WE'RE THANKSKILLING IT THIS MONTH!

MVD harvests the finest in independent film and music, and this month we're THANKSKILLING it! Set the table for Collector's Edition bluray and standard DVD of THANKSKILLING and THANKSKILLING 3, a cornucopia of camp featuring a killer turkey who is intent on making you HIS Thanksgiving meal! Stuffed with a parade of extras and bonus features, the retooled THANKSKILLING is a feast of 'gory kills and twisted laughs!' Gobble Gobble Motherfker!

BILLY IDOL SHOULD BE DEAD. Couldn't have thought of a catchier tagline, but that's the title of a new DVD and bluray documentary of Billy Idol, from Peroxide Punk to solo star, with all the success and near-death experiences in between. BILLY IDOL SHOULD BE DEAD in title alone, as Billy is on the road again, killing it for his legions of adoring Idol worshipers. Billy Idol-from MTV to MVD!

Killer movie titles abound with Asian-related gang warfare and revenge seeking vigilantes. Arrow Video slays again with SHAWSCOPE PRESENTS: STREET GANGS OF HONG KONG limited edition 4-disc bluray collection of the Shaw Brothers 1970s thrillers. THE BLADE SPARES NONE/THE HURRICANE bluray 2-disc limited edition is a double feature from Golden Harvest films. Conspiracy, treachery, betrayal, corruption. A full plate! 88 Films, a leader in Asian Action-Adventure, this month unspools THE OWL VS BUMBO, starring Michelle Yeoh and Sammo Hung, true legends of the fight-film genre.

Not to be out-vigilanteed, Chuck Norris returns to Vietnam to rescue POWs in the 4K of MISSING IN ACTION where you'll find lots of bonus features and a reversable collectible poster! Going behind enemy lines are THE DIRTY DOZEN, hardened criminals promised a pardon if they destroy a Nazi camp. Charles Bronson, Lee Marvin, Jim Brown and Donald Sutherland do the dirty work.

Toy Robot is a film company generating a lot of Action-Adventure, and this month's titles include Chow Yun-Fat and Mark Wahlberg in THE CORRUPTOR, where a turf war between Asian gangs and the police blur the fine line between cop and criminal. ABOVE THE LAW finds an ex-CIA Chicago cop, seeking to bring to justice a wrongly released band of drug smugglers.

Drugs can have you BOUNCING OFF THE WALLS, and that's the titles of the LP and deluxe CD box from DINOSAUR JR. Culled from the band's 1991 'Green Mind' tour, the LP features highlights, while the 4-CD box includes five shows that cemented Dinosaur Jr. as the Grunge monsters that they are!

MVD-Killing it for 40 Years!

Henri TEXIER - An Indian's Life Vinyl

Texier's septet closes his 'Indian' trilogy with a poetic road-movie: tribal echoes, guest voice Himiko Paganotti, tributes to Mingus and Carla Bley.

An Indian's Life closes the trilogy Henri Texier began in 1993 (An Indian's Week) and continued in 2016 (Sky Dancers). Leading a new septet with Sébastien Texier, Sylvain Rifflet, Manu Codjia, Carlo Nardozza, Gautier Garrigue and singer Himiko Paganotti, the double bassist reshapes his Native American theme into a female road-movie, paying tribute to Mingus, Carla Bley and Steve Swallow.

Henri TEXIER - Heteroklite Lockdown Vinyl

Born from lockdown duo sessions with his son Sébastien, Henri Texier's trio album strips jazz to its bones: standards, old themes, new songs.

Heteroklite Lockdown grew out of pandemic-era sessions between Henri Texier and his son Sébastien, joined by drummer Gautier Garrigue to complete a trio. Recorded live without an audience at Le Triton, it mixes standards ('Round Midnight, Besame Mucho), resurrected Texier themes and new compositions from each musician, built on the twin values the bassist calls precision and simplicity.

Hi Sheriffs of Blue - Live at the Mudd Club and A7 12" Vinyl

The progenitors of punk blues: Hi Sheriffs of Blue create the missing link where punk and blues collide.

The Hi Sheriffs of Blue occupy a significant yet largely overlooked place in the genealogy of punk blues. Their 1980 7" Ain't But Sweet 16, is among the earliest recorded expressions of what would later be recognized as punk blues. By the time of these live recordings, the band had become a loose cannon of raw energy, pushing their mutated blues to the absolute brink of collapse.

Dinosaur Jr. Bouncing Off The Walls: The Green Mind Tour 1991

Highlights from the band's 1991 'Green Mind' tour, in celebration of the 35th anniversary of the album.

1991's 'Green Mind' took Dinosaur Jr into the major label stratosphere and to the fabled "next level" so beloved of music industry executives. With that trip into the mainstream came extensive touring, new countries and bigger shows, including visits to Europe and throughout the USA. 'Bouncing Off The Walls' brings together highlights from four recordings that chart a year which cemented Dinosaur Jr's reputation as grunge broke and the American underground spread across the globe. Featuring tracks recorded in Boston, Santa Cruz, Mezzago (Italy) and London (UK), all meticulously restored, edited and remastered for maximum listening pleasure, this set perfectly captures one of the loudest and most powerful bands of the period at their live best. The latest in our ongoing campaign of releases exploring the band's Sire Records period (1991-1997), 'Bouncing Off The Walls' will appeal to fans, completists and anybody fortunate enough to catch Dinosaur Jr as they toured the classic 'Green Mind' album.

Marianne Nowottny - Jesus-in-a-jiffy/ Sequin Serenade 7" Vinyl

A fractured Nativity story meets dark cabaret from a 16-year-old outsider icon.

Released on white vinyl in 1999, Jesus-in-a-Jiffy is an experimental 7" by 16-year-old outsider artist Marianne Nowottny. The title track flips the Nativity story into a fractured, bell-laden avant-garde fable. Flip-side "Sequin Serenade" counters with dark cabaret vocals and wandering piano clusters. It remains a striking artifact of late-'90s art-rock and fearless juvenile modernism.

No Retreat - Rise Of The Underdog (Quarter Century Warfare Edition) Vinyl

The 25th Anniversary edition of No Retreat's "Rise Of The Underdog" on translucent green vinyl. Remixed and remastered by Eric Klinger (Pro-Pain).

Recorded in a basement by Eric Klinger (Pro-Pain) back in 1999, "Rise Of The Underdog" quickly became a staple in every East Coast hardcore kid's CD collection. No Retreat mixed aggressive down-tuned riffs, intense breakdowns and death metal-style vocals that helped build what is now considered, "Beatdown Hardcore." This new style changed the landscape of Hardcore music as we know it today.

Russian Girlfriends - Never Better 12" Vinyl

Russian Girlfriends are BACK with a new 6-song EP

Russian Girlfriends weren't supposed to make another record. Three years after calling it quits, a run of reunion shows unexpectedly turned into Never Better: six new songs that pick up the band's mix of hardcore fury, huge melodies and rock & roll swagger without trying to recreate the past. It's faster, sharper and more assured- a second act that sounds like it needed to happen.

The Blasters - Mandatory: The Best Of The Blasters

Fifteen of the best tracks of the Blasters' four 1980s studio albums collected on vinyl. A perfect overview of the band's brief recording career

The 15-song set includes the legendary Americana band's best-known tracks from their four '80s studio albums alongside deep cuts such as "Kathleen," an outtake from the band's last studio album, "Hard Line." Also includes the track "One Bad Stud" originally featured on the soundtrack to director Walter Hill's 1984 cult film "Streets of Fire." From the outset of their career, with songs like "Marie Marie" to "Border Radio," it was clear Grammy® winner Dave Alvin would be a songwriter to be reckoned with, and brother Phil brought an unparalleled knowledge of American roots music, giving the band a rock-solid musical foundation. The track list for "Mandatory" was chosen with the full cooperation of the band. Originally released on CD in 2023, it now makes its vinyl debut as the very first Blasters hits LP. Grammy-nominated music journalist Chris Morris has contributed new liner notes, calling the collection "a definitive sampling of the Blasters' recorded work from their 1980-1985 heyday."

Lester Young - Lester Leaps In: Live At Birdland 1951-1952 (180 Gram)

Unreleased performances of the influential tenor saxophonist recorded at Birdland in 1951 and 1952 for the "Jumpin With Symphony Sid" radio show

The never-before-released set captures one of the most influential tenor saxophonists of all time, live at NYC's iconic jazz venue Birdland. It features eight tracks recorded on four different dates in 1951 and '52 for ABC Radio's famed "Jumpin with Symphony Sid." Host Sid Torin introduces several of the tracks, one of which, "Neenah," includes a shoutout to audience member Billie Holiday who originated the bebop legend's nickname "Prez" (for "President of the Tenor Sax"). The backing bands feature pianists John Lewis, Cyril Haynes, and Earl Knight; percussionists "Papa" Jo Jones and Lee Abrams; bassist Gene Ramey; and trumpeter Jesse Drakes. The album will be pressed on 180-gram vinyl and features rare photos with extensive liner notes from jazz historian Scott Yanow. Here's an excerpt of the performance notes: In 1951, the 41-year old saxophonist was still very much in his prime, leading a supportive and swinging quartet. The first three numbers on this album are from Jan. 20, 1951 and have Young joined by pianist John Lewis who was a year away from forming the Modern Jazz Quartet, bassist Gene Ramey, and drummer Jo Jones. Five weeks later on Feb. 24, 1951, Lester Young was back at Birdland, this time with pianist Cyril Haynes along with Ramey and Jones. Young is in the spotlight on a medium-slow version "These Foolish Things Remind Me Of You." & Pres' simple up-tempo riff blues "Neenah" Side two moves ahead to May 19, 1951 with trumpeter Jesse Drakes making the group a quintet. Young and Drakes make for an appealing frontline on spirited versions of "Indiana" and "How High The Moon" from the May 19 broadcast. The final selection from a May 2, 1952 broadcast brings back Young, Drakes and Ramey but with pianist Earl Knight and drummer Lee Abrams. The quintet concludes this compilation with a romping version of "Deed I Do" that makes one look forward to future releases in this valuable series.

Charles Sullivan - Genesis (Black Vinyl)

Charles Sullivan deserves full honors for this lyrical debut album

Genesis, the 1974 debut from trumpeter and composer Charles Sullivan, stands as one of the finest and most criminally overlooked recordings of the post-bop era. A luminous and deeply felt work of acoustic jazz, it reveals Sullivan as a composer of uncommon lyricism and emotional depth--an artist whose technique and tone rival his better-known contemporaries, yet whose quiet mastery has long flown under the radar.

Entirely arranged, composed, and produced by Sullivan himself, Genesis balances freedom and structure, intellect and soul. From the haunting beauty of "Evening Song" to the spiritual yearning of "Field Holler" and the climactic title track, the album alternates between moments of introspection and fiery ensemble interplay. The performances shimmer with the electricity of collaboration, featuring an all-star lineup that includes Sonny Fortune, Stanley Cowell, Billy Hart, Alex Blake, Onaje Allen Gumbs, Dee Dee Bridgewater, Anthony Jackson, Lawrence Killian, Alphonse Mouzon, and L. Sharon Freeman.

Recorded at Sound Ideas in New York City in June 1974, the album captures the creative pulse of an era when spiritual and avant-garde jazz coexisted with remarkable intensity. Its interplay of brass, piano, and rhythm evokes both the emotive power of Miles Davis's acoustic work and the exploratory sophistication of Woody Shaw, yet Sullivan's melodic voice remains unmistakably his own.

Critics have long recognized the album's brilliance. DownBeat Magazine awarded it a rare five-star review, declaring, "Charles Sullivan deserves full honors for this lyrical debut album... a satisfying aural experience, an acoustic set electrified with feeling, alternating blue and brightly burning." Rolling Stone's Jazz Record Guide hailed it as "an outstanding example of small-group arranging and composition." AllMusic praised it as "one of the very best post-bop efforts of its decade," while jazz historian Scott Yanow described it as "an exhilarating set of 1970s post-bop jazz, arguably the finest recording of Sullivan's career."

Genesis remains a revelation--an essential rediscovery for any listener drawn to the spiritual and expressive heights of 1970s jazz, where form, freedom, and feeling converge in one of the genre's most beautifully complete statements.

Troum - Emphasys Vinyl

TROUM have remained devoted to a singular artistic intent: to create transformative listening experiences, dense with atmosphere.
For more than three decades, Germany's drone ambient pioneers TROUM have explored the liminal zones between sound and sensation, shaping immersive sonic environments that dissolve boundaries between ritual, memory, and matter. Emerging from the industrial-ambient underground of the 1990s .

Watcher - Mistress of Our Time Vinyl

Triumphant old school heavy metal! The Swedes' 2nd album is deeply rooted in their country's early & mid 80s metal scene.
Sweden's WATCHER was formed in 2023 and quickly released an EP and a debut album. Truer than true, these two recordings presented WATCHER as skillful disciples of first-wave Swedish heavy metal. Thankfully, the ingredients on Album 2 are the same - first-wave-Sweden legends like Heavy Load, Gotham City, Axewitch, Torch along with the equally cult likes of Ostrogoth, Grim Reaper, and Sortilège.

Wir Schweigen Nicht / We Will Not Be Silent: A Benefit for White Rose / Weiße Rose

Exclusive new tracks from artists with 6.5+ million Spotify views; 100% of profits go to support anti-Nazi programs by White Rose Foundation in Munich.

A compilation of exclusive new tracks from an exciting array of artists, with 100% of the profits from the album going directly to the White Rose Foundation in Munich. The foundation not only commemorates the brave sacrifices of its original members who resisted the Nazis in World War 2, but promotes civic courage, individual responsibility, and robust education about the dangers of fascism and bigotry in present times. Acts featured on the compilation include legendary director/composer John Carpenter, Modern English, EMF, Stabbing Westward, Nouvelle Vague, The Dead Milkmen, YORK, Tocadisco, opera star Daniel Gutmann, and others. Participating bands have a total of 6.5+ million montly Spotify listeners. Each act has selected a song to cover from the German New Wave genre (Neue Deutsche Welle, or NDW) for this album, from original artists such as D.A.F., Malaria!, Falco, Xmal Deutschland, Grauzone, Ideal, and others. The original White Rose (Weiße Rose) was a German group composed primarily of school children who started a non-violent resistance movement against the Nazis. This was extremely dangerous and in the end, almost all of them were caught and executed. They remain beloved figures in German society today, particularly two siblings named Hans and Sophie Scholl; one member, Alexander Schmorell, was made a Saint in the Russian Orthodox Church. Several movies were made about the original group, including Sophie Scholl: The Final Days and The White Rose. Ruprecht von Kaufmann has created a new work of art to serve as the cover for the album. Contributing to the liner notes are Maximilian Probst (grandson of a founding White Rose member), Alexei Uminsky (peace activist and priest who conducted the official funeral rites for Mikhail Gorbachev), Dr. Maren Gottschalk (Nelson Mandela biographer and WW2 historian), and Anselm Grün (spiritual author of 300+ titles, with 15+ million sold worldwide).

Fractalyst - Ypnos CD

The album avoids fixation or glorification of suffering. Instead, it unfolds as a gradual immersion, guiding the listener through internal landscapes.

"Ypnos", the Greek word for sleep, is reinterpreted here as something far more introspective and unsettling. Within the context of this release, it evokes a state of emotional isolation and spiritual withdrawal, a descent shaped by trauma. Rather than presenting trauma in a literal or narrative form, Fractalyst translates it into a kind of aural poetry, abstract yet deeply resonant.

Henri Texier - An Indian's Life CD

Texier's septet closes his 'Indian' trilogy with a poetic road-movie: tribal echoes, guest voice Himiko Paganotti, tributes to Mingus and Carla Bley.

An Indian's Life closes the trilogy Henri Texier began in 1993 (An Indian's Week) and continued in 2016 (Sky Dancers). Leading a new septet with Sébastien Texier, Sylvain Riffet, Manu Codjia, Carlo Nardozza, Gautier Garrigue and singer Himiko Paganotti, the double bassist reshapes his Native American theme into a female road-movie, paying tribute to Mingus, Carla Bley and Steve Swallow.

Henri TEXIER - Heteroklite Lockdown CD

Born from lockdown duo sessions with his son Sébastien, Henri Texier's trio album strips jazz to its bones: standards, old themes, new songs.

Heteroklite Lockdown grew out of pandemic-era sessions between Henri Texier and his son Sébastien, joined by drummer Gautier Garrigue to complete a trio. Recorded live without an audience at Le Triton, it mixes standards ('Round Midnight, Besame Mucho), resurrected Texier themes and new compositions from each musician, built on the twin values the bassist calls precision and simplicity.

Hypnotised presents Progressive Trance CD

First there was techno. Then came trance. Then - as an almost immediate phasedown of the latter ... progressive house.

So, what in the world's Progressive Trance then!? Well, for the main, it's trance in its purest, dawn-of-the-genre form. Effectively a handy tag that anchored the music to everything that came - stylistically at least - before 1997. It was trance music for those that were not yet ready to surrender to the sugary rush of the gated synth.

Jacob Chung - That Secret Place CD

Saxophonist Jacob Chung's 4th album as leader with Tyler Henderson on piano, Caleb Tobocman on bass and Willie Bowman on drums.

Saxophonist Jacob Chung's 4th album as leader, That Secret Place, reveals a sonic tableau of the highest of highs and the lowest of lows of his adventures living in NYC. It cuts straight to a sinewy realness that suggests a direction for his sound as he enters artistic maturity: to rub harder where it stings. With Tyler Henderson on piano, Caleb Tobocman on bass and Willie Bowman on drums.

László Borbély - László Sári: Piano Works CD

The works by László Sári go well beyond average in testing the performer's mental-physical endurance, in their complexity and density.

József Sári was a leading figure of 20th and 21st century Hungarian music. Together with pianist László Borbély, they worked for several years on a selection of his solo piano pieces. The album includes works that reinterpret early music and Baroque genres from a 20th- and 21st-century perspective, as well as works that draw on folk music and repetitive musical influences.

Pantaleimon - Tall Trees CD

Ethereal psych-folk from a key collaborator of Current 93.

Tall Trees captures Pantaleimon (Andria Degens) at a peak of her craft, delivering four hypnotic psych-folk compositions. Featuring Appalachian dulcimer, delicate acoustics, and ethereal vocals alongside collaborators Michael Tanner and Nick Palmer, this Abaton release strips back production for pure acoustic resonance; a vital document from a key collaborator of Current 93 and Nurse With Wound.

Pound of Flesh - Shape of a Heart CD

Chicago's Pound of Flesh return with a caustic new album of piss, vinegar and dancefloor chaos.

Former MINISTRY / Revolting Cocks keyboard whizz Darrell James lets his Pound Of Flesh project out of its cage once more. Sounding better than ever, PoF find themselves lurking in the dark once more, their tongue firmly in cheek. Dark, depraved and decadent, 'Shape Of A Heart' will leave you scarred, scared and sweat

SCRATCH IS ALIVE

Lee “Scratch” Perry & Steve Marshall

ABOUT THE ARTIST

This is a new album by Lee “Scratch” Perry (born Rainford Hugh Perry), the legendary Jamaican record producer, artist, and singer, noted for his innovative studio techniques and production style, and English producer/musician Steve Marshall. In the 1960s and 70s, “Scratch” was a pioneer of ska, reggae, and dub music. With his early adoption of remixing and his use of studio effects to create new instrumental and vocal versions of existing tracks, he blazed the trail not only for reggae, but for all genres of modern music. From his Black Ark Studio in Kingston, Jamaica he worked with and produced a wide variety of artists, including Bob Marley and the Wailers, Junior Murvin, Susan Cadogan, The Congos, and Max Romeo. Later he moved, first to London, and then to Switzerland where he reinvented himself as a performer and visual artist. In his later years he continued to produce innovative music. Collaborations include The Beastie Boys, Keith Richards, The Clash, George Clinton, The Orb, and Adrian Sherwood.

ABOUT THE ALBUM

Scratch Is Alive is the fifth in a series of records he made with Steve Marshall AKA John Saxon. The album contains previously unreleased vocal and dub tracks recorded in Switzerland and London and continues the legacy of one of the world’s truly original artists. The style is experimental, and brings together elements of reggae, dub, R&B, soul, blues, and electronic music. The other Lee Perry/Steve Marshall records are The End Of An American Dream, Scratch Came Scratch Saw Scratch Conquered, Revelation, and Scratch’d, an EP of collaborations with Keith Richards.

Shell - Shell is Swell CD

Warped synth-pop, teenage nihilism. The ultimate late-'90s underground art-pop artifact.

Shell Is Swell is the debut album from Shell, a duo of NJ teens Marianne Nowottny and Donna Bailey. The 15-track release fuses warped synth-pop, goth, and punk with avant-garde classical piano. Pairing Bailey's deconstructed keys with Nowottny's theatrical vocals and atonal synths, this DIY artifact delivers a raw, chaotic, and haunting funhouse version of pop music.

T.I.M. - Tall, Infinite, Microscopic CD

They create springs from their own musical roots and interests, unfolding on the wings of imagination yet always in the spirit of simplicity.

The T.I.M. trio consists of two Norwegian avant-garde musicians, Karoline Wallace and Inger Hannisdal, and French keyboardist Sébastien Palis. Their music, oscillating between light and shadow, acoustic and electronic sounds, is based on imaginary folk songs, improvisations, and childlike, playful lyrics, drawing inspiration from both the musical heritage of Scandinavia and the Middle East.

Watcher - Mistress of Our Time CD

Triumphant old school heavy metal! The Swedes' 2nd album is deeply rooted in their country's early & mid 80s metal scene.

Sweden's WATCHER was formed in 2023 and quickly released an EP and a debut album. Truer than true, these two recordings presented WATCHER as skillful disciples of first-wave Swedish heavy metal. Thankfully, the ingredients on Album 2 are the same - first-wave-Sweden legends like Heavy Load, Gotham City, Axewitch, Torch along with the equally cult likes of Ostrogoth, Grim Reaper, and Sortilège.

The Fuzztones Vs. The World

This film chronicles the highs and lows of an extraordinary band, The Fuzztones

This film chronicles the highs and lows of an extraordinary band, The Fuzztones, whose career spans over 40 years of Garage Rock.

Formed in New York City in the early 80s, their redefining brand of Psychedelic Punk spawned an exciting new scene and its unstoppable and charismatic leader, Rudi Protrudi still carries on his unique vision passionately across the world today.

The documentary follows the band as they tour Spain in 2024 whilst telling the full story of Protrudi and The Fuzztones since their inception in 1980 until today. After more than 17 line-ups and countless records, The Fuzztones don't stop and surely won't stop. Just as Rudi proclaims in the film:"I plan on dying on stage", and judging by his demeanor and his character, that's probably how it'll happen. The film contains over 40 classic tunes.

Directed by Danny Garcia (The Rise and Fall of The Clash, Looking for Johnny, Sad Vacation, STIV, Rolling Stone: Life and Death of Brian Jones, Nightclubbing), The Fuzztones Vs The World features over 30 interviewees including the band's founder and leader Rudi Protrudi, Lana Loveland, Deb O'Nair, Jayne County, Lenny Kaye, Jake Cavaliere, Mad Mike Czekaj, Elan Portnoy, Michael Jay and many other members and ex members of the legendary band.

SALES POINTS

- Features over 40 classic tunes, delivering an immersive visual and audio experience for fans of garage rock, psychedelic punk, and raw rock 'n' roll.
- Serves as a key historical and cultural record of the late 1970s and 1980s downtown New York City underground music movement.
- Premiered at The Coney Island Film Festival
- Directed by cult music documentary veteran Danny Garcia (The Rise and Fall of The Clash, Looking for Johnny, Sad Vacation, STIV, Nightclubbing, Rolling Stone: Life and Death of Brian Jones).

PRESS

“If you're a fan of the American punk-tinged psychedelic garage revival rock band the Fuzztones, then your cup will floweth over with lysergic-spiked joy with this deep dive into the band's 50-odd year history.”
— The Guardian

“The fact that The Fuzztones are still active today shows that he continues to be unstoppable, a true 'Lifer' of Rock & Roll. ”
— EV Grieve

THE INVISIBLE HALF

インビジブル ハーフ

Coming to DVD on November 10!

The Invisible Half, the debut feature from writer-director Masaki Nishiyama, is a thoughtfully crafted J-horror film that blends tech-driven terror with social commentary.

Elena, a half-Japanese/half-British teenager, discovers she's being watched by a monster that can only be seen through her phone and heard through her earphones, creating a clever blend of modern isolation and supernatural dread.

The DVD includes both an English language version and a native Japanese language version.

The Japan Times says The Invisible Half is “Masaki Nishiyama's polished and mind-bending debut feature, which has played widely on the festival circuit.”

“MASTERFULLY MAINTAINS TENSION FROM START TO FINISH.”
—LA NACIÓN

Operating in Santiago under the thumb of an organized crime network, brothers Manuel and Oscar have spent the past fifteen years in a dangerous but lucrative business: helping fugitives vanish by faking their deaths. Using a clandestine chemical process, they make their clients appear deceased, bury them alive, and then resurrect them hours later across the Argentina-Chile border.

A striking reinvention of the Latin American crime thriller, Santiago Esteves's THE REBORN transforms the remote mountains of Argentina's Mendoza Province into the landscape of a modern western, blending a startlingly original tale of manufactured death and resurrection with a Greek tragedy about brotherhood, masculinity, and family legacies.

He's the award-winning writer/producer/director who's been called "truly brilliant" (Heaven of Horror), "a filmmaker who dares to walk where few have gone" (Independent Observer) and "one of the best working in the genre today" (Voices from the Balcony). Now for the first time ever, Severin Films brings together a quartet of classics by "The Indonesian Master of Horror" (Bloody Disgusting) Joko Anwar: Anwar's global breakthrough SATAN'S SLAVES redefined Indonesian cinema and remains a modern horror milestone. Far more than just a sequel, SATAN'S SLAVES 2: COMMUNION is an over-the-top and wickedly grisly haunted house masterpiece. IMPETIGORE, his love letter to the genre, shattered taboos and shocked international audiences like never before. And with the neo-noir hit DEAD TIME, Anwar merges supernatural folklore with contemporary terrors to craft a visually stunning nightmare. All four films are presented from masters approved by Anwar, with over 10 combined hours of Special Features produced exclusively for this collection.

Billy Idol - Billy Idol Should Be Dead

Punk rocker Billy Idol's journey from underground star to pop icon: his fame, drug struggles, and powerful return to music.

Billy Idol Should Be Dead is an intimate, unflinching and wildly entertaining portrait of Billy Idol, the punk provocateur who became one of rock & roll's most recognizable and enduring stars. Directed by acclaimed filmmaker and music-video visionary Jonas Åkerlund, the documentary looks beyond Idol's trademark sneer, peroxide hair and leather-clad image to examine the ambition, excess, danger and resilience behind a career spanning nearly five decades.

Beginning with Idol's emergence from the British punk movement as a member of Generation X, the film follows his transformation into an international solo star whose fusion of punk attitude, hard rock and the visual possibilities of the MTV era produced such defining songs as "White Wedding," "Rebel Yell," "Dancing with Myself," "Eyes Without a Face" and "Mony Mony." Rather than simply revisiting the hits, Åkerlund traces the experiences behind them and the contradictions of an artist who repeatedly pushed himself to extremes while continuing to evolve and perform.

The story encompasses extraordinary success as well as the darker consequences of rock & roll excess, including Idol's near-death experiences and the personal and professional upheavals that could easily have ended his career. What emerges is as much a survival story as a music documentary: an examination of how Idol endured the volatility surrounding his fame and remained an active creative force long after many of his contemporaries disappeared from the spotlight.

Idol is joined by an exceptional group of friends, collaborators and fellow musicians who provide perspective on his music, personality and influence. Participants include longtime guitarist Steve Stevens, Miley Cyrus, Green Day's Billie Joe Armstrong, Guns N' Roses bassist Duff McKagan, Sex Pistols guitarist Steve Jones, The Who's Pete Dinklage, Nile Rodgers, Fall Out Boy's Patrick Stump and Perri Lister, among others. With Åkerlund bringing the perspective of a filmmaker deeply versed in both music and visual culture, Billy Idol Should Be Dead presents the story of a genuine rock survivor who lived through nearly everything the mythology of rock & roll could throw at him--and somehow came out the other side.

Missing in Action [4K Ultra HD]

Colonel Braddock (Chuck Norris) returns to Vietnam to rescue POWs, battling ruthless forces in a high-stakes mission to bring his men home.

THE WAR'S NOT OVER UNTIL THE LAST MAN COMES HOME!

Martial arts master Chuck Norris is the star of Missing in Action, a blistering, fast-paced action-adventure dramatizing the bitter plight of American servicemen still held captive in Vietnam--and one man's mission to get them out!

Special Forces Col. James Braddock (Norris) knows all too well that American soldiers are secretly imprisoned in Vietnamese POW camps: He spent 10 years in a brutal labor camp long after the war's end, until he led his men in a daring escape to freedom. Home at last, Braddock reluctantly agrees to join a fact-finding mission in Saigon to question the Vietnamese about other MIAs. Disgusted by the mealy-mouthed denials of the sadistic General Tran (James Hong), Braddock enlists the aid of State Department official Ann Fitzgerald (Lenore Kasdorf) and slips away to find out the real facts.

Discovering the location of an MIA prison camp, Braddock escapes to Bangkok, where his old Army buddy, Tuck (M. Emmet Walsh), now a smuggler, equips him with enough weapons for a one-man army. In an explosive conclusion, Braddock blasts his way back into Vietnam. The only question is, can he fight his way back out?

Trizombie

In a zombie-filled world, a group of unlikely heroes embark on a dangerous journey to rescue their missing friend.

In a world suddenly ravaged by a terrifying epidemic, a mysterious virus sweeps across society, transforming ordinary people into ravenous zombies. Civilization collapses overnight as the undead overrun towns and cities with brutal ferocity. But in this apocalypse, there's one remarkable exception: a tight-knit group of friends with Down syndrome seem to be inexplicably immune to the infection. Luka, Kelly, Maya, Robin, and their larger-than-life buddy George -- nicknamed The Slayer for his zombie-slaying enthusiasm -- are part of a supportive living community trying to make sense of the new world around them. When one of their own mysteriously disappears into the zombie-infested wasteland, the group faces a harrowing choice: stay holed up in relative safety or risk everything to go out and rescue their missing friend. Their journey quickly becomes a test of courage, friendship, and ingenuity. As they traverse derelict streets, abandoned buildings, and undead-filled landscapes, they must confront grotesque hordes of zombies, clever traps, and the constant threat of betrayal from within. But despite the gore and danger, their unique bond brings moments of humor, heart, and unexpected resilience -- turning what could have been a bleak survival tale into a celebration of perseverance in the face of chaos. Trizombie blends zombie horror mayhem with dark comedy and emotional beats, offering a fresh take on the apocalypse genre that highlights bravery, loyalty, and the power of community in the most unlikely heroes.

The Workout

After a tragic mob hit, an Army Ranger loses his wife. He abandons his workout video plans to relentlessly hunt down the mobsters responsible.

The 2025 found-footage action thriller The Workout follows Wyatt Park, a former Army Ranger who has traded his military life for a career in fitness. Along with his pregnant wife Becca and his brother-in-law Levi, Wyatt is in the middle of filming a series of high-energy promotional videos for his new fitness brand in their private gym. The upbeat, professional atmosphere is shattered when a ruthless group of mobsters storms the facility in a violent targeted hit. In the ensuing chaos, Becca is tragically killed, but through an emergency medical miracle, their unborn daughter survives. Wyatt himself is left in a coma for a month, waking up to a devastating diagnosis: he has a terminal brain condition that will rapidly erode his memory and cognitive functions. Driven by a desperate need for justice before he loses his sense of self, Wyatt enlists Levi to help him track down the organized crime syndicate responsible for the attack. Because Wyatt knows his time is limited and his memories are fading, he decides to document their entire journey on camera. This "vigilante video diary" is intended to serve as a legacy for his infant daughter, providing her with an explanation of who her father was and why he chose to fight back against the underworld. As the duo plunges into the criminal landscape, they are joined by Tank, a fellow Army Ranger veteran, and an amenable detective who helps them navigate a brewing war between rival crime families. The story culminates in a series of visceral, high-stakes confrontations--captured through body cams and security footage--as Wyatt races against his own failing health to ensure his family's killers are brought to justice.
