MVD: RAISING HELL THIS FALL!

We celebrate October with a gallery of great horror films, lifting the lid off HELLRAISER and HELLBOUND: HELLRAISER II with newly restored Blurays. The original and equally terrifying sequel are restored to their crimson glory by Arrow Video! HELLRAISER and its successor overflow with new film transfers and myriad extras that will excite any Pinhead!

The Ugly American comes alive in the horror dark comedy AN AMERICAN WEREWOLF IN LONDON. Another fine reboot from Arrow Video, this deluxe pack will have you howling! Arrow also hits the RINGU with a release of this iconic Japanese-Horror film that spawned The Ring film franchise. Creepy and disturbing, RINGU concerns a cursed videotape, that once watched, will kill you in seven days! Watching this Bluray will have no such effect, but please, don't answer the phone!

TWO EVIL EYES from Blue Underground is a "double dose of terror" from two renowned directors, George A. Romero and Dario Argento. These films are based on Edgar Allan Poe tales, a chilling twin killing! DEVIL'S REVENGE is a film starring cultural icon William Shatner. As John Bock, Shatner delves into the depths of hell to recover a lost heirloom, encountering a much different galaxy along this trek!

Werewolves turned into Hairwolves in the Woodstock generation. That generations' watershed moment was the 1969 Woodstock festival, and the DVD WOODSTOCK: 3 DAYS THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING sheds new light on the event and how its ideals continue today. Far from the Woodstock of Peace and Love was extreme punk rocker GG ALLIN (although he certainly probably tried the brown acid!) Originally aired on SHOWTIME, GG ALLIN-ALL IN THE FAMILY documents GG and how his family and "devoted band of misfits" continue honor his legacy. R.I.P. Arleta.

Music to Fall for this month include VINYL TAP a new LP and CD from smooth jazzers SPYRO GYRA, and a fresh studio album from Yes guitarist STEVE HOWE with NEW FRONTIER. And we don't play favorites, but we have to tout a new album from LOUISE MANDRELL called, er, PLAYING FAVORITES! Her first in 30 years (!), Louise pays homage to her country faves.

So get ready to RAISE HELL this month!

SALES! On Bear Family (pg15), Smore (pg9), and Country Greats (pg34)

A Projection - Section Vinyl

A PROJECTION creates a captivating blend of emotional New Wave, dark Post-Punk, early 90's Goth & Indie Rock.

After two albums & a reshuffled lineup, The Swedish post-punk/indie band A PROJECTION joins Metropolis to release the album "Section", combination of the bands legacy & foundation for the future. Stepping out of the oversized shadows of its former Post-punk role models, A PROJECTION creates its own identity, a captivating blend of emotional New Wave, dark Post-Punk, early 90's Goth & Indie Rock.

Backfire Vinyl

The fourth volume of the Koko-Mojo vinyl series cares about hot guitars! 14 rockin Blues songs from the early 1960s!

The first Koko-Mojo anthologies were such an unexpected smashing success all around the world, so by popular demand, we finally decided to release a vinyl version of each and every one of them. These compilations are featuring a mix of songs that go from well-known to totally obscure. The main 'theme' here is the guitar.

Jon Brooks - Moth Nor Rust II Vinyl

Jon Brooks asks What makes us human? and discovers love, hope, forgiveness, faith, memory, wonder and the ineffable.

Toronto-based singer/songwriter Jon Brooks asks "What makes us human?" and discovers it's "All that neither Moth Nor Rust can touch:" love, hope, forgiveness, faith, memory, wonder and the ineffable. After ten years of artistic maturity, and adding his band The Outskirts of Approval, Brooks revisits his Canadian Folk Music Award nominated solo acoustic set Moth Nor Rust for our current times.

Paul Chain - Alkahest Vinyl

Paul Chain's masterpiece with Lee Dorrian (Cathedral) on vocals

Probably the best known Paul Chain's release. Alkahest knits together two disparate chapters; the first half of the record is pretty groovy, slightly space rock-flavoured doom that represents a wonderful and psychedelic experience. The last four songs are a descent into madness via grisly, heaving riffs and the alternatively gurning and mournful vocals of Lee Dorrian.

Creem Circus - The Glitterest, Sladest, Rockin'est, Laidest, Overtime-Paidest, Boogiest Band In Town Vinyl

The Creem Circus is your favorite band's favorite band. Hard, glitter, Glam.

Creem Circus hails from the dirty, grey streets of Fishtown, Philadelphia, just a few block from where Eraserhead was filmed. Created in the basement of DiPinto Guitars on the off hours between making sparkly, glittery guitars, the band got tired of staring at local Philly-ites in their jammy pants, flip-flops and socks and decided to launch some Glitter-Glam Rock goodness.

Cutthroat Brothers - The Cutthroat Brothers Vinyl

The Cutthroat Brothers may not literally induce bloodletting, but they do figuratively on their self-titled debut.

The Cutthroat Brothers may not literally induce bloodletting, but they certainly do figuratively on their full-length debut. The duo of real-life barbers--Jason Cutthroat [vocals, guitar] and Donny Paycheck [drums]--carve up a bloody, ballsy and brash brand of rock 'n' roll that--not unlike their medieval counterparts--takes no prisoners.

Dødsmaskin - Odelagt Vinyl

A striking combination of multi-layered and carefully assembled dissonance with intensely atmospheric soundscapes

Odelagt features five tracks with the 3 tracks on Side A encapsulating the Dødsmaskin style; cataclysmic vibrations of electro-acoustic and field recordings swelling to jarring, distortion heavy climaxes and tension filled scourge. Side B offers the side of Dødsmaskin, that's more cinematic, and drone based, where textures melt and swirl amid fragments of melody and less malevolent kosmische drift

Domkraft - Slow Fidelity Vinyl

The masters of hypnotic, post-apocalyptic doom issue an EP of infectious heaviness. Cameo from Mark Lanegan!

Sweden's prolific post-apocalyptic doom trio return on the heels of their mindblowing album, "Flood," with a new 3-song EP of mindbending, experimental heaviness. At nearly 30 minutes, this mini-album builds on the band's cataclysmic, looping riff foundation and adds delicate touches plus a mammoth jam-monster that features no less than three guest singers, including the singular Mark Lanegan.

Description

Spyro Gyra's new release Vinyl Tap, their first album of new material in six years, is sure to excite their worldwide fan base as well as to bring new listeners into the fold. Never content to rest on their prodigious work of the past, they have once again challenged themselves to apply their iconic sound to an idea that makes this release stand out from all of its predecessors. With Vinyl Tap, they have decided to craft an entire album of inventive jazz covers from pop favorites from the vinyl era. But these versions of familiar tunes will surprise the listener as well as entertain them. Whether it's turning Cream's "Sunshine of Your Love" into a Latin big band sound or making a tender ballad out of the Beatles' "You've Got to Hide Your Love Away", this release will impress at every turn. They weren't satisfied with just turning Johnny Rivers' 1960's hit "Secret Agent Man" into a rollicking party jam. They added an uptempo melody from "Alfie's Theme" to make something brand new, "Secret Agent Mash". There are also more conventional approaches with faithful versions of songs like War's "The Cisco Kid" and the Doobie Brothers' "What a Fool Believes". Spyro Gyra's haunting version of Blind Faith's "Can't Find My Way Home" is going to radio ahead of the release, so we anticipate high consumer awareness.

Two singles will be worked to Smooth Jazz radio, "Can't Find My Way Home" and "What a Fool Believes".

Alexis Gideon - Upgrade Soul Vinyl

Soundtrack for Ezra Claytan Daniels's Eisner-nominated horror comic mines jazz, hip hop, and giallo influences.
 UPGRADE SOUL is an award-winning, digital graphic novel featuring an original score by celebrated experimental musician/composer Alexis Gideon. Every bit as dense and strange as the book that inspired it, Gideon's soundtrack mines jazz, hip hop, and giallo influences to sculpt a gloriously unpredictable soundscape punctuated alternately by passages of head-bopping bliss and skin-crawling tension.

Gold - Why Aren't You Laughing? Vinyl

Second press on orange vinyl of the fourth album from Dutch post-rock band GOLD.
 GOLD returns with their fourth album, 'Why Aren't You Laughing', due out via Artofact Records. The Dutch ensemble marry hypnotic gothic vibes with soulful heavy rock, overlaid with atmospheric, often dream-like vocals. The multi-faceted album is complex in its construction, but by enlisting producer Jaime Gomez Arellano (Paradise Lost), each element is given ample room to breathe and indeed shine.

La Fleur Fatale - Silent Revolution Vinyl

Psychedelic pop reissue from Scandinavia as La Fleur Fatale releases Silent Generation on vinyl for the first time!

The blooming boys are back with a stunning new EP "Bound to Nowhere". At the same time La Fleur Fatale releases their previously released album that never before been available on vinyl. This is some of the best psychedelic pop to come out of Sweden during the modern age. Multi layered and melody driven psychedelic pop, that has been La Fleur Fatales trade mark sound since the start in 2007.

Minihorse - Living Room Art Vinyl

minihorse's debut is equal parts dreamy and disturbing, nailing a softly psychedelic sound not unlike Granddaddy and MBV minihorse is the extraterrestrial shoegaze project of Ypsilanti, MI scene staple Ben Collins. The 32-year-old has produced and engineered records for Stef Chura, Fred Thomas, Bonny Doon, and others, but his own band has more in common with indie royalty; the brittle hooks of Elliott Smith, the dynamic progressions of Granddaddy, and the textural girth of My Bloody Valentine.

Ben Molatzi - No Way To Go (180 Gram Vinyl) Vinyl

1-LP (180gram) with 16-page booklet, 16 tracks. Total playing time approx. 39:20 minutes.

Previously unreleased African folk songs by late singer/songwriter Ben Molatzi from Namibia. From the early fifties to the late eighties, every form of popular culture in Namibia was suppressed. For four decades Namibia suffered from racism and discrimination by the South African apartheid regime. The NBC's national television and radio station in Windhoek operated the only recording studio.

Psvclon Nine - We The Fallen Limited Edition Vinyl (Remastered With Bonus Tracks) Vinyl

Psyclon Nine reissues this classic for the first time on vinyl limited edition 2 LP, fully remastered w. bonus material.

Psyclon Nine does not write music for the faint of heart. This was proven on 2009's We The Fallen, which at the time was Psyclon Nine's darkest, most aggressive album to date. A turning point in the bands evolution, implementing elements of black metal, post-punk influences, & metal. Psyclon Nine reissues this now classic as a limited edition double LP, fully remastered with bonus material.

Solarized - A Ghost Across Hell From Me Vinyl

Noisy, chaotic tribal post-punk/post-hardcore from Philadelphia etched into the fabric of space-time.

A Ghost Across Hell From Me is the debut album from Solarized, a chaotic, noisy punk band from Philadelphia. It's the sound of unearthed ink-smudged art-punk 7"s, cut'n pasted from the want ads of '90's hardcore zines, and shot into space. Weird, grimy and magical hardcore punk songs on LP and cassette.

Suggested Friends - Turtle Taxi Vinyl

Suggested Friends is an UK indie rock quartet with a firm grounding in queer identity, fusing DIY punk roots.

Suggested Friends is an indie rock quartet with a firm grounding in queer identity, fusing DIY punk roots with the interweaving guitars of 90s indie and a sometimes tongue-in-cheek take on the performative masculinity of 80s rock. There's a tenderness to their songwriting, with lyrics reflecting on cultural malaise, trauma recovery and the banal absurdity of everyday life.

AC/DC - The Brian Johnson Archives CD

The second significant era in the career of AC/DC came following the tragic and premature death of former front man.

The band's decision to continue with new-boy Brian Johnson, however, was a good one though, coinciding as it did with the demise of punk and the huge rise in interest in rock and metal in the 1980s and beyond. The BRIAN JOHNSON ARCHIVES three-disc-set features rare radio recordings, interviews, legendary songs from Geordie, etc. and many more.

TWO NEW RELEASES FROM MICHAEL ALLEN HARRISON

S O L O P I A N O

HARRISON • BERG
PRESENTS

Ever wonder about the origins of Rock & Roll?

"Soul Harmony," the musical, is the moving and emotional yet triumphant true story of a vocal group and their songwriter manager who invented Rhythm & Blues. It is difficult to imagine what popular music would be like today, had it not been for the groundbreaking songs of Deborah Chessler, Sonny Til and the Orioles. This remarkable musical takes the audience from the streets of Baltimore in 1948 to the stage of the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony, 47 years later. Along the way, there's adversity, tragedy and triumph. This original cast recording, "Soul Harmony: R&B Is Born" does an amazing job of recreating the musical for the listener through dialog and song. Taken from a live performance, the sound quality is superb and the songs are breathtaking recreations of a vintage songbook, with a modern twist. The show captures the music and confusion in America during the late 40s and early 50's. Interspersed with show-stopping musical performances by the ensemble cast is a tale of racial tensions and an improbable team of five talented African-American R&B singers with their equally talented female Jewish writer-manager. The show depicts not only the racial issues that bedevil American history but also the color-blindness of talented artists. Soul Harmony takes us back to the birth of Rock and Roll. Chessler was the group's manager, which was significant as she was white and in her early 20s. Her mother Irene helped managing and touring with the group, which she did through the mid-'50s. So imagine two white Jewish women and five young black harmony singers birthing a new genre of music and facing the challenges of anti-Semitism and racism of the time. They brought people together through their music. The group reached massive success with songs like "Crying in the Chapel," "Tell Me So" and their first hit song "It's To Soon To Know"...Their success put the Apollo Theater on the map!

Pianist Composer Michael Allen Harrison re-imagines some of the most beloved and well known Classic Rock songs on solo piano. This collection will soothe your soul and touch deep memories of some of the greatest music ever written.

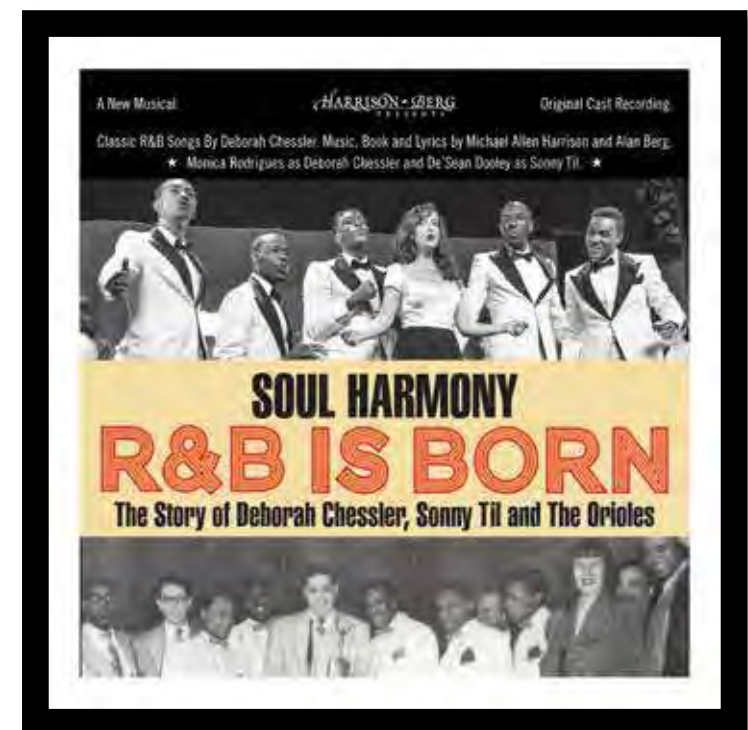

Michael grew up in the 70's and graduated from High School in 1976. The music from his teenage years truly shaped his sensibilities as a composer and lover of great melodies. Michael was a serious classical prodigy and started studying music at age 6 but by age 13 he was playing in his first rock band with a bunch of guys much older than him. He went on to study serious classical studies through college but always had an interest in Rock, Blues & Jazz. This will be Michael's 64th album since he started his career in 1984. Michael's music has millions of streams all around the world and is a beloved icon in the Pacific NW.

Sales Points

David Bowie - Unplugged & Slightly Phased CD

Bowie's 1996 Contributions To The Annual Bridge School Benefit Concert

In October 1996, Neil and Pegi Young's Bridge School Benefit concert series was 10 years old, having kicked off a decade earlier in '86. David Bowie performed at the anniversary concert, among others, playing acoustic sets on both days alongside regular '90s band members Reeves Gabrels and Gail Ann Dorsey. This CD features the rare broadcast recording of the performance, for the first time.

Ron Carter - Foursight: Stockholm, Vol. 1 CD

NEA Jazz Master Ron Carter with Renee Rosnes, Jimmy Greene and Payton Crossley on November 17, 2018 Live in Sweden!

The strings vibrate gently. Accurate tone, unconditionally clear. And quietly. The longest fingers of jazz seem to dance weightlessly along the wooden bridge; yearning, filigree and elegant. No one else sounds like Ron Carter. His double bass often produces a crisp groove like an electric bass, yet it is always clearly definable as the sound of a classical music instrument.

Cosmic Gate - 20 Years: Forward Ever Backward Never CD

Fair to say Cosmic Gate have had a pretty charmed start to their milestone twentieth year. The first six months alone have seen the duo serve a brace of Beatport #1s with the MINT-playlisted 'Come With Me' and the "profound" (say DJ Mag) "9/10" ranked 'Need To Be Loved'. January brought word of their first Grammy nomination and further saw the group kick off their Forward Ever, Backward Never tour

Creem Circus - The Glitterest, Sladest, Rockin'est, Laidest, Overtime-Paidest, Boogiest Band In Town (CD)

The Creem Circus is your favorite band's favorite band. Hard, glitter, Glam.

Creem Circus hails from the dirty, grey streets of Fishtown, Philadelphia, just a few block from where Eraserhead was filmed. Created in the basement of DiPinto Guitars on the off hours between making sparkly, glittery guitars, the band got tired of staring at local Philly-ites in their jammy pants, flip-flops and socks and decided to launch some Glitter-Glam Rock goodness.

Dearly Beloved - Times Square Discount CD

TSD is an LP partially borne of bingeing on Kubrick and drugs and wondering How do we make Kubrick an album?

Times Square Discount, has some of the most pop-savvy material yet to appear in the Dearly Beloved canon. "Vacation" and "LSD" have a slinky, stick-in-your-head seductiveness, "Close Encounters" and "Dog Food Thumbs" a sing-song quality lurking amidst the battery. Meanwhile, "Race to the Bottom" is an anthemic salute to the mom-and-pop shops and the family members that run them.

Borbala Dobozy - Das Wohltemperierte Klavier I CD

Bach's monumental work is even today an unavoidable, inexhaustible source for every music lover.

Although the Wohltemperiertes Klavier is still today the daily bread of student pianists of the highest calibre, alongside its pedagogical role, its greatest importance lies in the encyclopaedic richness of its musical contents, the variety of types of movement, textures and characters, the formal rigour and freedom, and the juxtaposition of archaic and the most modern of styles from Bach's time.

Champion Fulton & Cory Weeds - Dream A Little... CD

A creative, spontaneous and, above all, fun date recorded in the beautiful confines of a West Vancouver house.

A duo is a unique setting. When you play in a band, even if it's only three or more people, one person must lead and the others follow. Arrangements are often needed so everyone can be on the same page. When we play in a duo setting, there doesn't need to be a plan, no predetermined leader or follower. You have the freedom just to play and interact with the other person.

Matyas Szandai Quartet - Sadhana CD

The striking musical personalities come from different musical cultures and they all draw on several different sources.

Contrabassist Mátyás Szandai played with musicians like A. Shepp, D. Murray, H. Mann, Ch. Freeman, H. Drake, W. Parker, K. Rosenwinkel, G. Presencer or Ch. Potter, however, the listener is only intermittently brushed by the wind of these influences on this CD. Over the years Szandai has distilled a kind of musical essence from these inspirations, and now offers them to us in concentrated drops.

Mihaly Borbely Quartet - Grenadilla CD

"Coming from folk music, I see the modern jazz inspired by Bartok quite differently to my colleagues who are actually jazz musicians or contemporary musicians. But when I play folk music, I see it from 2019, seeking in it what might be important for today's listeners," Mihaly Borbely says. This CD is a perfect example for this, with the way it links together the past and present.

Ben Molatzi - No Way To Go CD

1-CD (6-page Digisleeve) with 32-page booklet, 20 tracks. Total playing time approx. 49:08 minutes.

Previously unreleased African folk songs by late singer/songwriter Ben Molatzi from Namibia. From the early fifties to the late eighties, every form of popular culture in Namibia was suppressed. For four decades Namibia suffered from racism and discrimination by the South African apartheid regime. The NBC's national television and radio station in Windhoek operated the only recording studio.

Vision Divine - When All The Heroes Are Dead

The new album from one of the most internationally acclaimed bands from Italy

The long wait was all worth it: the band now include the mesmerizing talents of Mike Terrana (the busiest drummer in the business) and Ivan Giannini (one of the hottest newcomers amongst metal singers for the Japanese press), and the extraordinary success of the first single with this line-up, 'Angel Of Revenge', proves that fans are eager to listen to the new tunes. 'When All The Heroes Are Dead' shows Vision Divine at their best, which means a partial return to their signature Power Metal sound that made them big players in this game. Get ready for great melodies, granitic riffs, fast paced songs and epic duels between guitars and keyboards.

BONUS MATERIALS

- First edition will be released in a 6-panel digipack

SALES POINTS

- The new, long waited album from Vision Divine
- Coming after the great success of the first video/single "Angels Of Revenge"™ (600k views and counting)
- Mixed and mastered by Simone Mularoni (DGM)
- The new line-up of the band features drummer extraordinaire Mike Terrana (Yngwie Malmsteen, Axel Rudi Pell, Tarja Turunen) and talented vocalist Ivan Giannini
- The band will soon announce their new tour. Their last, recent show in Madrid, Spain, attracted over 6.000 people

Null Device - Line Of Sight CD

Line of Sight mixes 80s synthpop, but also a love for reverb-soaked shoegaze, jangly dreampop, Madchester-era dance-rock

Described by the press as "buoyant," "sleek," and "textured," Null Device pulls in a lot of different influences. There's of course 80's synthpop, but also a love for reverb-soaked shoegaze, jangly dreampop, Madchester-era dance-rock, and even the occasional dose of ebullient Bollywood. Line of Sight is their strongest album to date and perhaps even the angriest.

Paladin - Purification Du Mal CD

Super band featuring members and ex-members from OUTRE TOMBE, KREMLIN, INFERNAL MAJESTY & SURVIVAL INSTINCT!

PALADIN is a Québec city-based old school death metal band featuring members and ex-members from SURVIVAL INSTINCT, KREMLIN, TORTURER and INFERNAL MAJESTY to name but a few. Taking influences from the grittier, heavier putrid type of Death Metal, PALADIN is sounding like a mish mash of AUTOPSY, RIPPIKOULU, CIANIDE and OUTRE-TOMBE. This band sounds fucking evil... brace yourself.

Michel Reis - Short Stories CD

Short Stories is the magnificent new solo album from Luxembourg-born pianist Michel Reis.

Sometimes music is abstract. Sometimes it is purely an invitation to dance. Sometimes it exists to protest against a wrong. And sometimes it exists simply to tell us a story. Short Stories is the magnificent new solo album from Luxembourg-born pianist Michel Reis, a set of fourteen delicately spun narratives, each with its own colour, setting and direction, each as compelling as the last.

Roger McGuinn's Thunderbyrd - Live At Rockpalast 1977 CD/DVD

The legendary first Rockpalast night from 1977 made rock history. Final guest on stage: Roger McGuinn's Thunderbyrds.

The legendary first Rockpalast night from 1977 made rock history. Before Roger McGuinn & The Thunderbyrds entered the stage, Rory Gallagher and Little Feat had already rocked the Grugahalle. A well-coordinated band, stimulating their boss Roger McGuinn to some top performances. That was really a magical moment which has lost nothing of its power, intensity and passion even after 42 years.

SYZYGYX - Fading Bodies CD/DVD

Do you know that feeling when you watch a truly suspenseful horror film?

Every single aspect from their work, from making sound from scratch to EQ'ing and engineering the sound is made by either Luna or Josh, and is what makes two artists: one S Y Z Y G Y X. They continue to grow and learn about sound by also mixing and mastering all of their own music. They work from their home studio in the Washington D.C. metro area, and continue to evolve within their sound.

Saccage - Khaos Mortem CD

3rd full length album from Canada's leading Death/Crust band SACCAGE!

Heavier, Darker, more Brutal and Death Metal oriented... The new SACCAGE is a crushing masterpiece of powerful riffs, scorching vocals and rhythmic blasts... once again the band displays a forceful hybrid of Metal and Crust with a definitive darker edge to a sound definitely fitting the band to a "T"... Nobody sounds like SACCAGE.

Satan's Holiday: The Devil's Jukebox CD

'Satan's Holiday' - 'The Devil's Jukebox' The ultimate ROCKIN halloween record !

Satan's Holiday - The Devil's Jukebox takes a different approach towards compiling a Halloween album. Most certainly we include songs which are related to the yearly pagan ritual. We look at Halloween in another way with a 'tongue in cheek' approach. Our view is that "Halloween music is not just for once a year listening". Our album is compiled with many songs that can be played all year round.

Wolfgang Schalk - Obsession CD

"A master improviser" - DownBeat

Wolfgang Schalk's new recording "Obsession" features ten original pieces written by the Austrian guitarist, his eighth album. The music is driven by Wolfgang's distinctive sound and edgy conception, demonstrating his virtuosity on both, arch top and on nylon string acoustic guitar. The execution of the music from Wolfgang and his band strikes a strong chord. "A fresh new musical voice" KCRW

Solarized - A Ghost Across Hell From Me CS

Noisy, chaotic tribal post-punk/post-hardcore from Philadelphia etched into the fabric of space-time.

A Ghost Across Hell From Me is the debut album from Solarized, a chaotic, noisy punk band from Philadelphia. It's the sound of unearthed ink-smudged art-punk 7"s, cut'n pasted from the want ads of '90's hardcore zines, and shot into space. Weird, grimey and magical hardcore punk songs on LP and cassette.

Soul Harmony R&B Is Born: The Story Of Deborah Chessler, Sonny Til & The Orioles CD

"Soul Harmony," the musical, is the moving and emotional yet triumphant true story of the vocal group and their songwriter manager who invented Rhythm & Blues. It is difficult to imagine what popular music would be like today, had it not been for the groundbreaking songs of Deborah Chessler, Sonny Til and the Orioles. The musical does an amazing job of recreating the music through dialog and song.

GG Allin - All in the Family

The late American extreme punk rock musician, GG Allin, is best remembered for his notorious live performances, which often featured transgressive acts, including self-mutilation, eating his own feces, and attacking the audience. In 1993 he died of an heroin overdose. Aired on Showtime as "All In The Family", In director Sami Saif's (Family) upcoming film The Allins we meet the two remaining family members, mother Arleta and brother Merle, who is still active in GG Allins backing band The Murder Junkies. It is the story about an extraordinary loving family, whose departed son and brother has left a trail of unanswered questions, and how we need to feed our own version of the past to overcome the present and the future.

SALES POINTS

- After debuting exclusively on Showtime, long awaited by fans and the curious is now available on disc for the first time!
- The film scores an impressive 7.2 (out of 10) on the IMDb!

Devil's Revenge

Welcome To Hell

John Brock is a down-on-his-luck archaeologist who returns from an expedition to the caves of rural Kentucky after unsuccessfully trying to locate a mysterious relic that his family has sought for generations. Upon his return, John starts to see dream-like visions of a ferocious bird-like creature from ancient folklore. John soon learns that the cave he came into contact with on his last expedition was indeed the cave that contains the relic and also a portal to Hell and a place of worship for the Occult. John discovers that the only way to stop the increasingly realistic visions is to go back to the cave with his family, find the relic once and for all, and destroy it.

Malevolence 2: Bereavement Director's Cut

There are some evils, so unspeakable, they will scar you for life.

In 1989, six year old Martin Bristol was kidnapped from his backyard swing in Minersville, Pennsylvania. Graham Sutter, a psychotic recluse, kept Martin imprisoned on his derelict pig farm, forcing him to witness and participate in unspeakable horrors. Chosen at random, his victim's screams were drowned out by the rural countryside. For years, Martin's whereabouts have remained a mystery, until 17 year old Allison Miller (Alexandra Daddario/Baywatch, San Andreas, Percy Jackson) comes to live with her Uncle, Jonathan (Michael Biehn/The Terminator, Aliens) and his 9 year old daughter, Wendy (Peyton List/Diary of a Wimpy Kid, Jessie). While exploring her new surroundings, Allison discovers things aren't quite right at the farmhouse down the road. Her curiosity disturbs a hornet's nest of evil and despair that once torn open, can never be closed. John Savage (The Deer Hunter), Nolan Funk (Riddick) and Spencer List co-star in this acclaimed shocker from writer/director Stevan Mena about family, torment, and the nightmare absolute that is Bereavement.

Brother Can You Spare A Dime?

From Dust Bowl To Tinseltown

Brother Can You Spare A Dime? is writer / director Philippe Mora's (Mad Dog Morgan) chronicle of an unforgettable piece of American history - The Great Depression, in both its bleak lows and its artistic highs, is presented in this classic 1975 documentary. Featuring the grim reality that many Americans faced during the era, largely in the form of newsreel clips, the film also depicts how Hollywood dealt with this period of widespread poverty and unemployment. Much of the movie footage showcases glamour and extravagance, providing lively moments of escapism that contrast starkly with day-to-day life during the 1930s.

The Human Monster: Collector's Edition

Paralyzing Fear! King of all Brutes!

Bela Lugosi gives one of his finest portraits of evil in this adaptation of Edgar Wallace's terror-thriller-mystery THE DARK EYES OF LONDON. A series of 'drownings' have Scotland Yard baffled. One common denominator; the dead men were heavily insured through a particular brokerage firm...and all the policies were paid off. Larry Hold, a Scotland Yard detective, and a visiting American cop from Chicago get on the trail and, with the help of the daughter of one of the dead men, discover a horrifying cause to the so-called 'accidents/suicides.' Behind it all is a human monster, a doctor who is using a home for blind men as a front for his nightmarish activities. His main tool is a gargoyle-like brute who eventually becomes the madman's downfall. The tension mounts as the plot develops in the best thriller tradition with danger lurking at every turn and a hairs-breath escape or two thrown in to season the recipe. Filmed in England, this one reeks with atmosphere, with the proceedings dominated by Bela Lugosi as the fiend more diabolical than any criminal the Scotland Yard has encountered.

My Samurai (Collector's Edition)

Teacher. Protector. Personal Weapon.

When young Peter McCrea (John Kallouzos) witnesses a gang murder, he is thrust into a dangerous world where strength and power are the keys to survival. His only hope is Young Park (Julian Lee, Assassin's Code), a powerful martial arts master with a gift for destroying any opposition. On the run from the gang and the police, Young Park must teach Peter the secrets of self defense - and inner strength. From one action-packed sequence to the next, Peter learns about courage, force, and himself - so that he may confront the ultimate challenge of his life.

MY SAMUARI is the solo directorial debut of Fred H. Dresch after making his mark as an assistant director on cult classics such as Final Exam and Syngenorand boasts a supporting cast that includes Mako (Conan The Barbarian), Terry O'Quinn (Lost) and Bubba Smith (Police Academy series).

Dinosaur Jr. - Green Mind: 2CD Deluxe Expanded Edition CD

Remastered and expanded edition of the classic 4th album and major label debut.

Formed in 1984, Dinosaur Jr carved a singular path through the latter half of the 1980s, issuing three highly influential albums in the process before finding a home with Sire Records, who issued "Green Mind" in 1991 as the alternative American rock scene the band had long been part of exploded globally. The album and Sire's international reach took Dinosaur Jr's reputation to a new level.

Vincent Gene - At Town Hall Party DVD (Reissue)

Another DVD-album from the Bear Family Records - country DVD series - At Town Hall Party -

Town Hall Party' was among the first of the country music shows to be seen on U.S. television, making its debut in early 1952 and running until early 1961. Staged every Saturday in a theatre in Compton, a suburb of Los Angeles, the stage was made up to look like an old barn, thus continuing the traditions of the various live shows that were first heard on the radio airwaves three decades earlier.

SPYRO GYRA - VINYL TAP [VINYL ALBUM]

SPYRO GYRA RETURNS WITH NEW ALBUM, FIRST IN 6 YEARS

Spyro Gyra's new release Vinyl Tap, their first album of new material in six years, is sure to excite their worldwide fan base as well as to bring new listeners into the fold. Never content to rest on their prodigious work of the past, they have once again challenged themselves to apply their iconic sound to an idea that makes this release stand out from all of its predecessors. With Vinyl Tap, they have decided to craft an entire album of inventive jazz covers from pop favorites from the vinyl era.

AVAILABLE
OCTOBER 11
