MAY-GUYVER!

Not the TV special agent MacGyver, but a May Guyver release that is still genius in every manner! THE GUYVER, starring Mark Hamill and JJ Walker is a Sci-Fi staple, coming on DVD, Bluray and triple disc packages. Watch as the alien robot dubbed THE GUYVER turns an ordinary man into a cyborg Superhero, who thus battles the Evil Empire. THE GUYVER is truly Out of This World!

Arrow Video has been other-worldly with its release quality and quantity, highlighted this month with two limited edition Blurays. NIGHT FALLS ON MANHATTAN is a mystery starring Andy Garcia and James Gandolfini, and wallow in the glow of eternal damnation with the new horror epic PANDEMONIUM. Arrow also hits the mark with 4K limited editions with the Award-winning horror of CRIMSON PEAK and NARC, a thriller starring Ray Liotta and Busta Rhymes (!)

Nothing basic about Arrow's 'Standard' versions of their recent limited deluxe editions, as they contain all the audio/visual content of the deluxe versions. This month finds unlimited supplies of the 4Ks and Blu-ray on BARBARELLA, WITNESS and CONAN titles. Not to be outgunned, witness the gender-bending take on Conan in the DVD and Blu-ray of SHEIS CONANN. 'Barbarians, gore, glitter, time travel, humanoid hellhounds, toxic lesbians and cannibalistic artists' have us salivating!

And salivate we will over new audio and video music titles this month. Guitar legend ROBIN TROWER shows off his rock chops on the IN CONCERT WITH SARI SCHORR DVD and Blu-ray. Sari was vocalist on the last Robin record JOYFUL SKY, and she attacks tunes from that record as well as Trower classics in this live show. And did somebody say 'classic?' How about new LP releases from CANNONBALL ADDERLEY, THE DWARVES, HAWKWIND, THE AQUABATS, CAL TJADER, UFO. X-RAY SPEX and ROY BUCHANAN!

MEET ME AT THE COFFEE SHOP is a CD compilation from Bear Family that will hop you up with its musical caffeine theme. Allen Ginsberg was no stranger to reading his poetry in coffee shops, and his rare poem IRON HORSE is put to an ambient soundscape soundtrack by Killing Joke's YOUTH. This Poetry can't be Beat!

Hope you enjoy Record Store Day 2024! Our cover girls THE SLITS were just one of 16 new essential vinyl titles MVD blessed the bins with. MVD May releases. Perfect. Like MacGyver!

Aardvark - Tough Love vinyl

Like a thunderous storm, the new HEAVY METAL force Aardvark has taken over Melbourne's traditional metal scene. Time to head on!

Not to be confused with the cult '70s prog band, Australia's AARDVARK are a classic heavy metal quartet hailing from Melbourne. Born from a desire to bring the masses together with the biting forces of power and honesty. Reverential to the past, AARDVARK inject their own personality and panache into 1983-vintage heavy metal: moody, melodic, dynamic, and dashing.

Abrams - Blue City Vinyl

ABRAMS' Blue City is where genre-defying heaviness and perfect melodic songcraft converge.

ABRAMS blast forth a cathartic mix of catchy, driving rhythms, soaring vocals and ethereal ambiance. Fusing melody and dissonance, their arresting sound shares territory with the likes of Torche and Cave-In, while their crunchy, irresistibly hooky riffs recall alt-rock icons Hum and Quicksand. It's perfect melodic songcraft, bittersweet and nostalgic yet forward-gazing.

Adam Schroeder & Mark Masters - CT! Celebrate Clark Terry Vinyl

The music of Clark Terry is celebrated by this great large ensemble led by baritone saxophonist Adam Schroeder and arranged by Mark

On CT!, baritone saxophonist and bandleader Adam Schroeder teams up with arranger Mark Masters to deliver a tasty baker's dozen tunes in the Basie/Ellington/Strayhorn style, all composed by renowned trumpeter Clark Terry. Schroeder conceived of the recording as a celebration of Terry's 100th birthday. That plan was delayed by the pandemic but eventually realized a few years later.

Bill Laurance & The Untold Orchestra - Bloom Vinvi

'Bloom" marks the transition from the smallest possible form of musical interaction to a large-scale, broadband format.

Following the internationally acclaimed ACT release "Where You Wish You Were" in duo with Michael League, Laurance now teams up with "The Untold Orchestra" and creates a work of convincingly epic proportions. Combining Bill Laurance's classical sensibilities with jazz, pop grooves, and powerful orchestral synchronicity, "Bloom" runs the gamut of emotions and moods.

Dismalimerence & Sadness - Resplendence vinyl

Flowing Downward is extremely honored to announce a split release by label favorites SADNESS and Dismalimerence.

It's been exciting to see these splits evolve a little beyond "other bands that sound like Sadness". Dismalimerence play emotional black metal which reminds me a lot the raw urgency of some of the UK crust scene. Sadness, as ever, are full of surprises. Not least the killer vocal performance of Nila Ojeda (another one!), followed by one of the most scorching moments in a Sadness song in the closer

Dog Unit - At Home Vinyl

At Home, Dog Unit's debut album, is more than a collection of instrumental rock songs; it's a suite of music precision-engineered for a single sitting

At Home is Dog Unit's first major statement. That statement may be wordless, but it's also sonically and conceptually articulate: here are four friends and native Londoners making an album in their home city that's custom-built to feel enveloping, warm and transporting as listeners wend their way through its running order. Put simply, this is a debut record of all-encompassing world-building.

Magne Thormodsæter - L'arte Della Persuasione Vinyl

Two worlds become one: Classical and jazz blend with a beautiful blow.

Magne Thormodsæter is an ECM-alumni, bassist, and in-demand session musician. On L'arte della persuasione, he fuses two worlds with the full force of a beautiful blow. The result is captivatingly unclassifiable. Although Thormodsæter composed L'arte della persuasione, the score provides the musicians with permissions to act spontaneously. The work will thus never sound the exact same way twice.

My Solid Ground - My Solid Ground Vinyl

My Solid Ground offers a fascinating blend of psychedelic rock and progressive rock.

This obscure krautrock album called "My Solid Ground" from 1971 has long been considered a classic of the genre. The first track, the 13-minute 'Dirty Yellow Mist', certainly lives up to its reputation as the group embark on a dark space rock journey. It sounds like a mixture of psychedelic rock and progressive rock.

Nancy Vieira - Gente Vinyl

Nancy Vieira's clear and direct voice tells of the stories, dreams and longings, pains and joys of the people of the Cape Verde Islands.

Nancy Vieira's clear and direct voice tells of the stories, dreams and longings, pains and joys of the people of the Cape Verde Islands. The special magic of "Gente" lies in the traditional sounds and their points of contact with the here and now. These points also lie in the narrow streets of Lisbon, the nature of Brazil and the percussion of African rhythms.

Oddgeir Berg Trio - A Place Called Home Vinyl

Oddgeir Berg returns to his father's birthplace: A gentle meditation on nature, memory, life and death.

On A Place Called Home, Oddgeir Berg takes us to this, his father's birthplace, for a concept album about the magic of nature, the spaces hidden in memory, and the bonds that family provides. The music was written with a new trio lineup and during a period of personal turmoil, including a cancer diagnosis for Berg's mother, and the worries which accompanied her treatment.

Rain Sultanov - Forgiveness vinyl

From anger to love: In a trio of organ, sax, and cello, Rain Sultanov is facing the dark side of the soul.

Anger is a destructive force. On his new album, Rain Sultanov is confronting it by writing some of the most heavenly music of his career. Soprano saxophone, organ, cello - this unusual instrumentation is at the heart of these nine floating, deeply moving compositions. Forgiveness is an extension of the palette of the 2018 release Cycle, which focused on the core duo of organ and saxophone.

Mejor De Los Nuggetz: Garage & Psyche From Latin America

MAGENTA RED VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-5120 / UPC: 089353512026 / SRP: $26.99

Mejor De Los Nuggetz is a collection of 1960s hyper kinetic garage, punk, pop and psychedelic music from Mexico, Spain and Latin American countries. While the inspiration for this collection has been the enduring trend and influence of American garage and psych bands from the '60s, it is an introduction to the amazing variety of Mexican and Latin American rock from that era. The, fuzz and fury of rock En Espanol with all the punk and pop elements that make it immediately listenable. Spanish interpretations of classic American and British songs that became popular around the world. The 14-track set was originally released on CD as disc one as part of a 4 CD box set in 2014. It now makes its vinyl debut on magenta red vinyl exclusive for Record Store Day 2024.

Includes Spanish language versions of hits like "Wooly Bully", "Satisfaction", "My Generation" and many more

The Punisher - Original Motion Picture Score

BLACK VINYL. 2xLP

NOTEFORNOTE ENTERTAINMENT / SKU: NFN1033LP-R / UPC: 850001545587 / SRP: $39.99

Notefornote Music is proud to reissue the original score to the 1989 action film, The Punisher starring 80s action icon, Dolph Lundgren. This was the first ever film to adapt the famous marvel comics character to the big screen. This is a 2-LP set and the first time this score has ever been released on vinyl.

Dolph Lundgren is Frank Castle an ex-cop who lives in the sewers and acts as judge, jury, and executioner to the city's criminals in retaliation for the unpunished murders of his wife and kids. Frank's ex-partner Jake (Louis Gossett Jr.) finally catches up with the vigilante as he tries to stop the Japanese mob, which is trying to take over the city's mafia operation.

Dennis Dreith has been the composer for such films as Purple People Eater (1988) and The Punisher (1989).

Brother Jack McDuff

Ain't No Sunshine

180 GRAM, BLACK VINYL, 2xLP

CELLAR LIVE / SKU: RTRLP011 / UPC: 875531023930 / SRP: $49.99

Roy Buchanan - Live At Rockpalast: Hamburg 1985 vinyl

The exceptional guitarist Roy Buchanan and his band live in 1985 at Rockpalast, on double vinyl.

This 2LP includes great covers of "Green Onions," "Walk, Don't Run" and Jimi Hendrix's "Foxy Lady." The Rolling Stones wanted him to replace B. Jones, and E. Clapton asked him to play the guitar for Derek & The Dominos, but he turned down both. He was a true master of the Fender Telecaster guitar; and his playing technique influenced musicians such as Gary Moore and Jeff Beck, significantly.

Scott Lavene - Disneyland In Dagenham Vinyl

Lavene jokes, "I'm like The Beatles, but a little bit Tom Waits, a little bit Whitesnake, a little bit Chas & Dave, and a little bit power ballads."

In the 1980s the Walt Disney Company were considering building their first European theme park not on the outskirts of Paris, but in Dagenham, Essex. In his youth, Scott Lavene used to pick up drugs from a dodgy flat overlooking the proposed site. Disney and Dagenham were never a good fit, he thought, as he stood on the balcony one evening as the sun set, awaiting an overdue hash delivery.

121 Years Of The Ford Car cp

In words and music, we explore Ford cars influence and appearance in music. The 30 song album is a rockin' tribute in music to Henry Ford's designs.

Ford cars were an affordable drive, and from the late 1940s onwards youths customised them into hot rods with twin pipes and a Columbia butt. For you folks who don't dig the jive, that's two carburettors and an overdrive. The thirty song album 121 Years Of The Ford Car is a rockin' tribute in music to Henry Ford's designs.

Aardvark - Tough Love CD

Like a thunderous storm, the new HEAVY METAL force Aardvark has taken over Melbourne's traditional metal scene. Time to head on!

Not to be confused with the cult '70s prog band, Australia's AARDVARK are a classic heavy metal quartet hailing from Melbourne. Born from a desire to bring the masses together with the biting forces of power and honesty. Reverential to the past, AARDVARK inject their own personality and panache into 1983-vintage heavy metal: moody, melodic, dynamic, and dashing.

Abrams - Blue City CD

ABRAMS' Blue City is where genre-defying heaviness and perfect melodic songcraft converge.

ABRAMS blast forth a cathartic mix of catchy, driving rhythms, soaring vocals and ethereal ambiance. Fusing melody and dissonance, their arresting sound shares territory with the likes of Torche and Cave-In, while their crunchy, irresistibly hooky riffs recall alt-rock icons Hum and Quicksand. It's perfect melodic songcraft, bittersweet and nostalgic yet forward-gazing.

Adam Schroeder & Mark Masters - Ct! Celebrate Clark Terry CD

The music of Clark Terry is celebrated by this great large ensemble led by baritone saxophonist Adam Schroeder and arranged by Mark Masters

On CTI, baritone saxophonist and bandleader Adam Schroeder teams up with arranger Mark Masters to deliver a tasty baker's dozen tunes in the Basie/Ellington/Strayhorn style, all composed by renowned trumpeter Clark Terry. Schroeder conceived of the recording as a celebration of Terry's 100th birthday. That plan was delayed by the pandemic but eventually realized a few years later.

Dog Unit - At Home CD

At Home, Dog Unit's debut album, is more than a collection of instrumental rock songs; it's a suite of music precision-engineered for a single sitting

At Home is Dog Unit's first major statement. That statement may be wordless, but it's also sonically and conceptually articulate: here are four friends and native Londoners making an album in their home city that's custom-built to feel enveloping, warm and transporting as listeners wend their way through its running order. Put simply, this is a debut record of all-encompassing world-building.

Elisabeth Harnik: Someone Will Remember Us CD

Since the nineties, Elisabeth Harnik's work as an artist is characterised by two aspects: improvisation and composition. (Susanne Kogler) Since the nineties, Elisabeth Harnik's work as an artist is characterised by two aspects: improvisation and composition. For Harnik, these two activities are two sides of the same coin. This already becomes evident in her improvisational playing, in which she frequently works with piano preparations and extended playing techniques. (Susanne Kogler)

Liliental - Liliental CD

Originally released in 1978 on the Brain label, the band's only work combined "ambient" synth elements with rock, jazz and "exotic" experiments.

Liliental was formed during Dieter Moebius' creative hiatus from the Krautrock band Cluster. Moebius was supported by Kraan members Helmut Hattler (el. bass), Johannes Pappert (alto saxophone), Okko Becker (keyboards, vocals, guitar, percussion) and Asmus Tietchens (Moog, grand piano). Conny Plank, who also played on several Cluster albums, completed the quartet on guitar, keyboards and vocals.

Magne Thormodsæter - L'arte Della Persuasione CD

Two worlds become one: Classical and jazz blend with a beautiful blow.

Magne Thormodsæter is an ECM-alumni, bassist, and in-demand session musician. On L'arte della persuasione, he fuses two worlds with the full force of a beautiful blow. The result is captivatingly unclassifiable. Although Thormodsæter composed L'arte della persuasione, the score provides the musicians with permissions to act spontaneously. The work will thus never sound the exact same way twice.

Magnus Lindgren & John Beasley - Butterfly Effect CD

Eleven original compositions create musical worlds in microcosm for Lindgren and Beasley to explore together.

As with "Bird Lives", the appeal of "Butterfly Effect" lies in the fact that the two protagonists have such different musical backgrounds and influences. "Butterfly Effect" gathers these influences together to create a particularly fine distillate one which reveals a completely different side of Lindgren and Beasley from their work with large orchestras and big bands.

Marion & Sobo Band - Gomera CD

A gipsy style tribute to the island of Gomera with great singer Marion Lenfant-Preus and guitarist Alexander "Sobo" Sobocinski

Gypsy swing, or jazz manouche, is celebrating a powerful comeback. Many groups are currently revitalising it. The Marion & Sobo Band can lay claim to not only marrying the only European jazz style coined by Django Reinhardt in the 1930s with other genres in an enchanting and compelling way, but also freeing it from its instrumental cage and transferring it to chanson and vocal jazz.

Massimo Toniutti - The Clear Observatory: Eyepiece Musique CD

New album by Italian sound designer and experimental musician Massimo Toniutti dealing with space, silence and sound dust

Massimo Toniutti is an Italian sound designer and experimental musician. He is the brother of Giancarlo Toniutti who is best known for his electroacoustic masterpiece La Mutazione. On his new album, Toniutti deals once more with space and silence with an immersive, long track. A loose knit sound structure moves in a cyclic but unpredictable way embracing macro shapes, empty spaces and sound dust.

Rain Sultanov - Forgiveness CD

05/03/2024

MET1354

From anger to love: In a trio of organ, sax, and cello, Rain Sultanov is facing the dark side of the soul.

Anger is a destructive force. On his new album, Rain Sultanov is confronting it by writing some of the most heavenly music of his career. Soprano saxophone, organ, cello - this unusual instrumentation is at the heart of these nine floating, deeply moving compositions. Forgiveness is an extension of the palette of the 2018 release Cycle, which focused on the core duo of organ and saxophone.

Scott Lavene - Disneyland In Dagenham CD

Lavene jokes, "I'm like The Beatles, but a little bit Tom Waits, a little bit Whitesnake, a little bit Chas & Dave, and a little bit power ballads."

In the 1980s the Walt Disney Company were considering building their first European theme park not on the outskirts of Paris, but in Dagenham, Essex. In his youth, Scott Lavene used to pick up drugs from a dodgy flat overlooking the proposed site. Disney and Dagenham were never a good fit, he thought, as he stood on the balcony one evening as the sun set, awaiting an overdue hash delivery.

The Cannonball Adderley Quintet - Live In Montreal May 1975 CD

One of the Cannonball Adderley Quintet's final performances recorded in Montreal on May 3, 1975 three months before his untimely passing

Julian "Cannonball" Adderley rose to prominence in the hard-bop era of the 50's and 60's. After a successful stint with Miles Davis' sextet, Adderley formed his own quintet with brother Nat and soon became the driving force behind the soul-jazz movement of the 1960's and 70's. It is believed this is likely to be his final concert, just 90 days before his death

You've heard his guitar before; George was a founding member of Bruce Hornsby & the Range and for nearly the past 20 years, was Bonnie Raitt's lead guitarist, Oh and in between he found time to play with James Taylor, Shawn Colvin, Garth Brooks, Ray Charles, Art Garfunkel, Vince Gill, The Chicks and many, many more.

George is an amazing songwriter, who has written with a number of incredible musicians including Bonnie Raitt and has previously recorded 6 solo albums that he released digitally only. This 2 CD set includes his brand new album and a retrospective collection of his earlier album so that everyone can finally own a collection of his music.

After listening to some of his earlier work, Katherine Richardson of NoDepression said this about him: "One of Rock and Rolls most talented and established musicians."

To say George is talented, isn't quite enough. On this record he plays every instrument, including his favorite; the drums. He recorded them himself, found time to mix and master them and Created all the artwork for the album.

This Ending - Crowned In Blood CD

After "Inside The Machine", "Dead Harvest", "Garden Of Death" and "Needles Of Rust", THIS ENDING are ready to become "Crowned In

Three years have passed, since the band released their album "Needles Of Rust" and the world is a different one now. In these days, people scream even more for a strong dose of (melodic) death metal to channel the negativity out there. THIS ENDING took their time to write a strong album that combines all strengths of the Swedish five piece that arose from the ashes of A Canorous Quintet in 2006.

Van Der Graaf Generator - Live At Rockpalast: Leverkusen 2005 CD/DVD

This Van der Graaf Generator gig at the Jazzfestival in Leverkusen 2005 is the only existing DVD+2CD in original line-up

The documented in this DVD+2CD Van der Graaf Generator gig at the Jazzfestival in Leverkusen meant to be the climax of the reunion tour in 2005. "We knew that it was going to be filmed and recorded professionally. Up to this point, a film of a whole live concert just didn't exist! You will not get another chance to see a better show by that line up!", states saxist and flautist David Jackson.

All the Young Wives + My Pleasure Is My Business (Drive-In Double Feature #21) Blu-ray Disc

Two sexy 1970's Drive-In Classics! One Great Price!

ALL THE YOUNG WIVES: Politically incorrect drama about evolving lifestyles on the 70's rural south. The 2nd co-hit starring actress/writer Xavier Hollander (THE HAPPY HOOKER) is the 1975 sex farce MY BUSINESS IS MY PLEASURE. It's slapstick comedy with a campy cult-ish quality. These long lost drive-in fare can now be relived in spectacular HD from Dark Force Entertainment.

SOMETHING UNSPEAKABLE HAS COME HOME

In this shattering variation on "The Monkey's Paw," grief-stricken suburban parents (Academy Award® nominees John Marley of THE GODFATHER and Lynn Carlin of FACES) refuse to accept the news that their son Andy (Richard Backus) has been killed in Vietnam. But when Andy returns home soon after, something may be horribly wrong: Andy is alive and well... or is he? Produced and directed by Bob Clark (BLACK CHRISTMAS) and written by Alan Ormsby (DERANGED), DEATHDREAM was one of the very first films to confront the domestic ravages of the Vietnam War and remains one of the most chilling horror films of all time.

DEATHDREAM was released under several different titles, including DEAD OF NIGHT, THE NIGHT WALK and THE NIGHT ANDY CAME HOME, and marked the grisly debut of gore effects legend Tom Savini (DAWN OF THE DEAD). In honor of its 50th Anniversary, Blue Underground is proud to present this acclaimed shocker in a brand-new restoration, scanned in 4K 16-bit from the 35mm negative with Dolby Vision HDR, overflowing with exclusive new and archival Extras!

Night Falls On Manhattan [Limited Edition] Blu-ray Disc

Night Falls on Manhattan is a 1996 American crime drama film written and directed by Sidney Lumet based on the novel Tainted Evidence by Robert Daley.

In a career that includes Oscar-nominated masterpieces such Prince of the City, director Sidney Lumet has cross-examined the fine line between those who enforce the law and those who exploit it, both in the courtroom and on the streets. Adapting a novel by former NYPD officer Robert Daley, Lumet once again exposes the corrupt underbelly of the city that never sleeps in Night Falls on Manhattan.

Seeing Red: 3 French Vigilante Thrillers Blu-ray Disc

The films in Seeing Red: 3 French Vigilante Thrillers are action-filled tales of ordinary citizens enacting bloody revenge against violent criminals.

Following in the rich tradition of crime stories in Gallic literature & cinema, the films in Seeing Red: 3 French Vigilante Thrillers (Shot Pattern ('82), Street of the Damned ('84) and Black List ('84) reflect a collective paranoia about random violence in cities, as well as the worldwide box office success of films like Death Wish, which depicted ordinary citizens directly confronting criminals.

She Is Conann Blu-ray Disc

Hellhound Rainer roams the abyss, following Conann in each phase of her life, from childhood as a slave to Sanja through to her accession as queen.

In a barbaric fantasy sci-fi trip through time, sword-and-sorcery mythology is bent, fractured, and gender-swapped by master visionary Bertrand Mandico. Six lives, six eras, and six deaths mark Conann's poetic journey through different incarnations and lesbian loves. Guiding Conann through her many epic lives is Rainer, a Cerberus of many otherworldly dimensions whose paparazzi camera sees all.

Paralyzed by his fear of dying, Miles Grissom (Clark Freeman) offers a cash reward to the first person who can show him a ghost, an angel, a demon – anything to prove that we go on after our deaths. He narrows the responses down to three viable candidates – a scientist, a medium, and a worldly entrepreneur. And along with his fiercely protective mother (Annette O'Toole), he embarks on an adventure that will spiral into an unthinkable nightmare.

Sabotage (Collector's Edition)

A bodyguard (Mark Dacascos, John Wick: Chapter 3) uses his Navy commando training to track the killers of an arms dealer he was hired to protect.

THE DARK HEART OF BLACK OPERATIONS BEATS TO A SECRET AGENDA.

Colonel Michael Bishop's (Mark Dacascos, John Wick: Chapter 3 - Parabellum) last mission went horribly wrong. Destroyed from within... sabotaged. His was the only body dragged from the ashes of a black operation that never happened.

After years of recovery, Bishop thought he escaped the Black Ops and began a successful new life as a bodyguard to the rich and famous. He was the best, with skills most men died learning. But his past caught up with him. His clients began to die violently, at the same shadowy hand that conspired against his Black Op unit.

Now he must go own one last mission to destroy the faceless men that run an army that doesn't exist in this "underrated gem" (The Action Elite) from director Tibor Takács (The Gate) co-starring Carrie-Anne Moss (The Matrix), Tony Todd (Candyman) and Graham Greene (Dances with Wolves).

Joysticks [Collector's Edition]

When a successful businessman (Joe Don Baker) decides to shut down the local video emporium, a group of dedicated gamers battle to save the arcade.

There's something going on at the local video arcade - something totally insane, outrageously hilarious, very sexy and thoroughly entertaining; the hit film JOY STICKS!

This antic romp begins when "The Video Arcade's" newest employee, Eugene (Leif Green, Grease 2) arrives pantless for his first day on the job. Teenage heartthrob Jeff (Scott McGuinnis, Secret Admirer), who runs the arcade and Dorfus (Jim Greenleaf, Liar's Moon), the slovenly video game addict, decide to take revenge on the vivacious Alva (Kym Malin, Weird Science) and Lola for tricking Eugene out of his pants with a wild game of "strip video." But before they can act, King Vidiot (Jon Gries, Napoleon Dynamite) and his sexy troupe of hightech video addicts invade the arcade and pandemonium breaks loose. In the midst of the chaos, Joseph Rutter (Joe Don Baker, Fletch), an influential businessman, comes into the arcade looking for his daughter Patsy (Corinne Bohrer, Surf II). When he witnesses the madness around him, he vows to see the "den of juvenile delinguency" shut down for good!

Will the city council decide to close the arcade and spoil the kids' fun? Or, will Jeff, Eugene and Dorfus manage to turn Rutter's anger with a little help from Alva and Lola? It all comes together in a climatic and hilarious video game competition - with a winner-takes-all bet on the future of the video arcade in this early 80's cult classic comedy produced and directed by Greydon Clark (Final Justice).

She Is Conann DVD

Hellhound Rainer roams the abyss, following Conann in each phase of her life, from childhood as a slave to Sanja through to her accession as gueen.

In a barbaric fantasy sci-fi trip through time, sword-and-sorcery mythology is bent, fractured, and gender-swapped by master visionary Bertrand Mandico. Six lives, six eras, and six deaths mark Conann's poetic journey through different incarnations and lesbian loves. Guiding Conann through her many epic lives is Rainer, a Cerberus of many otherworldly dimensions whose paparazzi camera sees all.

The Talisman

After a wagon train massacre, Indian warrior and a young white girl are awakened by a thunderstorm & find they are the sole survivors of the mayhem.

Upon the aftermath of a wagon train massacre, two people are awakened by a raging thunderstorm, only to find they are the sole survivors of the mayhem. One, is a Chevenne warrior, the other, a young white girl, both arch enemies in the present wars over territory and land. Upon discovering the girl is still alive, the warrior raises his knife to finish her off, but stops when he sees a Thunderbird appear in the sky above them. Feeling this is a sign he is to keep her alive and to be her protector, the warrior takes on the task. The grateful girl accepts his help, but is still determined, to reach her intended destination, which is to be united with her fiancée'. When they cross paths with a group of white, mountain men, who promise to take her to her people, the warrior reluctantly lets her go with them, giving her his amulet, a Talisman, to protect her.

In a barbaric fantasy sci-fi trip through time, sword-and-sorcery mythology is bent, fractured, and gender-swapped by master visionary Bertrand Mandico in his third feature epic. Six lives, six eras, and six deaths mark Conann's poetic journey through different incarnations and lesbian loves. Guiding Conann through her many epic lives is Elina Löwensohn (Amateur, Let the Corpses Tan) as Rainer, a Cerberus of many otherworldly dimensions whose paparazzi camera sees all. The perversity of The Wild Boys and the hero's journey of After Blue (Dirty Paradise) come together in this even greater handmade homage as Mandico ropes in influences as lush as Fellini Satyricon, The Night Porter. The Hunger, and Fassbinder's entire oeuvre to craft a moving portrait of a warrior trying to find her place while outside of space, time, and meaning. This official selection of Cannes Directors' Fortnight, Fantastic Fest, and Sitges "thrives on its own bizarre extravagance as it pushes the limits of substance and style" (Collider).

Bonus Features:

The Show Has Already Started: 3 Short Films by Bertrand Mandico (Rainer, A Vicious Dog in Skull Valley, We Barbarians, and The Last Cartoon - Nonsense, Optimistic, Pessimistic) (83 min.) U.S. Trailer - Other Trailers

Denotes Blu-ray exclusive bonus feature

"Barbarians, gore, glitter, time travel, humanoid hellhounds, toxic lesbians, and cannibalistic artists are some--but far from all--of the components in Bertrand Mandico's avant-garde retelling of the Conan the Barbarian mythos." -collider

> "A perfect queer film about identity, the power of sapphic love, and the bad-assery of women wielding big swords." -Dread Central

Teen qirl's hike goes awry when they find a crashed drug smuggling plane. She must outsmart a brutal gang and confront a deadlier

A seemingly innocent wilderness hike turns into a perilous ordeal for a teenage girl and her friends when they stumble upon a crashed drug smuggling plane. Forced to outsmart a ruthless gang determined to protect their illicit cargo, they find themselves facing an even greater threat. As the secrets of the crashed plane unravel, she discovers an enemy far more dangerous than mere drug smugglers.

The Slits - In The Beginning (Blue Vinyl) RSD

The pioneering girl punk (later dub) band who debuted in 1977. First time complete on vinyl for this live anthology - limited edition in blue. RSD24

BLUE VINYL. The album spans from an early, chaotic punk-era raw gig, and shows how they evolved into their dubby, reggae-influenced style with songs such as 'Typical Girls,' and a track from their last ever performance in 1981. It features 3 songs never otherwise recorded* and guest vocals from Nina Hagen and Neneh Cherry. Gatefold sleeve includes notes + previously unseen live and at home photos.
