CAST RECORDING MEL BROOKS' YOUNG
FRANKENSTEIN

12 MONKEYS STEELBOOK

KINKY BOOTS

(3-DISC LIMITED EDITION/ 4K UHD+BLU-RAY+CD)

KINKO DE MAYO!

We kick off May with KINKY BOOTS on! KINKY BOOTS, the Tony Award winner for Best Musical opens in your home this month, with a DVD and Blu-ray release of the stage play! Written by Harvey Fierstein with music by Cyndi Lauper, the play finds an unlikely pair teaming up to create a line of sturdy stilettos that will put spring in your step! More musicals to our ears this month come in the twisted form of Mel Brooks' Original London Cast Recording CD of YOUNG FRANKENSTEIN. Its Alive again as Dr. Fronkenstein, Inga, Frau Blucher and Eyegor sing and hump their way through the scariest comedy of all time! Hump? What hump?

The legendary Christopher Lee may have never played a hunchback, but he has all other creepy bases covered in the nine-disc collection THE EUROCRYPT OF CHRISTOPHER LEE COLLECTION Blu-ray! Features five classic Lee European films, a TV anthology, rare interviews, a book and soundtrack CD. May also flowers with more deluxe packages, including two Sci-Fi staples.

12 MONKEYS arrives in a limited edition Steelbook and stars Brad Pitt in his first Academy Award nomination, and the time is right for a 3-disc enhancement of FINAL COUNTDOWN, starring Kirk Douglas and Martin Sheen. One package includes 4K UHD, Blu-ray and CD.

May fills your plate with the definitive Spaghetti Western films DJANGO and TEXAS ADIOS, presented in a two- disc package from Arrow Video with a full buffet of extras. WEIRD WISCONSIN: THE BILL REBANE COLLECTION compiles this famous director's low budget horror films in a 4-bluray set, including posters, bonus content and a 60- page book. You could do no wurst!

There are no reggae artists more revered than Sly and Robbie-Jamaica's Riddim Twins. Their latest slab of vinyl, RED HILLS ROAD, features a dancehall groove mixed with experimental vibes. Roots mon! Certainly digging her roots is Maria Muldaur, who teams up for the CD LET'S GET HAPPY TOGETHER, with traditional jazz/ragtime street band Tuba Skinny, recorded live in New Orleans. Also recorded live is FREEZE! LIVE IN EUROPE 2020 from prog-rockers the Aristocrats. Rowdy rock and fusion!

More kinkiness inside! Put us on!

The Residents - Gingerbread Man

The classic 1994 album - never before released on vinyl!

Originally released in 1994 (on CD only) and developed into an interactive CD-Rom project, 'Gingerbread Man' remains one of The Residents' standout works, exploring their own twisted counter-take on the classic 1875 fairy tale. Nine curious tales of love, hate, pain, art, death, time, age, fear, doubt, confusion and orchids. Never before released on vinyl, this edition, finally, meets public demand. Remastered and resplendent in restored original artwork and a picture inner sleeve.

If some of these titles look familiar, it's because they're among the most majestic roots and culture songs ever recorded. All tracks feature the original artists and even the actual seventies' vocal in some cases, but the rhythms have been recreated with today's sound-systems in mind and are heard at their very best when roaring out of giant speaker boxes.

Sly & Robbie - Red Hills Road

Legends Sly & Robbie release yet another groundbreaking innovative album

Sly & Robbie have been at the vanguard of innovation in Jamaican music for 40 + years. Often imitated, never equaled, rather than bemoan copycats, they just forge ahead, not looking back. On Red Hills Road, they continue to show the rest of the world how it's done: catchy danceable beats courtesy of Sly and lines heavy as lead bass thanks to Robbie. Add to that a hook on the guitar or the synth and, boom, a new hit by the Riddim Twins.

"We wanted a raw sound, nothing too overproduced or with a complicated mix" says Robbie as he runs late to yet another session.

"I have a love for instrumentals" says Sly Dunbar "and so we've been doing just that, and especially on a dancehall beat. There were lots of hit ska and rocksteady instrumentals, but in the dancehall era, not so many. I was just cutting tracks. When I listen to dancehall, there's nothing exciting happening. So I started to search for something different that people can listen to. I even go back to kumina and mento on tracks like Linstead Market and Coronation Market." Indeed, Red Hills Road is not merely a Dancehall album, it's more in the league of experimental masterpieces by Herbie Hancock, Bill Laswell and the like, blending the old with new to create something previously unheard that people enjoy. Sounds simple... Black Echoes Mag from London loves it.

John Adorney - The Touch-stone CD

The Touch•Stone is the third and final delivery of the "Toward a Gentle Place" trilogy.

The Touch•Stone is the third and final volume in a series that began with Toward a Gentle Place (2017), and was followed by A Silver Thread (2020). As in the earlier volumes, I wanted the album to be a comforting one, so I've only included pieces that I feel have either an uplifting or a soothing, quality. The sequencing of the music is based on something called the iso-principle.

Victor Bailey - That's Right CD

The late great former Weather Report bassist's third solo album, featuring an ALLSTAR Band

That's Right! is not a "bass" album, per se, but rather a solid collection of funk-fusion tunes that spotlight the former Weather Report bassist's multiple gifts as a composer, musician, arranger and leader. Bailey enlisted Omar Hakim and Lenny White, Bill Evans, Bennie Maupin, Jim Beard and Dean Brown to help him breathe vibrant life into the album's nine tracks.

Gary Bartz & NTU Troop - Live In Bremen 1975 CD

Historic live recording of Gary Bartz NTU Troop from 1975. Shortly after the concert the musicians went their own ways.

On 8th November 1975, Gary Bartz performed with the NTU Troop in Bremen's Post-Aula. Gary Bartz was joined on stage by drummer Howard King, bassist Curtis Robertson and pianist Charles Mims, an extraordinary, musically brilliant quartet that was well-rehearsed and coordinated. For Gary Bartz, jazz is "improvised composing", which can be heard on this live album recorded 46 years ago.

Ricard Capellino Carlos - Alberto Posadas: Veredas CD

The "paths" that Alberto Posadas treads in this saxophone cycle are also those between these mental and real opposites.

The "paths" that Alberto Posadas treads in this saxophone cycle are also those between these mental and real opposites. The Veredas cycle is designed as a course. We wander through different spaces, and that can take different forms. In a concert, we are on the move in a very real way, overcoming distances, always finding our position relative to the respective saxophone anew.

Coltre - Under The Influence CD

They sound like a relic from the original NWOBHM with their dark 'n' mysterious riffs and pivotal rock 'n' roll thrust.

Rough and rustic but brimming with an authentically ancient fire, Under the Influence is moody metallic majesty: dark 'n' mysterious riffs, portentously galloping rhythms, epic-yet-direct compositions, and the sage-like pipes of Stagmina atop it all. One could be mistaken for thinking COLTRE were some unearthed relic from the original NWOBHM movement.

The Everdawn - Poems: Burning The Past CD

THE ultimate Gothenburg death metal album which belongs to its genre like "Raining Blood" belongs to Thrash!

The Everdawn, founded in 1993, celebrated the so-called "Gothenburg Death Metal" in its purest form. Their only album, "Poems -Burning The Past", with its playing time of just 35 minutes (plus bonus tracks), has to be described as the "Raining Blood" of this genre. Every riff ignites, every drum beat hits the mark, the songs are crisp and spontaneous, garnished with completely hysterical vocals!

Ghost Iris - Comatose CD

It's about the fact that many people are asleep, but even from a coma, one can arise.

On the surface it might seem extremely dark, nihilistic and bearing of a defeatist attitude, but darkness cannot exist where there's light. We all exist in the age of enlightenment and even though it seems as if we're all screwed and the earth is almost destroyed, times will surely change. Arise from the coma, no longer comatose, we fight the demons.

MAY 2021 NEW RELEASES 26 MVD entertainment group like herself, these musicians study, play and immerse themselves in early blues, jazz and jug-band music of the 20s and 30s. Listening to their albums, Maria came to the conclusion that "they were not just playing a marvelous repertoire of cool tunes with great skill and authenticity, but somehow channeling the very atmosphere and vibration of that bygone era."

Just prior to the Covid Pandemic in January 2020, Maria asked Tuba Skinny to collaborate in a showcase performance at the International Folk Alliance Conference in New Orleans. It was so well received that an album was immediately conceived and recorded later that year, with the title track summing it all up: Let's Get Happy Together. Performing 12 songs as close as possible in feeling to the original recordings, Tuba Skinny and Maria Muldaur breathed life into rarely heard gems from this incredible era.

Maria Muldaur's 55-plus year career is a long and adventurous odyssey through the forms of American Roots Music: Blues, Jug Band, Bluegrass, Jazz and Appalachian "Old Timey" Music. Over 42 albums Maria has been nominated 6 times for Grammy Awards, as well as for Blues, Folk and Roots awards. She has been recognized at the Blues Music Awards in Memphis for many of her Stony Plain releases over the years, and is the 2019 recipient of the "Lifetime Achievement Americana Trailblazer Award" from the Americana Music Association.

Iron Curtain - Danger Zone CD

The long awaited 4th album by the Spanish heavy/speed metal machine. Each record keeps getting better!

Forged in the fires of the early '80s, IRON CURTAIN's sound set forth a smorgasboard of grit and gleam equally, largely nodding to the eternal Motörhead as well as Tank, but also Exciter to cult icons Savage Grace. Scaling back the speed that characterized the band earlier on, here do IRON CURTAIN work the sweet-spot mid-tempo, maximizing space and shade within these overtly more melodic gems.

Aristocrats - Freeze! Live In Europe 2020

The rowdy rock/fusion power trio (Govan/Beller/Minnemann) showcases electric chemistry just weeks before touring paused.

The rowdy instrumental rock/fusion power trio The Aristocrats (Guthrie Govan/gtr, Bryan Beller/bs, Marco Minnemann/dr) loudly and proudly showcase their renowned electric onstage chemistry on FREEZE! Live In Europe 2020.

Featuring performances from across Spain in February 2020, just weeks before live music went on extended hiatus, the album leans heavily on debut live-recorded renditions of material from their most recent album, the critically acclaimed You Know What...?, which debuted at #2 on the Billboard Jazz Charts (U.S.) "FREEZE! documents a particularly memorable period for the band so I think it's really fortunate that we were able to capture this musical 'snapshot'", says Govan. "After months of relentless gigging, the material from our latest studio recording had started to feel really natural for us and yet... somehow, there was still an unmistakable element of excitement and musical risk-taking every night." It also contains an epic version of the band's classic "Get It Like That", with a Minnemann drum solo dedicated to Rush's Neil Peart.

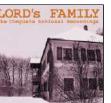

"On tour, maybe one out of ten gigs fully pleases the band as a collective," says Minnemann. "But I believe that 'quality control' and giving 110% every night is the least we can do for us and especially our fans...this hand-picked selection of Aristocratic tunes I believe showcases the band as an oiled and locked machine, with both love and attention to detail, and playfulness and fun. Furthermore, Neil Peart sadly passed away during our European leg...I played my heart out for him every single night."

Magia Nera - L'ultima Danza Di Ophelia CD

Psychedelic/progressive hardrock from Italy! Magia Nera was founded in 1969 and remained active till 1973

One of the reasons for the band to break up was that the members were discouraged after their van caught fire, destroying the tapes that were recorded for the debut-album. Some 44 years later most of the musicians got back together to re-record the old material, thus making the dream of Magia Nera (in English that is Black Magic) come true after all.

Night Eternal - The Night Eternal CD

The first sign of life by this new German heavy metal band. Eerily haunting material!

Although THE NIGHT ETERNAL's first public recording, already, these Germans are evincing the mastery of veterans. Across their three original compositions and a cover of Judas Priest's "(Take These) Chains," the quintet concoct a powerful and stirringly moody sort of heavy metal, both traditionally pure-steel in their dynamics yet also brimming with epicness and a sort of forlorn heroism.

Obsolete Theory - Dawnfall CD

A new vision of dark music, a magnificent Post Black Metal in the vein of Behemoth, Enslaved, Mgla, Agalloch, Alcest

OBSOLETE THEORY's music can be identified as Post Black Metal rich of hints from Doom, Death and Avantgarde Black Metal resounding obscurity, alienation and sickness. "Dawnfall" is a manifesto of heaviness, depth & atmosphere everything into a magnificent Doomish Black Metal, with six long, complex and full of pathos songs for what we can consider for sure an opus of emotional sonorities.

The Ossuary - Oltretomba CD

On Oltretomba (Underworld) The Ossuary from Italy pay tribute to the horror genre with outstanding doom hardrock bymns

The Ossuary create their own niche in hard rock, pairs the classic twin guitars with an earthy sound, classic rock elements with a certain proximity to the prog of the 70s with fresh power and autheniticity. Once again, the Italians consistently pursue and refine their own ideal of songs that make the dead dance. And it is a damn cool party, on which "Oltretomba" takes us here.

Erin Propp & Larry Roy - We Want All The Same Things CD

Contemporary vocal jazz from JUNO Award nominees featuring top Canadian jazz performers

There is nuance in the everyday; in its layers of love, joy, and hurt, and in its emotional currents ever present. Erin Propp and Larry Roy reach into the everyday and blur the edges, creating works that are at once deeply personal and achingly relatable. These are songs that take it all in, that read between the lines, that hear the subtext, that feel it, that say it out loud.

Purtenance - Member Of The Immortal Damnation CD

The time is over to pay $100+ for this classic. Here's the official re-release of this Finnish Death Metal gem.

Finnish Death Metal Classic! Is it because of Finland's icy cold that the death metal of the 90s based there has its very own charm' In the way of bands like Demelich, Demigod or old Sentenced, this band was formed in Nora in 1990. Two years later, they released "Member Of Immortal Damnation," a classic that still causes tears of joy among death metal disciples 30 years later.

NEW YORKER

"Christopher Cerrone's song cycle
'I Will Learn to Love a Person,'
a setting of five poems by Tao Lin, builds moments of raw vulnerability from cool, dreamy underlays and repeated, almost quotidian gestures."

Los Angeles Times

"Of special beauty was Christopher Cerrone's 'Hoyt-Schermerhorn,' a brilliantly solemn intoning of pianistic bells by the composer of the opera 'Invisible Cities,' evoking a preternaturally transformed Brooklyn subway stop."

ARTIST	Christopher Cerrone
TITLE	The Arching Path
RELEASE DATE	May 21, 2021
CATALOGUE #	ICR021
UPC	760137535928
GENRE	Classical
FORMAT	CD

In a Circle Records proudly presents composer Christopher Cerrone's latest album, The Arching Path. A follow-up to Cerrone's 2019 GRAMMY®-nominated The Pieces that Fall to Earth, The Arching Path is a pianodriven, electro-acoustic album of chamber music featuring pianist Timo Andres, percussionist Ian Rosenbaum, soprano Lindsay Kesselman, and clarinetist Mingzhe Wang. The warm, resonant and rhythmic music on The Arching Path is inspired by Cerrone's travels to Italy and composed between 2010 and 2016. The album was produced by longtime Cerrone collaborator, Mike Tierney, who also worked on The Pieces that Fall to Earth.

The works on Christopher Cerrone's examine how we metabolize place. Drawing largely from the composer's travels, the pieces on The Arching Path comprise a sort of travelogue—not an attempt to inscribe experiences exactly as they were witnessed, but rather to chronicle their aftershocks long after we have returned home. The Arching Path is a virtuosic piano solo inspired by the vertiginous arcs of the Musmeci Bridge in Potenza in Southern Italy. "Double Happiness" is a electro-acoustic duet for piano and percussion featuring field recordings of the Italian countryside. "I Will Learn to Love a Person" is a set of love songs adapted from poetry by Tao Lin. The album closes with "Hoyt—Schermerhorn" inspired by a subway stop where Cerrone has spent many a night of his commute.

As Cerrone puts it: "This album is a collection of pieces written over the last ten years memorializing essential moments in my life, performed by some of my closest friends and collaborators. Part of the joy of the project has been creating an album that goes far beyond the replication of live performance and instead becomes a project all its own, where recording, editing, and mixing techniques are as essential to the process as composition."

Sadness - Leave CD

One of the best works in blackgaze history

An absolute masterpiece from start to finish. Never in my life has an album been such a visceral part of my day to day life. The walls of noise act as guides for my thoughts for when I am too frantic. The intermissions of melody and crescendo make the world seem beautiful. The vocals are the sound our hearts make when we are faced with chaotic and complicated life.

Sandstorm - Desert Warrior CD

The ancient sounding warrior three-piece from Canada is back with 4 new epic Heavy Metal tunes.

With the imminent release of Desert Warrior, SANDSTORM prove loudly that they are the REAL DEAL! A swift-yet-generous record at 21 minutes, the four songs comprising Desert Warrior are thematically unified by classic late '60s / early '70s sci-fi tropes, and the power-trio suitably keep the focus squarely on riffs and atmosphere. A great mix of epic and heavy metal as well as classic hard rock.

Sandstorm - Time To Strike CD

Obscure, catchy Heavy Metal from Canada with lots of energy, feeling and nods to the old ways.

Hailing from Vancouver, SANDSTORM formed during the winter 2017 and were inspired by '80s Swedish underground metal, the original NWOBHM movement, and "Rob Halford's Instagram account." While knowing all of heavy metal's over-the-top aesthetics at the dawn of the 1980s, it became immediately apparent that SANDSTORM were indeed the Real Deal when faced with their debut album, Time to Strike.

State Choir Latvija - Aeternum CD

In anticipation of Latvia's centenary, the State Choir "Latvija" and its artistic director, Maris Sirmais, announced their idea for a special and lasting gift to Latvia - a new, rich repertoire of choir songs that could be sung by both professional and amateur choirs. Thus they established a creative laboratory in which seventy-seven composers wrote new music for choir.

Stormwitch - Eye Of The Storm Re-release CD

The cult album of the german heavy metal band from the 80s PLUS additional bonus tracks.

The self-proclaimed Masters Of Black Romantic were founded in 1979. In 1984 they recorded their debut album for Gama Records. In the course of their career, the band had to compensate for many line-up changes, but they always managed to create something special with every album. Stormwitch's best-known fans are the Swedish heavy metal monsters Hammerfall, who also covered the track "Ravenlord."

Suicide Forest - Reluctantly CD

USA BLACK METAL, JUDAS ISCARIOT, XASTHUR

Three years after their fascinating debut, Suicide Forest is back with Reluctantly, a sophomore album which further develops their art. Taking their name from the Japanese Aokigahara forest, where many troubled people travel to end their life, the one-man band from Tucson, Az., moves from classic depressive black metal coordinates and expands their sound palette.

Time Rift - Eternal Rock CD

If you keep your hair long and your denim dirty, TIME RIFT have the heavy-metal-rock-and-roll you're looking for.

Formed on the damp streets of Portland, Oregon, TIME RIFT have been cranking out riffs to rev your Camaro to since 2014. With their debut album, Eternal Rock, TIME RIFT establish themselves as a band whose sound has one foot firmly placed in 1974 hard rock and Motorhead-ish metal. If TIME RIFT shows the modern world of rock and roll anything, it's that time is irrelevant and rock is eternal.

Tøronto - Under Siege CD

Weird 'n' wild speed metal heavily informed by punk. Think Razor and Warfare, but overseen by Inepsy, mid '80s Discharge

Hailing from Sweden, TØRONTO formed in 2017, partly out of the ashes of the sorely missed Morbus Chron. TØRONTO's first longerplaying record is a rush of weird 'n' wild speed metal heavily informed by hardcore punk. Put simply, one could imagine the sound as greased-up NWOBHM colliding into early Razor and Warfare, but overseen by Inepsy, mid '80s Discharge, and even Howard Benson-era

Venator - Paradiser CD

New Austrian heavy metal band dedicated to traditional heavy metal in the vein of Judas Priest and other classic acts.

VENATOR's Paradiser EP features killer, era-authentic artwork reminiscent of Mausoleum Records' mid-'80s heyday, VENATOR's entry here is three moody 'n' melodic tracks which have a subtly anthemic quality; just as equally, one can feel the chill of night blow across Paradiser. The uniquely retro-futuristic production simply accentuates the atmospheric push and pull.

Warlust - Unearthing Shattered Philosophies CD

Crushing black/death/thrash metal with lots of epic moments. 2nd album.

Warlust joined the ranks of founding fathers Desaster, Deströyer 666 and Aura Noir. While the debut LP was still tethered to more traditional-style blackthrash, with Unearthing Shattered Philosophies WARLUST's command of dynamics here is impressive, to say the very least: part and parcel of those more epic stylings, taking the band into the upper echelon of nowadays evil metal.

Airto Moreira & Flora Purim - Live At Jazzfest Bremen 1988

The Brazilian jazz stars take with this live album the listeners into their imaginative world of Brazilian/Latin jazz.

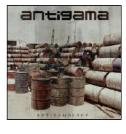

Brazilian Latin jazz stars Airto Moreira and his wife, singer Flora Purim, pride themselves with a live album from 1988 and take listeners into their imaginative world of Brazilian/Latin jazz.

On 26th October 1988, Flora Purim and Airto Moreira performed with their own ensemble at the Jazzfest in Bremen, Germany. Long-term companions such as bassist Bob Harrison, saxophonist and keyboardist Gary Meek and Brazilian multi-instrumentalist Marcos Silva shared the stage with the couple. A truly great "accompanying crew". Flora Purim: "The Bremen Jazz Festival was among the top ten best festivals in Europe and Airto and I were proud to be invited to be part of it,".

Alien Deception: The Biggest Lie In History DVD

With verified video of UFOs from military sources, it's time to explore the truth

For decades, world governments have lied to the people about the alien presence on Earth. Project Blue Book was reportedly closed down in 1969, but the discovery of the AATP program dispels any notion that the military and ruling powers of the US and other nations aren't interested in UFOs. Now with verified video of UFOs from military sources, it's time to explore the truth.

Mackintosh And TJ

The last Western Roy Rogers appeared in and his most realistic role as a ranch hand in Texas

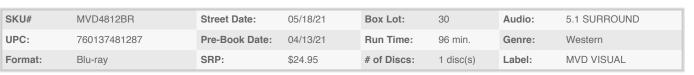

In his triumphant final film role, Roy Rogers (Lights of Old Santa Fe) stars as Mackintosh, a migrant cowboy traveling across the West Texas plains in his rundown pickup truck. While looking for work breaking horses, Mackintosh befriends T.J. (future ProRodeo Hall of Famer Clay O'Brien), a runaway teen. The two form an unlikely bond and find jobs together at a cattle ranch where Mackintosh impresses the owner with his bronco-taming skills. Trouble, however, is on the horizon, but Mackintosh proves himself as a man who is not afraid to take a stand.

A NEW MUSICAL INSPIRED BY A TRUE STORY

BASED ON THE MIRAMAX MOTION GEOFF DEAN & TIM FIRTH

"When it's good, 'Kinky Boots,' the new Broadway musical with the rocking Cyndi Lauper score, is sweetly, vivaciously, irresistibly good."

The Washington Post

Winner of the Tony® Best Musical, this huge-hearted hit is a story of two people with seemingly nothing in common. Factory owner Charlie is struggling to save his family business, and Lola is an entertainer with a wildly exciting idea. This unexpected pair learn to embrace their differences and create a line of sturdy stilettos! But in the end, their biggest achievement is their friendship.

Terror Express

ON THIS TRAIN THE NEXT STOP MAY BE YOUR LAST!

In this cult classic from director Ferdinando Baldi (Just a Damned Soldier) and writer George Eastman (Warriors of the Wasteland) comes the story of a dozen passengers who find themselves on some carriages of a train on a long trip. Among them a prostitute, a few couples, some girls, a policeman and three criminals; the latter steal the gun from the policeman and take control of some coaches, committing murders, assaults and humiliation. But an unexpected stop will give Peter (Gianluigi Chirizzi), a former convict, the opportunity for revenge! The Italian made TERROR EXPRESS (aka La Ragazza Del Vagone Letto) is another entry into the "Last House on the Left" style sub-genre that emerged in the 70's.

PRESS

"TERROR EXPRESS (the film's English title) is as much one of the string of Italian 'Last House on the Left' spin-offs/rip-offs as it is derivative of one of the better examples of that trend."

Outsiders - Count For Something: Albums, Demos, Live And Unreleased 1976-1978 cp

Long overdue reappraisal and acknowledgement, The Outsiders approached the punk boom with gusto. Adventurous, unrestrained and somewhat eccentric, this was a young band feeding off of the atmosphere around them and transforming it into their own suburban take on that place and time. A must for punk and alternative rock collectors.

DJANGO (UHD + TEXAS ADIOS BLU-RAY)

THE DEFINITIVE SPAGHETTI WESTERN

Director Sergio Corbucci (The Great Silence) upped the ante for sadism and sensationalism in westerns, depicting machine-gun massacres, mud-fighting prostitutes and savage mutilations. Presented here in its 4K UHD Blu-ray debut, with a wealth of extras.
