5-25-77 COMING IN MONTH 11!

The numbers jumble like every film in the franchise, but the 45th Anniversary of the original STAR WARS film was 5-25-22. Star Wars films comprise one tenth of the top 50 highest grossest films of all time. Now in November, MVD enters the Star War with the coming-of-age comedy DVD and Blu-ray 5-25-77! Starring John Francis Daley as a Sci-Fi movie obsessed teen who becomes the first to see the debut of Star Wars, forcing him to decide between life and fantasy. See if he can rise from the ashes of his mother's basement or sink into the Star Wars spiral!

TUBULAR BELLS, the Mike Oldfield classic that was the haunting theme music in THE EXORCIST also celebrates its 50th Anniversary with a DVD and Blu-ray, LIVE AT THE ROYAL FESTIVAL HALL. Filmed in London, this show celebrates the music with dance and acrobatics that'll make your head spin!!

The 1977 film AUDREY ROSE was released in the wake of The Exorcist, and this creepy film finds Audrey remembering things that never happened, stalked by a mysterious stranger who knows her every move. We do know that the ARROW VIDEO Blu-ray release is happening, seeping into your psyche on 11/8.

Arrow kicks it up several notches with the limited-edition box set SHAWSCOPE VOLUME 2. More Kung Fu cinema from the Shaw Brothers legendary Hong Kong studio. A spectacular set featuring 14 films over 10 discs, SHAWSCOPE VOLUME 2 (along with Volume 1) are Ground Zero for martial arts films and fans.

MVD hits all the right notes in music. Spotlight on legendary bassist RON CARTER, and the LP and CD FINDING THE RIGHT NOTES. This is a soundtrack to an upcoming PBS Ron Carter special and features rare and unreleased recordings. Never wrong in hitting the right notes are BILL BRUFORD, FLYING BURRITO BROTHERS, SWEET and TOMMY JAMES, all with releases this month.

Metal priestess WENDY O. WILLIAMS rises again in the WOW: LIVE FROM LONDON DVD. Fifty-five minutes of live Wendy-scorching vocals, backbend screams and outrageous stage antics (Sledgehammers! Explosions!) that set the template for speed metal. Lemmy and Wurzel of Motorhead join in on "Jailbait."

The Dead Milkmen

Metaphysical Graffiti

BLACK LP + SNOT-COLORED 7", LP + 7"

THE GIVING GROOVE / SKU: GG022 / UPC: 760137102816 / SRP: $49.99

The Giving Groove is proud to present the first vinyl reissue of The Dead Milkmen's classic album Metaphysical Graffiti, now remastered with bonus material. Fans have cherished hits such as "If You Love Somebody, Set Them on Fire" and "Methodist Coloring Book," but since the Enigma label's initial release in 1990, copies of the original pressing have become increasingly difficult to unearth. The remastered album will be offered as a limited-edition variant, pressed exclusively for Record Store Day Black Friday 2022. Housed in a gatefold jacket, bonus materials will include:

- A reproduction of the Methodist Coloring Book. Penned by Dean Clean's wife, Melissa, the coloring book was printed as a promotional item for the 1990 release and has never been made commercially available.
- Four of the album's songs, which the band loving refers to as "The Earls," have been pulled from the 12" and given their own 7" vinyl (pressed as snot-colored brown and green variants) with new artwork.
- An interior jacket designed with never-before-seen photos, text about the model house that is featured on the front cover, and Dandrew's recounting: "Everything I Needed to Know About Culture I Learned from Metaphysical Graffiti."
- The 12" sleeve featuring the original art, lyrics, and credits.
- A QR code to download the remastered album digitally as a compliment to the vinyl.

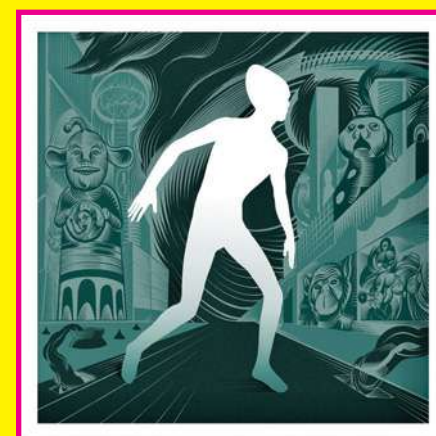

The Flying Burrito Brothers

Live From The Bottom Line NYC 1976

BLACK VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: LIB-5103 / UPC: 089353510329 / SRP: $24.99

Touring in support of their fifth studio album Airborne, The Flying Burrito Brothers performed at the legendary New York City venue, The Bottom Line on August 18, 1976. This 12-track set features many of their classic tracks alongside a few C&W standards. The group's line up consisted of Skip Battin and Gene Parsons (both ex-Byrds band members), along with Gib Guilbeau, Joel Scott Hill and original Burrito pedal steel legend, "Sneaky" Pete Kleinow. This live recording is previously unreleased. 1976 was a great year for re-iteration of the Flying Burrito Brothers having the opportunity to travel throughout the USA celebrating the 200th Anniversary of the founding of the United States. Though Gram Parsons wasn't around anymore, Chris Hillman embarked on a solo career, and Chris Ethridge had just departed this band, we had some great guys that just happened to be really familiar with the 'Burrito' mentality. It all came together quite spectacularly! To begin, Gib Guilbeau was my life-long pal and Cajun guy par excellence. Gene Parsons, formerly of the Byrds, was he drummer from hell who lifted the excitement to the limit (and picked a great banjo and string bender guitar. What can I say about Joel Scott Hill? A rebel? A reverent fanatic? A soulful and emotional artist? ALL of the above! Then there is Skip Battin, who just joined the band whom everyone loved and called friend who provided very original bass and vocal support. All these cuts are genuine items from a live performance at New York City's legendary "Bottom Line" club with all the warts AND magical moments. No fix ups and no apologies. Just real music and true enthusiasm. This was the way it was when he hit the road in 1976! - Sneaky Pete (2001)

Heartbreakers

The L.A.M.F. demo sessions

MAGENTA VINYL, LP

JUNGLE RECORDS / SKU: FREUDLP135 / UPC: 5013145213513 / SRP: $24.99

The Heartbreakers (Johnny Thunders, Walter Lure, Billy Rath & Jerry Nolan) with four studio demo sessions for 1976 and 1977, compiled onto one album for the first time. Two sessions were recorded in 1976 in New York, including four tracks in their early incarnation with Richard Hell, and later six tracks after Billy Rath had joined on bass. In London in 1977, they recorded one session just prior to signing with Track Records, and another after L.A.M.F. had been released, with The Clash's Terry Chimes on drums replacing the newly departed Jerry Nolan.

Pressed on transparent magenta vinyl, it comes with a 12" poster of the Roberta Bayley cover photo, an outtake from the L.A.M.F. cover session, and an inner bag with Walter Lure interviewed by Johnny Thunders' biographer Nina Antonia in 2005.

The album shows the development of the band building towards their classic 1977 'L.A.M.F.' album (recently reissued with a newly found original master), and further points to the direction they would have gone had they not split up.

Side A: Born Too Loose, Chinese Rocks, Let Go, Can't Keep My Eyes On You, I Love You, It's Not Enough, Do You Love Me, Take A Chance. Side B: Born To Lose, I Wanna Be Loved, Going Steady, Flight, Pirate Love, Give Her A Great Big Kiss, Too Much Junkie Business, London Boys (16 tracks)

Question Mark & The Mysterians

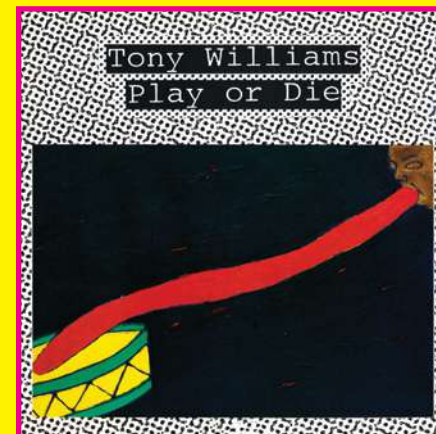

Cavestomp! Presents: Are You for Real?

PSYCHEDELIC SPLATTER PURPLE VINYL, LP

LIBERATION HALL / SKU: ROC-3456 / UPC: 089353345624 / SRP: $24.99

Although they only released two albums during their 1960s heyday, Michigan's Question Mark and the Mysterians were a significant influence upon garage rock and an inspiration for punk rock. Led by Chicano rocker Rudy Martinez who created an enigmatic mystique and image making him one of the first Mexican rockers.

Following the band's 1997 reunion, they went into the studio to re-record some of their old favorites; their million-seller, number one hit "96 Tears" appears here, along with a Spanish-language rendition: and their follow up hit "Can't Get Enough of You Baby" made famous by Smash Mouth. The 14-track set includes a 1966 demo of "Are You for Real?" along with a 1998 concert recording of "I Need Somebody." Also features covers of Suicide's "Cheree" and The Lyres' "Don't Give It Up Now." The set makes its vinyl debut on Psychedelic Splatter Purple vinyl!

Tony Williams

Play Or Die

BLACK VINYL, LP

MOOSICUS / SKU: M1214-1 / UPC: 885513121417 / SRP: $24.99

Tony Williams certainly counts among those unique drummers in jazz today, whose work has had a lasting influence on styles and still does. At the tender age of 16, saxophonist Jackie McLean brought him to his band in New York. He also made his first recording with McLean. Soon after, aged 17, Williams was already making a splash in the second Miles Davis Quintet.

Almost twenty years later, in 1980, on May 30 and 31, Tony Williams went to the Zuckerfabrik recording studio in Stuttgart/Germany, together with Tom Grant (keyboards, synthesizer, he joined this band on the recommendation of Jeff Lorber) and Patrick O'Hearn (bass, synthesizer). In the 1970s and early 1980s, this studio was an illustrious address for audio productions of all kinds. Larry Coryell, Wolfgang Dauner, Stephane Grappelli, Elvin Jones, Martin Kolbe + Ralf Illenberger, Volker Kriegel, Alphonse Mouzon, John Scofield and the United Jazz+Rock Ensemble recorded there, to name just a few.

This timeless album, released in an edition of only 500 copies, was hardly promoted at the time and may therefore have remained unknown to one or the other. All the better that now for the first time since the release of the Vinyl it is also available on CD (released 7/8/2022), and on this Record Store Day exclusive LP with a significantly improved sound.

Paquito d´Rivera & Arturo Sandoval

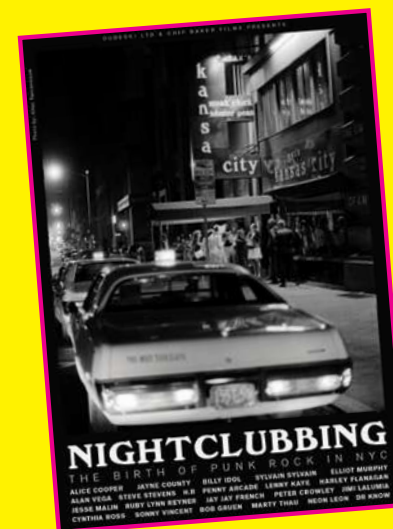

Reunion

BLACK VINYL, LP

MESSIDOR / SKU: 15805-2CD / UPC: 821891580521 / SRP: $24.99

Paquito D'Rivera (the highly regarded Cuban-American alto saxophonist and winner of 14 Grammy Awards) and Arturo Sandoval (the highly regarded Cuban-American jazz trumpeter and winner of 10 Grammy Awards) rejoined in Germany to record this incredibly special album originally released in 1991.

"Reunion was the first time that Paquito D'Rivera and trumpeter Arturo Sandoval recorded together since D'Rivera's defection in 1980; Sandoval had recently left Cuba himself. The co-leaders are joined by a superb band: pianist Danilo Perez, acoustic guitarist Fareed Haque, bassist David Finck, drummer Mark Walker, and Giovanni Hidalgo on conga. The group mostly performs originals plus a couple Chucho Valdes songs, "Body and Soul" (a showcase for Sandoval) and Dizzy Gillespie's "Tanga." Plenty of fireworks occur on this consistently heated Afro-Cuban jazz set and the co-leaders clearly inspire each other. When will they have their next reunion?" -Scott Yanow, AllMusic

David Helbock & Camille Bertault - Playground Vinyl

"Playground" is a kaleidoscope of sounds and emotions which invigorates, excites - and will always surprise.

"Playground" is a kaleidoscope of sounds and emotions which invigorates, excites - and will always surprise. The craft and technique may be breathtaking, but neither musician ever forgets the essential: "It's not about showing strength or virtuosity, but about expressing the truth of the moment," says Camille Bertault. And that is what she and David Helbock deliver with each and every track.

Hugh Cornwell - Moments Of Madness

The 10th solo album from ex-frontman of The Stranglers.

Widely regarded as the poet laureate of the punk era (from his early career fronting the Stranglers to his transition as a solo artist), Hugh Cornwell has built a substantial and singular body of impressive solo albums. His tenth solo opus, Moments of Madness, continues his illustrious output by experimenting with musical genres as his enviable reputation as a wordsmith resounds across this album's songs. Self-produced, and playing all of the instruments himself, Moments of Madness' ten incredible tracks finds Hugh flexing his musical muscles with a stripped down, offbeat, reverberating sixties vibe ringing from the seductive melodies and lyrically distinctive perceptions that are indelibly stamped with Hugh's trademark imagination. Vocally and lyrically a career-best, Hugh has never sounded so good on his tenth solo album. A high watermark and a modern-day masterpiece, Moments of Madness is being tipped as the most significant album of Hugh's career.

"Corollarian RObotic SYStem" is an ambitious concept-album based on a dark sci-fi dystopia especially written for that project. The French band DUSK OF DELUSION offers here its 3rd abum with the will to impose a strong identity : melodic and catchy aspects matching with clinic, raw and surgical ones.

In November 1987 Bill Bruford, double bass player Mick Hutton, Django Bates as well as Iain Ballamy performed at the "Schauburg" in Bremen (Germany). The famous German Radio & TV station Radio Bremen recorded the show.

It sounds simple, but EARTHWORKS only found its direction through serious live playing. No theoretical studio concoction here. Japan, Europe and the UK were all visited before the release of their first studio album. The Radio Bremen live-recordings are the best proof of it.

Triple Trouble: The Original Soundtrack Album

The soundtrack to the residents' long awaited new feature film 'Triple Trouble'

Seven collaged suites of brand new Residents music, film dialogue and one or two familiar themes. 'Triple Trouble' the movie will be appearing at film festivals and art house cinemas near you throughout 2022. "From priesthood to plumber: In the wake of his mother's death, an idealistic but emotionally isolated man replaces his belief in God with a faith in fungus..." The Residents present 'Triple Trouble', the soundtrack to their forthcoming fifty-years-in-the-making feature film of the same name. Featuring a blend of extended instrumental cues, film dialogue and spoken word extracts, and self-produced by The Residents and regular collaborator Eric Drew Feldman. Dive deep into the psyche of Randall "Junior" Rose, son of a recently deceased rock star and a former priest who has lost faith in the church. Convinced that a fungus is a threat to humanity, and accompanied by his only friend Cherry, an AI enhanced drone, Junior slowly gathers evidence to support his bizarre theory, spiralling out of control in the process.

Terra are one of the most intangible and enigmatic presences to emerge from within the UK underground music scene in recent times. The Cambridge based Atmospheric black metal trio find their creative self possession through a sonic delivery that is as primal as it is serene, as mesmerising as it can be suffocating.

Terrible Sickness - Flesh For The Insatiable CD

Blast-beat-ridden and original Old school Death Metal from Germany inspired by 90s US-Death Metal! This album is a monster.

Third album of the Lower Saxons from Terrible Sickness. 11 blast beat hymns inspired by 90s US death metal. Martin Matzak from the German old school death metal monsters TORCHURE contributed some guest vocals to several songs. The quintet shows that extreme death metal from Germany deserves its own seal of approval and that blast beats and catchy riffing are not mutually exclusive.

The Residents - So Long Sam (1945-2006)
One-off project by US cult band The Residents. A one man cabaret performance of popular hits of the 20th century.

The Residents are an American art collective best known for their over 60 studio albums that were recorded over a period of over forty years. They also created some outstanding multimedia works, mainly three CD ROM projects and ten DVDs. Working as an anonymous collective, their identities were kept secret until in 2017 Hardy Fox revealed himself as their primary composer. Hardy died in October 2018, but the group continue to record and perform. So Long Sam (1945-2006) was a one-off performance by The Residents, held at Berkeley Art Museum & Pacific Film Archive on June 4th 2010. It was a work-in-progress version of lead singer Randy Rose's one-man cabaret performance Sam's Enchanted Evening, which Rose performed solo between October 2011 and March 2012. So Long Sam featured re-interpretations of popular hits from the mid-20th century, and told the story of Sam (personified by Rose) and his troubles with romance, his unhealthy sex addiction, and his questions about his sexuality. During the performance Rose and The Residents were accompanied by a small string orchestra. An EP of the same name credited to The Residents, featuring four songs recorded during the June 4th show, was released later that month on the group's Robot Selling Device. The rest has never been made available. Klanggaleri are proud to finally present you the full concert, plus an extra full of demos recorded for the show.

Madchild & Obnoxious - Mobsters & Monsters

Madchild and Obnoxious take us back to machete sharp rhymes, lyrical venom, and spellbinding beats with guests Ouija Macc, Sick Jacken and Henry AZ.

Canadian rapper Madchild has teamed with up-and-coming rapper, Obnoxious. When they got together the intention was to create a classic hip-hop record. The duo recorded at the Suburban Noize compound and laid down some vicious bars that exemplified the raw, gritty, and violent wordplay they loved. Taking inspiration from the places where Obnoxious grew up, the tougher Cartel Controlled Tijuana border neighborhoods of San Diego, the duo have created a deadly world on "Mobsters & Monsters". The songs take listeners back to the machete sharp rhymes, lyrical venom, and spellbinding beats fans have been clamoring for. "Mobsters and Monsters" will feature guest appearances by Ouija Macc, Sick Jacken and Henry AZ. The first single, "Black Out" has an accompanying video directed by Zabb King. Madchild's solo career and accomplishments as one-third of hip-hop crew Swollen Members have made him a legend in the game. Madchild helped put hip-hop on the map in his home country of Canada during the early 2000s, winning multiple Juno Awards and Much Music video awards while creating a legacy with Swollen Members. In 2012 Madchild launched his solo career with the release of his now classic debut album 'Dopesick', which would peak at #3 spot on the Canadian Billboard Top 200, and is certified Gold. With a grind rarely seen in veteran emcees, Madchild has continued to turn out gems, such as his joint album with Evidence "The Darkest Hour", and recently recording the joint album "Killing the Neighbors" with Tom MacDonald. Since signing with Suburban Noize Records, San Diego based emcee Obnoxious has been on a steady incline. Heard on King Klick's "We Want It All" and after releasing a series of solo singles like "Killshot", "Superstitious", and "Starstruck", Obnoxious' wordplay and rhymes have become razor sharp, reflecting a chaotic musical juxtaposition of grimy street life mixed with true hip-hop lyricism that will make your neck snap.

Pistoleros - Pistoleros: Death, Drugs And Rock N'roll

Pistoleros is a remarkable story about strong Latino family bonds, music, faith, and redemption, tested by addiction and the music scene.

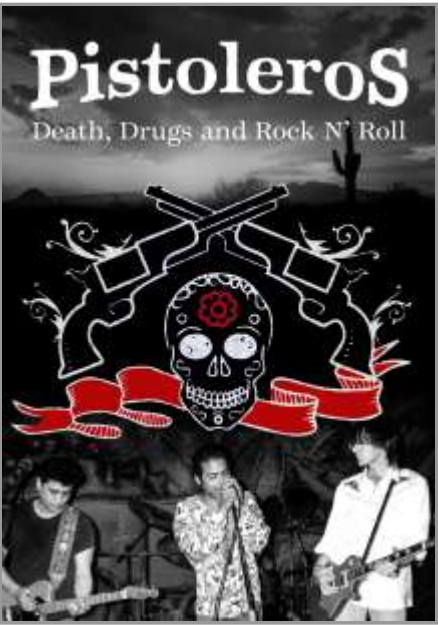

Pistoleros is the inspiring true story of brothers Mark and Lawrence Zubia. The two grew up in a large Mexican-American family in Arizona. Musicians from an early age in their father's Mariachi group, the brothers formed several bands at the forefront of the 1990's Tempe music scene made famous by Billboard charting artists such as Gin Blossoms, Jimmy Eat World and The Refreshments. The band was co-founded with ex Gin Blossoms leader Doug Hopkins and the brothers. After the early death of Hopkins, and despite landing a million dollar major label record deal, Mark and Lawrence's fortunes were repeatedly tested by alcoholism, suicide and opioid addiction. Pistoleros explores The Zubia Brothers' complex relationship through interviews with Lawrence and Mark, family members, doctors, colleagues, bandmates, their record label, journalists and through The Zubia's incredible song catalog. Pistoleros is a remarkable documentary personifying strong Latino family bonds, music, faith, and redemption; leading to the conclusion that where there's breath . . . there's hope.

The Nun And The Devil

In the convent of St. Archangel, there is a struggle for lust & love.

Religious orthodoxy, human desire and institutional corruption all rise to a mesmerizing boil in multi-genre Italian director Domenico Paoella's The Nun and the Devil/Le Monache di Sant'Arcangelo (1973), a cinematic fever dream about power plays within - and brought to bear outwardly upon - a 16th-century Neopolitan nunnery. Inspired by authentic period records and a novella by Stendhal, the film casts Anne Heywood as a senior sister scheming to become Mother Abbess, Ornella Muti as a defiant aristocrat sequestered into religious service, and policier star Luc Merenda as a righteous cleric investigating the convent's sexual and heretical improprieties. It stands out as one of the more noteworthy cinematic successors of Ken Russell's notorious The Devils (1971). Package design by Jim Titus.

Coming-of-age comedy about growing up, falling in love and the teenager who became the very first fan of the movie that changed everything, Star Wars

Daley's tremendously appealing and charming turn as the affable protagonist perpetuates the pleasantly easygoing vibe... Johnson delivers an impressively enthralling stretch detailing Pat's trip to Hollywood... a heartfelt drama.

—Real Film Reviews / realfilm.com

During the spring of 1977, sci-fi obsessed teenager Pat Johnson (John Francis Daley, Game Night, Freaks and Geeks) finds himself torn between making 8mm sequels to his favorite movies and pursuing the girl of his dreams, Linda (Emmi Chen, Normal). Desperate to help her son escape his likely future in Wadsworth, Illinois, (population 750), his mother Janet (Colleen Camp, Wayne's World) cold-calls the editor of 'American Cinematographer' magazine and Pat soon finds himself on "the ultimate trip" to Hollywood, becoming the very first outsider to see the film that would change him (and movies) forever... Star Wars. But when Pat returns to his hometown existence, he struggles to choose between chasing a seemingly impossible dream and accepting the comforting familiarity of home.

Produced by Gary Kurtz (Star Wars: A New Hope, American Graffiti), Fred Roos (The Godfather Part II, St. Vincent) and Leigh Jones (Here Alone) and written & directed by Patrick Read Johnson (Dragonheart, Angus), this heartfelt true story features an incredible supporting cast that includes Austin Pendleton (My Cousin Vinny) and Neil Flynn (Mean Girls) along with an original score by David E. Russo (Gotham, Sin City) with additional themes and songs by legendary rock musician Alan Parsons (The Alan Parsons Project).

'5-25-77' is his [Patrick Read Johnson's] loosely autobiographical film about the impact of 'Star Wars' on his own life as a teenage geek in love with the movies... Johnson has made one of the most loving odes to geekdom ever.

It is simply fantastic.

The Sweet - Ballroom Blitz: Live In Berlin 1976 Vinyl

Fusing bubblegum melodies with crunching, fuzzy guitars, the band looked like a heavy metal band, but were as tame as any pop group.

In some ways, the Sweet epitomized all the tacky hubris and garish silliness of the early '70s. Fusing bubblegum melodies with crunching, fuzzy guitars, the band looked like a heavy metal band, but were as tame as any pop group. It was a dichotomy that served them well, as they racked up a number of hits in both the U.K. and the U.S.
