

GOLD returns with their fourth album, Why Aren't You Laughing', due out via Artoffact Records. The Dutch ensemble marry hypnotic gothic vibes with soulful heavy rock, overlaid with atmospheric, often dream-like vocals. The multi-faceted album is complex in its construction, but by enlisting producer Jaime Gomez Arellano (Paradise Lost), each element is given ample room to breathe and indeed shine.

THE RESIDENTS

ESKIMO: DECONSTRUCTED - 40TH ANNIVERSARY 2LP/CD SET

A unique unwrapping of one of the great artistic achievements of 20th Century music.

To celebrate the 40th anniversary of 'Eskimo' The Residents present a unique collection of the album's constituent parts, and encourage their public to remix and rework the album. Including over seventy individual musical elements, chants, loops and sound effects recorded on location by the group in the mid-late 1970s, plus a backing CD of Arctic wind noise, this remarkable set provides unprecedented insight into the three years' recording and construction of a legendary album, and an opportunity for fans to "walk around inside a masterpiece, the viewing angles almost infinite". Conceived by The Residents partly in response to their satisfaction with the successful 'I AM A RESIDENT' project and their fans' musical abilities, and with their own love of interfering with the music of their heroes in mind, 'Eskimo (Deconstructed)' represents a first. Never before has a band peeled back the layers of one of their finest works in such microscopic detail, and made those highly intimate elements available to the public to re-interpret as they choose. Sure, it's a classic, and this is undoubtedly sacrilege, but consider this a chance to screw with The Residents' music just like they've been screwing with everybody else's for almost fifty years now. 'Eskimo (Deconstructed)' is the latest in a series of archival Residents reissues that will continue throughout 2019 and beyond. Look out for 'American Composers Series', 'God In 3 Persons' and 'Cube-E' sets, coming soon.

SALES POINTS

- The classic ambient masterpiece deconstructed over seventy loops, chants, musical fragments and sound effects extracted from the original multitrack tapes and spread across four sides of vinyl.
- Re-construct and re-mix 'Eskimo' at your leisure!
- A unique unwrapping of one of the great artistic achievements of 20th Century music.
- Also includes one hour CD of Arctic wind backgrounds

Grimoire De Occulte - Wisdom Of The Dead Vinyl

After 5 years of channeling the occult energies - The debut album of German occult Death Metal temple is unleashed!

In this digital age where everybody is interconnected to the point of saturation, it's getting harder and harder to shy away from the public eye and let the ancient magic do its thing. Yet GRIMOIRE DE OCCULTE have been pretty good at it: formed in the early 10's in Aachen, they've managed so far to keep an on purpose low profile, with only scattered and limited releases and four live shows only...

Lonesome Leash - Delicate Art Vinyl

Delicate Art is the latest solo release under Walt McClemetns' Lonesome Leash moniker.

Walt McClements' independence and its apparently contrary collaborative spirit are at play on Delicate Art, his latest solo release under the Lonesome Leash moniker. Indeed, the balance of such opposing modes is a delicate art, clearly on display from the record's earliest moments. McClements is joined on "Driving" by Mirah and on "Delicate Art" and "He Would Turn Me In" by Nona Mario Levie.

Nana Grizol - Theo Zumm Vinyl

Four-track recordings of Nana Grizol jams from 2003-2005. Several later recorded by the band, some alternate versions.

The songs of this collection were recorded from 2003-2005. They constitute the "bedroom pop" phase of the band, back when the lineup was just Theo and his youthful angst. This collection offers a glimpse of Nana Grizol's developing politics, pop sensibilities, and personal identities during Theo's first prolific songwriting phase.

M Sage - Catch A Blessing Vinyl

Chicago ambient producer Matthew Sage brings a second LP of rustically urban(e) plunderphonics on Geographic North.

"Catch a Blessing" shows Matthew Sage in a impulsive light. Where past work existed in space that was cerebral, meditated, and composed, the music here is more natural, playful, and effort-less. Opting for chance and the unknown rather than rules and conceptual rigor, Sage "practiced" an amorphous technique that led to profound moments of accidental, unplanned beauty.

BILLY CHILDISH:Punk Rock Ist Nicht Tot

Also available on CD (SKU: DAMGOOD499CD)

40 Years of Childish! Career-spanning compilation!

How did Billy come to be? Holed away in the distant inter tidal marshland of mid-Seventies Kent, breaking rocks in the hot sun as a teenage dockland stonemason, undiagnosed dyslexia and general insubordination denying him the educational path he might have taken, Childish took the punk gospel Malcolm McLaren and the Sex Pistols preached in 1976 as revealed scriptural truth. Forty-two years later Childish is the last man standing, the most enduring, uncorrupted and prolific of the class of '77. And some heroic fool has now tried to sum him up in a mere forty-eight songs, from the thousand or so he has recorded. This compilation provides tiny tasters of each of Childish's phases, and some snippets of short-lived side-projects too. Administered correctly, it will make an addict of you. You have been warned. Here's a field guide to the many faces of Billy Childish.

Dark Night in Philly: 1986

Black VINYL, 2 X 12" LP

ROCKBEAT / SKU: ROC-3428 / UPC: 89353342821 / SRP: $34.99

"Pure and simple, The Blasters create American Music, accessible, energetic rock 'n' roll, performed live in Philly, seamlessly blending R&B, punk rock, rockabilly, boogie woogie and rock 'n' roll. Their live performances gained them a rabid fan base with a frenetic energy and outstanding musicianship and they were stalwarts in the early 80s L.A. punk scene, performing with artists including Black Flag, The Cramps, X and numerous others.

The Good Old Boys Drink Up And Go Home: Live At Margarita's Cantina, Feb. 20 & 21, 1975

Black VINYL, 2 X 12" LP

ROCKBEAT / SKU: ROC-3427 / UPC: 89353342722 / SRP: $34.99

Some of the greatest musical moments happen only once, in a live setting, and if you're not there to experience them at the time, they're lost to history. But every now and then, a buried treasure is discovered that brings a lost moment back to life and thrills music fans. Such is the case with this recently unearthed live recording of the all-star bluegrass band the Good Old Boys playing at Margarita's Cantina, a Santa Cruz club, in February of 1975. Most Jerry Garcia fans know of his early interest in bluegrass music, which was an essential part of Garcia's development as an instrumentalist and songwriter, but many Garcia fans are unaware that in 1975, during a Grateful Dead's hiatus, Jerry produced a seminal album for another bluegrass group called the Good Old Boys, featuring guitarist David Nelson from the New Riders of the Purple Sage, and Frank Wakefield, one of the greatest mandolin players in the genre.

Transparent purple and milky-clear VINYL, 2 X 12" LP

JUNGLE RECORDS / SKU: FREUDLP129 / UPC: 5013145212936 / SRP: $39.99

The 1985 Johnny Thunders' studio album - remixed, remade and remodelled. Transformed to how it should have sounded! Plus a bonus album, and 12" x 24" lyric-sheet with unseen photos. In limited purple & white vinyl. Johnny Thunders was the legenday guitarist of the New York Dolls. He then hugely influenced punk by joining up with the Sex Pistols, Clash & Damned on the 'Anarchy' tour. His band the Heartbreakers settled and recorded in London during the punk era. Subsequently he only made three solo studio albums, including this one, before his death in 1991. Johnny abandoned these recording sessions early, leaving confused others to complete the album without him. Now two unused tracks and more have been discovered on the multitrack tapes, and the whole album given a powerful remix by ex-Vibrators' guitarist Pat Collier. Additionally, six unreleased studio outakes feature on one side of the bonus album including two unissued songs, and five unreleased live tracks on the other. Includes new notes by Nina Antonia, with interviews from participants Mike Monroe and others, along with unseen photos. A feast for Johnny Thunders fans!

Black VINYL, 12" LP

CHERRY RED RECORDS / SKU: NRTLP011 / UPC: 5013929361119 / SRP: $29.99

Never before released in any format! Recorded in 1971 in the hope of securing the group a recording contract, and sent to Warner Bros Records in early 1972, 'BS' has become a cornerstone of The Residents' mythology. Rejected by Warner Bros Records, the album was disowned by the group and remained long-forgotten until its recent rediscovery as part of their ongoing archival excavations.

The Skatalites

Greetings from Skamania

Green VINYL, 12" LP

JUMP UP RECORDS / SKU: JUMP160LP / UPC: 760137237310 / SRP: $29.99

Green vinyl. First time on wax for Jamaican ska originators' 1996 masterpiece, green vinyl edition with poster insert exclusive for Record Store Day. Produced by Joe Ferry (Big Ska Band, SKAndolous All Stars) and band leader Tommy McCook. On this set, original 60's players are still going strong – lead by the saxophone trio of Tommy McCook, Roland Alphonso, and Lester Sterling, drummer Lloyd Knibbs, bassist Lloyd Brevett, and vocalist Doreen Shaffer. The band revisits 60's gems like "Phoenix City" and "El Pussycat," while creating many new classics including "Skalloween," "Trip To Mars," and "Skamania." The Skatalites perfected the big-band ska sound while backing some of the finest ska and rocksteady artists in the 60's, and this album is another crowning jewel in their lifelong goal to party like it's 1964!

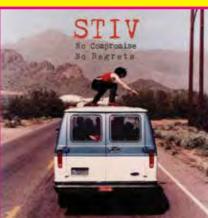

Tangerine Dream

Poland: The Warsaw Concert

Clear VINYL, 2 X 12" LP

CHERRY RED RECORDS / SKU: EREALP2018 / UPC: 5013929751811 / SRP: $39.99

Clear vinyl. On December 10, 1983 Edgar Froese, Chris Franke and Johannes Schmolling performed a legendary concert in the Ice Stadium in Warsaw - a unique event, given the political situation in Poland at the time and the rise of the Solidarity movement. The resulting live album was issued as a double album set on the Jive Electro label the following year to great acclaim. Double LP in gatefold sleeve on clear vinyl, reissued for the first time unedited since the 1980s.

Paul Zaza & Carl Zittrer - Prom Night: Original 1980 Motion Picture Soundtrack

World premiere of the original score and disco songs from the 1980 cult slasher film, featuring unreleased music.

Perseverance Records presents the long awaited official release of the 1980 cult classic PROM NIGHT Original Motion Picture Soundtrack. Perseverance worked closely with Carl Zittrer and Paul Zaza to locate and unearth the original masters and all music recorded for the film including unreleased disco songs and score not used in the final production, NEVER heard before anywhere!

PROM NIGHT is a 1980 cult classic horror thriller directed by Paul Lynch (RoboCop, Xena: Warrior Princess, Poltergeist: The Legacy, Star Trek: The Next Generation) and stars Jamie Lee Curtis as Kim Hammond and Leslie Nielsen as Mr. Hammond. The movie focuses on four middle school children, Kelly Lynch, Jude Cunningham, Wendy Richards, and Nick McBride who hide the truth of what happened six years ago to ten-year-old Robin Hammond the day her body was found near and abandoned convent. They swore never to tell anyone of how they taunted Robin, backing her into a corner, frightened, when falling to her death while standing on a window ledge. But on that day, six years ago, someone else was there, watching, and now seeks revenge on prom night!

"I remember seeing PROM NIGHT during its release in 1980, when disco was still the craze. I was determined to obtain a copy of the soundtrack and to play the theme song at my senior prom only to find that it was never released. I spent years looking at the audiophile catalog at Tower Records hoping to find a release date but no luck. Now, after almost 40 years, my dream has now become a reality!! Fans alike are now able to enjoy the soundtrack!!" - Silvio Barretta, Producer

"War" - the debut full-length studio album by Italian Symphonic Death/Black Metal band ADES NUMEN.

"War" - the debut full-length studio album by Italian Symphonic Death/Black Metal band ADES NUMEN. The sound built around simple, but very direct rhythms, as well as classic Black/Death Metal riffs, composed in a modern way. The rhythms are very strong and often recall a certain Groove Metal, but with parts of classic blast-beats and fast double kick.

Brun-Courtois-Fincker - Les Demons De Tosca CD

Les Démons de Tosca is a multidisciplinary project involving nine musicians, one comedian, one photographer and a sound-designer. It questions the notion of "demon" in the creative process. Using the libretto for Puccini's opera Tosca, each concert features a new combination of players from the ensemble. One of which happened at the Opus Jazz Club in the Budapest Music Center.

MVD WELCOMES:

ELM Records

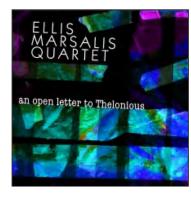

ELM Records was started in 1976 by pianist Ellis Marsalis. The label name consists of the initials Marsalis' name. When faced with the reality that no major label was interested in signing him, he decided to record on his own. The first album he released was entitled "Solo Piano Reflections". His next release didn't come until 7 years later when his son Delfeayo wanted to produce an album for a school project. The album "Syndrome" happened to be Delfeayo's debut as a producer. ELM remained dormant until 1997 when "Syndrome" was re-issued on CD. With it's surprising success, "Solo Piano Reflections" was re-issued as well. By 2003, new music was being recorded and released for ELM Records. At the same time, obscure recordings by Marsalis on smaller labels were being released on ELM as well. With newer recordings and with older titles yet to be released, ELM has a great future ahead.

Flykt - Charnel Heart CD

"Charnel Heart" is an evil Black Metal album!

"Charnel Heart" is an evil Black Metal album full of classic and nasty guitars, threatening leads and catchy midtempo parts as well as brutal up-tempo attacks. "Charnel Heart" serves as a vehicle of the adversary, the death of the man and elevation of the beast. In the current state, preparations are being made for what is next to come.

Loamlands - Lez Dance CD

Loamlands' sophomore release, Lez Dance, is hook and story driven distorted country music. Stripped down and vulnerable

Loamlands' sophomore studio release, Lez Dance, is hook and story driven, stripped down to explore a new kind of vulnerability. Loamlands is a distorted country music outfit that places queer storytelling at the forefront of their music. They intimately grapple with identity and by playing with genre and history, twisting tales by tweaking pronouns falling in love with records, not people.

Lonesome Leash - Delicate Art CD

Delicate Art is the latest solo release under Walt McClemetns' Lonesome Leash moniker.

Walt McClements' independence and its apparently contrary collaborative spirit are at play on Delicate Art, his latest solo release under the Lonesome Leash moniker. Indeed, the balance of such opposing modes is a delicate art, clearly on display from the record's earliest moments. McClements is joined on "Driving" by Mirah and on "Delicate Art" and "He Would Turn Me In" by Nona

Poor Nameless Boy - Wake Up Call CD

New EP from award-winning Canadian songwriter, Poor Nameless Boy.

Poor Nameless Boy has upped the ante. Using a measured sparsity, Henderson and producer Brad Prosko have found a perfect dynamic to tell the deeply affecting stories brought to life on "Wake Up Call". And though the songs themselves play out in the first person, their empathic ability to engage and insight is unparalleled. This cunning, relatable disposition puts Henderson in some rare company.

Alim Qasimov & Michel Godard - Awakening CD

A meeting between the voice of Alim Qasimov, great Azerbaijani singer and the serpent of the French Michel Godard.

The song of Alim Oasimov is like a "speaking with God" and the serpent of Michel Godard (also tubist bassist and composer), is in perfect harmony with voice: the serpent is the instrument that has connected Heaven and Earth in the French churches since the end of the 16th century.. It is hopeful music for the future: would the juxtaposition of two cultures be the real avant-garde of our

Neil Young & The Santa Monica Flyers - Goodbye Waterface CD

Late 1973 Recording From NY & The Santa Monica Flyers

By late '73, Young and The Flyers were touring and performing songs, as yet unreleased, later to be included on Tonight's The Night. On November 15th the ensemble performed at Queen's College in Flushing, New York, for a show which remains quite staggering. Including six cuts from Tonight..., plus a smattering of from previous records, this concert is unlike any other Neil Young ever played.

Paul Butterfield Band - Live At Rockpalast 1978

This CD+DVD contains Paul Butterfield's first performance in Europe. He was the white ambassador of black Chicago blues.

Paul Butterfield had developed the blues feel of his unique blues harp, working with blues giants such as Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf and Little Walter. Together with the Paul Butterfield Bluesband, founded in 1965, "Butter" was the white ambassador of the black Chicago blues. He had played on the third day of the Woodstock festival (1969), at the time already accompanied by guitarist Buzzy Feiten, who was also with him at the Rockpalast performance. And Paul had been instrumental in shocking the folk audience at Newport (1965) with electric blues rock sounds, which delighted Bob Dylan to such an extent that he asked members of the band to accompany him at the festival. We remembered Paul Butterfield from his involvement in The Last Waltz, The Bands's farewell performance (1976), having presented the film in the documentary section of the WDR Rockpalast program. He brought a young band to the Rockpalast night in Essen. His second guitarist, Peter Atanasoff, was just 19. The disciple of the great blues masters had become a mentor to a whole new generation of musicians. We met Peter again many years later, performing with Tito & Tarantula at our open-air festival at the Loreley on the river Rhine in 1998.

Paul Butterfield: born 1942 in Chicago, died in Hollywood in 1987. Inducted into the Blues Hall Of Fame in 2006. This DVD pays tribute to a great musician.

Lords Of Chaos

Based on truth and lies

"The story of True Norwegian Black Metal and its most notorious practitioners: a group of young men with a flair for publicity, church-burning and murder: MAYHEM. Oslo, 1987. Seventeen-year-old Euronymous is determined to escape his idyllic Scandinavian hometown and create "true Norwegian black metal" with his band, MAYHEM. He's joined by equally fanatical youths - Dead and Varg. Believing that they're on the cusp of a musical revolution, the group gets even darker, driven by the black metal dogma to spread evil. They begin burning down churches throughout the countryside and stealing tombstones for their record store. But when the press catches up with them and Euronymous takes more credit than he's earned for the group's violent acts, Varg, fresh out of jail, arranges a dark encounter to settle the score and ultimately determine who the darkest black metal musician is."

PRESS

"Frequently unpleasant but oddly compelling - not least because \tilde{A} ...kerlund ensures that the film never takes itself as seriously as its subjects did."

- -Michael Nordine, IndieWire
- "Ã...kerlund stages the film's violence with an unsettling, unflinching reality, to drive home the difference between entertainment and the real world."
- -Adam Graham, Detroit News

"Inside Culkin's quietly convincing performance, deadpan cynicism battles with genuine tenderness in a way that gives the film an affecting yet appropriately faulty soul."

Alleluia! The Devil's Carnival DVD

Where is Your Heaven Hiding?

Lucifer incites Heaven's wrath by dispatching train cars full of condemned souls crashing thru the Pearly Gates of Heaven. God, in response, readies his top negotiator - The Agent - for a trip down to the Carnival to put an end to the rebellious deeds. As the Carnival's veteran taskmaster, Ticket-Keeper, futilely attempts to ready Hell's Carnies for an impending war, Lucifer holds a private rally.

BOOGIE BOY

After being released from prison, Jesse Page (Mark Dacascos, John Wick: Chapter 3 - Parabellum, Double Dragon) backs his old friend Larry (Jaimz Woolvett, Unforgiven) up on a drug deal gone sour. With the drug dealers hot on his trail, Jesse has three days to reach Detroit, where a new, clean, legitimate life awaits him. Along the way, his ties to his junkie criminal past are put to the test... What is true friendship made of? How far should loyalty go? These are questions Jesse must answer on the road to his new life in this gritty action-thriller from writer/director Craig Hamann (My Best Friend's Birthday, Showdown in Manila).

From Academy Award®-Winning* Executive Producer Roger Avary (Pulp Fiction) and featuring an all-star supporting cast that includes Emily Lloyd (A River Runs Through It), Frederic Forrest (Apocalypse Now), Joan Jett (Light of Day), Michael Peña (Ant-Man and the Wasp), Traci Lords (Blade), John Hawkes (Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri) and Jonathan Scarfe (The Equalizer 2), the 1990's cult classic

DOUBLE IMPACT

What could be better than Jean-Claude Van Damme (Lionheart) in an explosively entertaining action extravaganza? Two of him! There's twice the excitement, twice the mayhem and twice the fun in this turbo-charged adventure that pushes the thrills into overdrive.

Van Damme leaps into the dual roles of Chad and Alex Wagner, twin brothers who were separated after their parents' brutal murder. Years later, the two couldn't be more different: Chad is a slick Beverly Hills fitness instructor, while Alex is a rough and tumble smuggler on the gritty streets of Hong Kong. But when fate throws them together again, Chad and Alex discover that there's one thing they have in common: they're both fighting machines! Determined to enact revenge on their parents' killers, the martial-arts experts kick, chop and shoot all the way to an electrifying final showdown aboard a gargantuan freighter in Hong Kong harbor.

Find it before they find you.

From the creator of NBC' hit series "The Event," comes a post-apocalyptic creature thriller in which mankind is nearly extinct. Humans engineered an ice age to eradicate a plague that was killing them off. The ice age turned out to be just as deadly. A rag-tag group of survivors led by Vargas (Eric Szmanda) are on a quest for the safe haven known as "Shangri-La," where their species has supposedly started rebooting civilization. They face many dangers on their quest including the frigid cold, a mutant cult and a pack of mysterious creatures known as Green Eyes.

The Big White

On the brink of bankruptcy, Alaska travel agent Paul Barnell (Robin Williams, Good Will Hunting) cooks up a scheme to pass off a dead body as his long-lost brother, Raymond (Woody Harrelson, Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri), and then collect on his life insurance. But unfortunately, the investigator isn't buying the scam, the hit men responsible for the body want it back -- so they kidnap Paul's Tourette's afflicted wife Margaret (Holly Hunter, The Piano) -- and, to top it all off, Raymond shows up demanding a piece of action. So much for easy money!

Beer League

Artie DeVanzo's (Artie Lange, Dirty Work) has no job, no girlfriend and still lives with his mother (Laurie Metcalf, Lady Bird). But he does have two things to look forward to in life: beer and softball. With his best buddy Maz (Ralph Macchio, The Karate Kid), Artie plays on a softball team for Ed's Bar and Swill -- until their brutish behavior threatens to get them kicked out of the league. In order to maintain their place, they'll have to defeat the champions at Manganelli Fitness -- no easy task when their blood-alcohol levels exceed their batting averages.

Mortuary

When the Doyle family moves to a small town in California, they plan on starting a new life...perhaps a strange choice, seeing as this new life entails running the long-abandoned Fowler Funeral Home and cemetery. The locals fear the place, and there are whispers around town that not only are the grounds haunted, but that the Fowler boy, who wore a burial shroud to hide his hideously deformed face, still lives in one of the tombs there. The Doyles discover all too soon that the gossip is true. Something lurks beneath the Fowler estate--something that raises the dead from long-forgotten graves... something that feeds upon death itself.

The Four Feathers

While his regiment is sent to the Sudan to battle Arab tribes, a British Lieutenant resigns his officer's commission

Harry Faversham (Beau Bridges) was raised in a military household under a very domineering father. After his mother passes away, there is no one to shield him from his father's outrages at his perceived inadequacies. He is engaged to Ms. Ethne Eustace (Jane Seymour) and decides to remain in England, unwilling to let anything stand in their way of being married; not even his commitment to his father's beloved British Army. On the night of their engagement party, he receives telegrams for all of the officers present that they are to report for duty with the understanding they're going to be shipped out to Egypt. Rather than be separated from his fiancée, he burns the telegrams. However, when his fellow officers discover what he has done, they send him white feathers, informing him they know of his cowardice and branding him a coward. Both his father and his fiancée disown him. After they are shipped to Egypt, he follows along himself in the hopes that he will be able to prove his worth to his former friends and regain his dignity. Assisted by Abou Fatma, a young sympathetic Arab, he disguises his identity and manages to save the lives of his friends, one by one, proving he was not a coward and regaining his dignity.

Moses, The Lawgiver

Moses, a man of wisdom and strength raised his staff and crushed an empire. This is his story

Moses, a man of wisdom and strength raised his staff and crushed an empire. This is his story "The story of the Exodus or flight of the Hebrews from Egypt to escape persecution is told in a perspective which highlights Moses' efforts to persuade first the stubborn Pharoah Merneptah, who was his adopted cousin, to release to release the Hebrew slaves he was using to build his empire. Spectacular story produced with all-star-cast including Burt Lancaster as Moses, Anthony Quayle as Aaron, Ingrid Thulin as Miriam, Irene Papas as Zipporah and narrated by Richard Johnson. This timeless biblical tale deals with Moses, the Hebrew lawgiver, an extraordinary man who receives a holy calling, and follows his life from birth, abandonment, slavery and trials in leading the Jews through the Holy Land, leading the them out of Egypt. When Moses' Hebrew origin is revealed, he's cast out of Egypt and wanders across the desert. Returning to Egypt, Moses along with his brother Aaron, confront Pharaoh Mernefta, asking him to liberate the Jews but he refuses, causing God to inflict the 7 plagues on the Egyptians. Finally, Moses climbs the Mount of Sinai bringing down the holy tablets. This earthy and realistic film is shot on location in Israel's Negev Desert and Morocco. Anyone that loves the

Bible or just appreciates a well produced historical piece will appreciate the production and the haunting and evocative score by Ennio Morricone

The Roaring West

Blazing Chapters of Wild West Action!

VCI is pleased to present this classic cliffhanger from Universal Pictures, which has never had an official video release on any format, now available for the first time on DVD, produced from the original studio 35mm film elements! "The Roaring West" was Universal's 27th sound-era serial and the second of the five serials Buck Jones made at Universa. The opening chapter of this serial --- "The Land Rush" --- finds cowpunchers Montana Larkin and Jinglebob Morgan riding into new territory to join an impending land rush. They carry a mail-order catalog hiding a map giving the location of valuable mineral deposits in the land-rush territory. They stop at the ranch of Jim Parker where Montana saves Parker's daughter Mary from a wild horse. The gabby Jinglebob plays poker with ranch foreman Gil Gillespie and reveals the secret of the map. Gil has his henchman, Hank, steal the map, copy it and return it without being seen. Montana, Jinglebob, Parker, Mary, Gillespie and Ann Hardy, a Parker niece, and some stock-footage land-rushers gather the next day for the land rush, where Montana learns that Gillespie has a copy of the map. Montana is riding hard to beat Gillespie to the mineral deposits but Mary falls from her horse and Montana picks her up on the run but the usually-reliable

Silver falls over an unseen embankment, and Montana and Mary are underneath as the other horses and wagons plunge after them. That ends chapter one, but things get worse in chapter two as they find that Gillespie has beaten them to the site and has already staked nine claims. But Gillespie, the cad, is willing to share the claims with old man Parker if he will turn Mary over to Gillespie as his bride. 13 more chapters of such high-handed villainy occur before Montana gets total control of the situation.

Prince Mohamed - African Roots Vinyl

1979 reggae album back on vinyl!

George Nooks first found success performing under the name Prince Mohamed, as a deejay on discomix tracks for producer Joe Gibbs. His first album, a joint effort with General Echo, People Are You Ready, was released on the United Artists subsidiary Ballistic in 1978. This was followed by African Roots, recorded the following year for producer Linval Thompson.

Tommy Ryman - Having The Time Of My Life CD

Sophomore album from Last Comic Standing semifinalist, used rat enthusiast, and unintentional scofflaw Tommy

Yes, Ryman's comedy career is a diversion from the family business--river and estuary activation, naturally--but he's unmistakably on the come-up. In the intervening years since Ryman's 2011 album "Bath Time with Tommy Ryman," he's honed his comic voice on stages across the country, as a Last Comic Standing semifinalist, and as a used rat enthusiast and unintentional scofflaw.

Tangerine Dream - Underwater Sunlight CD

Rightly heralded as an ambient classic, "Underwater Sunlight" was arguably the finest album of the band's so called "blue years" and influenced a new generation of ambient musicians. Featuring both parts of the superb 'Song of the Whale' and the classic title track, the album introduced Tangerine Dream to a new audience.
