GEEKS AND FREAKS. AND THEY ARE US!

It goes without saying that the folks who read this are music and movie fans of the 'slightly' obsessive variety. The birth of our collective and collecting madness for pop culture began in1982, a year that saw screen debuts of E.T., Star Trek: Wrath of Khan, Poltergeist, Conan, and more, now documented in the MVD REWIND DVD and bluray of 1982: GREATEST GEEK YEAR EVER! Filled with never- before- seen clips, behind the scenes footage and interviews of notables hatched in the Geek Era like Ron Howard, John Sayles, William Shatner, Cameron Crowe, Roger Corman- Mother and Fathers to the Geek Generation. Wear your Geekdom proudly as we hear our story and why we got this way!

Computer Geek Steve Wozniak hosted the US Festival, held in San Bernadino, California. It's 1982 again, as 400,000 Freaks (and a few Geeks) gathered and heard Rock Superstars, including Santana. Relive this glorious era, with the bluray and DVD SANTANA-LIVE AT THE US FESTIVAL, a set that rivaled their Woodstock performance for its intensity.

Unrivaled in intensity are the HELLRAISER films. ARROW VIDEO rises with a 4K limited edition slipcase version of four films from the franchise. HELLRAISER: QUARTET OF TORMENT is loaded with an avalanche of bonus features in a collectible case. The ultimate Hellraiser Pinhead endorsed package! Arrow slings more Halloween fare with TRICK 'R TREAT, a quartet of horror vignettes, a la Tales from the Crypt.

Geeks from the Far East arrive with a swath of 88 FILMS titles, including THE PROJECT A COLLECTION, a two-disc bluray of Jackie Chan adventures, THE KID FROM KWANGTUNG, FACETS OF LOVE and THE KUNG FU INSTRUCTOR. Japanese Ghosts get some visibility with the RADIANCE FILMS 3-disc bluray box DAIEI GOTHIC: JAPANESE GHOST STORIES and the Arrow Video release of J-HORROR RISING, a four-disc limited box of seven films in this ghastly genre.

We're blue over the recent death of the King of British Blues John Mayall. Relive his mastery of the form on the blue vinyl LP JOHN MAYALL-THROUGH THE YEARS LIVE 60s to 80s. Cleopatra keeps the legends alive with blurays of NAZARETH-THE FOOL CIRCLE TOUR 1981, AMERICA & FRIENDS-ALIVE AT THE VENTURA THEATRE and TODD RUNDGREN LIVE, performing his 'Todd' LP live.

ACCRA Quartet - Gbɛfalɔi (Limited Edition Natural/Black Swirl) vinyl

Modern avant-garde jazz from Ghana with a funky groove and a bold experimental sensibility.

Recorded on a hot night in a one-room gospel music studio in Accra, comes Gbɛfalsi -- a remarkable record exploring the edges of contemporary African music. It's at once traditional and Avant Garde, extremely local and thoroughly cosmopolitan. Anchored in folkloric instruments and free improvisation, the music is more like the Art Ensemble of Chicago than the court drummers of the Ashanti king.

Bottomless & Witching Altar - Graveyard Thunder Vinyl

This split unites two doom metal bands from Italy and Brazil with all new material respectively.

Graveyard Thunder is aptly titled, for it brings together two doom metal bands, each offering three exclusive new tracks for a total of 40 minutes of bewitching, bottom-heavy sound. BOTTOMLESS bring to mind classic Candlemass, Trouble, and Solitude Aeternus while WITCHING ALTAR complement their split-mates well, for they're just as - if not more! - entrenched in the '70s and early '80s.

Carmen Souza - Port'Inglês vinyl

In Port'Inglês, Jazz speaks a language of freedom that is meaningful to all cultures and blends perfectly with traditional music and rhythms.

Port'Inglês (English port) is a musical tale of Islands. The untold stories of the British presence in Cape Verde and the decolonisation struggle sang in the unique style of Carmen Souza. In this new music, Jazz speaks a language of freedom that is meaningful to all cultures and blends perfectly with traditional music and rhythms, reflecting the multi-layered hybridity of Cape Verde itself.

Evil Dead: The Musical (Original Cast Recording) Vinyl

The musical numbers from Evil Dead are shockingly funny and witty, every bit as mordant and brilliant as the original movies!

From the moment the cast launches into What the Fuck Was That, and Blew That Bitch Away, it's frighteningly clear that Evil Dead: The Musical is nothing like its glittery Broadway siblings. The Musical is a truly unique treasure, sure to appeal to many with its offbeat edginess. Features an extended-length booklet, the storyline, photos from the musical as well as lyrics of the main songs.

The Courettes - The Soul Of...The Fabulous Courettes

New studio album!

A rock'n'roll sensation from the word go, Danish-Brazilian The Courettes are back with their fourth and best album to date - The Soul Of...

The Fabulous Courettes. And this time, they're bigger, wider and deeper than ever before as they add more to the blistering ramalama that's seen them cause pandemonium across the venues, festivals and airwaves of the UK, Europe, USA and Japan. Hitting the sweet spot that straddles garage rock, girl groups, doo-wop harmonies, heartache and all points in between, here The Courettes build on the momentum of predecessor 'Back In Mono' with a collection of songs that opens up their sonic scope while confronting dark, emotional matter to reveal 'The Soul Of The Fabulous Courettes'. "We didn't want to do Back In Mono 2'," stresses drummer Martin Couri. "We always try to put ourselves into a zone of discomfort, which I think is where exciting things happen rather than just doing the same thing over again," agrees singer, guitarist and multi-instrumentalist Flavia Couri. "I mean, I know some bands can do that but we don't see ourselves making the same album for the next 20 years. We thought 'Back In Mono' was our best album until this one!" She's not wrong. Having evolved with each album release, The Soul Of... The Fabulous Courettes draws inspiration from many of the duo's numerous idols that have only previously been hinted at. "We wanted to show our love of the Spector Wall Of Sound and Motown," reveals Flavia. "It was a clear mission and we've absolutely nailed it."

Midnight Force - Severan vinyl

Epic heavy metal from Scotland and Germany. The third album with the most refined material so far!

Scottish/German MIDNIGHT FORCE are a heavy metal band tinspired by US heavy metal, the NWOBHM movement, and '70s rock. Bristling with energy somehow stoic and patient, fit to burst but brewing dark thoughts, The new album "Severan" sees MIDNIGHT FORCE truly taking their influences into a realm entirely their own. Totaling nine songs across 46 minutes, Severan sounds HUGE yet intimate.

New Junk City & Rutterkin - New Junk City/Rutterkin Split 10 Inch 10" Vinyl

A pretty sweet split by some southern homies

The best descriptions for the bands thus far have been "angry green day with a little southern twang" and "emotional like Iron Chic and Latterman but heavier." You can decide which is which! Split albums have gone the way of the water buffalo over the years. We still love them! You should, as well.

Evil Dead: The Musical (Original Cast Recording)

The musical numbers from Evil Dead are shockingly funny and witty, every bit as mordant and brilliant as the original movies!

From the moment the cast launches into What the Fuck Was That, and Blew That Bitch Away, it's frighteningly clear that Evil Dead: The Musical is nothing like its glittery Broadway siblings. The Musical is a truly unique treasure, sure to appeal to many with its offbeat edginess. Features an extended-length booklet, the storyline, photos from the musical as well as lyrics of the main songs.

Roland Van Campenhout - Roland & The Deep Blue Sea Vinyl

Legend, phenomenon, cult figure... the list of such superlatives could go on and on. The man we are talking about here, Roland Van Campenhout, is not at all interested in these descriptions of himself. He is simply a wonderful musician, an impressive guitarist and impressive singer with the blues as his main stylistic device. He is of course able to present it in its more pure, traditional form.

Age Veeroos: Outlines Of The Night CD

This album summarises Age Veeroos' enigmatic style and offers a dreamlike exploration of sounds in which light and darkness intertwine

Elusive and illusory, Age Veeroos' music captures a unique tension between focus and ambiguity. The album Outlines of the Night presents compositions in which, for example, violin and electronics, as in Schattenseele, evoke corresponding sensations of a "shadow soul" through obsessive, circling motifs. This offers a dreamlike exploration of sounds in which light and darkness intertwine.

Daniel Asia - A Mask That Changes CD

Asia provides music that supports the poetry texts and gives them his own curious and idiosyncratic readings...

Music of Daniel Asia with poems of Yehuda Amichai and Paul Pines featuring Jeremy Huw Williams, baritone; Daniel Linder, piano; Robert Swensen, tenor; Tannis Gibson, piano. The musical language is wide & inclusive, always used to bring a deeper meaning and understanding to the texts...it is of course universal in the manner that all fine music is just that - God willing.

Hexx - Morbid Reality [reissue] cp

When speed metal masters turn into death metal!

Hexx formed in 1983 in San Francisco. They evolved from traditional heavy metal to thrash and then death metal. Their debut "No Escape" (1984) and "Under the Spell" established their reputation. They transitioned to thrash with "Quest for Sanity" and "Watery Graves" and further into death metal with "Morbid Reality" (1991). They reformed in 2013 and returned with "Wrath of the Reaper" (2017).

Midnight Force - Severan CD

Epic heavy metal from Scotland and Germany. The third album with the most refined material so far!

Scottish/German MIDNIGHT FORCE are a heavy metal band tinspired by US heavy metal, the NWOBHM movement, and '70s rock. Bristling with energy somehow stoic and patient, fit to burst but brewing dark thoughts, The new album "Severan" sees MIDNIGHT FORCE truly taking their influences into a realm entirely their own. Totaling nine songs across 46 minutes, Severan sounds HUGE yet intimate.

Miklós Lukács - Timeless CD

An acoustic solo album by one of the world's premier jazz cimbalom players, with covers of world-famous songs, such as Somewhere Over the Rainbow

Miklós Lukács returns to pure beauty in these adaptations of popular songs for the cimbalom. Legendary melodies of Keith Jarrett, Ennio Morricone, Sting, the Beatles, Bernstein, and Rezső Seress (Gloomy Sunday) take on a whole new life by the interpretation. His search is for how to perform these songs with the same value as the contemporary canon, as measured by that aesthetic standard.

This purely atmospheric album hovers within a warm & embracing expression of etheric ambience. The meditation on longing, connection, loss, grace & gratitude transmutes from fleeting moments into gentle epiphanies. It's built around the beguiling sound of the Mellotron (a 1963 English instrument, but here performed on a Swedish digital version) & emotional warmth of the Oberheim OB-X8.

The Slits - In The Beginning CD

The groundbreaking female punk band. Remastered raw punk songs from 1977 plus live tracks from the early '80's; feat. Nina Hagen & Neneh Cherry

First seen in 1977 on tour with The Clash, The Slits were known for their uncompromising attitude and confrontational music; still hugely inspiring to many female artists. The album spans an early chaotic punk-era show with classics such as Shoplifting and New Town, evolves into 1980 and their reggae-tinged style as on 'Typical Girls' and ends with a track from their last ever show in 1981.

Toilet Rats - Toilet Rats IV CD

Minneapolis synth-punks Toilet Rats 2023 hit 'IV' on CD for the first time with two brand new bonus tracks.

It's as if Tommy Ratz took a time machine back to 1987 and made a mixtape combining his favorite sounds and VHS rentals from that era. "Carol Kane" references the fright flick When A Stranger Calls, "Walk The Earth" recalls zombies, shopping malls, and helicopters, "Larva" is a nod to Al Jourgenson's dancey thrash side projects, and "Oskar and Eli" recalls a coming-of-age vampire story.

Tulpa - Temple Of Wounds CD

"Temple Of Wounds" is a great combination of strength and attacking spirit with melancholy and fragility.

TULPA are back with a fantastic second album! The guys from Parma are firmly rooted in the Italian scene and have been involved with Whiskey Ritual, Forgotten Tomb and the legendary Kirlian Camera, among others. On "Temple Of Wounds", rugged black metal with crusty vibes meets wistful melodies - a great combination of strength and attacking spirit with melancholy and fragility.

Veonity - The Final Element CD

Defenders of the power metal faith

As power metal slowly turns softer and synth-based, "The Final Element" ensures that this trend gets forever broken! Soaring vocals (courtesy of new frontman Isak Stenvall), twin guitars and mighty choirs - strongly founded on thunderous bass lines and rumbling double bass drums - dominate and define the sixth Veonity's studio album

Warlust - Sol Invictvs In Vmbrae Satanae CD

The blackened death metal horde from Germany is back with a monster of a third album.

Germany's Warlust started out as a black thrash act inspired by Desaster, Zemial and Aura Noir. Unshackling from a blackthrash template, the band went into a stronger black and death metal direction. Meanwhile, WARLUST's simultaneously cryogenic / burning-hot melodicism heighten comparisons to classic Dissection and Necrophobic.

Santana - Live At The US Festival

Santana: Live At US Festival offers a tremendous performance from the legendary Carlos Santana

From award-winning filmmaker and rockumentarian Glenn Aveni, Santana: Live At US Festival offers a tremendous performance from the legendary Carlos Santana, rivaling his set at Woodstock for it's energy, excitement, and inspiring musicianship. Conceived by Apple co-founder Steve Wozniak and music impresario Bill Graham, the US Festival was a transformative event for Santana in his long and illustrious career, and this performance from September 4, 1982 represents the Rock and Roll Hall of Famer at his absolute best.

FEAR WILL GRIP YOU BY THE THROAT WHEN THE EVIL HAND KILLS... KILLS... KILLS...

For those craving a taste of "Euro-Kinski," two of Klaus Kinski's European features are now available in one creepy package. Presented for the first time on domestic Blu-ray, Creature with the Blue Hand (1967) is a mystery-thriller about a series of grisly murders. It's one of several German films based on the novels of Edgar Wallace, many adaptations of which starred Kinski. This time he plays an escaped mental patient who might be the killer. Meanwhile, Web of the Spider (1971) is a classic haunted house tale from Italian maestro Antonio Margheriti, with Kinski as none other than Edgar Allan Poe! It's a diabolical double dose from one of cinema's most controversial and unique figures!

IMAGINE A WORLD WITH COMPLETE ACCESSIBILITY

According to the World Health Organization, 16% of the world's population is designated as disabled. THAT'S 1.3 BILLION PEOPLE WORLDWIDE!

MARK - A CALL TO ACTION is the story of Dr. Mark Bookman, a severely disabled Pennsylvania-born American who later resided in Tokyo full-time, becoming one of Japan's leading experts on accessibility and a policy consultant to governments and major corporations around the world. His tireless efforts helped raise awareness and positively impacted the lives of not only disabled persons, but also children, seniors and vulnerable populations in the United States, Japan and many other nations. Sadly, Mark Bookman passed away just following the principal filming of this film.

"As we learn the remarkable story of Bookman's life and work as a disability activist, a broader picture emerges of the profound ways these issues touch all of our lives."

-Jacob Mazer, Director Education, Bryn Mawr Film Institute

"Like AN INCONVENIENT TRUTH or BOWLING FOR COLUMBINE, this is a must-see documentary on a most important topic. Highly Recommended."

-Matt Davison, The Sound View

- Includes a special introduction by the U.S. State Department Special Advisor on International Disability Rights, which was recorded for the film's World Premiere in Tokyo in February 2024.
- Produced by GLIDE Fund, a 501 (C) (3) organization whose goal is to carry on the legacy of Dr. Mark Bookman and spark dialogue surrounding the ways architects, engineers, educators, policy makers and other interested parties can help improve access to built environments.
- Through the GLIDE Fund, a network of disabled university students will receive grants to travel globally to learn, train, and be motivated to share ideas and bring about greater change and awareness in the community throughout the world.
- From Emmy Award-winning director Ron Small (I Danced for the Angel of Death)

This tale of friendship and survival set in the 1860s focuses on a roguish group of runaways living by their wits and instincts. Two of them are complimentary opposites: Drew (Barry Brown), a good boy from God-fearing stock, out west to evade the draft. Jake (Jeff Bridges), a scruffy scoundrel. They encounter rebels and miscreants and their journey makes them older and wiser beyond their years. Written by Robert Benton and David Newman (Bonnie and Clyde) and directed by Benton (Kramer vs. Kramer).

Romance and adventure abound in this lyrical story of two teenagers who come of age in the isolation of a lush desert oasis. In the nineteenth century Middle East, David (Willie Aames, TV's Eight Is Enough) and Sarah (Phoebe Cates, Fast Times at Ridgemont High) are the only survivors of a caravan massacre carried out by an infamous slave trader known as the Jackal (Tuvia Tavi, Sahara), who is obsessed with Sarah's beauty. Fleeing the Jackal, they stumble on a magical place they will come to know as "Paradise," where they discover refuge, sustenance... and each other.

Behind The Bucket: A Garrison Story

"Behind the Bucket" is a documentary following members of the "501st Legion", who are known as "bad guys"... Star Wars fans who cosplay for charity.

For two years filmmakers followed members of the 501st's Midwest Garrison to investigate why people say they are "Bad Guys Doing Good". These Star Wars costumers may be big kids at heart, but through their fandom, they go above an beyond for those who not only love Star Wars, but those who also need a little help. Through hospital visits, charity events, a musical number with "Weird Al", and many more excursions, you'll see how these "nerds dressing up as plastic spacemen" are able to bring joy, while wiping tears away from the cheeks of those who need it most.

In rural Southern Italy, an emotionally disturbed young woman - "a damn near perfect performance" (Rock! Shock! Pop!) by Daliah Lavi of THE WHIP AND THE BODY - turns to witchcraft to curse her former lover. But is her increasingly alarming behavior due to obsession or possession? Frank Wolff (ONCE UPON A TIME IN THE WEST) co-stars in this still-potent 1963 shocker.

CIA Drugs R Us! A Drugs As Weapons... Sequel

CIA Drugs R Us! is a comic sequel to Drugs as Weapons Against Us covering musicians, activists, Manson and the church sex abuse of The Keepers.

CIA Drugs R Us is a comic sequel to the film, Drugs as Weapons Against Us: The CIA War on Musicians and Activists. The film continues focusing on U.S. intelligence's use of drugs for social control and in the murderous targeting of activists. It particularly covers John Lennon, Kurt Cobain, and Tupac Shakur. The film further details the CIA's Project MK-Ultra involvement with The Manson Family regarding activist actors and The Black Panthers. It also details examples regarding U.S. intelligence, drugs and the antiwar Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). The film then discusses the CIA's MK-Ultra front group, The Human Ecology Fund, continuation, along with Maryland's Catholic Church sex abuse scandal featured in the Emmy-nominated documentary series, The Keepers.

The Project A Collection: 4 Disc Deluxe Limited Edition [4k Ultra HD +Blu-ray]

Starring as a swashbuckling turn-of-the-century coast guard, hot on the trail of cutthroat pirates, smugglers and free-wheeling police officers, Jackie Chan treats his audience to a fun-filled, action-packed motion-picture experience, showing him at his most reckless and brilliant in a film that has become a benchmark standard for other filmmakers to follow.

PROJECT A - Dragon Ma (Jackie Chan, Rush Hour) is a lieutenant in the 19th-century Hong Kong marines. Pirates have been terrorizing local waters, with assistance from the corrupt authorities. Dragon Ma hopes to defeat the evil pirate clan led by Sanpao (Dick Wei), but his plan is short-circuited. Ma then teams with a navy admiral (Hak Suen Lau), a police captain Tzu (Biao Yuen) and a crafty thief (Sammo Hung) in a new round of high-seas battles with Sanpao and his pirates.

PROJECT A: PART II - Corrupt police inspector Chun (David Lam) has made himself the most powerful law enforcement officer in Hong Kong by staging high-profile arrests of the criminals and mobsters with whom he's in cahoots. The British authorities know Chun is a dirty cop but have not been able to infiltrate his inner circle. Enter fearless and incorruptible military policeman "Dragon Ma" Yun (Jackie Chan), who comes back to his hometown to pose as Chun's new right-hand man and take down both cops and criminals.

The Kung Fu Instructor Blu-ray Disc

Inspired by Kurosawa's Yojimbo and Leone's A Fistful of Dollars, The Kung Fu Instructor puts a more cynical spin on traditional codes of honour.

In this bitterly divided town, there's no middle ground; you're either with one side or the other - cross the line and face dire consequences. One clan hires a kung fu master - played by the great Ti Lung (A Better Tomorrow) - to break the stalemate, but he's nobody's servant and his loyalties can't be bought so easily...

The Convent

A group of college students break into an abandoned convent and become possessed by demonic spirits.

In 1960, a young woman named Christine enters St. Francis Boarding School for Girls and lays waste to the resident nuns. Four decades later, a group of college students head to the long-abandoned building late one night to tag it with their fraternity letters, little knowing that rumors of the place being haunted are terrifyingly true. Stir in a couple of disapproving cops and a band of unlikely Satanists, and the table is set for a feast of demonic infestation and bloodshed that only the grown-up Christine (Adrienne Barbeau, THE FOG, SWAMP THING) can possibly stop.

From its opening massacre, set to the strains of (appropriately enough) Lesley Gore, THE CONVENT is an in-your-face fright film with a full-blooded sense of humor. Director Mike Mendez (THE GRAVEDANCERS, KILLERS) both embraces and skewers the traditions of supernatural/possession cinema, with wicked twists that upend expectations and deliver jolts and laughs in equal measure. Not for the devout or the easily offended, the film gives Barbeau one of her best roles as the motorcycle-riding, shotgun-wielding Christine, with bonus appearances by fellow genre icon Bill Moseley (THE DEVIL'S REJECTS) and rapper/ actor Coolio. THE CONVENT rocked audiences at festivals including Sundance and Fantasia, but has long been unavailable on disc. Now you can possess its uncensored U.S. debut remastered in Dolby Vision 4K from the original uncut 35mm Internegative elements and worship the extensive special features!

Killers

The James boys, two of America's most media-oriented killers, have escaped from Death Row. After taking a family hostage their nightmare begins!

Once upon a time, the James Brothers, Odessa (Dave Larsen) and Kyle (David Gunn, VAMPIRE JOURNALS), murdered their parents in their own beds. Now they've escaped from Death Row and are on the run on a stormy night, looking for a place to hide out. They invade the home of the Ryans, who seem like a typical American family and should be easy to control. But there's something not quite right about this brood--the women seem more attracted than frightened by these notorious murderers in their house, and Dad (C.T. Miller) has secrets of his own. Things get violently out of hand as the James boys find the night not going as they expected...and there are even more surprises waiting in the basement! The directorial debut of modern cult-favorite filmmaker Mike Mendez (BIG ASS SPIDER!, THE CONVENT), KILLERS is a highly stylized crime/horror hybrid that also puts a darkly satiric spin on America's obsession with violent perpetrators. After a brutal, hypnotic opening set to Iron Butterfly's "In-a-Gadda-Da-Vida," the script by lead actor Larsen and Mendez begins as a traditional hostage drama, before the twisted nature of the James brothers' "hosts" starts to reveal itself. It all leads to eruptions of gunfire and gore, and a shocking finale that was toned down in previous releases; now it can be seen in its full uncut glory in the unrated director's cut, available for the first time on disc in high-definition!
