KMFDM - PARADISE

HILLS HAVE EYES 2, SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER!

THE HILLS HAVE EYES 2, Wes Craven's 1984 follow up to his classic original 1977 film, finds the lone survivor of a cannibal tribe detouring a motocross team across the desert straight into a pack of devouring ogres! The Hills are alive with the sound of screaming! From ARROW VIDEO, THE HILLS HAVE EYES 2 bluray is packed with extras that includes a limited edition 40-page book. If blinding horror is what you're Craven, then this sequel delivers the goods! THE HILLS HAVE EYES 2 will see you in September, and the ogres will sing 'Bye-bye, so long, farewell!'

Priests who are able to turn into dinosaurs may be an overused theme in film (!) but nobody does it better than WILD EYE films! THE VELOCIPASTOR DVD and bluray finds a despondent priest moving to China to find himself, only to find he can turn into a giant dinosaur. This Jesus Lizard fights crime by preying! And pray the protagonists of THE PREY will do, as this ARROW VIDEO bluray tracks three couples who just want to party in the mountains accosted by a maniacal survivor of a burned out gypsy camp.

A stormclown is brewing in the WILD EYE DVD, CLOWNADO. A murderous group of circus clowns (are there any other!?) are trapped in a tornado conjured by a devious witch. These clowns are intent on destroying everything until they get revenge on that witch.

Real life horror unspools in the DVD, MANSON: MUSIC FROM AN UNSOUND MIND. The premise is Charles Manson murdered because he couldn't get a record deal. If only the internet was available then, cult members could have just followed him on Twitter! And fighting all of this evil are the martial arts masters in the MVD REWIND deluxe edition bluray of MY SAMURAI. Judo your Action Adventure? We do!

Stop your kvetching! TIME LIFE is releasing an all Yiddish version of the current sold out Broadway smash revival of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF! Hear for yourself on the new CD, delivered with chutzpah! Not on the roof, but in the attic was where Sylvia Tyson discovered lost tapes of the legendary folk duo Ian and Sylvia, recorded in the early '70s. Now STONY PLAIN records is releasing over 20 of these unreleased recordings on the 2-CD set IAN & SYLVIA TYSON-THE LOST TAPES. Another unreleased gem is gifted to us by the MADE IN GERMANY label, a live CD/DVD of the legendary WISHBONE ASH with LIVE AT ROCKPALAST 1976.

Add in new releases by THE HANGMEN, THE BLASTERS and KMFDM and you'll know that our scene is not a Hill of Beans!

Agitation Free - River Of Return Vinyl

The long lost album

Already the first sounds show that the Krautrock style still exists, but the music and the production is light years ahead, which is reflected in the very mature production. As on the early albums, the quartet offers a mixture of different styles. This time the mixture consists of rock, blues, jazz and meditative sounds. Including 2 bonus tracks, recorded live in 1972.

Pre-Book:	08/09/2019	UPC:	885513021717	Genre:	Pop/Rock

Borgne - [∞] Vinyl

Cold, inhumane hybrid of Industrial & Black Metal, martial and hypnotic, by veteran Swiss celebrating 20 yrs of chaos

Since 1998, Borgne plays cold, mechanical and inhumane Industrial/Black Metal, as martial as it is hypnotic. Underground and discreet for the first 3 albums until 2009 when Sepulchral Productions released the 4th opus. Everything started then with a European and Canadian tour and several gigs and festivals like Hellfest, Kings of black metal, Under the black sun or Inferno Switzerland.

Paul Chain - Alkahest Vinyl

Paul Chain's masterpiece with Lee Dorrian (Cathedral) on vocals

Probably the best known Paul Chain's release. Alkahest knits together two disparate chapters; the first half of the record is pretty groovy, slightly space rock-flavoured doom that represents a wonderful and psychedelic experience. The last four songs are a descent into madness via grisly, heaving riffs and the alternatively gurning and mournful vocals of Lee Dorrian.

Pre-Book:	08/09/2019	UPC:	8016108031077	Genre:	Metal

Children Of The Sun - Flowers Vinyl

A reincarnation of the 60s feeling of nature, soul and rock music can be found in Children of the Sun's debut album.

Children of the Sun bring back the best part of the vocal harmony hippie era of the 60's and 70's with their album "Flowers". Mixing blues rock with a warm feel good folk/country vibe, their sound is retro yet fresh. Strong influences from Janis Joplin, Free and Joe Cocker, still the band can be placed somewhere in the same atmosphere as The Allman Brother Band, Jefferson Airplane and Canned Heat.

Nortt - Endeligt Vinyl

The new Nortt album 10 years after the landmark album 'Galgenfrist'

It's not the soundtrack to the end of all things, but rather one to the boundless nothing beyond it. Because of its subtlety, it might not seem it at first, but "Endeligt" was worth the wait. It's an album that must be listened to alone, in the dark. In any other setting you might hear it, and maybe even appreciate it, but you won't truly get it.

Panzerfaust - The Lucifer Principle Vinyl

"The Lucifer Principle" is an immensely infectious album that will only make you want to drink the darkness more!

The Lucifer Principle has a very cold and industrial feel to it. There's plenty of sampling and dissonance, but there's also some blast beats to go along with the howling/screams you normally associate with black metal.

Pestilent Death - Chapters Of Depravity Vinyl

A filthy-yet-brooding style of TOTAL DEATH METAL - by death metal maniacs, for death metal maniacs

A filthy-yet-brooding style of TOTAL DEATH METAL - by death metal maniacs, for death metal maniacs. The specter of early '90s Finland looms large as well as the tendrils of influence the original Swedeth wave spread across the underground, but instead of offering slavish replication of yesteryear, Pestilent Death instead spit out a rottenly fresh take on pummeling putridity.

Pretend Collective - Pretend Collective Vinyl

Pretend Collective is the debut LP from Michael Reilly (Hoots & Hellmouth, Ha Ha Tonka).

Pretend Collective's eponymous debut opens with unison pianos populating a great depth of space. Before Pretend Collective, composer and songwriter Michael Reilly made a name for himself as drummer and band member with Hoots & Hellmouth and Ha Ha Tonka. The LP blends classic and modern rock aesthetic in a manner which flows from start to finish, harkening back to the days of the concept album.

Pyramido - Fem Vinyl

Pyramido's fifth album offers a heavy-hearted melodic sludge metal/hardcore attack

Pyramido's new materials breathe and evolve naturally, not being afraid of trying out new tempos, melodies or ideas sometimes foreign to the genre. Then imagine these influences being suffocated by the impact of the heaviness and aggression that is Pyramido, leaving only about a few percent of them passably breathing. The result being a somewhat heavy-hearted and melodic sludge metal/hardcore attack

Saor - Forgotten Paths Vinyl

The new sensational album by Saor, kings of European Pagan black metal

Everything from the performances to the mixing of this record is solid. During the climaxes, the mix sounds like a thoroughly unified, nuanced piece of music, where every musician works together to comprise the overall melody and mood. During their quiet parts, each new phrase played by the members of the band takes the lead, creating perfectly timed and delicate builds that are always interesting.

Deidre & The Dark - Variety Hour

The debut album from Deidre & the Dark

Deidre & the Dark is a cinematic, technicolor world of music conceived by Brooklyn-based songwriter, vocalist & instrumentalist Deidre Muro (founder/former frontwoman of Savoir Adore). Seamlessly blending her love of 60s-era pop, rock, and standards with current electronic production, her fun and soulful tracks dance that magical line between feeling utterly classic and totally fresh. After years as a side project, 2019 sees Deidre & the Dark strut to the foreground with the debut album "Variety Hour" - a record of "nostalgic noir-pop enhanced by modern stereophonics" (Culture Collide), that feels perfectly at home on vinyl. Featuring "One Night" - "...a bold and brassy declaration of love for the 60s girl groups, 70s Philly soul, and modern R&B that delivers the kinds of hooks and euphoria found only in the very best pop records." (WFMU's Sheila B)

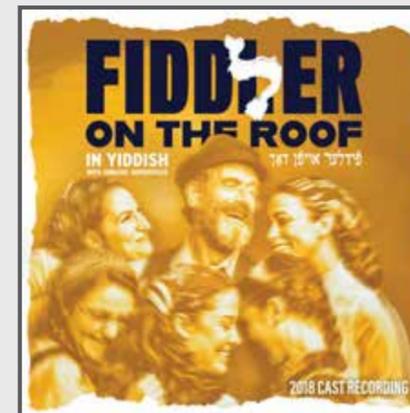

Inspired by the signature format of golden era variety television shows, each of the album's ten tracks takes on a uniquely different character. "As I was writing and imagining the flow of the record," Deidre recalls, "I pictured costume, lighting and set changes, choreography, staging... It really guided the whole creative process for me." Keeping in line with previous Deidre & the Dark releases, the tracks on Variety Hour have a vignette-esque quality, each featuring a leading lady inhabiting her own mini-world. Variety Hour comes after a collection of singles as well as the Curious Parcel EP which features "Classic Girl" - a song which has become a staple of the band's live set, as well as a hit with film, TV & fashion collaborators, and it's own vinyl single release by Coachella record store curator Alex Rodriguez. In addition to curating numerous conceptual events in Brooklyn, Deidre is also a partner at Brooklyn music/audio production studio and record label YouTooCanWoo, where she composes for visual and musical projects and regularly collaborates with bands French Horn Rebellion and Violet Sands.

Children Of The Sun - Flowers CD

A reincarnation of the 60's feeling of nature, soul and rock music can be found in Children of the Sun's debut album.

Children of the Sun bring back the best part of the vocal harmony hippie era of the 60's and 70's with their album "Flowers". Mixing blues rock with a warm feel good folk/country vibe, their sound is retro yet fresh. Strong influences from Janis Joplin, Free and Joe Cocker, still the band can be placed somewhere in the same atmosphere as The Allman Brother Band, Jefferson Airplane and Canned Heat.

Mah Damba - Hakili Kele CD

The return of the Bamako native griotte (bard) adored in every Malian home.

Custodian of a centuries-old cultural heritage, Mah Damba never closed the door to the new. Over the course of some 45 minutes, we measure the extent of her range, as able to rise through the octaves as to dive into the bass. This is the voice, now slightly frayed by the patina of time, powerfully anchored in a tradition that she carries in her inner depths, that makes all the difference.

Daniel Erdmann's Velvet Revolution - Won't Put No Flag Out CD

An album that combines compositional wit with personal expression, an immediately identifiable sound and attitude.

The name of the band, Velvet Revolution, here stands as a cipher for a musical departure, a stylistic renewal that by no means negates history, but unmistakably and highly convincingly creates an individual, progressive form. The subversive power of this musical idea comes by stealth rather than with brazen crowing, which allows it to be all the more sustainable.

Ian & Sylvia Tyson - The Lost Tapes

Regarded as pioneers of the folk & Americana genre, Ian & Sylvia, The Lost Tapes features over 20 unreleased recordings.

Collectively as individuals & as a duo Ian & Sylvia Tyson have sold over 400K albums in the US alone during the Soundscan era.

Regarded as pioneers of the folk & Americana genre, Ian & Sylvia first came to prominence in the early 60's folk scene in Greenwich Village and Yorkville performing alongside Bob Dylan (they were also managed by Albert Grossman), Joni Mitchell and Gordon Lightfoot (who they made famous by being the first to record Early Morning Rain) and were a headliner on the now famous 1063 Newport Folk Festival. Ian's composition "Four Strong Winds" is now considered a standard and a CBC poll in 2005 named it the "most essential" piece of Canadian music. Ian & Sylvia were one of the first artists to explore an electric Country Rock sound recording with both New York and Nashville musicians.

In early 2019 Sylvia discovered a box of old 1/4" analog tapes in her attic that were professionally recorded in the early 1970s in front of a live studio audience. Over 20 previously unreleased recordings, included many of Ian & Sylvia's classics, but also enough to have a full CD of recordings of songs never before included on any Ian & Sylvia album. The Lost Tapes is being released as a special 2 CD set on September 13th, the week prior to Sylvia's induction into the Canadian Songwriter's Hall of Fame. Both Ian & Sylvia have been inducted into the Canadian Music Hall of Fame.

Drown Into Descent - The Endless Endeavor CD

Atmospheric depressive black metal with a showgaze feel!

True to their roots, the Belgians in Drown Into Descent, keep delving into the murky waters between atmospheric black metal, blackgaze and even post-rock. Dealing with the bleak, joyless emotions of life, Drown Into Descent's sophomore album will be a perfect companion during the last winter days, when cold has not let go yet, but days start to grow longer again.

Eko & Vinda Folio - Therapy CD

Eko & Vinda Folio is a duo from Tbilisi, Georgia. "Therapy" is a beautiful, poetic and singular debut album.

Erekle Deisadze & Temo Ezugbaia aka Vinda Folio met in 2012 as they were both students. The Tbilisi duet joined a protest movement, considering music as a vector of social emancipation. Distancing themselves with politically oriented songs, "Therapy", their debut album, delivers an enchanting romanticism, a secret place where each one of us can draw dreams.

Bryan Beller - Scenes From The Flood

Bryan Beller's (Joe Satriani, Aristocrats, Dethklok) epic progressive double concept album feat. 26 all-star musicians.

Bassist/composer Bryan Beller (The Aristocrats, Joe Satriani, Dethklok, Steve Vai) presents a sweeping, epic-scale modern progressive double concept album that asks the question: When the storm comes for us, the big one after which things will not be the same, who are we and what do we become in those defining moments? What do we keep, and what do we let go? "Scenes From The Flood" employs an all-star cast of 26 musicians to explore themes of ambition and loss, intentionality and reality, hope and disillusionment, and uses every second of its 18-song, 88-minute running order to tell an emotionally consuming and unforgettable musical story. Produced and composed by Bryan Beller (except "Angles & Exits", composed by Janet Feder). Mixed and mastered by Forrester Savell. "Scenes From The Flood" is performed by: Christopher Allis, Bryan Beller, Nili Brosh, Paul Cartwright, Darran Charles, Julian Coryell, Mike Dawes, Janet Feder, Guthrie Govan, Ray Hearne, Gene Hoglan, Mike Keneally, Jamie Kime, Fred Kron, Teddy Kumpel, Jake Howsam Lowe, Evan Mazunik, Nate Morton, Rick Musallam, Mike Olekshy, Griff Peters, John Petrucci, Matt Rohde, Joe Satriani, Rishabh Seen, Joe Travers, Leah Zeger.

Keitzer - Where The Light Ends CD

The German MISERY INDEX are finally BACK

While it is not entirely wrong to still name Keitzer "the German Misery Index", the band has ultimately established its very own niche with its latest effort. "Where the Light Ends" sees the quintet effortlessly blasting a way through death metal, hardcore and crust that rips your head off as rigorously as Christian Silva Chaco has expressed himself in his lyrics.

Lyaman - Abyati 19 CD

From Comoros, Lyaman, an ensemble of four singers steeped in Sufism.

Lyaman identifies with a mystical and tolerant Islam in these islands, the Comoros, where religion has long played a role of opening up the world beyond. The singers wish to be heard in a possibly profane setting. These voices, which sing the beauty and the love of God, are in unison, intermingling the rhythmic parts with falsely static partitions, with Indian Ocean orchestrations.

Blasters - Dark Night: Live In Philly

The Blasters create American Music, accessible, energetic rock 'n' roll performed live in Philly. Double CD.

Pure and simple, The Blasters create American Music, accessible, energetic rock 'n' roll, performed live in Philly, seamlessly blending r&b, punk rock, rockabilly, boogie woogie and rock 'n' roll. Their live performances gained them a rabid fan base with a frenetic energy and outstanding musicianship and they were stalwarts in the early 80s L.A. punk scene, performing with artists including Black Flag, The Cramps, X and numerous others. Their music was integrated into a variety of feature films ('From Dusk to Dawn', 'Streets of Fire' and 'Bull Durham') and TV ('Miami Vice', 'Six Feet Under' and 'Billions') and was featured in Gran Turismo Auto 4. From 1978 to 1995, Philadelphia's Chestnut Cabaret was a destination for a Who's Who of rock icons. Everyone from Nirvana to ELP, the Ramones to Judy Collins, Warren Zevon to John Lee Hooker and countless others rocked the house. This incredible live recording of their July 19, 1986 performance at the Chestnut Cabaret was taken directly off the soundboard so the sound quality is exceptional. It's also one of the last recordings including guitarist Hollywood Fats who died less than 5 months after this performance.

PRESS

"the Blasters displayed a wide-ranging musical styles [and] were a supremely tight and tactful band with enough fire, smarts, and passion for two or three"

—Matk Deming, AllMusic

"In my mind, they were a great band that not enough people found out about. Bill Bateman is one of the best drummers there is, and then of course, there are the Alvin brothers. A lot of talent for one band"

—Henry Rollins

"Their tunes are catchy and make your toes tap and your butt shake"

—John Garcia III, Amazon

Pale Grey Lore is all about organized chaos. The psychedelic-metal band mix groaning guitars with elements of 70's rock.

Blending elements of garage psych, space rock, post-punk, and stoner doom, Columbus Ohio's Pale Grey Lore create heavy rock & roll that is sludgy and psychedelic, yet focused and hook-driven. Melodic vocals and subtle harmonies echo alongside thunderous drums and molten bass, while fuzz-drenched reverberating guitars push demon-haunted amplifiers to the brink.

Panzerfaust - The Lucifer Principle CD

Obscure luciferian black metal with a weird feeling

The Lucifer Principle is a conceptual album that analyzes the conditions upon which evil rises in the human heart. A great black metal album, slow and raw, but meticulously worked in a dramatic axis of aggressive harmonies, this is a record that really came to aggregate new elements into the genre.

Pulcinella - CA CD

Wild feel, dancing on the edge, a bit punk - that's the Pulcinella's usual attitude. With Ça (=It), they seem to have shown all of that in broad daylight. The first album they've made to have been shaped by improvisations rather than written pieces, it's also a CD in which they added more space, dreaminess, and apparent stand-stills than in the past.

Pyramido - Fem CD

Pyramido's fifth album offers a heavy-hearted melodic sludge metal/hardcore attack

Pyramidos new materials breathe and evolve naturally, not being afraid of trying out new tempos, melodies or ideas sometimes foreign to the genre. Then imagine these influences being suffocated by the impact of the heaviness and aggression that is Pyramido, leaving only about a few percent of them passably breathing. The result being a somewhat heavy-hearted and melodic sludge metal/hardcore attack

Violet Cold - Kosmik CD

Post black metal, post rock, Alcest, Harakiri for the Sky

Kosmik is a profound and immersive record full of many interesting elements to discover. For his new work, they returned to insert large quantities of black metal into the music, with the album easily classifiable as post-black metal or blackgaze. There is however a persistent elegance in all the tracks of the album since the brutal and dark aspects of black metal have been mostly filtered out

Fiddler On The Roof: 2018 Cast Album

This is the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene's (NYTF) production of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Currently at Stage 42 in NYC

The cast album for the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene's (NYTF) production of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF. Hollywood Reporter calls a "soul-piercing production" which "demands to be seen" and of which the New York Times says, "it offers a kind of authenticity no other American Fiddler ever has." This is the world premiere of FIDDLER ON THE ROOF that is completely in Yiddish. Currently playing in New York to ecstatic reviews, the show has been given new life and renewed attention with this acclaimed revival, featuring direction by Oscar and Tony-winner Joel Grey. This SOLD OUT production has been extended a few times at the National Yiddish Theatre Folksbiene and is currently performing at Off-Broadway's Stage 42. This cast album will include cut songs in English from the Broadway out-of-town tryout from 1964 and will feature star vocalists from Hollywood, Broadway and Television, including Joel Grey, Richard Kind, Hal Linden, Austin Pendleton, Tom Wopat, Donna McKechnie, Joanna Merlin, and Sheldon Harnick.

Mock & Roll

A Spine-Tapping Rockumentary

Featuring the music of Foghat and Black Owls... Ohio parody band Liberty Mean is tapped out, clueless and struggling to raise the needed money to get to the South by Southwest Music Festival where their dreams can become reality. Unfortunately, bad decisions and absurd circumstances lead the band down a dark and stormy road in this frenetic caricature of rock and roll reverie. Featuring special appearances by Roger Earl of the legendary British band Foghat (of "Slow Ride" fame), the North Coast's favorite son Michael Stanley, and Alex Ortiz, the comedian from Comedy Central and HBO, Mock & Roll is no story of 'has-beens'. Instead, it's the tale of 'never-beens' where visions go screwy and time plays against the odds.

PRESS

"It took a few pages from the theatre of the absurd, sprinkled it with a dash of comic tomfoolery and marinated it in pure goofiness"
—Pete Vogel, Pencilstorm

"TWO THUMBS UP - While the film is not nearly as over the top as the classic band mockumentary Spinal Tap, fans will appreciate and commiserate with the film's band, nodding in agreement with many of the harebrained schemes"
—Rick Gethin, MusicInMotion

"It's safe to hop on the 'Liberty Mean' bandwagon and 'surrender' to the will of this lively and welcoming ensemble."
—Nate Adams, TheOnlyCritic

"You don't need to be a groupie to join in on the fun in Mock and Roll"
—DigitalShortbread

"Think of Weird Al if he just did all Beatles parodies...I would very much like to watch another movie with these characters."
—ThatMomentIn

"Mock and Roll is the modern day 'This Is Spinal Tap' and without a doubt deserves to be mentioned with it."
—17cinema_reviews

"Funny and unexpected twists...more in common with The Office or Kevin Smith's debut Clerks."
—RetroRamble

"...about these 4 characters, I really warmed to them instantly."

Find Me Guilty

BASED ON A TRUE STORY.

From Academy Award® Winner* Sidney Lumet (Serpico, Network, Dog Day Afternoon) comes the most hysterically funny testament to bad courtroom behavior since My Cousin Vinny! Vin Diesel (The Fast and The Furious, XxX) "gives a sensational performance" (The New York Times) supported by an all-star cast that includes Peter Dinklage ("Game of Thrones"), Annabella Sciorra (Jungle Fever), Alex Rocco (The Godfather), Ron Silver (Reversal of Fortune) and Linus Roache (Batman Begins) in the true story of the most remarkable criminal trial in US history. Find Me Guilty proves beyond a reasonable doubt that justice has a strange sense of humor!

The Heart Of Man

OUR BROKENNESS IS A BRIDGE, NOT A BARRIER.

The Heart of Man is a story inviting the sons and daughters of God to leave behind our broken, moralistic and religious way of thinking and relating to God and to others. Once we begin to know who God is (and as a result who we are), we have something to invite the world into. Freedom from performance. Freedom from managing our behavior so we appear acceptable to God. Freedom from our addictions, compulsive behaviors, secrecy and double lives. This film tears the veil of confusion over the church's current identity crisis and enables it to invite the rest of the world to the banquet God is throwing all of us. The film features emotional interviews with real people going through their mess and subsequent healing, and includes expert witnesses of such men as William Paul Young, author of the NY Times best-selling novel "The Shack", Dan Allender, Ph.D, author of "The Wounded Heart" and Spoken Word Artist Jackie Hill Perry. All of that is interwoven with a production-rich "prodigal son" narrative story shot in Hawaii.

With the house to herself, a fridge full of food, and a box of drugs stashed in her closet, it's "party time" as usual for this spoiled teen brat. All she has to do is tend to her sick grandma when her father leaves. But then... the phone rings. As the night closes in, Morgan is soon haunted by visions of her dead mother, attacked by her Grandma, and terrorized by a series of bizarre phone calls. Between these disturbing calls, the drugs she has taken, and a few surprise visits from some unexpected guests... Morgan's paranoia grows as she now believes everyone is out to get her. To make matters worse, she keeps forgetting to give Grandma her meds. Will Morgan survive this night of terror? Or will she end up losing her mind throughout the course of these "Close Calls"? This psychedelic, fever dream of a film also features a suspenseful score by Rocky Gray ('The Barn' & '10/31') and Visual Effects by Les Galusha ('Contracted').

Hypnosis To Be Happy DVD

Two lonely beings who haven't found love seek adventure, accompanied by a hypnotic speech on an archaic cassette. Pilar and Felipe are two lonely beings who haven't found love. At the start of their friendship, Felipe decides not to waste any time and, surprisingly, proposes marriage. With an outright refusal, their relationship spins into a desperate, if adventurous, new direction. A hypnotic speech from an archaic seventies cassette introduces Pilar to Felipe's most intimate mantra.

Chicago Cab

It's 20 degrees below zero on a December morning in Chicago and a cab driver picks up his day's first passengers

It's 6 a.m. and 20 degrees below zero on a December morning in Chicago and a cab driver picks up his day's first passengers. This represents 14 hours in the life of a cab driver as he picks up fares from the good and bad parts of the city while emotionally connecting to many of his passengers including a depressed rape victim, stoners, randy lawyers, a drug runner and a race to get a pregnant woman to the hospital. The film was based on the play "Hellcab" by Will Kern and was misleadingly marketed as a horror film, which it's not. 'Chicago Cab' is an interesting and well done and while we don't learn anything too specific about the cab driver, the personalities of his various fares are revealing.

SALES POINTS

- Based on the play 'Hellcab' by Will Kern
- Massive cast of stars including Laurie Metcalf, John C. Reilly, John Cusack, Julianne Moore and many others
- For fans who liked 'Collateral', Jim Jarmusch's 'Night On Earth', Queen Latifah and Jimmy Fallon in 'Taxi' and 'Taxi Driver'
- Soundtrack features Chet Baker, Pearl Jam, Lena Horn and The Grifters
- Nominated: 1997 Chicago International Film Festival : New Directors Competition

Chiller

Chiller is a 5-episode horror/fantasy anthology series originally shown in the UK. The stories involve the supernatural

Part 1..."Prophecy" (52:52, 3/9/95)...When a group of friends hold a seance in the basement of a London cafe they each receive a prophecy. Five years later and the prophecies have started to come true, but who made them and what is the connection with Oliver Halkin and his troubled son Edward? Part 2..."Toby" (52:12, 3/16/95)...Ray and Louise Knight tragically lose Toby, their unborn baby, in a car accident. Although Louise has not made love since the accident, she soon discovers she's pregnant again. A routine scan reveals she is not pregnant, but her body insists she is. Incredibly, she goes to full term and even into labor, but to everyone's bewilderment, there's no baby. Then one night, Louise hears crying from the nursery and finds an old man with special powers who tells her that Toby is present and playing a horrible game with her. Part 3..."Here Comes the Mirror Man" (52:42, 3/30/95)...A social worker takes on a disturbed down and out but may have cause to regret it as her predecessor was murdered in mysterious circumstances. Part 4..."The Man Who Didn't Believe In Ghosts" (52:54, 4/13/95)... Richard Cramer, a professional de-bunker of the paranormal, moves into Windwhistle Hall with his family, only to they find themselves involved in a series of unexplained events and accidents. They must uncover whether it is a series of bizarre coincidences, or hauntings of the former occupant's ghost. Part 5..."Number Six" (53:12, 4/27/95)... Jack Taylor is the homicide detective investigating the murders of five children. Aware that the serial killer is likely to strike for the sixth time, he discovers a connection to an ancient Druidic site, and learns that the consequences of failing to stop the next killing would be far more horrifying and personal than he could ever have imagined.

THE HILLS HAVE EYES 2 [BLU-RAY]

THE HILLS ARE ONCE AGAIN ALIVE WITH THE SOUND OF SCREAMING

in Wes Craven's hugely entertaining follow-up to his own groundbreaking 1977 The Hills Have Eyes. A motocross team on their way to trial a new super-fuel head out across the desert lead by Rachel, who, unbeknownst to the rest of the group, is a survivor of the cannibal clan which menaced the Carter family several years before. Opting to take an ill-advised shortcut across the desert, the busload of youngsters drive straight into the path of the remnants of Rachel's demented cannibal kin.
