DEEP RED THIS AUTUMN WE GOT 'EM!

Your hunt for DEEP RED in October ends with the ultimate version of this Dario Argento Italian giallo classic! Arrow Video has laid upon us the ultimate 4K version of the horror staple, with multitudes of bonus features that puts you Deep into Red!

Vintage giallo Italian horror is brought back to life in Arrow's GIALLO COLLECTION, a three-disc bluray set compiling three defining films in the genre, THE POSSESSED, THE FIFTH CORD and THE PYJAMA GIRL CASE, rebooted with bonus features on each. The Italian horror empire rules with another great giallo collection, DEMONS & DEMONS 2, a two-disc UHD of demons who terrorize movie theatres and jump out of TV screens! Over to Japan for Arrow's YOKAI MONSTERS COLLECTION, a three disc limited edition bluray featuring Japanese films ripped from pages of ancient myths, monsters and folklore.

Maniac Cop is back on the beat, and he's got some beatdowns to administer to those who wronged him! Blue Underground releases MANIAC COP 2 and MANIAC COP 3 in arresting 4K/UHD deluxe 2-disc packages! Maniac Cop and his partner on a mission of vengeance and brutality. You have the right to remain silent- forever!

RED is a theme in music this month, as red-maned blues guitarist SUE FOLEY returns with an LP and CD PINKY'S BLUES from Stony Plain. Physical formats feature two additional songs, and Jimmy Vaughan guests. Also from Stony Plain comes the LP version of MARIA MULDAUR's latest with TUBA SKINNY, LET'S GET HAPPY TOGETHER, on teal color vinyl!

Famous family member LIVINGSTON TAYLOR comes with a CD collection THE MIDDLE YEARS (1978-1996), nineteen personally selected tracks of pop perfection! LIBERA, the British choral vocal outfit blesses up with their new CD IF. Brian Wilson says "When I heard them sing, it took me to tears." You'll weep with joy when you hear LIBERA!

It took years to find, but in someone's dusty attic the HEARTBREAKERS original mixes were found for L.A.M.F., the attitude-fueled rock classic. Now hear the music as it was meant, before twiddling and tweaking reduced the released original version to 'mud.'

The things you find if you look! Open and see!

MARIA MULDAUR with TUBA SKINNY

LET'S GET HAPPY TOGETHER

"Maria Muldaur richly deserves being called 'first lady of American roots music'" — Goldmine Magazine

Maria Muldaur with Tuba Skinny, the title track sums up the feeling of this album, Let's Get Happy Together!

Just prior to the Covid Pandemic in January 2020, Maria asked Tuba Skinny to collaborate in a showcase performance at the International Folk Alliance Conference in New Orleans.

It was so well received that an album was immediately conceived and recorded later that year, with the title track summing it all up: Let's Get Happy Together. Performing 12 songs as close as possible in feeling to the original recordings, Tuba Skinny and Maria Muldaur breathed life into rarely heard gems from this incredible era.

"Feelgood music for perilous times with sackfuls of ragtime swing"

— The Cut

"Let's Get Happy Together is a TRIUMPH that lives up to its title"

— American Songwriter

"It's like fertilizer for the soul."

— Elmore Magazine

TUFF CREW

DJ TOO TUFF'S LOST ARCHIVES

A RARE DOUBLE VINYL LP with UNRELEASED BONUS MATERIAL from TUFF CREW!

Tuff Crew is known throughout the world as Philly's first Rap super group. They've toured extensively with some of the biggest names in Rap music such as Public Enemy, Run-DMC, Biz Markie, Big Daddy Kane, Rob Base and LL Cool J. The response to Tuff Crew's music has been nothing short of stellar. On a national level, their single "My Parta Town" peaked at #23 on the Billboard Rap charts, while their album Back to Wreck Shop reached #74 on the Billboard R&B album charts. Estimates of Tuff Crew's global sales are in excess of three million units. Tuff Crew's body of work has resulted in a dedicated legion of fans across the world and their DJ Too Tuff has been the recipient of various accolades throughout his career. DJ Z-Trip advised that the technique of DJ Too Tuff inspired him to be a scratch DJ. Three time global DMC scratch champion DJ Q-Bert also notes Too Tuff as one of his inspirations. And A-Trak, Kanye West's DJ, has also voiced his adoration of the turntable techniques of DJ Too Tuff.

Although Tuff Crew made an incredible mark on the musical landscape, they unfortunately fell victim to bad management and infighting. It was during this time period that DJ Too Tuff, the man behind legendary Tuff Crew sound, gathered the finest of Philly's underground MC's and began work on a solo project. The new Tuff Crew album, containing the finest of DJ Too Tuff's solo work, is entitled DJ Too Tuff's Lost Archives. On October 21st, 2008, Tuff Crew Productions and Traffic Entertainment Group are pleased to present these recordings to the public for the first time ever. In support of the album, DJ Too Tuff has extensive radio appearances all across the country. Large music magazines have also taken a strong interest in covering the album. DJ Too Tuff's Lost Archives will be highly sought after, and is destined to become an instant collector's item.

For fans of Eric B and Rakim, Public Enemy, Ultramagnetic MC's, Run DMC and Wu-Tang Clan, this record is not to be missed!

Hellcrash - Krvcifix Invertör Vinyl

Worshippers of early Slayer/Venom mania look no further!

Italian HELLCRASH's debut full-length, Krvcifix Invertör summarizes the HELLCRASH experience and then some. Crude and rude, the trio's fixations still remain firmly entrenched in very early Slayer and Venom. Krvcifix Invertör is the metal of old: thrash when it was called "power metal," speed metal before thrash took over, metalpunk before that was even thought of.

Jeremy Pinnell - Goodbye L.A. Vinyl

Fourth LP from country singer Jeremy Pinnell hailed by Rolling Stone as "hardscrabble honky-tonk at its best"

Produced by Texan Jonathan Tyler, the tunes buff the wax and polish the chrome on Country music's deeper roots. Rooted in his steady acoustic guitar, Pinnell's songs are shot through with honest and classic elements. The rhythm section, all snap and shuffle, finds purpose in well-worn paths. The pedal steel and Telecaster stingers arrive perfectly on cue, winking at JP's world-wise couplets.

Michael Stephenson & Alexander Claffy - Michael Stephenson Meets The Alexander Claffy Trio Vinyl

This album chooses 20th century American music to send its message for a reason and does so at a critical moment.

20th century American popular music is one of the greatest artistic gifts given to the world. Michael Stephenson and Alexander Claffy revel in this message at a critical moment. In pointing us to our past, this album makes a modern statement now. In the face of injustice, inequality and racism, this music reminds us of our capacity to love, to hold each other and to agitate for a better future.

Good Old Boys - Live: Drink Up And Go Home

The legendary live bluegrass super group performance featuring Jerry Garcia on double vinyl

Most Jerry Garcia fans know of his early interest in bluegrass music, which was an essential part of Garcia's development as an instrumentalist and songwriter, but many Garcia fans are unaware that in 1975, during a Grateful Dead's hiatus, Jerry produced a seminal album for another bluegrass group called the Good Old Boys, featuring guitarist David Nelson from the New Riders of the Purple Sage, and Frank Wakefield, one of the greatest mandolin players in the genre.

The Good Old Boys made one album for Round Records, recorded up at Mickey Hart's Ranch. Shortly after completing the Good Old Boys album, the group decided to do a series of live shows, but during that time period, two of the key players from the original studio lineup were unavailable to go on the road. In a conversation with bassist Pat Campbell, Garcia mentioned that he would love to sit in on banjo, and with Jerry's participation, and the addition of fiddle player extraordinaire Brantley Kearns, a new version of the Good Old Boys emerged, ready to hit the club circuit. On February 20th and 21st in 1975, the Good Old Boys played for two nights at Margarita's Cantina. The performances were well received, with outstanding singing, blistering mandolin and violin solos, and a crowd pleasing vibe that's apparent from the moment the band takes the stage. Here, for the first time, thanks to a full restoration of these 2-track tapes, fans can finally hear this music in all its glory.

Small Reactions - New Age Soul Vinyl

Small Reactions play situational pop songs. Minimal instrumentation of guitar, bass, vintage organs, and drums.

Small Reactions play situational pop songs. Relying on the minimal instrumentation of guitar, bass, vintage organs, and drums, the quartet is equal parts post-punk, new wave, and surf. The band themselves prefer the term "nerve pop" to describe their music. The phrase comprises the frenetic energy of the late 70s new wavers and Bob Dylan's shaky foot circa 1965.

Stres - sea/grams Vinyl

Pretty and melancholic indie-electronic music for queers, lovers, marxists, and the painfully alone.

Sasha Bolof is no stranger to troubled waters. The Seattle native documented a moment of her life fraught with anxiety, grief, alcohol abuse, and the search for identity. The result is sea/grams, her most ambitious work to date. Musically reminiscent of 90's trip hop production with post punk guitar stabs. Her melancholic melodies shimmer over the jagged rocks of noise and carries you to shore.

Sue Foley - Pinky's Blues Vinyl

PINKY'S BLUES is a raw, guitar driven romp through the backroads of Texas, with Foley's Telecaster "Pinky" at the wheel.

Pinky's Blues is a guitar driven collection of 12 songs, both original and some of Sue's favorite covers, that demonstrate not only that Sue is one of the world's greatest Blues guitarists, but that the sheer joy of playing can be felt through the recording in an emotional thrill for the listener. A vinyl version of the album on hot pink provides a dream item for fans, audiophiles and collectors.

Sweet Teeth - Acid Rain Vinyl

Ever wished for a modern day Hüsker Dü from Scandinavia? Sweet Teeth brings back the sound of the Alternative 90's.

Sweet Teeth, perfect smile and raw beauty. Catchy, punky, fuzzy power pop and alternative rock. Lyrics about heartbreak. Small town ambitions and dreams side by side with noisy guitars and sugar sweet melodies. Sweet Teeth sounds like Hüsker Dü mixed with Flaming Groovies, Ramones mixed Big Star or even The Hellcopters mixed with Dinosaur Jr. Straight forward and very honest.

Windfaerer's Breaths of Elder Dawns is the black/folk metal band's latest output in its more than a decade of existence

"Breaths of Elder Dawns" explores themes of hope, kinship, destruction of the natural world, shattered illusions and longing for the numbing comfort of death. It is a journey of mourning through the ruins of abandoned dreams and aspirations. This record is an homage to a romantized past as much as it is a rejection of its glorification.

TELL YOU SOMETHIN
B-REAL X SCOTT STORCH

B REAL FROM CYPRESS HILL
NEW LP PRODUCED BY SCOTT STORCH
FT. TY DOLLA $IGN

Louis "B-Real" Freese from the platinum selling hip-hop group Cypress Hill releases a 10-song vinyl Lp "Tell You Something" Cat.RN 10002 Ruffnation / Entertainment One Music. The digital LP is marketed & distributed by Entertainment One Music. Produced by Grammy winning producer Scott Storch who has worked with 50 cent, Justin Timberlake, Dr. Dre, Nas, Snoop Dog. The album features collaborations with Freeway, Ty Dolla Sign, Berner, DJ Paul, Rick Ross, Krayzie Bone. The vinyl Lp is audiophile quality, 180g colored Neotech 100 % virgin vinyl manufactured using the digital Matrix Nickel plating system for zero playback degradation. The Tracks "Mother Mary" ft DJ Paul and "Triple OG" ft. Freeways are currently on all DSP's. Not only does Storch's production deliver on all of the sonic treatments and musical motifs he is known for, but he also incorporates the ethereal dusted soundscape which provides a perfect blend with B Real's animated delivery. B Real's distinct timbre and delivery style makes him the rare stand alone artist not seldom seen in the Hip-hop genre. Given B-Real's Cypress Hill legacy, this album will find a ready audience among the millions of Cypress Hill fans worldwide. Cypress Hill created their own market attracting devoted followers by incorporating their unique vocals, brilliant writing and production. Their lyrical commentary on street culture is both real and often veiledisteners with fans of Public Enemy, Prophets of Rage, Rage Against the Machine, Lincoln Park, House of Pain, Sonic Youth, NWA, Wu-Tang B-Real has almost 8 million active followers across his and Cypress Hill's various social media platforms including his B Real TV, Dr. Greenthumb Podcast, which is the platform for his successful chain of Dr Greenthumb's licensed dispensaries in California. "B-Real and Freeway connect with Scott Storch for a 4/20-friendly record. It's a national holiday for smokers across the globe. Unfortunately, 4/20 isn't exactly as celebratory as it was in previous years because of the pandemic but still, people are at home smoking away. For some of our cannabis enthusiasts, who just happen to be equally fantastic MCs, are blessing us with new heat today. B-Real slid through with two new records today, both produced by the legendary Scott Storch. Paying homage to the quintessential West Coast cannabis strain, on 'Triple OG,' the Cypress Hill frontman connects with Philadelphia's Freeway for a smooth banger to run the bass up on your whip while you are hotboxing the afternoon away." —Aaron A.,HotHipHop.com

Clarence Frogman Henry - But I Do: The Complete Releases 1956-62 CD

Clarence Henry was a rhythm & blues singer and pianist from New Orleans

His music was very much inspired by and typical of the New Orleans R & B idiom, and his highly individual vocal style earned him the nickname "Frogman". This collection offers a comprehensive overview of this first era of his career, and an entertaining showcase for that distinctive approach.

EATEN ALIVE

THE LATEST FROM ATLANTA'S NASHVILLE PUSSY!

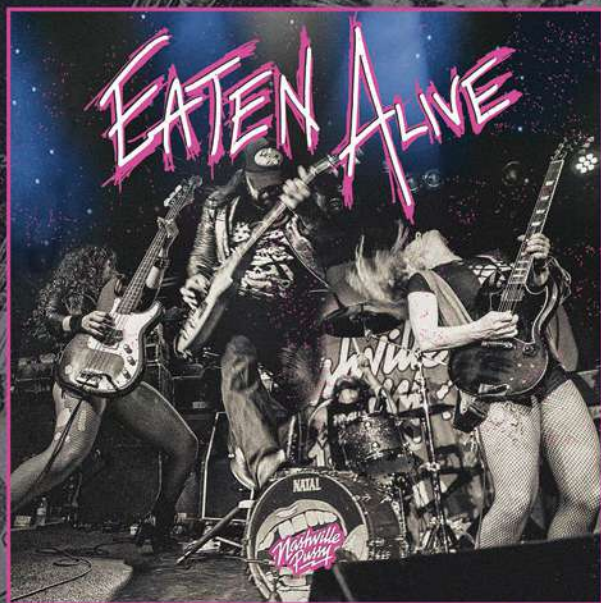

Coming hot off of their critically acclaimed 7th studio album, "Pleased To Eat You," Nashville Pussy returns with "Eaten Alive," a ferocious hellride of a live album that is proof positive that the band is one of the best live acts ever. Recorded in the UK, this is Nashville Pussy's "Live at Leeds" and one of most unrelenting concert albums since Motorhead's "No Sleep Til Hammersmith."

Slated for released to coincide with their October/November tour with The Toadies and Reverend Horton Heat, "Eaten Alive" will be unleashed to the world on Slinging Pig Records, the band's very own record label. "This is the album that our fans have drunkenly demanded for years", says singer Blaine Cartwright. "Make an album that sounds like you guys do live!", I've heard that phrase slurred in my face in accents from all over the world" jokes Blaine. "So here it is you drunken bastards!"

THE BAND IS UNSTOPPABLE. THIS ALBUM IS PROOF.

FIRST RELEASED AS A MUCH SOUGHT-AFTER VINYL LP FOR RSD IN JULY 2021 - NOW ON CD!

FOUND IN AN ATTIC - a punk rock archaeological discovery: a copy master of the original 1977 Track Records tape, without 'mud'! This classic punk album, recorded in London by the New York band featuring two New York Dolls, was always controversial -and not just for the acronym. Upon release on Track Records in 1977, it was universally condemned in the music press for having a 'muddy mix' - later found to be a mastering fault.

When Track went bust the following year, manager Lee Black Childers managed to burgle the Track Records' Carnaby Street 3rd floor office and liberated the tapes that belonged to him and the band. He found everything - except for the master-tape.

Unexpectedly, in 2020 a chance meeting led Jungle to Daniel Secunda's archives. Danny was an old-school music biz pioneer who became a Track Records director - and the Heartbreakers 'L.A.M.F.' co-producer. In amongst his archives stored in his attic were numerous tape boxes, including two with no artist name, marked: 'Copy Master 12.7.77'. They turned out to be a crystal-clear 'L.A.M.F.', just as the band and producers intended it.

CD INCLUDES: a bonus CD - 'the L.A.M.F. demos + singles'; a 19-track collection of four demo sessions from 1976 -77 and three tracks from singles. They are packaged in a hardcover 32-page book, with notes by Simon Wright and a 2012 interview with Walter Lure (the last of the LAMF Heartbreakers who sadly passed away in 2020), together with rarely-seen photos.

Nine Pound Hammer - When The S#*t Goes Down

Cowpunk legends Nine Pound Hammer team up with producer Daniel Rey (Ramones, Iggy) - and the s#*t went down!

Known for their steamroller brand of buzzsaw guitar country-punk and energetic live shows, these hellacious, garage rock s#*t-stompers continue to deliver it loud and dirty. "Real life has left us even more RAW, BITTER and MANIC than when we were young pups," draws Scott Luallen, the razor-throated lead singer. Guitarist Blaine Cartwright, "Now more than ever, with so much CRAP ROCK out there, and so many LIGHTWEIGHT 'alt-country' bands, we are pissed off and ready to show these little s#*ts how it's done!"

Long before Dave Eggar was renowned as a world class cellist, writing, performing and recording for years with Amy Lee and Evanescence, enrapturing us with his solo intro to Coldplay's #1 smash "Viva La Vida," touring with American Idol winner Phillip Phillips and conducting symphony orchestras on tour with Foreigner, he quietly launched a solo career as a composer/pianist, releasing the solo piano albums Serenity (1998) and Angelic Embrace (2002).

The downtime during the pandemic allowed him time for quiet reflection and a full circle return to the simplicity and purity of his roots – a creatively empowering experience that led to the creation of his new perfectly titled solo piano collection, Awakening. It is Eggar's fifth release on Domo Records, a discography that includes those first two albums as well as Left of Blue (2005) and Kingston Morning (2010).

Awakening was produced by Chuck Palmer, a prolific drummer/percussionist songwriter, engineer and arranger who served as orchestral conductor and percussionist on the Foreigner tours. Featuring Eggar working his transcendent magic on a Steinway B, it was recorded and engineered by Davis Hart at Pulp Arts in Gainesville, FL. The album's impressionistic sunsplashed artwork was created by Robert Redford's wife, German born multimedia environmental artist Sibylle Szaggars.

Jeremy Pinnell - Goodbye L.A. CD

Fourth album from country singer Jeremy Pinnell hailed by Rolling Stone as "hardscrabble honky-tonk at its best"

Produced by Texan Jonathan Tyler, the tunes buff the wax and polish the chrome on Country music's deeper roots. Rooted in his steady acoustic guitar, Pinnell's songs are shot through with honest and classic elements. The rhythm section, all snap and shuffle, finds purpose in well-worn paths. The pedal steel and Telecaster stingers arrive perfectly on cue, winking at JP's world-wise couplets.

Joe Zawinul - Faces & Places CD

Joe Zawinul as you like him - groovy, improvisational and highly skilled.

Surging with pulse-quickenng grooves, drenched in Third World exotica, charged with improvisational abandon and teeming with typical machismo, Faces & Places is quintessential Joe Zawinul. This album is a musical travelogue of Zawinul's four decades on the road, but it's an impressionistic and dreamlike one - another classic.

Maceo Parker - Made By Maceo CD

Get captivated by this strong and dynamic album - Funky Sax at it's best.

His sound is unmistakable. Bright, bold, rhythmically-charged with a gospel-tinged sting, it served as the perfect foil for James Brown's funky invocations through the '60s and '70s. Hear him wield that sax with funky authority on "Made By Maceo", his strongest and most dynamic outing to date.

Nocturnal - Serpent Death CD

The German Thrash Legends return with their 4th album!

NOCTURNAL have been flying the flag of hate since the year 2000, hailing the old Teutonic gods of thrash - namely Sodom, Kreator and Destruction, as well as Deathrow, Assassin, Exumer and Razor and early Sepultura abroad. "Serpent Death" strikes with a venomous menace. Arguably the band's best-produced as well as best-played record to date, Serpent Death sounds more energetic than ever.

Off To Work CD

28 Blues / Rhythm & Blues songs about work

This album salutes the African American workers. As Jaqueline Jones wrote last year in her article "Black Workers Remember" it is one of the great ironies of American labor history that enslaved workers toiled at a wider variety of skilled tasks than did their descendants who were free.

Livingston Taylor - The Best Of Live: 50 Years Of Livingston Taylor

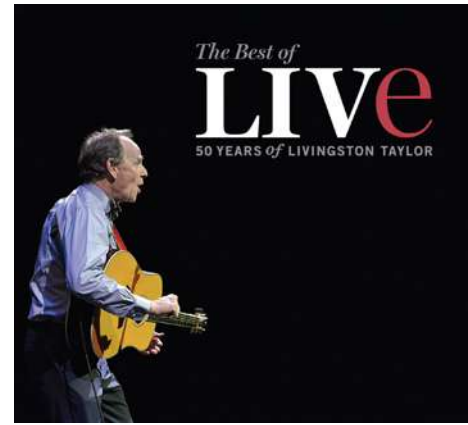

"After a career of 50 odd years, there comes a time when you need to assemble and present a musical roadmap of the places you traveled."

Livingston Taylor picked up his first guitar at the age of 13, which began a 50-year career that has encompassed performance, songwriting, and teaching. His musical knowledge has inspired a varied repertoire, and he is equally at home with a range of musical genres--folk, pop, gospel, jazz--and from upbeat storytelling and touching ballads to full orchestra performances.

Livingston has never stopped performing since his early coffeehouse days, shared the stage with major artists such as Joni Mitchell, Linda Ronstadt, Fleetwood Mac, Jimmy Buffett, and Jethro Tull, and he maintains a busy concert schedule, touring internationally. "Best Of Live" is a selection of songs from the LIVE Livingston Taylor Live box set scheduled for release later in 2021.

3 time Classical BRIT nominees and You Tube sensations have recorded their brand new studio album titled "If". There are 15 songs including 5 brand new compositions.

After the success of the last album and the restrictions of 2020/21 plus the forced cancellations of all concerts, the boys have responded to the challenges with their new album. They are very happy to be back making music again and hope the listeners will enjoy their performances, as they sing the new music and arrangements.

When I heard them sing - it actually took me to tears.

MVD WELCOMES: Projekt Records

38-year-old Portland-based Projekt Records is home to Steve Roach, Erik Wollo, Black Tape For A Blue Girl, Aurelio Voltaire and others. Projekt's two-genre approach covers both the electronic/ambient and goth/darkwave realms. With over 75 Steve Roach titles on the label, Projekt is the home for his (2018 + 2019) Grammy-nominated new releases as well as his catalog classics. Steve's releases include 1984's groundbreaking floating ambient Structures from Silence, which Yoga Journal calls one of the "...top ten all time releases for Yoga." Other Roach milestones include Quiet Music, Dreamtime Return and the 4-CD Mystic Chords & Sacred Spaces. Projekt's noteworthy and boundary-pushing darkwave acts established the label in the 90's as the American counterpart to England's famed 4AD. Voltaire's debut The Devil's Bris remains a classic of the genre, and a video from the follow-up Almost Human gets nearly 16,000 plays a day on YouTube. Projekt's artists streamed over 60 million tracks in 2020; the label's digital side continues to grow with a steady output of releases. Surviving throughout the decades where so many other labels perished, Projekt continues to nurture the careers of the label's acts.

"Founded in 1983 by Sam Rosenthal, Projekt concentrated on releasing dream-pop, neoclassical, ambient, gothic rock and shoegaze bands, and Rosenthal's own group, Black Tape for a Blue Girl, was an early exponent of darkwave's hallmark mournful cabaret." —Craig Hayes, Popmatters, 2013

Torture Of Hypocrisy - Humanufacture (CD)

"Humanufacture" - 4th studio album by Polish Industrial Groove Metal band TORTURE OF HYPOCRISY.

Humanufacture is a new quality in the meaning of Industrial Metal, redesigned to be based on atmosphere, heaviness, severity and interesting composition, instead of techno-like music played by thousands of bands in this genre. As always, the band delivers a full top-tracking album with no-throwbacks policy.

Tribal Tech - Thick (CD)

Tribal Tech took a high risk, high reward approach to the recordings of their new album. Let them surprise you!

For their ESC Records debut, the members of Tribal Tech threw caution to the wind and went into the studio with no gameplan, no roadmaps, let alone rehearsals. They simply let tape roll and captured the moment, trusting their instincts and group chemistry to spontaneously shape the music. The result is their most freewheeling, exhilarating and provocative project in Tribal Tech's 13-year history.

Voka Gentle - Writhing! CD

Operating on a plane between avant-garde indie, electronica and cosmic psychedelia, Voka Gentle have an amorphous sound.

Operating on a plane between avant-garde indie, bubbling electronica and cosmic psychedelia, London group Voka Gentle have an addictive, amorphous sound. A three limbed beast made up of twins Ellie and Imogen Mason, and William J. Stokes, each is a multi-instrumentalist, songwriter and producer with an imperious understanding of three dimensional sound.

Lava fields, glaciers, and hot springs came together to erupt into a fresh take on desert rock.

In an alternative reality where Kyuss didn't get their start in the sun-drenched weather of California, but in a cold barren volcanic landscape of Iceland, you would get Volcanova. Members hailing from 3 corners of this unique island of lava fields, glaciers, and hot springs came together to erupt a fresh take on desert rock. There is never a dull moment with Volcanova.

Windfaerer - Breaths Of Elder Dawns CD

Windfaerer's Breaths of Elder Dawns is the black/folk metal band's latest output in its more than a decade of existence.

"Breaths of Elder Dawns" explores themes of hope, kinship, destruction of the natural world, shattered illusions and longing for the numbing comfort of death. It is a journey of mourning through the ruins of abandoned dreams and aspirations. This record is an homage to a romantized past as much as it is a rejection of its glorification.

DOC'N ROLL FILMS

DON'T GO GENTLE

A FILM ABOUT IDLES

Don't Go Gentle: A film about IDLES is a 75 minute feature film about finding strength in vulnerability. It journeys through the critically acclaimed Bristol band's determination, friendship and adversity as they fight for a place in a divided socio-political environment, unexpectedly inspiring and unifying an international community along the way.

Don't Go Gentle captures the 10 year journey of IDLES' struggle, grief and resolve. Exploring their vulnerabilities through their experience, lyrics and sound, we learn the reasons why these five individuals have connected with legions of people across the world. We see just how that relationship unfolds in the most courageous and positive of human ways.

SVT - The Price Of Sex DVD

A passionate blast of West Coast new wave, 7 classic 80's promo videos played with incendiary intensity.
August 1, 1981 and our world changed forever when MTV played their first music video and it seemed every band rushed to create visuals to go with their songs. Some were well produced, high ticket productions, subsidized by the big labels and some were created by passionate, creative artists like SVT, who just wanted to reach their fans, existing and those yet to discover their artistic prowess.

The Gestapo's Last Orgy

The Sickest Entry in the Nazisploitation Genre!

Still banned in the UK as one of the infamous Video Nasties, in the tradition of The Night Porter, Salon Kitty and Salo only far more depraved comes perhaps the most notorious Nazisploitation epic of them all! Daniela Levy (aka Italian TV presenter and future UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador Daniela Poggi) stars as a beautiful young death camp prisoner forced into a nightmare of brutality, torment and sexual degradation. But will a Commandant's vilest urge trigger her ultimate vengeance? Marc Loud (aka Adriano Micantoni of Tomb Of Torture) co-stars in this fetid slice of filth-strudel also known as Last Orgy Of The Third Reich And Caligula Reincarnated As Hitler now presented on Blu-ray for the very first time and restored in 2K From the original negatives.

PRESS

"The movie does entertain!"
—Ian Jane, Rock! Shock! Pop!

"One of the better made of the short-lived Nazisploitation subgenre, GESTAPO'S LAST ORGY has the usual array of sexualized torture methods inflicted upon women but it's actually at its most disturbing on the level of dialogue (quite a feat given the script)."

1974: La Posesion De Altair

One of the Most Horrifying Events in Mexican History

When newlywed Altair claims to have found a way of communicating with God, she builds a black brick door in her bedroom but her increasingly erratic behavior points to something more sinister. Her spiral is documented on the 8mm films shot by her husband and later found after their disappearance. Cauldron Films is proud to present the world wide Blu-ray debut of the Mexican found footage film 1974: La posesiÃ³n de Altair. Shot on super8 film and directed by Victor Dryere, this meticulously created descent into madness uses atmosphere and brooding sound design to shape an unnerving experience.

The Collingswood Story

A Revolutionary Experiment in the Supernatural

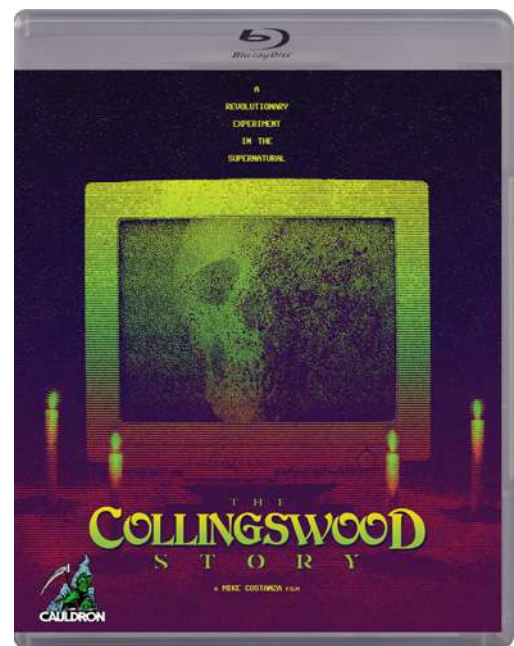

When Rebecca went away to college, her boyfriend John thought video chatting would help them stay in touch. But idle curiosity leads to a dark secret when Rebecca and John video chat with Vera Madeline, an online psychic, who initiates a deadly reign of terror over their lives. The Collingswood Story is an innovative and acclaimed micro budget horror film by writer/director Mike Costanza. It's the first found footage film to be viewed through webcams, which helped pave the way for future hits such as Host, Paranormal Activity, and Unfriended. Its macabre tale of murder, ritual, and mystery is told through an immersive interface where each character uses a cam for their own voyeuristic purposes - to communicate, to investigate, and to victimize - ultimately becoming witness to a shocking and disturbing finish! Cauldron Films is proud to present the worldwide Blu-ray debut of The Collingswood Story - the innovative and creepy supernatural found footage horror film, newly remastered from the original source tapes by writer/director Mike Costanza!

Paul Newman - The Paul Newman Trilogy

Three early live TV performances starring Paul Newman as a college kid, a clothing manufacturer, and a cowardly soldier

"Five In Judgment" has 2 hitch hiking college kids forced to seek shelter from a storm in a small town diner where they're falsely accused of committing murder. The diner customers and owner terrorize the boys in the belief they committed the murder, only to discover the horrible truth. "The Rag Jungle" has Newman working for his father as a clothing manufacturer. They run up against racketeers demanding protection money, Newman refuses to pay and after his father is attacked, he organizes other manufacturers to stand up against the gangsters. "The Army Game" portrays Newman as a spoiled mama's boy, a 9 letter man in college and a narcissist who doesn't want to be in the Army. His efforts to get a discharge anger his friends and barrack mates and it's not until he's attacked in the barracks that he's given his discharge.

The Power And The Glory

The Graham Greene's novel that made the world gasp, the drama of a priest who somehow stumbled onto the road to martyrdom

In the 1930s, a cynical Catholic priest is sent to Mexico to preach in post-revolution Mexico: a cleric who risks his life by continuing to conduct the Catholic Mass in secret after the totalitarian government has outlawed the Catholic Church. In order to confer the Christian sacraments, the priest must have wine but his attempts to obtain wine will call attention to his clandestine activities.

Muleskinner - Live

The only bluegrass super group featuring Clarence White, David Grisman, Richard Greene, Peter Rowan and Bill Keith

For progressive bluegrass aficionados, Muleskinner Live -- Original Television Soundtrack is something of a watershed event. Originally broadcast on public television in the late '70s, the documentary captured the bluegrass supergroup at the peak of its powers in front of a live studio audience in Hollywood. Muleskinner's lineup was a knockout, boasting the talents of Clarence White, David Grisman, Peter Rowan, Bill Keith, and Richard Green, so it should come as little surprise that this live record is a powerhouse, illustrating everything that was right about progressive bluegrass. All nine songs that were originally aired on the TV program are here, along with four songs that were edited for broadcast.

Spring Blossom

A charmingly refreshing French coming of age story

Written and directed by Suzanne Lindon (Vincent Lindon's daughter and 20 years old at the time of production), SPRING BLOSSOM is a charmingly refreshing and oh so French coming-of-age story that heralds Lindon as a rising international filmmaker to be reckoned with. Suzanne (Suzanne Lindon) is sixteen. She is bored with people her own age. From the outside, everything appears lovely in her charming world, but the everyday monotony of school and her relationships with friends and family feels completely uninspired. Every day on her way to high school, she passes a theater. There, she meets a 35-year-old actor named Raphaël (Arnaud Valois, BPM (Beats Per Minute)). Despite their age difference, they find in each other an answer to their ennui and develop a strong connection. Immersed in the world of grown-ups and adult choices, Suzanne begins questioning the pitfalls of blossoming too quickly and missing out on life - the life of a 16-year-old, which she had struggled so much to enjoy in the same way as her peers. SPRING BLOSSOM is a refreshing tale of a young teen's sense of curiosity and wonderment at first-love replete with freewheeling musical numbers that echo the song-and-dance routines of Jacques Demy's beloved The Umbrellas of Cherbourg.

PRESS

"Spring Blossom' is a finely wrought, sensitively felt and artistically bold work."

—Katie Walsh, Los Angeles Times

"This not only a romantic film, but also a moving look at the concerns of a teenager entering the adult world."

Monster Seafood Wars

Take a bite, I dare you!

Yuta, a young master at the Tsukiji Fish Market, accidentally drops his meal of mixed seafood into the Sumida River. Some time afterwards a gigantic mutated squid monster arises from the depths and begins to wreak havoc upon an awe-stricken Tokyo. Attempts by the Japan Self-Defense Forces to stop the creature prove futile. As it seems things couldn't get any worse an enormous mutant octopus monster emerges from the deep and heads into a clash of the titans with the gargantuan squid. As a last ditch effort, the government forms the "Seafood Monster Attack Team (SMAT)" and an all-new plan of attack is immediately put into action. But just as the tide appears to be turning in humanity's favor, a colossal crab monster appears, joining in the Monster Seafood Wars and plunging the world into culinary chaos.

Dirty Laundry: Collector's Edition

IT'LL TAKE MORE THAN SOAP AND WATER TO CLEAN UP THIS MESS!

Only in L.A. could you make $1,000,000 at the laundromat. That's what happens when Jay unknowingly stumbles into a drug deal at the local Laundromat and accidentally exits with a bag full of cash rather than his dirty laundry. When Macho Marty Benedictine finds out what has happened to his money, he puts out a contract on poor Jay, who still has no clean clothes.

Enter F.B.I. Inspector Zimbalist, who sees this as an opportunity to catch his long-time nemesis Benedictine. Zimbalist sends his Miami Vice wannabe to follow Jay. Meanwhile Jay meets Trish a beautiful sexy reporter, at a rock concert. Benedictine and part of the goon squad are at the concert too, and when they catch a glimpse of Jay, Benedictine orders Maurice, one of his goons, to break into Jay's apartment and find the cash. Instead Maurice discovers Larry, Jay's girl-dripping surfer roommate.

What Follows is a hair-raising, constantly hilarious chase, with everyone after Jay and Trish. Will Benedictine's goons catch Jay? Will Jay ever get to rinse and dry in L.A. again? Will Trish get an engagement ring from Jay, or just ring around the collar? Whisk this wet and wild, action-packed comedy home and find out!
