MVD GOES BACK TO SCHOOLLY!

Gangsta rap class is back in session! Old school is new again with the return of Schoolly D, and his new LP CUZ SCHOOLLY D IS CRAZY! The Principal in the creation of hip-hop, Schoolly D has taught many the schoolly book on how to craft rap into an uncompromising narrative. The record features a remake of global hit "P.S.K." with B-Real and Too Short. Pupils Chuck D and Ice T also guest. Accept no substitute! Schoolly D-the head of his class!

"Class" is not a term usually associated with Atlanta rockers Nashville Pussy with songs like, well you'll have to look at the track listing. But this band has been igniting audiences the world over for 25 years with relentless live shows, and their new live CD EATEN ALIVE documents a moveable feast of fiery rock and roll! Certainly Nashville Pussy learned the ropes from Johnny Thunders and the Heartbreakers, the spin-off-the-rails project of the New York Dolls. The L.A.M.F. - THE FOUND '77 MASTERS CD presents this iconic music in its intended form, sans the 'muddy mix' that thwarted the initial release. Vinyl sold out quick on RSD, now to be enjoyed by all. They keep finding them, we keep putting them out!

Two new shots from the James gang, namely Tommy James and Colin James. Tommy comes with a ROCK PARTY, a CD of dance versions of his top hits, while Colin James' CD OPEN ROAD is his 20th studio album of hot guitar blues. Crank up the phonograph, as we have hot wax this month from Peter Tosh, Moving Sidewalks, Paul Carrack, the Dickies, Love Tractor and Black Friday titles too!

Feast your eyes and ears with unparalleled clarity on the limited UHD version of THE HILLS HAVE EYES from Arrow Video. Get it quick, cause you won't see it for long! From the golden age of Kung Fu movies comes the Shaw Brothers' CHINESE BOXER, a film considered a major influence of Kill Bill and Bruce Lee's Fist of Fury. Ending this blurb session is a loving mosaic of "The Man Who Would Become King Geek," Kevin Smith with the documentary CLERK. Check it out!

Flamin' Groovies - Now Vinyl

The Flamin' Groovies played a major role in the evolution of power pop and are considered a forerunner of punk rock.

Flamin' Groovies "Now" isn't quite as cohesive as "Shake Some Action", the album that preceded it, but in many respects the band sounds at once tighter and more relaxed, with some time on the road firming up the rhythm section while giving the songs a bit more room to swing (which wasn't one of the strong suits of the British Invasion bands that provided their aural template)

Greetje Kauffeld & The Paul Kuhn Trio - My Shining Hour Vinyl

On "My Shining Hour" a splendid team has come together to pay tribute to Harold Arlen, the giant of American's jazz history.

The two protagonists look back to four decades of joint sessions and stage experiences, the doyen of German piano jazz Paul Kuhn and the brilliant and warmhearted voice of Greetje Kauffeld. Arlen's music is timeless. This fact is vividly demonstrated by two young guests, who Kauffeld and Kuhn's trio invited. Morello & Barth display an airy, carefree magic full of surprising intros and intermezzi.

Chet Baker is highly regarded as one of jazz's greatest trumpet players, and he recorded numerous albums over his 35-year recording career. Recorded in 1969, "Albert's House" features 11 instrumental compositions by Steve Allen, who produced the recording session to assist Baker in restarting his career after a horrific dental injury in '68. The sessions feature an all-star group of players with Paul Smith on keyboards, Barney Kessel on guitar, Jim Hughart on bass and Frank Capp (of Wrecking Crew fame) on drums. This marks the first time this record has been re-issued on vinyl.

BLACK VINYL, 12" LP

ROCKBEAT RECORDS / SKU: ROC-3447 / UPC: 089353344726 / SRP: $24.99

Dave Van Ronk was one of the most important figures to emerge from the 1960s American music folk revival in the NYC Greenwich Village music scene. He befriended Bob Dylan, Phil Ochs, Joni Mitchell and countless others. His legendary life was the basis for the main character in the Coen brothers' film "Inside Llewyn Davis." This show was recorded at Indiana University in Bloomington on October 20, 1964, during a concert sponsored by the I.U. Folksong Club. The performance is quite intimate and eclectic in song choices. This single LP compiles the best of the 11 tracks from the 2015 double CD.

John Scott

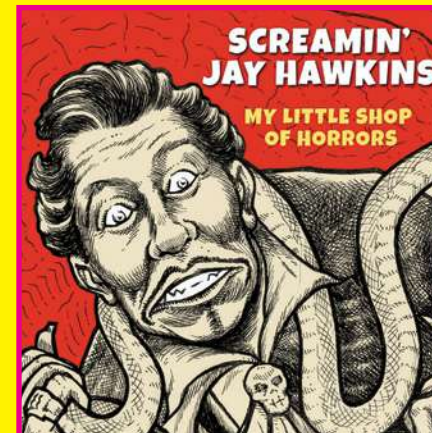

Inseminoid: Original Motion Picture Soundtrack

BLACK VINYL, 12" LP

NOTEFORNOTE / SKU: NFN1022LP / UPC: 850001545433 / SRP: $29.99

INSEMINOID was directed by British filmmaker Norman J. Warren, known primarily for a series of late '70s-'80s horror films and produced by Richard Gordon, known for a variety of films but specializing in horror movies such as THE HAUNTED STRANGLER, FIEND WITHOUT A FACE. Warren shot the film during May and June 1980, with a £1 million budget, half of which was financed by Hong Kong's Shaw Brothers (their first investment in a British film).

To compose the film's score, Warren brought in distinguished orchestral composer John Scott, who by 1981 had composed wide-ranging scores for some 86 films and television series. Scott's efforts in the genre have included films such as TROG, MARK OF THE DEVIL PART II, THE PEOPLE THAT TIME FORGOT, and the magnificent score for 1980's time-travel film, THE FINAL COUNTDOWN (along with GREYSTOKE, KING KONG LIVES, THE WICKER TREE amongst the 70 scores subsequent to INSEMINOID).

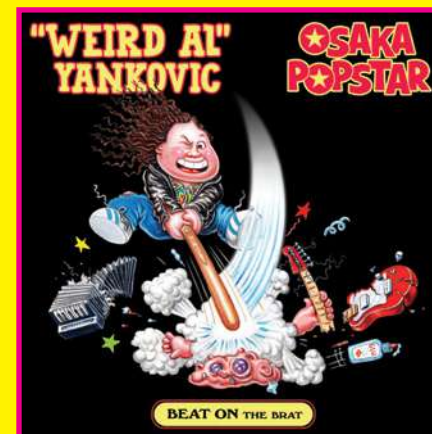

Screamin' Jay Hawkins

My Little Shop Of Horrors

BLACK VINYL, 12" LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-5011 / UPC: 089353501129 / SRP: $24.99

One of rock & roll's pioneers of shock rock, the indescribable Screamin' Jay Hawkins paved the way for music performance art and glam artists to come. His classic "I Put A Spell On You," included on this set, was banned from radio in 1956 for sexual overtones. His legendary performances had him dressed in gold and leopard costumes with props including rubber snakes, a smoking skull on a stick, and his signature coffin. Over his career he didn't record many studio albums. In 1972 he released "A Portrait Of A Man and His Woman." Long out-of-print, it was re-released on CD in 2001 as "My Little Shop Of Horrors," adding a recording of his signature hit, "I Put A Spell On You," which included cover versions of Conway Twitty's "It's Only Make Believe," Fats Domino's "Please Don't Leave Me," and Jesse Belvin's "Guess Who." This 12 track CD reissue makes its vinyl debut here.

BLACK VINYL, 12"

DEMENTED PUNK / SKU: DPMS004 / UPC: 859433007106 / SRP: $19.99

This special 12-inch split maxi-single features GRAMMY award winner "Weird Al" Yankovic teamed with NYC's Osaka Popstar paying homage to the founding fathers of punk rock, The Ramones! Hailed by Rolling Stone as "a blistering, accordion-tinged cover," "Beat on the Brat" features "Weird Al" on lead vocals and accordion, backed by Osaka Popstar (John Cafiero on backing vocals, Dean Risples on guitar, Sal Maida (Sparks) on bass, and Dennis Diken (The Smithereens) on drums). Originally appearing on the #1 charting punk-comedy crossover album "Dr. Demento Covered in Punk," the aforementioned studio version, (Produced by longtime Misfits and Ramones collaborator John Cafiero), is accompanied by two exclusive, previously unavailable LIVE bonus tracks ("Beat on the Brat" and "I Wanna Be Sedated") performed by "Weird Al" and his band on the "Ridiculously Self-Indulgent, Ill-Advised Vanity Tour". "Weird Al", a pop culture icon, who also happens to be the most requested artist in the history of the Dr. Demento Show, stated of the recording, "How could I not contribute to this project. I love punk music, and Dr. Demento changed my entire life in an extraordinary way. I selected "Beat on the Brat" by the Ramones, because I truly believe it's the most upbeat, danceable song about child abuse ever written." The flip side features an all-new studio version of the title track by Osaka Popstar (from the forthcoming deluxe edition of the critically acclaimed "Osaka Popstar and the American Legends of Punk" album), plus 3 additional Ramones covers by Osaka Popstar recorded LIVE in concert--with special guest appearances by members of the Misfits, Ramones & Black Flag--never before released on vinyl!

Peter Tosh - Live At My Father's Place Vinyl

Amazing live 1978 set recorded at My Fathers Place and simulcast by WLIR Tosh was a core original member of the Wailers.

Amazing live 1978 set recorded at My Fathers Place and simulcast on WLIR. Tosh, one of the core original members of the Wailers, was the first and only artist to be signed to the Rolling Stones label, other than the Stones themselves. Mikey Chung's work on guitar was truly exceptional that night as was Tosh's performance and you can sense the intimacy of playing in a small club in every note.

Moving Sidewalks Flash

Before there was ZZ Top, there was the Moving Sidewalks

The way musicians come together is something that can never be completely explained. It takes a lot of good luck and a healthy dose of fate to bring together all the elements. And even when those things are present, there comes a point when spontaneous combustion needs to happen as well. That is exactly what occurred when The Moving Sidewalks short but extremely electrifying life came into being

Amazing live 1978 set recorded at My Fathers Place and simulcast by WLIR Tosh was a core original member of the Wailers.

Amazing live 1978 set recorded at My Fathers Place (owned by Michael 'Eppy' Epstein in Roslyn, Long Island) and simulcast by radio station WLIR. Tosh, one of the core original members of the Wailers, was the first and only artist to be signed to the Rolling Stones label, other than the Stones themselves. Mikey Chung's work on guitar was truly exceptional that night as was Tosh's performance and you can sense the intimacy of playing in a small club in every note.

Cory Weeds - With Strings: What Is There To Say? CD

Expressive tenor saxophonist Cory Weeds navigates a carefully curated set of compositions arranged for 12 strings by award winning arranger Phi Dwyer

What a perfect time for Cory to give us this album, 'What is There To Say', his 18th record as a leader. It's his most ambitious project to date and, in my opinion, his most impressive. Ever since Charlie Parker recorded his iconic Bird with Strings album, the saxophone-with-strings format has become a sort of Mount Everest for those saxophonists brave enough to take on the challenge.

Crabber - Who Let The Ducks Out? CD

German quartet with a jangly/edgy guitar sound and peppy songs with catchy melodies / RIYL: Dot Dash, Sportique

This Hamburg quartet's second album kicks things up a notch, with an edgier (but just as jangly) guitar sound and a bit more variety among the songs themselves. Musically, they're still a dead ringer for DC's Dot Dash, but I also hear a strong similarity to Sportique, and maybe even a bit of Comet Gain at times.

FIRST RELEASED AS A MUCH SOUGHT-AFTER VINYL LP FOR RSD IN JULY 2021 - NOW ON CD!

FOUND IN AN ATTIC - a punk rock archaeological discovery: a copy master of the original 1977 Track Records tape, without 'mud'! This classic punk album, recorded in London by the New York band featuring two New York Dolls, was always controversial -and not just for the acronym. Upon release on Track Records in 1977, it was universally condemned in the music press for having a 'muddy mix' - later found to be a mastering fault.

When Track went bust the following year, manager Lee Black Childers managed to burgle the Track Records' Carnaby Street 3rd floor office and liberated the tapes that belonged to him and the band. He found everything - except for the master-tape.

Unexpectedly, in 2020 a chance meeting led Jungle to Daniel Secunda's archives. Danny was an old-school music biz pioneer who became a Track Records director - and the Heartbreakers 'L.A.M.F.' co-producer. In amongst his archives stored in his attic were numerous tape boxes, including two with no artist name, marked: 'Copy Master 12.7.77'. They turned out to be a crystal-clear 'L.A.M.F.', just as the band and producers intended it.

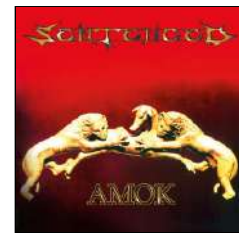

CD INCLUDES: a bonus CD - 'the L.A.M.F. demos + singles'; a 19-track collection of four demo sessions from 1976 -77 and three tracks from singles. They are packaged in a hardcover 32-page book, with notes by Simon Wright and a 2012 interview with Walter Lure (the last of the LAMF Heartbreakers who sadly passed away in 2020), together with rarely-seen photos.

NEW!

Inspire, uplift, and restore!

Pat Boone and Dan Waldron have been friends for more years than either cares to admit. Dan grew up in the Fabulous Fifties, and as a teenager remembers how the world paused whenever a Pat Boone song was played on local radio. Over the next 65 years he curated over 500 pieces of Pat Boone memorabilia that went on to become part of the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Tribute to Teenage Idols display.

In this book/CD collection of original poems, Dan Waldron has distilled Bible stories and principles into rhyme, complemented by daughter Kristi Paszkeicz's colorful illustrations and an inspiring selection of songs of faith and hope recorded by Pat Boone.

Master Musicians Of Jajouka Led By Bachir Attar

An experimental musical journey that takes us to the heart of the Moroccan Rif, places of ancestral and poetic rites with a "4000-year-old rock band"

Jajouka, a small village in the Rif mountains of northern Morocco. For over 2,000 years, magic fertility rites have been performed there, the rites of Pan, akin to the Roman Lupercalia, along with unique music played by a brother-hood of musicians called The Master Musicians of Jajouka. When Brion Gysin, inventor of the Dreamachine, discovered the village in the 50s, he described them as heirs of the great 12th-century Persian poet, Farid Al-Din Attar, author of the initiatory poem "The Conference of the Birds," a key work in the Sufi spiritual tradition.

An entire fringe group of artists, musicians and writers, in the wake of Paul Bowles and Brion Gysin, were drawn to Jajouka: Brian Jones of the Rolling Stones who recorded their first album; Ornette Coleman, founder of free jazz; William S. Burroughs; LSD guru Timothy Leary; and more recently musicians such as Genesis P-Orridge or Lee Ranaldo of Sonic Youth.

Eric and Marc Hurtado, founders of the group Etant Donnés, set out to film these Pan devotees, musicians who use their music for miraculous healing rituals held at the tomb of the village saint, Sidi Ahmed Sheikh.

The film is polarized by the attraction between Bou Jeloud (the Father of Skins / Pan) and Aāsha Kandisha, woman-demoness, goddess of the night and springs. He is gold, she is silver... A child runs like the wind, chased and whipped by Bou Jeloud's olive switches... Aāsha hears and stands vigil... She waits for Bou Jeloud near nocturnal rivers... She is dangerous, he is the Father of Fear.

A film of violent poetry that treads the line between documentary and fiction (but legends can be fiction ?), whose action is rooted in the trance of the ritual and its musical madness, to be reflected in a child's tear, a flame, an eternal women's chant addressed to men and the heavens.

The Fever

A portrait of the confrontation between indigenous ways of life and Western urbanization.

Manaus is an industrial city surrounded by the Amazon rainforest. Justino, a 45 years old member of the indigenous Desana people, works as a security guard at the cargo port. Since the death of his wife, his main company is his youngest daughter with whom he lives in a house on the outskirts of town. Nurse at a health clinic, Vanessa is accepted to study medicine in Brasilia and will be leaving soon. As the days go by, Justino is overcome by a strong fever. During the day, he fights to stay awake at work. During the night, a mysterious creature follows his footsteps. But soon the tedious routine of the harbor is broken by the arrival of a new guard. Meanwhile, his brother's visit makes Justino remember the life in the forest, from where he left twenty years ago. Between the oppression of the city and the distance of his native village in the forest, Justino can no longer endure an existence without place.

Hope

The relationship between artist-partners Tomas and Anja is put to the test after Anja gets a life-threatening diagnosis.

What happens with love when a woman in the middle of her life gets three months left to live? Anja (43) lives with Tomas (59) in a large family of biological children and stepchildren. For a number of years the two adults have grown independent of each other, with creative jobs in parallel worlds. When Anja gets a terminal cancer diagnosis, their modern life breaks down and exposes neglected love. Alone with her grief and her fears, Anja realizes that she needs Tomas' full help and support. It's their only chance. How else will their children find the strength once she is gone, if their parents are unable to weather the storm together? Anja and Tomas are thrown into a crash course in mutual trust, and eventually a joint struggle, to deal with this unexpected and premature death. By getting to know each other anew, they unconsciously become the principal characters in a love story where they finally learn to truly love each other after a long life together.

Motian In Motion

The career of iconic jazz drummer Paul Motian

Filmmaker Michael Patrick Kelly first met Paul Motian while shooting a short documentary about his neighborhood on Manhattan's Upper West Side called Duke Ellington Boulevard. Intrigued by Mr. Motian's illustrious but at that point somewhat unheralded musical career, Michael immediately suggested that they collaborate on a documentary about Mr. Motian. At that point Michael filmed two sets of Paul's "Electric Be Bop Band" at the world-famous Birdland jazz club in NYC.

The filming of the Birdland show began what has become a unique and unprecedented look into Paul's world from recording sessions and live gigs, to jogging with Paul in New York's Central Park. Motian In Motion unfolds via taxicab and subway rides allowing Michael to capture rare footage of Paul playing at the world renowned Village Vanguard and other venues. The film centers around cab rides and a master-class that Paul gave at The Julliard School. Allowing the film to illuminate the genius that was Paul Motian in 2010 and Paul was able to see the beginning of the editing process. Shortly thereafter Paul was diagnosed myelodysplastic syndrome, a blood and bone-marrow disorder. This tragic and terrible news did not slow Paul down and he continued to record and play live gigs up to 8 weeks before he passed in November of 2011.

After Paul's passing, Kelly found it hard to look at the material until mid 2015 when he began to review the rough-cut and all the material. Astounded by what he saw Michael reached out to Paul's long time collaborators Bill Frisell and Joe Lovano who were eager to be re-interviewed and to help in any way to bring the story of Paul Motian and his music to a wider audience.

The North American UHD/Blu-ray premier with all-new special features. Immediately after completing FLESH FOR FRANKENSTEIN, writer/director Paul Morrissey and star Udo Kier created what remains sumptuously depraved Euroshocker, cunning political allegory and "wickedly funny horror that obliterates the line between art and bad taste" (Pop Culture Beast): Desperate for virgin blood, Count Dracula - Kier in the performance Flavorwire calls "one of cinema's Top 5 best Draculas" - journeys to an Italian villa only to discover the family's three young daughters are also coveted by the estate's Marxist stud (Joe Dallesandro of Morrissey's FLESH, TRASH and HEAT). Stefania Casini (SUSPIRIA) and BICYCLE THIEVES director Vittorio De Sica co-star - with an unforgettable cameo by Roman Polanski - in "one of the most unique vampire films in history" (Oh! The Horror), now scanned uncut in 4K from the original negative for the first time ever.

Christopher Walken is a brutal mercenary who must fight the ultimate battle - against his own conscience - in this powerful action thriller with a "heart-thumping tempo" (The Hollywood Reporter). The Dogs of War is a spectacular adventure that brilliantly captures the glory - and horror - of war. Jamie Shannon is a cynical warrior-for-hire who feels truly alive only in the heat of battle, and now he's about to take on the most challenging assignment of his career: to invade a corrupt African dictatorship and shift control to the "puppet" of a powerful British corporation. To prepare, Shannon masterfully trains and equips a squad of deadly mercenaries with the latest and most destructive tactics and military hardware. But as their explosive assault begins, Shannon finds himself embroiled in an internal conflict of his own: Will this be his greatest triumph, or has he sold his soul along with his battle expertise?

The Chinese Boxer

See The Sweeping Hand of Death Strike Without Mercy!

From the golden age of Kung Fu movies, the legendary Shaw Brothers bring you an action-packed tale of revenge, mayhem and flying fists. When his martial arts school is viciously attacked by a rival gang of Japanese thugs, Lei Ming swears to bring them down with violent justice. Written, starring and directed by Jimmy Wang Yu, The Chinese Boxer (1970) is a fabulously fast-paced feature full of exquisite set-pieces and mind-blowing fight choreography. A huge influence on the likes of Tarantino's Kill Bill (2003) and Bruce Lee's Fist of Fury (1972) this entertainingly savage story of resilience, skill and a battle against the odds, is one of the first true modern classics of the genre, focussing as it does on physical prowess and athletic proficiency over the more mythical elements of the wuxia era. An undoubted cult classic, this is a must for any serious collector of extreme Asian cinema and martial arts madness.

Sparrows: 4K Restoration

A masterful 4K restoration by The Mary Pickford Foundation and Library of Congress, with a soaring new musical score!

With Sparrows, Mary Pickford once again gave her audience what they wanted by playing "the hoyden, the protector, the fighter." Mary stars as the oldest of a dozen children held hostage at what was then called a "baby farm" where children of unwed mothers or deserted wives were deposited and then sold illegally to adoptive parents or as slave labor.

By creating an empathetic melodrama that pulled on the heart strings, Pickford helped put a spotlight on this evil and increased public awareness and outrage. Directed by William Beaudine, with a stunning set created by Harry Oliver and filmed by three world class cinematographers, Charles Rosher, Karl Struss and Hal Mohr, Sparrows is a beautifully stylized epic, completed just as the industry neared the end of the silent era. Mary's acting is not only superior, but this is her least glamorous role ever; she had to be a very confident actress to play such a character.

The Library of Congress reconstructed Sparrows from the highest quality film elements, a 35MM nitrate print and a 35MM safety dupe negative. The Mary Pickford Foundation scanned the preservation elements in 4K and worked closely Roundabout Entertainment, Inc. to complete all digital work. The Foundation then commissioned an original orchestral score by Cameron and Taylor Graves which was produced and recorded at the Savannah Studios in Los Angeles.

PRESS

"Her most fully realized & timeless work of art... superb performances, gothic production design & cinematography all serve a suspenseful, emotionally compelling story anchored by a central performance by Pickford herself imbued with pathos, humor & charm."
