MAY: WE TAKE YOU TO HELL

MVD's May inferno begins with the 4k ultra-HD bluray of Arrow Video's JASON GOES TO HELL. It's Friday the 13th all over again, as Jason finds new life in Youngstown, Ohio (!) and starts hacking and slashing his way to the end. Two-disc limited edition, so get it while the Gates of Hell are still open! Jason goes from hellfire to his frozen body thawed and shot into the heavens to become the first Space Age serial killer in JASON X! Heavens or hell, Jason has you covered with these two limited 4K releases!

From the Gates of Hell to GATE OF FLESH, a Japanese bluray from 88 Films. In the ruins of postwar Tokyo, prostitutes form a dance club, soon infiltrated by gangsters and pimps looking for a cut. There's trouble amongst the rubble! Also from 88 are LADY OF THE LAW, a bluray cut from the Golden Age of Hong Kong swordplay and MAGNIFICENT BODYGUARDS starring Jackie Chan, who bursts into your living room in the first ever Hong Kong movie shot in 3D! MVD has skin in the game with two very different flicks, Severin's unsettling horror film IN MY SKIN on bluray and two-disc 4K, and THE BIKINI CARWASH COMPANY I and II bubble feature, a bodacious babe video store classic!

Berlin experimental band DIE HAUT did a collaborative record with Birthday Party-era NICK CAVE in 1982 called BURNIN' THE ICE, long out of print but back now in limited edition red and clear vinyl versions. PETER MURPHY, co-founder of dark and gloomy Bauhaus, returns with his first new CD and LP in 10 years, SILVER SHADE from Metropolis Records. SOFT MACHINE co-founder ROBERT WYATT's music is the soundtrack for the Cleopatra DVD release ROCK BOTTOM, a cautionary tale of the '70s hippie culture gone awry. Involved in the music production were Pink Floyd's Nick Mason and Brian Eno.

As Jason goes to hell, he'll undoubtedly run into G.G. ALLIN, who for sure will hype him on his new record, a reissue LP and CD of his debut album ALWAYS WAS, IS AND ALWAYS SHALL BE.

Open up and you'll see hell ain't a bad place to be!

Die Haut & Nick Cave - Burnin' The Ice [Clear Vinyl Indie Exclusive] Vinyl

Classic early 80s Berlin underground recording of Die Haut and Nick Cave.

Nick Cave, new in Berlin, entered the world of Die Haut in 1982. The result is a furious album that paves the way for the music that Nick Cave and The Bad Seeds have been making since 1984. BURNIN' THE ICE has not been available for a long time. Now the record is being reissued on vinyl - and after many years, it closes a gap that drove Cave completists to despair.

Johnny Ace - Aces Wild: The Greatest Singles 1952-56 Vinyl

This 16 track LP comprises the best of his releases under his own name

Johnny Ace lived the rock 'n' roll lifestyle some years before the true birth of rock 'n' roll. By all accounts, it was to be the death of him, too. Perhaps surprisingly for the son of a preacher man, he was a notorious philanderer, with a fascination for guns, prone to violent, drunken outbursts. He was an absentee husband and father, dishonourably discharged from the United States Navy,

Die Haut & Nick Cave - Burnin' The Ice [Indie Exclusive]

Classic early 80s Berlin underground recording of Die Haut and Nick Cave.

Nick Cave, new in Berlin, entered the world of Die Haut in 1982. The result is a furious album that paves the way for the music that Nick Cave and The Bad Seeds have been making since 1984. BURNIN' THE ICE has not been available for a long time. Now the record is being reissued on vinyl - and after many years, it closes a gap that drove Cave completists to despair. No wild god has fallen from the sky yet. Not even Nick Cave, perhaps the best music performer of the present day. Cave has worked hard for his power, his aura, his reputation. An important early milestone on this journey: BURNIN' THE ICE, released in 1983 together with Berlin band Die Haut. An album like a contemporary document. A ticket to the diffuse and adventurous Berlin of the early 80s, right in the middle of Nick Cave's hot period between The Birthday Party and The Bad Seeds. BURNIN' THE ICE captures the moment when Nick Cave and Die Haut first developed the music that would later make him seem larger than life. The sound on this record is existential and experimental. Interested in ecstasy and excess. Relentless and uncompromising. Nick Cave's work is actually considered to be well documented. BURNIN' THE ICE was the exception. That is about to change. The Hit Thing label, curated by Larry Mullins, part of the Bad Seeds' live lineup, has gained Cave's attention with releases such as Morphosa Harmonia and Mullins' own production Camissionia. Hit Thing is the perfect label to finally shed new light on this long blind spot in Cave's discography: BURNIN' THE ICE is receiving a long overdue LP reissue. With new vinyl mastering by Doug Henderson, responsible for the mastering of Swans, among others. An LP that was almost thought to be lost is available again.

Nick Cave is on tour in major markets:

Moonlight Haze - Beyond Vinyl

Symphonic power metal to the moon and back

"Beyond" is a perfect mixture of heavy, melodic and super catchy songs recorded in the old fashioned way with little to no edits - Moonlight Haze went 'organic' this time, with a little help from the acclaimed producer Sascha Paeth that was able to make some of the classic features of the band emerge and shine even more.

Moritz Weiß Klezmer Trio - Wind Vinyl

Contemporary Klezmer Music from Austria - Moritz Weiß Klezmer Trio feat. Simon Reithofer (guitar)

The wind carries many stories. Of the wide landscapes of South America. Of the pressing heat of West Africa. Of the intense smells of Cairo. Of the humanity of the Balkans. These are the stories we want to tell you. Whispering, speaking, exulting, dancing or remaining silent. In respectful connection with the music that has been giving us inspiration, motivation and direction for years. Klezmer!

Mulo Francel & Tim Collins - How Did We Get Here? (AAA direct recording without additional effects processing) Vinyl

Saxophone and Vibraphone chamber music duo in a pure AAA-recording without any effectprocessing.

Tim Collins from New York is a grand master of the vibraphone. The Washington Post describes him as a 'musician of fire'. Mulo Francel has received the ECHO and the German Jazz Award several times. Together they meet in a chamber music duo playing at the highest level: Swinging jazz, romantic ballads and adventurous improvisations.

Murray Head - Say It Ain't So Live Vinyl

Murray Head, famed for Say It Ain't So, is a versatile artist blending folk, rock, new wave. Known for his performances, he remains a beloved figure

Murray Head made music history with Say It Ain't So (1975), a haunting protest song turned slow-dance classic. But he's far more than a 1-hit wonder - an artist blending folk, rock, and 80s new wave, with a rich acting career and a deep love for France. Now settled in the Pyrenees, he still performs, cherishing the bond with his audience, a generosity reflected in his six gold and platinum records.

Pagan Altar - Never Quite Dead Vinyl

Another doom metal classic and the first album with Brendan Radigan on vocals, including songs that were composed by Terry Jones before his passing.

PAGAN ALTAR are the very definition of a CULT band. Formed in 1978, during the early days of the influential NWOBHM movement, they honed their craft onstage with an eerie, dramatic presentation. And yet, the PAGAN ALTAR sound tended more toward doom metal. They defy time and return with Never Quite Dead - a "new" record, but one bearing the imprint of the past, Terry Jones' unmistakable touch.

Paralyzed - Rumble & Roar Vinyl

A crushingly brilliant album blended with blues, stoner rock and the no-nonsense approach of 70's heavy rock!

This is these Germans' fourth album, the first for Ripple Music, and it is an amazing creation that shakes you to the bones. Their blend of blues, stoner, 70's classic rock as well as psychedelic rock but in a modern take is absolutely stunning! Frontman Michael Binder sounds like a mix of Jim Morrison and Mark Lanegan!

Paul Chain - Ash (35 Anniversary Edition) Vinyl

Fans of Cathedral's Forest of Equilibrium will recognize where a few of the riffs from that record actually came from.

Paul Chain has long been known for his improvisational eccentricities, aggressive nightmarish doom, and moody atmospheric meanderings. Since its release in 1988, the ASH EP has been considered a masterpiece of thrash and total doom. The re-release contains two bonus tracks: Moment of Rage and Undead and is packaged

Paul Chain - Park Of Reason (180 Grams Vinyl 2LP Gatefold, Heavy Weight Matte Cover) Vinyl

This album is unashamedly doom and proudly proclaims itself as such from the first negative chord.

The atmosphere is profoundly different from, say, "alkahest". quite fitting for italy's notoriously enigmatic and stylistically capricious doom maestro, really! the emphasis here is on torturous, droning, mammoth dirges, almost VITUS-esque in magnitude, but less anguished and desperate feeling.

Paul Chain Violet Theatre - Detaching From Satan [Splatter Vinyl] (40 Anniversary Edition) Vinyl

First EP after disbanding Death SS

His unique blend of archaic rock, psychedelic atmosphere, church choir ambiances and Sabbath influenced doom metal lay somewhere in between the realm of what is heard and what is otherwise experienced. The style that drives the spirit of this music is definitely identifiable to anyone who is immersed in the mysticism of Pentagram, Trouble, Sleep and others of the emerging scene of the early 80's .

It is a true celebration of one of the most mysterious characters in music.

There are perhaps few characters in the history of popular music who were as mysterious, as they were brazen than Aleck Ford, AKA Sonny Boy Williamson II. The true story of Sonny Boy Williamson II remains shrouded in mystery and uncertainty, and it seems this was Ford's intention, but to what ends, nobody can say.

Toilet Rats - Synth Redux Vol. 1 Vinyl

The next evolution from synth-punk act Toilet Rats. Pulsing drum machines, analog synths, and dark, driving energy.

Synth Redux Vol. 1 is the next evolution from Minneapolis synth-punk act Toilet Rats. Tommy Ratz (aka Thomas Rehbein) reimagines fan-favorites in a way that mirrors his live solo and duo sets--a stripped-down, synth-heavy version of Toilet Rats. Leaning into pulsing drum machines, classic analog synths, and the dark, driving energy of the early synth-pop and post-punk scenes.

Will Wood & The Tape Worms - Everything Is A Lot (2015 Mix) Vinyl

Will Wood's first LP displays a variety of genres, with a chaotic homemade anti-folk feel and an experimental edge. Released under the moniker "Will Wood and the Tapeworms" in 2015, "Everything is a Lot" whiplashes between genres and emotions rapidly, tying the irreverent to the sentimental with a thrashing experimental feel that reflects the chaos of one's early 20s. Guttural vocals, edgy lyrics, and honky-tonk piano make this cabaret-punk LP a fitting start to what would become Wood's ever-changing style.

Barbara Buchholz - Moonstruck CD

Barbara Buchholz's latest album 'moonstruck' is a milestone for contemporary theremin music.

Barbara Buchholz has managed to produce a unique album in which you sometimes even forget you are listening to a theremin. She paints an image of an ocean of sounds in which you can drift around forever. Barbara Buchholz has done an inestimable service to the theremin with the unambitious simplicity of her aesthetic.

Between - And The Waters Opened CD

"And The Waters Opened" presents the band Between under the strong influence of classical Indian music.

This album, re-released on Intuition in 2005, is often regarded as Between's most exotic and beautiful work. A huge droning masterpiece with oriental nuances that could be reminiscent of Popol Vuh, Fripp&Eno or Taj Mahal Travelers. A classic album from the early German 70s scene that deserves to be rediscovered...

Earnest 'Guitar' Roy - This Is Earnest 'Guitar' Roy CD

Earnest "Guitar" Roy and Jimbo Mathus worked together to create a sound that moves as if bound for a dance hall that never closes.

Clarksdale guitar legend Earnest "Guitar" Roy and Jimbo Mathus evenly split songwriting here. It's Roy's guitar that is slicing through the rhythm section of "Earnestly" like a blade or ripping through licks and across the boogie piano of "Going Out Swinging". Roy is a Delta blues guitar scion, but he learned jazz and rock too and how to write a solid hook too.

STEVEN HALPERN

Relax into Sleep

VOL. 1 • 432 HZ

Beautiful, relaxing music enhanced with
Delta Brainwave Entrainment

"Since 1975, more people have fallen asleep to the music of Steven Halpern than to any other composer, living or dead!"
— New Life magazine

Steven Halpern is the world's leading composer of music for relaxation, healing and sleep.

Each track guides the brain into the delta frequencies (1-3 Hz) associated with deep and restorative sleep, synchronizing the right and left hemispheres of the brain.

→ The music tuned to A=432 Hz is trending in many genres. Customers are seeking more albums with this tuning.

RELAX into SLEEP vol.1 (432 HZ) combines soothing arrangements of Halpern's iconic Rhodes electric piano and atmospheric keyboards.

The dreamy "pillow of sound" quiets the mind and relaxes the body, making this an ideal choice for bedtime use.

Most people fall asleep long before the album is over.

"Producing this album was surprisingly challenging.
I kept falling asleep in the recording studio!" —Steven Halpern

Emortualis - La Fine Di Tutte Le Cose CD

A concept album that explores resurrection and apocalypse, reaffirming their dark identity!

Emortualis, an Italian death band, has faced multiple breakups and rebirths since forming as Hellraiser in 1989. After early underground success, they disbanded in 1993, returning in 2014 with the Biological. A founder's death in 2017 led to another hiatus, but they revived in 2022 with a renewed lineup, merging old-school and modern death metal.

Evilizers - Lord Of The Lost Souls CD

Blinding heavy metal as the old school teaches!

Evilizers is an Italian heavy metal band formed in 2017, drawing inspiration from classic metal. Their debut, Center of the Grave, gained strong reception, leading to a reissue by Unholy Fire and a European tour. In 2021, despite the pandemic, they released Solar Quake, accompanied by several music videos. After resuming live shows in 2022, the band welcomed guitarist Emanuele De Bernardi in 2023.

Florian Ross Quintet - Home & Some Other Place CD

"Home & Some Other Places" is an unadulterated declaration of love to Jazz, by the Cologne-based pianist, Florian Ross.

"Home & Some Other Places" is an unadulterated declaration of love to Jazz, a music that was never really created, never at home in one place and which will never be perfected, and as such will never lose its cogency. Music in which Florian Ross finds security and by which he can feel challenged.

Henning Sieverts - Hidden C CD

This record is a small sensation, filled exclusively with enigmatic compositions by the acclaimed Munich jazz bassist.

Munich-based bass player and cellist Henning Sieverts, a sensitive sound painter, knows just how hard he has to play a note to achieve the desired color. He allows each tone enough time to blossom, never playing too many notes, and thereby forming his own playing impressively effectively. Whether playing cello or bass, his playful motives open up landscapes.

John Hollenbeck - Joys & Desires CD

An album by the New York jazz drummer and composer John Hollenbeck from 2005; with the Jazz Bigband Graz & Theo Bleckmann. "Joys & Desires" has little in common with ordinary big band jazz. Instead of offering dense and swaggering brass sounds, Hollenbeck sensitively plays with voices and moods, spheres & atmospheres. His pieces do not sound like wind music layered on thick, but like caringly brushed paintings of sound.

Mariano/Hübner²/Beirach - Beauty CD

Three generations, with completely different experiences, put together their 3D image of beauty to create a mosaic that is complex & homogeneous.

No matter whether the quartet is performance jazz standards or originals of its own composition, it produces a fundamental tone of cosmic harmony that causes us to forget the corset of profane genres and categories. Perhaps this music is jazz, because it is instrumental, and improvisation runs through all the pieces as an essential constant.

Marina Pacowski - New Jazz Standards, Volume 7: The Music Of Carl Saunders CD

When two great spirits meet, sparks fly. Such was the case with Marina Pacowski and the late-great Carl Saunders - the result is in this album!

CARL SAUNDERS: AUG 2, 1942-FEB 25, 2023

For several years Saunders had been searching for the right artist to feature for the vocal volume of his "New Jazz Standards" series. Upon meeting Marina, the collaboration was solidified. With Carl's untimely passing it was decided to move forward with this project (with LA's finest jazz musicians) - Marina Pacowski shines a light on Carl's catalog!

Murray Head, famed for Say It Ain't So, is a versatile artist blending folk, rock, new wave. Known for his performances, he remains a beloved figure

Murray Head made music history with Say It Ain't So (1975), a haunting protest song turned slow-dance classic. But he's far more than a 1-hit wonder - an artist blending folk, rock, and 80s new wave, with a rich acting career and a deep love for France. Now settled in the Pyrenees, he still performs, cherishing the bond with his audience, a generosity reflected in his six gold and platinum records.

BRANDON SANTINI WHICH WAY DO WE GO?

Illinois-based Brandon Santini radiates raw emotion and infectious energy to audiences worldwide. Born in the Piedmont region of North Carolina and raised on historic Beale Street in Memphis, Tennessee; Santini's profound connection to the blues & American roots music fuels his high-energy blend of traditional blues with a contemporary twist, earning him critical acclaim and awards along the way.

He has performed at festivals and venues throughout North America, South America, U.K., Europe, India, and Egypt. Santini's near twenty years of touring and combined passion for the genre shine through in every note, establishing him as a true torchbearer of the blues tradition in the 21st century. His soulful vocals and fire igniting harmonica style carry the torch of the blues into a new era, inspiring generations with his incredible talent, undeniable passion, and unwavering commitment to the music that he loves.

It's this passion that has afforded Santini the opportunity to perform on stage with the likes of Buddy Guy, Gary Clark, Jr., Beth Hart, Charlie Musselwhite, country music stars Randy Houser & Parmalee, as well as recording with 60's rock & roll legend Sam The Sham, in 2010.

Santini is a three time Billboard charting artist and has received seven Blues Music Award nominations.

Oregon - Live At Yoshi's CD

On 'Live at Yoshi's' Oregon gives a representative selection of the wide range of old and new songs of the band. The songs were recorded in August 2001.

On 'Live at Yoshi's' Oregon gives a representative selection of the wide range of old and new songs of the band. For example, the quartet has revived the Jim Pepper song 'Witchi-Tai-To', an Oregon concert hit of the 70s, and presents the new song 'Crocodile Romancing' in which reggae & funk mix with unmistakable Oregon sound.

Pagan Altar - Never Quite Dead CD

Another doom metal classic and the first album with Brendan Radigan on vocals, including songs that were composed by Terry Jones before his passing.

PAGAN ALTAR are the very definition of a CULT band. Formed in 1978, during the early days of the influential NWOBHM movement, they honed their craft onstage with an eerie, dramatic presentation. And yet, the PAGAN ALTAR sound tended more toward doom metal. They defy time and return with Never Quite Dead - a "new" record, but one bearing the imprint of the past, Terry Jones' unmistakable touch.

Paul Chain Violet Theatre - Detaching From Satan (40 Anniversary Edition) CD

First EP after disbanding Death SS

His unique blend of archaic rock, psychedelic atmosphere, church choir ambiences and Sabbath influenced doom metal lay somewhere in between the realm of what is heard and what is otherwise experienced. The style that drives the spirit of this music is definitely identifiable to anyone who is immersed in the mysticism of Pentagram, Trouble, Sleep and others of the emerging scene of the early 80's.

Tito Alcedo - Agüita Salá CD

An impressive portrait of a multitalented musician and a breathtaking masterpiece which mixes flamenco, Maghrebian music and jazz.

The tender & refined style of flamenco playing is underlaid with a slightly jazzy texture, reminiscent of some recordings by P. DeLucia or Al Di Meola. The guitarist Tito Alcedo is well known to lovers of international jazz. His first album 'Memorias', which he recorded with C. Dominguez, was one of the best world jazz albums.. His 2. album is a successful version of traditional Spanish music.

Will Wood's first LP displays a variety of genres, with a chaotic homemade anti-folk feel and an experimental edge.

Released under the moniker "Will Wood and the Tapeworms" in 2015, "Everything is a Lot" whiplashes between genres and emotions rapidly, tying the irreverent to the sentimental with a thrashing experimental feel that reflects the chaos of one's early 20s. Guttural vocals, edgy lyrics, and honky-tonk piano make this cabaret-punk LP a fitting start to what would become Wood's ever-changing style.

Body Odyssey

Mona is a champion bodybuilder whose existence is a spasmodic quest for perfection. Stars Julian Sands in one of his final performances.

Combining elements of Cronenberg-esque body horror with psychological drama, Body Odyssey is the genre-bending and surreal debut feature from award-winning director Grazia Tricarico. A contender to become Miss Body Universe, Mona (Jacqueline "Jay" Fuchs) is a 45-year-old champion bodybuilder whose entire existence is a spasmodic quest for perfection and beauty. Her daily schedule is carefully followed by her obsessive coach, Kurt (Julian Sands in one of his final performances), who rigorously monitors her every action like a demiurge: her sleep, her nutrition, her training, her doping, her psychology and even her sexual life. This unyielding regimen, however, becomes disrupted when a brief romantic encounter with a young man impacts both her discipline and her will.

A Better Place: Director's Cut

AN INDIE THRILLER FROM VIEW ASKEW PRODUCTIONS AND EXECUTIVE PRODUCERS KEVIN SMITH AND SCOTT MOSIER

From View Askew Productions (Clerks, Chasing Amy, Dogma) and Executive Producers Kevin Smith and Scott Mosier (Good Will Hunting) comes first-time director Vincent Pereira's "edgy teen thriller" (Filmmaker Magazine).

Barret Michaelson (Robert DiPatri) is having a bad first day at his new high school - he is badgered, ridiculed, and nearly beaten up. He finds an unlikely ally in local loner Ryan Walker (Eion Bailey, Almost Famous, Fight Club), an intelligent but misanthropic youth with a dark family past. A friendship quickly develops, but Barret begins to worry as Ryan's philosophical ranting turns increasingly violent. When Barret does the unthinkable and makes peace with the local teenagers Ryan so despises, Ryan loses all control and attempts to drag Barret down into his world of hatred and destruction and Barret must find a way to escape.

A harrowing depiction of teen violence and rage, A Better Place has been called "a bracing, disturbing film with an underlying humanity" (Stephen Gallagher, The Hamptons International Film Festival) and "Sharply written, with stellar performances... A Better Place deals frankly with the dark side of the American teenage experience" (Mitch Davis, Fantasia Film Festival).

BONUS MATERIALS

PRESS

"There's a good reason that A BETTER PLACE continues to get festival dates across America. It speaks a truth that the more expensive, mainstream U.S. ten films wouldn't touch with a 10-foot body bag."
—Mitch Davis, Fantasia Film Festival

"A more compelling study of suburban teen alienation than 'Welcome to the Dollhouse'."
—Michael Gingold, Fangoria Magazine

Robert Wyatt - Rock Bottom

Inspired by the music and life of Robert Wyatt, Rock Bottom is a story between a couple of artists immersed whirlwind of the 70s hippie culture.

Inspired by the music and life of Robert Wyatt - who co-founded the British psychedelic rock band Soft Machine - Rock Bottom is a self-destructive love story between Bob and Alif, a young couple of artists immersed in the creative whirlwind of the early 70s hippie culture. Drugs will turn a passionate summer into a nightmare in a journey through the themes of Wyatt's music: the euphoria and anguish of artistic creation, the unconscious fascination with drugs, the disenchantment with routine and physical and mental degradation.

Jakoman & Tetsu Blu-ray Disc

Jakoman and Tetsu is an early action masterpiece from Kinji Fukasaku (Battle Royale), adapted from a script written by the legendary Akira Kurosawa.

Ken Takakura (Black Rain) is Tetsu, the prodigal son who returns from the war to help out his father Kyubei with the family fishing business. His arrival coincides with that of a one-eyed miscreant named Jakoman, played by Tetsuro Tamba (You Only Live Twice), who bears a long-standing grudge against Kyubei and is intent on causing as much mayhem among the hordes of seasonal fishermen as possible.
