WE'RE FONDA NOVEMBER!

We're MORE than fond of our November releases! Our excitement is in outer space over ARROW VIDEO's restored Jane Fonda sci-fi scorcher BARBARELLA! In the 41st century, watch Barbarella try to stop a madman from bringing evil back to the galaxy (did it ever leave?). Barbarella lands on a planet dripping with debauchery, and when trying to stop the evil Durand Durand (sound familiar?) engages in some sexy misadventures. Sexy packaging too, with Arrow limited edition contents of posters, postcards, a second disc of bonus features, an isolated score and deleted scenes that will leave you reeling. Satiate yourself with BARBARELLA!

All that hot action may leave you with TREMORS and AFTERSHOCKS, leading us to another Arrow limited edition 4K and bluray TREMORS 2: AFTERSHOCKS. The slimy subterranean (lovable?) Graboids are back, evolving into a super-sized version, intent on worming its way to mass destruction! Get this limited edition quick, before it slithers away!

The year 1934 had a different mindset. No Barbarellas there. Mothers bearing children out of wedlock were forced to wear an A, a scarlet letter. The protagonist is determined to rise above her situation in the restored bluray and DVD version of THE SCARLET LETTER. FUN CITY EDITIONS presents us with a DVD and bluray of T.R. BASKIN starring Candice Bergen. A naive woman exchanges small town Ohio for Big City Chicago and remains isolated.

To say we're fond of our music titles would be an understatement! We give thanks and praise to TUFF GONG RECORDS, with two ZIGGY MARLEY vinyl titles, LOVE IS MY RELIGION on orange wax, and MORE FAMILY TIME that features Ziggy's kids as well as Sheryl Crow, Busta Rhymes, Ben Harper, Tom Morello and more luminaries. LOVE IS MY RELIGION leads to MORE FAMILY TIME definitely!

Rock and Roll Soul with a CD and DVD live package from Grand Funk-man MARK FARNER, a 20-track CD compilation from THE BLASTERS, a CD and white vinyl LP from bluesman JIMMIE VAUGHAN, and a recently discovered CD from the DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET-LIVE FROM THE NORTHWEST 1959.

Bask in the afterglow of CONCEPT ALBUM, the new LP from the DWARVES! A sprawling genre defying trip through the underbelly of rock & roll, thrash, garage, pop, metal and experimental music-all in 37 minutes!

Action Pact - Drowning Out The Big Jets (BBC Radio Sessions) Vinyl

Action Pact's BBC John Peel Sessions 1982-83 issued for the first time. 'Mostly suprior to the records' claims sleevenote writer Mick Mercer

Three unreleased BBC sessions from Action Pact. They were a punk rock band from a village under the flightpath of London Airport, inspiring the title-track. Both (girl) singer George and drummer Joe were still schoolkids when John Peel played their debut EP and booked them for a Peel session. Their single 'Suicide Bag' went to the top of the UK punk charts; two more BBC sessions followed.

BLISTERING RIFF-DOOM IN THE FACE OF BLIND WORSHIP!

On a steady rise since their formation, Warsaw, Poland's DOPELORD offer towering, swinging, inescapably hook-filled stoner doom that exemplifies the monolithic, occult-tinged style at its absolute best, and will deeply satiate its endlessly obsessive fanbase.

Songs for Satan showcases DOPELORD's equal mastery of lumbering plod and massive tone while mining decades of oppression under Polish Catholicism for lyrical fuel.

Pointed in their defiance of the church's cultural dominance, their amplified heresy is uniquely triumphant, their fuzz-drenched apostasy glorious and contagiously singable.

Songs for Satan is an iconoclastic milestone for fans of Electric Wizard, Monolord and Windhand.

Prepare for DOPELORD to rumble the earth and shake our foundations!

Gosudar - Morbid Despotic Ritual Vinyl

Debut full length of supremely crafted death metal morbidity from Russia. Second pressing

With gut-churning vocals and seasick serpentine riffage, Gosudar wind their way through twisted, psychotic arrangements, while never sacrificing their oppressive heaviness for technicality, nor disregarding the sheer power of a razor-sharp hook. It's a cyclonic style of death metal chaos crucial for fans of Dead Congegration, Mortiferum, and Incantation

Ice T The Legend Of Ice T: Crime Stories

Triple LP set celebrating Hip-hop Pioneer ICE T, who is the embodiment of LA Hip-hop as well as an acclaimed actor

Ice T's Crime Stories Vol 1. Ice T is the original embodiment of LA Hip-Hop and a cultural icon who helped popularize gangster rap. Ice T's Crime Stories features some of the most powerful songs from his catalog, as well as some lesser-known and previously unreleased material. Through his music, his books, and his lecture tours of America's prisons, high schools, libraries, and colleges (including Harvard, Princeton, and Stanford), Ice T has become an influential spokesman for America's youth, regardless of color. His first break came when the producers of the film Breakin' asked him to rap in the movie. He went on to become rap music's preeminent gangster, writing songs like "Six in the Mornin" and "New Jack Hustler." Ice T formed Rhyme Syndicate Records in 1989 and released a string of groundbreaking West Coast rap records. His 1991 self-titled debut contained the controversial single "Cop Killer." Body Count was the most critically acclaimed act on the highly successful 1991 Lollapalooza tour.

Ice T currently stars in NBC's Law & Order: Special Victims Unit as Detective Odafin Tutuola. For three seasons in 2012/2013 Ice and his wife, Coco, starred in the E! reality show Ice Loves Coco. As an author, he has released four books, the first being The Ice Opinion (1994), following that there was Ice: A Memoir of Gangster Life and Redemption-from South Central to Hollywood (2011), a fictional tale entitled Kings of Vice (2013) and Split Decision with his longtime friend Spike (2022). In Jan 2012, Ice's directorial debut, "Something from Nothing: The Art of Rap," played at the Sundance Film Festival. In Sept 2012, he produced the documentary Iceberg Slim: Portrait of a Pimp, which premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival and was released theatrically in 2013. In 2017, he produced and starred in Who Shot Biggie & Tupac for FOX. A new Body Count album garnered a 2018 Grammy nomination. He also produced and hosted Ice Cold Murder for Oxygen.

Celestial Sanctuary Soul Diminished

CD SKU:

LP SKUs:

Celestial Sanctuary are a primal UK death metal band spreading their message of the destructive nature of humankind. Whilst wearing their old school Death Metal influences on their sleeve on their debut full length, they are by no means a throwback nostalgia act. They have quickly become the current torchbearers of The New Wave Of British Death Metal. Available on CD and 12" Vinyl LP in 2 color options.

Vehemence God Was Created

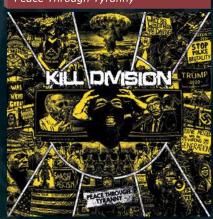

CD SKU:

LP SKUs: EDA171LP-CLOUD CD UPC: LP UPCs:

Originally released by Metal Blade in 2002, God Was Created gave new life to a US Death Metal scene that had, by that time, become stagnant and it would lay the foundation for a new generation of bands to come. No other band had been able to successfully bridge the gap between the more melodic European style and the more brutal U.S. sound up until that time. 20+ years later, this is the first time the album has ever been released on wax! Available on CD and 2x Gatefold 12" Vinyl LP in 2 color options.

Batsükh Dorj - Ögbelerim (Music For My Ancestors) CD

Batsükh Dorj is a master of the various overtone styles typical of the Tuvas. He sings to us about his nomadic culture through mountains

Batsükh Dorj was born in 1990 in Tsengel, the last village in western Mongolia. This remarkable musician is a master of the various overtone styles typical of the Tuvas. Rare and complete artist, because, luthier, he brings a major contribution to the tradition. He sings to us about his nomadic culture through mountains and travels, notably imitating the rhythms of horses and the flow of water.

Since their 1999 debut on WorldSerpent, D+DE have become something of heroes for fans of dark folk and dark wave sounds. Musically, the morbid mood remains predominant, but alternates with analog/electronic passages, creating a dark 80s soundtrack that also has a touch of PostPunk and reminiscence of the 80s DarkWave times thanks to the voices of Patrick Leagas (Sixth Comm / DIJ) and Hélène.

Dies Ater - Odium's Spring CD

German Black Metal Classic! Original 2007 Release. energetic-dynamic and intoxicatingly gloomy-melodic black metal. Including many German Black Metal! Dies Ater have to offer more than pure birching. Blessed with an organ similar to the one Satyricon's Satyr owns. Outstanding sound from Stage One Studio and they turn out to be of equal variable quality. Some works sound well-nigh danceable, Dies Ater count on atmosphere, not only on pure aggression and surprisingly they win penetrating power because of this approach.

THE DAVE BRUBECK QUARTET LIVE FROM THE NORTHWEST, 1959

DIGITAL/CD OUT NOVEMBER 3, 2023

VINYL AVAILABLE RECORD STORE DAY NOVEMBER 24, 2023

Latest Brubeck Editions release featuring stellar performances by the Classic Quartet, captured live by pioneering recording engineer, Wally Heider.

Recorded on April 4, 1959 in the historic Multnomah Hotel in Portland, Oregon and on April 5th in the auditorium at nearby Clark College, Live from the Northwest, 1959 (Brubeck Editions, 2023) features these four extraordinary musicians in top form, captured with exceptional sonic clarity by the groundbreaking audio engineer Wally Heider.

The rhythmic innovation and unprecedented success of Time Out, recorded only four months later, eclipsed the Quartet's signature mastery of spontaneous counterpoint that had fascinated their audience in the 50's; but on Live from the Northwest, 1959, it is gloriously evident. On this terrific-sounding live album, the Quartet plays together like some mythological 4-headed jazz marvel.

original transcription discs and other sources by famed audio engineer John H. Haley, Garland's last Palace performance on February 24, 1952 has never sounded as good as on this JSP Records release, and now it is also heard complete. The historic run, which had begun on October 16, 1951, was originally booked for four weeks but was extended to nineteen by popular demand. Life magazine called it "a miracle," Variety "a tour-de-force of no small caliber." Many in the public called it one of the greatest experiences of their lives. Today it is a privilege to hear the closing night of this unforgettable show that brought Garland to a new level of performing artistry.

Johannes Tonio Kreusch - Times Of Joy CD

All facets of the guitar, captured with world stars from all generations and genres - this album provides the listener with a time of pure joy

"Times of Joy", these are for Johannes Tonio Kreusch for many years his experiences as a guitarist and musician. A joy that - it is often forgotten - wanted to be hard-earned. Johannes Tonio Kreusch first studied philosophy, until the clarity and beauty of the sounds of Johann Sebastian Bach finally led him to the guitar and to classical guitar studies in Salzburg and New York.

Judy Garland - The Two-a-day Is Back In Town: Closing Night At The Palace CD

A legendary show, a legendary artist. This renowned show is presented here complete for the first time, expertly mastered form the original acetates.

Restored from a new transfer of original transcription discs and other sources by famed audio engineer John H. Haley, Garland's last Palace performance on February 24, 1952 has never sounded as good. And now it is also heard complete. The historic run was booked for four weeks but was extended to nineteen. Life magazine called it "a miracle," Variety "a tour-de-force of no small caliber."

Of The Muses - Senhal CD

OF THE MUSES plays Blackgaze in the vein of Alcest, Myrkur, Woods Of Desolation, Harakiri For The Sky

OF THE MUSES sing songs of grief and pain. Musically, the Blackgaze is the right place where her music lives, but elements from Doom, Black Metal, Post Metal and also Dreampop also play a quite prominent part in her unique sound. The result is an intimate, decadent and exclusive Art that will allow OF THE MUSES to enter your soul in a furiously deep and confessional way like no one has ever done.

Phil Alvin - Un 'Sung Stories' CD

The Blasters frontman's 1986 solo debut album is a soulful collection of blues, jazz, country and pop songs written and recorded between 1925-1953

Un "Sung Stories," is a collection of old blues, jazz, country, and pop songs originally written and recorded between 1925-1953. What makes this album a unique, thoroughly engaging document of old school americana isn't simply Phil's inherent soulfulness. He was also smart/lucky enough to employ two different backing bands, the talents of Sun Ra and the Arkestra and the Dirty Dozen Brass Band

That's Why We Stand

An album dedicated to those who serve and this great country

Just in time for Veterans Day - November 11

This album has been organized to raise money and awareness of the amazing work done by Guitars 4 Vets. To date they have given over 5000 guitars and 25000 lessons to veterans dealing with PTSDs with tremendous success. 100% of the monies received by New Folk will go directly to them for their work. All the artists on the CD donated their songs to the project to help make sure as much money as possible is raised. The album includes songs by Rockie Lynne, Geoff Levee, The Orphan Brigade, Nu-Blu. Mike Nolan, Beyond the Badlands, Joshua Ray Hudson, Todd Menton, Wayne Taylor, Lehto & Wright, The Charlie Daniels Band, Scotty Hasting, John Schneider, and Doyle Dykes.

The songs include original songs as well as traditional songs and themes include not only the more current conflicts but the Civil War and World War 1. There are instrumental tracks. bluegrass tracks, country and Americana tracks performed by unsigned as well as the signed artists listed. There is even a song from a graduate of the Guitars4Vets program; Scotty Hasting, who is now signed to a major label.

There is both a national radio and marketing plan in place for the title track, That's Why We Stand will be released Nov. 3, 2023. New Folk Records is also doing an online auction of donated guitars and signed memorabilia that will also raise money for the project.

Johnny Thunders & Patti Palladin's acclaimed 1988 covers album; 35th anniversay reissue. Songs the New York duo grew up with; excellently executed.

The classic Johnny & Patti album 'COPY CATS' from 1988, reissued on it's 35th anniversary. An acclaimed, affectionate collection of tunes that the expatriate New York pair grew up with, it features songs by The Shangri-La's, Dion, Elvis, The Seeds, The Shirelles, Roy Head and Screaming Jay Hawkins amongst others. Johnny is of course the late New York Doll & Heartbreaker notorious rock legend; his pal Patti is half of punk girl duo Snatch as well as being an Eno and Flying Lizards collaborator.

The positive reaction on its release was unanimous; DJs John Peel and Charlie Gillett both declared it to be "better than the originals"! With Patti in the producer's chair, the extended 1987 sessions enlisted well over 20 musicians including real brass and strings players to create a meticulously crafted homage to the originals. Whilst stamping the duos own personalities on the songs, this thorough and conscientious project is also in high contrast to Johnny's often-wayward live persona. The singles 'Crawfish', 'I Was Born To Cry' and 'She Wants To Mambo' were issued as highlights.

The assembled players included guitarist John Perry (Only Ones), bassist Robbie A. Gordon (Gil Scott Heron band), keyboardist Bob Andrews (The Rumour, Brinsley Schwartz), guest backing vocals by Chrissie Hynde and Jayne County, violinist Alex Balanescu, brass section Jim Dvorak, Nick Evans & John 'Irish' Earle, percussionist Pedro Ortiz, drummer Steve Washington, Heartbreakers Billy Rath and Jerry Nolan, plus numerous others.

Twelve Tracks: - Can't Seem To Make You Mine, Baby It's You, She Wants To Mambo, Treat Her Right, Uptown To Harlem, Crawfish, Alligator Wine, Two Time Loser, Love Is Strange, I Was Born To Cry, He Cried, Let Me Entertain You (Pts 1 & 2).

PRESS

"It drips quality and class. Pop diamonds from 1960's NYC in cinematic soundscapes somewhere between Spector and Scorcese. Still stunning."

Heartbreakers - The L.A.M.F. Demo Sessions

Four Heartbreakers demo sessions 1976-77, on one album for the first time. Ltd magenta vinyl. Walter Lure 2005 interview

MAGENTA VINYL. The Heartbreakers (Johnny Thunders, Walter Lure, Billy Rath & Jerry Nolan) with four studio demo sessions for 1976 and 1977, compiled onto one album for the first time. Two sessions were recorded in 1976 in New York, including four tracks in their early incarnation with Richard Hell, and later six tracks after Billy Rath had joined on bass. In London in 1977, they recorded one session just prior to signing with Track Records, and another after L.A.M.F. had been released, with The Clash's Terry Chimes on drums replacing the newly departed Jerry Nolan.

Pressed on transparent magenta vinyl, it comes with a 12" poster of the Roberta Bayley cover photo, an outtake from the L.A.M.F. cover session, and an inner bag with Walter Lure interviewed by Johnny Thunders' biographer Nina Antonia in 2005. The album shows the development of the band building towards their classic 1977 'L.A.M.F.' album (recently reissued with a newly found original master), and further points to the direction they would have gone had they not split up.

Side One: Born Too Loose, Chinese Rocks, Let Go, Can't Keep My Eyes On You, I Love You, It's Not Enough, Do You Love Me, Take A Chance. Side Two: Born To Lose, I Wanna Be Loved, Going Steady, Flight, Pirate Love, Give Her A Great Big Kiss, Too Much Junkie Business, London Boys (16 tracks)

Zanias - Chrysalis CD

Chrysalis is genre-defying, ethereal electronic art-pop as dark and evocative as it is ethereal and uplifting.

Zanias is Australian born, Berlin-based artist Alison Lewis. She creates her own brand of ethereal pop: atmospheric, multi-layered & as alien as it is authentically, vulnerably human. Her voice shifts & morphs into ghostly, alien forms blending with evocative melodies & heavy rhythmic components. Chrysalis is genre-defying electronic art-pop as dark and evocative as it is ethereal and uplifting.

John Cale & Band - Live At Rockpalast DVD/CD

Up to this day, this performance remains one of the most spectacular concerts in the history of the Rockpalast-Series.

Up to this day, this performance remains one of the most spectacular concerts in the history of the Rockpalast-Series. In sharp contrast to this performance you will find a second concert at Zeche Bochum from 1983. Here you will find the more introverted JOHN CALE: a man and his piano performing his all-time-classics, including an extremely expressive version of "Fear Is A Man's Best Friend".

The Residents - Sam's Enchanted Evening

A one-man theatrical performance by The Residents re-interpreting popular songs from the 20th century

The Residents are an American art collective best known for their over 60 studio albums that were recorded over a period of over forty years. They also created some outstanding multimedia works, mainly three CD ROM projects and ten DVDs. Working as an anonymous collective, their identitites were kept secret until in 2017 Hardy Fox revealed himself as their primary composer. Hardy died in October 2018, but the group continue to record and perform. Sam's Enchanted Evening is a theatrical performance by Randy Rose, lead singer of The Residents. It was performed between October 2011 and March 2012 in Berkeley, California and New York City. Rose's only companion on stage was long-time Residents collaborator Joshua Raoul Brody on piano. A one-man cabaret performance consisting largely of re-interpreted renditions of popular songs from the mid-to-late 20th century, interpreted by Rose in the guise of "Sam the Stranger", it was the first Residents-related performance piece to be credited to an individual member of the group.

A successful but world-weary art dealer finds out that her usual masseur has sent a substitute for her regular weekly massage at her home.

Mimi Rogers (Austin Powers, Bosch) and Bryan Brown (Cocktail, F/X) sizzle in this highly provocative drama from acclaimed director Nicolas Roeg (Walkabout, The Man Who Fell to Earth). Nina (Rogers), a successful but world-weary art dealer, is surprised to find that her regular masseur has sent a substitute, Fitch (Brown), to continue her weekly massage sessions. Fitchs therapeutic caresses, while charged with sexual tension, gain emotional significance as the opinionated pair first clash, and then bond while relaying thoughtful meditations on intimacy and human relationships. Free to discuss her life, hopes and failures, Nina is liberated from her confused world, indulging in a strange, erotic mysticism with her handy muse. Brilliantly helmed by British director Roeg, Full Body Massage is an exhilarating and sophisticated portrait of sensual love.

A malevolent being known as The Jester terrorizes the inhabitants of a small town on Halloween night, including two estranged sisters who must come together to find a way to defeat this evil entity.

A DREAD ORIGINAL

JESTER

NOW YOU SEE ME. NOW YOU DIE.

T. R. BASKIN

Candice Bergen is T.R. Baskin, a naïve young woman with a droll sense of humor, who ventures from small town Ohio to the bright lights of Chicago in search of an interesting career, intellectual stimulation, true love and happiness... and instead discovers that the urban existence is as unfulfilling and lonely as the one she fled. A tender encounter with one man (James Caan) ends with an unfortunate misunderstanding. However, it leads to a therapeutic Sunday afternoon with a sincere traveling salesman (Peter Boyle), who provides hope and encouragement, as he confides in her about his own insecurities and disappointments. Herbert Ross directs this wryly humorous drama from a perceptive script by Peter Hyams.

Unrest

A sublimely peculiar and playful meditation on anarchy, watchmaking and labor in 1870s Switzerland.

In 1877, in a watch factory in a valley in north-western Switzerland, Josephine produces balance spindles, tiny parts that ensure the agitation movement ("unrueh") of the mechanical watches. She soon grows uneasy with the organization of work and possession in the village and its factory and joins the anarchist worker movement of the local watchmakers. There she meets Piotr Kropotkin, a moony Russian traveler. The two of them meet at a time when new technologies such as time measurement, photography, and the telegraph are transforming the social order and anarchist discourse is addressing emerging nationalism. During a walk in the woods, Josephine and Piotr ask themselves whether time, money, and the government are not all but fiction.

In a near dystopian future, Japan's government launches PLAN 75, a program encouraging the elderly to terminate their own lives to relieve its rapidly aging population's social and economic burdens. In Chie Hayakawa's remarkable and sensitive feature film debut, the lives of three ordinary citizens intersect in this new reality as they confront the crushing callousness of a world ready to dispose of those no longer deemed valuable. Legendary Japanese actress Chieko Baishō stars as a 78-year-old Michi who considers signing up for the program after losing her meager but fulfilling hotel job and the means to live independently. A young Plan 75 salesman Himoru (Hayato Isomura), initially believes in the program's benefits and serves as the human face of the program. And Maria (Stephanie Arianne), a Filipino care worker living overseas, reluctantly accepts a position with PLAN 75 to send money home to her ailing daughter. On the surface, the plan and its hawkers exude a kindness that serves as the film's chilling vision of bureaucratic indifference and our increasing loss of interconnectedness. However, Hayakawa's view is far from grim, as these characters soon learn to fully reckon with their own lives and what it truly means to live.

Lion-Girl

Survivors of a meteor shower defend themselves against each other and monsters who are hunting and killing them to get their life force.

Go Nagai's "LION-GIRL" is a new superhero for a new era. In the year 20XX, humanity has almost come to an end. A tsunami of meteors bombarded the entire planet. There were a very small number of survivors. They kill each other for more food, more power, causing 30 years of bloody civil war. The meteorites contain a mysterious ray inside the rock. If a human being is exposed to this ray, the cells in the body mutate and destroy themselves, causing certain death. But in very rare cases, some humans survive the exposure. Those who get exposed to the space ray and survive undergo a metamorphosis into horrific "meteorite beasts". People call them 'ANOROC'. ANOROC hunt and kill human beings for their lifeforce. ANOROC are the true enemy of humankind.

Now, the Earth has the last defender of humanity against ANOROC; her name is 'LION-GIRL', a superhero Yakuza fighter and a true pursuer of Ninkyo.

There Goes The Neighborhood

New York City is undergoing a period of "hyper-gentrification" unlike anywhere else, but courageous communities and activists are fighting back.

Gentrification is not a new phenomenon. In fact, New Yorkers have been talking about gentrification ever since the term was first coined in the 1960s. But over the decades, as more and more wealthy real estate developers and giant corporations have sought to reconstruct urban landscapes for economic gain, what was once a process of gradual change has turned into a nightmare of radical transformation and displacement. New York City is currently undergoing a period of "hyper-gentrification" unlike anywhere else in the world. There Goes the Neighborhood presents a portrait of the communities and activists who are courageously fighting back against the powers of greed and corruption in order to preserve the diversity and culture of their city.

Marleen Gorris Trilogy (1982 / 1984 / 1990)

Cult Epics presents the Marleen Gorris Trilogy, three controversial and thought-provoking films, from the director of the Oscar-winning film Antonio's Line.

A Question of Silence Three women, strangers with no premeditated thoughts, kill a male shopkeeper in the middle of the day. A female psychiatrist is assigned to the case to find out why.

Broken Mirrors Situated in an Amsterdam brothel, two whores rebel against their lot in life. Meanwhile one of their customers, a serial killer, kidnaps a housewife.

The Last Island Five men and two women, who survive an airplane crash, discover that they may be the only survivors of a world disaster. The question arises: whether the human race can survive, or does man kind destroy itself.

A SPECTACLE OF HUMAN PASSION AS TIMELESS AS SIN ITSELF!

Colleen Moore stars as Hester Prynne in this 1934 version of Nathaniel Hawthorne's classic tale of sin and redemption! Bearing a child out of wedlock was punishable in 17th century Massachusetts by being forced to wear a scarlet letter 'A,' but unwed mother Hester, who was born to a noble family, is determined to rise above her situation. Hardie Albright, Alan Hale, and William Farnum also star for director Robert G. Vignola, while the recreation of old Puritan Boston was by art director Frank Dexter (Baby Face Morgan, Northwest Trail).

Unrest DVD

A sublimely peculiar and playful meditation on anarchy, watchmaking and labor in 1870s Switzerland.

New technologies are transforming a 19th-century watchmaking town in Switzerland. Josephine, a young factory worker, produces the unrest wheel, swinging in the heart of the mechanical watch. Exposed to new ways of organizing money, time, and labor, she gets involved with the local movement of the anarchist watchmakers, where she meets Russian traveler Pyotr Kropotkin.

Messiah Of Evil (Special Edition)

A woman arrives in a sleepy town to discover the town is under the influence of a strange cult that weeps tears of blood and hunger for human flesh

A woman arrives in a sleepy seaside town after receiving unsettling letters from her father, only to discover the town is under the influence of a strange cult that weeps tears of blood and hunger for human flesh. From Willard Huyck and Gloria Katz, the writers of American Grafitti, Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom and Howard the Duck, this dreamy and atmospheric film transposes the post-Night of the Living Dead zombie movie to a surreal small-town American setting, presented through gorgeous Techniscope visuals that echo the stylish European horror of Mario Bava and Hammer. A true cult film, Messiah of Evil, which was also released as Dead People, has overcome distribution challenges to enjoy growing awareness and high acclaim after decades of word-of-mouth enthusiasm among horror cinema fans and critics around the world.
